July 8 accompanied Supervising Deputy Lucile Huntoon, Deputy Ethel Miller and thirty members of La Bandera No. 110 of Sacramento on a visit to Liberty No. 213, whose officers were installed by Deputy Miller. July 9, Mrs. Briggs was honored at a reception and dance at Elk Grove Park sponsored by Chabolla No. 171 of Galt, Courtland No. 106 N.S.G.W., Fern No. 123 of Folsom, Victory No. 216 of Courtland, Liberty, and Elk Grove No. 41 N.S.G.W. There was a very large attendance and, on behalf of the host-Parlors, Guy Foulks presented a basket of gorgeous gladioli to the Grand President. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Placentia—Grace No. 242 was hostess to all the southern Parlors at a breakfast during the Santa Barbara Grand Parlor, and July 7 President Alice Davis thanked the arrangements committee that made it such a memorable event. July 18 Erna Watts entertained the past presidents at her home; dinner was served at a prettily appointed table. Sophie Kroeger Matter, a charter member of the Parlor, died July 23.—M.E.

Oakland—Past Presidents Association No. 2 honored Mrs. Maud Wagner, retiring past president, at a June 27 reception, and presented her with a beautiful oil painting to adorn her new Walnut Creek home. Other guests of the occasion were Mrs. M. Newman, the mother of Mrs. Wagner, Mrs. Dorothy Johnson and Miss Dorothy Johnson. Harriet Emerson headed the committee in charge of the affair.—E.B.G.

In Memoriam

ALICE O'LEARY.

To the Officers and Members of Aloha Parlor No. 106 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed member, Sister Alice O'Leary, submit the following:

Whereas, In the passing of Alice O'Leary we have lost a worthy member and a true Native Daughter—a member esteemed for her loyalty; and whereas, her passing leaves us with a deep sense of loss and sorrow, we mourn with her loved ones. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That our sincere sympathy be extended to her bereaved family; that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Parlor; that a copy be forwarded to The Grizzly Bear, and that a copy be sent to the family of our deceased sister.

ALBERTA DAY,
THELMA DOBYNE,
ALMA LILIENTHAL,
Committee.

Oakland, June 14, 1938.

LEONORA PROIETTI.

To the Officers and Members of Aloha Parlor No. 106 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft a memorial of love and respect to the memory of our late sister, Leonora Proietti, do herewith submit the following:

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to come again into our midst and remove from our Parlor another loyal Native Daughter; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy to her bereaved husband; that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor; that a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear for publication, and a copy be sent to her sorrowing family.

ADMISSION DAY AT VALLEJO

Publicity Director Vallejo Admission Day Celebration Committee.)

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN TWENTY-four years and the second time in the history of the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, Vallejo, third capital of California and naval capital of the Pacific Coast, will act as host to the men, women and children of California during a four-day celebration of Admission Day, the state's birthday anniversary.

Plans for most elaborate and variegated entertainment, beginning September 8 and coming to an end September 11, are in the hands of a score of sub-committees, all woven into the Vallejo General Admission Day Committee of Vallejo Parlor No. 77 N.S.G.W., headed by Luther E. Gibson, active worker in the N.S.G.W. and publisher of Vallejo's two leading daily newspapers. The secretary of the committee and keyman of the celebration arrangements is W. J. Tormey, Solano County treasurer and former Vallejo mayor, who headed the Admission Day Committee of 1914.

Opening the celebration at noon Thursday, September 8, will be a California Day luncheon at the Vallejo Woman's Club, atop the hill where the third capital of California once stood and where a marker is to be placed the following afternoon by officers of the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Grand Parlors. That evening there will be a public reception and dance, and at Corbus Field, the stadium of Vallejo High School, will be held competitive drills, to be followed by informal dancing.

Friday, Admission Day, September 9, will open with a yacht race from San Francisco to Vallejo Yacht Club harbor. At 10:30 a.m. the Admission Day parade will move, and the indications are that it will be one of the longest and most spectacular in the history of the Orders. Following the parade a luncheon will be served grand officers and distinguished guests, and a barbecue will be spread on the waterfront for the marchers. In the afternoon, there will be street sports and, on Mare Island Channel, under the auspices of the Vallejo Yacht Club, aquatic sports and other competitive events. In the evening, sponsored by the South of Market Boys of San Francisco and the Vallejo branch of that club, there will be a parade of "Horribles." Following that, the most spectacular fireworks display ever attempted west of the Rockies will be presented on the channel front. At the close of the fireworks, dancing will be in order at the Yacht Club and in the Memorial Building halls.

Saturday's events will open at 10 a.m. with cruiser and yacht races along Mare Island Channel, continuing throughout the day. Mare Island Navy Yard will be open to visitors. Special arrangements are being made with naval authorities to permit the visitors an interesting and enlightening tour of the yard, including visits to warships that may be stationed here at the time. In the evening, lovers of sports may witness the annual bay district "grudge" football game between Vallejo High School and Lowell High School of San Francisco, old and friendly rivals for football honors. After the game a magnificent spectacle will be presented by the Vallejo Yacht Club on the waterfront. Competing will be scores of yachts and cruisers moving along the channel in a novel electrical boat parade.

For Sunday, the Vallejo Yacht Club has planned entertainment. The first log-rolling contest ever held in a non-logging community is scheduled for the morning, with swimming events and boat races the remainder of the day. For the four days of the celebration there will be a carnival of unusual interest and other special entertainment features to keep visitors busy every minute.

Committees are busy with the housing, parking and traffic problems, while other committees are handling arrangements for the parade, fireworks display, reception, aquatic and land sports. The final word of the general committee as this story goes to The Grizzly Bear is, "There has never been an Admission Day celebration like the one Vallejo is planning for 1938!" And the invitation is to all Native Sons and Native Daughters and all others who love and revere California to come to Vallejo for one, two, three or all four days and "Celebrate Admission Day with Vallejo and the Native Sons."

FIFTY YEARS AGO

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR GENERAL Phillip Henry Sheridan, Commander-in-Chief of the United States Army who died August 5, 1888, were held in the First Congregational Church, San Francisco, August 19, 1888. General O. O. Howard was the general chairman of the evening, and Rev. Dr. Nourse conducted the religious ceremonies.

The short line railroad of the Santa Fe between Los Angeles and San Diego was formally opened August 11. August 25 an excursion from the "Angel City" carried 750 people to the site where California had its beginning.

Charles Crocker, one of the builders of the Central Pacific Railroad and president of the Southern Pacific Company, died August 14 at Del Monte, Monterey County. Funeral ceremonies at the Congregational Church, San Francisco, August 20 were largely attended. Crocker left an estate of $2,525,963.60.

N. Cadwalder this month presented to San Jose, Santa Clara County, a tract of land for a public park.

A fund of $2,500 was this month raised for a monument to the memory of General A. M. Winn, Founder of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West.

The Republican State Convention met August 1 at San Francisco, and each delegate was assessed one dollar. Judge W. H. Beatty was nominated for Chief Justice of the California Supreme Court.

The steamer Chester was cut in two by the steamer Oceanic in San Francisco Bay, August 22, and thirty-six people lost their lives.

A new daily paper, The Evening Express, made its appearance at Stockton August 6.

A Board of Trade was organized August 8 at Santa Cruz City.

The grape crop of the Livermore Valley, Alameda County, was unusually heavy this season, and growers were demanding $18 a ton.

Twelve-year-old Louise Parker was drowned while gathering clams at Anaheim Landing, Orange County.

Benito Maldonado had three horses stolen August 7 from his Los Angeles County Ranchita. The robbers, pursued by his son and another young man, were overtaken near Bakersfield, and the services of Constable Tibbits were secured. After a fusillade of shots the robbers were jailed.

Mrs. Robert Nelson, residing on School Craft Island near Rio Vista, Solano County, was burned to death August 15.

The Hauser Harvester Works of Stockton were destroyed by fire August 19.

The bark Cassandra Adams, from San Francisco, was totally wrecked August 16 on a reef near Destruction Island.

B. A. Stephens, a journalist, charged with criminal libel by H. A. Bell, was fined $350 in the Los Angeles Superior Court August 25.

L. M. Holt sold the Riverside Press to J. W. Tiffoth August 31 for $20,000.

GEORGIA P. BULLOCK, only woman Superior Court Judge in Los Angeles County, is celebrating twenty-five years of service in the Courts of California this month. Commenting on her long legal and judiciary experience, she said:

"A knowledge of the law, to be utilized for humanity's greatest good, must be linked to the gift of human understanding. It is possible to be scrupulously just and impartial, and at the same time sympathetic and humane, in dealing with humanity's storm-tossed lives in our court rooms."

In a recent public lecture, Judge Bullock sounded a challenge to all women, wherever they might serve to take their place at the side of men, and make their full contribution to the thought patterns which govern the world today. "Women's contribution to Government is greatly needed," she said. "Their loving hearts and wise counsel are needed to cure the hatreds which rule the world and its destinies today."

Educated in public and private schools in the United States and England, Judge Bullock holds a Bachelor of Laws Degree, University of Southern California, 1914—an Honorary Degree, Doctor of Laws, Southwestern University, Los Angeles, and was admitted to practice in the Courts of California in 1913.

My sincere appreciation for the support given me by my many friends who are Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West

Errors Corrected.

Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler has called attention to slight errors that occurred in The Grizzly Bear's summary of the Santa Barbara Grand Parlor proceedings which appeared in last month's issue, and they are here corrected:

Art. VI, Sec. 5, Constitution Subordinate Parlors, amended to provide: "All Checks must be signed by two of the following officers: President, Treasurer, Financial Secretary."

Art XIII, Constitution Subordinate Parlors, amended by adding Sec. 6½: "The holder of an expired Withdrawal Card shall be allowed to rejoin the Parlor," etc.

The proposal "that a member of a Subordinate Parlor may nominate herself for office in that Parlor," was not adopted.

Jennie Clark Brown—A Tribute.

San Francisco—The passing of Jennie Clark Brown, a native of San Francisco and a member of Piedmont Parlor No. 87 N.D.G.W., Oakland, serves as a reminder of her services to the Order as chairman of the Betsy Ross Memorial Committee, a service which gained for her the affectionate sobriquet of "Betsy Ross." Due to her suggestion and persistent patriotism, the flagpole now standing in Lincoln Park, San Francisco, at the end of Lincoln Highway, was erected as a memorial to Betsy Ross, the maker of the first American Flag.

It is well, for a reminder in this day of unrest and uncertainty, that loyalty to our nativity be more than ever our guide. And in recalling the activities of one who gave much of herself to a patriotic endeavor to create a memorial to another woman whose efforts in her day proved epoch-making, we find such a reminder. In the reading of the inscription on the flagpole, it will be observed it is more than a marker for the end of a highway. It is, primarily, a tribute to a woman whose name is of historical interest. Jennie Clark Brown was ever enthusiastic in her loyalty to her country and its traditions.—MAE B. WILKIN, Past Grand President.

The Humboldt County Fair is to be held August 18-21 at Ferndale.

Hollister, San Benito County, will have a rodeo August 25-27.

Susanville, Lassen County, will have a rodeo August 26-28.

SANTA BARBARA

CALIFORNIA'S QUEEN CITY

"If You Like California You'll Love Santa Barbara"

SANTA BARBARA'S FAMOUS OLD SPANish Days Fiesta, which has become a nationally recognized celebration, will officially begin with the usual reception at Santa Barbara Mission the evening of Wednesday, August 10, and continue until midnight of Saturday, August 13. In magnificent parades and pageants, and any number of colorful, informal entertainments reminiscent of the hospitality and gayety of the community's Spanish period, Santa Barbarans, in quaint costumes typical of other days, will recapture the charm and romance of early California. In short, Santa Barbara "goes Spanish" again!

The famous historic parade occurs at 3 p.m. of August 11. A marching history of old Santa Barbara, it is an unforgettable spectacle. Nowhere else in the world can one see so many superb horses and bejewelled silvery saddles, and such an array of equippages of bygone times as in this magnificent parade.

Each evening during the celebration a pageant-play, "Early California," written and directed by Charles E. Pressley, is performed in the Santa Barbara County Bowl, located in a cluster of scenic hills close to the city. Hundreds of talented Santa Barbarans portray episodes in the glamorous days of Spanish-California. The pageant is rich in dramatic and historical interest.

SHERIFF'S POSSE SUPPER.

One of the outstanding features of the Old Spanish Days Fiesta is the sheriff's posse supper sponsored by Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. in honor of Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz and mounted posse of Los Angeles. Every year they appear in the historic parade and participate in all fiesta activities.

The sixth annual sheriff's posse supper will be held at the Montecito Country Club at 6 p.m. of August 11. This supper is not a public affair, but is for Native Sons and Native Daughters, their wives and husbands, and invited guests. Accommodations are limited, so those who make reservations early—$2.25 per plate in the main diningroom, $2.00 in an auxiliary room—will be the only ones certain of being admitted.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes A. C. Dinsmore, chairman, Harold T. Campbell, Harry C. Sweetser, C. Wesley McCormick, Frank Castro, John Fryberg, John Jordano, Captain W. H. Rutherford, Jack Ross, Frank Huffman, Ray Lathim, Captain I. A. Bonillo, Walter Cummings, Leland Holiday, Walter McIntosh, President A. J. Janssens, Archie Bates, Vince Brocott and Paul Hubble. Reservations should be made through Chairman A. C. Dinsmore, 909 East Carpinteria, Santa Barbara.

HARD WORKER SURPRISED.

Called to attend a business meeting of the officers and members of Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. active in entertaining the Grand Parlor in June, Dr. Anna E. McCaughey, general chairman, was completely surprised to find her associates had arranged a congratulatory party in her honor. President Dorothy A. Yule presided, and presented a pair of travel bags to Dr. McCaughey.

As an advance feature of the Santa Barbara Old Spanish Days Fiesta, Reina del Mar July 31 placed a marker at the historic Orella ranch just beyond El Capitan on the Coast highway. This is one of a chain of markers to be placed across Santa Barbara and Ventura Counties to honor pioneer families.

Mrs. Justine Loustalot-Meloling, marshal of the Parlor, passed away suddenly July 23, survived by two sons. She was a native of Las Cruces, Santa Barbara County.—J.F.D.

FIFTY-YEAR-OLD CABRILLO HAS REVIVAL MEETING AT VENTURA.

Cabrillo Parlor No. 114 N.S.G.W. of Ventura has had an awakening, due to the efforts of President Dave Bennett, Superior Judge Louis C. Drapeau and Deputy Sheriff Edmund Hearne, and will soon be functioning normally again.

July 6 forty-five members of Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 attended a revival meeting of Cabrillo at which eleven candidates were initiated by the ritual team of No. 116 headed by Paul Sweetser, and including Weston Learned, Leland Holiday, Andrew Ryce, James E. Sloan, Albert T. Eaves, Captain W. H. Rutherford, Frank Huffman, I. M. Bonillo and Dan Taylor. The Santa Barbara caravan was in charge of District Deputy A. C. Dinsmore, President A. J. Janssens, Secretary Harry C. Sweetser, Walter Cummings and Ray Lathim.

In attendance at the Cabrillo meeting were several of the old-timers, among them Adolph Camarillo, a charter member of the Parlor, which was instituted in 1888, and Dave Bennett, who has continued as the Parlor's president during the years of inactivity. At the conclusion of the meeting all gathered around the festive board. A Spanish orchestra furnished music, and there were enthusiastic addresses by Judge Drapeau, Frank Orr, Robert Sheridan and others. In charge of arrangements for Cabrillo were Ed. Hearne and Joe Parr.

NATIVES SHOULD ASSUME THEIR RIGHTFUL "PLACE IN THE SUN."

At the annual barbecue and outing of Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. at Stow's ranch near Goleta, Raymond Haight of Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W., Los Angeles, was the speaker of the day, his subject being "What the Native Sons Mean to California." He urged the Native Sons and Native Daughters to assume greater responsibility in the life and civic affairs of California, and "no longer be satisfied with sitting back and exclaiming they are natives of the grandest State in the Union. . . . All of us should give heed to the responsibilities that are our rightful heritage."

Donald Sykes was heard in several baritone solos, Miss Rosamond Meyer was seen in Spanish dances, and Harry Sloan was brilliant in his impersonation, "A Roosevelt Fireside Chat." Frank Huffman and Stanley Barber were the general chairmen, and W. J. McCaffrey had charge of the barbecue. Assisting in carrying out details were L. Jim Gammill, Ray Lathim, John McCaughey, Vince Grocott, Leo Cordero and John Fryberg.

July 10 the "Caballeros Nativos," the riding group of Santa Barbara Parlor, enjoyed its first organized horseback excursion. Eighteen members journeyed into the Santa Ynez Mountains, where a noon barbecue was served.

CALIFORNIA FIFTY YEARS AGO

Thomas W. McAuliffe

Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

ADMISSION DAY, THE THIRTY-EIGHTH anniversary of California's admission to statehood, was celebrated under the auspices of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West in Santa Cruz Monday, September 10, 1888, with a parade one and a half miles long. Governor Robert W. Waterman and daughter and General M. G. Vallejo occupied carriages and were generously applauded. The Society of California Pioneers celebrated the day at Camp Taylor.

There was a generous rainfall—the first of the season—throughout the state September 14.

The California State Fair opened at Sacramento September 10. A heavy rain stopped the last day's racing.

Rejoicing over the signing of the Chinese Exclusion Act by President Grover Cleveland, 100 guns were fired in San Francisco.

The cornerstone of Freeman College,—gift of Daniel Freeman—a branch of the University of Southern California, was laid at Inglewood, Los Angeles County, September 24.

W. E. Dargie defeated Senator Henry Vrooman for the Republican nomination for state senator from Alameda County September 3. It was charged that Vrooman, while acting as senator, accepted a $2,500 fee from property owners to oppose granting a franchise to James G. Fair to run a steam railroad out Telegraph avenue, Oakland.

Disgraceful scenes marked the San Francisco primaries September 27. There were many fights, and several persons were seriously injured. David Donohue was killed in the rooms of the Republican County Committee.

In the United States Circuit Court at San Francisco September 3, Justice Stephen J. Field rendered a lengthy decision in the famous Shaim-Terry case, declaring the marriage contract a forgery. While reading his decision Justice Field was frequently interrupted by Mrs. Terry, who was ordered taken into custody. This so enraged Judge Terry he drew a knife and threatened to use it on anyone who dared touch Sarah Althea. For contempt of court, Judge Terry was sentenced to six months in the Alameda County jail, and his wife was given thirty days.

By the burning of Dougherty's sawmill September 1, eighty men were thrown out of employment at Boulder Creek, Santa Cruz County.

Fire raging in the San Fernando Mountains of Los Angeles County September 2 destroyed thousands of acres of grain.

Wm. Perry sold the Amador Dispatch to W. J. McGee and G. W. Daugherty September 1.

The Lake building in San Diego, occupying an entire block of land, was destroyed by fire September 4. The loss was $350,000.

Miss Alice Parker was admitted to the practice of law September 4 by the State Supreme Court.

Mrs. Hattie Lemon, wife of Treasurer John B. Lemon of Solano County, died September 6 at Fairfield, where she had resided since 1852.

The public schools of Saint Helena, Napa County, closed September 7 for three weeks to give those students who so desired an opportunity to pick grapes.

Fire broke out September 3 in the regalia room of the Los Angeles Masonic Temple, occupying the upper floors of the new Los Angeles National Bank building, and did immense damage. All the elegant uniforms and regalia of the Knights Templar were destroyed.

Luther R. Mills, who came to California in 1849, died September 8 at San Jose.

The Santa Rosa, Sonoma County, Woolen Mills suspended operations September 10.

Rich discoveries of gold on Soda Creek, near Dunsmuir, Siskiyou County, caused intense excitement.

For the murder of John Lowell March 24, John Henry Myers, John Olsen and Wm. Drager were convicted of first degree murder at Placerville, El Dorado County, September 8.

A terrific fire in San Francisco, in the district bounded by Market, Howard and Beale streets and the water front, destroyed several industries and caused an immense loss. Wm. Birch was cremated.

James Steele, a conductor on the North Pacific Coast Railroad, was run over and killed at Duncans Mills, Sonoma County, September 10.

Mrs. Bush was shot and killed by her husband September 11 at Mokelumne Hill, Calaveras County.

Alexander Goldenson was hanged September 14 in the San Francisco jail yard for the murder of 14-year-old Mamie Kelly in 1886. Sheriff McMann was offered $15 and $20 for tickets of admission.

Postoffices were established this month at Lowry, Tehama County; Novelty, Siskiyou County, and Echo, El Dorado County.

There was a sharp shock of earthquake September 17 at Gilroy, Santa Clara County, and Santa Cruz City.

Thomas Findley, former state treasurer, died September 19 at Georgetown, El Dorado County.

Superior Judge Leon D. Freer of Butte County, died at San Francisco September 19.

John D. Works of San Diego was appointed an Associate Justice of the State Supreme Court, to succeed E. W. McKinstry, resigned.

County Clerk McCabe and Editor S. L. Hanson of the Herald had a mixup in the Merced Postoffice September 28, because of an attack made against McCabe in the Herald.

The season's first solid train of raisins left Fresno City September 27 for Boston, Massachusetts.

Davis Green of San Diego, the father of eleven living children, September 1 shot and killed his wife, took a shot at a young man named Mahan, and then blew out his brains.

By the bursting of a cannon at a Tulare City political meeting September 4, Thomas Bogan was instantly killed.

Ignited by a locomotive, 1,300 feet of Southern Pacific snowsheds near Truckee, Nevada County, burned September 7.

The Oregon express was wrecked September 9 at Rawson's Switch, near Red Bluff, Tehama County.

The schooner Bessie Everding, loaded with ties and lumber, went ashore September 10 at Eureka, Humboldt County.

Frank Fay, notorious firebug of the Antelope Valley and the Newhall district, Los Angeles County, was September 11 sentenced to eight years in Folsom.

Mrs. Downer's new hotel and the Catholic Church of Brown's Valley, Yuba County, were destroyed by fire September 10.

Thomas B. Patton, former clerk of El Dorado County, died September 12 at Georgetown, that county.

A fierce fire raged September 9-12 in the Santa Cruz Mountains ten miles from Gilroy, Santa Clara County.

In San Francisco September 13, J. H. Gilmour of the Post swore out a criminal libel warrant for the arrest of John P. Irish of the Alta.

Geo. Spires, 15-year-old Likely, Modoc County, lad, was thrown from his horse and killed September 6.

John Merrill's residence at Crescent Mills, Plumas County, burned September 11, and his 5-year-old daughter perished in the flames.

Wm. R. Wheaton, prominent member of the earlyday San Francisco Vigilance Committee, died September 12 at Oakland.

The telegraph office at San Pablo, Contra Costa County, was struck by lightning September 16.

Al Iverson of Steiner Flat, Trinity County, September 11 shot and killed his wife while she was asleep and then committed suicide.

James Kennedy fell down a mine shaft at Bridgeport, Mono County, September 17 and was instantly killed.

Andrew M. Thomas, a printer who arrived in Sacramento in 1850, died there September 19.

Mayberry Davis, former Colusa County sheriff, died September 19 at Colusa City.

The steamer Farralone ran into the wharf at Eureka, Humboldt County, September 18 and spilled 30,000 shingles into Humboldt Bay.

The Citizens Bank of Nevada City, Nevada County, took over the First National Bank of Grass Valley September 20.

A violent windstorm at Perris, San Diego County, September 17 wrecked a church, a livery stable and the postoffice.

While walking through the sagebrush near Barstow, San Bernardino County, September 22 George Jones was shot dead by someone unknown.

The British ship Refrigedeva went ashore near San Pedro, Los Angeles County, September 25.

Farmer McCourtney of Tehama County trapped several coyotes during the month and received $10 for each pelt.

Andrew Fowler, in charge of the Princeton, Colusa County, ferry a quarter-century, died there September 22.

A new $15,000 school, a gift to the Brittan school district from the Sutter County Land and Improvement Company, was dedicated September 20 at Sutter City.

Intense feeling against the Chinese developed this month at Truckee, Nevada County.

THE FALLEN CHIMNEY

(BETTY L. WHITSELL.)

And hold the secret of a cabin home.
Built in the fifties—in the mountain pass,
When all the world was filled with urge to roam.
And lo! this is the chimney that once stood
As someone's pride—a symbol of his cheer,
Whose life was centered in this templed wood,
High-privileged in peace from year to year.
Perhaps, while close beside the chimney blaze,
He gilded all his strange and youthful dreams,
And talked and hoped for full and happier days,
When he would find a fortune in the streams.
Ah, time! I stand beside these stones and frown
Why must you always knock men's castles down?

"There is no place for a liar in decent society. The person who thinks he can get by with deceit, misrepresentation and fraud is merely fooling himself."—Phil Conley.

VALLEJO---A FRIENDLY CITY

A BRIEF HISTORICAL DIGRESSION AND AN OPTIMISTIC OUTLINE OF VALLEJO'S PLANS TO ENTERTAIN ALL CALIFORNIA

VALLEJO, HISTORICALLY, DOMESTICALLY and industrially established in the front rank of California cities, will extend itself in September 1938 to entertain the greatest host of Admission Day celebrants ever assembled outside the great metropolitan centers of the Golden State.

Those who have come to Vallejo before, those who will come in September and those who will come in future years have found and will find in Vallejo that rare intermixture of cosmopolitan energy and crossroads neighborliness that entitle it to the appellation "A Friendly City."

Vallejo is proud of its Native Sons and its Native Daughters, but it is equally proud of its adopted sons and daughters who have swelled its population in a few decades from hundreds to nearly 30,000, and have builded into the civic structure their lives, their energies, and their diversified and valued ideas and ideals.

ing northern California figure of those times, made plans to bring the state capitol from San Jose, where it had sojourned since leaving Monterey, first capital, and to win his point offered the State Legislature a capitol site and $370,000 in gold as an inducement to move north.

The gold won the General's point for him, and in 1852 the State Legislature came, bag and baggage, to Vallejo, to meet in a new two-story building on top of "Capitol Hill," which is now a residence district bounded by Santa Clara, Sacramento, Maine and York streets. The Legislature remained for a single session, when it became known that the doughty General was unable to fulfill his promise of the gold. Thereupon the errant lawmakers moved on to Sacramento, where they remained until floods drove them seaward to Benicia. Of course, in the end, Sacramento won and this phase of California history was closed.

But the Legislature accomplished one noteworthy act. Scouting the General's suggestion that the city be called Eureka, the enthusiastic lawmakers, not forgetting the promise of gold, decided the city, or town, should be named after their benefactor, and it was definitely named "Vallejo." Incidentally, it was this same Legislature that adopted for the rolling country to the north and east of the city the name "Solano County." This was the desire of General Vallejo, and the name was to do honor to Chief Francisco Solano, born Sem-Yeto, an Indian who was the White man's friend in those hectic golden days.

On another page will be found a brief historical story of Mare Island and the Mare Island Navy Yard, but here it is interesting to note that the Federal Government reserved Mare Island for government purposes in November 1850, only two months after California was admitted to statehood. So, the growth of Vallejo was inextricably interwoven with the development of the government's first west coast shipyard. In the late nineteenth century the city's growth may be attributed to the advancement of the navy yard, combined with the yield of the great wheat-raising country of the inland valleys.

As early as 1860 General Frisbie was shipping cargoes of grain from Vallejo to the east coast and to European ports. The great wheat-producing back country turned to the natural inland harbor for the marketing of its yield, and in 1869 the Vallejo Elevator was erected in what is now South Vallejo. This elevator was later to become the Star Mills, then Sperry, and now the Sperry plant of General Mills Inc. And it is the great half-million dollar Sperry Mill with its million-barrel annual capacity that ranks second in Vallejo industry to the great Mare Island Navy Yard.

The city government has advanced with the times and the population growth. From a board of trustees, or selectmen, city government has gone to the charter form. Today a mayor and two commissioners hold the reigns of government.

The mayor's department is that of public affairs, the commissioners, respectively, are responsible for public works, and public health and safety. Incumbent at the present time are Mayor Fred H. Heegler, Commissioner of Public Works Frank Brew and Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Edward J. Blanco. The latter is chairman of the Girl of the Golden West Contest Committee for the Admission Day celebration.

Views of Which Vallejo, Admission Day Host City of 1938, is Justly Proud.

And so it is that the entire population of this friendly city will turn out September 8, 9, 10 and 11 to greet some 50,000 Native Sons, Native Daughters and others who may trek here from the far corners of California, and make them feel at home during the greatest of many great observances of the anniversary of the admission of California into the Union of States, September 9, 1850.

Now, a few words about Vallejo and Vallejoans before describing in detail the elaborate and outstanding program of entertainment Vallejo and the Native Orders have prepared.

Founded back in 1848 by a group of far-seeing prospectors, men who realized the strategic advantages of its inland harbor as a half-way station between San Francisco and the gold fields of the Sierra, the town was unofficially dubbed "Eden." Others who followed found the name not particularly suitable to their tastes—gold being the thought in every mind—and the town became known as Eureka, "I have found it."

But, in 1850, General Mariano Guadalupe Vallejo, Spanish soldier and gentleman and lead-

MARE ISLAND PHOTOGRAPHS.

The Vallejo Admission Day Publicity Committee is indebted to the photographic department of Mare Island Navy Yard for the excellent navy yard reproductions appearing in this issue of The Grizzly Bear. They were released for publication through the office of the Commandant, Rear Admiral Davis W. Bagley.

Vallejo's police and fire departments have established enviable records in their respective fields. Low insurance rates are attributable to the work of both departments. A low crime record is due to the activity and organization of the police department, together with the co-operation of shore patrols from the navy yard.

Vallejo's schools, managed by a Board of Education in a unified school district which includes suburban areas, rank among the first in California, in beauty as well as in educational results.

Almost every sect has its church edifice here, as do all important fraternal organizations. Having their own buildings and taking an active part in community life are the Masons, Odd Fellows, Red Men, Knights of Pythias and Elks. Here there is a beautiful Veterans Memorial Building, erected by the County of Solano to house its veterans organizations and to serve as a public auditorium.

To the original city park there are soon to be added a beautiful suburban park at Blue Rock Springs and along the waterfront adjacent to Vallejo Yacht Club. Here is the best, or one of the best, striped bass fishing areas in the world. Fishermen are at their angling every day of the year in the Napa River, Mare Island and Carquinez Strait and in adjacent bay waters.

Vallejo's yacht club is the home port of a hundred yachts, cruisers and small boats, and a project now under consideration will add another 100-boat capacity to accommodate boating enthusiasts of the bay region. Golfers are accommodated on a nine-hole course at the Vallejo Golf Club, adjoining the beautiful Vista de Vallejo home district. Sports are centered in two high school stadiums and the Moose Recreation Park east of the city.

The Navy Y.M.C.A. provides entertainment for enlisted men and officers of the fleet and marines, as well as for local business and professional men and the youth of the city. Hotel accommodations are limited, owing to the fact that Vallejo is so near the great bay cities, and to the permanent nature of its home-loving and home-owning populace.

And so, briefly, this is the city that will welcome the great Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West in September, and here is a bit of information about the entertainment her guests may expect:

OFFICIAL PROGRAM

THURSDAY, September 8, the annual California Day luncheon, to be held in the Woman's Club Building, under the auspices of the Vallejo Woman's Club, with a program expressly prepared by the Literary Committee of the General Admission Day Celebration, 12 noon.

Thursday evening there will be a public reception and dance at Casa de Vallejo, 6 to 9 p.m., and an informal dance at Veterans Memorial Building beginning at 10 p.m. and lasting until the dancers say "quits." There will also be dancing and open house at the Vallejo Yacht Club from 9 to 2.

Also this evening, at Corbus Field, Vallejo High School Stadium, the annual competition between Native Sons and Native Daughters drum corps and drill teams will be held, with intermission at 9 o'clock for the crowning of the Girl of the Golden West and her accompanying California Caballero. For the competitions, thirteen teams had already entered when this article was written, and indications were several more entries would be received. Here is assurance of the greatest competition in years, due to the increased number of entries.

FRIDAY, September 9, Admission Day will be ushered in by the arrival in the morning from San Francisco and other bay points of a hundred yachts, noted swimmers and divers for the aquatic events, and hordes of celebrants and parade participants.

The great Admission Day parade, feature of all celebrations, is scheduled to start at 10:30 a.m., and the level two-and-one-half-mile line of march assures a good spot for everyone to watch.

Following the parade there will be a barbecue for marchers on a field near the waterfront, while a special civic luncheon will be given at Casa de Vallejo. Invited to this featured affair are Governor Frank F. Merriam, Mayor Fred H. Heegler, mayors and supervisors of surrounding cities and counties, grand and past grand officers of the Native Sons and Native Daughters and members of the local committees.

Grand President N.S.G.W. Joseph J. McShane of San Francisco and Grand President N.D.G.W. Edna B. Briggs of Sacramento will be honored at the luncheon, and the Girl of the Golden West, winner of the contest now under way, will be guest of honor. Lewis F. UNCLE SAM'S SHIPBUILDING PLANT---MARE ISLAND AT VALLEJO

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT'S FIRST WESTERN NAVY YARD

VALLEJO HAS ITS AURA OF ROmance, its earned pages in California history, yet Vallejo has progressed evenly and surely on because of its equally famous mate in harness, Uncle Sam's hundred-million-dollar shipbuilding plant, Mare Island Navy Yard, the "Isle of the Mare." Only two months after California was admitted to statehood, President Fillmore, upon recommendation of Commodore Sloat, reserved Mare Island for Federal Government purposes.

Two years later, in 1854, Commodore David G. Farragut came to California to take over Mare Island as the first commandant of the first Pacific Coast navy yard. From Commodore Farragut, down through a long line of illustrious commandants to the commandant of today, Rear Admiral David W. Bagley, these navy men in charge of the great shipbuilding plant have included in their hopes and plans for Mare Island thoughts of a greater and finer Vallejo, the home of their thousands of workmen.

Yacht California Anchored Off Vallejo Yacht Club, Showing Mare Island Waterfront in Background.

The first ships to glide down the primitive ways of the late nineteenth century were massive structures of timber, far different from the welded steel battleships that line the seawall today.

The first drydock at the yard was a cumbersome floating affair, built in New York, knocked down, and reassembled at the yard after a long journey around Cape Horn. The second drydock, which took nineteen years to build and was completed in 1891, is 508 feet long and rests on an excellent rock foundation of cut granite blocks. Another drydock, 740 feet long, was completed in 1910, after eleven years of construction. Both these docks still serve the yard. And today, under construction and to be completed within three years, is a dock to cost $3,500,000, longer and wider than the second, and capable of docking the largest vessels.

Since the little wooden frigate, U.S.S. Saginaw, slid down the ways nearly three-quarters of a century ago, Mare Island Navy Yard has built hundreds of seagoing craft, from the smallest tugs to the great battleship California, with a displacement of 32,300 tons, length of 626 feet, and twelve fourteen-inch guns.

The record for speed established by the yard on Mare Island is in the destroyer U.S.S. Ward, seventeen days from keel-laying to launching, a war time effort that may never be beaten. Here was laid the keel of the U.S.S. Montana, September 1, 1920, but, due to provisions of the limitations of armaments pact, it was scrapped when only twenty-seven percent completed, in 1921. Steel plates, guns and other parts of the Montana still lie waiting to be used, their measurements unsuitable for the smaller craft of today.

About Mare Island, a writer could go on and on—could relate the story of each of the eighty-seven vessels launched there, could tell of the ideal working conditions, and of the excellent craftsmanship of its men and their steadying influence upon the city in which they reside.

Descriptive of the island, it is only necessary to say that the magnitude of its shops, its seawall, its ways and drydocks, and the magnificence of the ships in harbor there at all times, are only equaled by the rustic beauty of its cisco district attorney, will be speaker of the day.

The afternoon, or what there is left of it, will be devoted to street sports and games arranged by a special sports committee, and to the enjoyment of the Crafts Shows, which have been assigned space along the waterfront for the term of the celebration.

A special event at 4 p.m. will be the placing of a marker on the site of the old Vallejo State Capitol, third capitol of California, at York and Santa Clara streets. And, at 5 o'clock, a wreath will be placed on the grave of the late Grand Marshal Joseph Clavo in St. Vincent's Cemetery.

Two great spectacles, of a magnitude never before attempted in an Admission Day celebration, will be the mammoth fireworks display on the waterfront the night of Admission Day and the "Parade of Horribles," arranged by a special committee of the South of Market Boys of Vallejo. The parade of "Horribles," lacking the dignity and beauty of the great Admission Day parade, will make up in fun what it lacks in impressiveness. No entry will be permitted except there be a high degree of horror or an excess of comedy. Frankenstein himself would shudder, could he attend, say the committeemen.

The fireworks display, to be staged through the co-operative efforts of the Shell Oil Company, will be the greatest aerial extravaganza ever attempted west of the Rockies, according to the Fireworks Committee. Mammoth set pieces will vie with new-type bombs and sprays for forty-five minutes after darkness lowers over Mare Island Channel.

Later, at 9:30 p.m., there is scheduled the annual grand ball at Veterans Memorial Hall, and at 10 o'clock there will again be open house and dancing for all at the Yacht Club. The carnival on the waterfront will continue far into the night, and nearby night clubs and highway entertainmet spots are preparing special features for the event.

SATURDAY will be the great aquatic day of the festival, with the Vallejo Yacht Club in the "driver's seat." Here are a few of the day's events: 11 a.m., rowboat tug-of-war; 11 a.m., log rolling contest for men; 2 to 4:10 p.m., channel swims for men and women, comedy diving, 50-yard free style races for men and women, 50-yard backstroke races for men and women, fancy diving for men and women, 100-yard backstroke.

9 p.m. to 2 a.m., dancing at the Yacht Club. 9:30 p.m., electric boat parade on Mare Island Channel. The committee guarantees this will be the greatest water spectacle ever witnessed by the visitors.

SUNDAY afternoon there will be cruiser, whaleboat, skiff and rowboat races on the channel, and all Vallejo will turn out to bid Godspeed, and an invitation to return, to the last of the 1938 Admission Day joy-sated guests!

THE WORKERS

None but a hard-working, persistent and co-operative group of citizens could have undertaken such a gigantic program of entertainment as has been prepared for the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West, and thousands of other celebrants, from all California points who will visit Vallejo during the 1938 Admission Day celebration September 8 to 11.

Only such a group would have undertaken this momentous task, and only such a group could hope for and attain success. Headed by Luther E. Gibson, publisher of the Vallejo Times-Herald and Evening Chronicle, as general chairman, the following committees are responsible for the pleasure that awaits all who visit Vallejo for California's birthday festivities: residential lanes, the beauty of its parked areas and the cordiality of its official welcome.

Executive—Luther E. Gibson, chairman; T. J. O'Hara, Harry G. Williams, W. J. Tormey, S. J. McKnight.

Luther E. Gibson, General Chairman Vallejo Admission Day Celebration, Publisher Vallejo Times-Herald and Evening Chronicle, Vice-president Vallejo Chamber of Commerce.

Budget and Finance—T. J. O'Hara, chairman; George C. Demmon, Dan Foley, Edw. J. Blanco, J. J. Madigan.

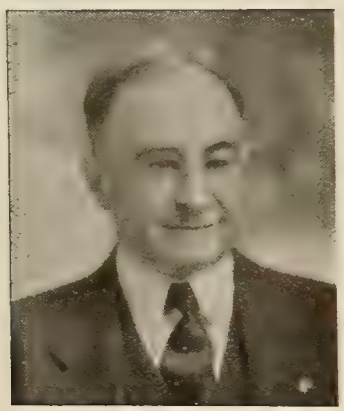
For the Admission Day celebration, Rear Admiral Bagley has declared open house for the visitors who will throng here from other parts of the Golden State. He invites them to visit Mare Island Navy Yard while in Vallejo, to see how Uncle Sam builds the "iron ring" that protects 130,000,000 people from possible envious eyes abroad, and to actually go aboard one of those modern, sleek-lined cruisers tied to the long seawall.

At the yard on those September days will be the heavy cruisers U.S.S. Portland, just out of drydock, and the U.S.S. Chicago and Memphis. For those who have not had the opportunity to visit one of the nation's most modern sea-fighting craft, this is an unexpected and never-to-be-forgotten opportunity.



A visit to Mare Island and aboard one of the cruisers or submarines will alone repay those who come to Vallejo for the greatest of all time Admission Day Celebrations, September 8 to 11, 1938.

"OUR TASK at this time is not so much to combat strange doctrines that come to us from without, as to resist strange doctrines and meretricious schemes that in haste are devised and presented to us from within."—Rt. Rev. James E. Freeman.

ADMISSION DAY
FIFTY YEARS A HOLIDAY

Dr. Peter T. Conmy
Grand Historian N.S.G.W.
(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

SEPTEMBER 9, 1938, WILL MARK THE eighty-eighth anniversary of the admission of California to the Union. It will also mark the sixtieth year since California has observed her admission to the Union as a holiday by gubernatorial proclamation, and the fiftieth as a holiday by legislative enactment.

California was admitted to the Union September 9, 1850. At that time there was no telegraph line running from Atlantic to Pacific and it took several weeks to communicate with California. The news that California had been admitted to the Union reached San Francisco October 19, 1850. It was received as no other message had ever been received in the West before. Businesses immediately closed, courts adjourned, the traffic on the streets gave way to a happy carnival, while women proceeded to cut five-pointed stars from pieces of white cloth and sew them on the flags that flew in the breeze. The people of San Francisco were truly grateful that the thirty-first star of California had been added to the flag which ultimately (1910) grew to forty-eight. The impromptu celebration held on receipt of the news of California's admission October 19 was followed ten days later by a formal or literary observance at which orators extolled the importance of the new State's admission.

For many years the annual recurrence of September 9 was observed by the Society of California Pioneers. In 1875, the twenty-fifth anniversary of California's admission was kept jointly by the Society and the newly organized Native Sons of the Golden West. This celebration attracted widespread attention, and the presence of the Native Sons led to a demand that Admission Day be kept as a legal holiday. Accordingly, in 1879 Governor Irwin issued a proclamation declaring September 9 a holiday. This was repeated annually by each subsequent Governor down to and including Governor Waterman in 1888. In January 1889, in his message to the Legislature, Governor Waterman recommended that Admission Day be made a holiday by law. This portion of the Governor's message is reproduced below; it shows both his recommendation and the reasons which prompted the same:

"I respectfully recommend that September 9th, Admission Day, be made a legal holiday. It is the natal day of the state, and therefore, one of great interest to the people, and particularly those born in the state. Most of the states recognize their natal day as being a fitting reminder of their entrance into the Union and the progress made. And for the additional reason that for the past ten years it has been made a legal holiday by proclamation, whereas, if it were definitely fixed, the people would be prepared for it in advance, and the business interests of the state would suffer no inconvenience."

In order that Governor Waterman's recommendation might be given effect, early in the 1889 session of the Legislature Senator Anthony Caminetti introduced bills amending those sections of the Civil and Political Codes and the Code of Civil Procedure which provided for legal holidays, by adding thereto September 9. These bills were passed unanimously by both houses and were approved by the Governor March 10, 1889.

This year's Admission Day, September 9, 1938, is the fiftieth observation under the state law. The Native Sons of the Golden West (since the year of their inception 1875) have always, locally at least, if not statewide, observed Admission Day. Reference has already been made to the 1875 observance.

In 1880 the Order had just established the Grand Parlor as the parent body and was still too small to undertake a gigantic celebration. This development came ten years later, in 1890, when, in the City of San Francisco, the first of the monumental Admission Day celebrations took place. The 1890 (San Francisco), 1895 (Sacramento), 1900 (San Francisco), 1904 (Sacramento), 1910 (San Francisco), 1915 (San Francisco in connection with the World's Fair), 1925 (San Francisco in connection with the Diamond Jubilee) and 1931 (Los Angeles in connection with the sesqui-centennial) are Admission Day observances that will remain in history. But aside from these more famous observances, there have been the smaller but none the less sincere, commemorations each year.

The question may well be raised, "Why does California celebrate her admission to the Union by an annual observance, whereas other states do not do so on the anniversaries of their admission to the Union?" The answer to this question is to be found in the conditions under which California was admitted.

First of all, the admission of California as a free state, with no slave state to balance it, was the turning point in the slavery issue; for, from then on there was a preponderance of free state senators.

Second, the admission of California was not a perfunctory, routine measure by which a territory sufficiently populated was endowed with statehood, but represented a vital national issue. Each of the fifteen slave state legislatures had memorialized Congress to admit California as such, while similar action was taken by the legislatures of the fifteen free states, recommending her admission as a free state.

Third, California did not go through the territorial stage in which other areas had been prepared for statehood, but organized her own state government in 1849 and then petitioned for admission.

Fourth, the admission of California to the Union represented the democratic desires of the sovereign will of the people of California, their loyalty to the Union, and their ardent desire to be united with it under the Constitution.

Such noble considerations, too exalted to be lost, have been perpetuated to younger generations through the annual observance of Admission Day. It may not be amiss to close this article with a quotation from the message of California's First Governor, Peter H. Burnett, to the Legislature which convened January 6, 1851, in which he officially reports the State's admission to the Union and comments upon it:

"California has been admitted to her equal status among the free states of our great confederacy, and her Senators and Representatives are now seated in the national councils. We have great reason to be grateful to Him, who in His wisdom and kindness mixes the evil with the good, and scatters thorns as well as flowers along the path of national and individual exist-

Native Sons of the Golden West

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF all Subordinate Parlors of the Native Sons of the Golden West—Dear Sirs and Brothers: The constitution of our Grand Parlor provides that the Grand President of our Order shall in each year issue a proclamation calling upon all of the Subordinate Parlors throughout the State to celebrate our natal day, Admission Day, September the ninth.

In conformity with said constitutional provision and by virtue of a resolution passed at the last session of the Grand Parlor, it is my pleasant duty to remind you that the City of Vallejo, Solano County, was officially selected as the place where this year's celebration will be held September 9, 10 and 11.

Our Order played an important part in having Admission Day made a legal holiday, and only by our active participation in each year's celebration will it continue to remain on our statutes. There is no better way for us to honor the hardy Pioneers who blazed the trails to this Western shore; no surer method of instilling into the minds of the youth of today the traditions of the days of '49.

Joseph J. McShane

It is not too much to expect from every loyal member of our Order that he should appoint himself a committee of one to assist the officers and members of his Parlor in perpetuating the day that every Californian must hold close to his heart.

The City of Vallejo is eagerly anticipating this forthcoming event, and all of the Parlors of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West in the northern part of this State have representative committees that are working untiringly in making this year's celebration one of the most outstanding in the history of our Order. The State of California, Solano County and the City of Vallejo, together with other cities in the bay counties, have contributed funds to warrant the success of this celebration.

As Grand President, may I express the hope that each and every Parlor will be properly represented at Vallejo on Admission Day and again, by parade, speech and music, emphasize our ever-increasing love and devotion to our beloved State of California.

With every good wish for each and every one of you, and looking forward to greeting you at Vallejo, September 9, I remain,

Sincerely and Fraternally,

Jos. J. McShane

Grand President, N.S.G.W.

DEDICATIONS.

September 18 the Board of Grand Officers, headed by Grand President Joseph J. McShane, will dedicate a large bear to be placed at the entrance to Lodi, San Joaquin County, by Lodi No. 18. This will be a feature of the Grape Festival to be held at the Tokay City that day.

Under the auspices of Alder Glen No. 200, the grand officers will dedicate a school at Fort Bragg, Mendocino County, some time in September, the definite date to be later announced.

Loyal American Memorialized.

Jackson—A monument of Amador County granite, erected to the memory of the late Senator Anthony Caminetti by popular subscription, was unveiled and dedicated here August 7. Mayor Wallace P. Jones introduced Past Grand Lewis F. Byington, who acted as master of ceremonies. Other speakers were Mayor Angelo Rossi, a native of Volcano, Amador County, Harry Mazzera, George Radcliffe and Superior Judge Anthony Caminetti Jr. of Amador County. Dr. Charles Brockman was in charge of arrangements.

Senator Caminetti, a charter member of Excelsior Parlor No. 31, was the husband of Past Grand Ella Caminetti of the Native Daughters, and during his lifetime took an active interest in the Order of Native Sons, being a delegate to several Grand Parlors from Excelsior. The monument to his memory is inscribed:

"Erected by the citizens of Amador County, California, in memory of ANTHONY CAMINETTI, a native of Jackson, Amador County, born July 30, 1854, died November 17, 1923. District Attorney, State Senator, United States Congressman, United States Commissioner General of Immigration. The first Native Californian to be elected to Congress. Author of bills creating California Debris Commission, Preston School of Industry at Ione, California Junior Colleges, and father of Alpine state highway. A loyal American and a faithful Public Official. A Charter Member of the Native Sons of the Golden West. Aug. 1938."

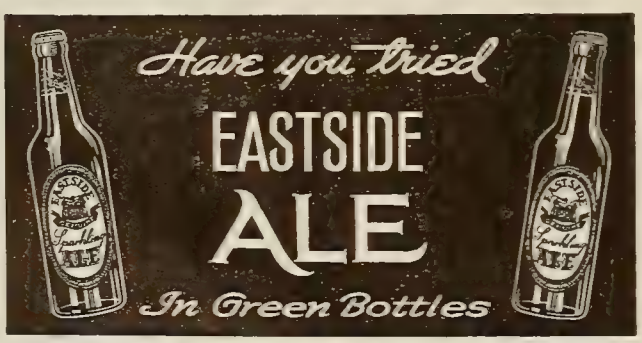
Thrilling Water Trip Described.

Bakersfield—The August 3 meeting of Bakersfield No. 42 was one those in attendance will never forget. Although one of the hottest nights of the season, the hall was crowded to capacity. Carl Luick presided and, assisted by Ralph Hinderliter, Mart Leonard, James Fix Jr., Frank Espitallier, Hal Bannister, Armaund Strauss, Ed Franklin and A. W. Bannister, exemplified the ritual for the benefit of eight candidates.

The highlight of the evening was the wonderful talk of Frank Latta, a member of the Parlor, who recently made a thrilling trip by water from Bakersfield to Treasure Island, San Francisco Bay, that attracted nationwide attention. Several other members made enthusiastic talks, and Joe Larius provided musical entertainment. The delightful evening concluded with a banquet fit for a king served under the supervision of Ralph Garcia.—C.F.J.

Public Unveiling Ceremonies.

Martinez—A bronze bust of R. R. Veale, long affiliated with General Winn No. 32 of Antioch and for many years a figure in the life of Contra Costa County, will be unveiled and dedicated at public ceremonies in the County Court House here Saturday, September 24. Many Native Sons and Native Daughters are expected to be in attendance. He died last year after devoting forty-two years of his life to public service—forty as sheriff and two as tax collector of Contra Costa County.



R. R. Veale, Deceased
"The Little General."

Veale, affectionately known as "The Little General," was also active in the Contra Costa County Development Association, which he helped to form. Leaders of the association sought some means of paying tribute to the man who had served the county so long, and out of the searching came the idea of a life-size bronze bust. A group organized a financing campaign, and accepted one dollar each from those who cared to give. More than $2,000 was raised, contributions coming from all parts of California.

OBSERVE CALIFORNIA'S BIRTHDAY.

The Grand Parlor Admission Day Observance Committee—Edward E. Reese, chairman, William J. Bright, L. L. Steele, T. J. O'Hara and Louis F. Erb—August 12 addressed to Subordinate Parlors a letter saying, in part:

"One of the principles upon which our Order is founded is Loyalty to the State of California. . . . September 9 [Admission Day] is the one day of the year which is distinctively and particularly dear to those of us who were born in the State of California. It is the birthday of the State and has been set aside by the people of the State as a holiday to be observed by all the people of the State. . . . We should make every effort to see that all stores, offices and places of business close for the day, in order that their employes might celebrate the day and do honor to the State of California and those Pioneers who made it possible.

"The official Admission Day Celebration this year will be held in the city of Vallejo and we most earnestly urge that every member of the Order who can do so go to Vallejo and join with his brother in making this another grand celebration. Of course, we realize that many Parlors and many individuals will be unable to go to Vallejo, but to those of you who cannot join in the official celebration we urge that you keep alive the spirit of the day by holding some kind of a celebration or observance in your own community." . . .

Admission Day at San Diego.

San Diego -In line with its policy of perpetuating the history and the landmarks of California, San Diego No. 208 affixed a bronze plaque August 14 to the hacienda of Rancho Jamul. The subscription reads: "1852-1938. RANCHO JAMUL. This historic ranch house dedicated to George and Jeanette Daley by S. D. Parlor No. 108 Native Sons of the Golden West. Aug. 14, 1938."

Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer gave a brief history of the rancho from the time when it was part of the mission holdings down to 1852, when Governor Pio Pico obtained a grant to the land. Other speakers were George R. and Jeanette E. Daley, owners of the rancho, who promised to keep the historic building in condition; Dr. C. H. Henderson, president of the Parlor; Joseph C. Keeley and George Montijo. Others taking part in the dedication were Joseph Ferraro, Virgil Bruschi, Dr. Joseph Bruschi, Henry U. Emery and Burt W. Pauter. A cowboy orchestra played while a Spanish-California barbecue was being served by James Murphy.

San Diego Parlor is sponsoring an observance of Admission Day, September 9, and will have the co-operation of the United States Army and Navy, as well as most of the local fraternal and civic organizations. A colorful parade, with numerous floats of a historical nature and many bands, will be the day's feature.

Grand Historian Desires Data.

The Proceedings of the San Jose (1938) Grand Parlor, just recently distributed by Grand Secretary John T. Regan, contain a history of the Order from 1875 to 1880 written by Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy. Installments will be continued until the entire history of the Order has been written.

Dr. Conmy is desirous of accumulating a complete set of Grand Parlor Proceedings, and will also be glad to receive any pamphlets, souvenir programs, clippings, etc., pertaining to the early years of the Order. After careful inspection, these latter will be filed in the archives of the Grand Parlor for future reference.

Admission Day at Weaverville.

Weaverville—Plans of Mount Bally No. 87 and Eltapome No. 55 N.D.G.W. for the three-day celebration of Admission day September 9, 10 and 11 are nearing completion.

Friday, September 9, Admission Day, a program with a noted speaker will be presented in the morning, a baseball contest between teams from Redding and Eureka in the afternoon, and a dance in the evening. A surprise event will be featured Saturday evening; it will be a high-class attraction, the first of its kind ever staged here. Dancing will also be provided. Sunday there will be a pistol shoot, with keen competition, and a program of athletics.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Horace J. Leavitt, chairman; J. J. Jackson, vice-chairman; Norman Weinheimer, secretary; A. C. Meckel, James Griffith, Superior Judge C. A. Paulsen, Robert L. Marshall, E. G. Chapman and John Fields.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

San Francisco—The Board of Grand Officers, with Grand President Joseph J. McShane presiding, will meet Saturday, September 10, at 2 p.m. in the Grand Parlor offices, Native Sons Building, 414 Mason street.

Oakland—The Alameda County Extension of the Order Committee sponsored a dinner and group initiation in honor of Grand President Joseph J. McShane August 24. Louis J. Zimmerman was in charge of arrangements.

Modesto—Officers of Modesto No. 11 were installed by Deputy Claude Shirley, Clarence Hansen becoming president. On the Parlor's behalf L. B. Schlingheyde presented a past president emblem to Julius Larsen. A stag party and wiener roast were held in mid-August on the Ingle sandbar in the Tuolumne River. In observance of Admission Day the Parlor will have its annual dove feast September 9.

San Jose—San Jose No. 22 had a family barbecue August 28. Frank Bondi was in charge of arrangements. The Parlor is equipping its drum corps with new uniforms.

Petaluma—The old adobe committee of Petaluma No. 27—Walter Geils, E. L. Mangin, G. M. Mattei, George Petersen, L. F. Carpenter, A. H. Wipner, Oscar Glahn and Carl Plow—has been making extensive improvements at the historic landmark owned by the Parlor.

Nevada City—Walter Henry McLeod, for years the organist of Hydraulic No. 56, died July 23. He was born at Hunt's Hill, Nevada County, November 30, 1868.

Ukiah—Officers of Ukiah No. 71 and Ukiah No. 263 N.D.G.W. were jointly installed by Deputies Albert Bechtol and Georgie Gemetti, Francis Sanchez and Alta Dillingham becoming the respective presidents. Among the speakers of the evening were Grand Marshal Harold Zimmerman, Grand Trustee Wayne Millington and Supervising Deputy Zoura Thompkins. Refreshments were served at a table arranged as a horseshoe and decorated with bright-hued zinnias. Harry Carr was the organist of the evening. Many visitors were present from Santa Rosa, Fort Bragg and Petaluma.

Santa Clara—In a heroic rescue effort at Santa Cruz, President Augustus John Walsh of Santa Clara No. 100 was caught in a rip tide at the mouth of the San Lorenzo River and drowned July 24. Four days previous to his drowning he was installed as president. He was born at Santa Clara, April 4, 1915, and is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Walsh.

Ventura—Cabrillo No. 114 plans to initiate several additional candidates early in September, and expects to at that time elect a full corps of officers. Then the Parlor will, according to David S. Bennett, acting president, again take its place on the active list.

Point Arena—With many visitors from Ukiah and Fort Bragg in attendance, officers of Broderick No. 117 were installed by District Deputy Albert Bechtol, Charles Bishop becoming president. Previous to the meeting the new drum corps of Ukiah No. 71 headed a parade through the streets. Refreshments concluded an enjoyable evening.

Oakland—Piedmont No. 120 and Berkeley No. 210 had a picnic at Madrone Park August 7. There was a large attendance and everyone had a great time.

Weaverville—Grand Secretary John T. Regan of South San Francisco No. 157 and wife vacationed here last month with their son, Edwin J. Regan, also a member of No. 157, district attorney of Trinity County.

Sausalito—The drum and bugle corps of Sea Point No. 158 is sponsoring a series of card par-

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

AT THE CALL OF GRAND TRUSTEE Walter C. Richards, representatives of all the Los Angeles County Parlors of Native Sons of the Golden West—Los Angeles No. 45, Ramona No. 109 (Los Angeles), Hollywood No. 196, Stephen M. White No. 263 (San Pedro), Glendale No. 264, Santa Monica Bay No. 267, University No. 272 (Los Angeles), Compton No. 273 and East Los Angeles No. 277—met August 12 at the clubrooms of Ramona Parlor to arrange for participation in the statewide Admission Day, September 9, parade at Vallejo. Hector Baida of Santa Monica Bay Parlor was chosen chairman, and Glen J. Packer secretary.

Much enthusiasm was developed at the meeting, which was addressed by Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, who expressed gratification for the large attendance, and stressed the fact that Admission Day must be recognized and observed if it is to remain a legal holiday. Other speakers were Grand Trustee Richards, Supervising Deputy John Bodkin, District Deputies Robert Garey and Roy Tarleton, and Walter Odemar.

Some 150 uniformed members of the county Parlors will march in the Los Angeles division of the Vallejo parade. They will appear in colorful costumes of a Spanish theme, and will be led by the drum and bugle corps of Santa Monica Bay Parlor. Carl Muller was appointed parade chairman.

Ramona Parlor will send to Vallejo a team of twelve, headed by J. J. Shorten, to engage in the softball contest.

NEW N.D.G.W. PARLORS.

Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West advises that two new parlors will be instituted in Los Angeles, September 16 and 17.

Grand President Edna B. Briggs will officiate at the institution ceremonies, and will be assisted by a corps of grand officers.

TO STRESS CIVIC SUBJECTS.

The schedule for September, first month of the new regime of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. under the presidency of Mrs. Marian Hale Johnson, promises much of worthwhile interest and pleasure. Grand President Edna B. Briggs has requested Parlors to stress civic subjects and interests, and Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, new program chairman of the Parlor, will feature Bessie Abbott Ochs, director for the Neutral Thousands, speaking on Proposition No. 1, November ballot, at the luncheon September 13. A number of distinguished guests will be honored on that occasion, which will also recognize Constitution Day.

The first sewing circle meeting will be held September 7 at President Johnson's home, with Chairman Bee Wahrmund in charge. Luncheon will be served. Officers of the Parlor will be in charge of the September 27 tea. All committees are making plans to earn funds to carry on activities through the coming year, and a drive will be made for new members.—O.L.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 had an entertainment, followed by refreshments. Chairman W. O. Gilkey of the Parlor's history and landmarks committee is offering a $100 reward for the arrest and conviction of the thieves who stole the historic cannon from the County Court House steps.

Ramona Parlor No. 109's birthday dinner August 12 was the best attended in a long time. After the feast, President William A. Page and assisting officers initiated a class of candidates. Members of the Parlor candidates for public office were given a hearing August 26.

University Parlor No. 272 had a swimming party at Hermosa August 18; the womenfolks were invited. At a basket picnic August 28, athletic contests and games were featured, and there was fun galore. A dinner-dance is planned for September.

Compton—Compton Parlor No. 273 was host August 16 for a group initiation of the Los Angeles County Parlors. An auto caravan paraded the streets prior to the ceremonies.

East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 was visited August 8 by the prize ritual team of Compton Parlor No. 273, headed by District Deputy Roy Tarleton, and three candidates were initiated for the "baby" Parlor. Speakers of the evening were Junior Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer and Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards. All the county Parlors were well represented. President Charles L. Ripple and Allen Marten of East Los Angeles are taking an active part in all activities of the Order. The Parlor has determined to double its membership.

ADMISSION DAY IN LOS ANGELES.

Admission Day, September 9, will be observed in Los Angeles at an outing in Sycamore Park being arranged by the Interparlor N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Committee. The program will start with a flag-raising ceremony at 1 p.m., to be followed by a band concert and athletic events. An address on "California" will be broadcast. A basket picnic supper will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., during which time six acts of vaudeville will be presented. All Natives welcome.

At 9 p.m. a dance with entertainment features will be held at Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica boulevard. Admission, twenty-five cents.—A.M.D.

SUN DIAL MEMORIALIZES PIONEER.

Long Beach—At fitting ceremonies in Auditorium Park, August 9, Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. presented to the city a bronze sun dial, which was dedicated to the memory of Pioneer Jotham Bixby, known as the "father" of Long Beach. Chairman Violet T. Henshilwood of the Parlor's history and landmarks committee was in charge, and Deputy Marguerite Mize unveiled the dial, which was presented to the city by President Johanna Reed and accepted by Mayor Eaton. E. C. Denio told about the life of Pioneer Bixby, and Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg spoke of the Order's aims and objects.

August 18. Long Beach initiated two candidates. Visitors included Supervising Deputy Georgia Sanders of Bakersfield. Refreshments were served by members of the Parlor residing in Los Angeles, with Mrs. Eugenia Smith as chairman. Members and their husbands recently surprised Second Vice-president Mary Stultz at her new home and presented her with a walnut end table. August 11 Mrs. Stultz was hostess to the California Thimble Club at her home. Plans are being made for a card party for the benefit of the homeless children at Banning Park, Wilmington, September 24.—A.W.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

Glendale—Officers of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W., with Mrs. Harriette Weeks as president, were publicly installed August 9 by Deputy Flora Holy, assisted by President Ann Schiebusch and other officers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124. Maude Molen was chairman of the evening, and vocal selections were rendered by Ada Steele, Elsie Bledsoe and Martha Jean Elliott. Members of Glendale Parlor No. 264 N.S.G.W. acted as ushers.

Mrs. Evelyn Wilson, retiring president, received a past president pin from the Parlor, Dorothy Ravn making the presentation address, and a gift from her assisting officers was presented by Mrs. Ada Steele. Four generations of the family of the new president, Mrs. Weeks, were present: grandmother, Mrs. C. A. Minter, mother, Mrs. B. F. Cook and two sons, Jack and Dicky Weeks. Among others in attendance were Founder Lilly O. Reichling-Dyer, Past Grand Gladys E. Noce, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Supervising Deputies Hazel B. Hansen and Eva Bemis, and Junior Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer of the Native Sons. Refreshments, served by Anna Alpi, Louise Kern and Flora Alice Molen, and dancing concluded a pleasant occasion.—A.S.

SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON.

Santa Monica—The drum and bugle corps of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. will accompany a large marching unit from the Parlor to the Admission Day celebration at Vallejo. September 13 the Parlor will have a card party, and September 22 a large class of candidates will be initiated.

Santa Monica Bay will inaugurate the social event of the season—a series of monthly dances at Native Sons Hall, 1334½ Fifth street—September 27. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served. All Native Sons and Native Daughters and their friends are welcome for a fine time. September 29 Captain Ed. Ayres will address the Parlor on "California History."—J.J.S.

TELEPHONE BRIDGE PARTY.

San Pedro—Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. was visited by Deputy Olinda Kerby, who spoke on the necessity of increasing the membership and the value of co-operation. Refreshments were served by Rowena Berenstein and committee. August 5 Past President Mrs. Anthony Bruckner entertained at her home the officers who assisted during her term as president. Decorations were in the Parlor's colors. Letitia Sarciaux, former recording secretary, and Second Vice-president Dessie Buyo are convalescing from operations.

The Florencita Thimble Club of Rudecinda met for luncheon and work at Pacific Palisades Park August 3 and 18 with Catherine Morris and Ruth Allison as the respective hostesses. August 24 the club sponsored a telephone bridge party, with Vivian Matejlan as chairman.—R.B.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Laura Berger, mother of Louis G. and Leo Berger (Ramona N.S.), died July 31.

Mrs. Valerie Smyth, mother of George E. and John V. Corson (Ramona N.S.), died August 4.

Mrs. Lillian Elder McKinley, mother of J. W. McKinley (Ramona N.S.), died August 14. She was a native of Pennsylvania, aged 78.

Superior Judge Joseph Plummer Sproul, affiliated with Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W., died suddenly August 16, survived by a wife. He was born at Pomona, Los Angeles County, March 30, 1884, and had served as superior judge since 1927. He was also a captain in the United States Marine Corps Reserve.

A Recreation Days program will be presented September 9 and 10 at Downey, Los Angeles County.

San Gabriel, Los Angeles County, voters have approved two bond issues—$230,000 for an outfall sewer, and $90,000 for schools.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

OFFICERS AND MEMBERS, NATIVE Daughters of the Golden West—Dear Sisters: The admission of California to the Union was one of the triumphs of our national life. This State had been, for many years, an objective in the eyes of Spain, France, Great Britain, Mexico and, finally, the United States. It is to the vision of our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers that we owe our present-day allegiance. How fortunate for us that we belong to the country where personal liberty, freedom of speech and press are still considered to be our constitutional rights.

On this anniversary, this eighty-eighth birthday, let every one of us, as citizens of this Golden State, look upon it as a personal birthday. Suppose we review the past year of our lives and see what we have done to contribute to the development of this state. Have we, as citizens, given careful attention to observance of our laws? Are we taking an active interest in the affairs of our local community? Do we participate willingly, as citizens, in the worthy projects of development which are fostered by our neighbors?

Edna B. Briggs

It is when we give our time freely, when we allow ourselves constructive criticism only, that we have contributed worthily to the birthday of California.

Due to the remarkable variety of natural resources within our State we have an unpredictable future. There is no limit to the vastness of our development, so let us keep ourselves in the stride of the time. Let us do all in our power to prove deserving of the hardships, the sacrifices, the vision and the foresight of our Pioneers. We can only wish to prove to mankind the sincerity of our desire to help develop our State and to be worthy of the heritage given us by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers.

Sincerely and Fraternally yours,

Edna B. Briggs

Grand President N.D.G.W.

Best Wishes!

NEW LINKS IN NATIVE DAUGHTERS CHAIN.

Sacramento—Grand President Edna B. Briggs was to have instituted a new parlor at Alleghany, Sierra County, August 27, but an epidemic necessitated postponement to a later date.

September 16 and 17 the Grand President will institute two new parlors at Los Angeles City.

Forty-five-Star Flag Retired.

Salinas—With President Agnes Phillips presiding, Aleli No. 102 had an outstanding meeting August 11, when Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit. The evening's festivities began with a dinner at which the tables were decorated in red, white and blue. Flags were made by filling pans with sand and placing therein red, white and blue flowers, and there were nut cups, favors, song sheets and candles to match. The reasons for this theme, which was also carried out in the meetingroom decorations, were: the honor-guest, Mrs. Briggs, comes from La Bandera (the flag), a new flag had just been purchased, and the American Flag was first raised in Monterey County when the United States took over California. Three candidates were initiated.

Grand President Briggs gave an inspiring talk on "Trees," and Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs dedicated the new flag. Past Grand Ariana W. Stirling, Aleli's Charter president, talked about the flag being put aside in the archives; it has but forty-five stars, and is forty years old. Gladys Dodd recited "Old Glory," and Ramona Rianda sang "Flag of the Free." The Grand President was presented a salad bowl, a tray of vegetables and a boquet of flowers by the following, who put on a clever presentation stunt: Louise Hatton, Claire Lanini, Marian Massera, Clotilda Eaton, Jemima Davies, Mary Slibsager and Grand Trustee Rose Rhyner. Helen Tubbs was general chairman of the evening. Other visitors were Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Supervising Deputy Mildred Peers and Deputy Alta Trowbridge.—R.R.

Unusual Departure.

Alturas—By special permission of Grand President Edna B. Briggs, Alturas No. 159 held its August 4 meeting at the Lakeview, Oregon State, home of Cora Follett, a member of the Parlor. Mrs. Follett was assisted by her sister, Bessie Shaw, also a member of Alturas, in receiving. Among the large number making the trip were President Mabel Cary and Past Grand Irma Laird.

A delicious supper was served at tables attractive with bright flowers and ferns, following which the visitors were taken on a visit to the private Smink Museum, which features hooked rugs and pieced quilts. The Parlor meeting was held at the Follett home, decorated with baskets and bowls of gorgeous gladioli. Community singing, with Miss Loretta Gysin at the piano, was featured. During the evening an unusual collection of pictures taken by Dick Minard and donated by him to Alturas for its museum, was shown.

Planning a Mammoth Card Party.

Placentia—Amid a large gathering of members and friends, Mrs. Mary Russell was inducted into the office of president of Grace No. 242. The Placentia Roundtable Clubhouse made a pretty setting, with bowls of pastel-shaded flowers in abundance. Mrs. Helen Anderson presented a group of Placentia students, who entertained with songs, accordion numbers and recitations.

Acting Chairman Nellie M. Cline called the gathering to order. Deputy Edna Niekirk and assisting grand officers from Los Angeles No. 124, beautifully gowned in white, carried out the installation rites in a perfect manner. Grace's officers were attired in lace gowns and carried arm boquets of gladioli. Founder Lilly O. Reichling-Dyer, Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer and Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg were among the visitors. President Russell thanked the Parlor for the honor bestowed on her. Alice Davis, retiring president, was presented a gold mesh bag containing a surprise package, which was turned over to the homeless children committee as payment on the Parlor's sixth baby, named "Mary" in honor of Mrs. Davis' mother, Mary Key, who crossed the plains from Arkansas in a covered wagon.

Members of Grace's sewing club gathered August 8 at the Balboa Beach home of Mrs. Anna Lemke. After a swim in Balboa Bay the group did justice to one of "Mother" Lemke's famous fish dinners. Plans are progressing for a mammoth card party September 8 at the Orange Grove ranch of Mrs. Thos. L. McFadden.—M.E.

Deputy Anna Drais and Nina Williams, and Mrs. Mary Strutzman became the new president. As Alice Gray, glee club chairman, sang appropriate songs, numerous presentations were made. Hattie Mae Goodban and Elveria Sanguinetti entertained with a Spanish dance and songs. Following the meeting a delicious chicken dinner was served at tables beautifully decorated in a green and white motif. The program and refreshment committee included Elveria Sanguinettl, chairman, Irene Schwall, Bertha Remington, Millie Ratto, Emma Stearin, Julia Sanguinetti, Stella Simard, Olivia Hansen, Minnie Stark and Zenith Stocker.

In memory of deceased members, Stockton dedicated a tree in Victory Park. President Uretta Dentoni introduced Mrs. Charlotte Burns as chairman of the day. Rev. F. Carl Truex gave the invocation, and the main speaker was State Senator Bradford S. Crittenden. The Parlor's glee club, directed by Miss Dorothy Braghetta, furnished music. The Parlor's drill team will participate in the Vallejo Admission Day parade September 9.—A.L.E.

Large Crowd Greets Grand President.

Alameda—Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid an official visit to Encinal No. 156 July 28, and was greeted by a very large turnout including Past Grands Emma Foley, May Boldemann and Sue J. Irwin, Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, Supervising Deputies Marion White of Alameda County and Hazel Hansen of Los Angeles County, Deputy Marjorie Vinther, Alice Dougherty, former grand secretary, representatives of twenty-three Subordinate Parlors and seventeen Alameda County deputies.

Grand President Briggs gave a very fine talk on the early history of California, and complimented the officers of the Parlor on their fine work. On Encinal's behalf Acting President Vincenca Hagy presented her with a set of crystal ware. Frances Gielow was soloist of the evening, and Irene Rose was chairman of the arrangements committee. Refreshments, served in the banquetroom, beautified with vari-colored flowers, terminated a most enjoyable occasion.

At public ceremonies August 10, officers of Encinal were installed by Deputy Marjorie Vinther, Vincenca Hagy becoming president. A past president emblem was presented Edith Hutchinson. A musical program was presented by Ruth Beresford Skinner, Clyde Baumgartner and Albert Gallagher. Dancing and refreshments followed the ceremonies. The arrangements committee included: Irene Rose, chairman, Louise Benedetti, Agnes Schubert, Stephanie Holod, Sola Eisen, Sadie Craner, Pearl Pollock, Charlotte Ghiselli and Mary Mulcahy.—L.E.F.

NEWSY N.D.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Jackson—Mrs. Christina Rickert-Charleston, charter member of Ursula No. 1, died August 2 at Seattle, Washington State. She was born at Jackson March 18, 1861. In the feature parade of the second annual Sutter's Gold Rush and Roundup held at Sutter Creek August 13 and 14 the grand prize went to the float of Ursula.

Stockton—At impressive ceremonies conducted by Deputy Mildred McClellan, officers of Joaquin No. 5, with Miss Josephine Nunes as president, were installed. Gladioli, zinnias and greenery decorated the hall. Among others in attendance were Supervising Deputy Lorraine Handel, Past Grands Pearl Lamb, Carrie R. Durham, Mamie G. Peyton and Mattie Stein, and Deputies Henrietta Quivellon and Grace Patterson. Supper was served at prettily decorated tables by Chairman Jean Madsack and committee.—C.T.

Napa—Eshcol No. 16 celebrated its fifty-first anniversary July 25. A dinner preceded the meeting. The three remaining charter members were honor-guests and were presented with gifts. Past presidents presented to the Parlor a set of salad plates. August 8 the two latest brides of Eshcol were entertained, and President Sidonia Geiger presented gifts to them on the Parlor's behalf.—E.I.

Eureka—Eureka's Municipal Auditorium was dedicated August 3. United States of America and California (Bear) Flags were presented to the city by Occident No. 28 and Humboldt No. 14 N.S.G.W., the presentation address being made by Joe Bognuda of Ferndale No. 93 N.S.G.W. President Lois Eiseman of Occident was the color bearer, and color guards were Joe Henley and Ben Dewell of Company I, 184th Infantry, California National Guard—L.H.J.

Ione—Assisted by Past Grand Gladys E. Noce, Deputy Edna Herman installed the officers of Chispa No. 40, Mrs. Edna Kretcher becoming president. Visitors from Ursula No. 1, Amapola No. 80, Forrest No. 86 and Tamelpa No. 231 were in attendance. August 5 President Kretcher headed a delegation of Chispa members who attended a reception honoring Grand Outside Sentinel Doris Treat given by San Andreas No. 113.

Ferndale—Margaret Robinson became the president of Oneonta No. 71 at impressive installation ceremonies conducted by Deputy Christina Murray.—M.R.

Merced—Officers of Veritas No. 75 were installed by Deputy Rose Romaso, who was accompanied by Supervising Deputy Irma Ostrom and President Lorraine Toscano of Lomitas No 255, Los Banos. Two candidates were initiated. Refreshments were served at the close of the ceremonies. The Parlor is making fine progress, and many new members are being received. All committees are putting forth their best efforts and getting results. The official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs October 18 is anxiously awaited.—F.B.

Oakland—Peggy McGuire was installed president of Piedmont No. 87 at public ceremonies conducted by Supervising Deputy Marion E. White. Chairman Ella Mullen and committee provided a short program and dainty refreshments. Lucille DeMarie was in charge of a successful whist July 21. Chairman Katherine Dombrink of the Admission Day committee reports all arrangements completed for Piedmont's participation in the Vallejo celebration.—E.L.

San Jose—In a hall transformed into a garden of beautiful flowers, officers of Vendome No. 100 and Observatory No. 177 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed by Deputies Ruth Semichy and Joseph Semino, Mrs. Ernest Weller and Dalton L. Cox becoming the respective presidents. Grand President Joseph J. McShane, the speaker of the occasion, referred to the outstanding accomplishments of both Orders. Others in attendance were Past Grands Mamie P. Carmichael and Anne C. Thuesen, Grand Marshal Clarice Cook and Supervising Deputy Katherine Nelson of the Native Daughters, and Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove of the Native Sons. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the ceremonies.

San Luis Obispo—A day of reminiscence will be enjoyed under the age-old grape arbor at Estrada Gardens, September 11, when members of San Luisita No. 108, San Miguel, and El Pinal of Cambria gather with their families for a basket lunch and weiner roast. General Chairman Anna Schlicht has arranged for a band, a program, and games for the children. With hills as a background, the gardens are ideally located at the foot of Cuesta Grade as it winds down from the Santa Lucia Mountains. San Luis Creek trickles idly by, but at one time it aided in turning the mill wheel used to grind corn for the padres of Mission San Luis. The adobe dwelling built in 1832 still stands.—H.McC.

San Andreas—With visitors present from several nearby places, officers of San Andreas No. 113 were installed August 5 by Deputy Annie Lombardi, Mrs. Gertrude Leonard becoming president. Grand Outside Sentinel Doris Treat, a member of the Parlor, was honor-guest of the occasion and was presented an electric clock, Mrs. Rose Lloyd making the presentation address. Mrs. Frank Meyer, Mrs. James Kent and Miss Ramona Winkler were named the managing committee of the drill team, and Miss Teresa Rivara the drill mistress. Impressive talks were given by Supervising Deputy Emma B. Wright and Deputy Lombardi. Refreshments were served at the meeting's close. The committee in charge of the occasion included Mms. Fanen Winkler, Evan Hall and Marvin Waters, and Miss Madeline Gomes.

Modesto—At the August 10 meeting of Morada No. 199 President Mrs. Carl Gardner introduced a new friendship plan, "The Golden Poppy Secret Sisters." The sewing club is progressing wonderfully, and is preparing to dispose of a hand-crocheted bedspread.—C.B.

San Leandro—Officers of El Cereso No. 207 and Estudillo No. 223 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed by Deputies Esther Ragon and Walter Davis, Mrs. Florence Smith and Clarence Breves becoming the respective presidents. Dancing followed the ceremonies.

San Diego—With Evelyn Wurzell as president, the officers of San Diego No. 208 were installed by Deputy Alice Damarus. A dinner preceding the ceremonies honored Mrs. Davidson, whose name has been added to the Grand Parlor honor roll. A poem written by Mrs. Lena Bains was read by Supervising Deputy Elsie Frank. The sewing club enjoyed a potluck picnic in the beautiful garden at the home of Mrs. Charlott Goodman. The past presidents club had an all-day outing at the Rosemede home of Marie James.

Sonoma—Following a dinner in her honor, Grand President Edna B. Briggs officially visited Sonoma No. 209 August 8, and in the course of an address stressed the fact that every girl and woman born in California should belong to the Order. Among the many other visitors were

VALLEJO ADMISSION DAY PARADE

Natives From All California Will Appear In Colorful Display

THE ADMISSION DAY, SEPTEMBER 9, parade will be the crowning event of the Vallejo festival being arranged by the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of Solano County in celebration of the eighty-eighth anniversary of California's admission to statehood—the thirty-first State of the Union. It will take several hours for the brilliant spectacle to pass a given point. In addition to drum corps, drill teams, bands and colorful floats, there will be marching thousands of gaily-costumed California Natives from all parts of the state. San Francisco will contribute six divisions—the fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth—to the great turnout, and Alameda County will be represented by two divisions—the eleventh and twelfth. The lineup of the parade, complete to closing time of this issue of The Grizzly Bear, follows:

ence. The application of California for admission to the Union gave rise to bitter and long protracted discussions in both branches of Congress, such as had never before been witnessed in that body. The fearful state of passionate excitement which followed these criminations and re-criminations at one time seriously threatened a dissolution of the Union and called forth the patriotic exertions of the great statesmen of all parties."

SILVER ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED—EVENING PICNIC PLANNED.

Saint Helena (Napa County)—La Junta Parlor No. 203 N.D.G.W. observed its twenty-fifth institution anniversary August 16. President Wilna Mitchell recounted some of the Parlor's accomplishments, and introduced the following charter members: Mms. Clara Herdle, the charter president, Wilna Vann Mitchell, Esther Thompson, Celeste Thorsen, Wilhelmina Vann and Mae Wood Mielenz, Misses Louise Klubescheidt, Martha Klubescheidt and Theresa Kennelly. Past Grand President Anna Mixon-Armstrong was also a speaker. The committee in charge of the anniversary arrangements included Mms. Annette Caiocca, Celeste Thorsen, Helga Werle, Marguerite Alexander, Katherine Goodman and Elsie Palmer.

The evening of September 13 La Junta will have a picnic at Lyman Park. Members of Saint Helena Parlor No. 53 N.S.G.W. and their wives have been invited. The committee in charge is made up of Miss Inez Costantini, Mms. Regina Corbella, Maye Bradley and Muriel Vasconi.

MOTHER N.S. GRAND HISTORIAN DEAD.

San Francisco—Mrs. Mary Richter-Conmy, mother of Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W., died August 21. She was a native of San Francisco, and was affiliated with Alta Parlor No. 3 N.D.G.W. Mrs. Conmy was frequently a delegate to Native Daughters Grand Parlors.

El Dorado County voters have approved a bond issue of $95,000 for enlargement of the county high school at Placerville.

The California Association of Nurserymen will hold its twenty-eighth annual convention in Los Angeles September 28-30.

Arroyo Grande, San Luis Obispo County, will have a Community Harvest Festival September 16 and 17.

Santa Rosa, Sonoma County, voters have approved a $130,000 fire and water improvement bond issue.

Dixon, Solano County, has voted $110,000 bonds for a new high school.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO WILL BE LARGELY represented by its Native Sons and Native Daughters at the Vallejo Admission Day festivities. In the outstanding feature, the monster Admission Day, September 9, parade, the San Francisco Parlors of both orders have been assigned to five divisions. This section of the parade will be escorted by the San Francisco Police Department band and a platoon of policemen. The Bay City will also be represented by a float, and its municipal band will lead one of the divisions.

A joint committee of representatives from all the local Parlors of Native Sons and Native Daughters has been having largely attended and most enthusiastic meetings, and everything is in readiness to make the usual fine display at Vallejo. The N.S.G.W. Extension of the Order Committee, Joseph E. Tracy chairman, is looking after all details. When it comes to Admission Day, San Francisco and its Natives can always be depended on!

BREAKFAST AT N.D.G.W. HOME.

Past Presidents Association No. 1 N.D.G.W. sponsored a breakfast at the Home August 14. Past Grand Emma G. Foley, the general chairman, extended a welcome, Founder Leah M. Williams led the salute to the flag, and President Genevieve E. Martell offered the invocation. Musical numbers were rendered by Mrs. Alyce R. Gendotti, Mrs. Alyce McAravy and Mrs. Agnes Callaghan. Miss Agnes Hoffman, the guest speaker, had as her subject "Dramatic Art and Public Speaking."

A gift of $5 to the Home Committee by the Association was accepted by Past Grand Dr. Marianna Bertola, the chairman, with thanks. Others among the fifty-seven in attendance were Past Grands Carrie Roesch-Durham, Genevieve W. Baker, Eliza D. Keith and Mae B. Wilkin.—A.G.L.

El Vespero Parlor No. 118 was officially visited by Grand President Edna B. Briggs July 26. A delicious dinner served prior to the meeting was prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Florence Johnson, chairman of the evening. Both the lodgeroom and the banquetroom were beautifully decorated. President Ruby Bried presided, and many members and visitors were present to greet the Grand President. Four candidates were initiated.—D.McG.

Mrs. Elenor Hyland was installed president of Keith Parlor No. 137 by Deputy Kay Schwenger August 11. The Parlor had a shower August 25 for First Vice-president Dorothy Powers Poheim, a recent bride. Marguerite Dahlstrom was chairman of both evenings.

Dolores Parlor No. 169's officers, Deputy Evelyn Brady and the Parlor's delegates to the Santa Barbara Grand Parlor were honored at a party August 10. President Audrey Becker presented to Deputy Brady a gift from the Parlor. Two candidates were initiated. August 29 Dolores' drill team was entertained by Charlotte Arrigoni, Winifred Givson, Louise Nau and Louise Louizza. September 14 the Parlor will have a hard times party.—H.B.N.

A hall beautifully decorated with large red roses was the scene of the public installation of Castro Parlor No. 178's officers. Deputy Elizabeth Mueller officiated, and Agnes Briggs became president. Margaret Griffith presented a lovely gift to Past President Grace Browne. After an enjoyable entertainment refreshments were served. The table decorations were all hand made by Georgia Nelson, chairman of the evening. The centerpiece was a model of the Golden Gate bridge, representing the bridge of success. Preparations are now under way for a September 21 whist party.—M.L.

Past Presidents Association No. 1's officers were installed August 1 by Senior Past President Myrtle Bottini, Miss Genevieve Martell becoming president. After the ceremonies refreshments were served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mae Marchant.—R.S.

Past Grand Dr. Mariana Bertola entertained twenty guests, Grand Parlor Home Committee members and their husbands, at supper and cards. The hostess was the recipient of a surprise gift, which was accepted in appreciation of the thought that prompted the giving.—E.G.F.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 had its annual outing for members and their families at Pinehurst, Contra Costa County, August 21. A basket lunch was served, and the program included dancing, entertainment, games and racing. Theo Schmidt was chairman of the arrangements committee. August 1 the Parlor sponsored a discourse by Brother Leo, famed lecturer, on "Who Are Your Ancestors?"

Officers of Presidio Parlor No. 194 were installed by District Deputy John Molinari, July 25, Frank Quadras becoming president. Several candidates were initiated. The meeting was addressed by Grand Organist George Cuthbertson and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy.

Grand President Joseph J. McShane was honor-guest at a dinner-dance sponsored by his home-Parlor, Twin Peaks No. 214, August 20.

SAN BERNARDINO

CITY AND COUNTY — THE GATE WAY TO GOLDEN CALIFORNIA

SAN BERNARDINO—AT OPEN-AIR PUBlic ceremonies in the Greek Theater of the San Bernardino Valley Junior College, July 29, officers of Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. were installed. Three hundred members and guests witnessed the beautiful ceremony. Deputy Dorothy Ravn and a corps of assisting grand officers from Verdugo Parlor No. 240 of Glendale officiated, and Marguerite McKenzie became the president of Lugonia. As Evelyn Shaddox sang "When You Look in the Heart of a Rose," Ruth Roberds, retiring president, was presented a gift of gold in a boquet of roses. Among the many visitors were Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg and Florence D. Schonemann, "mother" of the Parlor.

Lugonia had no meetings during August. A picnic was held August 10 at Lytle Creek Park, and August 24 a garden party was held at the home of President Marguerite McKenzie. Supervising Deputy Eva Bemis has been installed as the president of the San Bernardino Business and Professional Woman's Club.—H.P.

WATERMELON FEAST.

San Bernardino—Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. had initiation August 10. Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards was among the visitors. August 17 a watermelon feed was served in Colton Park. Members of Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. were among the guests. The meetings of August 24 and 31 were held at the Parlor's Crestline Clubhouse in the San Bernardino Mountains.

Richard J. Welch Jr. of Riverside, a member of Arrowhead, has been appointed chairman of the California State Veterans Board and director of the State Department of Military and Veterans Affairs. W. C. Shay has been elected president of the Twenty-ninth Annual Orange Show, which will be held early next year.

Arrowhead has a large membership committee, headed by Fred N. Brown, rounding up eligibles. Initiation of a large class of candidates is planned for October, and it is expected that the grand officers, headed by Grand President Joseph J. McShane, will exemplify the ritual.

LOVELY SETTING FOR INSTALLATION.

Ontario—Officers of Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W., with Marian Pierce as president, were installed by Deputy Thelma Nett, who was assisted by the officers of Lugonia No. 241 of San Bernardino. The garden of Peggy Smith's home, lighted by lanterns and a full moon, made a lovely setting for the ceremonies. Guests of the evening included, among others, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Supervising Deputy Eva Bemis and Florence D. Schonemann.

Members and guests of the Parlor spent a most enjoyable day with Bee Herzberger at Balboa Beach July 20. After luncheon swimming, boating and bicycling were in order. At the July 28 meeting of the Parlor, a program for the balance of the year was arranged.

CITRUS CULTIVATION COSTS—With careful management, the average cultivation costs of a citrus orchard need not exceed $200 an acre for mature stock, or in orchards yielding 240 packed boxes per acre. This conclusion is the result of enterprise-efficiency studies made by the Agricultural Experiment Station of the University of California in San Bernardino, Riverside, Orange, San Diego, Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara Counties.

THE YUCCA

(ED DURAN AYRES,
Santa Monica Bay Parlor N.S.G.W.)

When day is done and moonbeams dance down mountain sides,
I wend my way to the high Sierra . . . and peaceful quiet;
Where night-birds, weird, strange, dart in and out of shadows as in another world;
Where the Yucca, like white-plumed sentinels of the night,
Stand guard in all the majesty of their glory,
And with a fragrance rare bring to arroyo and canyon a dream of Paradise.

Lake Needles, a new body of water rapidly forming back of Parker Dam on the Colorado River, has reached the thirty-mile mark from the dam and is already within twenty-five miles of Needles, San Bernardino County.

SANTA BARBARA

CALIFORNIA'S QUEEN CITY

James French Dorrance

SANTA BARBARA PARLOR NO. 116 NATIVE Sons and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 Native Daughters of the Golden West once more topped the hurdle of Old Spanish Days Fiesta, a week of historical celebration which has grown to such importance as to command world-wide attention and national participation.

In no other occasion do the allied Orders do more to hold their bridge-building position in the community. Working in unison, the Sons and Daughters take over historical El Paseo in the very heart of the Channel City the Sunday of fiesta week for their unique pre-fiesta reception and tea. Honored on this occasion are descendants of Pioneers of the Spanish, or first civilized, era of Santa Barbara history. Two score of these descendants, most of them wearing rich heirloom costumes handed down from the days of the dons, were guests of honor this August. Equally honored were officials of Old Spanish days, several of whom, including El Presidente Samuel J. Stanwood, belong to the Order of Native Sons.

This year's formal program was discarded and the pre-fiesta tea became an oldtime reception. Paul Sweetser, historian of Santa Barbara Parlor and president of the Santa Barbara County Historical Society, delivered the principal address, in polished Spanish. The dancing and singing groups of Reina del Mar Parlor brought back the songs of old led by Daisy Prideaux and danced the beautiful Spanish measures under the leadership of Teresa Janssens. Presidents A. J. Janssens and Dorothy A. Yule presided over the function.

Native Daughter participation in the tea was in charge of the landmarks and history sections of Reina del Mar, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Anna E. McCaughey and Mrs. Wesley McCormick. Mrs. Mabel Erwin, descendant of a long line of Pioneers, was official hostess. Attending in behalf of the Grand Parlor were Past Grand Presidents Cora B. Sifford and Grace S. Woermer of Los Angeles, Grand Marshal Clarice Cook and Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg.

Because of its continuing interest in the preservation of history, Reina del Mar Parlor annually is assigned the pleasureable duty of selecting a member to serve as Saint Barbara through the fiesta. Miss Dorothy Poole, this year's selection, proved so attractive in her saintly robes that press photo syndications carried her picture to the newspapers of the country. Past President Harry Sweetser of Santa Barbara Parlor again served effectively as grand marshal of the historic parade, and Mrs. Fred Acres was in charge of the oldtime carriages entered in the parade. Immediately after the parade the Santa Barbara County Federation of Women's Clubs gave a public reception in the Spanish-style County Court House, with the Native Daughters participating.

The evening of the parade belonged to Santa Barbara Parlor of Native Sons and their annual banquet at Montecito Country Club. Again tickets were at a premium, and a second banquet hall was needed. Especially honored on this occasion were the brightly uniformed posses of the sheriffs of Los Angeles and San Francisco Counties. President Janssens had appointed a particularly effective committee under the chairmanship of A. J. Dinsmore and Harry C. Sweetser, with H. B. Campbell serving as toastmaster. After a speaking program, dancing continued into the morning. Among the out-of-town Native Sons in attendance were Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, Grand Marshal Walter C. Richards, Past Grand President Judge Fletcher A. Cutler, Supervising Deputy John O'B. Bodkin, Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz and Raymond Haight.

There followed busy days of participation in various events. Many Sons and Daughters were in the cast of Charles E. Pressley's historical pageant which filled Santa Barbara County Bowl every fiesta night. On one evening the Daughters sponsored at Lobero Theater "Fiesta Time," a play by Douglas Harmer. The last function of the week was staged at the Samarkand Hotel where, beginning at midnight, the Poole-Verhelle players, who all the week had given free entertainment at the sunken gardens of the County Court House, were specially honored.

Officers of both Parlors realize that the success of their Old Spanish Days Fiesta participation would not have been possible without the confidence of the adopted citizenry, and to all such who aided the Parlors give thanks.

The next joint participation of the two Parlors will deal with fitting observance of Admission Day, September 9. Again they will take over Rockwood, the Mission Canyon home of the Santa Barbara Woman's Club for a reception honoring Pioneers of the American period. The history and landmarks committees of both Parlors will be in charge. In the evening the annual grand ball will be given.

Reina del Mar Parlor has been asked to participate in exercises at La Purissima Mission, near Lompoc, celebrating the foundation of that landmark, which recently has been restored by Federal and State commissions.

Again, September 16, Santa Barbara and Reina del Mar Parlors will go to San Ynez Mission at Solvang to aid Father Syphrian in observing that mission's birthday. The restoration of the landmark remains an unfinished project of Reina del Mar. Because the mission is actively in use by the church, the structure may not be restored under Federal grant.

Los Angeles City will celebrate September 4 the 157th anniversary of its founding.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

CLARENCE M. HUNT

"THE UNITED STATES SLIPPED INTO a business recession because a considerable part of the apparent improvement in industrial activity was fictitious in the first place, and because the increase in farm monetary income between 1933 and 1937 was more apparent than real," said Dr. J. M. Tinley, associate professor of agricultural economics of the University of California, in a paper presented at the recent annual meeting of the Western Farm Economics Association in Bozeman, Montana.

"The heavy installment buying in the period merely mortgaged future income and brought no present prosperity. Such methods cannot continue indefinitely, and when they end or decline business activity follows suit." Regarding the asserted farming slipback, Dr. Tinley said "the problem is not overproduction of farm products generally, but the failure of our system to generate and maintain mass buying power. The emphasis placed on output curtailment has tended to obscure the main issue. . . .

"Our economy is becoming progressively more complex, and instead of unshackling the automatic regulative forces of competition, we are tending to put the whole economy in a straightjacket of institutionally supported monopoly regulation. Inevitably the long-time level of production of goods and services per capita will be decreased. This is a serious prospect. . . . If present trends continue, the future is gloomy. At best we can look forward to an economy of balanced scarcity. But the probability is that eventually we will face a violent economic and social upheaval."

With the recent Federal Congress' adjournment all bills to loosen immigration restrictions failed of passage, according to the American Coalition, a group of more than 100 civic, patriotic and fraternal organizations opposed to any weakening of Immigration Quota Acts.

Those acts have, it is estimated, barred from this country some 25,000,000 aliens from areas of low living standards, most of whom breed like rabbits. The quota acts must not be amended, and the immigration bars must be maintained!

Speaking recently at Fort Worth, Texas, President Franklin D. Roosevelt said: "You need more industries in Texas, but I know you realize the importance of not trying to get industries by the route of cheap labor for industrial workers. Cheap wages mean low buying power. Low buying power means low standards of living, and that means low taxable values and therefore a difficulty in maintaining good schools, good highways, sanitation and other public improvements." California, too, needs more industries of a substantial nature!

Exact 1937-38 figures are not available but the estimated increase is 15 percent. In the meantime, savings resulting from transfer of school costs to the State are being wiped out. All in all, property taxpayers, with less ability to pay, are due for heavier burdens." The heavier burdens can be materially lightened by the voting taxpayers, if that be their desire!

The Anti-Alien League of Americans has been incorporated in California by a group of Los Angeles residents headed by Leo Youngworth. The chief objectives, it is said, are to prohibit the employment of non-citizens and to keep aliens off relief rolls. Aliens eligible for citizenship are urged to apply for citizenship papers at once.

A recent survey showed that 18 percent of the Los Angeles County relief funds go to the support of non-citizens, and that in San Diego County aliens get 27 percent. If the League's plans are successful, unemploymen and taxation may be considerably lessened, it is contended.

"Savagery" is the title of the following editorial that recently appeared in the Sacramento Bee: "History can be searched in vain for anything more barbaric, more brutal, more inhuman than the continued Japanese air raids on China. Therein is revealed a savagery that would bring the blush of shame even to the cheek of a Caligula or a Genghis Khan. It is not war, it is butchery, and that on a scale unparalleled in modern times.

"The one relieving thought is that this frightfulness may be born of Japanese panic. . . . If in the end it is . . . fatal to the Japanese schemes the rejoicing will be . . . worldwide. For no decent human being, whatever his race and nationality, can look upon such dastardly conduct with any feeling but that of utter horror and detestation."

HOPES TO ESTABLISH NATURE GUIDE WORK IN STATE PARKS

Editor Grizzly Bear—Recently I spent a fort night on nature study work at Point Lobos State Park near Monterey. There I found listed as a state park Fort Ross Historical Monument. I recalled the time Mrs. Goethe and I hired a horse and buggy and went out to what was then quite a wilderness and located the old Fort Ross ruins. The photographs we took were forwarded to you. You will remember, you and I together thus started a campaign which finally resulted in the saving of these buildings. I have long been a student of California history and grasped that this meant the extreme advance of Russian power in this part of the world.

While we were at Point Lobos came the news of the recent discovery of some eighty sea otters, our most valuable fur-bearing mammals. These were supposed to have been extinct for nearly a century. That seemed the real reason for the establishment of a military post at Fort Ross.

Incidentally, our present work at Point Lobos State Park was based upon the hope we might parallel eventually in the state parks the success which came to our work at the beginning of the century. Mrs. Goethe and I made studies of the nature guide work of the mountains of Switzerland and Norway. These surveys extended over several years in Europe, and covered eventually also Scotland, England, Holland, Germany and Denmark. We then saved up the money to support a modified form of this at Lake Tahoe. We appealed to the University of California for professors. Because of this, Dr. Bryant at Berkeley and Dr. Loye Miller of Los Angeles came into the work. Director of National Parks Mather saw its remarkable success, and asked me to come to Yosemite Christmas 1919 and arrange for its transfer to the national parks, which was accomplished. This work has grown tremen-

HONORS FOR NATIVE DAUGHTER.

One more achievement in the life of Miss Grace S. Stoermer, Past Grand President N.D.G.W., was her pledging and initiation into Delta Zeta Sorority at its recent national convention in Pasadena. Each year the sorority bestows this honor on an outstanding woman of the country.

At commencement exercises August 11, Woodbury Business College conferred on Miss Stoermer the honorary degree of Master of Business Administration, an honor accorded but two carefully selected candidates each year.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Hervey L. Kitchin (Ramona N.S.) was a visitor last month to San Francisco.

Josephine Reichman (Long Beach N.D.) is vacationing in Great Falls, Montana.

Mrs. Kate McFadyen (Long Beach N.D.) was a visitor to San Francisco last month.

Mrs. Leola Temby (Long Beach N.D.) has returned from a recent visit to Sacramento.

Mrs. Harriet LeVitt (Californiana N.D.) of Catalina spent her vacation at Lake Tahoe.

Mrs. Gladys E. Noce (Past Grand President N.D.) of Sutter Creek was a visitor last month.

A native daughter arrived at the home of Superior Judge Edward R. Brand (Hollywood N.S.) August 9.

John M. Larronde (Ramona N.S.) has been re-elected president of the Board of Fire Commissioners for the sixth time.

Miss Margaret Coleman (Californiana N.D.) and sister, Mrs. Nellie DuSoe, enjoyed a jaunt through Eastern and Southern states during the summer.

CALIFORNIA PIONEER OF FORTY-NINE CROSSES THE GREAT DIVIDE.

San Rafael (Marin County)—John Harry Priestly Gedge, one of the very few remaining California Pioneers of 1849 and a member of the Society of California Pioneers, San Francisco, died here August 25, survived by four daughters.

A native of Tasmania, aged 95, he arrived at San Francisco aboard the bark Osprey as a lad of 6 in 1849, and for years took an active interest in the city's affairs. He saw the marching of the Vigilantes, the lynching of Casey and Cora, and the milling mobs in the streets when President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated.

Sonora, Tuolumne County, has voted $17,500 bonds for a new combined city hall and fire house.

Nevada City, Nevada County, has voted $20,000 bonds for improvements to the local high school.

THE PRAIRIE SCHOONER

(HELEN ELIZABETH COPLEY.)

Rumbling o'er the prairies
Over hill and dale
Fording through the rivers
And along the dusty trail
O'er the great wide desert
Riding side by side
Until at last they come
To the Great Divide.

Weary oxen plodding onward
Weary ponies with spirit gone
But as like a floating banner
Comes the watchword: on and on!
Now the nation becomes stronger
Ways have changed like all the rest
But the schooner stands alone
Still the spirit of the West.

(The above, written by 10-year-old Helen Elizabeth Copley of King City, Monterey County, came to The Grizzly Bear from Mrs. Bertha A. Briggs of Hollister, Past Grand President N.D.G.W., with the notation: "One Friday afternoon the teacher gave the pupils a short period of time in which to write a story, choosing their own subjects. Helen wrote the above."—Editor.)

In Memoriam

CLARA PALMER.

To the Officers and Members of La Junta Parlor No 203 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft a resolution of respect to the memory of our beloved Sister Clara Palmer, respectfully submit the following

Whereas, The Heavenly Father, in His wisdom, has sent His messenger of death and summoned home our dearly beloved sister, Mrs. Clara Palmer, a cherished friend and daughter of an esteemed pioneer family. The golden links of fraternity and friendship have been severed, for in every phase of life she followed the precepts of our Order. Be it therefore

Resolved, That our Parlor extend to the bereaved family our deepest sympathy in their sorrow.

Respectfully submitted in P.D.E.A.

MARTHA KLUBESCHEIDT,
CELESTE THORSEN,
MARIE SIGNORELLI,
Recording Secretary.

LOS ANGELES CITY ELECTION

SEPTEMBER 16, 1938

THE RECALL IS BEING USED BY "SELF-STYLED" REFORMERS TO GAIN PERSONAL PUBLICITY. RECALL CASTS REFLECTION AGAINST OUR CITY. THE RECALLERS WOULD MAKE LOS ANGELES A "SNOOPER" TOWN WITH 9 O'CLOCK CURFEW. . . . OUR TOURIST INDUSTRY WOULD SUFFER, BUSINESS AND LABOR WOULD BE HEAVY LOSERS IN INCOME AND WAGES.

"THE ROMANCE OF CALIFORNIA."

The Sacramento Chamber of Commerce has issued a most interesting booklet, as a "boost" for the Capital City's Golden Empire Centennial celebration next year, titled "The Romance of California."

The booklet features "The Golden Trail Into the Mother Lode,"—the gold-producing counties contiguous to Sacramento—and gives a brief history of the "ghost" towns, as well as the surviving and thriving communities, therein. Copies of the booklet may be had for the modest sum of twenty-five cents each.

ONE OF THE GREATEST EXPEDITIONS of its kind in all botanical history is about to set forth to gather rare, exotic flowers for the gardens of America and the Golden Gate International Exposition. It will be under the direction of Dr. T. Harper Goodspeed, director University of California botanical gardens, and will cover a wide sweep of southern South America.

Benicia, Solano County, will have its annual Oldtimers Days September 17 and 18.

East Bay Counties Assembly No. 3 Past Presidents Association N.S.G.W.—Meets 1st Monday, Native Sons Hall, 11th and Clay Sts., Oakland; George T. Prytz, Gov.; Edgar G. Hanson, Sec., 1260 Russell St., Berkeley.

MARSHALL AND VALLEJO HAD DISPLAYS AT 1860 STATE FAIR.

John Wilson Marshall, discoverer of gold at Colomat, El Dorado County, in 1848, also achieved considerable fame as a grape grower, according to H. M. Butterfield of the College of Agriculture, University of California.

The record shows that Marshall made a fine display of grapes at the California State Fair of 1860, twelve years after he made his world-stirring discovery of the precious metal. At the same fair, General M. G. Vallejo exhibited some wine produced in the Valley of the Moon, Sonoma County.

Butterfield shows that the grape, like most of California's fruits, originated in lower and southern California. The Mission San Gabriel seems to have been the first place that grapes were grown in the state, and is presumed to be the place where the famed Mission variety got its start. This variety also used to be known as the "Grape of Los Angeles," the "California," the "El Paso" and the native grape. The grape has developed from a few isolated plantings at the time the first mission was established to the 275,000,000 vines of today.

Some fabulous stories are told regarding the size of some of the early vines. One at Santa Barbara City was reported to have attained 12,000 square feet by 1890 and to have borne a crop of from five to ten tons in a single year. Another, at Carpenteria, Santa Barbara County, was said to have covered a half-acre of ground and to have borne ten tons in a single year. The first election in Santa Barbara County was said to have been held under this vine at Carpenteria.

In Memoriam

DOROTHY STOCKTON CASCI.

To the Officers and Members of El Tejon Parlor No. 239 Native Daughters of the Golden West—We, your committee named to draft resolutions of respect in honor of our departed Sister Dorothy Stockton Casci, offer a message of sincere sympathy:

She is gone from our midst, but her memory shall ever remain in our hearts as one of our best and sincerest friends. Be it

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to her bereaved family, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to them, also to The Grizzly Bear for publication, and that a copy be spread upon our minutes.

Respectfully submitted,

AUGUSTUS J. WALSH.
President Santa Clara Parlor N.S.G.W.

To the Officers and Members of Santa Clara Parlor No. 100, N.S.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed brother, Augustus J. Walsh, do herewith submit the following:

Whereas, This Parlor deeply mourns his passing and hereby extends to his bereaved relatives its sincere and profound sympathy in their hour of loss and sorrow. In the passing of Augustus J. Walsh we have lost a worthy member, a true Native Son, a member esteemed for his friendship, loyalty and charity. We bow in humble prayer, realizing our loss is the heavenly gain of our esteemed brother.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this Parlor, that a copy be forwarded to the family of our deceased brother, and a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear for publication.

Respectfully submitted in Friendship, Loyalty and Charity.

Palo Alto—With Deputies Elizabeth Parker and Christopher Baldo officiating, officers of Palo Alto No. 229 and Palo Alto No. 216 N.S.G.W. were installed. Helen G. Hansen and Leonard R. Avilla becoming the respective presidents. Dancing and refreshments served a very delightful evening. As a part of their extension program, the Parlors plan a dance in the near future.

Santa Ana—Supervising Deputy Ray Bessey, assisted by Evelyn Shaddox and Nora Nye, publicly installed the officers of Santa Ana No. 245, Mrs. Genevieve Hiskey becoming president. Many visitors witnessed the ceremonies, including a large delegation from Lugonia No. 241 of San Bernardino. Boquets of beautiful flowers decorated the hall. A penny march, led by Grand Trustees Mary B. Noerenberg and Walter C. Richards, netted $7.76 for the home's children. Other visitors were Mrs. Florence Schoenemann, Mrs. Bertha Hitt, "Mother" of the Parlor, and Mrs. Clarence M. Hunt. A short program of dancing was closed by Evelyn Shaddox singing "End of a Perfect Day." Refreshments concluded a very enjoyable evening. Eunice Fox and Mildred Wheeler supervised the decorating, and Hazel Flaherty and Florence Watson had charge of the refreshments.—M.S.

Albany—Albany No. 260 had a "camporee night" at which the members appeared in camping clothes. Singing and games were enjoyed, and refreshments were served. Margaret Cannon was the chairman. The sewing club met at the home of Hazlette Taylor and worked on prizes to be awarded at a pillowcase whist October 26.—M.V.

In Memoriam

IDA BELLE HERMAN.

To the Officers and Members of Amapola Parlor No. 80 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of love and respect to the memory of our departed sister, Miss Ida Belle Herman, herewith submit the following:

Whereas God, in His Infinite wisdom, has seen fit to again send forth the Angel of Death and remove from our Sisterhood and our community one who was very dear to us, being not only one of our members, but also one of our Charter Members; and whereas, we deeply feel the loss the Parlor has suffered by the passing out of this life to her Heavenly Home, when our beloved sister, Ida Belle Herman answered the Angel's call, thus stepping through the door that opened into the Great Beyond. Realizing that Our Heavenly Father doeth all things well and that

"Life that transient as the hour,
Is the seed of an immortal flower,
Which will live, through all the cycles of eternity"

She is not lost to those who love her, only gone before. Therefore, be It

THE FALL SEASON WILL BE AN EXceptionally active one with Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. Taking the lead in philanthropic affairs, the Parlor is sponsoring a card party scheduled for October 15 at Griffith Park Clubhouse. The committee in charge of arrangements met for tea at the home of President Anna T. Schiebusch September 10, and reports from committee members indicate a surpassing attendance. Tickets have been sold to members of other Parlors as far north as San Francisco. Committee members are: table placement, Mrs. Myrtle DeLuce; auction bridge hostess, Miss Juliette DeNubila; contract bridge hostess, Mrs. Ethel Kennedy; bunco hostess, Mrs. Juanita Porter; treasurer, Mrs. Olinda Kerby; hospitality, Mrs. Louise McNary; table prizes, Mms.

Louise Crawford and Louise Summers; refreshments, Miss Edna Holcomb and Mrs. Minnie Hale. A door prize of a camphorwood chest filled with bridal linens will be given away; the chest and its contents are in the care of Miss Flora Holy and Mrs. Sophia Stewart. Ticket sales are under the direction of Mrs. Edna T. Neikirk.

The Annie L. Adair Memorial Fund will be the beneficiary of this party, and any receipts in excess of Los Angeles Parlor's quota of that fund will go to the homeless children and veterans welfare committees. President Schiebusch reports that recent correspondence with grand officers of the Order, and with Reina Del Mar Parlor of Santa Barbara, originator of the fund, indicate that it will be used as a scholarship for orphans who have been placed through the efforts of the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Central Homeless Children Committee. Annie L. Adair was a member of Los Angeles Parlor, and for years devoted her life to the homeless children cause. Because of her unselfish devotion and sacrifice to the work, it was proposed at the 1933 Grand Parlor to commemorate her life, and the present plans are the outgrowth of the desire of all Native Daughters Parlors of the state to carry on her work of helping orphan children find their place in the world.

Sunday morning, September 18, at Fern Dell in Griffith Park, Los Angeles Parlor had a breakfast in honor of Grand President Edna B. Briggs and Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, who were in Los Angeles for the institution of two new parlors. Founder Lilly O. Reichling-Dyer was also an honor-guest. President Schiebusch, assisted by Mrs. Louise McNary and Miss Edna Holcomb and their committees, acted as hostesses of the delightful affair.—H.M.

FLAGS PRESENTED COMPTON BY NATIVE SONS, CONSTITUTION DAY.

Compton—September 17, the one hundred and fifty-first anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States, Compton Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W. presented to the City of Compton United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags, and a sixty-one foot flagpole erected in front of the City Hall. A bronze plaque set at the base of the pole is inscribed "Presented to City of Compton, California, by Compton Parlor No. 273 Native Sons of the Golden West Sept. 17, 1938." Imbedded in the plaque is a replica of the California bear with the initials N.S.G.W., a gift of Frank L. Tarleton.

President Walter G. Hopcraft presided at the ceremonies and welcomed the large number in attendance, including representatives of the Compton Pioneer Society and many local civic and fraternal organizations. Police Judge Stanley W. Sargent presented the flags and flagpole for the Parlor, and they were accepted by Mayor LeRoy Alymer, who commended Compton for its civic accomplishments. Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer formally dedicated the gifts, and concluded his remarks by proclaiming "These flags are now dedicated to the principles of Truth, Liberty and Toleration."

The committee in charge of arrangements included President Hopcraft, Wm. Don Castillo, Hector Hecox, District Deputy Ray W. Tarleton, A. R. Tarleton, Frank L. Tarleton, Marvin Eckstrom and Judge Sargent. Compton Parlor is grateful to the following for their co-operation: City Manager J. H. Park, the Owl Truck and Materials Co., the Merit Water Heater Co., the American Building Co., Mike Dawson, the Wilshire Oil Co., M. A. Macris, Harry B. Bassford and the Melody Shop.—W.D.C.

OLD CONCERN IN NEW QUARTERS.

The Coulter Dry Goods Company, which for a half-century has been recognized as a leading Los Angeles business establishment, September 12 opened its handsome new store building at 5600 Wilshire boulevard, which is stocked with the usual high-class merchandise for which Coulter's is noted.

The golden anniversary of the company, founded by B. F. Coulter, will be celebrated from October 22 to November 5.

AMATEUR CONTEST.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. had a very large attendance at its September 15 meeting, when an amateur contest was featured. The participants included Robert Pasqueira, Gordon Collins, Sophia Stewart, Owen S. Adams, Betty Schellenbach, Leslie Schellenbach, Mollie Johnson, Mrs. Pasqueira, Miss Charmain, Arthur Leonard, President Peter DeCatte, Roger Johnson, Messrs. Burleigh and Fred, Less Brown and the University Parlor quartet. The finale was the singing of popular songs by the assemblage, 125 voices.

The judges awarded prizes to the following: Art Leonard, a membership in any Native Sons

CONSTITUTION DAY COMMEMORATED.

Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. started a new year September 13 under most auspicious circumstances. The opening fall luncheon September 13 was well attended, and President Wynfred B. Johnson and Program Chairman Mary Noerenberg extended warm greetings. As Constitution Day was commemorated, Grand Trustee Noerenberg presented George J. Major, who took for his topic "More Than a Glimpse of the Constitution." He took his hearers down from the framing of the Magna Charta, through the Bill of Rights, and to the Declaration of Independence and the signing of that peerless document, the Constitution of the United States. "An informed public is a thinking public," he said. Russell Conwell Ross gave a lucid description of the proposed Los Angeles civic center plan to cost $55,000,000. Interesting pictures were screened to show how the plan is to be carried out.

At the September 27 meeting of Californiana a delightful tea program was presented by the hostess, Mrs. Claude F. Hale, who was assisted by her daughters, Mms. Wellington B. Love, T. H. Walker and R. C. Quizenberry. Mrs. Beatrice Wahrmund, chairman of the Gertrude Sewing Circle, reported a delightful luncheon at which her sister, Miss Grace Vejar, was hostess. Guests included Supervising Deputy Hazel Hansen and Deputy Leola Temby. The next luncheon meeting of the circle will be held October 3 at the home of Mrs. Mary B. Noerenberg. Mrs. Ysabel Munroe and Miss Romilda Moree did yeoman work for the Admission Day celebration at Sycamore and Plummer Parks.—O.L.

SERIES OF TALKS INAUGURATED.

Santa Monica—Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. inaugurated September 29 a series of monthly talks. Captain Ed. Ayres was the initial speaker, his subject being "California History." September 22 four candidates were initiated.

October 11 the Parlor will have a bingo-bunco party. "Bring your friends for a big night," says Secretary John Smith. October 20 a large class of candidates will be initiated. Early in November a fine show, being arranged by the boosters committee, will be featured. Santa Monica Bay's drum corps appeared in the American Legion parade in downtown Los Angeles September 19. The corps now consists of thirty pieces under the leadership of Wm. J. Heine. The Parlor has a new bulletin, in charge of the press committee—Hal Baida, Ysidro E. Reyes and Dr. Leland W. Clark.

MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED.

Glendale—Members of Glendale Parlor No. 264 N.S.G.W. were guests September 15 of Pete Romeo Sr. at his Burbank home, where they were treated to a delicious Italian dinner.

September 6 the Parlor launched an active campaign for new members. Prizes are offered members bringing in applications, and several were presented at the September 20 meeting. Fred Olchvary, in charge of No. 264's bulletin, was given a vote of thanks. Visitors are always welcome at Glendale's affairs.—C.E.A.

HOMELESS CHILDREN OFFICERS.

Newly elected officers of the Los Angeles County N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Committee include: Betty Grayson, chairman; Grace Norton, vice-chairman; Flora Holy, treasurer; Eugenia Smith, recording secretary; John Gower, financial secretary.

PAST PRESIDENTS IN CHARGE.

Glendale—Past presidents of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. met at the home of Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen, Chairman Vera Carlson presiding. Chairman Mary Miller had a meeting of the ways and means committee at her Pasadena home. Members of the Parlor were guests of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 September 7, and enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Past presidents were in charge of the entertainment and social features of Verdugo September 27. In the fiesta parade, the Parlor was represented by a float "California Under Twelve Flags." On the float were Mms. Dorothy Pogue, Betty Sanders, E. Wilson, L. Pagliuso, Michelmore, Marguerite Piuma, Ione Gillette, Kern, Phyllis Hirst, Laurie Leonetti, Elsie Bledsoe and Harriette Weeks.—A.S.

BARBECUE DRAWS BIG CROWD.

San Pedro—Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. had a fish dinner September 16; Matt Soares and John Paralieu were in charge. September 18 the Parlor staged a splendid steak barbecue at Royal Palms, which was attended by some 350, including Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards and members of neighboring N.S. and N.D. Parlors. Dancing was enjoyed. John Mele and Dewey Richards were in charge.

In a baseball game between a team from Ramona Parlor No. 109 and the Native Son Juniors of San Pedro, the former won, 7 to 5. Carl Sheridan, a native of Mexico, but a resident of California twenty-two years, presented to Stephen M. White Parlor an elaborate oil painting depicting many historic California scenes and including an excellent likeness of Senator Stephen M. White. Past Grand Meyer accepted the gift for the Parlor, and President John C. Swinford thanked the donor. The picture, nicely

CITY AND COUNTY — THE GATE WAY TO GOLDEN CALIFORNIA

SAN BERNARDINO—TERMINATING THE summer recess, Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. resumed regular meetings September 14, with President Marguerite McKenzie presiding. Plans for fall activities were discussed. Deputy Dorothy Ravn and a delegation from Verdugo Parlor No. 240, Glendale, were special guests.

Josephine Strinati, chairman of civics, reported on an Admission Day project in which Lugonia had a part, arranging a display in the window of a local bank of old pictures, the great seal of state mounted on cardboard of the colors of the Order and small United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags. Refreshments were served during the social hour following the meeting. September 21 the Parlor had a potluck supper at which members of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. were guests. —H.P.

EXPECT N.S. GRAND OFFICERS.

San Bernardino—Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. expects to have a large class of candidates ready for initiation during October, and if it does Grand President Joseph J. McShane and other grand officers will visit and exemplify the ritual. The Parlor's luncheon club meets at 12:10 noon every Wednesday, and all Native Sons are welcome. There are no speeches, just a round table discussion of affairs of interest to the Order and the Parlor.

Since moving to its new meetingplace, V.F.W. Hall, 376½ F street, the attendance at Arrowhead's meetings has increased considerably. President Charles Vatcher provides entertainment or a feast, sometimes both, for every meeting. Treasurer John Andreson Jr. has been appointed a member of the Board of Directors of the Twenty-eighth District Agricultural Association.

FAREWELL PARTY.

Ontario—Members of Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. were invited by Irma Anderson to her home, September 21, for a farewell party in honor of Charter Member Bee Herzberg, who is leaving Ontario to reside in Hermosa Beach. She has been very active in Parlor affairs, and was the recipient of many gifts. The hostess provided a very enjoyable evening.

With Frances Mitchell in charge, a potluck dinner was served September 29. Deputy Thelma Nett was a guest, as were also the husbands of the Parlor members. At the meeting which followed plans were made for the official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs October 27.

San Bernardino will be the meetingplace for the California Real Estate Association's thirty-fourth annual state convention, October 4-8.

Sacramento City voters have approved a $425,000 bond issue for improvement of public schools.

Santa Cruz City has authorized a bond issue of $114,000 for a civic auditorium.

SEQUOIA NATIONAL PARK WONDER SOON TO BE OPENED.

Development of Crystal Cave, one of the world's largest and most beautiful caverns, has begun under supervision of the Federal National Park Service. The Interior Department recently appropriated funds for construction of adequate approach roads and trails inside the cave.

This natural wonder in Sequoia National Park has been kept closed since its discovery twenty years ago through lack of funds for development. It soon will be opened to the public. The cave includes two long tunnels and eight circular rooms ranging from forty to more than one hundred feet in width and from twenty to sixty feet in hight. The tunnels are from ten to twenty feet wide and extend more than 1,500 feet. They have a broken ascent of about one hundred feet from end to end and describe a zigzag course.

SAN FRANCISCO—THE BOARD OF Grand Officers met September 10. In attendance were Grand President Joseph J. McShane, who presided, Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller, Grand Second Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustees Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Wayne R. Millington, Raymond D. Williamson, Walter C. Richards, Walter P. Rothenbush and Charles A. Redding. Past Grands Joseph R. Knowland and Harmon D. Skillin were visitors.

A request that the Grand Parlor make payments to the State Unemployment Reserve Fund was referred to a committee consisting of Grand First Vice-president Miller and Grand Trustees Cosgrove and Williamson for investigation.

The Grand Secretary was directed to address a letter to the secretary of the State Board of Agriculture calling attention to the fact that not a single California State (Bear) Flag was in evidence at this year's State Fair, and urging that the flag be on display at all future State Fairs.

The Grand Secretary was ordered to communicate with certain large business concerns, call their attention to the fact that Admission Day is a legal holiday, and urge them in future to observe it as such.

An invitation was ordered extended Past Grand Judge Fletcher A. Cutler to attend the Board's next meeting, when the Mother's Day Ritual of which he is the author will be further considered.

Les Schellbach of Glendale Parlor No. 264 was, in accordance with legislation adopted at the last Grand Parlor, ordered paid $250 for his copyrighted marching song.

East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 having been instituted with more than fifty members, was voted a $150 supplies credit.

Much routine business was transacted, and the Board adjourned to the call of Grand President McShane.

Thousands View Colorful Parade.

San Diego—The Admission Day, September 9, celebration in San Diego, sponsored by San Diego No. 108 and San Diego No. 208 N.D.G.W., was a grand success. Major-General Louis McC. Little, U.S.M.C., was grand marshal of the colorful parade in which more than 5,000 marchers and thirty floats appeared. The prizewinning float, entered by the Naval Training Station featured the old lighthouse on Point Loma, one of San Diego's many historic spots.

After the parade, which was viewed by thousands, there was a reception-luncheon at Balboa Park. Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer presided, and among the speakers were Henry U. Emery, Joseph C. Kelly, Representative Ed. V. Izac and Dr. C. H. Henderson, president San Diego Parlor.

At Tracy, San Joaquin County, Sunday, October 9, an elementary school.

At Sutter City, Sutter County, Sunday, October 16, a highway bridge.

At Bakersfield, Kern County, Friday evening, October 28, an elementary school, and Sunday, October 30, a high school.

All Natives and the general public are extended an invitation to attend these ceremonies.

Thirty-three Initiated.

Oakland—The reception and banquet in honor of Grand President Joseph J. McShane, sponsored by the Alameda County Extension of the Order Committee and briefly referred to in The Grizzly Bear for September, was largely attended. L. J. Zimmerman presided as chairman of the evening, and the banquet speakers were Mayor William J. McCracken, Grand President McShane, Past Grands Joseph R. Knowland and Judge Fletcher Cutler, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr and Supervising Deputy Harold B. Farley. Among other guests were Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, and Grand Trustees Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Charles A. Redding.

At the banquet's conclusion thirty-three candidates for the Alameda County Parlors were initiated. The ritual was exemplified by a county team composed of Bernard J. Abrott of Berkeley No. 210 as president, Melvine Dias, Dr. A. S. Silva, J. Pricco, M. Pissano, J. Dignan Jr., J. Kelly, M. O. Peterson, B. Woodward, F. M. Norris, William Dombrinck, E. Raupt and Richard McCarthy.

Marker To Honor Early Comer.

Bakersfield—Bakersfield No. 42 and El Tejon No. 239 N.D.G.W. will dedicate a historical marker honoring Don Pedro Fages, a Spanish explorer who first visited the San Joaquin Valley in 1772.

The ceremonies will be held at Lebec, on the Ridge Route, at 2 p.m. of Sunday, October 9. A fine program has been arranged, and all Natives are urged to attend.—H.A.B.

Golden Bear Dedicated.

Lodi—A new golden bear gracing the entrance arch to this city was dedicated in the presence of a large assemblage during the Grape Festival September 18 by Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Trustees Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Walter P. Rothenbush, and Grand Outside Sentinel Walter N. Bailey.

The bear was presented to the city by Lodi No. 18. V. R. Larson was chairman of the day. Grand President McShane made the presentation address, and the bear was accepted by Mayor George M. Steele of Stockton No. 7. Following the presentation and unveiling, there was a parade in which several Parlors of Native Sons and Native Daughters participated. Lodi's committee in charge of arrangements included Henry Harrison, chairman, Vic Larson, Raymond Rodacker and Robert Leonardini.

ADMISSION DAY AT VALLEJO

THE GAYLY DECORATED STREETS OF the historic City of Vallejo, Solano County, were lined with interested spectators the morning of September 9, to witness the glittering Admission Day parade of Native Sons and Native Daughters of California, augmented by state, city, army and navy officials, United States sailors and marines, and various fraternal organizations of the host city.

Led by Grand Marshals Harold J. Zimmerman of the N.S.G.W. and Clarice E. Cook of the N.D.G.W., the tuneful, colorful parade wound its way along the two-and one half-mile course. For three and one-half hours beautiful floats, artistically decorated autos, smartly uniformed drum corps, snappy drill teams and attractively attired marching units passed in review before applauding multitudes gathered from all sections of the state to celebrate California's eighty eighth birthday.

The "Queen of the Golden West," Miss Eileen Snead of Mary E. Bell Parlor No. 224 N.D.G.W., Dixon, charming in royal robes, smiled graciously from a huge poppy, fronted by a replica of the third capitol of the state, erected in Vallejo by General Mariano Guadalupe Vallejo in 1852. Nearby stood a golden bear, emblematic of California.

San Francisco's float, representing the Golden Gate International Exposition, was made up of thousands of beautiful flowers among which were seated charming maidens in dainty robes. The city by the Golden Gate contributed six divisions to the parade. Oakland and Alameda County entered a gorgeous float composed of even more flowers and beautiful girls. The East Bay representation comprised two divisions.

One of the most attractive marching units came from Stockton Parlor No. 256 N.D.G.W., the participants being attired in golden-hued messaline robes and carrying armfuls of golden poppies. The Pioneer Mothers of Donner Parlor No. 193 N.D.G.W., Byron, recalled the tragic story of the ill-fated Donner Party. A highlight of the parade was the 150-piece University of California band.

NONE WANTED HERE BUT LOVERS OF THE AMERICAN FLAG.

At the conclusion of the Admission Day parade, grand officers of the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West, and other prominent persons were honored guests at a civic luncheon. Russell F. O'Hara was the toastmaster, Eldred L. Meyer, Junior Past Grand President N.S.G.W., pronounced an invocation, and Fred H. Heegler, Vallejo Mayor, extended a welcome.

Lewis F. Byington, Past Grand President N.S.G.W., was the chief speaker of the occasion. His subject was "Americanism and the Constitution." Beginning his stirring address with, "It is the spirit of loyalty to the Constitution of the United States, growing up and fostered in the breasts of the youth of America, which will ever be the security of the Nation," he said, in concluding, "The enemies of organized government, those who preach the overthrow of law and order by force and terrorism, the communist and anarchist, should find no home on the soil of California. We want none here but loyal men, the lovers of one flag—the American Flag!"

Other speakers were Frank F. Merriam, Governor of California; Rear Admiral David W. Bagley, U.S.N., Commandant Mare Island Navy Yard; Earl Warren, Attorney-General-elect of California; Joseph J. McShane, Grand President N.S.G.W., and Mrs. Edna B. Briggs, Grand President N.D.G.W. "I Love You, California," by the Vallejo Choral Society, Kenneth R. Dick director, concluded the luncheon, which was attended by more than 200.

"Our Golden Heritage."

Hollister—September 7 Copa de Oro No. 105 had a happy meeting opening with a dinner at which seventy-three were seated. Carrying out the theme "Our Golden Heritage," with a color scheme of yellow, the candle-lighted tables were decorated with Bear Flags, golden-hued candy baskets and bowls of yellow blossoms. The head table was centered with a horn of plenty from which tumbled seasonal fruits and vegetables. Yellow song sheet covers bore sketches of the Golden Gate Bridge and the dates "1850-1938." Many others joined the diners at the business session, during which an original sketch featured the Admission of California into the Union. Mexico was personated by Retiring President Mary Grunnagle and California by President-elect Lila Melendy. Historic characters impersonated were President Millard Fillmore, Calhoun, Clay, Fremont, Uncle Sam, Don Carrillo and a Pioneer Mother.

Officers were installed by Deputy Mary Gregory Antonetti, assisted by officers from Santa Cruz No. 26; all were attired in white gowns and carried arm sprays of poppies and ferns. Local officers wore floor-length taffetas and carried hand boquets of yellow flowers with golden streamers. The meetinghall was tastily decorated with a wealth of yellow flowers. Alta Trowbridge, as California, in a yellow gown and with a crown of gold, presented gifts to Retiring President Grunnagle, Deputy Antonetti and Supervising Deputy Mildred Peers. Uncle Sam and the Pioneer Mother presented flowers to Grand Trustee Rose Rhyner and Alta Trowbridge. Guests were present from Santa Cruz, Salinas, Watsonville, San Juan Bautista and San Rafael. At the close of the evening, light refreshments were served in the banquethall. Plans for the evening were in charge of Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs, assisted by an active committee. Copa de Oro will hold its annual homeless children benefit card party Wednesday evening, October 19.

Tidy Sum Netted for Homeless Children.

Placentia—The Round Table Clubhouse was decorated with a profusion of dahlias in warm autumn tones, when members and friends of Grace No. 242 gathered September 8 for an evening of cards sponsored by the ways and means committee. In carrying out a theme significant of the primal object of the Order, the family of Mrs. Matilda Enfield had prepared the tallies for the evening, clever cutout figures of the Pioneer Mother. Before the serving of delicious refreshments, a beautiful quilt was sold and netted the homeless children committee a tidy sum.

September 15, Deputy Edna Niekirk and a delegation of Los Angeles No. 124 members were welcome guests of the Parlor. The hall was decorated with baskets of yellow cosmos and zinnias. Secretary Mary Rothaermel's birthday was celebrated when members and guests were seated at long tables decorated with bowls of single asters. Rene Johnson, Mayme Herigoyen and Grace Whaley, as hostesses, served refreshments.—A.K.D.

Many Visitors at Official Visit.

Manteca—Phoebe A. Hearst No. 214 had an official visit from Grand President Edna B. Briggs September 14. There was a large attendance, with sixty-four other visitors, including Grand Marshal Clarice Cook, Grand Trustee Ethel Enos, Past Grands Carrie R. Durham and Mamie G. Peyton, Supervising Deputy Lorraine Handel and Deputy Anna Drais. A dinner preceded the meeting.

In the lodgeroom, Mrs. Briggs gave some of the highlights of California history, and Nina Williams read an article on the making of the Federal Constitution. Entertainment was provided by Virginia Diestel, Norma Jean Littleton, Robert Wilson, Jay Percival and Edward Perry. On the Parlor's behalf, Willa Wilson presented to Grand President Briggs a leather bound correspondence case. Angela Perry is general chairman of the Parlor's annual turkey whist, which will be held November 9.

NEWSY N.D.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Ione—Mrs. Rena Maddux-Rush, charter member Chispa No. 40, was honored by the Parlor with a surprise birthday party. She celebrated her seventy-seventh birthday anniversary August 20, and is still active in Parlor affairs. Mrs. Rush was presented with a basket of handkerchiefs. Delicious refreshments were served. The Parlor had an appropriate Admission Day program September 6.—E.K.

Salinas—In recognition of California's birthday, Aleli No. 102 sponsored an Admission Day program September 8 that was enjoyed by a large group of members and friends. Grand Trustee Rose Rhyner presided, President Agnes Phillips extended a welcome, and the Parlor's chorus sang appropriate selections. The guest speaker was John Muller, who recounted California's history. Nan Burden recited an original poem, and President John Souza of Santa Lucia No. 97 N.S.G.W. spoke briefly. At the conclusion of the program, which also included solos, dances and quartet numbers, refreshments were served. Aleli will have its annual card party for the benefit of the homeless children the evening of October 27.

Hollister—The Parlors of District No. 26, comprising Monterey, Santa Cruz and San Benito Counties,—Aleli No. 102 of Salinas, Junipero No. 141 of Monterey, Santa Cruz No. 26, El Pajaro No. 35 of Watsonville, Copa de Oro No. 105 of Hollister and San Juan Bautista No. 179—will hold their annual district meeting at Asilomar Saturday, October 29. Following the original custom, it will be an over-night affair. All members of the Order and interested non-members are invited. Reservations must be made with Supervising Deputy Mildred Peers, in charge of arrangements.

Oakland—Aloha No. 106 had a formal reception for Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler September 13. On the Parlor's behalf, Chairman Alberta Day presented a gift to her. Dinner was served at a table decorated in pastel shades, and Work up extra enthusiasm for the Homeless Children benefit!

The placecards were of a floral design. A card party is to be held October 4 at Recording Secretary Irma S. Murray's home.—L.B.J.

San Luis Obispo—Glorifying the traditions of early California in true historic style, San Luisita No. 108 entertained at Estrada Gardens September 11. Members of San Miguel No. 94 and El Pinal No. 163 of Cambria and their families were guests. Following a bountiful basket lunch and weiner roast under the extensive grape arbor, novelty events were participated in by children and adults, and created much merriment. A short outline history of the garden was read by Douglas McCreary, and an orchestra entertained with appropriate music. President Anna Schlicht, general chairman, was assisted by Mms. Cora Tognazzini, Anita Bergk, Mae Umbertis and Ann Hunsaker. It is planned to make this picnic fiesta an annual affair.—H.McC.

Hayward—Kathryn Walde of Hayward No. 22, who recently became the bride of Ernest Braumoeller, was entertained at a merry party August 25 and presented with a lovely gift by the Parlor. The arrangements committee included Angie Simpson, chairman, Zora Hinch and Gertrude O'Brien. During October the Parlor will sponsor a rummage sale. Ethyl Young, chairman, Kathryn Braumoeller, Dorothy Vinent, Mms. Herbert Garms and Fred Schilling compose the committee in charge.

Oakland—Brooklyn No. 157 had one of the largest gatherings in a long time when Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit. Other visitors were Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Past Grand Estelle Evans, Supervising Deputy Marion E. White and Deputy Greta Murren. After the meeting a dainty repast was served at beautifully decorated tables. The committee of arrangements included Minnie Luler, chairman, Kate Stulz, Margaret May, Irene McGeice, Laura DeLong, Grace Blaulieu, Lucy Breauty, Myrtle Phillips, Mary Harding, Margaret Eagen and Anna L. Smith.

October 8 is N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Day.

Oakland—Fruitvale No. 177 sponsored a skating party under the chairmanship of Florence Eiferle and Helen Schwarz, which was largely attended and most enjoyable. Another party is to be held soon. The semi-monthly meetings of the Parlor sewing club were held at the homes of Esther Ragon and Marie Silva; a good time was had, and a great deal of work was accomplished. The Parlor was awarded third prize for its beautifully decorated auto in the Fruitvale businessmen's parade.—A.E.S.

Byron—Donner No. 193, which is very active in community work, is planning its annual bazar. A membership drive is under way, and several candidates will be initiated November 2, when the Parlor observes its twenty-seventh institution anniversary.—A.P.

HOMELESS CHILDREN

A Worthwhile Non-sectarian Endeavor Sponsored and Supported by the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

Again, through the columns of The Grizzly Bear, we are reminding the members that, impossible as it may seem, another October is at hand, and to the Native Sons and the Native Daughters October eight means that it is time to get to work again for the Homeless Children and the budget.

Many of the members this year, we find, have decided that October is the most propitious time, after all, for their entertainments and benefit balls, as later in the year the weather is uncertain and storms keep patrons away. With this in mind, requests for the tax exemption blanks have been received and there will be no last-minute rush to save the tax on amusement receipts. This indicates an encouraging prospect for the year ahead.

From April 1 to August 31, 1938, 74 children were placed, and 55 children were legally adopted; 194 applications were received, over 38 each month, and over 1,000 applicants are waiting for children.

Regarding funds from March 31 to August 31, 1938: Native Sons Parlors have contributed $127.50; Native Daughters Parlors, $391.10; Past Grand President Ethel I. Begley's fund, $258.16; San Francisco Parlors, $20.00; Alameda County Parlors, $152.81; Los Angeles Joint Committee, $1.00; Sacramento sewing club, $5.00; individual Native Daughters, $21.50; N.D.G.W. Milk Fund, $129.55; contributions from friends, $148.50; refund on board, $1,170.97; dividends, $45.60; total, $2,452.69.

There was on hand April 1, 1938, in the commercial account, $10,278.28. The receipts have amounted to $2,452.69 and the disbursements have been $9,129.11, which left a balance in the commercial account September 1, 1938, of $3,601.86.

We learn from Native Daughters and foster parents in different parts of California that several broadcasts about the Homeless Children work over stations KSFO and KSFN have reached many listeners. Grand President Edna B. Briggs' radio committee chairman, Clara Gairaud, has been generous in giving broadcasting time to the Homeless Children work, and a Native Daughter, Miss Scanlon of Minerva Parlor, recently interviewed the Secretary of the Central Homeless Children Committee, and Miss Scanlon's enthusiasm on the air was impressive. It is this enthusiasm—ever prevalent among the members of both Orders who give time, talents and strength to the work of the Homeless Children—that makes the project what it has become, a true, unselfish philanthropy, giving inspiration to "those who give" and happiness to "those who receive."

THE ROBINSON FAMILY'S PLACE IN THE HISTORY OF CALIFORNIA.

John Willard Robinson, born in Contra Costa County May 24, 1857, recently affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. In addressing the Parlor he said: "History reveals that the Robinson family contributed towards putting California in the folds of the U. S. A. Wm. D. Robinson, the father, was a private in Company D under Colonel Jonathan Stevenson of New York Volunteers, designated as the 7th New York Regiment. He was enrolled August 1, 1846 at Fort Columbus, arrived in San Francisco March 19, 1847 on the ship Susan Drew, and was mustered out August 24, 1848, at Monterey. Records at the U. S. War Department show that George Robinson, uncle of John W. Robinson, was enrolled into service August 31, 1846, Company C, 7th New York Regiment, and was honorably discharged. He re-enlisted May 14, 1847, for five years, and died August 6, 1849, at sea while in route from San Pedro to San Francisco. At the close of the war Wm. D. Robinson worked with James Wilson Marshall at the John A. Sutter sawmill at Coloma, El Dorado County, southern branch of the American River, during the month of October, November and December, 1848.

"John W. Robinson still has his father's sword used in the war, the pick and the axe used at the sawmill in the year 1848, and his official war record from the War Department at Washington, D. C. Samuel H. Robinson, an uncle, was one of the first supervisors of Contra Costa County, in 1851. John W. Robinson's mother, Annabell Pickney, descendant of the famous family of revolutionary fame, was born in Westmoreland, Virginia, 1824. Charles Pickney came overland with his parents and a party of fifty-two in 1846, going to Sonoma County, Sierra County, then Contra Costa County. Annabell Pickney married Wm. D. Robinson in 1855. She died and was buried at Antioch in 1860."

ADMISSION DAY RECEPTION

James French Dorrance

CALIFORNIA PIONEER FAMILIES OF the period of American occupation recalled the glories of the past at an Admission Day reception given by Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 Native Sons of the Golden West and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 Native Daughters of the Golden West at Rockwood, in Mission Canyon, the home of the Santa Barbara Women's Club, September 9. The two organizations celebrate for the descendants of old Spanish families at a pre-Fiesta tea in August. Ordinarily the Admission Day celebration includes a grand ball, which is one of the social functions of the year in the Channel City. This year, because many members of both Parlors were engaged in entertaining for the annual session of the League of California Municipalities, then in session in Santa Barbara, the ball was postponed until late December.

City Manager Hollis Thompson of Berkeley, a Native Son, was speaker of the afternoon at the Admission Day tea. He recognized the pioneers as men and women who had made California possible as a commonwealth, and congratulated the present-day descendants for the way in which they are carrying on the traditions of the past. Thompson was introduced by Mayor Patrick J. Maher, who said he would have been a native of California had he not chanced to be born in Dublin, and that he was happy in having a Native Daughter wife and two offspring who were native daughters in their own right.

After the exercises, tea was served on the terrace of the clubhouse by women representatives of pioneer American families. Among the hostesses were Mms. S. R. Cawker, Frank Live, Myiel Pierce, Orilla Coffey, Clarence Pierce, J. C. Saft and Fred F. Pierce, and Miss Maude Paris.

President A. J. "Gus" Janssens of Santa Barbara Parlor of Native Sons was master of ceremonies, and offered a stirring message from Grand President Joseph J. McShane, engaged that day at Vallejo in the statewide celebration of Admission Day. President Dorothy A. Yule of Reina del Mar Parlor of Native Daughters presented a similar message from Grand President Edna B. Briggs, who also was at Vallejo.

The chairman of the afternoon was Paul Sweetser, historian of the Native Sons. Mrs. Wesley McCormick, past president of the Native Daughters, headed the tea committee, and was assisted by Mms. A. W. Conover and John Pomatto. Misses Jessie Anchordoquy and Margaret Patrick danced to the accompaniment of Mrs. Robert V. Phelan. Vocalists were Donald Sykes, accompanied by Miss Francis Jean Miller and Mrs. John L. Stewart.

The pioneer roster that is being built up by Reina del Mar Parlor acquired many new signatures in the course of the afternoon. Mrs. M. C. Harrison, chairman, and Mrs. R. H. Schuld, vice-chairman, head the committee that has been upbuilding the roster since 1924. The committeemen for Santa Barbara Parlor are Harry Sweetser and Owen O'Neill. Many of the signers this year were from Goleta, where new interest is being shown in the native organizations.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS VISIT LOS ANGELES FOR PARLOR INSTITUTION. Reina del Mar Parlor of Native Daughters sent a delegation of officers and members to Los Angeles September 17 to assist in the institution there of La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. Mrs. Joseph Moses of the board of officers acted as chairman of the cavalcade, and Dr. Anna E. McCaughey spoke on the significance of the name selected for the new Parlor. Others who made the trip were Mms. William Wegener, Mabel Erwin, Pearl Kiesner, E. Clemn, F. Stern and Wesley McCormick, and Misses Wilma Kiesner, Frances Jauregui, Barbara Simpson and Gertrude Wegener.

Ventura City has voted $250,000 bonds for the erection of new buildings on the Junior College campus.

October 8 is N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Day.

HONEST ELECTIONS—"Honest elections are the best protection a nation can have against social disorder and enemies from within. Dishonest elections can never be persuasive and bring about the adjustment of minority to majority will."—David Lawrence.

California is the most densely motorized state in the Union, having one auto for each 2.8 persons.

was chosen superior judge of the county by a margin of six votes at the August primary. C.H.M.

Saint Helena—Saint Helena No 53 and La Junta No. 203 N.D.G.W. will have their annual benefit for the homeless children the evening of Saturday, October 22. George Herdle, a charter member of the Parlor, died September 16, survived by a wife and four children. He was a native of Trinity County, aged 73.

October 8 is N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Day.

Watsonville—Watsonville No. 65 plans to erect a plaque honoring Mose Hutchings, said to have been the first man to raise lettuce commercially in the Pajaro Valley. It will be dedicated during Lettuce Week next year. September 21 the Parlor sponsored a barn dance in Corralitos.

Vallejo—William Griswold, charter member Vallejo No. 77, died September 6. Born at Vallejo, Solano County, April 10, 1856, he was this city's oldest native-born citizen.

Ventura—With President David S. Bennett presiding, Cabrillo No. 114 had a largely attended meeting September 6, including several visitors from Santa Barbara No. 116. Six candidates were initiated. The revived Parlor is making fine progress, and expects to complete reorganization October 12 by the election of a full corps of officers.

Point Arena—Edward A. Zimmerman, affiliated with Broderick No. 117 and the father of Grand Marshal Harold J. Zimmerman of Ukiah No. 71, died at San Francisco August 18. He was born at Point Arena, Mendocino County, in 1870.

Oakland—Fruitvale No. 252 is staging October 8 a night of entertainment that will be the biggest social event of the year. "Bill" Dombrinck heads the committee of arrangements.

CALIFORNIA HISTORY BOARD HAS GOOD-SIZED LECTURE GROUP.

A total of thirty lectures were given by the N.S.G.W. California History Board in connection with Admission Day. As the members of the Board could not handle all of the invitations to speak, other capable Native Sons speakers were called on to assist. As a result, the Board now has a good-sized lecture group.

Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy addressed the San Francisco Adult Forum September 2, the Saint Helena Rotary Club September 6, the Fairmount Grammar School, San Francisco, September 8, and the evening San Francisco Adult Forum September 14.

Joseph E. Tinney of Rincon Parlor No. 72 N.S.G.W., secretary of the California History Board, addressed the Redwood City Kiwanis Club September 7.

Mission High School, San Francisco, had two patriotic assemblies in honor of Admission Day September 8. The first, which consisted of 1,350 of the 2,700 students, was addressed by Past Grand President Harvey D. Skillin, and the second by Grand Historian Conmy, a member of the school's faculty.

ONE OF GREATEST FOSSIL BEDS FOUND IN CONTRA COSTA COUNTY.

One of the nation's greatest fossil beds, ranking in importance with that of the Rancho La Brea in southern California, is being worked by the University of California in Contra Costa County. The discovery is credited to Dr. B. L. Clark, associate professor of paleontology.

As far as can be determined, all of the deposits are of animals, mammals and birds which existed in the Lower Pliocene period, between three and four million years ago. There are nineteen types accounted for thus far, a good representation of the larger mammals of that time on this part of the continent.

The fossil bed represents an ancient water hole or valley water course to which the early creatures came to drink—and to die. No other reason is known for the great accumulation of specimens at this one spot. The fossils are much more ancient than those of the La Brea pits, but not nearly as well preserved. As the deposit is on private property, its location has not been announced by the University.

FIRST REDWOOD SHIPMENT—The first recorded export cargo of California redwood lumber went from Mendocino County to Australia in 1858.

In Memoriam

GEORGE RODRIGUEZ.

Whereas, The Supreme Ruler of the Universe has in His infinite wisdom removed from our midst our worthy and esteemed brother, George Rodriguez, on July 31, 1938, and

Whereas, The high esteem in which he was held by his brothers of Gabilan Parlor No. 132 N.S.G.W. renders it fitting that we record our appreciation of him, therefore be it

Resolved, That the removal of such a life from among us leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all our members, and will prove a serious loss to the community in which he lived.

Resolved, That we extend to his bereaved brother and sisters our heartfelt sympathy, and commend them to Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our records, and that a copy be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

FRANK MENDONCA,
G. W. LYONS
JACK COLLINS,
Committee.

Castroville, September 19, 1938.

MARY PEARL.

To the Officers and Members of Vendome Parlor No. 100 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee on resolutions, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, The summons that awaits all mortals has deprived our Parlor of one of its esteemed members, Sister Mary Pearl;

Whereas, By her death Vendome Parlor No. 100 N.D.G.W. has lost a loving sister, whose noble character and kind disposition endeared her to all, be it

Resolved, That Vendome Parlor extend its sincere sympathy to the bereaved daughter and other members of the family, and that these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of the Parlor, and that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased sister, and one to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

ALICE ROLL,
MARTHA WADDINGTON,
ANNA M. DOUGHERTY,
Committee.

San Jose, September 19, 1938.

In Memoriam

LILLIAN BEGUHL.

To the Officers and Members of Fresno Parlor No. 187 Native Daughters of the Golden West: We, your committee, submit the following resolutions of love and respect to the memory of our departed Sister Lillian Beguhl who, on August 7, 1938, was called to join the Heavenly Parlor on High where pain and sorrow cease and peace and happiness reign.

Whereas, Through close association we came to appreciate her noble qualities, kindly smile and gracious manner, our Parlor knows the loss of an earnest and faithful member one whose loyalty, love and pride in her State and Order will ever be an inspiration. Sister Beguhl was a past president of Fresno Parlor and held the office of Grand Trustee for several years. We share the sorrow of her passing with her family, and extend to them our deepest sympathy.

Resolved, That a copy of this memorial be inscribed upon the minutes of this Parlor, a copy be sent to the bereaved family, and a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear for publication.

Respectfully submitted in P.D.F.A.,

MAUDE C. CROSBY,
MYRTLE CURRAN,
EDNA B. WOLFE.

Fresno, August 19, 1938.

MARY MAHLMANN.

To the Officers and Members of Castro Parlor No. 178 Native Daughters of the Golden West: We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our Sister Mary Mahlmann, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, In His infinite wisdom the Supreme Ruler has called to her eternal rest one of our beloved members, we bow our heads in submission to His will, in her passing we have lost a loyal and faithful Native Daughter, and her family a kind and loving mother.

We rejoice in the knowledge that her life was blessed and that her kindness so enriched the lives of others. While we pay loving tribute to her memory, we are not unmindful of the sympathy we owe her loved ones.

"While now on hearts and home
The heavy shadow lies,
May light of kindly comfort come
From hearts that sympathize."

Therefore be it resolved, That the sympathy of Castro Parlor No. 178 Native Daughters of the Golden West be tendered to the sons and daughters of our departed sister, that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor, that a copy be sent to the family, and that another copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGIA NELSON,
MARGARET GRIFFITH,
CORA STOBING,
Committee.

EMILY MAY GONZALES.

To the Officers and Members of Manzanita Parlor No. 29 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of love and respect to the memory of our late Sister Emily May Gonzales, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has again seen fit to sever the golden cord binding us together in the bonds of love and fraternity, and many are the hearts that mourn her, miss her smile and her happy cheerful disposition; and whereas, her death has left a vacancy in her home that never can be filled

"She has taken her long journey on that beautiful ship called Rest, Away from this world of sorrows to a home of eternal rest."

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to her husband and her family; that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the bereaved husband, that a copy be spread upon the minutes of our Parlor, and a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

VERE HANSEN,
LORAINE KEAST,
MARGARET NOLAN,
Committee.

CALIFORNIANS ARE THREATENED

WITH ECONOMIC DISASTER THROUGH POLITICAL DOMINATION BY DESTITUTE NEWCOMERS FROM OTHER STATES

The machinery for that domination by outsiders already has been forged. It is contained in the

GARRISON BOND ACT--No. 13 on the November Ballot

This act destroys the two-thirds vote safeguard on bond issues and provides that by a bare majority vote revenue bonds without limit may be voted by counties, cities, communities and districts.

CONSIDER WHAT THIS MEANS TO CALIFORNIANS!

In the last two years, more than TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND refugees from the Dust Bowl and other stricken areas have poured into California. They are still pouring in at the rate of SEVEN THOUSAND A MONTH! These people are eager for jobs. They may be expected to vote for any project of any nature that offers hope of employment. There are enough of them to swing any close election—and practically all of them are registered. They register in order to qualify for relief and other benefits of generous California.

RECKLESS VOTING OF UNSOUND VENTURES WILL SWELL THE PUBLIC DEBT, FORCE TAXES SKY HIGH, IMPERIL THE VALUE OF SOUND BONDS NOW OUTSTANDING, IMPAIR THE CREDIT OF CALIFORNIA.

ALARMED AT THIS DANGER.....

Both the Native Sons and Native Daughters are on record in opposition to any attempt to deprive California homeowners, farmers, business men and other taxpayers of the time-tested safeguard of the two-thirds vote requirement on borrowing and spending through bond issues.

VOTE "NO!" ON NO. 13

PETER H. BURNETT AND THE CASE OF ARCHY

Dr. Peter T. Conmy

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

THE FAMOUS CALIFORNIA HISTORIAN, Hubert Howe Bancroft, devotes two chapters of one of his volumes to a history of the pioneer judiciary of the state. Bancroft charges that the private opinions of the judges of the early days often influenced their opinions and rulings. As an example of a decision in which the private opinion of the judge transcended the law he should have followed, Bancroft cites the Supreme Court decision handed down in the case of In re Archy (9 Cal. 147). His comment on this decision is as follows (Vol. VII, p. 224):

"The difficulty of keeping the private opinions of a judge out of the legal decisions was illustrated by Burnett in the case of the negro Archy . . . Burnett decided that Stovall, who claimed Archy, was not entitled under the law of the state to have possession of him, but that there were circumstances connected with the particular case that may exempt him from the operation of the rules we have laid down,' and being not disposed to rigidly enforce the rule for the first time Stovall must have the negro, though this decision was not to be regarded as a precedent for the future in similar cases."

Continuing his comment, Bancroft turns from the decision itself to the judge who gave it:

"The critical and by no means reverent California public openly ridiculed the opinion of one whose prejudices and amiability together had led him to commit a judicial blunder, of which much worse judges and men would not have been guilty."

The judge referred to by the surname, Burnett, is none other than Peter H. Burnett, first Governor of California. A native of Tennessee, Burnett migrated in the late '40s to Oregon Territory, where he was elected a justice of the Territorial Supreme Court. The discovery of gold in California impelled him to remove to this state with his family. November 13, 1849, he was elected Governor of California and took his oath of office December 20th of the same year. In 1851 he gave up the governorship to become attorney-general, and in 1857 was appointed a justice of the State Supreme Court. As far as the present writer is able to determine, Bancroft's view of his opinion filed in the case of Archy is probably the only adverse statement to be found concerning the career of this illustrious pioneer, whose unblemished character has transcended the years. Respect and veneration for the name of Peter H. Burnett as governor, legal practitioner and judge caused the writer to investigate the derogatory criticism levied upon him by Bancroft.

All men are influenced by their social environment. Institutions which dominate the atmosphere in which one is raised tend to fix their stamp upon his adult reasoning. It is not at all inconceivable that Bancroft's general statement concerning early California judges carrying their prejudiced opinions on social and political matters into their judicial rulings bears some degree of truth. That was a period when sectional feelings ran high. The men of the Northwest were bitter abolitionists. The men of the South and Southwest were equally determined to perpetuate and to extend slavery as an institution. As these men poured into the West they carried their sentiments with them, and it is not unreasonable to admit that a general statement that judges were biased on the basis of their former local attachments is true. It would seem, however, that the specific instance—and it is the only instance offered by Bancroft submitted as proof of the generalization is open to serious criticism. It is very much to be doubted that Judge Burnett carried Southern anti-negro prejudice into this opinion. On the contrary, an inspection of all the facts seems to warrant the conclusion that Burnett's decision was both legal and equitable.

A reading of the case, In re Archy, reveals the fact that one Stovall, a citizen of Mississippi, entered California with his slave Archy in 1857. It was admitted by Archy's attorney that Stovall left Mississippi with the intention of returning within eighteen months, which gave him a year in California. It was shown that Stovall had been in delicate health for several years; that his health condition made it necessary for him to tarry here; that during at least two months of his sojourn in Sacramento he opened and taught a private school, during which time he rented Archy out. Finally, when he decided to leave, Archy ran away. Stovall had him arrested. Archy, therefore, petitioned for a writ of habeas corpus, praying to be discharged from custody on the theory that his residence in California, a free state, had emancipated him from slavery. The case was heard by the Supreme Court, the opinion being written by Associate Justice Burnett.

The court held (1) that Stovall's sojourn in California was not mere transit through the state and, therefore, he could not invoke the United States Constitution as a citizen traveling through a state with his property; (2) that Stovall's illness was not such as to render his prolonged stay in California an emergency, in which case his status would have been that of a citizen traveling through a state with his property, but unavoidably detained due to illness, in which case there were precedents on the basis of which his ownership of the slave would have been continued; (3) that Archy had been emancipated by his residence upon California soil. Such a decision naturally warranted the writ prayed for. But instead of so doing, Judge Burnett closed with the following words,

"But there are circumstances connected with this particular case that may exempt him from the operation of the rules we have laid down. This is the first case that has occurred under the existing law, and the petitioner had some reason to believe that the constitutional provision would have no immediate operation. This is the first case, and under these circumstances we are not disposed rigidly to enforce the rules laid down strictly according to their true intent and spirit."

At the time this case was decided, the Supreme Court consisted of three members, namely, David S. Terry, Chief Justice, and Peter H. Burnett and Stephen J. Field, Associate Justices. Both Terry and Burnett were members of the court in 1857, when the case of In re Archy was first submitted. Field had been elected for the term beginning January, 1858, and not having heard the case from its inception did not participate in the decision. The matter therefore was decided by a two-man court, the justices being Burnett and Terry. The latter wrote a few lines of concurrence in Burnett's result, but dissented from the reasoning which Burnett had followed in announcing the general rule of law involved. Terry took the stand that the case should be adjudicated in accordance with the doctrine of comity; that is, that as Stovall was a bonafide resident of Mississippi and had a definite intention of returning thereto, he must be protected in his property rights in any slave he may have brought into California. In other words, the views of the case taken by Terry and Burnett were divergent.

It should be pointed out, also, that at this period the court calendar was far behind schedule, no sessions having been held during most of 1856 for lack of a quorum, Justice Terry being in the hands of the San Francisco Vigilance Committee during part of the year and Justice Heydenfeldt being ill. Furthermore, in those years the law did not permit the appointment of judges pro tempore in substitution for absent judges. If Terry and Burnett had not agreed, at least upon a disposition of the case, it would have dragged on longer, and an immediate adjudication was necessary, for Stovall wished to return to Mississippi.

It would seem, also, that Burnett showed his understanding of frontier conditions in his announcing of the rule, but suspending its application in the specific case. California was a free state by virtue of her constitutional provision. Burnett established an interpretation of this provision, to the effect that slaves could not be held as such in California by any doctrine of comity. But he knew that other slave holders might come into the state believing they could depend upon the comity doctrine. While Burnett undoubtedly believed in the maxim that ignorance of the law is no excuse, his conception of equity envisioned Stovall as coming into California under the impression that by comity he would be entitled to retain his ownership in Archy. Burnett established a rule for the future, he did not wish to make it retroactive.

In the opinion of this writer, Burnett was trying to do substantial justice. Although, from our point of view, it would have been preferable for him to have liberated Archy, it would seem that his failure to do so might have been the result of a number of situations such as a compromise with Terry for the establishment of the rule with its application suspended in the case at bar. Certainly there is no evidence to substantiate the charge made by Bancroft that he was influenced by his own private opinion on slavery because he was born in Tennessee.

WRITER CALIFORNIA VERSES AWARDED DESERVED HONORS.

In a contest which attracted many entrants, Betty Whitsell of Burlingame—who contributes beautiful California verses to The Grizzly Bear Magazine—was awarded the Dr. Redewill silver cup, given by the San Francisco Branch of the National League of American Pen Women, for her poem, "To a Diary of 1849." She also received first honorable mention for her poem, "The Museum." The prize-winning poem follows:

Concealed within these pages is the breath
Of life—almost a century in age.
Here faded ink can conquer dust of death,
Restore man's bravery upon each page.
The march, triumphant, of the pioneers
Is scribbled here on paper, worn and frail,
The pageant of a continent appears
With tread of weary oxen on the trail.
Blurred with the sage dust of the plains, I trace
The date—the echo of a long-lost day
Of lonely footsteps in a lonely place
When death and ghastly hunger made men pray.
A book of courage, with the skull for crest,
Reveals another hero of the west.

BOOK REVIEWS

CLARENCE M. HUNT

"THE JAYHAWKERS OF DEATH VALLEY."
By John G. Ellenbecker; Published by the Author, Marysville, Kansas; Price, $1.00.

This volume records the most interesting history of a famed band of pioneers, the Jayhawkers, that organized at Galesburg, Illinois, in the winter of 1848-49, and April 5, 1849, started on their journey across the plains to California. They suffered numerous hardships of a harrowing nature, and many of their number died enroute. Much of the data contained in the book was obtained from the Jayhawkers' descendants.

Author Ellenbecker says in the foreword: "I trust that this humble effort on my part may assist in bestowing on that intrepid band of Jayhawkers the credit long due to their pluck, courage and heroism." The book is liberally illustrated.

Incidentally, the first authentic account of the Jayhawkers' experiences ever published appeared in The Grizzly Bear Magazine of June 1911. The story, prepared expressly for the magazine by J. W. Brier, a member of the party, was titled "The Argonauts of Death Valley."

"THE CONTINENTAL CONGRESS."
By Jesse T. Howell; Published by the Author, Los Angeles; Price, 25c.

Author Howell in this booklet offers "An American Plan for the American People." He contends: "A truly noble and progressive policy for us, therefore, would be to follow Jefferson's advice by making the Federal Government our foreign agency only, and then have the States, the Continental Congress, and other domestic agencies of the people take over the administration of all domestic affairs, and to co-operate with the Federal Government in matters which are both domestic and foreign. And inasmuch as the Continental Congress is the easily established institution which can eventually perfect this noble and modern system of dual sovereignty, it is hereby advocated as the most sane, liberal and progressive plan to be submitted to the American people since the trend toward our present critical condition was automatically produced by its overthrow in 1787.

"In conclusion, then, it can be truly said that dual sovereignty is the only feasible method of organizing any country. Failure of other peoples to organize in this manner has resulted in the overthrow of every former government which ever tried to function. The assertion that our dual sovereignty is outworn and unworkable gives evidence of idiocy, and is the exact opposite of the truth; for the fact is, unconstitutional Federal bureaucracy, its alternative, is crime within government, and the cause of civil wars; and by disturbing our domestic peace, imperils our national existence."

The first site selected for the Lick Observatory was at Fourth and Market streets in San Francisco, according to a statement by Dr. W. H. Wright, director of the Observatory, in a publication commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of Lick research. The shores of Lake Tahoe were also considered.

National Education Week commences November 6, and will be observed generally.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

ALLEGHANY (SIERRA COUNTY)—Sierra No. 268, organized by Anna Forbes and Esther M. McCluskey, was instituted October 13 with thirty-four charter members by Grand President Edna B. Briggs, who was assisted by Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Flora Schmittgen of La Bandera No. 110, Sacramento, Deputy Margaret Banks and members of the other Sierra County Parlors—Naomi No. 36, Downieville; Imogen No. 134, Sierraville, and Loyal No. 264, Loyalton.

With Georgene Copren of Imogen as president and Flora Schmittgen as past president, the ritual was exemplified by Mary Taylor, Irma Ponta, Angeline Poggi and Genevieve Fitzwater of Naomi, Edna Schroeder, Mary Ramelli, Agnes Smith and Durnea Dandrea of Loyal, and Ina Amon, Jennie Copren, Lorraine Kofford, Madeline Muller, Emalyne Binninger and Mabel Werry of Imogen.

Officers of the new Parlor were installed by Deputy Margaret Banks as follows: Esther M. McCluskey, charter past president; Mary Davies, president; Thelma Carvin, first vice-president; Vivian Morris, second vice-president; May A. May, third vice-president; Mildred Winstead, marshal; Wenona Bruning, inside sentinel; Thelma Gerding, outside sentinel; Mable Davies, organist; Elizabeth Colman, recording secretary; Peggy Kroll, financial secretary; Edith Morris, treasurer; Lenore Kinkle, Verna Strosnider, Irene Snarr, trustees.

Grand President Briggs presented to Sierra a silver-mounted gavel. Other speakers were Supervising Deputy Helen Robbins, Deputies Esther McCluskey and Margaret Banks, Edna Schroeder, President Margaret Lambert of Naomi and Anna Forbes. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the institution ceremonies.

Spread a Little Sunshine.

Chairman Ann Schiebusch of the Grand Parlor Veterans Welfare Committee, addressing the Subordinate Parlors says: "Each year, through contributions of one dollar or more to the Grand Parlor Veterans Welfare Committee, it has been possible to spread a little sunshine in the veterans hospitals, among those men and women who would otherwise be forgotten. The little remembrances are given those who do not receive any compensation, and to those who have no families or friends. . . .

"All these things are so very worthwhile that I know our Heavenly Father will bless you richly for these humanitarian endeavors." Remittances should be made payable to and mailed to Miss Ann Schiebusch, 1009½ W. 21st street, Los Angeles.

Seven Initiated.

Alturas—In honor of Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, substituting for Grand President Edna B. Briggs, Alturas No. 159 entertained at a potluck supper. Following the delicious repast, the ritual was exemplified, and seven candidates were initiated. Among others in attendance were Past Grand Irma Laird and Supervising Deputy Dorothy V. Gloster. A highlight of the evening was the first appearance of a charming escort team. The inspiring message of Mrs. Giannini was well received by the large assembly.

The meetingplace was gay with Indian baskets, blankets and autumn flowers. A "wickieup" occupied one corner of the room. Minnie Frailey, dressed as a native Modoc maiden, "Minnema," found an Indian basket and native wild plum jam in the wickieup for the "Big Chief, Second in Command." Her presentation speech was original, and highly entertaining not only to the official visitor but to all others.

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

A NEW POSTOFFICE STATION AT 1319 South Grand avenue, named in honor of the late Senator Reginaldo Francisco Del Valle, has been dedicated. On invitation of Postmistress Mary D. Briggs, Supervising Deputy John O'B. Bodkin, representing the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, made a brief address and thanked the postal authorities for naming the new station after a member of the Order. Among other Native Sons introduced were Past Grand Presidents Herman C. Lichtenberger, John T. Newell and Eldred L. Meyer, and District Deputy Bernard G. Hiss.

WELCOME INNOVATION.

Surpassing enthusiastic expectations, the philanthropic bridge party held by Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. October 15 at the Griffith Park Clubhouse netted the neat sum of $374, and the Parlor's quota of the Annie L. Adair Memorial Fund will be delivered at an early date. President Ann Schiebusch was so gratified with the result that she sent a personal letter of thanks to each member of the committee who assisted in putting over the affair. All proceeds of the party are to be devoted to philanthropies of the Parlor.

October 23 Chairman Elsie Amidon of the history and landmarks committee of the Parlor headed a group which made a pilgrimage to San Juan Capistrano Mission to witness the annual departure of the swallows, an affair which attracts much attention and scores of visitors. Chairman Mary McAnany of the veterans welfare committee has provided a welcome innovation which should prove very helpful to the shutins at the National Military Home in Sawtelle. Working in co-operation with the directors of the home, the committee recently took their decks of cards and cigarette prizes and spent a day playing cards with the men. According to the officials, no more salutary treatment can be afforded these men in a psychological way than to be given the opportunity of association with women in this manner. November 22 is the date for the next card session with the veterans at the home.

November 2 Los Angeles will entertain the two "baby" Parlors, East Los Angeles and La Reina. A pancake and waffle breakfast will be held November 6 at the Tujunga home of the Parlor's twins, Mms. Sophie McGowan and Mana Gardner. A class of candidates will be initiated November 16; Miss Mae Packard will be in charge of refreshments and entertainment. The afternoon of November 19 the sewing club will hold forth at the Inglewood home of Mrs. Elsie Ruiz; Mms. Sue DeHaaf and Mary Powers will act as co-chairmen.—H.M.

BREAKFAST CLUB GUESTS.

East Los Angeles—The East Los Angeles Breakfast Club had as special guests October 6 members of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. and East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. President Mildred Banning of the latter was chairman, and Maynard Garrison was master of ceremonies.

Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer was the speaker of the occasion, and the guest artists were Marybelle Chapman and Jose Arias and his troubadors. Among the invited guests were Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg, Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, Supervising Deputy John O'B. Bodkin and District Deputy Bernard G. Hiss.

ANNIVERSARY DANCE.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. staged another of its very largely attended and most interesting musical contests October 27. A feature was the appearance of Past Grand John T. Newell's grandchildren. Roger M. Johnson is chairman of the committee that arranges the musical contests.

The Parlor will celebrate November 17 its fifty-fourth institution anniversary with a dance at its meetingplace, 1329 South Hope street.

COLONIAL BRIDGE LUNCHEON.

Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. is planning its usual big fall party for November 10, under the auspices of the ways and means committee, Mrs. Carl H. Bilger chairman. The colonial bridge luncheon will be held at 3414 West Vernon avenue, and guests will be ministered to by dainty maidens in hoopskirt gowns and lacy pantalettes. The affair is being awaited with interest.

Mrs. Marion Johnson presided at the Parlor's Columbus Day celebration October 11. Mrs. Isabel Fages of the history and landmarks committee, program chairman, presented Charles Adams, nationally known landscape architect. His talk was interspersed with interesting bits of California history. Miss Carmelita Verdugo and Alphonse B. Fages, attired in colorful costumes, furnished delightful Spanish solos and duets. Californiana's October 25 meeting concluded with a membership tea under the chairmanship of Miss Arabell Hurlburt, assisted by the Parlor officers. Hallowe'en decorations added to the joy of the event, which was attended by a number of prospective members.

Mrs. Margaret Harris was hostess to the Gertrude sewing circle October 31 at her Inglewood home. A delicious potluck luncheon was a feature. The circle is busily engaged preparing for the December bazar for the benefit of the homeless children. Members of the Parlor have decided to hold but four luncheons during the year.—O.L.

N.S.G.W. NEWS BRIEFS.

Los Angeles—Ramona Parlor No. 109 will be host to all the Los Angeles County Parlors at a joint initiation November 18.

Los Angeles—Congressman John M. Costello of Hollywood Parlor No. 196 addressed the Friday Luncheon Club October 14 on "Functions of Congress." He was introduced by John O'B. Bodkin, also of Hollywood, chairman of the day. The club meets every Friday at 12:15 noon, room 1126 Rosslyn Hotel, Fifth and Main streets. All Native Sons are always welcome.

San Pedro—Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 has organized a bowling team with Marshal Louis Molle in charge. All Parlors in the district will be challenged.

SIX CANDIDATES INITIATED.

Long Beach—Six candidates were initiated October 20 by Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. A banquet with a Hawaiian motif as decorations preceded the meeting. The arrangements committee included Chairman Nelle Cook, Ruth Johnson and Mary Stultz. Visitors were Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg, Deputy Margaret Mize, Presidents Marion Johnson of Californiana, Genevieve Hiskey of Santa Ana and Anna Marie Dunley of La Reina Parlors. After the meeting refreshments were served and members having October birthdays were honored. The committee in charge included Chairman Alma Morror, Frances Galvan, Lois Watson and Ellen Rogers.

Recent successful affairs of the Parlor included a dessert card party for the homeless children fund, Eugenia Smith chairman; a cooked food sale, Mary Stultz chairman, and a rummage sale, Margaret Burch and Eugenia Smith co-chairmen. The California Thimble Club met October 13 at the home of Lois Watson, and October 27 at the Norwalk home of Ruth Johnson. A card party is planned for November.—A.W.

COMMUNITY CHEST APPEAL.

Dr. A. H. Giannini of the Bank of America has accepted the appointment as campaign chairman for the fifteenth annual appeal of the Los Angeles Community Chest.

In the current campaign, the objective is to secure larger subscriptions payable in installments throughout the year, and more in line with what subscribers would give if approached 8S times during the year. It is hoped the coming campaign will yield sufficient funds to avert any repetition of the financial crisis that arose among the agencies during the past year.

BOOSTER CLUB TO STAGE SHOW.

Santa Monica— Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. had a big night October 20, when former San Franciscans and their friends met with members of the Parlor. Harry O'Day and Clarke Greenfield had charge of the doings. Several candidates were initiated October 27.

November 3 will be policemen and firemen night at the Parlor. High-class entertainment will be presented, and refreshments will be served. At 8 p.m. of Thursday, November 10, the booster club of the Parlor will stage a big show. November 11, the Parlor's drum corps will participate in the Santa Monica Armistice Day parade.

Santa Monica Bay Parlor will have two initiations in December, the 1st and the 22nd. The famous annual lobster feed, keenly anticipated by all southland Native Sons, is billed for December 8.

ARRANGING CHRISTMAS BAZAR.

Glendale—Members of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. are starting their Christmas banks for the homeless children under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ethyl Kern. A theater party October 5, Mrs. Mary Miller chairman, was much enjoyed. October 13 a luncheon-card party was held at the home of Mrs. Elsie Bledsoe. The past presidents club sponsored a card party at the home of Mrs. Evalyn Wilson October 20.

Several members accompanied Deputy Dorothy Ravn on a visit to Lugonia No. 241 of San Bernardino October 26. October 25 a visit was paid to Compton No. 258. Meetings of Verdugo's sewing club were held at the homes of Mms. Marion Morrow, Ethyl Kern, Doris Michelmore and President Harriette Weeks. Mms. Geraldine Leonetti and Maude Molen are co-chairmen of a coming rummage sale, and Mrs. Evalyn Wilson is chairman of the Christmas bazar which is being arranged for by the sewing club.—A.S.

PAST PRESIDENTS N.S. MEET.

San Pedro—Arrowhead Assembly No. 14 N.S.G.W. Past Presidents Association held its quarterly meeting here September 30, with Governor E. Baldwin in charge. "Bob" Brazelton, "Bill" Jasper, Dewey Richards, Hector Heacox and Roy Tarleton were elected delegates to the General Assembly.

The meeting was preceded by a sumptuous turkey dinner in charge of Chairman John Paralieu, assisted by Mrs. Paralieu and Mrs. B. J. Lassere.

HANDKERCHIEF SHOWERS.

San Pedro—Several members of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. visited Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 October 5. Guests of the Parlor October 13 were Deputy Olinda Kirby and President Ann Schiebusch of Los Angeles Parlor. A handkerchief shower was given Mrs. Ann Menveg, who was celebrating her birthday. Refreshments were served by Victoria Adler and committee.

Mercy Powers was given a handkerchief shower October 27, the occasion being her birthday. A card party was in charge of October Chairman Adler and committee. Meetings of the Florencita Thimble Club, an auxiliary of Rudecinda, were held last month at the homes of Mms. Virginia Bruckner and Dessie Buyo.—R.B.

EARLYDAY DANCE DRAWS BIG CROWD.

East Los Angeles—An earlyday dance, sponsored by East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. and East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W., drew a crowd of more than 400 to the Poppy Trail Villa October 8. Most of the attendants were in costume, and many of them arrived on horseback. A floor show and a jitterbug contest added to the pleasure of the occasion. Allan Marten and Lorraine Selby were co-chairmen of the affair.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Dr. W. R. Molony (Ramona NS) has been re-elected president of the State Board of Medical Examiners.

Wendell Hards (Stephen M. White NS) of San Pedro has been elected president of the Harbor Realty Board.

Henry G. Bodkin (Hollywood NS) has been appointed a member of the Los Angeles City Police Commission.

Misses Grace S. Stoermer and Grace J. Norton (both Los Angeles ND) were visitors to San Francisco last month.

Mrs. Charles Jacobsen and daughter, Miss Geraldine Jacobsen (both Californiana ND), have returned from a pleasant trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. Kate McFadyen (Long Beach ND) of Long Beach has gone to Wenatchee, Washington State, for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Marie Monroe.

Miss Agnes Krenwinkel (Californiana ND) was wedded to George L. Lair of Riderwood, Washington State, at San Diego October 6. Mrs. Marcella Palethorpe (Californiana ND) was matron of honor and Harold Palethorpe best man.

TRACY (SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY)—UNder the auspices of Tracy No. 186, the grand officers, headed by Grand President Joseph J. McShane, October 9 dedicated the Central Grammar school in the presence of an assemblage of some 400 persons. R. J. Marraccini was the chairman, and Grand President McShane presented flags, which were accepted by E. Shoesmith. The building was presented by Dr. C. E. Wilent, and accepted by Principal E. Salcido. Past Grand Judge Fletcher A. Cutler was also a speaker. Music was furnished by the school orchestra and Mrs. D. Buthenuth. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. C. W. Bourne, and the benediction by Rev. Joseph McGlave.

Dedication Ukiah-Tahoe Bridge.

Meridian (Sutter County)—More than 4,000 persons attended the dedication October 16 of the $450,000 Ukiah-Tahoe bridge. The ceremonies were under the auspices of a citizens committee which included representatives of Sutter No. 261. Participating in the placing and the dedication of a bronze plaque at the Sutter County entrance to the bridge were:

Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Past Grand Hilliard E. Welch, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Marshal Harold J. Zimmerman, Grand Trustee R. G. Power and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy. At the conclusion of the dedicatory ceremonies a buffalo barbecue was served. Here addresses were made by Governor Frank F. Merriam, Grand President McShane and Department Highways Director Earl Lee Kelly. The Ukiah-Tahoe highway is the only major route that completely crosses California from east to west.

Pioneer's Explorations Commemorated.

Bakersfield—Bakersfield No. 42, El Tejon No. 239 N.D., the Kern County Historical Society and the Kern County Chamber of Commerce dedicated at Lebec October 9 a historical marker commemorating the explorations of Don Pedro Fages in the southern San Joaquin Valley. Bernard Ely told how Fages, in 1772, passed through the present site of Lebec on his journey from San Diego to San Luis Obispo via Cajon Pass, the Mojave Desert, Hughes Lake, Antelope Valley, Tejon Pass, Grapevine Canyon and Buena Vista Lake.

The marker was unveiled by Supervisor Stanley Abel, and dedicated by him to the Pioneers of the West. Other speakers were Secretary Gay Hoffman of the Kern County Chamber of Commerce, President Frank Latta of the Kern County Historical Society, President Lucille Ansolabehere and Georgia Sanders of the Native Daughters.

On behalf of Bakersfield Parlor, Recording Secretary Charles F. Johnson has requested the City Council to join with the Kern County authorities in a movement to build in Bakersfield a civic auditorium.

Initiation Suggested.

Grand President Joseph J. McShane recently communicated with the Subordinate Parlors saying, in part: "May I suggest that you endeavor to hold initiation in your Parlor in the months of November and December.

"The initiation in November as a thanksgiving for all the privileges we enjoy, both in this state and in the nation. The initiation in December to be in the nature of a Christmas gift to your Grand President. Such a present, my brothers, will be cherished by me all the rest of my life."

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of ten or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1939.

To Extend Lecture Service.

San Francisco—At a meeting of the California History Board attended by William C. Latham, Emmet Joy, Reynald Bianchi, Joseph Tinney, Past Grand Edward J. Lynch and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy plans were made to extend the lecture group service into the outlying sections of the state. Two students of the University of California were appointed to history fellowships on the recommendation of Dr. Herbert E. Bolton. The Board voted to supply ten lecturers to the Young Men's Christian Association for a series of California history talks.

Grand Historian Conmy during October addressed on California history topics the student body of the Roosevelt Junior High School, San Francisco; the monthly Sunday morning breakfast at the N.D.G.W. Home, San Francisco; the Lions Club of Hayward; the Young Men's Christian Association, San Francisco; Capistrano Council, Knights of Columbus, San Francisco, and the Holy Name Society of St. Michaels Church, San Francisco.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Through an error, Grand Trustee R. G. Power was not listed in The Grizzly Bear for October as among those in attendance at the September 10 meeting of the Board of Grand Officers.

The Grand Parlor Public Speaking Committee, Reynald J. Bianchi chairman, urges Subordinate Parlors to appoint their committees immediately for local contests.

Placerville—Placerville No. 9 and Marguerite No. 12 N.D. had their annual reunion for the oldtimers of El Dorado County October 9, and thirty responded to the invitation and enjoyed the occasion immensely. A delicious dinner was followed by a program.

ADVERTISE in the Christmas Issue of The Grizzly Bear, out December first. Contact thousands of California buyers who may be interested in your holiday offerings.

Petaluma—Petaluma No. 27 was officially visited October 4 by Grand Trustee Wayne Millington, who gave an inspiring talk in the course of which he urged that more interest be taken in civic affairs. Other speakers were Grand Marshal Harold Zimmerman, District Deputy James Bertini, LeRoy Lounibos, Henry J. Soldate and L. F. Carpenter. A fine banquet concluded the meeting. For the benefit of the homeless children, the Parlor will have its annual ball Thanksgiving Eve, November 23.

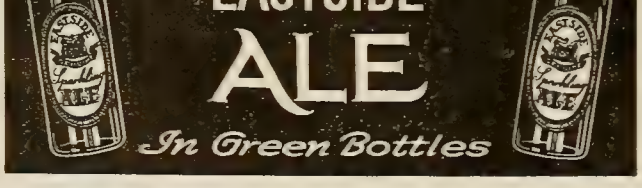
Santa Rosa—Santa Rosa No. 28 had its annual forty-niner camp October 6. Plans for installing a drinking fountain in Burbank Gardens were completed. The Parlor will have its annual turkey shoot for the benefit of the homeless children November 6, 13 and 20.

Grass Valley—Quartz No. 58 entertained at a fine buck stew dinner October 3. Among the many visitors was a large delegation from Downieville No. 92.

Calistoga—Calistoga No. 86 inaugurated a membership drive October 3. The two teams are captained by Angelo Sbrazza and Theodore Tamagni. The losing team will have to provide a dinner.

Ferndale—Ferndale No. 93 defeated Humboldt No. 14 of Eureka in a horseshoe game October 3, and won the championship of the Humboldt County tournament. A basketball team is being organized to play in a local league and possibly with outside teams. A buck feed October 17 was enjoyed by a large crowd, including Charter Members J. A. Shaw and F. G. Williams. Walter Oeschger provided two fine bucks, which were prepared to "the king's taste" by Chef Chas. Kistner and aides. On the Parlor's behalf, H. E. Giacomini presented a past president ring to D. R. Flowers.

Sebastopol—Sebastopol No. 143, jointly with Sebastopol No. 265 N.D., had a costume dance October 29. For the benefit of the homeless children, the Parlors will have a card party November 18. Secretary W. S. Borba of No. 143 is building up a mixed drill team and drum corps for the two Parlors.



Centerville—Washington No. 169 will sponsor an essay contest on American history among local high school students. Judge Allen G. Norris, Matt Mathiesen and Max Stevenson were appointed a committee to arrange details.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of ten or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1939.

Tracy—Members of Tracy No. 186 were October 27 guests of El Pescadero No. 82 N.D. at a Hallowe'en party and potluck dinner.

Los Banos—Los Banos No. 206 served a duck dinner October 20. Among the large number in attendance were several grand officers.

Oakland—In honor of one of its most popular members, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Fruitvale No. 252 initiated October 21 one of the largest classes of candidates in its history. October 8 the Parlor staged an old-fashioned carnival; Wm. Dombrink was chairman of arrangements.

CLARENCE M. HUNT

"THE VERY PROGRESS WHICH China was making under Chiang Kai-shek, progress which Japan—reared to believe the Yamato race was destined to rule the world—had watched jealously for years, caused Japan to strike when she did," said George A. Fitch—in China during the siege and occupation of Nanking—in the course of an eye-witness account of murder, rape and pillage by Jap conquerors he recently gave the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco. "A year later it would have been too late. In plain fact, it was already too late."

Fitch told of the leave-taking from Nanking of the government and the embassies—of the parting of some of those who left on the Panay and of the departure of the defending army. "A few of us," he said, "felt we could not leave. We owed it to our Chinese friends who could not leave, to stand by. . . . The entry of the Japanese inaugurated an era of wholesale destruction, murder, ruthlessness and rape—the blackest page in modern history.

"As I look back at it, the worst was not that drunk, lust-mad soldiers were robbing, looting and raping; the worst was just to stand there, helpless, day after day, while refugees who looked to us for safety were robbed of their last coin, robbed of bedding for a frozen winter; to stand by useless while thousands were killed with machine guns or grenades 'for practice;' to sit by and see over a thousand women at one time kneeling in prayer for help from these beasts who preyed on them night and day; to sit by and see a beautiful city burned—that was hell!

"We tried to give relief, but the Japanese interfered in every way they could; to protect our relief trucks it was necessary to have two Americans on each every day. Over a score of men with the Red Cross insignia on their arms were taken away and killed.

"Every day we went to the Japanese, presenting hundreds of authenticated cases of ruthless brutality, and always we were met with suave Japanese courtesy—they were doing their best and hoped things would be better soon. Probably they were; only they and we knew how little influence the Japanese civil authorities had over the army who personally represented the God-Emperor.

"In the mornings out of my window I saw lines of haggard Chinese women seeking a place of safety after a night of unspeakable horror. Fortunately we could supply a place of safety for some, but even there we had to provide guards against Japanese who came over the walls to rape or kidnap. Sick women, pregnant women, were not merely raped once, but thirty and forty times a day, while their husbands and fathers were forced to stand by, helpless.

"One night I saw 1,300 men roped together, surrounded by soldiers with fixed bayonets, and marched off to their doom. The Japanese didn't burn all they executed. It was too costly. The burning was a sanitary precaution. Some of those executed by machine gun bullets, merely wounded, feigned death in hope of escape. Among those burned there must have been many still alive. Soldiers were busily engaged under officers, firing buildings and gathering booty.

"New Year Day the Japanese gathered together a crowd of Chinese, and trained them to shout 'banzai' while the news cameras clicked. But the newsreels did not show the lines of bayonets surrounding the Chinese, or the devastated city. . . .

"It is a gloomy picture I have given you, but it is not hopeless. There is a new spirit in China and this very frightfulness of the Japanese is in no small way responsible—a spirit of determination to carry on this war until the last Japanese soldier is driven from Chinese soil. Another thing Japan failed to realize is that China can 'take it.' She had been conditioned through centuries of suffering, of famine, drought, looting and civil war.

"China is going to win this war; there is no doubt of it. The thing that distresses me is that we in the United States, who pledged ourselves to uphold Chinese integrity, continue to help Japan. This war could be stopped in three months if we would stop aiding Japan by shipping her gasoline, oil and scrap iron."

"No nation ever profited by destroying goods or restricting the production of any goods unless that restriction were based solely upon the wise use of a depleting natural resource," said Congressman Lyle H. Boren in the Federal House of Representatives recently.

"The fundamental crisis is moral," according to Dr. Frank Buchanan. "America must re-arm morally! This is our first and most urgent need. This takes precedence over all other search for security. Moral recovery is the forerunner of economic recovery!

"Imagine a rising tide of absolute honesty and absolute unselfishness sweeping from coast to coast. What would be the effect? What about taxes? Debts? Savings? A shrewd observer of financial trends says that unless a moral and spiritual awakening such as the Oxford Group represents comes to America, we shall see a financial crash that will make 1929 look silly. A widely read political philosopher has said that the result of a wave of constructive unselfishness throughout the nations would be the end of war."

The State Controller reported September 13 a cash deficit in the California general fund of $7,518,308, an upswing of $2,600,000 compared with the same time in 1937. He also reported California's current debt as $15,744,812, more than $5,000,000 in excess of what it was a year ago; and the total of outstanding registered warrants as $12,932,475, as compared with $4,531,118 in 1937.

The California Supreme Court has ruled that children may be expelled from public school for failure to salute the United States of America Flag and to recite a pledge of allegiance. Justice Emmet Seawell wrote the opinion, which holds, in part:

"We see no violation of any article of the Federal or State Constitution in the exercise of power in the instant case. The training of schoolchildren in good citizenship, patriotism and loyalty to state and nation is regarded by the law of the state as a means of protecting public welfare, and is directed by the school code of the state.

"The simple salutation to the Flag and repetition of the pledge of allegiance, etc., in the judgment of the proper governmental body, tends to stimulate in the minds of youths in the formative period of life sentiments of lasting affection and respect for and unfaltering loyalty to our government and its institutions."

The last Federal Congress passed a law requiring the registration of persons engaged in propaganda work for foreign countries, and also requiring such agents to disclose their backers.

This is a good law, and should be rigidly and impartially enforced! It should have some cleaning-out effect on one of the most powerful propaganda agencies in this country—the Federation of Church of Christ in America, the United States mouthpiece for the Japs.

The aim of the American Red Cross is to interest everyone in its activities. The work of the Red Cross is made possible through its membership, dues from that source financing all its activities.

The annual roll call, at which time the organization comes before the public with an appeal to join or renew membership for the coming year, will be held from Armistice Day, November 11, through Thanksgiving Day, November 24. Respond to the Red Cross appeal with your membership!

Registered Landmarks—The State Department of Natural Resources has registered Rough and Ready, Nevada County, and Copperopolis and Paloma, Calaveras County, as historical landmarks. The three towns were prominent mining centers in early days.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

THANKSGIVING DAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1888, the monument erected by the Native Sons of the Golden West over the grave, in the Pioneer Plot of the Sacramento City Cemetery, of General A. M. Winn, Founder of the Order, was dedicated. A procession, with A. G. Folger as the grand marshal, preceded the ceremonies.

Charles F. Montgomery was chairman of the day, and Chairman Charles M. Belshaw of the General Winn Monument Committee presented the monument to the Native Sons and the citizens of Sacramento. Grand President Marcus A. Dorn responded for the Order, and Mayor Eugene J. Gregory for the city. Charles L. Weller delivered an oration, and Powell S. Lawson spoke on behalf of the Sacramento Society of California Pioneers. For Califia Parlor No. 22 N.D.G.W. Mrs. Mattie K. Grunsky presented an offering of beautiful flowers. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. John F. VonHerrlich.

Thanksgiving Day, bright and pleasant, was generally observed throughout the state.

Gilroy, Santa Clara County, experienced a shock of earthquake November 2. Two sharp earthquake shocks were felt at San Francisco at 2:30 p.m. of November 18.

Governor Robert W. Waterman sold November 22 his Cuyamaca and Eastern Railroad to the Union Pacific Railroad.

The Los Angeles, Utah and Atlantic Railroad was incorporated November 13 to build a railroad from San Pedro Bay through San Bernardino, Kern and Inyo Counties.

Two stages running between Los Olivos, Santa Barbara County, and Santa Barbara City were held up November 4, and the passengers were robbed of $45.

November 9 the Weaverville, Trinity County, stage was held up in the town limits of Redding, Shasta County, and the passengers and three other persons who drove up during the search were relieved of their money and watches.

The Eureka, Humboldt County, south-bound stage was held up the afternoon of November 20 by a highwayman nineteen miles north of Ukiah, Mendocino County. He took the Wells Fargo express box and all the United States mail pouches.

The Downieville, Sierra County, stage was held up by a lone highwayman on Dutch Hill near Nigger Tent, between Downieville and Camptonville. He got away with about $2,500 from the Wells Fargo express box.

The secretary of the United States Treasury November 21 awarded a gold medal to Wm. A. Harris of San Bernardino City for rescuing Harry Willis from drowning in the Pacific Ocean near Santa Margarita, San Luis Obispo County, in August of 1886.

A $70,000 gold clean-up was made this month at the Cherokee Mine in Butte County.

"Billy" Wilson shot and killed Frank Robinson in a Los Angeles poker game November 21.

W. Moore, young bookkeeper for the Fruitvale Winery of Fresno City, was arrested November 20 by the United States marshal on a charge of falsifying returns to the Federal Government.

W. G. Hogaboon started a newspaper this month at Garvanza, Los Angeles County.

Mrs. Christian Kimbeck, an elderly woman living near Cottonwood, Shasta County, fell into a well November 27 and was drowned.

Silas Scott, aged 80 years, died November 26 at Chico, Butte County. When more than 50 years of age, he enlisted for service in the war of the rebellion.

John Henry Meyers was hanged in the El Dorado County jail yard at Placerville, November 30, for the murder of John Lynch. He had to be carried to the scaffold by four men.

At Fresno City, November 4, Ida Hitchcock won a $7,500 verdict against W. A. Caruthers. This was the case in which Henry Hadwick was shot for giving false testimony.

Pietro G. Paglinsa was shot and killed in Sycamore Canyon, near Pasadena, Los Angeles County, by two boys, Cashin and Smith, aged 16 and 19, respectively.

Cornelius Driscoll fell from the steamer El Capitan into San Francisco Bay November 4 and drowned.

In a family quarrel at Gold Run, Placer County, November 4, Edward Dolan shot and killed his father, Patrick Dolan, who was attacking Mrs. Dolan with a butcherknife.

In attempting to board the steamer Amador at South Vallejo, Solano County, John Evans was drowned November 3.

A. D. Culver tried to ride the cowcatcher of a locomotive at Coronado, San Diego County, November 2 and was killed.

For the presidential election, the great register of Los Angeles County contained 30,336 names and that of San Diego County 10,000.

Welcome Hathaway, who started a jewelry store in Ophir, Placer County, in 1852, died there November 4.

The Visalia, Tulare County, flourmill burned November 9; loss, $40,000.

George P. Heard, Siskiyou County stockraiser, died November 9 at Etna. He settled in Scott Valley in 1851.

The annual vintners festival at Saint Helena, Napa County, November 10 was an elaborate affair.

Mrs. Metta Mahler, said to have been the mother of the first white child born in El Dorado County, died at Coloma November 14.

P. O. Hundley was elected superior judge of Butte County by a majority of five votes.

Using sixty-eight horse plows, Wm. Dunphy of Monterey County was planning to put in 16,000 acres of grain.

A sufficient quantity of petroleum not being obtainable, the beet-sugar factory at Watsonville, Monterey County, resorted to coal and wood.

By a majority vote of 126, Stockton, San Joaquin County, adopted a new charter November 20.

Discovery of gold and silver bearing ledges that promised to prove the richest ever found in northern California created a sensation at Edgewood, Siskiyou County.

Rudolph Byers of Arroyo Grande, San Luis Obispo County, November 2 received from Philadelphia a check for $250—the premium for the largest yield of Wethersfield onions in the whole United States from one acre of land.

State Senator A. L. Chandler of Yuba and Sutter Counties died at his ranch in the latter county November 5.

T. J. Gallagher, San Francisco attorney jumped from a third-story window of the California House November 7 and was killed.

PHILIP BANCROFT
FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR

Interest in the election of Philip Bancroft as United States Senator is becoming increasingly greater as pioneer residents of this state, as well as the native-born citizens, realize that Bancroft is a member of a pioneer California family of wide renown.

He is a son of Hubert Howe Bancroft, the historian whose famous pen has contributed so much to the glorious history of California. It is this heritage that has helped to make Philip Bancroft one of the men of destiny whose valiant work will enrich the lives of all our citizens and their children.

Born in San Francisco in 1881, when the state was awakening to the dream of a great empire, Philip Bancroft grew to manhood among the great pioneers whose true Americanism was the result of their hard and long struggle for freedom and independence. This spirit has become a part of Philip Bancroft.

Philip Bancroft's educational background is a proud one. He is a graduate of Harvard College, Harvard Law School, and the University of California. Educated as an attorney, he later chose to become a farmer on his native soil, the soil he loves. As a practical farmer and leader in many agricultural organizations for the past twenty years, he has been in close touch with all vital problems of California and has fought to the best of his ability to keep "California for Californians."

This outspoken candidate for the United States Senatorship minces no words in considering the problems that face California voters in the November 8 election. He believes in practical and sane development, and is unalterably opposed to "crackpot" legislation, unproven theories and dangerous experiments.

Throughout California, Philip Bancroft is being lauded as the logical candidate for United States Senator by Democrats, Republicans and Progressives. His wide popularity is due to his personal character and his sound and wholesome attitude toward all problems of our people.

Will you, as Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, join in this crusade by electing a Native Californian to the United States Senate?

FOUR GENERATIONS OF NATIVE CALIFORNIANS

Pictured here are four generations of native daughters of California. They are the descendants of Mrs. Ora Zemira Inman, native of Wisconsin, who crossed the plains with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kinney, in 1852, at the age of 5 years. The family settled in Shasta County, where Kinney engaged in blacksmithing until his death in 1860; Mrs. Inman passed on in 1906.

Standing, right: Mrs. Elma Effie Spangle Nichols, daughter of Mrs. Inman, born Chico, Butte County, June 15, 1877. Standing, left: Mrs. Norma Zemira Crouch Smith, granddaughter, born Sacramento, October 16, 1897. Seated: Mrs. Catherine Martha Smith Linden, great-granddaughter, born Taft, Kern County, August 7, 1919, and in mother's arms, Baby Sue Ann Linden, great-great-granddaughter, born Taft, Kern County, December 28, 1937. Mrs. Nichols, Smith and Linden are affiliated with Miocene Parlor No. 228 N.D.G.W. of Taft, the former being a charter member and past president.

In Memoriam

JESSIE BOYD.

To the Officers and Members of Fresno Parlor No. 187 Native Daughters of the Golden West: We, your committee appointed to draft a memorial of love and respect to the memory of our departed Sister Jessie Boyd, submit the following

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to call from our midst our beloved sister, Jessie Boyd, we have lost a true and loyal member, a most faithful and conscientious worker and a loving friend. She was called to the Grand Parlor on High on September 7th. She was Recording Secretary of Fresno Parlor for the past five years. Her willingness to do and her untiring efforts have endeared her to us all

Resolved, That our sincere and deep sympathy be extended her sorrowing family, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to them, that a copy be inscribed upon our minutes, and that a copy be sent The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted in P.D.F.A.,

SINGING IN THE DARK

(LIDA NEWMAN DIEDERICH.)

When stormy clouds hide all the sparkling blue
And raindrops blot the world from out our view,
Why should we fret and bitterly complain?
We know that sunshine always follows rain

When moon and stars are hidden in dark night,
Why mourn and grieve for vanished light?
We know the darkest hour will soon be gone
And just beyond there waits a rose-flushed dawn.

The birds, now silent in their nests so dim,
Wake with dawn to sing their morning hymn;
We do not have to wait for daylight's spark,
The soul can sing while the night is dark.

The soul cares not if it be dark or day,
The Light Eternal brightens all the way;
The Peace of Christ, abiding in the heart,
Makes darkest night of coming day a part.

—Ione Valley Echo

A new "Grand Canyon," comparable in depth and size to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado River, has been discovered just off Monterey and Carmel, in the Pacific Ocean, and is now being explored. It is a submarine canyon, about 7,000 feet deep.

"FORGOTTEN CITY IN THE PINES"

A trip long to be remembered—an excursion never to be forgotten—is what the fortunate ones have to say about a horseback and automobile outing to a most delightful and enchanting town called Johnsville, Lassen County, now dramatically termed by Robert Ripley a ghost town.

The picturesque and quaint mining village originally had a population of some 3,000; it has dwindled to a mere fifty-three. Such a feeling of restfulness and security seems to abide there! It engulfs one in its arms of contentment, with whisperings of enchantment constantly singing in the tall and stately pines, while every now and then a soft thud may be heard as a pine cone is gently shaken by the breeze to the dry grass below.

More than twenty-five guests were taken on this trip by Gustav Mann, who led the procession in picturesque clothes of days of long ago on a horse of beauty as black as the moonless night. When we arrived at our destination he introduced us to Mayor Steve Pezzola, who escorted us into the town's '49 saloon. From there we proceeded to the different points of interest.

The church, fairly modern, is one of the main structures, revered by all and proudly exhibited to interested guests. Imagine if you can—enlarge your mental vision and picture—a few dwellings in superb condition and the rest in the throes of dilapidation—wind-shaken, creaky, and ready to fall apart, except for the interwoven memories of romantic days of long ago seemingly holding them together.

Johnsville is only about two blocks long, with a hotel on one end and a small graveyard on the other. It has also a small schoolhouse with an enrollment of but two children, aforementioned saloon, old fire house, tiny store, tinier postoffice, and "Cora's" domicile. That is the extent of the "forgotten city in the pines."

Cora's domicile is the abode of a sweet colored mammy who has resided there since the first inhabitant. She has a very colorful career to her credit, and adds distinction to the little village with her two very small and darling grandchildren. Not long ago, while in the back yard cutting some kindling wood, she unearthed a small wooden box, and on opening it found a treasure of $8,000 in gold and currency that had been hidden by her deceased husband.

There also resides in the town a woman old in years, but not in appearance, who actually has left the premises of her house and garden but three times in fifty-three years and, according to her own statement, has no knowledge of the outside world and does not even know the exact location of the merchandise store two blocks away.

But, with it all, Johnsville is a lovely and glorious rendezvous for contentment, peace and long life—a truly characteristic ghost town, a "forgotten city in the pines."

MY PINE TREE

My dear old pine tree
If you could but talk to me!
I hear you sigh and moan,
And as I sit here alone
Long to make a companion of thee,
My dear old pine tree.
You look so beautiful and grand,
Some times I wonder if you'd understand
If my pent-up soul be poured out to you.
You're weeping? No, 'tis only falling dew.
If you could but love me
As I love you, dear old tree,
I might lay my head upon your crest
And sob and cry out the rest;
My broken heart might feel at ease
As you toss and sigh in gentle breeze.
But we must be content to stand alone
And try to forget the sigh and moan.
You've given me pleasure while here alone
Picking rich, sweet nuts from your cone;
I've gathered your needles for my basketry;
I love every hour I have spent with thee.
When your branches are white with snow
And the sun is sinking low,
No Christmas can be more beautiful to me
Than you, my grand old pine tree!
When the moon peeps thru clouded sky
No more do I hear you moan or sigh,
So gaze again on your awe-inspiring beauty
And waken to find life is a duty.

THINK THIS OVER

The Order of Native Sons of the Golden West is, we believe, with the exception of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, the only organization that limits membership exclusively to NATIVE-BORN AMERICANS.

Knowing the serious conditions in this country today, this fact alone should impel every native son of California to immediately SEEK AFFILIATION with that American-born and American-operated institution, the man-power and wealth of which are pledged to the protection of American institutions in times of peace as well as in times of war.

N.S. PAST PRESIDENTS IN STATEWIDE MEET

OAKLAND (ALAMEDA COUNTY). THE eighteenth session of the General Assembly of the N S G.W. Past Presidents Association was held in Native Sons Building, with Governor General Milton O. Peterson presiding. Reports from Assemblies showed a nice gain both in membership and finances during the past year.

Oroville, Butte County, was selected as the place for holding the 1939 General Assembly. Several resolutions were adopted, among them one re-affirming allegiance to the Constitution and to the Flag of the United States of America. Another petitions the Grand Parlor to make several of the General Assembly officers members of the Grand Parlor.

At memorial exercises, Irving D. Gibson paid a tribute to all past presidents deceased during the past year. The following officers were elected, and installed by Past Governor General A. W. Katzenstein, assisted by J. J. Longshore, acting marshal general:

Frank W. Boyle, Fred H. Greely Assembly No. 6, governor general; Milton O. Peterson, East Bay Counties Assembly No. 3, junior past governor general; Walter Hiskey, Assembly No. 14, lieutenant governor general; James F. Stanley, San Francisco Assembly No. 1, director general; John T. Regan, San Francisco Assembly No. 1, secretary-treasurer general; Lee J. Stirling, East Bay Assembly No. 3, marshal general; E. E. Baldwin, Arrowhead Assembly No 14, guard general; J. G. Fitzhenry, General John A. Sutter Assembly No. 10, sentinel general; Frank P. Smith, East Bay County Assembly No. 3, Law T. Freitas, San Joaquin Assembly No. 7, Donald E. VanLuven, Arrowhead Assembly No. 14, trustees general. Governor General Boyle appointed Al C. Weber, East Bay Counties Assembly No. 3, organist general.

In the evening a banquet, attended by seventy-five, was served. Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr was the toastmaster, and the speakers included Governor General Boyle, Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Councilman Dr. T. W. Fitzsimmons representing the City of Oakland, Junior Past Governor General Peterson, Director General Stanley and Secretary-Treasurer General Regan. Among others in attendance were Grand Outside Sentinel Walter N. Bailey, Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Trustees Walter Rothenbush and R. G. Power.

Taft—Taft No. 276 will observe November 26 the first anniversary of its institution. Charles Ladley is chairman of the arrangements committee. Since its institution the Parlor has made great progress.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of ten or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1939.

Sutter—At a reorganization meeting, Henry Correll of Sutter No. 261 was elected governor of Fred H. Greely Past Presidents Assembly No. 6. The Assembly's meeting of October 11 was held at Nevada City, with Hydraulic No. 56 as the host Parlor. Officers were installed by Past Governor General A. W. Katzenstein. A banquet followed the ceremonies, and among the speakers were Grand Trustee R. G. Power and Past Grand Seth Millington.

ANTELOPE VALLEY

(MISS ESTHER CRONE.)

Oh, Antelope Valley
Is pretty to see,
With its wide-open spaces
And Joshua tree.
While the colorful sunrise
That brings in the day
Is a sight from which memory
Cannot get away.
The blue and the purple
Encircling the crest,
Come down on the mountains
At evening to rest.
And springtime makes glorious
A gold Poppy Shrine,
Which spreads like a blanket
Of melted sunshine.
Oh, this Antelope Valley
Must surely compare
With beautiful Paradise,
Garden so fair.

RE-DEDICATION TO CHILD INTEREST

James French Dorrance

WITH THE MONTH OF OCTOBER assigned to the interests of children, Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. centered its activities on the homeless children committee conducted in co-operation with Santa Barbara No. 116 N.S.G.W., and on its milk fund sponsorship in behalf of the Santa Barbara Community Chest.

The principal re-dedication to child interests occurred at Neighborhood House the evening of October 28, when there was a review of the work accomplished, and an evaluation thereof under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Eugene Ireland and Dr. Anna E. McCaughey. The committee includes Mms. David Lord, William R. Vick, A. E. Platz, L. C. Miles and Mabel Erwin.

The Santa Barbara Milk Fund was launched in 1917 by the Native Daughters at the request of the Visiting Nurse Association, and while it is now a Community Chest member, the Parlor plays an active part in campaigning for its funds. Neighborhood House serves as administrator, with no charge for overhead expense, enabling every cent contributed to be expended for milk.

The fund is handled in the same way as other private relief funds, families eligible for milk relief being referred to the proper public agency. Families not on public relief, but needing milk and unable to purchase it, are provided with milk through the fund. Requests come to the fund from the East Side Social Center, Visiting Nurse Association, city and county health departments, the county clinic, the county hospital and other health and welfare agencies.

The budget for the year is $4,500, which allows an average of 113 quarts of milk daily. At the moment, 136 children in 56 families and 36 invalids are receiving 95½ quarts of milk daily. Included among the children are several who have returned from Sunshine Cottage and need the milk to keep up health gains achieved there. Some children belong to families with a tuberculosis history, and are under the watchful eye of the city health department. Other children are referred by the schools, because they are underweight.

The Central Homeless Children Agency was established by the Native Sons and Native Daughters in 1910. Since that time some 5,000 children have been placed in homes happily.

At a recent meeting of Reina del Mar Parlor, presided over by President Dorothy Yule, a musical program was given under the direction of Miss Dorothy Poole. Mrs. James Lebeck was pianist, and Dan Stodden, tenor, sang several numbers. Mrs. Christine Hall was made co-chairman with Mrs. W. R. Vick of the americanization committee, the setting up of which was directed by the Grand Parlor which met in Santa Barbara last summer.

NEWLY FORMED N.S. ORCHESTRA WILL PAY FRATERNAL VISITS.

Santa Barbara Parlor of Native Sons, after an active summer that included helping Reina del Mar Parlor entertain the Grand Parlor of Native Daughters in a way that is said to have set a new high for hospitality, and the usual wholehearted participation in the "Old Spanish Days" Fiesta in Santa Barbara, has settled to a regular program.

An excellent example of the attractive dinner meeting given once a month came October 20, when there was a large membership and visitor attendance for the Spanish feast prepared by Captain I. A. Bonelli and his good of the order committee. President A. J. "Gus" Janssens presided at the business meeting and announced interesting events to come. John Freyberg, as master of ceremonies, took over a fine program arranged by Chairman Vince Grocott.

The evening served to mark the first public appearance of Don Pedro's orchestra, formed of membership of Santa Barbara, which shortly will accompany the Parlor officers and members on visits to Ventura and Santa Maria. In the latter place, Santa Barbara County's second city, a brand new parlor of Native Sons is in process of formation. James Mason, 99-year-old traveler now a resident of Santa Barbara, was guest speaker. W. G. Newell of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 presented the Newell trio of three attractive young singers, and showed moving pictures of the distilling of liquor.

SAN BERNARDINO

CITY AND COUNTY — THE GATE WAY TO GOLDEN CALIFORNIA

CRESTLINE (SAN BERNARDINO MOUNTAINS)—In the clubrooms of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. of San Bernardino, large delegations from all the southland Parlors gathered Saturday evening, October 22, to witness the initiation of twenty-one candidates—fifteen for Arrowhead, two for Ramona No. 109 of Los Angeles, one each for Los Angeles No. 45, Stephen M. White No. 263 of San Pedro, Santa Ana No. 265 and East Los Angeles No. 277.

The ritual was exemplified by the following: Grand Secretary John T. Regan, president; Past Grand President Harmon D. Skillin, junior past president; Past Grand President John T. Newell, senior past president; Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, first vice-president; Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, second vice-president; Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove, third vice-president; Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, marshal; Judge Donald E. VanLuven of Arrowhead, inside sentinel; Roger M. Johnson of Los Angeles, organist.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies Judge Jerome B. Kavanaugh, on behalf of Arrowhead, extended a hearty welcome to the grand officers and all others. Addresses were delivered by Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Past Grand Presidents Skillin, Newell and Meyer. Prior to the ceremonies the 200 in attendance were guests of Arrowhead at a delicious steak supper. J. A. Olivas was general chairman of the evening.

DAUGHTERS ENTERTAIN SONS.

San Bernardino—Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. entertained some seventy-five members of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. at a pot-luck dinner September 28. All had a good time. October 12 the Parlor had a visit from Deputy Dorothy Ravn. Refreshments were served.

The Parlor's sewing club had an evening meeting at the home of Pauline Tomkins October 18, and an all-day session at the home of Edith Wing October 19. Grand President Edna B. Briggs was entertained by Lugonia October 26.

YOSEMITE ROBINS, DESPITE HANDICAPS, HATCH THEIR BROOD.

A courageous pair of robins have been the cynosure of all eyes this year at Housekeeping Camp No. 16 in Yosemite National Park. They built their home in a diminutive dogwood tree, scarcely an inch in diameter, and not more than three feet above the swirling waters of the Merced River.

When a wind blew the cradle would rock in a three-foot arc, and the harassed birds had difficulty keeping their eggs warm. Moreover, thoughtless fishermen continually chose this spot to cast their lines, while at all times dozens of people were about. But the robins staunchly stood their ground, and succeeded in hatching out their brood.

Two of the most noted observatories in the world are located in national forests of southern California—Mount Wilson on the Angeles National Forest, and the new Palomar Observatory with its famous 200-inch telescope on the Cleveland National Forest.

Redondo Beach, Los Angeles County, has approved a bond issue of $245,000 for breakwater construction, and a bond issue of $125,000 for two city auditoriums.

Fresno City will feature the annual Central California Auto Show November 10-13.

Thanksgiving Day, November 24, will be observed throughout California.

Humboldt County's first school was established at Uniontown (now Arcata) in 1852.

Whereas, Our beloved member, Minnie Ellen Loos, has been called away from us to a higher period to where there will be no more pain nor sorrow, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend our deepest sympathy to her husband and son, her daughter Anita Loos Emerson and granddaughter, Mary Anita Loos, members of this Parlor, in the loss of their loved one, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to them. Be it further

Resolved, That we shall miss her from our circle and will always remember her active interest and her cheery smile during the many years she was with us and that this record be inscribed upon our minutes and be published in The Grizzly Bear.

Respectfully submitted,

OLIVE LOPEZ,
Chairman.

Contra Costa County, site of one of the foremost fossil beds in the West, has produced another strange specimen of ancient days and ancient ways. It is the skeleton of a young bear hung with strands of sea shell fragments. Nothing like it has ever been found before, to the knowledge of University of California investigators.

Sonora, Tuolumne County, Union High School district citizens have voted $110,000 bonds for a construction program at the local high school.

PRIZE PUMPKIN

EVER SINCE THE CALIFORNIA STATE Fair has been annually held in Sacramento, farmers in that vicinity have been consistent exhibitors of products of the soil. They have always vied with each other in producing the best and the largest specimens of fruits, vegetables, dairy products and livestock. Some make a specialty of certain varieties, and devote much time and spare no expense in efforts to excel. It is with great satisfaction they receive premium awards for their labor and perseverance. That is considered sufficient recompense for expenditure of both muscular and mental endeavors, although the award be only a small recompense, comparatively, in intrinsic worth.

One of the enthusiastic producers in the '60s was Dan Flint, who owned an acreage below Sacramento, a portion of which was devoted to raising hops, and he was a successful grower. On another part of the acreage he put in time and endeavor cultivating a number of agricultural hobbies. He became imbued at one time with the idea he could produce and exhibit at the State Fair the biggest pumpkin grown in California, and devoted time and energy one season to the cultivation of the vines of this globular vegetable. The most vigorous vine had persistent attention. He gave it a milkshake morning and evening, and viewed with satisfaction its response to his personal attention. When one of its progeny developed with a three-yard circumference and a weight in proportion, he felt sure of success. He looked at it almost hourly as the opening day of the State Fair approached, and could not resist a desire to brag about it to his neighbors.

The morning the State Fair opened Dan, with a hired man, proudly drove his team to the pumpkin patch to load the prized pumpkin and convey it to the pavilion. To his dismay, it was gone! Knowing it was too big for any one man to carry off alone, he began to investigate and soon discovered that more than one man, and also a team, had been engaged in taking it away. He then hied to the sheriff's office to lodge a complaint and have the purloiner arrested. Here he struck a snag!

The sheriff, after listening to his tale of woe and asking pertinent questions, decided he could take no action. It was not a case of highway robbery, for the theft was not committed on a highway; it was not embezzlement, for it was not left in the care of the appropriator; it was not burglary, for nothing had been broken into; it was not grand larceny, for the market value of the pumpkin was about $2. As his office and high-salaried deputies took no cognizance of an offense smaller than bigamy, he told Dan to go to the Sacramento chief of police and swear out a warrant for petty larceny. The chief, when he found the appropriating was done outside city limits, had nothing but sympathy to offer, and advised Dan to go to his township's justice of the peace and swear out a warrant.

Discomfitted because the day was gone, thus giving the larcenist a day's start, he discouragedly wended his way to the pavilion, intending to tell his trouble to the secretary of the State Fair. Passing by the vegetable display, he espied the child of his heart setting upon a pedestal, with an entry card attached showing it was the exhibit of C. C. Hidden, a neighbor, and that it weighed 202 pounds. Dan quickly removed the card, made out one in his own name, and started for the secretary's office. At the door he met Hidden, who claimed that his taking and exhibiting of the pumpkin was a practical joke. But Dan didn't wait, he hit him on the jaw and knocked him about twenty feet. As soon as Hidden recovered, he rushed at Dan to return the blow, and then a rough-and-tumble fight began that required calling of the police to stop. Both combatants were arrested and taken to the police station. Both being protuberant and rotund, with more avoirdupois than muscle, more damage had been done their clothes than their facial appearances.

Dan swore to a charge of assault and battery against Hidden, and the latter did likewise against Dan. Dan employed Jim Coffroth to prosecute and defend, and Hidden employed N. Greene Curtis to do the same for him. They were two of the highest priced lawyers in Sacramento. The police court was busy off and on with the cases for two weeks, for a jury trial was demanded. The jury finally acquitted Dan, and found Hidden guilty of battery. He was fined $50.

Now, how much it cost the two in lawyers' fees is not known, but it must have been a goodly sum. Then, too, their loss of time and incidental expenses—for both loitered around thirst-quenching resorts—can only be conjectured. Dan, though, had the satisfaction of getting the blue ribbon for the biggest pumpkin exhibited at the State Fair that year.

GLIMPSES OF CHRISTMAS WITH THE EARLY CALIFORNIANS

Dr. Peter T. Conmy

Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

SEVERAL WEEKS AFTER THE FOUNDing of San Diego Mission, July 1769, Portola organized an expedition to search for the Port of Monterey, which had been agreed upon as the site for the second mission. This expedition encountered any difficulties. Before finding Monterey they scovered San Francisco Bay. Later, after onterey had been located, they retraced their eps to San Diego Mission. In this they enured a number of hardships which delayed em so that their destination was not reached ntil January 1770. Portola and his band, herefore, spent their first California Christmas t in the confines of their San Diego headquarrs, but on the march. December 24 they were what is now Ventura County near the present mbria. Christmas Eve is now universally rearded as a day of preparation for the great oliday which follows. Not so for these intrepid xplorers. The day before Christmas found em on the march. Says Fr. Juan Crespi in is diary:

"Dec. 24, 1769. On this day before Christmas e two said masses . . . and we set out in the orning on the same road on which we came. ecause the water had washed away a pass on a eep descent to the beach, which we had reired on the way up, it was necessary for us look for a pass in another valley, that was so ll of brush, so that in order to go through it e men had to go ahead and open the road with achetes. The march covered three leagues, nd we halted on the same spot as on the tenth September, which was in the Valley of El sito de San Buenaventura. It was God's will hat we should celebrate the Nativity joyfully, hich was done in this way: more than two hunred heathen of both sexes came to visit us in is place bringing us Christmas gifts, for many them came with good baskets of pinole and me fish, that we had something with which to elebrate Christmas day. . . . Their gifts were eturned with beads which pleased them great-Christmas morning found the explorers again the march. The Catholic Church has a mass r her priests to offer for every day in the year. n the Feast of the Nativity of Christ, however, ere are three separate and distinct masses hich it is expected that each priest shall read. n this Christmas morning, so intent were the xplorers to be on their way, Fr. Crespi tells us at there was just time for each of the fathers say one mass, after which the onward journey as resumed. They covered three leagues and half Christmas Day. The cold was biting, but ey took it cheerfully, Fr. Crespi reporting: The cold is so biting that it gives us good rean to meditate upon what the Infant Jesus, who as this day born in Bethlehem, suffered for ."

At the close of the day they stopped at a small dian village, where they obtained a supply of h which they ate for dinner. Thus passed the st Christmas of Spanish explorers in Calirnia. Not a very gay holiday as measured by esent-day standards or by current practices. t their hearts were stout and brave, and their inds were possessed of other things than oridly, material pleasures. The diary for ristmas closes with the following words:

"So we celebrated Christmas with this dainty he fish) which tasted better to everyone than pons and chickens have tasted in other places, cause of the good sauce of San Bernardo, nger, which all had in abundance. And there as not lacking a Christmas gift of good baskets pinole and atole, which being white and made acorns, tastes like mangar blanco, because of color and the pleasure with which it is eaten."

Another Christmas spoken of in the diaries the Spanish explorers was that of 1775. It ould be recalled that September 29 of that ar a large company of men, women and children with an abundance of cattle and provisions set out from Mexico under Captain Juan Bautista de Anza. This party had been sent out to settle San Francisco. The annual December holidays found them across the Colorado Desert and starting their ascent of the Sierra. The Priest-diarist of this expedition was Fr. Pedro Font. One of the women of the party was about to give birth to a child and so the march was halted until she should be delivered. She was quite ill, as we may well imagine, and due no doubt to the severity of the march and of the climate, it was feared she would die. Fr. Font gave her spiritual consolation. But although there was suffering in her tent, in nearby tents there was great festivity. Over the protests of Fr. Font, who feared drunken revelry, the commander passed out liquor for the Christmas occasion, and there was much drinking. Just before midnight the child was born. This however, was no barrier to their progress, and in the line quoted next Fr. Font explains it was the inclemency of the weather and not the birth of the child or the mother's condition which held them back. He says: "Because a little before midnight on this holy night of the Nativity the wife of a soldier was happily delivered of a boy and because the day was very raw and foggy we decided to remain here today."

On the morrow Fr. Font celebrated the three Christmas masses in his church. At the first of these he preached a sermon in which he stressed two points, namely, first the importance and significance of Christmas, and second a reprimand for the drunkenness of the preceding evening. After the masses he baptized the newly-born child, Salvador Ygnacio Linares. He was called Ygnacio Linares after his father. The first name, Salvador, was given because it honored the day upon which he was born, the Spanish word for Saviour being Salvador. Fr. Font wrote his sermon out in the diary, and it is interesting to quote the following passage therefrom dealing with the spirit of the occasion:

"Christmas Eve, and why is it so called? Was not Christmas Eve the night of the Supper, the Resurrection? Why do they say Christmas Eve? Is it because this is a night for much eating, and drinking and fandangoes, and drunkenness and noise and lewdness? Oh, earth, earth, how you change everything. The most sacred days are turned into days of greatest profanity." The drinking on Christmas Eve seems to be the only festivity of the occasion, and on the 26th they set out on the march at a quarter past nine in the morning, as the diary relates.

Looking into the diary of Nelson Kingsley, a forty-niner from Vermont, we find that in his entries for December 24 and 25, 1849, he did not mention Christmas, but speaks only of the work he had been doing. His remarks under date of December 24, 1850, mention the fact that his thoughts go back home at Christmas time, but he does not speak of any local festivities. His entry for Christmas Day, equally barren, is here presented: "My luxuries today are limited as far as eatables are concerned; for breakfast, fried ham, doughnuts and crackers and cheese; for dinner, about the same, and for supper, stewed oysters which are fresh and new."

The diary of Alfred T. Jackson, which has been published under the title, "The Diary of a Forty-Niner," for December 1850 is without any reference to Christmas festivities. He speaks of the death of a man who had been shot by a highwayman through the knee, shattering the bone, and mortification having set in, he expired. This is reported under date of December 29, 1850, as follows: "The doctor cut off McCord's leg the day before Christmas and he died the next day. We buried him alongside of Donovan. He had $1,200 in dust which we sent to his wife who lives in New York City. It was pitiful to hear him mourn about her and his children before he died."

As time progressed and conditions became more settled, Christmas in California assumed a more normal, traditional aspect and became more like the present observance. Thus by 1864 we find very much the same shopping conditions prevailing as at present. This is shown by the following editorial from the Shasta Courier for December 24, 1864. It was written by the late John Joseph Conmy, at that time owner and editor of the Courier, and grandfather of the present writer:

"Tomorrow being Christmas, we take time by the forelock and our readers with our best wishes and a Merry Christmas.

"During the past week we have been much amused to see the number of children on the sidewalks, so disproportioned with that of adults. Occasionally a parent of some of this young stock may be seen, cautiously wending his way along, watching that none of his offspring shall catch him. Slyly he glides along, with both hands in his pockets, tenaciously grasping and determinedly holding to his last quarter; but of no use his resolves and care. Young America has an eagle eye, and lights on the paternal head of the household, when with mouth widespread and arms extended, papa is his prisoner, without power to escape until the pockets, so well guarded but a moment before, are emptied into the itching palm of the institution a nation is fighting for—rising generation.

"Go it, little ones. If the old folks can't stand it let them go under, and we'll get parents that can, or set up for ourselves."

HITCHING POSTS

(BETTY L. WHITSELL.)

A glimpse of faded history
Are these old hitching posts,
Reflecting past events,
The splendid service of the horse—
These are his monuments.

A sort of holy shrine, they seem,
To gallant power and trust
And loyalty to men—
A record of a priceless love
That may not come again.

Now closely parked along the street
Are cars of breathless speed—
But time still leaves a trace
For always near these hitching posts
Is seen old Dobbin's face.

Atop Mount Diablo, Contra Costa County, the first unit of a museum and pictorial display depicting the geologic, floral and faunal life of central California dating back for millions of years, was dedicated as a part of the annual Walnut Festival held in Walnut Creek.

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

THE ORDERS OF NATIVE SONS AND Native Daughters of the Golden West will be represented by a beautiful floral float in the Tournament of Roses parade at Pasadena January 2. The idea originated in and is being carried out by the Interparlor N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Committee, Southern District, which is meeting every Monday night in the library of Patriotic Hall, 1816 South Figueroa street, Los Angeles, to perfect plans.

The idea has the approval of Grand President Joseph J. McShane of the Native Sons and Grand President Edna B. Briggs of the Native Daughters. All Subordinate Parlors of both Orders have been appealed to for funds, and are responding encouragingly. Individual members also are asked to contribute. All donations should be sent to Secretary John Off Jr. of the Interparlor Committee, 1824 No. New Hampshire avenue, Los Angeles.

The floral parade of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses is publicized throughout the world, and the Orders will benefit immensely from being represented by an outstanding floral float.

The sub-committee of the Interparlor Committee in charge of the float details—Chairman Fred Leonetti, Secretary John Off Jr., Solly Smith, Anna Marie Dunlay, Joe Hiss, Lee Scofield and Harry Davis—is sponsoring a dance to help raise needed funds. It will be held December 3 at 1853 South Arlington. The admission will be fifty cents per person. All Natives and their friends are urged to give the dance their support.—J.W.A.O.

PARTY FOR UNDERPRIVILEGED CHILDREN.

At its November 16 meeting, Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. welcomed five new members. It was voted to adopt another baby, and President Ann Schiebusch or her "Aunt Petie" will be the namesake, depending on whether the youngster be a boy or a girl. November 22, Mary McAnany and her veterans welfare committee gave a card party for shut-in veterans at the National Military Home, Sawtelle, and the boys enjoyed the treat immensely.

December 2, the sewing club of Los Angeles will meet at the home of Mrs. Edna Neikirk, and during the evening Mrs. Rose Porazzo will be honored with a stork shower. December 9, President Ann Schiebusch will present a flag to the new Parlor, Topanga No. 269 at Canoga Park. December 21, Christmas party for members of the Parlor; Leonie Clos chairman.

Betty Graydon, chairman last year and again this year of the party for underprivileged children sponsored by the Parlor, invites the members to attend an operatta to be given December 23 by the children of Fresno Playground, who were guests of No. 124 last year. December 24, the Parlor will have its annual Christmas party for underprivileged children.—H.M.

EVENING OF ENTERTAINMENT BILLED.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. had its second musical contest October 27. There was a large attendance, and the program, arranged by Roger Johnson, won hearty applause. The evening was in honor of Past Grand John T. Newell and wife, as their grandchildren provided most of the entertainment. Refreshments followed the show. The Parlor observed its fifty-fourth institution anniversary at a dance November 17.

Los Angeles will have its annual Christmas party December 22, and among its guests will be several less-fortunate children. An evening of entertainment is billed for December 29, and all Natives and their friends are invited to join in the fun.

CHRISTMAS BAZAR FOR GOOD CAUSE.

At its November 8 meeting, Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. voted on several candidates who will be initiated in December. Chairman Ruth Bilger and her efficient ways and means committee are greatly pleased with the result of the November 10 bridge luncheon. A goodly sum was raised for Parlor activities, and the afternoon was enjoyed by the 105 guests.

At the Thanksgiving meeting of the Parlor, November 22, Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg presented an Americanism program in charge of Mrs. Harold Palethorpe, chairman of the day. Dr. F. W. Emerson, head of public relations of the sheriff's office, spoke on "The Human Side of Law Enforcement," and described the boys' camps, the honor farm and other phases sponsored by Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz. Lovely decorations appropriate to the season were artistically arranged, and tea was served by the hospitality committee, in charge of Mrs. George Adams. The next sewing circle meeting will be held December 5 at the home of Mrs. Maria Welch.

Great enthusiasm will mark December 13, when Californiana holds its annual Christmas Bazar for the benefit of the homeless children. Chairman Beatrice Wahrmund of the Gertrude Sewing Circle will be in charge and she and her committee, with the assistance of the Parlor's entire membership, will make the event one of which Californiana will be proud.—O.L.

"OCCASION OF THE YEAR."

Santa Monica—The booster show of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W., November 10, was a huge success in every particular. The committee responsible for an enjoyable evening included Manuel Treosti, Tom Hume, John J. Smith, Ralph Eisenhart, Lee Conger, Clarke Greenfield, Hal Baida and Stanley Posner. November 17, Captain Frank G. Katzenberger of the sheriff's office entertained with a talk that stressed a moral lesson, and Captain Arthur H. Sessler of the California State Highway Patrol showed three talking pictures.

In honor of Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Santa Monica Bay will December 1 have a large class of candidates for initiation. The ritual will be exemplified by the grand officers.

Preceding the ceremonies, at 7 p.m., dinner will be served, and at their conclusion entertainment, featuring something new, a California question contest, will be provided.

December 15, Santa Monica Bay will have its tenth annual lobster feast—the "big" event that is anticipated and attended by numerous members of all southland Parlors. Ralph Eisenhart is in charge of arrangements, and Sheriff "Gene" Biscailuz will conduct the good of the Order. This "occasion of the year" begins at 6 p.m. December 22, the Parlor will have its final 1938 initiation. December 29, Hector Baida will tell of his recent trip through the Republic of Mexico.

LARGE ATTENDANCE URGED.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. and Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. are jointly sponsoring a dance at the Hollywood Conservatory of Music, 5400 Hollywood boulevard, December 10. The proceeds will go to the homeless children committees of the Parlors. Admission will be fifty cents per person.

A large attendance is urged. Splendid music will be provided, and a table model radio will be given away. The joint arrangements committee includes Helen Lee, chairman, Louise Mae Nary, Leonie Clos, Lucy Malin, Harold Thomas, Albert Sandoval, Vincent Vanderbosch, Edward J. Iblings and Wm. Hortenstine.

CHRISTMAS PARTY.

Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. has petitioned the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors to provide for the presentation next year of the pageant, "A Day in Old California," regardless of whether or not King George and Queen Elizabeth of Great Britain visit Los Angeles. It is believed such a pageant, if made an annual affair, would prove of incalculable value to the cultural and the economic welfare of the county. Paul Engstrum, Los Angeles County's official host, affiliated with the Parlor November 18.

Ramona will have its annual Christmas party December 16 at 4157 West Fifth street. Santa Claus will be there, with toys for all boys and girls, and music, entertainment and refreshments will be provided.

BEAR FLAG FOR GIRL SCOUTS.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. initiated several candidates November 17, and members having November birthdays were honored with cakes baked by Mae Gillies. Alice Waldow was chairman for the evening. Josephine Reichman was chairman of a very successful card party held in Downey November 18. To raise funds with which to purchase a California State (Bear) Flag for the Girl Scouts troop sponsored by the Parlor, a card party was held November 29 at Mary Stultz's home.

Long Beach's veterans welfare committee plans a dance December 10 at the Hollywood Riviera Club. Leola Temby is chairman of the annual Christmas party sponsored by the Parlor's past presidents. December 15 is the date. —A.W.

MAKING GOOD PROGRESS.

East Los Angeles—Following is a list of the new officers of the recently instituted East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W.: E. A. Foster, president; A. R. Leyva Jr., first vice-president; Francis Cannon, second vice-president; Howard Woodward, third vice-president; Reg. Anderson, recording secretary; Thomas Doyle, financial secretary; Everist Teel, marshal; Richard Carroll, inside sentinel; Ellwood Irwin Jr., outside sentinel.

Since its institution the Parlor has added several new names to its membership roll, and is making good progress along all lines.

VETERANS SHOWERED WITH JAMS, ETC.

San Pedro—Meetings of the Florencita Thimble Club, an auxiliary of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W., met November 2 and 16 at the homes of Grace Richardson of Lomita and Mercy Powers of San Pedro. November 12 the birthdays of Martha Miller, Frances Dillon, Berniece Drant, Mary Halvorsen and Florence Bostick were remembered with birthday cards. Chairman Lucy Guzman of the veterans welfare committee paid her annual visit to the National Military Home at Sawtelle and showered the veterans with jams, jellies, etc., which were donated by Parlor members.

December 6, the Florencita Thimble Club will meet at the San Pedro home of Anita Brooks for the regular meeting and luncheon. A card party is to be held December 8 at the San Pedro Woman's Clubhouse. A cedar chest, filled with linens, will be given away. The affair promises to be a great success, and Chairman Catherine Hackett and committee wish to thank all who have co-operated so generously to that end.—R.B.

INTERPARLOR HAS NEW OFFICERS.

The N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Interparlor Committee, Southern District, has elected the following officers: Fred Leonetti of Glendale Par-

Native Sons of the Golden West

Holiday Greetings

"TO THE GRAND OFFICERS, OFFICers and Members of All Subordinate Parlors, Native Sons of the Golden West—My dear Brothers: The birthday of our Saviour is again upon us, and as that day draws near we should again give praise, in deed and prayer, for the many things this world has bestowed on us.

"Christmas is a season of prayer and a season of thanksgiving, and throughout our State thousands of Native Sons and Native Daughters will participate in the spirit of observance.

"Native Sons of the Golden West have much to be thankful for—thankful for our ability to aid our less-fortunate fellowmen, thankful for the right to live in a country which today is free of oppression, thankful for health, happiness and prosperity.

"Secure in the knowledge of American institutional permanency, Native Sons of the Golden West in all parts of our Great State are preparing to participate in the dissemination of good cheer and happiness during this Christmas season.

"As Grand President of our beloved Order, I wish at this season of the year to extend to all brothers and sisters of the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West a sincere hope for a very merry Christmas and a happy and successful New Year.

" 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.' Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Jos. J. McShane

"Grand President N.S.G.W.
"San Francisco, November 19, 1938."

Public Schools Dedicated.

Bakersfield—Grand President Joseph J. McShane, assisted by Junior Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, Past Grand Harmon D. Skillin, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr and Grand Secretary John T. Regan dedicated the new $100,000 Beardsley Primary School the evening of October 28 in the presence of approximately 400 residents of the district.

The ceremonies were under the auspices of Bakersfield No. 42, with H. A. Bannister as chairman of the evening. Music was furnished by the girls' and the boys' glee clubs, and among the speakers were Grand President McShane and Past Grand Skillin.

The afternoon of October 30, also under the auspices of Bakersfield No. 42, Grand President McShane and assistants dedicated the new $750,000 East Bakersfield High School. Editor Alfred Harrell of the Bakersfield Californian, a member of the Parlor, was chairman of the day, and among the speakers were Grand President McShane, Past Grand Skillin and Editor Paul Newell of the Kern Herald. Vocal selections were rendered by the girls' glee club.

Monument Perpetuates Pioneer's Memory.

Taylorsville—Citizens from all parts of Plumas County assembled here November 6 for the dedication of a monument erected by Plumas No. 228 to the memory of Pioneer John Taylor, who founded Taylorsville in 1852. District Deputy J. D. McLaughlin of Quincy No. 131 was the master of ceremonies, and the principal speaker was Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, who discoursed on the ideals of the Pioneers. Other speakers were Wm. M. Macmillan, Mrs. Minnie Johnson, Mrs. Roy W. Droege, and President Elmer Sikes and Secretary George Boyden of Plumas Parlor. A benediction was pronounced by Rev. Virgil Jackson. The monument, unveiled by Clarence Taylor, grandson of Pioneer Taylor, is inscribed:

"Site of the permanent residence in Indian Valley built by Jobe T. Taylor in February 1852. This marker made from the millstones brought around Cape Horn in 1856 for the first flour mill in the Pacific Northwest. Located in Taylorsville, Plumas County, California." Jobe Taylor, for whom Taylorsville was named, settled in Indian Valley in 1852. Besides building the first home, he erected the first gristmill in the northwest. The millstones were brought in by pack train after the heavy disks had been transported around Cape Horn.

Twenty-one Candidates Initiated.

Bakersfield—Eighteen candidates for Bakersfield No. 42 and three for Taft No. 276 were initiated by the grand officers ritual team October 29. A dinner preceding the ceremonies was attended by 100. The ritual was exemplified by the following:

Grand Secretary John T. Regan, president; Past Grand Harmon D. Skillin, junior past president; Deputy H. A. Bannister, senior past president; Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, first vice-president; Junior Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, second vice-president; Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig, third vice-president; Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, marshal.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

San Francisco—The grand officers, headed by Grand President Joseph J. McShane, will dedicate a high school at Courtland, Sacramento County, Sunday, December 11.

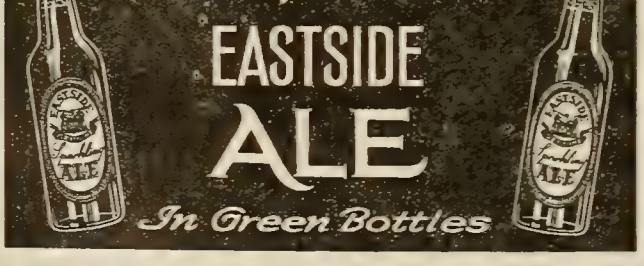
Los Angeles—A meeting of the deputy grand presidents in District No. 1, embracing the southland Parlors, was called by Supervising Deputy John O'B. Bodkin for November 6. Grand President Joseph J. McShane and Grand Secretary John T. Regan were also in attendance. The purpose of the meeting was to formulate plans for an intensive membership drive to close December 31. A minimum quota of fifteen new members for each Parlor was fixed.

San Francisco—The Grand Parlor's California History Board met October 21 and transacted much important business of a routine nature. In attendance were Past Grand Edward J. Lynch, Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, William C. Latham and Emmett Joy.

Sacramento—As an American Education Week program, Sacramento No. 3, Sunset No. 26 and Fort Sutter No. 241 sponsored an address November 10 by Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, whose subject was "The Missions." The arrangements committee included Thomas W. McAuliffe, chairman, William Kelly, Leslie J. Lindsay, O. J. Lovett, William Wood and Donald Dalton.

Oroville—Argonaut No. 8 and Gold of Ophir No. 190 N.D.G.W. sponsored the mardi gras which closed the four-day Orange and Olive Exposition November 26. President Frank Boyle, President Evelyn Joslyn and Past Grand Florence D. Boyle were in charge of arrangements.

Modesto—Joseph McClain Cross, affiliated with Modesto No. 11 and a former district attorney of Stanislaus County, died October 28, survived by a wife and two children. He was born at Farmington, San Joaquin County, July 31, 1874.



AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of ten or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1939.

Fresno—William C. Guard, last of the original charter members of Fresno No. 25 and for many years its recording secretary, died November 19, survived by three children. He was a native of Mariposa County, aged 77, and was Fresno County's second tax collector, holding that position for forty years.

Plymouth—Olie Emil Harrell, affiliated with Plymouth No. 48 and a former mayor of this place, died November 16, survived by a wife and a son. He was born in Shenandoah Valley March 27, 1871.

SAN FRANCISCO

CARRYING OUT A CUSTOM BEGUN nineteen years ago, South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. celebrated November 9 the anniversary of Armistice Day at a banquet attended by approximately 200 members and guests. President Clarence Graf was the toastmaster, and the following responded to his call:

Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Treasurer John A. Corotto, Grand Trustees Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Charles A. Redding, and Past President Vincent Lovett. The latter spoke for the ex-service members, many of whom attended as honor-guests. Grand Trustee Raymond D. Williamson paid his official visit to South San Francisco at this time, and in addition to speaking at the Parlor business session delivered the Armistice Day oration at the banquet, touching on happenings during and following the World War.

INSPIRING AND INSTRUCTIVE TALK.

The November breakfast at the N.D.G.W. Home was sponsored by Oro Fino No. 9, Linda Rosa No. 170, Guadalupe No. 153 and Castro No. 178 Parlors. Chairman Patricia Salinger had as co-hostesses Viola Brown, who delivered a beautiful prayer of thanksgiving, May Farrell and Agnes Briggs. Alyce McAravy, accompanied by Agnes Callaghan, sang "Thank God for a Garden" and "California I'm in Love With You," the latter written by Charlotte Phelps, a San Jose Native Daughter. Decorations were orchid-colored chrysanthemums.

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W., was the speaker of the occasion, and gave a most inspiring and instructive talk on "The Value of California History and the Real Meaning of Patriotism." For the Home endowment fund, the hostess Parlors presented a donation to Past Grand Dr. Mariana Bertola, chairman Grand Parlor Home Committee. Among others in attendance were Grand Vice president Orinda Giannini and Grand Trustee Emily Ryan. The breakfast closed in memory of Anna Gruber-Loser of Orinda Parlor No. 56, San Francisco, just recently deceased.—M.R.

NEWS OF THE N.D.G.W. PARLORS.

Mrs. M. Seifert was honor-guest at a Hallowe'en surprise shower given at her home by La Estrella No. 89. Mrs. A. Dunsing entertained the sewing club at luncheon at her home. President Ethel Deveri has planned several affairs for the holiday season.—N.F.

Veterans at Letterman General Hospital were made happy November 11 by a visit of members of Dolores No. 169 and El Vespero No. 118, who distributed cigarets and magazines. Two candidates were initiated by Dolores November 23. The Parlor's drill team had a business meeting at the home of Rose Cully. Co-hostesses were Alvina Burkhardt and Helen Laklen.—L.J.N.

President Agnes Briggs of Castro No. 178 and committees are busy with arrangements for fall activities: a whist party at Mrs. Alice Lane's home, a Christmas tree party for the children, a banquet and Christmas tree party for the members, and the official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs.—L.M.

Twin Peaks No. 185 honored Grand Inside Sentinel Loretta M. Cameron at a reception. A very fine entertainment program was enjoyed by more than 200 guests, among them Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, Grand Treasurer Agnes M. Curry, Grand Trustees Ethel Enos, Emily Ryan and Alice Oldham, Past Grands Mae Himes-Noonan and Evelyn I. Carlson, and Deputy Rose Campi. Refreshments were served at prettily appointed tables presided over by members of the Parlor drill team in uniform. President Ethel Williams was chairman of the evening.—L.S.

Members of the drill team of Utopia No. 252 were entertained at the home of Catherine Cook. President Esther Schwenger has appointed Gladys Cook chairman of the sewing club, the members of which are busy making animals for Christmas, to be distributed among the children of San Francisco Hospital. Catherine Askew and Phyllis Burke are in charge of a rummage sale.—K.S.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of ten or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1939.

PUBLIC OFFICIAL BANQUET GUEST.

At Las Vegas, Nevada State, Miss Christine M. Mayer and Henry Bastein, recording secretary Pacific Parlor No. 10 N.S.G.W., were wedded November 8. The honeymoon included Boulder Dam and Zion National Park.

Dr. T. B. W. Leland, San Francisco coroner and a long-time member of Pacific, was honor-guest at a banquet sponsored by the Parlor. Judge Thomas M. Foley was the toastmaster, and among the speakers was Charter Member William Metzner. Guests included, among others, Mayor Angelo J. Rossi, Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Past Grand Presidents Judge Fletcher A. Cutler, Lewis F. Byington, Harmon D. Skillin and Chas. A. Koenig, and J. Emmet Hayden.

TO MARK HISTORIC SITES.

Mayor Angelo J. Rossi has decreed that the historic sites of San Francisco are to be properly marked and indexed for the benefit of visitors to the Golden Gate International Exposition next year. Among the many organizations represented on the mayor's committee are the Order of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

California may expect less rainfall during the coming winter months than the average for the past twenty-two years, according to the forecast of Dr. George F. McEwen at the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography at La Jolla, San Diego County.

TREE CAVITIES

CAVITIES CAUSED BY DECAY OFTEN endanger valuable trees. Whether to treat and fill these cavities, or merely to treat them to prevent more decay, is a question which comes often to tree men in the United States Department of Agriculture. The research men who work with diseases of trees find that whether to fill or not to fill is not as important as arresting decay.

Fillings of cement or asphalt, although they do not ordinarily add much strength to trunk or branch, do give a tree a better appearance. They prevent new growth from rolling into a cavity and assist it in reaching across a cavity more quickly. On the other hand, a filled tree is not as resilient under wind pressure. Asphalt used in cavity filling is likely to slump on a hot day.

Any covered or filled cavity is a menace if it has not been filled properly in the first place, says Rush P. Marshall, forest pathologist in the department. He points out that reliable and conscientious tree surgeons are more concerned with showing the public how trees will respond to proper treatment than in pushing either one of two approved methods.

SEVEN INITIATED.

San Bernardino—Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. had an official visit from Grand President Edna B. Briggs October 26. Cornstalks and pumpkins gave atmosphere to the dining-room, where dinner was served at tables decorated with bright autumn flowers. Each place was marked with a canoe and Indian maiden. At the Parlor meeting, seven candidates were initiated. Among other guests of the evening were Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Deputy Dorothy Ravn and Florence Dodson-Schoneman. The Parlor's annual carnival, November 9, was a financial success. Two cars were entered in the local Admistice Day parade.

Members of Lugonia took a very active interest in San Bernardino's annual Covered Wagon Days celebration, which attracted a large crowd to the city. November 17, with their covered wagon, they participated in the encampment at Perris Hill Park, and November 19, with Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W., had a float in the parade.—H.P.

PAST PRESIDENTS AT CRESTLINE.

San Bernardino—Arrowhead Assembly No. 14 N.S.G.W. Past Presidents will meet Saturday evening, December 10, in the clubhouse of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. at Crestline. A 7 o'clock dinner will precede the meeting, at which Governor E. E. Baldwin will preside, and officers for the new term will be nominated and elected.

All members of the Order of Native Sons are invited to the dinner, but only members of the Past Presidents Association may attend the meeting.

DECEMBER 8 BAZAR.

Ontario—Grand President Edna B. Briggs, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Flora A. Schmittgen of La Bandera Parlor No. 110, Sacramento, paid an official visit to Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. October 27. They were entertained at luncheon at picturesque Padua Hills, and in the afternoon were greeted informally at a tea at the home of Irma Anderson. Preceding the evening meeting dinner was served. The Parlor had a float in the local Armistice Day parade, the theme being "For God and Country."

Under the auspices of the sewing club, the Parlor will have a bazar at the Ontario Women's Clubhouse December 8. The admission will be ten cents, and all Natives and their friends are invited. In preparation for the bazar, the club has had recent gatherings at the homes of Isabel Graves, Julia Fuqua and Irma Anderson.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of ten or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1939.

FINE RECORD ACHIEVED BY NATIVE SONS HISTORY FELLOW.

Berkeley (Alameda County)—In "America and the Strife of Europe," this country's part in the present unrest in Europe is delineated by Dr. J. Fred Rippy, professor of American history at the University of California and 1917-1918 Native Sons of the Golden West traveling history fellow at the University of California.

Dr. Rippy is said to have been one of the most brilliant students of history ever to study at California. Since 1920 he has been at the University of Chicago. His "America and the Strife of Europe" is dedicated to the University of California.

"THE BIG TREE (Sequoia gigantea) is Nature's forest masterpiece and, so far as I know, the greatest of living things. . . . thousands of them still living had already counted their years by centuries when Columbus set sail from Spain, and were in the vigor of youth or middle age when the Star led the Chaldean sages to the infant Saviour's cradle."—John Muir.

Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

CHRISTMAS DAY, DECEMBER 25, 1888, was celebrated quietly throughout California. The day was cloudy and misty and from the weather viewpoint, somewhat disagreeable. All pupils of the Grass Valley, Nevada County, public schools brought to school the closing day before the Christmas holidays a stick of wood and one potato, to be given the poor of that city.

During the singing of a cantata in the First Methodist Episcopal Church of San Diego Christmas Day the stage curtain took fire and a panic was averted by Professor York seizing the curtain and extinguishing the blaze.

Andrew Ziekel, Kate Ziekel, Annie Scott, Claud Scott, Matt Cox and Mary Moranes started in a small boat for a sail on San Francisco Bay Christmas Day. When off Visitation Valley a squawl capsized the boat and five of the six were drowned.

The State Board of Equalization, in its report to the Governor this month, complained that its work was hampered by deeds of real estate not stipulating true considerations. Sums named were either too large or too small.

The banks of Los Angeles City this month refused to loan money on real estate.

The delinquent tax list of Marysville, Yuba County, for 1888 was just $13.

A $62,000 gold brick from the Spring Valley Mine at Cherokee, Butte County, was taken to Oroville December 3.

The trustees of Fresno City passed an ordinance this month requiring all saloons to close at 12 o'clock midnight.

The Napa Cannery was sold December 10 by the Napa County sheriff for $7,000.

A Citrus Fair at Oroville, Butte County, opened December 17.

The San Diego City police force was "on the carpet" this month for accepting bribes from gamblers for protection, and Editor Ziegenfuss of the San Diego Bee demanded that he get some of the "dough" to keep quiet.

Piute Indians of Camp Independence, Inyo County, had a big feast the week of December 1. Indians came from many distant places, and trains of horses brought packs overflowing with chickens, rabbits, dried grasshoppers, pine nuts, acorns and other delicacies, including choice strips of dried horse and mule flesh. Dancing consisted largely of pantomimes, and the dancers were attired in raiment similar to that with which Redskins of the earliest times adorned themselves.

Governor Robert W. Waterman this month donated a park to the San Bernardino Baseball Club.

The Idaho Mining Co. of Grass Valley, Nevada County, December 3 declared its two hundred and thirtieth dividend, $7.50 per share.

Adolph Palm, member of the Society of California Pioneers of Sacramento, died at his Yolo County ranch.

Holding up the stage running between Ingrams and Stuarts Point, a lone highwayman December 4 took $1,100 from the Wells Fargo box and also rifled the mail.

For interfering in his daughter's love match, Eric Smith, O'Banion Corners, Sutter County, blacksmith, December 9 took a couple of shots at Clem O'Brien.

Miss Lucinda Washburn, an eccentric individual who came to Sacramento from Massachusetts in the early '50s, died there December 9 at the age of 78. She was considered one of the Capital City's wealthiest citizens.

At a special election December 11, Fred H. Greely of Marysville, Past Grand President N.S.G.W., was elected State Senator for Yuba and Sutter Counties.

Isabella Castro-Locurzo, 17 years of age, was murdered at San Jose December 12 by her drunken stepfather, Jack Lobargo.

William Mathuson, Butte County farmer, was thrown from his wagon at Chico December 11 and killed.

Cashier E. H. Morse of the San Bernardino First National Bank was shot and killed in the bank December 13 by an insane man named John Oakes.

The cornerstone of the new Masonic Hall of Napa City was laid December 13 by Grand Master M. M. Estee.

William R. Hearst this month denied that he had been married in London, England.

R. M. Fish of Knights Landing, Yolo County, December 12 caught a fifty seven-pound beaver.

Frederick Goodhue, Los Angeles mail carrier, was arrested December 19 for stealing letters addressed to the Louisiana Lottery Co.

George Millman and Griff Pritchard were drowned December 17 in the Plymouth Consolidated Mine at Sutter Creek, Amador County.

The Southern Pacific's Overland Express was robbed at Clipper Gap, Placer County, December 25 by two highwaymen. They took all the coin and letters in sight in the express car, and left the train at New England Mills.

Mrs. Emily Jones Hatch, who arrived in Sacramento City in 1849, died there December 24 at the age of 88.

The Daily Tribune and the Daily Press of Riverside City were consolidated December 31.

A syphon oil can for the safe filling of coal-oil lamps was being advertised.

The postoffice at Mud Lake, Modoc County, was discontinued this month, and a postoffice was established at Silver Creek, Alpine County, with John Davey as postmaster.

During a saloon argument in San Francisco December 3, Joseph Hayes was shot in the eye and killed by John Longford.

The Watsonville, Santa Cruz County, beet sugar factory was running night and day, and farmers were getting $8 per ton for their beets.

The Livermore, Alameda County, Herald made the statement that $70 per ton was being offered this month by buyers of dried wine grapes.

San Jose had on its electric streetcar line six cars and six dummies that ran from 5 a.m. to 11 p.m.

New postoffices were this month established at Hot Springs, Placer County; Shellville, Sonoma County, and Emerald Bay, El Dorado County.

While driving December 7 from Vina to Red Bluff, Tehama County, the team of Judge A. J. Clark ran away, and he was thrown out and instantly killed.

While James M. Hall was on trial for forgery in Santa Cruz City December 11, his mother died in the courtroom.

Fire caused by the explosion of a coaloil lamp burned a barn on the Boston Ranch in El Cajon Valley December 9, and eleven horses were cremated.

Wm. Bentley, Santa Ana, Orange County, farmer, attempted to drive across the Santa Fe tracks ahead of a train. The locomotive hit the conveyance, and his wife and daughter, a Mrs. David Bentley and himself were killed.

The Omega drift mine near Nevada City, Nevada County, this month was leased for $16,000 for a period of ten months.

Ah Foo, in the Santa Clara County Jail at San Jose awaiting trial for the murder of his Gilroy partner, committed suicide December 20.

The San Bernardino winery of Summers & Weis was seized by the Federal internal revenue collector for illegally removing brandy from a distillery.

Modoc County sheepraisers, grazing their flocks on Goose Lake, were experiencing considerable trouble with California lions.

Bud Patton, dubbed by the Red Bluff, Tehama County, News "a gentleman of elegant leisure," was December 20 arrested there for stealing chickens from a Chinaman.

General John A. Brewster, in the early days of California deputy clerk of Sonoma County and subsequently surveyor-general of the state, was December 16 sent to the county poor house from Sonoma Town.

Indian Jim came into camp near Loyalton, Sierra County, December 4 with two ponies loaded with over 500 dressed rabbits.

The Greenville Bulletin this month made the claim that Plumas County could raise more children to the acre than any other county in the world.

The steamer Mendocino was wrecked outside of Eureka Harbor December 22 and Chief Engineer Bragg's daughter was drowned.

His apron catching in a belt December 27, Walter Landis was strangled to death in the San Francisco bookbindery of Acres & Williams December 27.

William Graham, by mistake, drank embalming fluid for beer in a San Bernardino undertaking establishment December 23 and died in great agony.

John E. Evans, a Los Angeles City gents' furnishing goods dealer, made an assignment December 30. His liabilities were $11,000.

CLARENCE M. HUNT

Christmas tree poachers in California forests—trespassers who cut and haul trees without written permit—face arrest and prosecution by Uncle Sam's vigilant forest rangers. A state law provides a stiff penalty for Christmas tree poachers.

Rangers, of course, know that regulated tree harvesting is distinctly beneficial to overstocked forest lands. But, under their supervision, trees are taken only in areas where thinning is necessary. According to Federal Forest Service records, over 50,000 trees are harvested each Christmas season in California's national forests.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

Holiday Greetings

"AT THIS SEASON OF THE YEAR, THE Native Daughters are engaged in spending happy hours with their respective families. The pleasure we have in sending messages of greetings to friends far and near is prompted by our devotion to the Christian principle of giving. When the Star of Bethlehem shone down so many years ago, it brought to a material and selfish world a new spiritual light. It brought an understanding of love that had never before been recognized.

"In our modern times, the words love and service have come to be synonymous. The Native Daughters have set for themselves one of the highest principles and ideals. We are constantly striving to show new forms of love and service. To keep that ideal always before us is a definite challenge.

"The Christmas season brings us a new inspiration toward better understanding in our Order. It helps us to sustain the attitude of love and service in our lives which our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers so nobly exemplified.

"As Native Daughters, we send to all our brothers and sisters a Christmas greeting of good-will and happiness, and a wish that the coming New Year will bring peace, love and prosperity.

Edna B. Briggs

"Grand President
"Native Daughters Golden West.
"Sacramento, November 14, 1938."

Another Link in Chain of Parlors.

Canoga Park (Los Angeles County)—Topango No. 269 was instituted here October 29 by Grand President Edna B. Briggs, with thirty-one charter members. The Parlor was organized by Ethyl M. Kern of Verdugo No. 240, Glendale. Assisting the Grand President at the institution ceremonies were Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Trustees Mary B. Noerenberg and Evalyn G. Towne, Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer and Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen.

The ritual was exemplified by members of Long Beach No. 154 with Johanna Reed as president. Mrs. Marion Johnson acted as chairman. Supervising Deputy Hansen, assisted by the officers of Verdugo No. 240, with President Harriette Weeks as marshal, conducted the installation ceremonies. Officers of Californiana No. 247 served as assistant marshals. Mrs. Sophia Stewart sang the installation ode, and Miss Louise Crawford was organist for the evening. Following are the officers of Topango:

Ruth Jackman, charter past president; Dorothy Pogue, president; Clara Tucker, first vice-president; Caroline Frost, second vice-president; May Ingmire, third vice-president; Charlotte Johnson, organist; Marguerite Pradra, financial secretary; Jean Hill, treasurer; Ellen E. Penland, recording secretary; Priscilla Johnson, marshal; Lura Taylor, inside sentinel; Viola Penland, outside sentinel; Lennie Peterson, Anna Johnson, Fanny Russell, trustees.

Grand President Briggs, addressing the assemblage, which included representatives of all neighboring Parlors, announced the appointment of Ione Gillette of Verdugo No. 240, Glendale, as deputy for Topango, and presented a silver-mounted gavel to the new Parlor. Among other speakers were Grand Secretary Thaler, Grand Trustees Towne and Noerenberg, Past Grand Stoermer, Supervising Deputy Hansen, Organizer Kern and Judge Benton Worley. On Topango's behalf a beautiful vase was presented Mrs. Briggs by Past President Jackman. Refreshments were served at the meeting's conclusion.

State Seal District Theme.

Hollister—The district meeting of the Parlors in District No. 26, comprising Santa Cruz, Monterey and San Benito Counties, held at Asilomar as an overnight event October 29 and 30, was decidedly happy and successful. Dinner was presided over by Supervising Deputy Mildred Peers of Aleli No. 102, Salinas, who introduced the honor-guests. Elmarie Dyke of Amapola No. 80, Sutter Creek, music supervisor of Monterey County schools, was the leader of peppy and appropriate songs from covers adorned with sketches of California redwoods. The candle-lighted tables were attractive with bowls of yellow blossoms, and place favors were wise old owls fashioned from pine cones. Guest Speaker Carmel Martin gave the highlights of historic events of early Monterey that have played an important part in the development of California.

With "The Great Seal of State" as the theme, a later program of song and pageantry followed, with these numbers: "The State Tree," Santa Cruz No. 26; "The Grizzly Bear," Aleli No. 102, Salinas; "The Golden Poppy, the State Flower," Copa de Oro No. 105, Hollister; "The Bear Flag," San Juan Bautista No. 179; "The First Capital," Junipero No. 141, Monterey. Leona Geyer of Santa Cruz, as Minerva, posed the state seal, singing "I Love You, California." Games and a midnight feast closed Saturday's program. Sunday, services at Carmel Mission were followed by a tour of the mission and luncheon.

4th—Ivy No. 88, Lodi.

Big Crowd Witnesses Parade.

Placentia—Trustee Irma Watts opened her Fullerton home to the members and friends of Grace No. 242 November 1, the occasion being the second benefit luncheon of the year for the homeless children work. Autumn flowers decorated the home, and assisting the hostess were Mms. Matilda Enfeld, Adele Lachren and Christine Dunham. The Parlor meeting of November 3 was one of the loveliest in President Mary Russell's term. The hall, decorated with large baskets of chrysanthemums, was an attractive place for the initiation of three candidates. Refreshments were served at the meeting's close, special honors being shown members having October birthdays.

Armistice Day, as is customary in Orange County, was celebrated by a parade held this year in Orange City. Some 75,000 persons viewed the spectacle, which required one and a half hours to pass a given point. Grace entered a most attractively decorated car in the colors of the Order and featuring a large brown bear. First Vice-president Christine Dunham superintended the decorating of a large community float from Placentia.

November 17, Deputy Edna Niekirk paid her first visit to the Parlor since her return from an Eastern vacation trip. A delicious chicken supper was served, thus celebrating the November and December birthdays.—A.K.D.

NEWSY N.D.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Sacramento—At Coalinga, Fresno County, Saturday evening, December 10, Grand President Edna B. Briggs will institute a new parlor. The ceremonies, to be held in Elks Hall, will commence promptly at 8 o'clock. All members of the Order are invited to attend.

Lodi—Past Grand Emma Witte-Humprey of Ivy No. 88, now a resident of Reno, Nevada State, visited her old home-town, Lodi, October 22, and was the principal speaker at the thirty-second birthday anniversary party of the Lodi Woman's Club, of which she was the first president and served for three years.

"Do not wait until Christmas or special holidays to bring cheer to those in distress," urges Chairman Imelda Bawden of the Grand Parlor Welfare Committee, "but rather make it a part of our daily work. When those in need of assistance come to our attention, let us give of ourselves freely, making the work a part of us."

Napa—Eshcol No. 16 was visited by Supervising Deputy Celeste Thorsen, who was accompanied by several members of La Junta No. 203 of Saint Helena. One candidate was initiated, and a social time was enjoyed. The Parlor regrets the passing of Treasurer Theresa Hein. Several members attended November 15 La Junta's dinner and meeting at Saint Helena in honor of Grand President Edna B. Briggs.—E.G.

Sacramento—Califia No. 22 celebrated November 22 its fifty-first institution anniversary. Honor-guests were Grand President Edna B. Briggs, Past Grands Dr. Eva R. Rasmussen and Esther R. Sullivan, Supervising Deputy Lucille Huntoon and Deputy Nettie Harry. President Mary Ward Huston presided, and six candidates were initiated. Refreshments followed the meeting. Mrs. Bessie Leitch, general arrangements chairman, was assisted by Mms. Maude Cook and Maude Scott, Misses Kath rine Gargovich, Winifred Seburn, Genevieve Ward and Ruth Assalena. The reception committee included Mms. Lillian Blackwell, Clara Kenny, Alice Artz, Josephine Dorsa, Mary Barberi Sugar and Grace Cowan, and Miss Catherine Ward.

Grass Valley—Manzanita No. 29 celebrated Armistice Day with an entertainment which included two skits by the dramatic club and exhibitions by the drill team attired as sailors and marines. Plans are being made for the annual Christmas party, and for the January 3 installation of officers with Mrs. Hanna Bella Daley as president.—L.A.K.

San Anselmo—Mrs. Anna Gruber-Loser, charter member and recording secretary of Orinda No. 56, San Francisco, and secretary of the General Association Past Presidents, died November 12. She was born at San Francisco, May 21, 1868, and is survived by her husband, Axel Loser, and her sister, Past Grand Emma Gruber-Foley.

Ferndale—Oneonta No. 71 sponsored a very successful card party for the benefit of the homeless children, and as a result $50 was sent the Central Committee. A fine program in observance of Armistice Day was given November 11. Cards and refreshments closed the occasion.—M.R.

Merced—On the occasion of the official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs to Veritas No. 75, five candidates were initiated and the exemplification of the ritual by the Parlor's staff of officers was highly commended. November 1 the Parlor entertained some ninety guests at cards. The proceeds will be used for Veritas' welfare work.—F.B.

Oakland—There was a large attendance at the oldtimers night of Piedmont No. 87. Jennie Jordan, in charge of entertainment, presented a program during which members displayed cos-

SANTA BARBARA

TO ROUND OUT YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

James French Dorrance

SANTA BARBARA PARLOR NO. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. are preparing to round out during December a most active year. The highlight on the Sons' program will be the annual election of officers, which will be tied up with a program in behalf of the homeless children activity of the two Orders. The Daughters, meanwhile, will round out their welfare activities with a salvage sale and Christmas bazar.

The five ranking officers of Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116, due to a system of advancing worthy officers, will be selected without competition. They are: O. F. Huffman, president; Walter Cummings, first vice-president; Captain W. H. Rutherford, second vice-president; Captain I. A. Bonilla, third vice-president; D. P. Taylor, marshal.

December 3, members of Reina del Mar Parlor No 126 will have a State-street salvage sale under the co-chairmanship of Mmes. John D Ross, William Wegener and Wesley C. McCormick. The salvage committee includes Mmes. Stanley A. Clem, David P. Bishop, R. J Schuld, Louis Rexxonico, J. G. Vieck, I. A. Bonilla, J. J. O'Brien, Thaddeus Males, Henry Griffiths, William A. Birss, L. C. Miles, Joseph Moses, A. C. Hauan, John Pomatto and Ben Hartman, and Misses June C. Vance, Gertrude A. Wegener, June Wheeler and Maxine Hartman.

December 10, Reina del Mar's annual pre-Christmas sale, with many interesting features, will be held in Recreation Center, the proceeds to be used in maintaining the Parlor's welfare commitments.

Rounding out a year of unprecedented growth, the Parlor held November 18 its last initiation of the year, receiving an even dozen new members. The initiatory session was preceded by a culmination meeting November 15 at Veterans Memorial Building, which was decorated for the occasion by a committee headed by Mrs. John Moses. This was a dinner meeting, presided over by President Dorothy A. Yule, who contributed three readings to a program which also included the sons of the American Legion drum and bugle corps, directed by George McCrea. Quinton Rizor, Miss Dorothy Poole, James Stanley, Vernon Duncan, Miss Louise Jackson and Miss Barbara Griffin. Mrs. William Wegener, chairman of the trustees, and Dr. Anna E. McCaughey reported on plans for rounding out the year with all obligations paid.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of ten or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1939.

Oakland No. 50, died November 12, survived by a wife and three children. He was a native of San Francisco, aged 78.

Saint Helena—Saint Helena No. 53 had its annual turkey banquet November 14. Guests of the occasion were members of the Parlor's softball team. The arrangements committee included Philip Thompson, Arthur Rossi and Harry Prouty.

Auburn—Members of Auburn No. 59 were entertained by Auburn No. 233 N.D.G.W. at a turkey dinner October 31, the occasion being the latter Parlor's thirteenth institution anniversary. President Mary Perry directed the arrangements.

Napa—At a joint initiation here October 31, seven names were added to the membership roll of Napa No. 62 and five to that of Vallejo No. 77. A banquet followed the initiatory ceremonies.

Watsonville—Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove officially visited Watsonville No. 65 November 2 and gave a fine talk on the Order's progress. Three candidates were initiated, and refreshments were served. Cecil McGowan and Vincent Anderson were in charge of arrangements for the evening. November 16 the Parlor had its annual Thanksgiving dinner.

Ukiah—At the call of Supervising Deputy Jack Lilley of District No. 7 a meeting of the Parlors of Mendocino County—Ukiah No. 71, Broderick No. 117, Point Arena, and Alder Glen No. 200, Fort Bragg,—was held here. A picked team of officers from the Parlors exemplified the ritual and two candidates were initiated. Speakers of the occasion were Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Trustees Wayne R. Millington and R. G. Power, Grand Marshal Harold Zimmerman, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Supervising Deputy Lilley. At the meeting's conclusion, a banquet was served under the direction of Ukiah No. 263 N.D.G.W.

Folsom—Granite No. 83, for a considerable time inactive, has, as a result of the effort of Assistant Grand Secretary Harold J. Regan, been revived and will undoubtedly go forward. J. O. Kipp is now the president, and Thomas F. Woodley is the new recording secretary.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of ten or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1939.

Santa Cruz—Santa Cruz No. 90 received an official visit November 16 from Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove, and also celebrated its annual oldtimers night. More than a hundred members enjoyed the turkey dinner and entertainment preceding the meeting. G. Stanley Tait was the toastmaster, and Grand Trustee Cosgrove delivered an inspiring address. At the Parlor meeting three candidates were initiated, and fifty-year pins were awarded Dr. F. E. Morgan, Charles Daubenbis, C. E. Canfield, F. L. Call, Leonard Winkle and S. W. Ryder.

Ferndale—Humboldt County Parlors are sponsoring a public speaking contest among the high schools. The Ferndale High School will have its tryout December 2. R. A. Grinsell, R. C. Jacobsen and J. J. Bognuda compose Ferndale No. 93's public speaking committee. The Parlor has organized a basketball team which is playing in a local tournament. December 19 the Parlor will enjoy its annual turkey feast.

Half Moon Bay—Seaside No. 95, Redwood No. 66 and El Carmelo No. 256 had a joint initiation here October 25, with Seaside as the host Parlor. The evening's program began with a parade, headed by El Carmelo's drum corps, which was followed by a delicious barbecue. Then came the initiation, at which several new names were added to Seaside's membership roll. Speakers of the occasion were Grand Trustees Raymond D. Williamson and Wayne R. Millington.

Livermore—Las Positas No. 96 will have its annual Christmas tree party for the less fortunate children of Livermore Valley December 19. J. J. Kelly is general chairman of arrangements.

Martinez—Past Grand James F. Hoey of Mount Diablo No. 101 and wife entertained the following Past Grand Presidents at a dinner party at their home: Judge Frank H. Dunne, Lewis F. Byington, Judge Fletcher A. Cutler, Joseph R. Knowland, Justice Emmet Seawell, Charles L. Dodge and Chas. A. Koenig.

Hayward—Eden No. 113 had its annual oldtimers and municipal night October 24, and the older members were honor-guests. Hayward American Legion Post band rendered a fine musical program, and some very clever vaudeville acts were introduced. Many visitors were present from Twin Peaks No. 214 and Castro No. 232 of San Francisco. At the program's conclusion a wonderful banquet was enjoyed.

Castroville—Gabilan No. 132 celebrated its fiftieth institution anniversary at a banquet November 10. President Frank Johnson was the toastmaster, and among the speakers were Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove—who was making his official visit to the Parlor—Grand Treasurer John A. Corotto, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, and State Senator James Holahan, Matt J. McGowan and Secretary Leo T. Enos of Watsonville No. 65. One of the evening's features was the presentation of fifty-year membership emblems to C. G. McIntyre, James H. Griffin and Manuel M. Silva by Gabilan.

Los Banos—Los Banos No. 206 had its fourth annual duck dinner October 27. Guests and speakers included Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Grand Treasurer John A. Corotto. The latter related interesting incidents and impressions of a recent trip to Europe.

Palo Alto—Palo Alto No. 216 entertained several representatives of San Jose No. 22, Redwood No. 66 and Mountain View No. 215, who discussed matters pertaining to the Order. President Leonard Avills of Palo Alto presided, and a turkey supper was served.

tumes of the nineties. Chairman Buckingham and committee served a supper. November 16 a turkey whist arranged by Emily Lawson, Lucille DeMarie, Lucille Sterns and Peggy McGuire was a success.—E.L.

Hollister—The card party arranged by Copa de Oro No. 105 for the benefit of the homeless children was a gratifying success, and $175 was forwarded the Central Committee. The hall was adorned with American and Bear Flags, and refreshments were served at tables adorned with autumn foliage and blossoms. November 2 Gladys Darling Turner, recently wedded to Hollister's mayor, was honored with a miscellaneous shower. The bridal boquet was captured by Bertha Stephens.

Oakland—Mrs. Cora Bell Mitchel, affiliated with Aloha No. 106, died October 27, survived by four daughters, three of them—Maud Mitchel, Cora Abrams and Emily Rogers—also members of the Parlor. She was born at San Francisco, February 10, 1855, a daughter of Eusebe Belleau, California Pioneer of 1849.

San Luis Obispo—San Luisita No. 108 was represented in the "Pageant of Progress" parade following the official opening of the new La Cuesta grade November 15. President Anna Schlicht and Third Vice-president Mae Umbertis, attired in costumes of the nineties, made a handsome couple and drew much applause as they rode along in a yellow-wheeled buggy elaborately equipped. November 21 the Parlor had a Thanksgiving Day program. A feature was a jam and jelly shower. The glasses were packed in a gift box and delivered by Mrs. Umbertis to the N.D.G.W. Home in San Francisco for Thanksgiving.—H.McC.

Pittsburg—Stirling No. 146 had a turkey whist and bridge party November 10. Eighteen tables were in operation. At conclusion of the play light refreshments were served. The arrangements committee included Mms. Olive Burris, chairman, Vera Laederich, Harriett Johnke, Rose Noia, Ada Eissen, Leslie Clement and Margaret Delp.—R.E.N.

Marysville—Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit to Marysville No. 162 November 9. In attendance also were Past Grands Allison F. Watt and Esther R. Sullivan, Supervising Deputy Ethel Brock, Deputies Mildred Phillips, Katherine McQuaid, Laura Anderson and Edythe Pease. A dinner, with Mrs. Ina Wells as toastmistress, preceded the meeting at which President Helen O'Brien presided and several candidates were initiated. Grand President Briggs told of the projects of the Order, and Past Grand Sullivan spoke of the early spring dedication of the Yuba Junior College library. The committee in charge for the evening included Mms. Ina Wells, Jean Binninger, Ruth Manwell, Elsie Schofield, Manilla Allread, Katherine McQuaid, Gertrude Cable, Elizabeth Reis and Agnes Weber Meade, Misses Ruth Clark and Ruth Galligan.—E.S.

Georgetown—El Dorado No. 186 and Georgetown No. 91 N.S.G.W. had their annual dinner for the Pioneers October 30. But four of the oldtimers are left of the original thirty-two who were first entertained in 1914, and in spite of a pouring rain all were on hand to enjoy the dinner which was served at tables gay with autumn flowers and Hallowe'en decorations. President Nettie Leonardi of El Dorado welcomed the guests, and District Deputy Victor Leonardi told of the condition of the Order of Native Sons. The dinner closed with anecdotes by the Pioneers and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" by the assemblage.—A.L.D.

Byron—Donner No. 193, which takes a great interest in all civic activities,—Red Cross, outdoor Christmas tree, etc.—cleared a tidy sum at its annual bazar. November 2 the twenty-seventh anniversary was observed, and the charter members and Grand President Edna B. Briggs were entertained. Three candidates were initiated. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary November 18, and many of the Parlor members were in attendance.—A.P.

San Diego—The sewing club of San Diego No. 208 was entertained by Mrs. George Harkleroad at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. A. Suarts of Spring Valley. The home is the original adobe of the well-known Bancroft Ranch, and an interesting paper was read giving the history of the former home of Historian H. H. Bancroft. At noon a potluck luncheon was served. The October meeting of the club, which is completing arrangements for the annual bazar, was held at the home of Mrs. Isabel Young, and Mms. Chambers and Cummins were the November hostesses.

Bieber—Mount Lassen No. 215 celebrated November 1 its nineteenth institution anniversary at a dutch whist party. Guests were members of Big Valley No. 211 N.S.G.W. Refreshments were served by Wanda Philliber and Marie Walsh. Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini officially visited the Parlor and witnessed the initiation of three candidates. All were inspired by Mrs. Giannini's message, in the course of which she congratulated the Parlor officers on their ritual work. At the close of the pleasant evening a potluck supper was served. Grand Vice-president Giannini was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Gunther of Orinda No. 56, San Francisco.—N.McK.

Santa Ana—Mrs. Walter Hiskey, president, welcomed Grand President Edna B. Briggs on her official visit to Santa Ana No. 235. Other guests were Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg, Bertha Hitt, "mother" of the Parlor, Deputies Taressa Stafford and Marguerite Mize, and Mrs. Flora Schmittgen of La Bandera No. 110, Sacramento, sister of the Grand President. A turkey dinner preceded the meeting. Black witch figures poised near cauldrons were centerpieces for the tables, and a small orange pumpkin at each place served as a nut basket. At the business session which followed, four candidates were initiated, and Grand President Briggs delivered a message of Americanism.

Bakersfield—Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit to El Tejon No. 239, and was entertained at a beautifully set banquet carried out in a Hallowe'en motif. Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler was also a visitor. November 7 the Parlor entertained at a card fete. November 19 Supervising Deputy Mrs. Ralph Sanders and Deputy Mrs. Ray Carlisle were visitors, and at impressive candlelight ceremonies one candidate was initiated. November 29 the Parlor featured a bazar.—C.F.

Los Banos—A formal dinner preceded the official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs to Lomitas No. 255. Decorations consisted of huge boquets of zinnias and pampas grass, attractively arranged by Julia Toscano. Five candidates were initiated, and encouraging reports were made by committees. Grand President Briggs, Supervising Deputy Irma Ostrom and Deputy Alice Ellingham gave interesting talks, Lucille Arburua rendered vocal solos, and Jean Jerome gave a short reading. Refreshments were served at the meeting's conclusion.—M.L.B.

Sebastopol—The bazar held by Sebastopol No. 265, with Marie Evans as general chairman, was a grand success. In the Armistice Day parade here the drill team of Petaluma No. 222 was among the prizewinners. No. 265 and Sebastopol No. 243 N.S.G.W. had their homeless children benefit card party November 18.—M.E.

Oakland—Agnes Reid and Minnie Noyes of Past Presidents Association No. 2 had dessert whists at their homes, and plans for a party at the home of Marie Fontes in the near-future are being completed. Mary E. Wright was chairman of the October social. Chairman Emerson of the veterans committee is completing arrangements for the Christmas box to be sent Whipple Barracks. The Association had its twenty-seventh anniversary banquet November 14. Guests were President Ora Rogers, Past President Ella Mullen and State Director Emily Lawson. Chairman Etheida Hall was assisted by Bertha Taylor, Agnes Reid, Winifred Buckingham and Edith Hutchinson. At the banquet's conclusion dutch whist was played.—E.L.

"God Bless Us Every One!"

(MINNA McGARVEY.)

At Christmas, in the evening, when the light is growing dim,
We listen for the voices of Scrooge and Tiny Tim;
Over by the radio, beyond the candles' gleam,
Their shadows seem to beckon, as in a waking dream.

Old Scrooge is counting money, and will have no Christmas cheer;
He scoffs at "Merry Christmas" and all that makes life dear.
But wait! Here comes Bob Cratchit, a shadow tall and slim,
Who carries on his shoulder beloved Tiny Tim.

Tim wears a woolen tippet, and he waves his little crutch;
A merry smile for every one—God's Kingdom is of such;
And only when a vision warns that Tiny Tim might die
Does Scrooge show true repentance for ill-spent years gone by.

We breathe a sigh of happiness, for Tiny Tim does live;
Now Scrooge cries "Merry Christmas"—has learned to love and give.
The twilight shadows deepen—the oft-told tale is done
With Tiny Tim's clear treble, "God Bless Us Every One!"

In Memoriam

JOSEPHINE CLARK.

To the Officers and Members of Piedmont Parlor No. 87 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our beloved sister, Josephine Clark, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to call from our midst our beloved sister, Josephine Clark, we have lost a true and loyal member, a faithful and conscientious worker and a loving friend. She was called to the Grand Parlor on High on October 12, 1938. She had been our treasurer for the past fifteen years.

"Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain;
To have, to love and then to part,
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never—
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together."

Therefore, be it resolved, that the members of Piedmont Parlor No. 87 N.D.G.W. extend our sincere sympathy to her bereaved family; that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor; that a copy be sent to her family, and that a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

GRETTA MURDEN,
NELL MOORE,
KATE FORD,
AUGUSTA HUXSOL,
Committee.

GENERAL SUTTER, AND BEGINNINGS OF SACRAMENTO

Dr. Peter T. Conmy

Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

ENTERS NOW THE YEAR 1939, WHICH promises to be an eventful one both at home and abroad. Whatever special significance it may have in any part of the world, it has an extraordinary meaning for the people of the great Sacramento Valley of California, for they are to celebrate the centennial of the founding of civilization therein. The center of the valley is, of course, the City of Sacramento, since 1854 the capital of California. Sacramento centers around old Sutter's Fort, built in 1841 by the man whose name it bears. But two years before that time, namely, in 1839, General Sutter settled in the area now known as Sacramento, and from his establishment, first in tents, later in adobe buildings, still later the fort, finally the City of Sacramento emerged.

General Sutter arrived in San Francisco Bay July 1, 1839. A few days later found him interviewing Governor Alvarado in Monterey. Sutter had heard of the rich, fertile, northern inland valley and knew also that it was uninhabited. For this reason he asked the governor for permission to settle therein. The permission was readily granted, but a grant of the land was withheld for a year until Sutter should become a citizen of Mexico. For, the law provided that land in California could not be owned except by citizens of Mexico, and that, in turn, required a year's residence. The cordiality with which Sutter was received, and the readiness with which his request to settle the Sacramento Valley was acquiesced in, may be explained by the fact that for a generation at least the officials at Monterey had been anxious to populate the area.

One reason for this was that the soil and climate were suitable for agriculture. Another was, that there was an Indian population which might well be civilized. And a third, and perhaps the one they deemed most important, was the ever-present possibility that the representatives of some foreign power, Russia, France, England or the United States, might enter the valley and settle therein. All attempts at colonization on behalf of the Spanish Californians had failed. Now, when Sutter volunteered to undertake the task, he was received with open arms and given the official blessing of the governor.

The authorization which he had sought having been received, Sutter lost no time in putting his plans into action. July 7 saw him again in San Francisco. He spent the greater part of a month in outfitting his expedition. During this period he also visited General Vallejo at Sonoma. Early in August he set out on water for his exploration of the river and selection of a site for settlement. Confused by the delta islands and waters, he was several days in recognizing the Sacramento River. After finally identifying it he sailed up into the Feather River country, which he deemed unsuitable for a settlement. Turning south he reached the junction of the American River with the Sacramento. Sailing up the former a few miles he landed, and had his party pitch tents. This was Sunday afternoon, August 12, 1839. On the following day he explored the country around and selected it for his settlement. His own account is quoted:

"From the landing I went back about a quarter of a mile to the spot where the fort subsequently stood, now within the limits of the City of Sacramento, not far from the capitol. I selected the highest ground I could find. The Kanakas first erected two grass houses after the manner of the houses on the Sandwich Islands. The frames were made by white men and covered with grass by the Kanakas. . . . Next I built a one-story building of adobe . . . this house was about forty feet long and contained a blacksmith shop, kitchen and a room for myself. It was covered with tule."

The date on which Sutter explored the land in from the river was Monday, August 13, 1839, and this date, therefor, marks the beginning of habitation in what is now Sacramento. However, it was not known by that name for many years to come. The name immediately applied was New Helvetia, that is, New Switzerland. Later this term was used to connote the entire land grant of eleven square leagues which was given to Sutter by Governor Alvarado in 1840, and the specific locality where the settlement was became known as Sutter's Fort. The Indians called it Tehama. As time progressed it was found that the site of the present water front of Sacramento was a better landingplace than that directly above the fort on the American River. Accordingly a road was built from the fort to the Embarcadero, as the Sacramento River landingplace was called. It was the Embarcadero that ultimately became Sacramento.

Sutter realized that his business opportunities would be greatly enhanced if, in addition to his fort, there were a municipal establishment dedicated to commerce. To this end and purpose he selected three miles down the river a place which he had surveyed by Hastings and Bidwell in 1846. This projected city was named Sutterville, and Sutter proceeded to sell the lots. Immediately there developed a rivalry between this new settlement and the older Embarcadero. Furthermore, the fort itself had developed a certain amount of business, and it was difficult for Sutterville to compete therewith. This is brought out by Bancroft, who says: "It (Sutterville) made slow progress, for the fort still retained the ascendency by virtue of its ferry, supplies, stores and workshops."

The gold rush should normally have forced the development of Sutterville. Sutter's financial affairs operated to prevent this. October 14, 1848, he turned all his property over to his son. The reason for so doing was to prevent his creditors levying judgment against him. However, through his son his debts were paid. The immediate result was naturally a general questioning of the legal status of his titles and of those he had given his son. To raise money to pay the debts much of the land intended as part of Sutterville was sold. Nothing daunted, Sutter had his son lay off by the river another section which he called Sacramento, and had it surveyed into lots by Warner. This was the real beginning of the civic Sacramento we know today. With the passing of time, Sacramento grew to include the old Embarcadero, the settlement projected as Sutterville and Sutter's Fort itself.

The interesting thing about it all is that each one of these places was given its impetus by General John A. Sutter. It is also worth mentioning that, in spite of ninety years of advance, the old Sacramento, that is, the Sacramento near the river, has changed but little in contour since it was surveyed by William H. Warner in 1849. The plan of street naming employed by him has remained unchanged. He called the streets parallel with the river by the numerals, that is, First, Second, etc., while those at right angles to them were named from the alphabet, as A, B, C, etc. There is evidence that the first sale of lots for Sacramento was at Sutter's Fort January 8, 1849.

By 1850, Sacramento was a thriving city and is described by Julian Dana in the following language: "By March 1850 Sacramento had thirty stores, a printing office, bakery, blacksmith shop, tin shop, billiard room, bowling alley, and six saloons combined with houses of prostitution. Hubbard's obscene Round Tent was a popular resort rivaled only by the game of monte in Jim Lee's famous Stinking Tent. Several store vessels were tied up along the river bank, also doing a brisk business."

The same author describes Sutterville as: "Three miles down on the river lay Sutterville. A tiny collection of homes named for New Helvetia's founder. Sutter had built the first house there; soon some of his employees had followed suit. Zin's house was the first real brick structure in the country."

From what has been said above, it will be clear that Sutter began [illegible] and that Sacramento [illegible] the exact date being August 12, 1839, at [illegible] the famous fort in 1841. The [illegible] dates from 1849, ninety years after Sutter had Sacramento laid out. The municipal Sacramento dates from [illegible] by the Legislature in 1851.

GHOSTS

They linger all along the red-banked road
These youthful ghosts of frenzied mining days,
They haunt my steps upon the Mother Lode
And each scarred hill, their greediness betrays.
I see them with bare limbs and bleeding hands
Young bearded boys in frantic haste for gold,
Consumed with torment no-one understands,
This speed of youth—a fable never told
And now escaped from shallow graves, they seem
To go before me, on each well-worn trail
Up mountain sides or by each crystal stream
Bold actors of a California tale.
And they are seeking yet, the unpossessed
Adventure calls—I, too, take up the quest.

THE LETTER BOX

Comments on subjects of general interest and suggestions received from readers of The Grizzly Bear.

SHOULD NOT IMMIGRANTS BE TESTED AS TO EUGENIC WORTH?

"Editor Grizzly Bear: Your immigration story, published lately, recalls that a great Norwegian scientist declared that our Immigration Quota Acts were the most gigantic experiment in eugenics ever attempted by a first rate power. He sensed they were a deliberate attempt toward national control of the make-up of our future population mass.

"In this connection 'tis interesting to read editorial comment on a microscopic section of our population, the Matanuska Valley settlement, Alaska. Conflicting stories have come out about it. One report is, the farmers would not work, overdrew their accounts. Another is, now the weaklings have been weeded out, success seems probable for the remaining 170 families, living in snug log houses. Here again is Nature's inexorable eugenic selection. The weaklings have quit, those of character persist.

"Ought we not likewise extend our immigration restriction legislation until it tests every application for admission as to his eugenic worth—as to seed stock or parentage of our future citizens? CHARLES M. GOETHE, Sacramento."

JOHNSVILLE IN PLUMAS COUNTY.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: We find in the November issue of The Grizzly Bear Magazine an article entitled 'Forgotten City in the Pines,' by Josephine Weitz of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. The article was read with much interest by our members, but the writer of the story had been misinformed as to the location of Johnsville. The town is in Plumas County, not Lassen County. Please make this correction. Sincerely VIOLET J. C. MORI, chairman publicity Plumas Pioneer Parlor No. 219 N.D.G.W., Quincy."

GRIZZLY HOLDS MORE CHARM.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: The Grizzly Bear Magazine holds a great deal more charm for me now that I am so far removed from California, or may be it is because I am getting older and like to reminisce. In any event, I do enjoy looking it over so much, as did my mother until her eyesight failed her. She read The Grizzly Bear from cover to cover, religiously. I am taking a copy home to her tonight and will ask her nurse to see that those items that are of interest to her shall be read to her.

"There is only one 'kick' I have on The Grizzly Bear now. That is, that you have apparently discontinued that column that I enjoyed the most—The Grizzly Growls—which, I believe, you gave your personal attention to the editing of. Why not reinstate it? Give my regards to all the boys, especially to dear old Herman Lichtenberger. With a sincere hope that you will get well real fast, I am very sincerely yours, FRANK A. DUGGAN, New York City."

CO-OPERATION APPRECIATED.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: Please allow me to express to you in behalf of our national officers our very sincere appreciation for the generous contribution of space which you gave to the American Red Cross in The Grizzly Bear Magazine.

"It is through the splendid co-operation which you and others give to us each November that we are enabled to extend a universal invitation to all Americans everywhere to participate in Red Cross work through individual memberships. Cordially yours, DOUGLAS GRIESEMER, Director of Public Relations, The American Red Cross, Washington, D. C."

SAN FRANCISCO BAY DISCOVERY BY WHITE MEN COMMEMORATED.

San Carlos (San Mateo County)—To commemorate the discovery by White men of San Francisco Bay and the fertile wooded lands of San Mateo County, a cross and a plaque were recently dedicated atop Portola Mesa, the hill adjacent to San Carlos.

It was here, according to historians, that a small body of fearless explorers, led by Don Gaspar de Bertola, Fr. Crespi and Sergeant Ortega, sighted San Francisco Bay November 4, 1769.

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

SANTA MONICA—SANTA MONICA BAY Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. had as guests December 1 Grand President Joseph J. McShane and the ritual team of grand officers: Grand Secretary John T. Regan, president; Past Grand Harmon D. Skillin, junior past president; Past Grand John T. Newell, senior past president; Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller, first vice-president; Junior Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, second vice-president; Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig, third vice-president; Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, marshal; Grand Inside Sentinel Louis Bosch, inside sentinel.

Fourteen candidates were initiated, eight for the host-Parlor, Santa Monica Bay; three for Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263, San Pedro; two for East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277, and one for Hollywood Parlor No. 196. Prior to the initiation the grand officers were guests of the Parlor at dinner.

The Parlor's annual lobster feed drew a crowd December 15 of more than 500 from all the southland Parlors. It was one of the biggest events in the history of No. 267. Not only the feast, but also the show that followed was enjoyed by all.

Santa Monica Bay will have its regular monthly class initiation January 19. Officers-elect, with Ralph E. Eisenhart as the president, will be publicly installed January 20. Dancing will follow the ceremonies. President-elect Eisenhart promises much activity during the January-July term.

"BABY" PARLORS TO BE HONOR-GUESTS.

Looking back on December, Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. had one of the busiest months of the entire year, with parties for children and for members. The children of the Fresno-street Playground entertained the members of the Parlor December 23, presenting an operetta, "The Shepherds' Christmas Eve." This was their way of showing appreciation for their entertainment at last year's Christmas party. Miss Betty Graydon, chairman of the children's Christmas party again this year, was assisted by Miss Grace Norton, and it was a delightful affair.

Miss Leonie Clos was chairman of the evening for the Parlor's own party, and everyone responded to the fun with a gayety seldom seen. Edna Neikirk and Olinda Kerby were Santa Claus' deputies and officiated at the Christmas gift distribution. The sewing club meeting December 2 at the home of Edna T. Neikirk brought out an extraordinary number of members. The affair also was a stork shower for Mrs. Rose Porazzo, whose popularity was proven by lovely and numerous gifts for the expected new arrival.

Los Angeles Parlor's January calendar: 4th, President Ann Schiebusch will outline some of her splendid projects for the spring term which should bring much favorable notice to the Parlor and members. 18th, program arranged by Mrs. Olinda Kerby through courtesy of the Canadian Pacific Railroad; the picture to be shown in conjunction with the program is known as the best non-dramatic one ever released. Members and their friends are especially invited to attend, while the three "baby" Parlors, East Los Angeles, La Reina and Topanga, will be honor-guests. Refreshments will be served. 21st, the sewing club will meet at the home of Mrs. Harriette Matson, 2090 Monte Vista, Pasadena. A real Mexican lunch will be served. All members should be present, if possible, for there is great need of the clothing supplied by the sewing group.—H.M.

MANY CHILDREN MADE HAPPY.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. entertained December 22 at its annual Christmas party many children, including several underprivileged ones. From a decorated tree, Santa Claus distributed candy and toys, entertainment was furnished by the talented children of members of the Parlor, and refreshments were served. Owen S. Adams was again the chairman of the evening, and was assisted by his sister, Miss Veda Adams.

Los Angeles' monthly "Evening of Entertainment with the Natives" has proved a great success and draws a big crowd of members of all Parlors. That of December 29 was no exception. Any Native desiring to participate should contact Chairman Roger M. Johnson, who originated the idea.

HOLLYWOOD CRADLE PLANNED.

Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. members, bearing in mind that "it is better to give than to receive," made a fine success of the homeless children bazar December 12. At a short business session the Parlor initiated three candidates, and Christmas philanthropy was planned.

The Christmas luncheon was presided over by President Marion Johnson, who introduced the birthdayites and the general program chairman, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg. United States Attorney Ben H. Harrison, guest speaker, said he was glad to be a Native Son and explained interestingly his duties in taking care of Uncle Sam's interests in the southern California territory. President Betty Graydon of the southern district homeless children committee paid tribute to the fine work of the Native Sons and the Native Daughters for the homeless children. Mrs. William E. Dobson, the Parlor's chairman for homeless children, presented Miss Dorothy Schlingman, in active charge of the work in the south who, in turn, told of Judge Blake's plan for a Hollywood cradle to provide and care for babies for adoption in this district. The tables were very "Christmasy" in gay trimmings which added greatly to the pleasure of the event.

Everything at the bazar, presided over by Chairman Beatrice Wahrmund of the Gertrude Sewing Circle, was disposed of and a goodly sum realized. The grabbag was handled by Past President Flora Jacobson, food by Mrs. William E. Dobson, fancy work by Hattie Duvall and donations for the lace cloth and negligee by Grace Vejar.

The annual Yuletide tea December 27, a joyous event, was held at the Phi Omega Pi sorority house, Westwood, with Hospitality Chairman Edith Adams in charge. Mrs. Adams and her efficient committee prepared a delightful tea and musical program. Many guests participated.—O.L.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS FETED.

Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. featured a delightful dinner December 14 at the Hollywood Athletic Club in honor of Henry G. Bodkin and Raymond L. Haight, members of the Parlor recently appointed by Mayor Fletcher Bowron of Ramona Parlor No. 109 to serve on the Police Commission.

Geo. M. Breslin served as toastmaster in his usual happy manner. Among those present who paid tribute to the guests of honor were Congressman John M. Costello, Judges B. Rey Schauer, Samuel R. Blake, A. A. Scott, Leo Ageler, Louis Kaufman and O. Benton Worley.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

Long Beach Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. was visited December 1 by Supervising Deputy Hazel Hansen and Deputy Margaret Mize. Christmas baskets were distributed to needy families by the Parlor, and proceeds from the December 10 dance were used to give Christmas cheer to veterans at the National Military Home, Sawtelle.

A baked ham dinner preceded Long Beach's annual Christmas party December 15. Past presidents, with Leola Temby as chairman, were in charge of arrangements. Gifts were exchanged, and the names of "secret sisters" were revealed. Officers-elect of the Parlor, with Josephine Reichman as president, will be publicly installed January 5 by Deputy Margaret Mize.—A.W.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED.

Compton—Compton Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W. celebrated December 6 its sixth institution anniversary at a dinner prepared and served by members of Compton Parlor No. 258 N.D.G.W. headed by Mrs. Kate Glavinic. Gathered about the festive board were Past Presidents Ray Hecock, Roy C. Hood, Roy W. Tarleton, Hector Hecock and Fred J. Smith; Retiring President Walter Hopecraft, and Charter Treasurer Roy L. Adams, Charter Financial Secretary Ernest Spurlock, Charter Financial Secretary William Don Castillo, Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, and several visitors, including a delegation from Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 of San Pedro who assisted in the Parlor's institution—E. E. Baldwin, Pat Doran, John Paralieu, William Reuter and Jack Martin.

Following the anniversary dinner the Parlor elected officers, William Don Castillo being chosen president. The officers-elect will be publicly installed January 3.

WILL PRESENT FLAGS TO 20-30 CLUB.

San Pedro—The bowling team sponsored by Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. is now tied for first place in the Marine League. Anyone wishing to challenge the team should contact Louis Molle through the secretary of the Parlor. John T. Gower, for the Parlor, presented a $75 check to the homeless children fund. December 23 the Parlor had its annual Christmas party and dance. Hampton Neergaard is chairman.

Early in January, Stephen M. White will present United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the Wilmington 20-30 Club. Officers-elect of the Parlor will be installed January 6.

HANDKERCHIEF SHOWER.

San Pedro — Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. elected officers December 8, and Mrs. Lucy Ascolesi was chosen president to succeed Mrs. Marcella Sandoval. This being the birthday anniversary of Lucy Guzman, Catherine Mooney and Marcella Sandoval, they were honorguests at a handkerchief shower. The Parlor had its annual Christmas party December 22, and the members exchanged gifts by numbers. Catherine Hackett served refreshments at a beautifully decorated table, and the names of "secret sisters" were revealed. Deputy Olinda Kirby was the guest of the evening.

At the December 6 meeting and luncheon of the Florencita Thimble Club, an auxiliary of the Parlor, officers were elected, and Mrs. Dessie Buyo will succeed as president Mrs. Lucy Ascolesi. Plans were made for the annual dinner, to be held January 4 at Long Beach.—R.B.

PROSPECTIVE MEMBERS ENTERTAINED.

At a very snappy meeting of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. December 19, presided over by President Ernest Foster, officers were elected for the new term. Among the visitors who gave short talks were Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, Supervising Deputy John O'B. Bodkin, Deputy-at-Large Bernard G. Hiss and District Deputies Walter Smith and Roy W. Tarleton.

At the conclusion of the regular meeting the

Captain Charles Katzenberger gave some very interesting reminiscences of his more than twenty-five years' service in the Los Angeles Police Department.

Telegrams were read from Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, Judge William S. Baird and Edward B. Lovie extending congratulations to the honor guests and expressing regret that they were unable to be present. John P. Wright, chairman, J. M. Askin, A. A. Scott, Alfred E. Dennis and Secretary Wm. Hortenstine composed the committee of arrangements for the affair.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

COALINGA (FRESNO COUNTY)—COALinga No. 270 was instituted here with thirty charter members December 10 by Grand President Edna B. Briggs, assisted by Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Trustees Rose Rhyner, Evalyn Towne, Emily Ryan, Alice Oldham and Ethel Enos, and Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs. Grand Trustee Towne, Florence Tisher and Rachel Dozier were the organizers.

Officers of Las Flores No. 262, Avenal, exemplified the ritual, and the installation ceremonies were conducted by Supervising Deputy Irma Ostrom and the officers of Lomitas No. 255, Los Banos. Members of Miocene No. 228, Taft, composed the escort team for the grand officers. Following are the officers of the new Parlor:

Florence Tisher, charter past president; Rachel Dozier, president; Frieda Martin, first vice-president; Margaret O'Connor, second vice-president; Alma Fritzie, third vice-president; Evelyn Andrews, organist; Nancy Louise Willms, financial secretary; Hester Fearon, treasurer; Carmelita Harris, marshal; Hattie Dunn, recording secretary; Carmen Birdwell, inside sentinel; Dorothy Kibele, outside sentinel; Florence Beening, Irma Venard, Juanita Paulsen, trustees.

The Parlor was the recipient of a silver-mounted gavel, a gift from Grand President Briggs, who announced the appointment of Florence Tisher as deputy for Coalinga. Letters and telegrams of congratulations were received from Founder Lilly O. Reichling-Dyer and several others. Among the many others in attendance were Supervising Deputy Georgia Sanders, Deputies Maude Farmer, Maude Crosby and May L. MacDonald, and representatives of thirteen Subordinate Parlors.

BE ON GUARD!

"Americanism," says Chairman Maude Heaton of the N.D.G.W. Grand Parlor Americanism Committee, "is something we should all think seriously about. What is the difference between our form of government and that of other countries? Why is Americanism superior to the 'isms' being tolerated in other nations?

"Our country was founded by people seeking freedom of worship, freedom of speech, and a right to representation in government. Today we find many who are abusing those privileges. Freedom does not mean license. A simple definition of freedom is liberty. License means unrestrained liberty. The agitators who are corrupting our business life, who are seeking to undermine our government, and who would destroy religious belief, are not crusaders for liberty, but hirelings of tyranny. They would tear down a sound form of government and give us chaos. Let us awake to the seriousness of the situation and, as Native Daughters, be on our guard to preserve those liberties so dearly bought by our forefathers."

"JUST A FEW BITS."

"Dear Sisters: So that you may know that your many contributions to the Veterans Welfare Committee brought sunshine to those in the hospitals, I would like to tell you how a portion of the money has been expended; the balance is to be used at Easter time.

"A clever little yellow card contains a slot wherein a 50-cent piece is inserted; 250 of these were distributed. The card reads: NATIVE DAUGHTERS OF THE GOLDEN WEST, State Veterans Welfare Committee Grand Parlor. 'Just a few Bits' to show that we have not forgotten. With Season's Best Wishes.

"It is indeed gratifying to me as your chairman, and also to the members of my committee, to have received your generous response, and we read with pleasure the many letters received and note your enthusiasm in bringing a little cheer to the shutins. My committee joins me in extending to each and every one of you best wishes for a happy new year, and may you continue your work of service.—ANNA T. SCHIEBUSCH, chairman State Veterans Welfare Committee."

First Unit of Juniors.

Stockton—Officers of the first unit of Junior Native Daughters in the state, with Rene Miller as president, were installed December 15 by Mrs. George A. Sanguinetti of Stockton No. 256, founder of the organization, who was assisted by President Mary Strutzman, Secretary Elizabeth Baker, Euretta Dentoni, Julia Sanguinetti, Louise Braghetta, Mattie Porter, Vera Johnson, Nadine Baker and Charlotte Bruns of that Parlor. The charter for the unit will remain open until February 1, and at the first meeting in January a large number of candidates will be initiated. Christmas decorations—green garlands, red bells and a decorated tree—formed a fitting setting for the ceremony. After the installation the junior officers were guests at a dinner.

At the meeting of Stockton the same evening Deputy Roberta Hanna and a delegation from Phoebe A. Hearst No. 214 of Manteca were guests at No. 256's Christmas party. Donations were made for the "adopted" veteran's basket, for a needy family's basket and for the P.T.A. fund in Sunset Column. Chairman Anna Ellis gave a report of the December card party, which netted a goodly sum. Splendid co-operation of thirty-four members made it a success. At the meeting's close a Christmas program, led by the glee club singing carols, was presented. Then Santa arrived in a sleigh heaping full of exchange gifts. The hall decorations were the work of Elizabeth Baker and Mattie Porter and their husbands. Refreshments were served by President Mary Strutzman and committee.—A.E.

MEET THE CHALLENGE!

"The year 1939 will be a momentous epoch in the history of California," according to Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs, chairman N.D.G.W. Grand Parlor Publicity Committee. "Through the Golden Gate International Exposition, our Golden State will receive greater attention than ever before. The eyes of the entire world will be focused upon our State and our people.

"Native Daughters of the Golden West must realize that upon each and every member rests the responsibility of making 1939 the banner year in the history of the Order. As never before, we must strive to direct attention to this splendid organization, builded upon lofty and enduring principles, and to our noteworthy and unselfish work for outstanding projects, the fulfillment of which means a better Order, a better community, a better State and a better Nation. We must meet the challenge and make our Order worthy of our State."

NEWSY N.D.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

San Anselmo—Thomas Francis Foley, husband of Past Grand Emma Gruber-Foley of Orinda No. 56, died December 8. He was born in Humboldt County, October 8, 1869, and was affiliated with Mount Tamalpais No. 64 N.S.G.W. of San Rafael.

Sutter Creek—At the December 8 meeting of Amapola No. 80, President Verna Boitano reported the annual dance one of the most successful in many years. Past Grand Gladys E. Noce, chairman homeless children committee, reported a check had been sent the central committee to cover the Parlor's quota of $1 per member. Following the business meeting Christmas social was enjoyed. Marye Milich, chairman of the evening, was assisted by Ann Casagrande and Julia Ferreccio.—L.M.

Tracy—El Pescadero No. 82 elected officers December 2, Mrs. Mabel Moitoso being selected for president. Installation will be held in January jointly with Tracy No. 186 N.S.G.W. Miss Mildred McClelland was chairman of the Parlor's annual Christmas party December 16.

Oakland—Grand President Edna B. Briggs made her official visit to Piedmont No. 87 November 30. At a supper preceding the meeting the tables were beautifully decorated with pink and white carnations. President Peggy McGuire presided at the business session, where pink and white chrysanthemums constituted the decorations. Among the many in attendance were Supervising Deputy Marion E. White, Deputy Mae Ellis, Alice H. Dougherty, former grand secretary, Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Trustee Alice Oldham, Ethel Enos and Emily Ryan, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Past Grands Mae Himes Noonan, Evelyn Carlson and Estelle Evans. At the meeting's close, Chairman Marion E. White, assisted by Greta Murden and their committees served light refreshments. December 12 the Parlor had a successful whist; Nell Moore was the chairman.—E.L.

San Jose—One of the busiest women in Santa Clara County is Mrs. Clara Gairaud of Vendome No. 100 who, everywhere she goes, preaches "Native Daughterism." As radio chairman for the Order of N.D.G.W. she has been most successful. Four programs were "aired" the past six months, and more in the future is her aim. "I think we are going to have a splendid 1939," says Mrs. Gairaud. "Open meetings with good speakers on the aims and objects of the Order for the general entertainment of friends, will stimulate interest. Let's boost!"

Hollister—Copa de Oro No. 105 honored members born in July, August and September, November 18; a Thanksgiving motif carried out the decorations. December 9 another happy birthday evening complimented those born in October, November and December. A snow scene formed the centerpiece of the December refreshments table. In the drifts were concealed gifts attached to red ribbons, and a jolly Santa Claus topped the birthday cake. Attesting its community spirit, the Parlor contributed $5 toward the purchase of a piano for the recreation hall at the Community Hospital.

San Luis Obispo—San Luisita No. 108 has voted to retain its present staff of officers, with Mrs. Anna Schlicht as president, for another term. At the final 1938 meeting, December 19, a turkey dinner was served and Christmas presents were exchanged. Mrs. Julia Bell, chairman, was assisted by Mms. Anita Bergk and Georgia Stairs.—H.McC.

Etna—Eschscholtzia No. 122 initiated two candidates December 6. A gay Christmas party with Eleanor Dannenbrink as chairman, was greatly enjoyed December 20. Members of the Parlor gathered December 22 to decorate the big town hall for the annual Christmas dance the most colorful of all the valley's winter activities, which was held Christmas Eve and was most successful, bringing in sufficient funds for a generous contribution to the homeless children.—M.K.H.

Chico—At election of officers December 8, Annie K. Bidwell No 168 chose Mrs Harriet Hannis as president; she will succeed Mrs. Flora Detrick. The City Council has, at the Parlor's solicitation made by Mrs. Olive Pearl, promised to co-operate in caring for the historic Bidwell coaches. The Parlor adopted a homeless baby, and made donations to the Red Cross and the fund for the restoration of California missions. Mrs. A. G. Eames gave an interesting travel talk. Refreshments were served at tables decorated in a Christmas motif I.H.

Fort Bragg—Fort Bragg No. 210 had its annual Christmas party December 1, and among the many in attendance was Mrs. Maud Balfour, the first president. Holiday greens and red candles were used in the decorations, and from a gayly lighted Christmas tree gifts were distributed. Mrs. Ruth Fuller was hostess of the evening. December 24 the Parlor had its annual dance. A feature was the awarding of a hope chest containing many beautiful handmade articles prepared by the sewing club.

Menlo Park Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit to Menlo No. 211 and San Bruno No. 246 in joint session here December 6. Amidst beautiful decorations of red berries and greens, ten candidates were initiated by a picked ritual team representing both Parlors. Among the 100 in attendance were Past Grands Evelyn Carlson, Anne Thuesen and Mae Himes Noonan, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan and Alice Oldham, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Supervising Deputy Eleanor Foley, Deputies Martha Bernasque and Marion Reed. At the meeting's conclusion refreshments were served.

CITY AND COUNTY — THE GATE WAY TO GOLDEN CALIFORNIA

SAN BERNARDINO—AT THE DECEMBER 10 meeting of Arrowhead Assembly No. 14 N.S.G.W. Past Presidents Association in the clubhouse of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. at Crestline, in the San Bernardino Mountains, the following officers were elected: Lynn A. Reed of Arrowhead Parlor, governor; Frank E. Cotter of Los Angeles Parlor, first vice-governor; Harold G. Lord of Arrowhead Parlor, second vice-governor; John P. Paralieu of Stephen M. White Parlor, San Pedro, third vice-governor; Harry T. Honn of Santa Monica Bay Parlor, marshal; Dr. R. L. White of Arrowhead Parlor, inside sentinel; Judge Jerome B. Kavanaugh of Arrowhead Parlor, outside sentinel; J. W. Jasper of Arrowhead Parlor, trustee. The committee in charge of the dinner and the entertainment at Crestline included James A. Olivas, chairman, Dr. R. L. White and Trustee General Donald E. VanLuven.

Installation will be held in K. C. Hall, Fourth and French streets, Santa Ana, January 30, following a 7 o'clock dinner. The ceremonies will be in charge of D.D.G.G. Roy W. Carlton of Compton Parlor. In charge of arrangements for the Santa Ana meeting are Lieutenant Governor General Walter E. Hiskey, Raymond L. Marsile and Dr. C. E. Price.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT PREVAILED.

Ontario—The sewing club of Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. met December 6 at the home of President Marion McKee Pierce to complete arrangements for the bazar, which was held December 8 and was a very enjoyable and successful affair. A Spanish motif was featured, and the booths were attractively decorated with bamboo, small spanish hats, green, yellow and red paper. The program consisted of spanish songs and dances, and appropriate refreshments were served. Vada Austin was in charge of the bazar.

Ontario celebrated its seventh birthday anniversary December 22 at a potluck dinner which was enjoyed by the members and their families. Mary Jean Van Fleet acted as mistress of ceremonies, and Elizabeth Graves gave a number of piano selections. A Christmas program was presented by the children. Gifts were exchanged, and the Christmas spirit prevailed.

MYSTERY SISTERS REVEALED.

San Bernardino—Members of Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. were guests December 14 of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. at dinner. Excellent entertainment was provided by William G. Newell of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W., the performers being the grandchildren of Past Grand President John T. Newell.

After the dinner Lugonia had a short business session, during which the bazar and food sale committee reported a net profit of $35. The good of the Order mystery sisters were also revealed.—H.P.

CALIFORNIA FIFTY YEARS AGO

Thomas W. McAuliffe

Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

CALIFORNIA USHERED IN THE NEW year, 1889, with an eclipse of the sun, January 1. It was most favorably viewed at Willows, Glenn County, where there was a great gathering of scientific men. One of the newspaper writers termed it as an "occasion of the sun going into hell."

Shocks of earthquake were felt at Gilroy, Santa Clara County, January 10, and Mendocino City January 17.

The Twenty-eighth Session of the California State Legislature convened January 7 at Sacramento. The Senate was called to order by Senator Stephen M. White, president protem of the previous session, who delivered an eloquent address and paid a glowing tribute to the late Governor Washington Bartlett. The Assembly was called to order by Frank D. Ryan, secretary of the previous session. Senator White was re-elected president protem of the Senate, and Robert Howe of Sonoma was chosen speaker of the Assembly.

In his message to the Legislature, Governor Robert W. Waterman advocated making September 9, Admission Day, a legal holiday, and recommended the construction of a governor's mansion.

George A. Knight who, in the Los Angeles Republican convention, nominated for lieutenant-governor Waterman, who was successful at the polls and became governor on the death of Governor Bartlett, had a verbal encounter with Waterman January 8 in the State Capitol at Sacramento. Knight complained because he had not been appointed insurance commissioner, and in the battle of words Waterman informed him that he was the Governor and intended to conduct state affairs as he saw fit. Knight maintained that Governor Waterman had violated one of his promises.

Douglas Tilden, a deaf mute, was sent to New York to study sculpturing by the University of California January 4.

L. J. Rose of Los Angeles received from Europe during the month a shipment of twenty-five skylarks. They are supposed to be the natural enemies of the scale bug.

San Pedro, Los Angeles County, was lighted for the first time by electricity January 1.

The Southern Pacific this month issued an order prohibiting the smoking of cigarets by trainmen.

Victor Barondo was cremated in a burning house near Soledad, Monterey County, January 6.

Rev. Andrew Wood was a defendant in a scandalous Los Angeles divorce January 6.

L. W. Ormsby of San Buenaventura, Ventura County, committed suicide there January 6.

Both the north- and the south-bound stages running between Mendocino Town and Cloverdale, Sonoma County, were held up January 5 by a sole highwayman who secured about $1,000 from the Wells Fargo boxes. The passengers, who had about $6,000 on them, were unmolested.

John A. Brewster, who came to California with General John C. Fremont, died January 7 at Santa Rosa, Sonoma County.

D. M. Jordan, a California Pioneer of 1849, died January 9 at Napa City, aged 93. He was said to be the oldest member of the Masonic Order in the state.

Governor and Mrs. Robert W. Waterman gave a brilliant reception to the former's military staff at Sacramento January 9.

George H. Marsden was this month appointed postmaster at Compton, Los Angeles County.

A. R. Sansman, a Mexican War veteran, died January 10 at Gilroy, Santa Clara County.

The Stockton, San Joaquin County, Natural Gas Co. was organized January 10.

Dr. D. T. Kelly came into Los Angeles City January 10 to pay his taxes. Thugs encountered him, and he was robbed of $100 and a gold watch.

George Robinson was appointed postmaster at American, Sonoma County, January 10.

The Southern Pacific reported this month it had constructed 237 miles of railroad during 1888.

Miss B. V. Ingham purchased a half-interest in the Mountain Democrat of Placerville, El Dorado County, January 12.

David Zuck, a resident of Gilroy, Santa Clara County, since 1853, died there January 13.

At a tremendous mass meeting in San Francisco January 13, Dr. C. C. O'Donnell and Dennis Kearney severely scored the Examiner for its position on the Chinese question.

Alick Gody, General John C. Fremont guide, died January 20 at Los Angeles City.

E. M. Wolf accidentally shot and killed himself at Rio Dell, near Rohnerville, Humboldt County, January 22.

The roof of the Globe Hotel, San Francisco, collapsed January 19, killing John Kappel and an 11-year-old boy.

J. D. Fiske, Fresno City opera house manager, January 23 commenced a $25,000 slander suit against the Fresno Republican.

In excavating for the foundation of the McAllister-street wing of San Francisco's New City Hall, a bed of decayed coffins and human bones was encountered January 19.

Tiery Wright, who came to California with General John C. Fremont in 1846, died at Oakland, Alameda County, January 17.

S. P. Young, Texas banker, was January 14 appointed a receiver of the California National Bank of San Francisco

Editor H. H. Boyce of the Los Angeles Tribune gave a street assailant a warm reception January 24.

J. B. Johnson, who had practiced law in Nevada County since 1850, died at Grass Valley January 25.

The Chinatown of Dutch Flat, Placer County, burned January 27, forty buildings being consumed.

A new opera house at Redding, Shasta County, was dedicated January 25.

C. H. Swarthout, member of the Republican old guard since 1856, died January 24 at San Jose, Santa Clara County.

doors were thrown open and several prospective members of the Parlor were admitted, and listened to a very interesting and informative talk by Leo V. Youngworth, former grand trustee. Then all adjourned to the banquetroom and partook of refreshments prepared by Senior Past President Evalyn White of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. as a compliment to the "boys." The wives of Dick Carroll and Reg. Anderson helped with the service.

BAZAR-DINNER SUCCESS.

Glendale—Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. has voted to retain its present corps of officers, with Mrs. Harriette Weeks as president, for another six months. Past presidents had charge of the December 27 meeting, when the institution birthday of the Parlor was celebrated. Honored guests included three past grand and deputy grand presidents during the past twelve years. The Parlor contributed to the Christmas fund for veterans at San Fernando Hospital and through its veterans' welfare committee, provided Christmas gifts for the two "adopted" veterans.

The bazar and dinner held December 15 by Verdugo was a splendid [illegible] Miss Evelyn Wilson was chairman of the bazar and Mrs. Anna Alpi was chairman of the [illegible] and the turkey dinner. Music for the dinner, and for dancing later in the evening, was provided through the co-operation of E. Laurie [illegible], of Mrs. Julia Laurie, a member of the Parlor [illegible].

NEW YEAR'S BLOWOUT.

Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. had a visit December 2 from Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller, Grand Inside Sentinel Louis Bosch, and Past Grands Chas. A. Koenig and Harmon D. Skillin. All spoke interestingly of the Order's affairs. Previous to the Parlor meeting they were entertained at supper at the University Club by President William Page and Past President Walter Odemar.

Ramona's concluding event of 1938 was the initiation of a class of candidates December 30 rounded up by Clarence S. Hunt and Robert E. Dunn, captains of contesting teams in a membership drive during December. A never-to-be-forgotten new year's blowout followed the initiatory ceremonies, which were conducted by the Parlor's officers.

CHRISTMAS PARTY.

The N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon Club had its annual Christmas party, with music, presents and surprises, December 23. Arrangements were made by the seven Santa Claus boys: Peter Allesio DeCatte, Leo V. Youngworth, William Page, Walter Odemar, Maynard Garrison, W. O. Gilkey and John O'B. Bodkin.

Remember, the club meets every Friday, 12:15 noon, room 1126 Rosslyn Hotel, Fifth and Main streets. All Native Sons welcome. Hervey Lindley Kitchin, phone GLadstone 2533, is the secretary. No dues, just an hour of good-fellowship.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Thelma Davies (Los Angeles ND) and husband are now residing in Berkeley.

Miss Emma Lazzarevich (Los Angeles ND) became the bride of James S. Copple November 25.

Charles Jones (Stephen M. White NS) recently made his first trip out of the state, visiting Chicago, Cleveland and Detroit.

Mrs. Ella (Los Angeles ND) and "Bill" Steinbeck have a new arrival at their home, Carol Gay Steinbeck, who arrived December 16.

Miss Grace S. Stoermer (Past Grand ND) has again been honored by being elected to the board of directors of the American Bank Women.

Mrs. Gertrude H. Rounsavelle (Californiana ND) paid a visit last month to several Eastern cities, including Chicago, New York, and Washington, D. C.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Robert Laurence Hanley, affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., died November 30, survived by a wife and three daughters. He was born at Los Angeles, April 6, 1890.

Alfred H. L. Ducommun, affiliated with Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W., died December 24. The son of Charles Ducommun, a California Pioneer of 1849, he was a native of Los Angeles, aged 67.

COURTLAND (SACRAMENTO COUNTY)—The grand officers, under the auspices of Courtland No. 106, dedicated December 11 the Courtland Joint Union High School auditorium in the presence of some 400 residents. With President Melvin C. Nethercott of the Parlor as chairman of the day, a program was presented which included addresses by Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Past Grand Judge Fletcher A. Cutler, Past Grand Esther R. Sullivan of the N.D.G.W., President William N. L. Hutchinson of the board of school trustees, and Principal S. J. Halley of the school. Musical selections were rendered by the girls' glee club of the school, directed by Mrs. Henderson.

At the program's conclusion, the following conducted the dedicatory ceremonies, placing a bronze plaque at the building's main entrance: Grand President McShane, Past Grand Cutler, Grand Second Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Outside Sentinel Walter N. Bailey, Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Grand Historian Peter T. Conmy. Past Grand Clarence E. Jarvis was also in attendance. At the ceremonies' conclusion the grand officers were guests of Courtland at a reception in Walnut Grove.

Anniversary Celebrated.

Palo Alto—At an oldtimers night December 12 Palo Alto No. 216 celebrated its thirty-sixth institution anniversary at a banquet. A huge, beautifully decorated birthday cake was presented by James Farmin on behalf of a committee of past presidents. Entertainment features included several solos by Ray Tinney on the marimba and James Grant on the piano-accordion. A feature of interest was an exhibit of oldtime relics and paraphernalia of the Parlor, and pictures, books and documents associated with California's early history.

Joseph H. Lewis presided at the banquet, and speakers included Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustees Lloyd Cosgrove and Wayne Millington, Charter Members Lucas Greer and James Farmin. President Leonard R. Avilla announced plans for increased activity of the Parlor during 1939, and presented beautiful past president emblems to V. R. White, Jack Baker, Columbus Baldo, William Moody, Daniel K. Hickey and A. A. Quinn. During the evening officers were elected, Robert T. Bleibler being chosen president. Installation will be held jointly with Palo Alto No. 229 N.D.G.W. January 10. Palo Alto No. 216 had a turkey whist party December 21 that attracted a large crowd.

Community Singing Pleases.

Oakland—A group of grand officers headed by Grand President Joseph J. McShane attended December 13 the annual banquet of Fruitvale No. 252. This has for years been an outstanding event in Alameda County, as well as in Native Sons circles.

MEMBERSHIP STANDING.

Following is the membership standing of Subordinate Parlors of the N.S.G.W. having 300 or more members as of December 20, 1938:

South San Francisco No. 157, San Francisco	800
Castro No. 232, San Francisco	774
Arrowhead No. 110, San Bernardino	608
Ramona No. 109, Los Angeles	554
Stockton No. 7, Stockton	519
Stanford No. 76, San Francisco	460
Piedmont No. 120, Oakland	405
Twin Peaks No. 214, San Francisco	391
Pacific No. 10, San Francisco	369
Presidio No. 194, San Francisco	346
Guadalupe No. 231, San Francisco	344
San Francisco No. 49, San Francisco	334

President Guy O. Robinson introduced as master of ceremonies Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, who presented books of songs to those in attendance, and community singing was a feature of the entertainment. Incidentally, several remarked the singing provided one of the finest evenings of entertainment they have enjoyed. Speakers of the occasion included Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Leon E. Gray, Superior Judge Alameda County, and Chairman Harry W. Gaetjen of the Grand Parlor Finance Committee.

Outstanding Native Called.

San Francisco—Joseph Jerome Trabucco, one of California's outstanding citizens and jurists, died here December 13, survived by a wife and two sons. He was elected superior judge of Mariposa County in 1903, in which office he had continuously served until his death. He had also served the county as assessor and district attorney. In length of service as a superior judge, he was fourth in the state. Such was his reputation for honesty, ability and fairness, that he was called to preside in various counties, and the State Judicial Council designated him as the trial judge for many of the most important cases.

Judge Trabucco, the son of Louis and Eleanor Trabucco, California Pioneers of 1850, was born in Bear Valley, Mariposa County, April 29, 1869. He was affiliated with Yosemite Parlor No. 24 of Merced.

Ritual Inspiration.

Centerville—Washington No. 169 observed its forty-eighth institution anniversary December 19. Four candidates were initiated by a picked team of Parlor members, with Recording Secretary Judge Allen G. Norris as president. A feature of the splendid exemplification of the ritual was the masterful rendition of the first vice-president charge by Frank T. Dusterberry, charter member of the Parlor and a Past Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, which was an inspiration to all.

At the meeting's close a turkey banquet was served under the direction of Betsy Ross No. 238 N.D.G.W. Judge Norris presided as chairman of the evening, and the speakers included, among others, Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Treasurer John A. Corotto and Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove. Also in attendance were Charter Member W. W. Walton, District Deputies Walter Davis, William Dombrink and Harold Farley.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Placerville—The annual New Year Eve dance of Placerville No. 9 was a complete success in every particular. The arrangements committee included Harold Duden, chairman, Joe Leonardi, A. J. Orelli, Joseph Quigley and Ellsworth Williard.

San Jose—December 2, San Jose No. 22 and Observatory No. 177, San Jose No. 81 and Vendome No. 100 N.D.G.W. had their annual benefit whist party for the homeless children, and it was a huge success. John R. Sullivan was the general chairman.

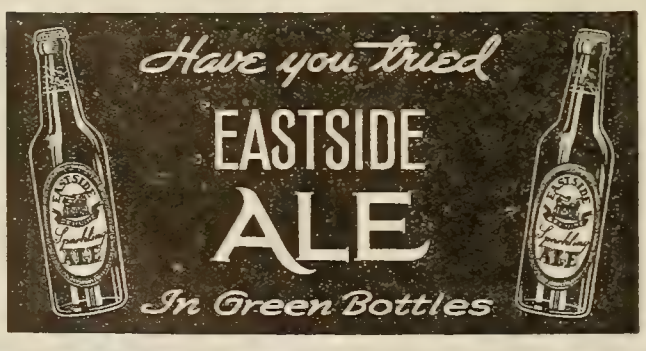
Santa Rosa—Santa Rosa No. 28 had its annual dinner, which was largely attended, December 1. Grand Trustee Wayne Millington was among the speakers. Guests included also several past presidents of neighboring Parlors.

Antioch—General Winn No. 32 received a visit from Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Past Grand Charles L. Dodge December 14. Plans were made for a membership campaign which will begin early in January.

Bakersfield—Jim Fix Jr. was elected December 7 president of Bakersfield No. 42 for the January-July term. Hal Bannister announced plans for future dedications under the auspices of the history and landmarks committee. Supper was served by A. W. Bannister and committee. December 21 the Parlor and El Tejon No. 239 N.D.G.W. jointly entertained the members' children at a Christmas party. The committee in charge included Arthur Selingen, R. L. Chipp and Mrs. Ralph Hinderliter.

Napa—Napa No. 62 conducted December 5 a public speaking contest for high school students. The winner, Miss Gertrude Curry, whose subject was "Vigilante Committees of 1852 and 1856," will represent Napa in the finals at San Francisco. Second honors went to Will Rudin, whose subject was "Santa Barbara, Queen of the Missions;" third to Virginia Aldrich, "William Louis Manley, Hero of Death Valley," and fourth to Edna May Wright, "Drake in New Albion." Percy S. King Jr., Wesley Rutherford and Charles Martin were the judges.

Colusa—Colusa No. 69 had its annual "corral night" program December 6, and all members, personally or otherwise, responded to roll call. A banquet was served, and Grand Second Vice-president Henry S. Lyon was the guest speaker.



Ukiah—Ukiah No. 71 elected officers, with Dan Cohen as president, December 5. Arrangements for the December 19 Christmas party were made by Ferd Faas, Ernest Coleman and Dan Cohen.

Weaverville—The Trinity County Board of Supervisors has given Mount Bally No. 87 permission to take charge of the museum. December 5 the Parlor donated to the Weaverville Elementary School $5 toward the purchase of a new piano. It also made a donation of seventy-five player piano rolls to the Hyampon School.

Ferndale—Felix A. Zana has been elected president of Ferndale No. 93 for the ensuing term. Installation will be held January 16 jointly with Oneonta No. 71 N.D.G.W. The Parlor's horseshoe team recently defeated the Ferndale Odd Fellows 9 to 7 and the Loleta Odd Fellows 10 to 6.

Santa Clara—Some 150 members, their friends and wives, celebrated at a banquet the thirty-fifth anniversary of Santa Clara No. 100. Past Grand Charles A. Thompson was the toast-

THE SAN FRANCISCO N.S.G.W. AND N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Committee had its annual entertainment and ball for the benefit of the homeless children in the Civic Auditorium November 26. Splendid entertainment, including competitions between drill teams and drum corps, was enjoyed by the 5,000 in attendance.

A grand march, participated in by 500 couples, was led by three couples—Grand President N.S.G.W. Joseph J. McShane and wife, Grand President N.D.G.W. Edna B. Briggs, escorted by Mr. Carlson, husband of Past Grand President N.D.G.W. Evelyn I. Carlson, and Mayor Angelo J. Rossi and wife. Evening attire intermingled with Parlor uniforms of the marchers produced a very colorful effect.

ELEVEN INITIATED.

"Pioneer" was the theme of the evening of December 7, when Grand President Edna B. Briggs officially visited Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. Escorts beautifully gowned in old-fashioned attire accompanied her to her seat of honor, and President Agnes Briggs and the Parlor officers initiated eleven candidates. Relics, especially loaned by Wells Fargo Bank & Union Trust Company Museum, and hand-made poppies decorated the hall.

CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON.

The Friday Luncheon Club of San Francisco, composed of members of the several local N.S.G.W. Parlors, had its annual Christmas luncheon at the Union League Club December 17. Grand President Joseph J. McShane was the guest of honor.

The luncheon started at 12:30 p.m. noon and finished at 5 p.m. It included many good things to eat and drink, as well as an afternoon of fine entertainment and scream-producing humor.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS NEWS.

December 12, Past Grand May C. Boldemann was hostess at a dinner at her home in honor of Grand President Edna B. Briggs. At its conclusion she was escorted to the meetinghall of La Estrella Parlor No. 89 for her official visit by Past Grand Evelyn Carlson and Dorothy Thompson. There she was introduced by President Ethel Deneri, and extended a welcome by Deputy Loraine Lewis. The Parlor had a dinner, planned for holiday festivity, December 26, and early in the new year Miss Hartman will have a luncheon for the sewing club.—N.F.

Dolores Parlor No. 169 elected officers, with Miss Norma Wendt as president, December 14. A Christmas tree party was also held, and Santa Claus paid a visit and distributed gifts. The evening proved an enjoyable one. January 19 the Parlor will have its annual banquet. During the holiday week Dolores and El Vespero Parlor No. 118 members visited the veterans at Letterman Hospital.—L.N.

Past Presidents Association No. 1 had a dinner in honor of President Genevieve Martell December 1. Mae Baumeister was chairman of the dinner, which was enjoyed by members and their friends.—R.S.

The deputy grand presidents of San Francisco County enjoyed a social evening November 29. Dinner was followed by discussions of interest to the group, headed by Supervising Deputy Ann Godfrey. The deputies also had a Christmas party, with Viola Elston as the chairman.—L.K.

NATIVE SONS NEWS.

Mission Parlor No. 38 had a turkey whist party December 13. The arrangements committee included Vincent Nigro, chairman, Raymond J. McGrath, Louis Gilson, George Frenna, Clarence Johnson, Mannie Aitken and Louis Bollinger.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 had its annual Christmas party December 20. Carl Boegershausen was chairman of the evening, and Frank Morris was in charge of refreshments.

Grand Trustee Charles A. Redding officially visited Niantic Parlor No. 105 December 14. He was accompanied by Grand Inside Sentinel Louis Bosch, and Louis J. Peter of Mount Tamalpais No. 64, San Rafael.

San Francisco Assembly No. 1 Past Presidents Association had its annual Christmas party December 16. Among those in attendance were Director General Stanley, Past Governor General Orengo, Deputy Grand President A. M. Nishkian and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy. Governor Paul Pasquet was presented with the rabbit's foot.

Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy December 20 addressed the institute of the San Francisco evening public school teachers and the instructors operating under the Federal EEP and WPA programs. His subject was "The Development of Adult Education in California." December 5 he addressed Past Presidents Association No. 1 N.D.G.W. on "General John A. Sutter."

Treasure Island, site of the $50,000,000 California World's Fair, is connected with the $77,000,000 San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge by a six-lane causeway.

LETTER OF THANKS.

Past Grand Presidents, Grand Officers, Members of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, General Association of Past Presidents, Members of Separate Parlors and Association of Past Presidents—With a sad heart at the loss of my sister, Anna G. Lucas, my pal of a lifetime, I wish to thank you for your floral offerings and your kind words of sympathy and comfort. Especially do I thank you for the loving memories you created of our sweet smile and happy, pleasing disposition. It is hard to carry on without her. With deepest gratitude I remain sincerely, EMMA G. FOLEY, Past Grand President of N.D.G.W.

Heartfelt thanks to my many friends of the Order of N.D.G.W. and the Past Presidents Association for floral offerings and words of sympathy in the loss of my dear husband, Thomas F. Foley. The loss of my loved ones leaves me lonely and sad, so I do appreciate the kindly thoughts of my friends. Sincerely, EMMA G. FOLEY.

San Anselmo, December 16, 1938.

CALIFORNIA HISTORY IMPORTANT.

"If we value the worth of the constructive accomplishments of the Pioneer builders of our State," cautions Past Grand Esther R. Sullivan, chairman N.D.G.W. Grand Parlor History and Landmarks Committee, "we will prove by [illegible] type of patriotism to [illegible] of California of our duties as true American citizens. Pioneer California history is one of the important mediums through which this can be accomplished.

"Present history programs participated in by members; this develops [illegible] Base programs that show the culture [illegible] of pioneer life. Have a public exhibit displaying pioneer pictures, paintings, engravings, or any pioneer article of interest. John A. Sutter [illegible] of mail is in 1939; observe the arrival of the [illegible] pioneer by a special program. Give publicity to historic markers . . . Mark historic points. Collect authentic local pioneer history, and give this due publicity to correct misinformation. Preserve relics, and place them on public display."

PAST PRESIDENTS N.D.G.W. DOINGS.

Oakland—Association No. 2 honored Ella Mullen, retiring past president, at a banquet November 28. She was the recipient of a gift case and many other lovely gifts. Agnes Olsen was chairman of the occasion. E.L.

San Jose—Association No. 3 met at the home of the new president, Mrs. Adaline Boysen, December 13. "Pine Chateau," as it is called, was brilliantly decorated in a holiday motif. A Christmas dinner was served at tables decorated with sprigs of English holly, and holly corsages were the favors. Installation was held, Miss Lysette Faber, Alice Roll and Mrs. Clara Gairaud conducting the ceremonies. Christmas carols were sung, and members exchanged gifts. The Association will be officially visited early in January by State President Willow Borba. C.G.

Sacramento—Association No. 4 had its annual holiday dinner party for orphans December 5, twenty little girls being the honor-guests. They provided entertainment, and from a decorated Christmas tree Santa Claus presented gifts and candy to them. Mms. Anne Tilden and Edna Mooney, assisted by members of La Bandera No. 110, Sacramento, and Liberty No. 213, Elk Grove, had charge of the party. State President Willow Borba paid her official visit to the Association that evening, and was presented a gift by President Frances Wackman. Initiation was held and officers were elected. The arrangements committee included Mms. May Rhoads and Ann Kloss, co-chairmen, Belle Bradford, Genevieve Didion, Clara Weldon, Julia Noonan, Edna B. Briggs, Pearl Lewis, Flora A. Schmittgen, Misses Marion Lund, Ada Peterson, Ruth Peterson.

In Memoriam

ANNA GRUBER LOSER.

To the Officers and Members of Oranda Parlor No. 56 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of love and respect to the memory of our departed Recording Secretary and Charter Member, Anna Gruber Loser, submit the following:

We shall miss her pleasant greeting, her cheerful loving ways, and her many deeds of kindness. Her Love and loyalty to our Parlor and to the Order of the Native Daughters of the Golden West will ever be an inspiration to the sisters of our Parlor. Always imprinted in our hearts and memory as exemplary of her life and character, will live her smiling face. Truly her life has been as broad, generous and beautiful as our own glorious Golden State.

"While now upon our hearts and home
The heavy shadow lies,
May light of kindly comfort come
From hearts that sympathize."

In offering this tribute to her memory we, her mourning sisters trust that time, which alone can console the afflicted, may lessen the grief of those by whom she was cherished.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor, that a copy be sent to her beloved sister, Emma Gruber Foley, her husband, Axel Loser, and that a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

KATHERINE COBB,
ORINDA GIANNINI,
MAE SHEA,
Committee.

Sincerely and Fraternally in P.D.F.A., Oranda Parlor No. 56 N.D.G.W., A. MOHAUPT, President, MAE SHEA, Recording Secretary.

San Francisco, December 10, 1938.

Eureka, Humboldt County, has voted $85,000 bonds for a high school addition, and $210,000 bonds for four new grade schools.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

NOTE—Expressions of opinion in these "Growls" are, unless indicated otherwise, those of the Managing Editor,
CLARENCE M. HUNT

DR. H. C. MEI, GRAND MASTER OF Masons for China, recently addressing the Commonwealth Club of California in San Francisco on "Shanghai Not Through," said, in part: "Shanghai is thought lost as a commercial port. The Japanese have taken over all its customs, including the revenue cutters. . . . The Japanese contend they have taken over all the rights of the Chinese government, including censorship of mail, telegraph and radio. Most of the puppet officials appointed by the Japanese have been chosen from the Chinese riffraff. They do not dare to venture forth without guard. Their influence is practically nil. . . .

"This war has unified the Chinese masses. The man in the street is hating the Japanese with all his heart. Confucius said: 'One may deprive a three-corps army of its commander-in-chief, but you cannot deprive an individual man of his will.' That will is there and I believe we will repel the invader! After the war all the resources of the good earth and from the mines will again come streaming down through the port of Shanghai."

At Washington, D. C., December 15, work was begun on the $3,000,000 white marble memorial for Thomas Jefferson, third President of the United States. Speaking at the ground breaking ceremonies, President Franklin D. Roosevelt said:

"Thomas Jefferson has been recognized by our citizens not only for the outstanding part he took in the drafting of the Declaration of Independence itself, not only for his authorship of the Virginia statute for religious freedom, but also for the services he rendered in establishing the practical operation of the American Government as a democracy and not as an autocracy."

The population of California as of January 1, 1939, is estimated by the California Taxpayers Association at 6,940,000, which is an increase of 22 percent over the 1930 Federal census of 5,677,251 persons. The population of the state is, according to the Association, increasing at a rate higher than that over the United States as a whole, due to migration into the state during the present decade. The January 1, 1939, population of Los Angeles County is estimated at 2,785,000, an increase of approximately 576,000 persons, 26 percent, over the 1930 Federal census count of 2,208,492.

This population increase accounts, to a large extent, for the stupendous charity load the taxpayers of the state and the county are forced to bear. Is this population-increase worth what it costs? Would we not be much better off with less population and lighter taxes? Then, put a stop to tax-spending agencies turning over to promotion organizations millions of dollars extracted from property owners!

Addressing the York Bible Class of Toronto, Canada, Herbert Hoover, former President of the United States, said: "Indeed, the world is waiting for some spiritual or ethical control of material powers, and it cannot wait for long. At the present time nothing so concerns the progress of mankind. . . .

"We should worry less over public conscience and mass morals, and worry more over individual conscience and individual morals, for therein is the only foundation of real moral progress."

Ernest H. Denicke, a resident of Marin County, has brought suit in the Federal court at San Francisco, charging prominent bank and life insurance executives entered into a conspiracy to unlawfully make bank credits available to George Shima, an alien Jap, now deceased, known as the potato king, "to defeat the purpose of the California Alien Land Law of 1920."

Because it is not new, there is nothing particularly startling now about this charge. It is a sad fact, however, that because White dollar-worshiping citizens did and do sell out to yellow ineligible-to-citizenship aliens the Japs have become so thoroughly entrenched on the Pacific Coast they will, in due time, follow in California and the other Western states the identical course they are now so successfully pursuing in China. The Japs march on!

Over California as a whole, county, school and special district tax levies have, according to the California Taxpayers Association, increased $67,000,000 in a five-year period, climbing up from $156,000,000 for the 1934-35 fiscal year to $223,000,000 for the 1938-39 fiscal year.

Such a record during these "beautiful" depression years, when people are losing their property because of inability to pay the tax bill, is a glaring financial crime, and should be dealt with accordingly!

At the coming session of the State Legislature, Assemblyman Charles W. Lyon will, it is reported, introduce a measure calling for a constitutional amendment requiring that in any bond election a two-thirds vote of approval would be necessary from both property owners and non-property owners, each counted in their own category. Legislation along that line is certainly needed, and should be adopted.

"The principle underlying the measure," says Lyon, "is that it is not fair for people who do not have to pay the cost to be able to vote bonds simply because they control the greater number of votes or because they may simply hold the balance of power."

Chairman Roger W. Jessup of the Board of Supervisors has publicly termed Los Angeles County "The Nation's Poor Farm"—the haven of the aged and indigent of not only the United States, but California as well.

Chairman Jessup should also let the public know that he and other supervisors have spent millions of the near-bankrupt taxpayers' dollars to establish the farm.

Redwood City, San Mateo County, January 29 had its first electric lights.

Charles Norton, aged San Diego lawyer, January 26 confessed to grand larceny and was sentenced to two years' imprisonment.

The sheriff took charge of the Los Angeles Tribune office January 24 at the request of John E. Minray, who held a $4,500 note against the corporation.

Arthur Anderson, son of Supervisor Anderson of Oroville, Butte County, was mistaken for a deer and accidentally killed January 27 at Lumpkins Mills.

The notorious Old Sherman House of San Diego City was burned to the ground January 30.

Fire totally destroyed the Tulare County Hospital and its contents at Visalia January 1.

The Riverside Tribune was purchased January 1 by the Daily Press of that city.

Sonoma and Santa Clara Counties vineyardists burned shane this month to keep away the frost.

January 8 the Butte County Board of Supervisors granted J. W. Hartsell a franchise to build a street railway from Oroville to Thermalito and Palermo.

Dwight L. Moody, noted evangelist, preached to large crowds in San Francisco and Los Angeles during the month.

Councilman Edson Turner of Pasadena, Los Angeles County, was thrown from a carriage and killed January 14.

Rev. Fillingham, a Presbyterian minister, suddenly became insane while preaching January 6 at Porterville, Tulare County, and caused consternation by throwing books and chairs at the congregation.

E. W. Culver, secretary and treasurer of the Newcastle, Placer County, Fruit Co., committed suicide there January 10.

The Solano Hotel and the Star Hall at Elmira, Solano County, were completely destroyed by fire January 15.

John Hall, an architect, and Martin W. Conklin, a young attorney, were arrested at Los Angeles City January 16, charged with making fraudulent land entries.

California began the new year with 585 daily and weekly newspapers.

Dr. J. E. S. Baker of Angels, Calaveras County, accidentally shot and killed himself January 23.

E. F. Dilger, one of the largest merchants of Oakland, Alameda County, made an assignment January 25.

The delinquent tax list of Los Angeles County was reported as $500,000.

Stephen Meek, 90-year-old Pacific Coast trapper, died January 21 in Scotts Valley, Shasta County.

Chester A. Washbald, for many years editor of the San Francisco Alta, died January 27.

A windstorm raised havoc at Drytown, Amador County, January 27.

Charles Sommers, yard foreman for the California Southern Railway, was killed at San Bernardino City while coupling cars January 29.

Convicts Patrick Fitzgerald, Patrick Guerin and Edward Tarney made their escape from San Quentin State Prison January 31.

In San Francisco New Year Day, William Becketts fatally shot Stephen Handy and Patrick O'Rourke.

TOKENS GIVEN OLDTIMERS.

Nevada City (Nevada County)—Hydraulic Parlor No. 56 N.S.G.W. had an interesting dinner meeting at the Nevada City Club December 20 honoring those members affiliated with the Parlor for a half-century and more. Hydraulic was instituted February 25, 1885.

Robert G. Polglase was the toastmaster. Reminiscences were exchanged, and brief addresses were made by Grand Second Vice-president Henry S. Lyon and Grand Trustee R. G. Power. George H. Calanan, on the Parlor's behalf, presented beautiful golden fifty-year emblems to the following oldtimers:

Charter Members Dr. C. W. Chapman, James F. Colley, Marcus M. Baruh, Levi J. Kendrik and C. A. Weinman; E. J. Baker, 1885; Ben A. Bost and J. Y. Baruh, 1887; William Schwartz, 1889. Each recipient acknowledged the token and declared it would be treasured through life. Among others present at the dinner were Sheriff George Smith of El Dorado County, District Deputy George Hammill and Deputy-at-Large Eben Smart.

BURBANK'S SWEEPSTAKES PRIZE-WINNING ENTRY IN THE "GOLDEN MEMORIES" PARADE OF THE PASADENA TOURNAMENT OF ROSES.

Burbank went back fifty years into history to produce a flowered "Golden Memory," the "Tallyho of 1889," very popular a half-century back, for the Pasadena 1939 Tournament of Roses parade, which was viewed by 1,500,000 people. A quartet of prancing, make-believe, snow-white horses and a rose and lavender coach, all created entirely of flowers, appeared to be traveling along a great white road, bordered with rose chrysanthemums and purple stock. The harness was made of blue bachelor buttons, and thousands of narcissus were strung to make the lanterns and the doors of the coach. Atop the coach rode three girls and four boys from the Burbank High School, equipped with flower-made whips, parasols and lavender lap robes. With long golden trumpets, two footmen heralded the approach of the tallyho. The school children and teachers of Burbank constructed the magnificent float under the supervision of Mrs. Rolla DeHater, art supervisor of the Burbank public schools.

SACRAMENTO AND SUTTER'S FORT

Dr. Peter T. Conmy

Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

AUGUST 12, 1939, WILL MARK THE ONE hundredth anniversary of the landing on the south bank of the American River of John Augustus Sutter, and the subsequent founding of Sacramento, now the capital of California. The place where Sutter built his camp grew into an institution, the walls of which still stand, namely Sutter's Fort. This landmark contains the oldest buildings in Sacramento. It is the historical center of the city, the cradle of its development. Sutter's Fort bears the same relationship to Sacramento that the Presidio and Mission Dolores bear to San Francisco. It is the purpose of this article to present some of the interesting historical facts in connection with the building of Sutter's Fort.

New Helvetia, as Sutter called the settlement which he founded August 13, 1839, was situated in the center of the great Sacramento Valley. In the vast stretches of the river washed lands and in the mountain ranges which lie to both the east and the west of the great valley there lived many Indian tribes, some of whom were friendly, others hostile, to the White men. The lands which Sutter settled comprised an open country to which nature gave little, if any, natural strategy. At any time, England from the north, Americans from the east, or Russians from the nearby Coast Range Mountains, as well as Indians, might invade Sutter's territory. This made fortification imperative. Moreover, it must not be lost sight of that Sutter contemplated a colony which, as New Helvetia, should ultimately function independent of Mexico. Political revolution must always depend upon military force, and for this reason, together with the general need for protection above mentioned, fortification of Sutter's settlement was made a special order of business almost from the first. Therefore, it is not surprising to find Sutter planning his building in terms of what would ultimately be a military garrison. Hence we find him describing his activities in the spring of 1840 as follows: "In the Spring I had my men make a large number of adobe huts for the walls of the fort, and for other buildings."

Julian Dana, the writer, has naively told about the planning of the fort during the spring months of 1840: "At night now, by candlelight, John Sutter sat raptly before his table, a sheet of paper under his spatulate fingers. Carefully he traced a rectangular square and marked the directions in precise script. It was the plan of Sutter's Fort, the first stronghold of all interior California and destined to be the only refuge for Americans in that region for the next decade. His pen drew swift, bold dreams—five hundred feet long, one hundred feet wide. Eighteen feet high, three feet thick it traced. Bastions above the walls at the southeast and southwest corners, commanding the gateways in the center of each side except the western. . . . Loopholes piercing the walls at intervals. Cannon sitting before the entrances. . . . While the camp slept, John Sutter drew his careful lines, full of keen awareness."

Building and equipping the fort as mapped out so carefully by Sutter would probably have consumed many years. As it was, it took four years from April 1840 when work was begun. Another drama was taking place in California, however, which was destined to greatly influence the course of events and which advanced the progress of Sutter's Fort. This was the situation which had developed at Fort Ross, owned and operated by the Russians. Their settlement at Bodega, planted in 1812, had centered around Fort Ross, called officially Fort Stawianski, but by the Americans known as Fort Ross, probably a corruption from Russ. For many years there had been dissatisfaction over the Russian settlement. The Mexicans had always regarded it as a menace to their sovereignty, and others considered it a violation of the Monroe Doctrine. After a number of years of negotiations in which Russia sought, without success, to purchase the area from Mexico, the Russians decided to withdraw from California. This was approved by the czar April 15, 1839.

The Russians, however, were not willing to withdraw, leaving behind the accumulated equipment of almost thirty years, and it was not profitably feasable to transport the same to Alaska, Siberia or far-away Russia. Hence they sought a buyer for their property. The field of persons to whom they might sell was restricted to Mexican citizens. For this reason negotiations with the first prospective purchaser, the Hudson Bay Company, fell through. Next, the Russians asked Governor Alvarado to purchase Fort Ross. He took the matter under advisement, and notified the central government in Mexico City of the Russians intention to withdraw from Alta California. Nothing, however, came of the offer to sell to him. January 1841 found the Russians still domiciled at Ross because of their inability to find a purchaser. In February of that year they offered it to Vallejo for $30,000, half to be paid in money and half in products. Vallejo might have bought, but he was unable to render a decision for several months. As a last resort the fort was then offered at the same price to John A. Sutter, proprietor of New Helvetia. The negotiations with him were kept secret, and when finally made known the Mexican officials were greatly disappointed.

The reason why Alvarado would not buy was because he hoped to uphold his interpretation of the law, namely: (1) that a foreign company could not sell land, (2) that they might sell only the movable property, (3) that the buildings must be left gratis for the government. Vallejo apparently was of the same point of view. The Russians, who at no time had enjoyed cordial relations with the Californians, seem to have vowed among themselves that they would burn the buildings rather than countenance a reversion thereof to the government of California.

The agreement between Sutter and the Russians for the purchase of Fort Ross was agreed upon in September 1841, and reduced to writing and signed by both parties December 13 of the same year. Under the terms of the agreement the buildings and equipment were sold to Sutter for $30,000, to be paid partly in money and partly in produce over a period of years. The Russians left in January 1842, and Sutter placed John Bidwell in charge of moving the property to New Helvetia. The property moved included cattle, farm implements, some wooden buildings and cannon for the new fort which Sutter was building. Thus it was that from Fort Ross, Fort Sutter was equipped. T. F. Cronise, who wrote "The Natural Wealth of California" in 1868, says: "They (the Russians) sold all their real and personal property to General Sutter, taking payment in wheat and meat, as required by the settlement at Sitka. Among the personal property thus acquired by Sutter were 2,000 cattle, 1,000 horses, 50 mules, 2,500 sheep and a number of brass guns."

Sutter's Fort was built chiefly by Indian labor. It was finished in 1844, and became the strategic point of the Sacramento Valley. It was the home of General Sutter and the headquarters from which he directed his vast interests. It was at all times a place of refuge for footsore and weary travelers, a hospital for the sick, the hope of those who were lost in the mountains, and the center of justice for the great Sacramento Valley. When the days of the American occupation of California came, it became the headquarters of military men who fought under the Stars and Stripes and who called it Fort Sacramento. Abandoned in the fifties, it fell into ruin and desuetude. But it was purchased by the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, and now is the property of the State of California. Sutter's Fort has been restored, and is maintained as the most sacred landmark in all of northern California.

HOMELESS CHILDREN

A Worthwhile Non-sectarian Endeavor Sponsored and Supported by the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

IN A VERY FEW WEEKS IT WILL BE THE first day of April 1939, and the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West will have been carrying on the work for the homeless children for twenty-eight years, seven months and four days, to be exact, the first child having been placed August 27, 1910.

The Central Committee's fiscal year, thus far, has been another busy one, with 148 new homes having been provided children and two children replaced, which means that 146 different children are understanding the meaning of a real home. Seventy-one of these 146 are boys and 75 are girls; 105 are Protestants, 38 are Catholics, 2 are Hebrews, and 1 is of Confucius. A grand total of 5,104 different children have been placed throughout California [illegible] began.

Hundreds of these children [illegible] infants, have now grown to womanhood and manhood. The fact that many of the children have lived in the same home for many years, these children have been [illegible] knowledge of their [illegible] the Central Committee and [illegible] the adopting of children is not [illegible] ment after all, but really [illegible] of how many and varied [illegible] been the motives prompting [illegible] women to seek children, [illegible] genuine affection, is now secondary or [illegible] forgotten.

Four hundred and twenty-four applications have been received this fiscal year to date, ninety-six coming in December. It is safe to say that a family seeking a child for adoption has not heard of other families who have been made happy through their adopted children.

The receipts, compared with the same period of the last fiscal year, have increased. Native Sons, $47.40; Native Daughters, $534.03; San Francisco joint, $75.90; Alameda joint, $24.99; Los Angeles joint, $591; friends of the work, $534.03, a total increase of $1,165.42. There has been a decrease, however, in the milk fund, in the refund on board and in dividends, which reduces the gain to $1,085.84.

Many Parlors have given their benefits, or have planned for them. To date, however, eighteen Native Sons Parlors (not including the San Francisco joint and the Alameda joint) have contributed this year, leaving thirty-seven Parlors which contributed last year not contributing this year; thirty-one Parlors of Native Daughters have contributed this year, still leaving sixty-one Parlors which contributed last year to hear from. Four of the joint Parlors have contributed this year, leaving fourteen not yet heard from this year. By these figures, you will see that there is much to be done during the remaining few days of the fiscal year if "every member is to be a contributor."

As Editor Hunt has kindly offered space, we shall publish in the next issue of The Grizzly Bear a list of the contributions received to date from the Parlors.

To those who are resting in the belief that their Parlor's contribution has been sent, this list may bring to light that there has been a mistake somewhere—yours or the Central Committee's—and we shall then know about it before April 1, 1939.

The budget was fixed last year at $19,545. The receipts to date have been $7,812.07. That means $11,732.93 is needed to meet the budget.

There was a wonderful demonstration of the happiness of families with their children at Christmas and New Year through visits to the central office, and in the avalanche of beautiful pictures. One shows four children now grown to womanhood—a bride and her sister, a bridesmaid, of one foster family; a bridesmaid of another foster home, and a flower girl of another foster home.

Vice-chairman Martin J. Dinkelspiel has been faithful to the request of his father, the late Henry G. W. Dinkelspiel, for many years identified with this work, that he do his full part in aiding the cause of the homeless children. Dinkelspiel has about reached the conclusion that natural parents do not stand a chance, in competition with foster parents. However, a Christmas greeting photograph of his family was sent as a reminder that very fine children sometimes are born to natural parents, and that they really measure up fairly well.

MOTHERHOOD

(IDA M. STOCKTON.)

When God places in your keeping
A baby beautiful to see,
The love that fills a mother's bosom
Cannot be expressed by you or me.

You may mold that little image
As an artist does his clay,
But leave God out of the molding
And it soon will show decay.

(Ida M. Stockton, the writer of these lines, which were originally published in "American Lyric Poetry," is affiliated with Vendome Parlor No. 100 N.D.G.W. of San Jose.—Editor.)

"The first lesson of life is to burn our own smoke; that is, not to inflict on outsiders our personal sorrows and petty morbidness, not to keep thinking of ourselves as exceptional cases."
—James Russell Lowell.

THE FLOAT, "GOLDEN BOW OF MEMORIES," ENTERED IN THE PASADENA TOURnament of Roses parade January 2 by the Interparlor Committee of the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West, Fred T. Leonetti chairman, was awarded first prize in "Class C," which included fraternal, patriotic, educational and musical organizations. This being the golden jubilee, fiftieth annual parade, of the Tournament of Roses, the theme for this year's most colorful spectacle was "Golden Memories."

The Natives' float, in the decoration of which some 70,000 flowers were used, depicted the bow which ties together fifty years of golden memories. The design consisted of a golden yellow ribbon made into a huge bow, with the streamer extending the full length of the float, twenty-seven feet. The bow and streamer were done in yellow pompon chrysanthemums, with bronze chrysanthemums for shading, and the background was of maroon pompon chrysanthemums. The side drapes were in green, and the lettering, "Native Sons & Daughters of the Golden West," was in yellow pompons. On the float were five beautiful California-born young women attired in white, Wanda Walker, Ida May Lane, Muriel Thompkinson, Katherine Higham and Helen Higham. This was the Natives' first entry in the annual Pasadena Tournament of Roses for fifteen years. The float was designed by Clifford Prothero, a student at the Pasadena Junior College.

DINNER-DANCE AT WILSHIRE BOWL.

The Los Angeles N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Joint Homeless Children Committee, Mrs. Betty Marshall Graydon chairman, is sponsoring a fashionable dinner-dance at the Wilshire Bowl February 21 at 8 p.m. Phil Harris' orchestra will provide the music, and an elaborate floor show will be presented. Primarily, the purpose of the affair is to raise money, and also to publicize the homeless children work of the Orders. Admission, $2.50 per person.

Mayor Fletcher Bowron of Ramona Parlor N.S.G.W. has set aside Tuesday, February 21, as "Native Sons and Daughters Homeless Children Day." The committee in charge of arrangements for the dinner-dance includes Mrs. Harriette Matson of Los Angeles Parlor N.D., P. E. DeCatte of Los Angeles Parlor N.S., Ellery Cuff and Vincent Vanderbosch of Hollywood Parlor N.S. and Joe Hiss of University Parlor N.S. Many prominent Natives will act as patrons and patronesses.—H.M.

COMING FEATURES UNFOLDED.

President Anna T. Schiebusch of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. started the new year with many very interesting plans which were unfolded at a lovely officers dinner January 17 at the Women's Athletic Club at which Miss Schiebusch was the hostess. Among events to be featured are a spring fashion show and bridge tea, participation in the dedication of the imposing new Federal Building and the plaquing of San Fernando Mission.

January 21 the Parlor's sewing club, headed by Mrs. Mildred Ripling, met for luncheon, featuring dishes of Mexico and early California, met at the Pasadena home of Mrs. Harriette Matson. President Schiebusch and Mrs. Edna T. Neikirk assisted the hostess. January 18 the Parlor was hostess to a great number of members of other Parlors. The attraction was the showing of Hamilton H. Jones' prize-winning picture, "Canadian Rockies Holidays."

February 15 Los Angeles will have a program of special interest to those interested in secretarial work and executive positions. Program Chairman Olinda Kerby is making the arrangements.—H.M.

GOLD DISCOVERY CELEBRATED.

At its January 27 gathering, the N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon Club celebrated the ninety-first anniversary of the discovery of gold by James Wilson Marshall at Coloma, El Dorado County. Captain William J. Bright was chairman of the day, and the speaker was Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer.

The club assembles every Friday in room 1126 of the Rosslyn Hotel, Fifth and Main streets, at

FLAGS PRESENTED CLUB.

San Pedro—Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the Wilmington 20-30 Club January 17. Leo V. Youngworth made the presentation address, which was responded to by Bob Bagdasar, president of the club and a prominent member of the Parlor. Deputy Grand President William A. Reuter made the arrangements.

January 20, Stephen M. White entertained a large number of members of the Order at a delicious lobster dinner. Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards was the guest of honor, and following the feast paid his official visit to the Parlor. Initiation was held, and some enthusiastic talks were heard with pleasure. February 10 the Parlor will stage an entertainment with pleasant surprises.

The Parlor entertained over 200 guests at a Christmas party December 23. The hall was gaily decorated, and a large tree gave the surroundings a Yuletide atmosphere. All "kiddies" received gifts and candy. Hampton Noergaard was chairman of the happy affair.

NEIGHBORS VISITED.

San Pedro — Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. had a handkerchief shower January 12 for Lucy Ascolesi, Irene Carrese, Roberta Dalen, Dessie Buyo and Virginia Bruckner, whose birthdays occurred during the month. Refreshments were served by Chairman Ann Menveg. Several members of the Parlor attended the installation of Long Beach Parlor January 5 and Compton Parlor January 24.

The Florencita Thimble Club, an auxiliary of the Parlor, had its first meeting of the new year at the home of Dessie Buyo. Marcella Sandoval was appointed buyer, and Catherine Hackett and Rowena Berenstein were named co-chairmen of publicity.—R.B.

LOOKING FORWARD.

Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. January 10 changed its meeting-place to the Ruskin Art Club, Eighth street and Plymouth boulevard. The first meeting will be held there February 14, when Past President Marcella Palethorpe and committee will serve a Valentine luncheon. Officers of the Parlor, with Marion Johnson retained as president, were installed by Deputy Leola Temby, assisted by Frances Galvin and Eugenia Smith. Following the meeting Chairman Edith Adams and the hospitality committee were hostesses at tea honoring the new officers.

January 24, Californiana had a round-table meeting at the home of Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg. She presented a program woven around the thrilling pastime of skiing. January 16 the Gertrude Sewing Circle was entertained Miss Minnie Joughin at a delicious luncheon. Much good work was accomplished during the day.

A coming event being looked forward to with pleasure by members of Californiana and their "boy" friends will be a Spanish supper sponsored by Ruth Bilger and the ways and means committee at the Phi Omega Pi Sorority House, 856 Hilgard avenue, Westwood, February 11, 6:30 p.m. Dancing and games will provide pleasant recreation.—O.L.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Los Angeles—Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 will be officially visited by Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards February 2. Several candidates will be initiated, entertainment will be provided and refreshments will be served. January 26 the Parlor had a sport dance—the second in a series to raise funds for the San Francisco Admission Day celebration.

Los Angeles—At well-attended public ceremonies, the officers of Ramona Parlor No. 109, with O. Benton Worley as president, were installed by District Deputy Roy W. Tarleton January 13. On the Parlor's behalf Clarence S. Hunt presented a past president emblem to Hervey L. Kitchin, who feelingly responded. Refreshments were served. January 20, Ramona initiated several candidates.

Los Angeles—Officers of Hollywood Parlor No. 196 and Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 were jointly installed at public ceremonies January 19. District Deputy George LaRue, assisted by Phil Molen and Lester Henderson, officiated, and Albert Sandoval and Robt. L. Jack became the respective presidents. Entertainment and refreshments followed the ceremonies.

Glendale—At a well-attended meeting of Glendale No. 264 N.S.G.W. January 17, Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards paid his official visit to the Parlor. Officers were installed by District

Among the many friends who called at the Going home to offer congratulations and to extend best wishes for a long continuation of their journey through life were Mrs. Catherine Muldoon-Hewitt of Los Gatos, sister of Mrs. Going, and Mrs. Margaret Fraser of Sacramento, both of whom were in attendance at the marriage ceremony a half-century ago.

Grand Officers Initiate.

Santa Cruz—The grand officers ritual team initiated a class of candidates January 11 for the Parlors of Santa Cruz and Monterey Counties—six for Santa Cruz No. 90, four for Gabilan No. 132 of Castroville and one for Watsonville No. 65. The ritual was exemplified by the following: Grand Secretary John T. Regan, president; Past Grand Harmon D. Skillin, junior past grand; Deputy Grand President James F. Stanley, senior past president; Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller, first vice-president; Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, second vice-president; Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove, third vice-president; Grand Trustee Wayne R. Millington, marshal; Supervising Deputy Cornelius J. Ryan, inside sentinel; Grand Organist George Cuthbertson, organist.

Among the speakers were Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Vices Miller and Schnarr, and Past Grand Skillin. At the meeting's conclusion a banquet was enjoyed.

Horseshoe Tournament.

Ferndale—With Ferndale No. 93 as host, officers of that Parlor and Oneonta No. 71 N.D.G.W. were jointly installed January 16 at impressive ceremonies conducted by Deputies A. W. Johnson and Christine Murray. Felix Zana and Mabel Titus became the respective presidents. Concluding the ceremonies, dancing and cards were in order, and refreshments were served.

The Native Sons Parlors of Humboldt County—Humboldt No. 14 of Eureka, Arcata No. 20 and Ferndale—are now playing a horseshoe tournament, with Humboldt in the lead. The contest is scheduled to run through February and March. Ferndale won the last contest.

Grand First Vice to Officially Visit.

San Francisco—Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller will officially visit the Subordinate Parlors in his visiting district on the dates noted:

February—3rd, Fruitvale No. 252, Oakland; 8th, Sutter Fort No. 241, Sacramento; 16th, Balboa No. 234, San Francisco; 20th, Calistoga No. 86, Calistoga; 23rd, San Francisco No. 49, San Francisco.

March—2nd, Lower Lake No. 159, Lower Lake; 7th, Athens No. 195, Oakland; 15th, Mission No. 38, San Francisco; 16th, El Dorado No. 52, San Francisco, 21st, Dolores No. 208, San Francisco; 29th, Rincon No. 72, San Francisco.

April—4th, El Carmelo No. 256, Daly City

1938 Best in Ten Years.

Sacramento—The stockholders of the Native Sons Hall Association of Sacramento met January 11 and elected the following officers and directors: John J. Monteverde Sr., president; L. P. Ferron, vice-president; H. B. Wittpen, treasurer; Percy G. West, secretary, for the thirty-second consecutive year; Hugh B. Bradford, J. Frank Didion, Roy C. Cothrin, Al Schaden, Jas. Fitzhenry, John J. Monteverde Jr. and E. T. Griffing, directors.

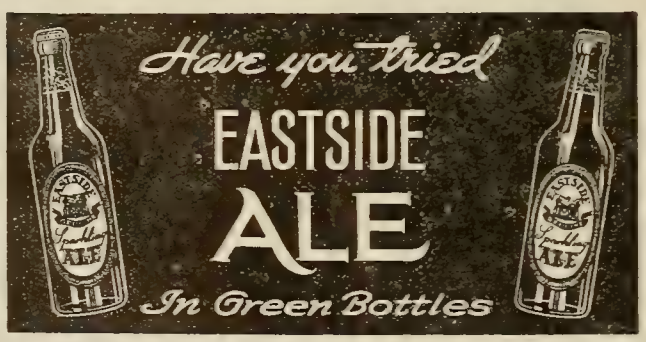
The Association had the best year in a decade last year, $14,000 of the debt on the property having been liquidated. New stock was sold, and it is hoped that during 1939 sufficient additional stock can be sold to reduce the mortgage to $40,000.

To Dedicate Public School.

Fort Bragg—Sunday, February 5, under the auspices of Alder Glen No. 200, the grand officers will dedicate the Fort Bragg High School. The principal speakers on the program will be Grand President Joseph J. McShane and Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller. Assisting at the dedicatory ceremonies will be Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Grand Marshal Harold Zimmerman.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Sacramento—At joint ceremonies January 12 the officers of Sacramento No. 3 and Sunset No. 26, with Eugene McPoil and William Wood as the respective presidents, were installed by Deputies Dr. Harold H. Wilson and Melvin Nethercott. During the evening several candidates were initiated.



Sutter Creek—Grand Trustee Walter Rothenbush officially visited the Amador County Parlors—Amador No. 17 of Sutter Creek, Excelsior No. 31 of Jackson, Ione No. 33 and Plymouth No. 48—in joint session here January 20. Initiation was held and refreshments were served.

San Jose—Fred L. Thomas of San Jose No. 22, just completing his thirteenth year as district attorney of Santa Clara County, died December 29. He was a native of Gold Run, Placer County, aged 64. A wife and two children survive.

Ione—Officers of Ione No. 33 and Chispa No. 40 N.D.G.W. were jointly installed by Deputies George Tonzi and Grace Miller January 10, Herbert Bennetts and Edna Kretcher becoming the respective presidents. President Bennetts acted as master of ceremonies, and among the speakers were Past Grand Ella E. Caminetti and Supervising Deputy Emma Boarman Wright of the Native Daughters. A delicious supper was served at the meeting's close. The joint arrangements committee included Herbert Bennetts, Joseph Saunders, Wm. Prouty, Earl Grover, Myrtle Tonzi, Florence Thompson, Anni Siligo, Laura Prouty, Cynthia Phillips and Sophia Hammer.

Elk Grove—Officers of Elk Grove No. 41 and Liberty No. 213 N.D.G.W. were jointly installed January 13. Deputies Melvin Nethercott and Ethel Miller officiated, and Artis Ronk and Ma Rhoades became the respective presidents.

SAN FRANCISCO

THE ELEVENTH ANNIVERSARY OF the opening of the N D G W. Home was observed at a breakfast January 8 at which twenty-four Subordinate Parlors were represented. A welcome was extended by Past Grand Evelyn I. Carlson, chairman of the occasion, prayer was offered by Senior Past Grand Carrie Roesch-Durham, and the flag salute was led by Grand Marshal Clarice E. Cook. The following telegram of regret from Grand President Edna B. Briggs was read: "Congratulations on this auspicious occasion. The Home is a credit to San Francisco architecturally, and to the Order for its contribution to the happiness, convenience and service of its members. Warm personal greetings to you all."

The guest speaker, Harold R. Davis, discoursed on the Golden Gate International Exposition and its guaranteed effect upon San Francisco's and California's future prosperity. Musical selections were rendered by Miss Mafalda Guaraglia, Paul Weber and Betty Duncan. Other speakers were Mrs. Harold P. Dyer, Past Grands Dr. Mariana Bertola, Carrie Durham and Mamie Peyton. The day being the birth anniversary of Mrs. Durham, members of the Grand Parlor Home Committee presented her with a scarf. The ceremonies concluded with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the assemblage, accompanied by Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe.

Among the others in attendance were Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, mother, father and husband, Grand Trustees Emily E. Ryan, Alice Oldham and Ethel C. Enos, Grand Inside Sentinel Loretta Cameron and mother, Past Grands Mae B. Wilkin, Genevieve Watson-Baker and May C. Boldemann, Supervising Deputy Anne Godfrey and fourteen San Francisco deputies.—E.G.F.

HISTORIC EVENT COMMEMORATED.

The ninety first anniversary of the world-famous discovery of gold at Coloma, El Dorado County, by James W. Marshall,—January 24, 1848, that brought California into the Union, was commemorated by the San Francisco Native Sons at a largely attended banquet in Native Sons Building January 24. Past Grand Lewis F. Byington presided, and among the speakers was Grand President Joseph J McShane.

The year 1939 marks not only that historic event, but also the one hundredth anniversary of the arrival of John A. Sutter in California and the Golden Gate International Exposition. This year, also, the State Park Commission will begin proceedings to take over the site of Sutter's Mill, where Marshall made his sensational gold find.

N.D.G.W. NEWS PARAGRAPHS.

With Mrs. Catherine Cobb as president, officers of Orinda Parlor No. 56 were publicly installed January 27. Dancing followed the ceremonies. Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini was chairman of the evening. Members of the Parlor distributed gifts to the boys and girls in wards 29 and 30 of the San Francisco Hospital at Christmas time.—I.P.

Officers of El Vespero Parlor No. 118 and South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed at public ceremonies January 25. Deputies Ruth Trousdale and Bernard Dillon officiated, and Judge George W. Schonfeld was master of ceremonies. At the conclusion of the ceremonies dancing was in order.

Officers of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 and Golden Gate Parlor No. 29 N.S.G.W. were publicly installed at joint ceremonies January 9. Many, many friends were present to greet the respective presidents, Sara Ellen Bennett and Harold Gaetjen. January 16 the drill team of No. 158, which is very busy preparing to participate in the opening of the Golden Gate Exposition, enjoyed a social at the home of Chairman Ellen Kinsley. Sixty members of No. 158 enjoyed a banquet January 19 in celebration of the Parlor's thirty-first birthday anniversary. Charter members and Deputy Emma O'Meara were honored guests.—B.M.N.

Deputy Evelyn Brady publicly installed the officers of Dolores Parlor No. 169, January 14, Norma Wendt becoming president. Entertainment was provided and refreshments were served. Past Grand Evelyn I. Carlson was chairman of the evening. The outgoing president, Audrey Becker, was given a farewell party January 11. January 25 the Parlor sponsored a white elephant whist.—L.J.N.

Some 175 members of the Order attended the meeting of Twin Peaks No. 185 at which Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit to the Parlor. Reference, in her address, to Golden Gate Park, was received with decided favor. A pleasant and memorable evening was made more so by the attendance of Organizer Delia Konietzke, Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, Grand Marshal Clarice Cook, Grand Treasurer Agnes Curry, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan, Ethel Enos and Alice Oldham, Past Grands Ethel Begley and Evelyn Carlson, and Grand Inside Sentinel Loretta M. Cameron. Dinner was served previous to the meeting, and at its close refreshments were served at lovely decorated tables presided over by members of the drill team.—E.H.

Utopia Parlor No. 252 had a Christmas tree party for members and their children December 27. The children provided entertainment, Santa Claus distributed gifts, and refreshments were served by Mary Reed, Helena Joy and Gladys Cook. January 12 President Esther Schwenger entertained the Parlor members at a sociable. -K.G.

At the January meeting of the Extension of the Order Committee a shower of baby garments for the Central Homeless Children Committee was featured. Members were very generous with their gifts, and Past Grand Anne C. Thuesen, chairman, made a happy response. Ruby Bried, assisted by members of El Vespero Parlor No. 118, enacted an appropriate skit. A guessing

CALIFORNIA FIFTY YEARS AGO

Thomas W. McAuliffe

Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

THE COLUSA AND CHICO STAGE, driven by George McShune, was crossing the Sacramento River at Butte City, Glenn County, on a ferryboat February 4, 1889, when the cable parted and the boat sank. The horses were drowned, and the stage with all its contents, including the mail, were lost.

A passenger train was held up at Pixley, Tulare County, February 22 by two masked robbers. They threw a bomb under the express car, compelling the messenger to open the door, and killed a passenger, Charles Gabert.

Citizens of Santa Ana were rampant for county division. A bill was before the State Legislature, in session at Sacramento, to divide Los Angeles County and create Orange County. The leading merchants of Westminster declared that but five names were secured for the remonstrance against division, and but one of those parties was a taxpayer and only two had paid polltax. The bill, proposed by Assemblyman Edwards, passed the Assembly February 18.

Assemblyman Starke of Santa Barbara County created a sensation in the Assembly of the State Legislature February 14 by reading a batch of letters said to have passed between Warden John McComb of San Quentin State Prison, Deputy Captain of the Guard Ben Chambers and Prison Director J. J. Scrivener. The letters were supposed to have been stolen by a convict.

New postoffices were this month established at Bend, Siskiyou County, and Bitter Water, San Benito County.

Rain, welcomed by the farmers with open arms, was general throughout the state February 15 and 24.

San Bernardino, Colton and Los Angeles experienced earthquake shocks February 6. A shake at San Jacinto, Riverside County, caused a ballroom panic.

G. W. Hunter was appointed superior judge of Humboldt County, to succeed J. J. DeHaven, elected to the Federal House of Representatives.

Dr. F. L. Luber of Orange, while hunting on Newport Bay February 17, was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun.

The business portion of Guerneville, Sonoma County, was destroyed by fire February 20. Every saloon in the town went up in smoke, but the only church was saved.

L. J. Rose of Los Angeles sold February 20 his celebrated trotting stallion Stamboul to W. S. Hobart of San Francisco for $50,000.

James C. Flood of the Mackay-Fair-Flood-O'Brien quartet that took $250,000,000 from the Comstock mine, died February 21 at Heidelberg, Germany. He was the founder of the Flood estate in San Francisco.

San Diego celebrated the completion of the great tunnel, costing $900,000, that extends from the western slope of the Cuyamaca Mountains to an elevation of 4,500 feet—a distance of about fifty miles. In its building, 9,000,000 feet of lumber was used.

Mrs. Rossanah McIntyre, better known as "Auntie," died February 20 at Galt, Sacramento County, where she had resided since 1849.

Jean Louis Sansevain, pioneer viticulturist, died February 24 at Los Angeles. In 1843 he had a sawmill in Santa Cruz County.

Night Clerk Jim Kirk admitted February 25 purloining $5,000 from the Nadeau Hotel, Los Angeles.

In a quarrel over a card game at Bakersfield, Kern County, February 6, Thomas Hughes shot and killed Thomas Dunlap.

State Senator Moffitt purchased the Oakland Times, and W. A. Boyce and J. B. Smythe purchased the San Jose Times during the month.

Boilermakers at the Risdon Iron Works, San Francisco, went out on strike February 1.

George W. Beattie was elected treasurer of San Bernardino County to succeed Hardin Yager, deceased.

Former Police Chief Cuddy of Los Angeles was February 13 sentenced to six months in the county jail for attempting to bribe a juror.

Joaquin Miller donated to Oakland February 1 fifteen acres of Alameda County woodland for a public park.

W. Marm, former Placer County treasurer, died February 4 at Auburn.

Kern County was reported to be on the eve of an oil and natural gas boom.

Los Angeles' new City Hall was this month found to be unsafe.

One of the men employed in excavating for San Francisco's new City Hall unearthed five twenty-dollar gold pieces of the vintages of 1860, 1861 and 1862.

The United States Land Office February 7 awarded to J. B. Hobson mineral land which included the townsite of Iowa Hill, Placer County.

In a shooting affray at Letter Rock, Plumas County, February 6, E. K. Williams shot John Reid, and was, in turn, shot by a man named Fugmon.

At Washington's Birthday, February 22, exercises in the first grade of the Capital Grammar School of Sacramento, Joseph W. Johnson principal, Clarence M. Hunt [since February 1908 managing editor The Grizzly Bear] recited "The National Banner."

The Midwinter Fair of the Santa Clara County Horticultural Association opened February 11 at San Jose.

The San Diego Sun was purchased and merged with the San Diego Union February 10.

A new Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West was instituted February 7 at Arroyo Grande, San Luis Obispo County.

G. Baggs, California Pioneer who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died February 12 at El Paso, Texas State.

The phonograph, claimed to be an aid to business and a wonderful labor time saver, was being introduced to Californians this month.

In a drunken row at Placerville, El Dorado County, February 14, Jack Windin was stabbed and killed by Robert Petrie.

Managing Editor J. L. Robinson of the Alta and Reporter F. K. Lane of the Chronicle came to blows on the streets of San Francisco, February 14.

Pasadena, Los Angeles County, opened its new $1,000,000 opera house February 15.

The last spike was driven February 9 on the Sonoma and Ukiah extension of the Donohue railroad line.

Patrick Ryan was brutally murdered February 15 in his Benicia, Solano County, saloon.

Two thieves robbed the Montgomery-street, San Francisco, assay office of F. Reichling of a $4,000 gold bar February 7.

Clovis Terrence LaGrave, charter member of Ione Parlor No. 33 N.S.G.W. and editor of the Ione Echo, was representing Amador County in the State Legislature at Sacramento. Reporters referred to him as "The youthful chairman of the printing and supplies committee."

Superior Judge C. A. Marks of Merced County was held up by footpads in Merced City February 15 and relieved of $17.

By pouring coaloil upon he floor of a vacant room of the second floor, an unsuccessful attempt was made February 20 to burn the Bank of Central California building at Fresno.

Emma Bennett, saleswoman in a San Francisco Jap store, February 20 twice shot Emmanuel Davis and then committed suicide.

S. L. Hazard was February 21 elected mayor of Los Angeles by a majority of 2,500.

CITY AND COUNTY — THE GATE WAY TO GOLDEN CALIFORNIA

IF YOU PITY THE HOUSEWIFE TROUBLED with moths in the clothes closet, shed also a tear for the orange grower who must combat the Orange Tortrix, one of the many insect pests that give California orchardists premature gray hair. This insect is of economic importance to the citrus industry because it scars and eats holes in the fruit, thereby damaging the fruit or causing it to become a total loss.

As much as 40 percent of a crop has been lost through damage by this pest, which was first reported injurious to citrus as early as 1885 in southern California. Since that time it has appeared in destructive numbers every few years in the principal citrus-growing sections in the southern part of the state, especially in the coastal regions. Research and special study of this citrus-destroying moth is carried on at the University of California Citrus Experiment Station, Riverside.

JOINT INSTALLATION.

San Bernardino—Officers of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. and Santa Ana Parlor No. 265 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed January 11 by District Deputy Walter E. Hiskey, assisted by District Deputy Eugene C. Somerby. Refreshments followed the ceremonies.

January 4 the Parlor was officially visited by Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, who spoke enthusiastically of the Order's progress.

PLANS TO PRESENT FLAG.

Ontario—Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. was visited January 12 by Supervising Deputy Eva Bemis and Deputy Thelma Nett. Through Civic Chairman Wilma Tucker, the Parlor is planning to present a United States of America Flag to the new Chaffey Auditorium at the dedication ceremonies March 17. To raise necessary funds, Ontario will sponsor a theater party the middle of February.

SEWING CLUB BUSY.

San Bernardino—Supervising Deputy Hazel Hansen and Deputy Dorothy Ravn visited Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. January 11 and witnessed a mock initiation.

The sewing club put in all day January 12 sewing at the home of Mary Hiler. Thirty-five were in attendance, and enjoyed the potluck luncheon.—H.P.

California in 1853 gave to the several counties for public school purposes $50,696; San Francisco County headed the list, receiving $16,037, and Los Angeles County was third, getting $4,019. In 1938, the state gave the counties about $85,081,800 for school purposes.

VALENTINE DANCE.

With Dorris Forbes as chairman, La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. will give its first annual Valentine dance Saturday evening, February 18, at the California Country Club. The affair is to be semi-formal, and excellent music will be provided. Bids at $1.50 may be purchased at the door or from members of the Parlor. All Natives and their friends are invited.

The Parlor had its first Christmas party December 22, with Victoria Wolfskill as Mrs. Santa Claus. After the festivities the tree, gifts and food were sent to a poor family.

CALIFORNIA HISTORY REVIEWED.

Santa Monica—With Charter Member Ralph Eisenhart as president, officers of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. were publicly installed January 20 by District Deputy Clarence S. Hunt. A diamond-studded emblematic pin was presented Senior Past President Robert W. Garey, and a gift was presented by the drum and bugle corps to its majorette, Miss Muriel Walter. Entertainment, dancing and refreshments followed the installation ceremonies.

At the court of honor for advancement and awards for special attainments, Santa Monica Troop No. 10 Boy Scouts of America, sponsored by the Parlor, received the attendance award over all others by 260 percent. Sam Scragg is the scoutmaster.

Santa Monica Elks Lodge No. 906 featured a California history night January 19, and Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer of No. 267 was chairman of the evening and the principal speaker. In his review he referred particularly to the discovery of gold at Coloma, El Dorado County, in 1848, the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of Sacramento and the admission of California to Statehood September 9, 1850.

February 9, Santa Monica Bay Parlor will initiate a class of candidates. The Booster Club of the Parlor will sponsor a smoker February 16. A big show will be featured. All Native Sons invited. The place, Native Sons Hall, 1334½ Fifth street.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS TOLD BY SPEAKERS.

Long Beach—With many guests in attendance from Santa Ana, San Pedro, Los Angeles and Glendale, the officers of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. were publicly installed January 5. Deputy Marguerite Mize, assisted by officers of Santa Ana Parlor, officiated, and Josephine Peirson Reichman became the new president. The officers-elect were attired in white formals and carried arm boquets of red. Huge white baskets of beautiful flowers adorned the meetingroom.

Junior Past President Eugenia Smith was chairman of the evening. Short talks on the Order's accomplishments were given by Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg and Supervising Deputy Hazel Hansen, and vocal solos were rendered by Elenore Starr, accompanied by Helen Suggs. On the Parlor's behalf, Chairman Smith presented an emblematic ring to Past President Johanna Reed. Girls from Golden Bear Scout Troop, sponsored by the Parlor, assisted Myrtle Brooks and committee in serving refreshments.

Long Beach is arranging for a series of card parties. Commencing February 15 the third Thursday of each month is to be given over to the celebration of the members' birthdays. R.H.J.

MANY WITNESS INSTALLATION.

Compton—At impressive public ceremonies attended by more than 100, the officers of Compton Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W. were installed January 3 by District Deputy Clarence S. Hunt. Police Sergeant William Don Castillo is the new president. On the Parlor's behalf, District Deputy Roy W. Tarleton presented a gift to Senior Past President Fred J. Smith. Previous to the installation ceremonies a delicious dinner was served by a committee headed by A. R. Tarleton.

Compton No. 273 and Compton Parlor No. 258 N.D.G.W. sponsored a largely attended Christmas party. The evening was given over completely to merry-making, and a fine program was presented. Santa Claus, in the person of George Olmsted, presented juvenile gifts to both children and adults. Refreshments were served by the Native Daughters. The joint committee of arrangements included Wm. Don Castillo, chairman, Hector Hecock, Frank Tarleton, Mary Hecock and Florence Letterman.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Robert L. Kelly (Ramona NS) has been advanced to the presidency of the General Paper Company.

Miss Nelle Cull Nisbet (Los Angeles ND) was wedded at Yuma, Arizona State, to Ernest Willard Graves December 26.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

"OFFICERS AND MEMBERS SUBORDINATE Parlors Native Daughters Golden West—Dear Sisters: Your Grand President sends greetings to you this month of February. Wherever we turn, we see charming and delightful evidences of the harbingers of Spring. Budding trees and flowering plants tell us another season is approaching. However, February is distinguished to us Americans for other more important reasons. It has given to us two great Presidents, who proved to be not only national characters but men greatly beloved internationally:

"Washington showed his dramatic executive ability when he took the thirteen colonies and brought them under a single and unique form of government known to the world as the United States of America. Lincoln gave us another example of inspirational executive ability when he re-created the Union and settled the differences of the North and the South. The lives of these great men afford an opportunity for study in character that increases in beauty and nobility throughout the ages.

"We Native Daughters can lend our support to all civic affairs given in honor of the two Presidents and, by so doing, will help develop a greater and finer Americanism. It is a continual source of inspiration to the youth, as well as to the entire citizenry, of our country to do honor to our first martyred president.

"I trust that the Spring season will bring a new impetus to all your activities. With the best of good wishes to you all, I am

"Sincerely and Fraternally yours,
"EDNA B. BRIGGS,
"Grand President N.D.G.W.

"Sacramento, January 13, 1939."

"Christmas Through the Ages."

Salinas—At impressive ceremonies conducted in a lodgeroom where snow-covered pine trees and "snow men" formed a typical January setting, Deputy Alta Trowbridge installed the officers of Aleli No. 102, with Mrs. Vira Albaugh as president. A program was presented by Mms. Ramona Jansen and Julia Larkin, and Miss Pauline Holm, and January birthdays were observed.

In a special ceremony, twelve members, attired in costumes representing the months of the year, presented gifts to Deputy Trowbridge and Junior Past President Mary Slibsager. Refreshments were served at tables decorated with pine boughs, tapers and favors. Miss Gertrude Nicolay headed the committee in charge of arrangements for the evening.

Aleli featured its Christmas program December 22, when "Christmas Through the Ages"—scenes of the Nativity, persecutions in the Roman era, and Russian and German yuletide observances—was staged. Participating were Mms. Ramona Jansen, Gladys Dodd, Evelyn Schiro, Claire Paulsen, Claire Lanini, Mildred Peers and Julia Larkin. At the program's close refreshments were served at tables set to form a cross and decorated with sprays of redwoods, alternated with tiny modernistic Christmas trees of red and green sparkling with colored stars. At each place was a candle of red or green in a candy holder.—M.H.P.

Impressive Installation Ceremonies.

Chico—The officers of Annie K. Bidwell No. 168, with Mrs. Harriett Hannis as president, were installed January 12 in the beautiful Native Daughter Hall, made more lovely with decorations of blue and gold, and crowded with local friends and visitors as well as those from Oroville and Willows. The impressive ceremonies were conducted by Deputy Ryllis Murphy, assisted by the officers of Berryessa No. 192 of Willows, and an escort team of lovely young women attired in formals and carrying beautiful silk muffs of gold.

A past president pin was presented Olive Pearl, and lovely gifts were presented Supervising Deputy Laura Anderson, Deputy Murphy, Retiring President Flora Detrick and President Hannis. Betty Eris Hannis, the talented young daughter of the new president, entertained with songs beautifully rendered; she was accompanied on the violin and the piano, respectively, by her sister, Nadine, and Betty Eris. Refreshments, talks and community singing were enjoyed in the beautifully decorated diningroom. Committee chairmen who made arrangements for the enjoyable occasion were Cora Hintz, refreshments; Annie Stockstill, decorations, and Olive Pearl, entertainment. January 26 the Parlor featured "Everybody's Happy Meeting."—O.P.

Public Reception for Grand President.

Sacramento—La Bandera No. 110 was honored by the presence of Grand President Edna B. Briggs, a member of the Parlor, at the January 20 installation of officers. She was escorted to her high station by eighteen members gowned in net formals over satin and wearing the pearl necklaces presented them by Mrs. Briggs when she was inducted into office at Santa Barbara. Others escorted by the team were Past Grand Dr. Eva R. Rasmussen, Supervising Deputy Lucille Huntoon and Deputy Sylvia Dusdale.

Deputy Dusdale officiated at the installation ceremonies, and Miss Edna Dorothy Thomas, a niece of the Grand President, became the president of La Bandera. Decorations for the occasion were carried out in red and white. Arrangements for the evening were made by a committee which included Mrs. Flora A. Schmittgen and Miss Marion Lund, co-chairman, Mms. Alphonsine Dempsey, Adrienne Danielson, Virginia Vienna, Elsie O'Brien, Martha Hood, Genevieve Didion and Charlotte Kirtlan, and Miss Sophie Cecchettini.

La Bandera is making elaborate arrangements for a public reception and dance in honor of Grand President Briggs at the Tuesday Clubhouse February 4. Invitations have been extended all grand officers, Subordinate Parlors and numerous individuals. Mrs. Genevieve Didion is in charge of arrangements.—F.A.S.

THE ALLIED "BIRTHRIGHT" ORDERS of the Channel City—Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W.—January 21 pledged themselves anew to the betterment projects which they carry on jointly, installed officers with impressive ceremony and danced out the evening in a beautiful ballroom.

The installation ceremony was a new one, adopted by the Native Sons last May at their Grand Parlor in San Jose, and by the Native Daughters at their memorable Grand Parlor in Santa Barbara last June. Marked from their inception as bridge-building units in community life, an interesting cross-section of Santa Barbara responded to invitation to witness the impressive ritual carried out by the officers of the two Parlors.

Present by invitation were officers of the city and the county, representatives of the churches, the service and the womens clubs, of the Chambers of Commerce and the Convention Bureau, of the Bar Association, the schools, the social agencies and the Community Chest. They heard the allied Natives pledge themselves anew to the placement of homeless children through their joint agency, to history preservation, to better government and, above all, to the preservation of the history that is the region's priceless heritage.

Supervising Deputy Mrs. John D. Ross and Historian Paul Sweetser were co-chairmen of the occasion. Father Louis Schoen pronounced an invocation, and Larry Butler sang "Our Father." Deputies Mrs. Wesley McCormick and A. C. Dinsmore conducted the installation ceremonies, and Mrs. Eugene Ireland and Othis F. Huffman became presidents of Reina del Mar and Santa Barbara, respectively. Past president emblems were presented Mrs. Dorothy Yule, by Miss Edna Sharpe, and A. J. Janssens, by Leland Holiday.

Superior Judge Louis Drapeau of Ventura, a leader in the recent revival of Cabrillo Parlor No. 114 in the neighboring city, the speaker of the evening, was introduced to the assemblage by Judge Atwell Westwick of the Santa Barbara Superior court. He stressed the responsibilities of the Orders of N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. to the State of California in the matter "of making our objectives reflect what our Pioneers gave us." Santa Barbara Parlor is entering its fifty-third year of community activity, and Reina del Mar Parlor is in its thirty-ninth year.

LONG SERVICE OF FAITHFUL SERVANT.

Harry C. Sweetser, for a quarter-century the faithful and efficient recording secretary of Santa Barbara Parlor N.S.G.W. and since its inception vice-president of the Old Spanish Days Fiesta, January 5 completed his thirty-second year as tax collector of Santa Barbara County.

poppies brightened the table. Miss Tillie Brohaska impersonated Santa Claus, and Mrs. Ward Farnsworth was in charge of the program, in which the following participated: Miss Wilda Enos, Mms. Leslie Bullock and Margaret Cobb, and Supervising Deputy Katherine Nelson. Miss Dorothy Salas and Mrs. Susie Mattei, chairmen, respectively, of the Parlor's homeless children and veterans welfare committees, gave reports on the fine work being done by those agencies.—I.M.S.

Hollister.—Copa de Oro No. 105 observed the Yuletide with a Christmas tree, holiday games and carols December 21. Santa Claus Hilda Bell distributed gifts from a gaily decorated tree, and refreshments were served at tables adorned in the holiday motif. Shut-in members were remembered with bright potted plants. As a courtesy, the Parlor adjourned its January 4 meeting to attend installation of San Juan Bautista No. 179's officers. The ceremonies were conducted by Deputy Mary Gregory Antonetti, assisted by officers of Santa Cruz No. 26 attired in white, and wearing draped Spanish shawls as a tribute to the "little town of history." A buffet supper concluded the evening.

San Luis Obispo—Officers of San Luisita No. 108, with Anna Schlicht as president, were installed by Deputy Muriel Soto January 16. Sweetpeas in pastel shades added a dainty touch to the table at which refreshments were served. With President Schlicht as the general chairman, a public card party was held January 30. San Luisita will observe its fortieth institution anniversary in February.—H.McC.

Fresno—Sixteen members of Fresno No. 187 accompanied Deputy Maude Crosby to Madera, January 12, where she installed the officers of Madera No. 244. Supervising Deputy Emma Ostrom and several members of Lomitas No. 255, Los Banos, were also in attendance.

Vallejo—Vallejo No. 195 and Vallejo No. 77 N.S.G.W. entertained 250 children at a delightful Christmas tree party December 21. The hall was beautifully decorated, the center of attraction being a tree from which Santa Claus distributed gifts and candy. A unique and enjoyable program of numbers dear to the hearts of children was presented. The joint committee in charge of the occasion included: N.D.—Alice Gallagher (chairman), Evelyn Lowe and F. O'Connor; N.S.—J. J. Combs and F. C. Segoria (co-chairmen), B. T. Wiggins, Larry Fay, Val Bell and F. J. Holdener.

San Diego.—San Diego No. 208 concluded its 1938 activities with a successful turkey dinner and bazar, and a Christmas party that was enjoyed by the members. The sewing club recently met at the home of Katherine Heilbron; a delicious potluck lunch was served at noon.—L.M.

Antioch.—Antioch No. 223 entertained guests and members at a potluck supper January 16.

N.S.G.W. NEWS PARAGRAPHS.

Stanford Parlor No 76 had installation of officers, with Daniel C. Murphy Jr. as president, January 10, and also was officially visited by Grand Trustee Charles A. Redding. Several candidates were initiated, and refreshments were served. Among the many other visitors were Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy and Past Grand Hartley Russell. Charles J. Barry and Frank Schmid were co-chairmen of the evening.

Charles O. Zahn, treasurer of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 since 1917, died suddenly December 24 after finishing his labors for the night in Native Sons Building, where he was employed as an elevator operator several years. Zahn was born at Los Banos, Merced County, January 24, 1882. He affiliated with the Parlor November 10, 1902, at a class initiation in honor of Grand President Lewis F. Byington when some 400 candidates were inducted into the Order. At various times he represented South San Francisco at the Grand Parlor.

SUBSTANTIAL INCREASES.

Substantial increases in capital, surplus and undivided profits, and a new high level in cash and securities, are shown in the statement of condition of The Anglo California National Bank as of December 31, 1938.

Cash and securities total $147,289,039, as compared with a total of $121,818,666 for these items a year ago. Deposits totaling $204,848,751 are at approximately the same high level as in recent statements.

In Memoriam

CORA B MITCHEL

To the Officers and Members of Aloha Parlor No 106 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our late Sister Mitchel, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas Our Heavenly Father in His Wisdom has taken from our midst our beloved Sister, Cora B. Mitchel, our hearts are saddened. Her sweet beautiful life and the memory of her loyalty as a Native Daughter of the Golden West her devotion and endearing qualities, will ever be an inspiration to those who knew and loved her.

"Thus do we walk with her, and keep unbroken
The bond which nature gives
Thinking that our remembrance though unspoken
May reach her where she lives."

Therefore, be it resolved That sincere and profound sympathy be extended to the members of her bereaved family, that a copy of this resolution to spread upon the minutes of Aloha Parlor No. 106, and that a copy be sent The Grizzly Bear Magazine.

Oakland, January 17, 1939.

SOPHIE SIEBE.

To the Officers and Members of Golden Gate Parlor No 158 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect in memory of our beloved Sister and Mother of our Parlor, Sophie Siebe, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas Sister Siebe, by her many kind and friendly acts, endeared herself among our Fraternity and in the community in which she lived, Golden Gate Parlor mourns the loss of a true and loyal member, whose devotion to the principles of our Order and her endearing qualities will never be forgotten, therefore be it

Resolved That we extend to her bereaved brother our sincere sympathy and condolence, that these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Parlor a copy sent to the brother of our departed Sister and a copy sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET RAMM

GRIZZLY GROWLS

NOTE—Expressions of opinion in these "Growls" are, unless indicated otherwise, those of the Managing Editor.

CLARENCE M. HUNT

Judging from the budget submitted to the California Legislature by Governor Culbert Olson, the long-suffering, near-bankrupt taxpayers of the state are going to have the crushing tax burden materially increased.

There appears to be but one way to halt the ever-mounting costs of government—a tax strike! NOW is the time for action by the taxpayers that governing officials will heed!

Premier Kiichiro Hiranuma declared before the Japan parliament: "As for those who fail to understand to the end and hereafter persist in opposition to Japan, we have no other alternative than to exterminate them."

Which means that, unless Japan be permitted to pursue its own course—unless its every wish and desire be granted—unobstructed, it will use force to accomplish its aim, world-wide dictatorship.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in a January 19 message to the Federal Congress, requested non-retroactive legislation, prior to March 15, that will tax the incomes of governmental employes, federal, state and local, and also the revenue derived from government obligations.

The proposed legislation should have the unanimous approval of the Congress, for it is right and just. The President is correct in his contention, "Those who earn their livelihood from government should bear the same tax burden as those who earn their livelihood in private employment."

The total value of California's 1938 mineral production is conservatively estimated by State Mineralogist Walter W. Bradley of the State Department of Natural Resources as $369,751,000. This is an increase of approximately $8,135,000 compared with 1937, and the largest since 1929. Petroleum, gold, natural gas and quicksilver showed the principal increases. The gold increase was some 119,822 fine ounces. Thus 1938 had the highest annual gold value since 1861, and the largest yield since 1862.

California Walnut Growers will hold their twenty-first annual convention February 10 at Chino, San Bernardino County.

Fire on the Vine Springs ranch of George McPherson at Columbia, Tuolumne County, February 23 destroyed 19,000 gallons of wine.

At Sacramento, a brilliant public testimonial was tendered Mrs. E. B. Crocker, donator of the Crocker Art Gallery to the Capital City, February 25, the aniversary of her birth.

The schooner General went ashore February 24 at Point Arena, Mendocino County, and was a total loss.

The Nevada City, Nevada County, Board of Trustees February 25 reduced the rate of water for families from 50 cents to 35 cents per week, and the water company contended it would quit business rather than make the reduction.

FLAG PRESENTED.

Canoga Park — Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. was recently visited by several members of Los Angeles No. 124, including President Ann Schiebusch who, on that Parlor's behalf presented an altar flag to Topanga. President Dorothy Pogue accepted the gift for No. 269. Delicious home-made refreshments were enjoyed. A New Year Eve dance sponsored by the Parlor was a complete social success, everyone having a good time.

To gain recognition as an "up and coming" organization, Topanga prepared a banquet for the West End San Fernando Valley Citrus Men's Association January 31. It was a success in every respect.—P.J.J.

SAN BERNARDINO

CITY AND COUNTY — THE GATE WAY TO GOLDEN CALIFORNIA

KING ORANGE, WITH ALL HIS HUNdreds of royal relatives of the citrus family, holds court again this year in San Bernardino at the National Orange Show, March 16 to 26. This will be the twenty-ninth annual citrus exhibition held in the Gate City—heart of southern California's citrus district. The appropriate theme of the exposition will be "Golden California." Lavish plans to make California's great citrus fruit fair the most outstanding in history have been completed by the officials—W. C. Shay, president; J. M. Oakey, vice-president; J. H. Wilson, treasurer; William Starke, secretary-manager.

For weeks skilled artisans have been cutting and fashioning shimmering golden satin and velours to furnish the setting for the more than 1,000,000 citrus fruits which will be on display. The vast Orange Show building will be mantled its entire length in shimmering satin which will stretch from the floor to the ceiling. A central motif will be composed of ten huge baskets constructed of transparent blue silk and lighted on the interior.

The indirect illumination for the multitude of citrus displays and feature exhibits will come from within the petals of eighty-three immense silken California poppies. Adding to the rest of the royal splendor, there will be fifteen gigantic lacy lavaliers, also decorated in golden poppies, hanging from the ceiling. Carrying out the motif, the stage upon which stage, screen and radio stars will perform during the eleven-day exposition will be similarly panoplied in silk. The back drop will be of blue satin with a valance to match, fronted by a white velvet curtain having a bottom border of poppies.

It is in this setting of beauty and splendor that the citrus growers from all parts of California will enter their products for the many rich and sought-after prizes. Thousands of boxes of the finest of oranges, lemons, grapefruits and myriad other types of citrus fruits will be racked around the walls of the huge building—a Golconda beyond the dreams of Midas.

Providing additional intriguing interest for the visitor, will be myriad feature exhibits dotting the central area of the hall. Here one may see waterfalls, replicas of California's missions, and scores of other beautifully and cleverly constructed exhibits entered by various communities and chambers of commerce. All of them paved in gold—the flaming gold of California's oranges and other citrus products. There will also be an extensive display of by-products obtained from various semi-tropical fruits—more than 125 of them, from soaps and perfumes to fertilizers and unguents.

Other features will be a magnificent flower show of prize blooms, an industrial display of the newest orchard and farm machinery, an amusement zone of varied attractions, and an exhibit of valuable minerals found in San Bernardino County, the largest in the nation.

This year's National Orange Show is expected to attract approximately a quarter-million people, and San Bernardino eagerly awaits the opportunity to act as host to them from March 16 to 26 to prove its slogan, "The Friendly City."

GENERAL JOHN A. SUTTER AND THE INDIANS

Dr. Peter T. Conmy

Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

NO CONSIDERATION OF THE CAREER of General John Augustus Sutter, father of white settlement on the Sacramento River, would be complete without reference to his relations with the Indians. He came, he saw, and he conquered them by love, kindness and fair dealing for the most part, using force only when absolutely necessary. The success of Sutter's settlement at the junction of the Sacramento and American Rivers was due very largely to his prudent Indian policy. There were some abuses, it is true, but in general the Indians came to love and respect the kind old captain and this reflected itself in their dealings with the settlers at large.

Captain Sutter became aware of the fact that he faced an Indian problem from that moment in early August 1839 when he entered the Sacramento River; for, as he himself records in his reminiscences,

"All along the shore I noticed signs of Indians. On the overhanging branches of trees the natives had tied bunches of white feathers, symbols of prayers to gods and devils for fish and food. Although I knew that I was being closely watched from the shore all along my journey, I did not encounter a single Indian until I reached a point on the river about twelve miles below the site of the present city of Sacramento. We arrived at this point on the second day after we had left Suisun Bay and here I suddenly saw in an open space about two hundred warriors. They were painted yellow, black and red, and seemed to be very keen for a fight. My men wanted to fire at them at once, but I ordered them to keep quiet and to make no attack until I gave them the order. . . . I jumped on land unarmed and alone. I had instructed my men to stand ready with their arms concealed, but not to fire until they saw me attacked. Thinking that there might be among the Indians some who had escaped from the Missions and who understood Spanish, I shouted in a loud voice, 'Adios amigos.' I was not disappointed. Immediately two of them came forward and answered in Spanish. I told them that I had not come to make war or to carry them off to the Missions, but that I had come to live among them as a friend."

This peacful policy of Sutter had its immediate effect. At once he showed his confidence in them by sending one of the band downstream with a letter to his other boats. Another he took into his own boat as a guide. Then Sutter promised presents to all after his landing. The description of this episode concludes with these words, "they all appeared to be satisfied and went away to their village."

Thus, by following the wise tactics of peace and trust, Sutter won his first encounter with the Indians. Later, when Sutter had founded his settlement at the place where the fort now stands, these same Indians found their way there to claim the promised gifts. This caused a friendship to develop which, in turn, blossomed into an economic relationship. Sutter was in need of workmen. The Indians frequently hired out to him, and it is unquestionably true that the fort was built by Indian labor. Unfortunately, however, this relationship had its bad side. These Indians often stole horses, which they brought to the settlement and sold to Sutter. He also employed them to gather wild grapes, from which brandy was made.

After Sutter had been made a citizen of Mexico he was appointed Guardian of Justice and Representative of the Government on the Sacramento River Frontier. As such, it became his duty to administer justice and to mete out punishment to the Indians from time to time. One such incident happened in September 1840, when sixteen Indians from Mission San Jose came into the Sacramento Valley to visit relatives among the valley tribes. They attacked a rancheria of the Yolesumnes, killing seven men and kidnaping all the women and the children. The reason this rancheria was attacked was probably because many of the Yolesumnes were working at Fort Sutter, hence the tribe was without full protection. Sutter immediately went to the relief of the attacked tribe. He rescued the women and the children, and captured the wrongdoers. Punishment was swift and deterring. Seven non-Christian and three Christian Indians were put to death in the presence of all. However kindhearted and sentimental Sutter may have been, he was determined that order should prevail within his domains.

Although for the most part just, there were times when Sutter's relations with the Indians were somewhat illegal. There is evidence that he engaged in a sort of slave trade with Indian children. He would seize the children of far-away tribes and bring them to the fort, where they were sold to other tribes or given as presents to his White friends. This is testified to by one John Chamberlain, who visited the fort during the early forties. Sutter justified doing this on the theory that it was a long established practice among both the Indians and the Spanish Californians. It may have been that Sutter felt that his hold on the savages would be stronger if he indulged in some of their practices.

While not always strictly honest with the Indians, Sutter, however, was at all times moral in his relations with them. It should be realized that, due to the absence of White women in the valley, many of the early settlers cohabited with Indian women. Sutter's biographer, Julian Dana, refers to such as "the squaw men." Their illegitimate offspring left a train of half-breed social maladjustment that persists through their descendants in the Sacramento Valley and the Sierra Nevada region until the present day. Sutter was unalterably opposed to this practice. He believed in maintaining the purity of the White race. He believed, also, in marriage as both a sacrament and an economic status, and abhored promiscuity and free-love.

In the administration of justice at the fort, Sutter had a three-fold problem, namely, (1) between White man and White man, (2) between White man and Indian, and (3) between Indian and Indian. In a case where one White had allegedly wronged another, it was Sutter's policy to invite all the White men at the fort to listen to the proofs and to decide as a jury. In a case involving a White man and an Indian, however, Sutter alone passed judgment. This was to safeguard the Indian from the prejudice of a White group. To Sutter's credit, let it be said that although Caucasian by race he tried his utmost to be fair to the Red man. Where two Indians were involved, Sutter appointed an Indian to preside and allowed all the Indians present to sit as a jury and decide the case. This Sutter system of jurisprudence made for flexibility and the recognition of individual differences. Frontier born and rough hewed as it was, nevertheless it possessed all the good features of that portion of international law which is known as extr. territoriality, and which the United States still exercises in China by treaty with that country.

As the mission system gave way to secularization, the Indians who were released from what had been home and shelter wandered about the length and breadth of California, committing depredations of one sort or another. Thus, in 1845 the Calaveras Indians attacked the homes of William Gilmour and Thomas Lindsey in the San Joaquin Valley. Upon hearing of this Sutter sent a force against them and twenty of the Indians were killed. It is to be pointed out, however, that this was the exception rather than the rule, for, the Indians of the two great valleys of California were not warlike, and their restlessness in the fortress is attributed by competent authorities to the secularization of the missions. For the most part, the Indians of the valleys lacked the warring abilities of the Coast to River tribes to the south and the buffalo hunters of the Athbascans of the northwest. Superstitious, they believed in gods and demons. They believed in the protecting power of certain animals and in taboo. The larger tribal groups with which Sutter came in contact were the Maidu, the Miwok, the Costanoan, the Yokuts and the Shoshoneans. These were subdivided into many smaller tribes, there being over forty such divisions of the Yokuts with as many dialects.

Sutter's general policy of justice toward the Indians was recognized by the United States Army officers who entered California in 1846. These men sought at once to elevate the Indian and appointed sub-Indian agents in various parts of the state. As a reward for his long policy of fair treatment to the Indians, Sutter was, April 7, 1847, appointed by Kearney sub-agent for the Indians of the Sacramento and the San Joaquin Valleys.

house, 488 Fourth street. A 7 o'clock dinner will precede the business meeting.

All native Sons are invited to the dinner, and the entertainment and social hour that will terminate the gathering.

ANNUAL OPEN HOUSE.

San Bernardino—Supervising Deputy Eva Bemis entertained the deputies and N.D.G.W. Parlor presidents of District No. 31 at a buffet supper at her home. There was a 100 percent attendance,—Deputies Edna Niekirk, Theresa Stafford, Dorothy Ravn and Thelma Nett, and Presidents Genevieve Hiskey, Mary Russel, Marian Pierce and Marguerite McKenzie—and future plans for the district were discussed.

Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. entertained January 25 at its annual open house, which was attended by one hundred friends and prospective members. A fine program was participated in by the Guild Players, Burma Whitehead, Foster Willhite and Deputy Dorothy Ravn. Refreshments and a social hour followed the program. February 8 the Parlor entertained its past presidents at a valentine party. Each past president gave a short talk and expressed complete confidence in the Order, its ideals and future.—H.P.

THE HOUSE WITHIN.

In everything you do,
From oceans, skies and mountains
Yourself comes back to you.
If you would know the rapture
That anyone may win
Be careful what you're thinking;
Protect the house within.

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

WITH THE FANFARE OF A NAtional ceremony, broadcast on a national radio hookup, the new United States Post Office and Court House at Los Angeles will be officially dedicated March 11 at 2 p.m. Postmaster-General James Farley is to journey from Washington, D. C., especially to participate in the ceremonies. Important personages from all sections of California will attend, and all Native Sons and Native Daughters are urged to participate.

President Anna T. Schiebusch will, on behalf of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., present a Flag of the United States of America, and on behalf of all the Los Angeles County Native Daughter Parlors—Los Angeles No. 124, Long Beach No. 154, Rudecinda No. 230 of San Pedro, Verdugo No. 240 of Glendale, Santa Monica Bay No. 245 of Santa Monica, Californiana No. 247 of Los Angeles, Compton No. 258, East Los Angeles No. 266, La Reina No. 267 of Los Angeles and Topanga No. 269 of Canoga Park—Grand President Edna B. Briggs will present a California State (Bear) Flag. Postmistress Mary A. Briggs has bestowed these honors on the Native Daughters because of the signal service they are rendering California through their civic, historical and child-placing endeavors.—H.M.

The main Los Angeles Post Office is now located in the new United States Post Office and Court House Building, Temple and Spring streets. The philatelic windows, Nos. 19 and 20, are open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. Saturdays the windows are open from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

ASSEMBLE, AND HEAR, NATIVES!

All Native Sons are urged to attend the meeting of University Parlor No. 272 at 721 West Jefferson street Thursday, March 16. At that time a much-needed objective to engage the attention of those interested in California and its welfare will be unfolded.

United States Attorney Benjamin Harrison of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110, San Bernardino, will be the speaker, and he will tell his hearers of highly dangerous, as well as exceedingly disgraceful, conditions existant hereabouts that he has had revealed to him.—B.H.

CHILDREN BENEFIT HUGE SUCCESS.

The benefit dinner-dance sponsored by the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Los Angeles County Joint Homeless Children Committee at the Wilshire Bowl February 21 was a huge success in all particulars. In recognition of the humanitarian service of the committee, the mayors of Los Angeles, Glendale, Long Beach and Santa Monica by proclamation designated the day as homeless children day. All proceeds will be devoted to the homeless children.

Mrs. Betty Marshall-Graydon, the general chairman of arrangements, was assisted by Mrs. Harriette Matson, Peter DeCatte, Albert Sandoval, Reginald G. Anderson, William Badgley, Dr. A. S. Reynolds, Joe Hiss, Fred Leonetti and Joseph W. Fonte. The officers of the joint committee are: Betty Marshall-Graydon, chairman; Grace Norton, vice-chairman; Eugenia F. Smith, recording secretary; Dorothy Schlingman, assistant recording secretary; Flora M. Holy, treasurer; John Gower, financial secretary.

OPEN MEETING FOR ELIGIBLES.

Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards officially visited Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. February 2. Two candidates were initiated, and the newly-installed officers, headed by President Robert L. Jack, were complimented for their fine rendition of the ritual. February 16 the oldtimers, led by Past Grand John T. Newell, conducted an interesting meeting, and promised to take a more active interest in Parlor affairs.

March 2, Los Angeles will have a "feed" prepared by Financial Secretary Albert W. Metz, "grand old man of No. 45;" members of other Parlors especially invited. March 9, the Parlor will have joint initiation with East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 at 1329 So. Hope street; a mixed team will exemplify the ritual. March 16 will be an open meeting for the entertainment of new members and eligibles. March 30, the Parlor will sponsor a peace officers and firemen dance; arrangements are in charge of Deputy Sheriff Walter D. Gilman and Battalion Chief George C. Walker.—F.F.

BAND TO GET STATE FLAG.

Long Beach—President Josephine Reichman of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. has formed an escort team of eight members, under the chairmanship of Lysbeth J. Hayward, that will make its initial appearance March 16. Preparing for a sale at the public market, the California Thimble Club, Francis Galvin chairman, meets every second and fourth Thursday at the members' homes. Planning for Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, a canned-food march is held the second meeting of each month. Social meetings commemorating the members' birthdays are held the third Thursday.

February 16, several members and Deputy Marguerite Mize paid tribute to sixteen birthdayites, three charter members and the Parlor's thirty-second birthday. The tables were decorated in red, yellow and white. The treasury of No. 154 is being replenished by a blanket club of one hundred members under the supervision of Margaret Burch.

Plans are about completed for the official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs March 16. A 6 o'clock banquet will feature a prominent civic speaker. A California State (Bear) Flag will be presented the Long Beach Municipal Band March 19. Civic Chairman Ruth Johnson will head a delegation of Long Beach's members that will attend the ninth annual Women's Civic Conference at the University of Southern California. "Democracy's Dilemma" is the subject to be discussed.

NATIONAL DEFENSE DISCUSSED.

Glendale—Glendale Parlor No. 264 N.S.G.W. observed National Defense Week February 21. Dr. Fay Stone gave an interesting talk on "National Defense." Several visitors from other Parlors were present. Refreshments were served.

The Parlor is sponsoring a three-act play at the North Hollywood Playhouse during March. The committee of arrangements is headed by William Empey Jr.

Are You Getting on the "Plumper" Side of Life?

¶ If so, you'll be delighted with the new reducing girdle. It has no fasteners, no lacings or hooks to bother with, and yet it does the trick!

¶ The secret lies in its new elastic fabric, which closely resembles hand-loomed.

¶ You simply step in this girdle, and while you work, play or drive a car, countless strands of live, elastic yarn like a myriad of tiny fingers, massage away the curves or bulges and knead off pounds and inches from hips, thighs and "tummy."

BRIDGE LUNCHEON.

Miss Anna Schiebusch, president Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., will be hostess at a noon luncheon to Grand President Edna B. Briggs March 12. The Parlor will that day mark San Fernando Mission with a bronze plaque at public ceremonies. Mrs. Elsie Amidon, history and landmarks chairman, is in charge of arrangements. The Parlor will also assume the responsibility of furnishing one of the mission's twenty-one rooms in the style of the period.

March 15, Los Angeles will be officially visited by Grand President Briggs. Previous to the meeting she will be honor guest at dinner at the Women's Athletic Club at 6 p.m. Miss Grace Norton is in charge of reservations, $1.50 per plate. Amid lovely floral decorations, a large class of candidates will be initiated. March 25, a bridge luncheon and fashion show will be featured at the Friday Morning Clubhouse for the benefit of the history and landmarks committee. Admission one dollar. Mrs. Edna Neikirk is the ticket chairman.—H.M.

TO INITIATE A LARGE CLASS.

Santa Monica Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. was addressed February 23 by Municipal Judge Frank Tyrrell, who delighted his auditors. The drum and bugle corps is practicing every Monday under the leadership of Bill Heyne, and making plans for the San Francisco Admission Day celebration.

Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards will officially visit the Parlor March 9. At that time a large class of candidates will be initiated. Entertainment will be provided, and refreshments will be served. Scoutmaster Sam Scragg of Boy Scouts Troop No. 10, sponsored by Santa Monica Bay, is to be congratulated for the fine work he is doing.

NATIVE SONS SUPPER GUESTS.

San Pedro — Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. had a valentine party February 9. Appropriate refreshments were served, and valentines were exchanged. The date being the birthday of Ruth Allison and Letty Sarciaux, they were given a handkerchief shower. The Florencita Thimble Club met February 1 at the home of Rowena Berenstein, and February 15 at the home of Lillian Crane.

February 17, Rudecinda entertained Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. at a spanish supper. A good time was had by all, and Chairman Vivian Matejlan and committee were highly praised. February 23, Deputy Olinda Kirby visited the Parlor and spoke on membership. A handkerchief shower was given Victoria Adler, the date being her birthday. Refreshments were served.—R.B.

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED.

San Pedro—In observance of its fourteenth institution anniversary, Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. sponsored past presidents night February 17. President John Mele was master of ceremonies, and Past Grand John T. Newell was the speaker of the evening. An enchilada dinner was prepared and served by the Native Daughters.

FIRST SOCIABLE SUCCESSFUL.

Canoga Park — Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. February 10 presented a California Bear pin to Second Vice-president Caroline Frost, who is taking up her residence in Willow Springs.

February 18 the Parlor had its first public social affair, a dance, at Chatsworth. So successful was it that Topanga will sponsor a dance there monthly.—P.J.

VALENTINE PARTY.

Glendale Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. had as guest speaker February 14 Leonard Hardigan, who gave a fine talk on "Preparedness in Case of War." Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen was also a speaker. This being Valentine Day and the birthday of President Harriette Weeks, a valentine motif was carried out in the refreshments, and a gift was presented Mrs. Weeks. Mrs. Marguerite Piuma, the chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Olive Zimmer, Evalyn Wilson and Leonora Pagliuso.

Past presidents of the Parlor had a breakfast meeting at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Ravn February 23 to perfect plans for the official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs March 16. Mms. Betty Sanders and Ada Steele are co-chairmen of the banquet. The ways and means committee, Mrs. Mary Miller chairman, met February 20. The rummage sale recently held under the supervision of Mms. Geraldine Leonetti and Maude Molen was a success. Doris

THE SIXTY-SECOND GRAND PARLOR of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will meet at San Francisco during May. Grand President Joseph J. McShane of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214, San Francisco, will preside throughout the deliberations, and at their conclusion will automatically become the Junior Past Grand President.

Arrangements for the Grand Parlor are being made by a committee made up of representatives of the twenty-two San Francisco Subordinate Parlors. Joseph E. Tracy of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214, chairman of the San Francisco Extension of the Order Committee, is the general chairman, Joseph E. Tinney of Rincon Parlor No. 72 the vice-chairman and Harold J. Regan of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 the secretary.

A ways and means committee to raise funds for the Grand Parlor, also for the Admission Day, September 9, celebration, has been appointed with the following officers: Con. J. Ryan chairman, Joseph E. Tinney vice-chairman, Harold J. Regan secretary, Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig treasurer. Numerous other subcommittees will soon be appointed.

At the San Francisco Grand Parlor, unless custom be reversed, Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller will be advanced to Grand President, Grand Second Vice-president Henry S. Lyon to Grand First Vice-president, and Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr to Grand Second Vice-president.

The Grizzly Bear has communicated with all rumored candidates for the other Grand Parlor elective offices, and from replies received announces the following:

Grand Trustees (seven to be chosen)—Eben K. Smart, Quartz Parlor No. 58; Wayne R. Millington, Redwood Parlor No. 66, incumbent; Charles A. Redding, Nicasio Parlor No. 183, incumbent; Walter C. Richards, Compton Parlor No. 273, incumbent.

Bakersfield Parlor No. 42 and Taft Parlor No. 276 will extend an invitation to hold the 1940 Grand Parlor in Bakersfield, Kern County.—C.M.H.

High School Dedicated.

Fort Bragg (Mendocino County)—Under the auspices of Alder Glen No. 200, the Fort Bragg Union High School was dedicated to "Truth, Liberty and Toleration" by Grand President Joseph J. McShane, assisted by Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustee Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Grand Marshal Harold J. Zimmerman.

Previous to the dedicatory ceremonies a program was presented, with John B. Harman as chairman of the day. Music was furnished by the high school band and girls glee club. Addresses were made by Grand President McShane, President Robert Bainbridge of the student body, Joel S. Catton, Superintendent Paul C. Bryan of Fort Bragg schools, Chas. Schaeffer, President Abel H. Jackson of the Board of High School Trustees and Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller.

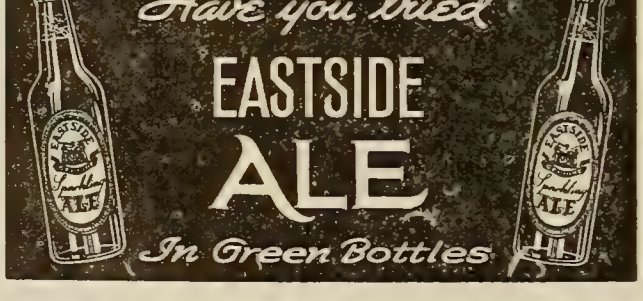
NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

San Francisco—The grand officers, headed by Grand President Joseph J. McShane, dedicated February 26 the California State Building of the Golden Gate International Exposition. On the Order's behalf the Grand President presented a California State (Bear) Flag to fly over the building during the Treasure Island show. Several drum corps of Subordinate Parlors participated in a parade from the Keyroute ferry on the island to the building.



To raise funds to aid the homeless children charity, the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of Alameda County will hold their annual grand benefit ball the evening of March 8 at McFadden's ballroom. Officers of the committee in charge are Mrs. Kathleen Dombrink, general chairman; Theodore J. Markert, vice-chairman; Walter M. Davis, secretary; Richard M. Hamb, treasurer.

Sacramento—At a rally February 9, Sacramento No. 3 inaugurated a membership drive to re-assume its place in the Native Sons sun. Roy C. Cothrin is the committee chairman, and March 16 has been fixed as the date for the first class initiation. Sacramento's birthday is March 22; it was instituted in 1878. John W. Daroux, a member of the Parlor for fifty-seven years and an authority on the Capital City's history, died February 10 survived by two daughters. He was born at Sacramento, January 2, 1862, during the disastrous flood of that year. February 16 the Parlor received an official visit from Grand Second Vice-president Henry S. Lyon. William and James Kelly entertained and refreshments were served.

Marysville — The newly-elected officers of Marysville No. 6, with Robert L. Sullivan as president and H. G. Niemeyer as recording secretary, were installed February 1. Grand Trustee R. G. Power was a visitor.

Stockton—In the San Joaquin County public speaking contest sponsored by Stockton No. 7, James Johnstone of Stockton High School won the first prize, a gold medal and the right to participate in the state-wide contest. His subject was "Rails Unite California With the Nation May 10, 1869." Second prize, a silver medal, went to Lester Schmiedt of Manteca High School. Law T. Freitas presided. Members of the Parlor motored to Long Barn for a snow frolic February 12. George Witherow headed the committee in charge of a February 18 dance. Stockton's membership committee, under the leadership of Frank Piccardo, is conducting an intensive drive for recruits.

high schools public speaking contest sponsored by Humboldt No. 14, Arcata No. 20 and Ferndale No. 93 were held in the Eureka High School February 3. George Albee of Humboldt No. 14, superintendent Humboldt County schools, was master of ceremonies, and the Eureka, Arcata, Fortuna and Ferndale High Schools participated. Lestor Gregory of Eureka won a gold medal and the right to represent the county in the state finals. With Humboldt No. 14 as host, a special joint meeting of the Humboldt County Parlors was held in honor of Supervising District Deputy Jack Lilley and visiting members of Alder Glen Parlor No. 200, Fort Bragg, February 3.

San Jose – San Jose No. 22, Santa Clara No 100, Observatory No. 177 and Mountain View No. 215 sponsored a public speaking contest for students of Santa Clara County high schools February 7. Ronald Maas of Fremont Union High was declared the winner and the right to represent the county in the finals. Others participating were Ronald Hadley of Gilroy High, Dick McClure of Mountain View High and Barney Barco of Santa Clara High.

Petaluma—Petaluma No. 27 had its annual banquet and entertainment February 21. Plans are being perfected for a district initiation to be held late in March or early in April.

Nevada City—At the public speaking contest February 8 sponsored by Hydraulic Parlor No. 56 and Quartz Parlor No. 58, Robert Reeder of the Nevada City High School was selected to represent Nevada County in the semi-finals. His subject was "William Lewis Manley, Hero of Death Valley."

Elk Grove—Elk Grove No. 11 will have its annual oratorical contest inaugurated several years ago to maintain an interest in California history for students of the Elk Grove High School March 24.

Oakland—George J. Rice, charter member Oakland No. 50, died January 23. He was a native of San Francisco, aged 75 years.

Saint Helena—Many witnessed the installation of Saint Helena No. 53's officers by District Deputy George Bruno January 30. Phillip Thompson, the new president, is a great great grandson of "Uncle Jack" York, a member of the historic Bear Flag Party. Refreshments were served, and among the speakers were Louis Vasconi, Walter Metzner, Frank Harrison, J. L. Goodman, Edward Wilson and District Deputy Bruno. Arrangements for the evening were in charge of Phillip Thompson, Arthur Rossi and Harry Prouty.

Grass Valley—Officers of Quartz No. 58, with A. C. Casci as president, were installed by District Deputy George Hammill. Three candidates were initiated. Among the speakers of the evening were Deputy Grand President E. K. Smart, Grand Trustee R. G. Power, James C. Tyrrell, C. R. Clinch and Superior Judge George L. Jones. Visitors were in attendance from Nevada City, Downieville and Sierra City. At the meeting's conclusion a turkey supper was served by Stanley Woolcock and committee.

Watsonville—Under the sponsorship of the Pajaro Valley Chamber of Commerce, Watsonville No. 65 broadcast February 3 highlights from the histories of the Grand Parlor and the SANTA BARBARA PARLOR NO. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. refrained from formal activities in February that members might give attention to the Community Chest campaign as a matter of civic responsibility. President Frank Huffman of the Sons will shortly announce his committees for the year. Appointments have been made with great care, and no one will be named on any standing committee who has not expressed willingness to serve and shown real interest in the Parlor activity involved.

Although the present membership of Santa Barbara is over 250, all active, District Deputy A. C. Dinsmore is to head a membership campaign which will materially increase the size of the organization. Again selectiveness, rather than quantity, will be the watchword.

Chairman Paul Sweetser of the landmarks committee will soon announce a comprehensive plan of activity in marking historic spots in Santa Barbara City and County in which the Parlor will co-operate with the Native Daughters and with civic organizations. Past President A. J. "Gus" Janssens is meeting with great success in forming Los Nativos Vaqueros, a uniformed equestrian group which will represent the Parlor on parade occasions. Sunday morning horseback rides are being held.

The program of the month was put on by the Boy Scout troop which Santa Barbara sponsors under Scoutmaster Guest and Scout Committee Chairman John Fryberg. Captain I. A. Bonilla of the Santa Barbara Fire Department was in charge of the excellent supper served after the meeting. George Dow, chairman of the Parlor's newly-formed sports division announces a bowling team is being formed which will represent No. 116 in regional tourneys.

Magic-carpet motoring just about describes the indelible impression gained from an automobile adventure on the Great Circle Tour in southern California. Combining vivid desert distances, pine-crested mountains with a possible touch of snow at this season, and the dashing white-capped surf of miles of Pacific shoreline, the sightseer's outing by way of Palm Springs, Imperial Valley, San Diego and return to Los Angeles veritably leads "around the world."

With the various short side trips a traveler may care to make, the circle expedition will encompass about 550 miles in total distance on the average, according to the touring bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California. This permits a leisurely, most enjoyable tour within a week-end

CALIFORNIA FIFTY YEARS AGO

Thomas W. McAuliffe

Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

MARCH 14, 1889, A MORTGAGE WAS recorded in Woodland, Yolo County, whereby the Northern Railway and the Southern Pacific Railroad Companies mortgaged their properties in California to the Union Trust Company of New York for $21,000,000. The bonds run for fifty years, at an interest rate of 5 percent per annum.

The Elk Creek Railroad was incorporated in San Francisco March 29 to run from tidewater at the mouth of Gellinwood Creek, Mendocino County, into the interior.

The Los Angeles, Glendale and Pasadena Railroad was incorporated in Los Angeles for $200,000 March 28.

Heavy rains were general throughout the state March 5, 6, 17 and 18. Quite a heavy shock of earthquake occurred March 6 at Hollister, San Benito County.

Benjamin Harrison was inaugurated twenty-third President of the United States March 4.

The Harrison Zouaves, a company of Chico, Butte County, young women who took an active part in the presidential campaign, gave a brilliant inaugural ball in that city March 4.

The California Legislature, which had been in session at Sacramento since the first of the year, adjourned sine die March 16.

In a letter March 11 to the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, the Committee of Public Safety of that city charged nine members of the Board with corruption.

While plowing on the Shepard ranch at Gilroy, Santa Clara County, Frank Dewitt turned up thirty Mexican dollars March 8. The following day the place was spaded and five and one-half pounds of gold, valued at $1,200, was uncovered.

Suit was filed in San Francisco March 2 against the Geary Street Railway for refusing to accept pennies as fare.

The will of James C. Flood was filed for probate in Redwood City, San Mateo County, March 4. The estate was valued at $4,200,000.

Santa Ana had a "hifolutin" time March 8, when news came that the Orange County bill had passed the State Senate. Parades were held, fireworks were exploded, and a banquet was spread in celebration of the event.

William T. A. Gibson, who arrived in Stockton in 1853 and was that city's first superintendent of schools, died there March 6.

Chief Avery and two members of the San Diego Fire Department were arrested for stealing goods at a fire.

The Farmers Union of Livermore, Alameda County, made an assignment for the benefit of creditors March 6.

Cyrus Hall McCormack of harvester fame and Miss Harriet Bradley Hammond were married March 5 at Monterey City.

Mary Nolan, a San Francisco nurse, fell from a balcony March 9 and was instantly killed.

Ione, Amador County, was wild with excitement March 11 over the signing by Governor Waterman of the bill locating the state reform school of that place.

Marvin Cravens, bookkeeper for the Louisiana Planing Mill of Los Angeles, left for the mines March 10. He was short $3,000 in his accounts.

A. Abbott, cashier of the California State Bank in Sacramento—now the defunct California National Bank—made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors March 12. He had liabilities of $125,000.

Robert Garber fell from a balcony in Los Angeles March 11 and was killed.

Dr. Samuel W. Chapin of Auburn, Placer County, while returning from a professional call to Ophir was drowned in Auburn Ravine March 14.

While attempting to go aboard the steamer Coos Bay at Fort Bragg, Mendocino County, at midnight, Chief Engineer Thomas Dunn was drowned.

One thousand citizens of Willows invaded Sacramento March 18 and urged Governor Waterman to sign the Glenn County bill.

Two jap girls fought a bloody duel in Los Angeles March 19.

A house upon a hill at Ventura, occupied by two Chinamen, was carried away by a cloudburst March 15 and both occupants were drowned.

The Pacific Coast stage was stopped by highwaymen near San Luis Obispo March 12. The express box was taken, but the passengers were not molested. At Gilroy, Santa Clara County, L. C. Cuff and N. G. Stuzman were arrested and confessed the robbery.

Entering the Buchanan mine in Tuolumne County too soon after a blast, James Spellman was killed March 18.

Alice Luchsinger, a 14-year-old girl living in Willows Valley, Nevada County, committed suicide by shooting herself in the breast.

Martin White, a young Jackson, Amador County, man, committed suicide March 21.

John B. Harkins, a former New York Congressman, was jipped of $5,000 by bunkomen at the Nadeau Hotel, Los Angeles.

While wading March 26 in a pond near Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, Geo. Ambrose and Fred Knauss were drowned.

Miss M. F. Austin of Fresno, devoted to the production of raisins, died March 28 at San Francisco.

Captain John Turner, who brought the first passenger train from St. Louis, died March 28 at Sacramento.

Rolla W. Wheeler of Saint Helena, Napa County, was kicked in the head by a horse March 1 and instantly killed.

Wm. Dixon, a Hollister, San Benito County, farmer, committed suicide March 1.

In a dispute over a farm lease, L. M. Billings shot and killed Francis D. Lightfoot near Sacramento March 1.

Dr. William A. Douglas, a constant practitioner of San Francisco since 1854, died there March 27.

August Hastha, San Francisco book agent, was cremated in a Oakdale, Stanislaus County, lodginghouse fire March 3.

HISTORY SHOULD BE PROTECTED.

Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. is cosily ensconced in its new home, the Ruskin Art Club, Eighth and Plymouth avenue. The February 14 housewarming drew a good attendance. The main feature of the business meeting was the installation of officers, with Mrs. Marion Johnson as president, by Deputy Leola Temby.

Mrs. Marcella Palethorpe and committee provided a delicious luncheon, with valentine decorations. Mrs. Isabel Lopez-Fages had charge of the program, which honored the pioneer rosier and relics department, and was arranged to recall Civil War days and the birthdays of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Dr. Owen C. Coy, professor of California history at U.S.C., was the chief speaker. He said no part of California history was uninteresting, and that it, as well as oranges and walnuts, should be protected.

The spanish dinner given by the Parlor in the Phi Omega Pi Sorority at Westwood was a wonderful success. Miss Arabelle Hurlbut and Mrs. John P. Welch were hostesses February 16 at a valentine tea at the home of the latter honoring President Marion Johnson. February 28, Mrs. Leland Atherton Irish was honor-guest at a philharmonic tea, and provided a surprise musical program.

Grand President Edna B. Briggs will officially visit Californiana March 14, and will be honored at luncheon at the Chapman Park Hotel. The March 6 meeting of the sewing circle will be held at the home of Mrs. Marcella Palethorpe; a potluck luncheon will be served. Members of the Parlor have been invited to attend the celebration of the birthday of "the sweetheart of the Parlor," Mrs. Hattie Furman Stamps, at her home March 11. February 6 she was presented with a life membership in No. 247, President Johnson making the presentation on the Parlor's behalf.—O.L.

NEW CEREMONY USED FIRST TIME.

San Pedro—At colorful and largely attended public ceremonies January 27, the officers of Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. and Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. were jointly installed. Deputies Robert Gary and Olinda Kirby officiated, and John Mele and Lucy Mele-Ascolesi, brother and sister, became the respective presidents. For the first time, the new joint installation ceremonial was used, and it was well received.

Baskets of beautiful flowers decorated the hall. Margaret Kreider was grand organist of the occasion, and the installation ode was sung by Sophie Stewart. Numerous gifts were presented. Among the visitors were Junior Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer and Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards of the Native Sons, and Grand Trustee Mary B. Noernberg and Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen of the Native Daughters.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

In a hall beautifully decorated in spring flowers, the officers of Compton Parlor No. 258 N.D.G.W., with Mrs. Lucile Adams as president, were publicly installed by Deputy Kate Hill, assisted by members of Grace Parlor No. 242. The officers-elect were gowned in formals and wore corsages of sweetpeas and carnations. Many presentations were made, a program was presented, and refreshments were served. Dancing concluded the pleasant evening.

February 14 the Parlor met at the home of President Adams, where plans for the new year were discussed.

THEATER PARTY.

With Reg Anderson as president, officers of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. were installed by District Deputy Walter E. Smith. The Parlor had a very successful theater party February 8 and 9. Delegations from all neighboring Parlors were in attendance.

February 20, East Los Angeles was officially visited by Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, who complimented the officers on their exemplification of the ritual. All Native Sons are extended an invitation to visit the "baby" Parlor.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

William I. Hortenstine (Hollywood NS) was a visitor last month to San Francisco.

Mrs. Lilly O. Reichling-Dyer (Founder ND) has returned to Los Angeles from a visit to Arizona.

MODESTO (STANISLAUS COUNTY)—The official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs to Morada No. 199 was a memorable occasion. After a delightful banquet, the Parlor convened in a wonderful setting—a snow-capped Sierra studded with silvered spruce and pine, with Old Glory waving over all. A snowy igloo, fringed with icicles made a beautiful setting for the Grand President and President Ethel Gardner. Others in attendance were Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, Grand Marshal Clarice Cook, Grand Trustees Alice Oldham, Emily Ryan and Ethel Enos, Past Grands Carrie Roesch-Durham and Mamie G. Peyton. The initiation of three candidates was witnessed by 116 members. On behalf of Modesto No. 11 N.S.G.W., President Clarence Hansen presented a boquet of red roses to Mrs. Briggs. At the meeting's conclusion delicious refreshments were served in the diningroom, decorated to represent "spring around the corner."

Officers of Morada, with Geraldine Stutchman as president, were installed by Supervising Deputy Eleanor Lewis, assisted by Deputy Lillian Stammerjohan. A past president pin was presented by the Parlor to Ethel Gardner. An interesting feature of the occasion was the presentation of a California State (Bear) Flag to the Boys Brotherhood Republic. In the course of the presentation address, Pearl Gordon read the following original poem by Clara Steele:

Here's to the Boys Republic—
A group of American youth
The future men of the Nation
Pledged to honor, loyalty truth

Here's to the Flag of our State—
Its emblem the Grizzly Bear
Red Star bright spot in the Union.
Red Stripe courage to dare

District Meeting.

Martinez—Approximately 125 members of the Order attended the Contra Costa County district meeting February 6. Five candidates were initiated, the ritual being exemplified by officers of Stirling No. 146 of Pittsburg, Donner No. 193 of Byron, Las Juntas No. 221 of Martinez and Antioch No. 223, with Elinor Wilkin of Las Juntas presiding.

Nine Parlors were represented, and among the guests were Grand Vice-president Orinda G. Giannini, who represented the Grand President, Past Grands Amy V. McAvoy and Estelle M. Evans, and Supervising Deputy Nellie Nicholson. Preceding the meeting dinner was served at a table beautifully decorated in red and white.—L.O.V.

Patriotic Decorations.

Sacramento—Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit to Coloma No. 212 February 7, and was escorted to her seat of honor by eight members gowned in white formals, with white camellias in their hair and carrying old-fashioned boquets in the Order's colors. Other honor-guests were Grand Trustee Ethel Enos, Supervising Deputy Lucille Huntoon and Deputy Marie Goodman. Many gifts were presented. A poem, "The Forgotten Man," was read by Miss Jane Houston, and Grand President Briggs spoke of the Sacramento Centennial and Presidents Washington and Lincoln.

The meetinghall was decorated with bowls of flowers in the Parlor's colors, while in the banquetroom the decorations were of a patriotic nature. Table favors were tiny American Flags and drums. General Chairman Gertrude Keehner was assisted by Lillian Filmer, Lillian J. Filmer, Mary Honeychurch, Myrtle Underhill, Rose Suffren, Jane Houston, Manila Schoefer, Ellen Schoefer, Edna Wilson, Veda Cifuentes, Lillian Diese, Rose Hullin, Chrissie Ford, Genevieve Penhall, Anna Burrus and Ethel Miller.—M.A.

NEWSY N.D.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

To raise funds to aid the homeless children charity, the Native Daughters and the Native Sons of Alameda County will hold their annual grand benefit ball the evening of March 8 at McFadden's ballroom. Officers of the committee in charge are Mrs. Kathleen Dombrink, general chairman; Theodore J. Markert, vice-chairman; Walter M. Davis, secretary; Richard M. Hamb, treasurer.

Stockton—In a meetinghall beautifully decorated with large baskets of chrysanthemums, china lilies and greenery, the officers of Joaquin No. 5 were installed by District Deputy Mildred McClellan, Georgia Storm becoming president. As they were being escorted to their respective stations, the officers-elect were presented beautiful boquets. Senior Past President Grace Pattison, on the Parlor's behalf, presented an emblematic pin to Junior Past President Evelyn Wells. Among the many others in attendance were Past Grands Mamie G. Peyton and Pearl M. Lamb, and Supervising Deputy Loraine Handel. A banquet was served at beautifully decorated tables after the ceremonies.—L.M.R.

Placerville—Under the auspices of Marguerite No. 12, a bronze plaque honoring Rev. C. C. Pierce was dedicated in Emanuel Church, Coloma, founded 1852. Mrs. Ethel S. Wickes was chairman of the occasion, and speakers included Past Grand Esther R. Sullivan, and Grand Second Vice-president Henry S. Lyon and Grand Trustee R. G. Power of the N.S.G.W.

Napa—Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit to Eshcol No. 16 February 13. Two candidates were initiated, and several presentations were made. The Grand President gave a most inspiring address, which was enthusiastically received by the many in attendance. Preceding the meeting Mrs. Briggs was honor-guest at a dinner. The place cards were candy cups with red valentine hearts adorned with "Our Edna's" photo.—E.I.

Watsonville—El Pajaro No. 35 sponsored a delicious turkey dinner at which Mms. Mary Coward and Marie Golly were honor-guests. Decorations were in a valentine motif. Mrs. Alice Morse was chairman of the successful affair. Alma Crouch was chairman of a February 21 sociable.—V.C.

Anderson—Camellia No. 41 will celebrate next month its fiftieth (golden) institution anniversary.—G.A.T.

Merced—Assisted by ten members of Veritas No. 75, Deputy Mayme Adams installed the officers of Mariposa No. 63. Other visitors were Supervising Deputy Erma Ostrom and a group from Lomitas No. 255 of Los Banos. After the ceremonies a banquet was enjoyed. Table favors were miniature covered wagons.—F.B.

Sutter Creek—Carrying out the wishes of Ida Herman, recently deceased charter member of Amapola No. 80, Past Grand Gladys E. Noce has received from the estate, for the Parlor, a United States of America Flag with thirteen stars. It was made seventy-seven years ago by the mother of Miss Herman, the late Mrs. Mary George Dreisbach-Herman, who came to California via Cape Horn in 1852. At tables attractively decorated with spring flowers, Amapola served a potluck supper January 26. Edith Murphy and Helen Richards were in charge.—L.M.

San Jose—With Ivy M. Rost as president, San

SAN FRANCISCO

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO PARLOR NO 157 N.S.G.W. sponsored February 8 a "Fathers and Sons Night," also referred to as "Baseball Night." It was arranged by Vice-president Daniel J. Collins and Manager Frank (Lefty) O'Doul of the San Francisco Baseball Club, a member of the Parlor. More than 600 members and sons were attracted.

In attendance was every baseball player of note now in or about San Francisco, including Chas. Graham, owner of the San Francisco baseball club; Ty Cobb, one of the greatest of players; Joe DiMaggio, most publicized player in the United States; Gussie Suhr, first baseman for Pittsburg; Tony Lazari, for many years with the New York Yankees, last year with Cincinnati and this year with Brooklyn. In addition to the players, every San Francisco newspaper was represented by its sports writer. So successful was the affair that it will in all probability be made an annual event of South San Francisco.

FLAG PRESENTED HOME.

Orinda No. 56, Las Lomas No. 72, Yosemite No. 83 and Balboa No. 249 Parlors were hostesses at the February 12 breakfast at the Native Daughters Home. Lucille Kimbark of Yosemite was chairman, Katherine Cobb of Orinda pronounced an invocation, and President Grace Semerie led the Flag salute.

"Americanism" was the subject of the guest speaker, Superior Judge Thomas M. Foley. Mary Ryan recited "The Gettysburg Address." Vocal selections were rendered by Loretta Winters of Orinda, accompanied by Betty Duncan, and the Native Daughters quartet—Ruby Bried, Margaret Dahlstrom, Loretta Winters and May Baumeister. For the Home endowment fund, the hostess Parlors presented $10, and in memory of the late Anna Gruber Loser Past Grand Dr. Mariana Bertola, for Orinda Parlor, presented to the Home a flag. Among others in attendance were Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, Past Grands Emma G. Foley and Mae B. Wilkin.

SPEAKING CONTEST WINNER.

Students representing all the San Francisco high schools gathered in the auditorium of Native Sons Building January 27 and competed for the honor of representing the Exposition City in the public speaking contest sponsored by the N.S.G.W. Grand Parlor.

Jerry Swett of Mission High School was selected as the winner. He will compete with winners of other northern counties to choose a representative of the northern area in the final contest at the San Francisco Grand Parlor in May.

N.D.G.W. NEWS PARAGRAPHS.

Officers of El Vespero Parlor No. 118 and South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed January 31 by Deputies Ruth Trousdale and Bernard Dillon. Mrs. Hattie Spillane and William G. Fanning Jr. became the respective presidents.

Claire Lindsey, hospital welfare chairman for Golden Gate Parlor No. 158, carried cheer to the children in ward 17 of San Francisco Hospital Valentine Day. The candy and valentines distributed brought a great deal of joy to the "kiddies." The Parlor's drill team had a meeting February 6 at the home of Treasurer Celia Hamrol; delicious refreshments were served. The team participated in the day and evening parades celebrating the opening of the Golden Gate International Exposition.—B.M.N.

February 8, Dolores Parlor No. 169 had a fiesta social at which many of the members appeared in colorful costumes. President Sarah Ellen Bennett and several members of Golden Gate Parlor were entertained. Entertainment was provided by Elsie Dethlefson, Alvina Burkhardt, Anne Godfrey, Charlotte Arrigoni, Betty Duncan and Ruby Bried. Refreshments were served.—L.J.N.

The officers of Castro Parlor No. 178 were installed by Deputy Elizabeth Muller, Helen Repp becoming president. Dancing followed the ceremonies. The Parlor's newly organized drill team participated in the many fiesta parades held in honor of the opening of the Exposition on Treasure Island. Castro's twenty-ninth anniversary will be celebrated with a dinner party honoring the charter members.

N.S.G.W. NEWS PARAGRAPHS.

Pacific Parlor No. 10 sponsored a testimonial dinner February 1 in honor of Past President Judge Thomas M. Foley, recently elevated to the Superior Court of the City and County of San Francisco, and there was a large attendance. Thos. C. Ryan was toastmaster of an evening vibrant with goodfellowship and goodcheer. Judge Foley, who is still just "Tom" to the boys, was complimented and commended by Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller, Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig and others.—E.J.S.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 celebrated its fifty-third institution anniversary February 21. There was a variety of entertainment, including an amateur boxing show, and refreshments were served. Dr. George F. Lynch was chairman of the arrangements committee. Daniel C. Murphy Jr. heads Stanford's new corps of officers.

Officers of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214 and Twin Peaks Parlor No. 185 N.D.G.W. were jointly installed February 14 by Deputies Armond Nishkain and Rose Campi. John Lewis and Lucille Furr became the respective presidents.

GOLD DISCOVERY BANQUET.

The Native Sons discovery of gold anniversary banquet, referred to in last month's Grizzly Bear, was held in the Grizzly Bear Club, Native Sons Building, and was largely attended. Past

PRESERVATION OF FOODS TRACED IN ATTRACTIVE BOOKLET.

The Santa Fe Railway has issued an attractive booklet, "Delicious Foods in Tin and Glass" tracing the history of the preservation of foods in tin and glass, and the increasing part in the transportation of these foods.

The first practical attempt in food preservation was made in 1782 by Isaac Brock, a brewer, who succeeded in preserving vinegar in hermetically sealed bottles. Some years later, Nicolas Appert, known as the "Father of Canning," preserved food in boiled corking [illegible] bottles. He then put the bottles in a water bath heated from 190 to 212 Fahrenheit, depending on the nature of the food. Upon removal from the hot water bath the corks were forced in, giving the containers an air tight seal.

From such humble beginnings, the booklet relates, the industry has grown to huge proportions, with foods in tin and glass playing a major role on the American dinner table.

The Associated General Contractors of America will open their twentieth annual convention in San Francisco March 6.

Conservation Week will be observed throughout California March 7-14.

MAY SALTER.

To the Officers and Members of Santa Ana Parlor No. 235 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of love and respect to the memory of our late Sister May Salter, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, Our beloved Sister, May Salter, has left us for a little while her sincere, sweet, gentle and unassuming manner endeared her to all who were privileged to have known her, and may the memory of her goodness ever be a consolation.

Resolved, That the Parlor extend sympathy to her bereaved ones, and that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor and that a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

MARGUERITE MIZE,
EUNICE FOX,
ROSE E FORD,
Committee.

Santa Ana, February 13, 1939.

MERCEDES CALDWELL ALVARADO.

To the Officers and Members of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W.—We, the committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed member, submit the following:

Whereas, Our beloved Sister, Mercedes Caldwell Alvarado, has been called to her Heavenly Home and her passing has brought deep sorrow to our midst; we shall always recall her devoted interest in and devotion to the precepts of the Order of the Native Daughters of the Golden West. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend heartfelt sympathy to her family, that these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of the Parlor, and that copies be sent to the family, and to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

GERTRUDE R. ALLEN,
Chairman,
MARY McANANY,
FLORA M. HOLY.

Los Angeles, February 16, 1939

"AN ELECTIVE DESPOTISM was not the government we fought for, but one which should not only be founded on free principles, but in which the powers of government be so divided and balanced among several bodies, that no one could transcend their legal limits without being effectually checked and restrained by the others."—Thomas Jefferson.

San Diego County will be divided, if a movement under way to that effect is successful. The new county would be named Palomar, with Oceanside as the county seat.

"Has liberty now so little worth as a heritage that we can squander it, and force our children's children to live in chains or win back liberty by their blood?"—Sol Bloom.

N.D.G.W. NEWS

Jose No. 81's officers were installed by Deputy Dorothy Salas. Initiation was held, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Honorine Arata and committee. Among the many others in attendance were Supervising Deputy Kathryn Nelson, Deputies Ruth Semichy and Elizabeth Forbes.—C.M.G.

Tracy—Mrs. Mary A. Hewitson, for many years recording secretary of El Pescadero No. 82, and frequently a delegate to Grand Parlors from that Parlor, died February 12 in San Francisco. Nine children survive. She was a native of San Francisco.

San Jose—In a hall beautifully decorated in gold and silver, officers of Vendome No. 100 and Observatory No. 177 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed. Deputies Ruth Semichy and Joseph Semino officiated, and Mrs. Ward Farnsworth and Horton Kooser became the respective presidents. Many gifts were distributed. A program of merit interspersed the installation ceremonies, and John A. Corotto, Grand Treasurer N.S.G.W., the speaker of the evening, told of the historical accomplishments of both Orders.—I.M.S.

Salinas—Aleli No. 102 made tentative plans February 9 to erect in a conspicuous part of the city a monument honoring the Monterey County Pioneers and deceased members of the Parlor and of Santa Lucia No. 97 N.S.G.W. Mrs. Lillie Brindero is chairman of the committee in charge of the project. Mrs. Jemmina Davies was in charge of the program celebrating February birthdays. The valentine motif was carried out in refreshments and table decorations. The entertainment committee included Mms. Edna Curtis, Bertha Richardson, Gladys Dodd, Gertrude Posz, and Miss Pauline Holm.—M.P.

Hollister—February 1, Copa de Oro No. 105 had a birthday night honoring members born in January, February and March. The January refreshments table carried out a color scheme of white, that of February a valentine motif, and green formed the March table color scheme. At each birthday plate was a dainty gift vase with hyacinth, fern and a suitable horoscope. Singing of appropriate songs added to the jollity of the occasion.

Oakland—Mrs. Carmelita Glavin-Luhr, an assistant to Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler at many Grand Parlors and frequently a delegate from Aloha No. 106, with which she was affiliated, died February 5, survived by her husband.

Byron—Donner No. 193 is active in Red Cross, Americanism, homeless children and community work. March 21 the Parlor will have a fiesta dance featuring a play with local talent.—A.P.

San Diego—The Amapola Sewing Circle of San Diego No. 208 is getting ready for its annual bazar. Recent meetings were held at the homes of Carrie Chambers and Virginia Burke. Mrs. Stella Boothe is the circle's new chairman. The Parlor had a tackey party at which games were played and refreshments were served. Past presidents of San Diego enjoyed a dinner.—L.M.

Martinez—As a result of their recent successful benefit card party, Las Juntas No. 221 and Mount Diablo No. 101 N.S.G.W. sent over $300 to the Central Homeless Children Committee.

Santa Ana—Santa Ana No. 235's officers, Genevieve Hiskey president, re-elected for a second term, were re-obligated by Deputy Theresa Stafford. The thimble club, Eunice Fox president, is very busy getting ready for a spring bazar. All-day meetings are held every Thursday. Plans are being formed for a cooked-food and rummage sale in the near-future.

Placentia—Grace No. 242 honored at a kitchen shower February 22 Miss Johanna Lemke, who was married the 25th to Chester Kent of Long Beach. Refreshments were served from a table centered by a beautifully decorated two-tier bridal cake. Special guests were the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Anna Lemke, and sister, Mrs. Evelyn Hawkins. Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg was also a visitor and told of her preview of the Golden Gate International Exposition. February 14 Grace's sewing club was entertained by Marie Haiber at a delicious valentine luncheon. Assisting hostesses were Mms. Nellie Cline, Helen Anderson and Lena Lawsen. February 16 the Parlor had its annual public card party for the benefit of the homeless children.—L.O.

Mojave—Desert Gold No. 250 presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the Red Rock School and Sidewinder Club, Mrs. Roy E. Root making the presentation. Other speakers were Supervising Deputy Georgia Sanders and Grand Trustee Evelyn G. Towne. Officers of the Parlor were installed by Deputy Edna Horn, Ina Duntley becoming president. Entertainment was provided, and refreshments were served at attractively decorated tables. The hand-painted napkins honoring the new president and the beautiful copper favors were made by Verlie Donley.

Stockton—One hundred and twenty-five members enjoyed the splendid dinner served by Stockton No. 256 in celebration of its fifth institution anniversary. Past Grand Irma Laird, the "mother" of the Parlor, was the honor-guest. A broadcasting studio atmosphere was created by the decorations. Each member lighted a small candle that made an impressive path of light uniting all the tables. The program included a parody on "The Battle of the Sexes." February 2 the Parlor had a "white elephant" auction. President Heber James appointed Irene Schwall chairman of a series of card parties, and Mattie Porter was named hope chest chairman.—T.A.B.

Ukiah—At joint public ceremonies, officers of Ukiah No. 263 and Ukiah No. 71 N.S.G.W. were installed by Deputies Olive E. Busch and A. T. Bechtol, Leila Williams and Daniel Cohen becoming the respective presidents. At the ceremonies' conclusion refreshments were served by a committee of Native Daughters.—D.M.B.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

Clarence M. Hewitt

Kilsoo K. Haan, a Korean who has been doing some investigating in Hawaii, declared in Sacramento the Japanese government has control of the Jap language schools there, which have an attendance of 42,662 students, 18,612 more than in 1921. Japan plans, he said, to send to the United States mainland the American-born Japs who have received, and are receiving, Jap military training and education in those schools.

Thus the "peaceful invasion" of the Pacific Coast by the Japs progresses under the always watchful eye of Japan, and nothing is being done to prevent repetition tomorrow in the United States of what happened in Korea yesterday and what is occurring in China today. Eventually, the fiddler must be paid!

The New York Court of Appeals, that state's highest tribunal, has ruled schoolchildren can be forced to salute the United States of America Flag, saying:

"The flag has nothing to do with religion and in all the history of this country it has stood for just the contrary, namely, the principle that people may worship as they please or need not worship at all."

In 1933 governments, federal, state and local, took from California taxpayers, according to the California Taxpayers Association, $449,410,504. During the year ended June 30, 1938, the take had increased to $854,000,000. Isn't it about time to drastically reduce the take, or shall California be permitted to become a financial wreck?

United States Senator Reynolds of North Carolina advocates suspending all immigration to this country "until every unemployed American is back at work." Such legislation, impartially enforced, is needed and would prove of untold benefit to this country and its citizens.

Reports are current that Jap fishing boats from Los Angeles and San Diego followed the United States fleet into the Caribbean Sea. United States District Attorney Benjamin Harrison says he has received information that quite a number of the boats have appeared there coincident with the navy's war games in those waters. Several of them are equipped with long-range glasses.

"It seems quite significant that these boats should be fishing there for the first time," says Harrison. Quite significant! Those boats always have been a decided menace to this country and should never have been permitted to operate in our coastal waters. They are fishing boats, yes, searching for vital information relative to Uncle Sam's defenses to turn over to the Jap government.

"SOME TAX FACTS" from the California Taxpayers Association that should arouse the taxpayers and cause them to unite and take forcible action to bring about a decided reduction in taxes: "There are 5,089 governmental units in California, each providing services and spending money collected from taxpayers. Total expenditures of the State of California, exclusive of Federal aid, have increased from $63,784,351 in 1923-24 to $529,717,469 in 1937-38—approximately 311 percent."

Wistaria Fete—The nineteenth annual Wistaria Fete, which takes place at Sierra Madre, Los Angeles County, during the blossoming period of the world's largest wistaria vine, will be held throughout April.

SAN BERNARDINO

CITY AND COUNTY — THE GATE WAY TO GOLDEN CALIFORNIA

ONTARIO—TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED people assembled at Chaffey High School and Junior College March 17 to witness the dedication of the new $400,000 auditorium at impressive ceremonies. President Gardiner W. Spring presided, and among the speakers was State Superintendent of Public Instruction Dr. Walter Dexter.

A feature of the evening was the presentation of a handsome United States of America Flag by Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. Dressed in white and wearing red camelias, President Marian Pierce, accompanied by two guards, Wilma Tucker and Audrey Van Fleet, carried the flag onto the stage. Theresa Stafford made the presentation address, which was responded to by John Chapman, a Chaffey student.

March 23, Ontario had as guests at dinner Supervising Deputy Eva Bemis and several members of Lugonia Parlor, San Bernardino. A skit, "The Persecuted Maiden," was presented by Margaret Cruises, Ruth Bech, Bobby Edwards, Warda Hocker, Eda Serotta and Audrey Van Fleet. March 24, Ruth Bech entertained the members of the Parlor at her home, the occasion being her birthday. Games and refreshments were enjoyed.

NEW MEETING PLACE.

San Bernardino—Commencing April 5, Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. will meet every Wednesday night in the improved and re-decorated American Legion Hall, 388 Fourth street. March 29 several candidates were initiated, the ceremonies being followed by refreshments.

NEIGHBORS VISITED.

San Bernardino—March 3 fourteen members of Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. journeyed to Placentia to visit Grace Parlor, and March 14 fourteen members went to Glendale to attend the official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs to Lugonia Parlor.

An all-day meeting of the Parlor's sewing club was held March 10 at the home of Ada McInerny. A potluck luncheon open to business girls was attended by ten. March 22, Lugonia had initiation, which was preceded by a dinner.

"HOLD FAST to the Bible as the sheet anchor of your liberties. Write its precepts on your hearts and practice them in your lives. To the influence of this book we are indebted for the progress made in civilization and to this we must look as our guide in the future."—Ulysses S. Grant.

CHARTER ANNIVERSARY—The University of California featured March 18-26 a program of events in commemoration of its seventy-first Charter anniversary. The university was chartered by the State Legislature under the stimulus of the Morrill Land Grant Act.

The Federal Agricultural Department reports perfection of methods whereby the juice from frozen oranges may be blended with other citrus juices to make a commercially acceptable food product.

Ramona, an early California outdoor play, will open for its sixteenth season in Ramona Bowl, Riverside County, April 22.

PRACTICE RECIPROCITY BY ALWAYS PATRONIZING GRIZZLY BEAR ADVERTISERS

GENERAL JOHN A. SUTTER AND THE MORMONS

Dr. Peter T. Conmy

Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

THE MORMON RELIGION, KNOWN OFficially as the Church of the Latter Day Saints, was founded in New York by Joseph Smith in 1830. Many converts were made, in rapid succession, in both the United States and in England. Difficulties soon arose, however. This was an age of religious intolerance. Mormonism was regarded with the same apprehension that the Quaker sect had been eyed a century and a half before. Furthermore, the endorsement of polygamy, both as an abstract principle and as a practice, by the Mormons brought them into disrepute with the people of the communities where they lived. Eventually there were bloodshed and riots. The Mormons sought refuge in the great western areas where there was elbow room. Ultimately they settled in Salt Lake City. Before that center was established, however, many of the Latter Day Saints had advanced to California. Some of them settled in San Francisco, while others pressed into the interior of the state, seeking work in the great valleys. Some of them went into the San Joaquin, where their memory is still preserved in the name of Mormon Slough. Others reached the American River and the domains of General Sutter. His dealings with them were similar to his relations with all other frontiersmen, namely, tolerant, kind and just.

The leading Mormon in early California was Samuel Brannan, after whom Brannan street in San Francisco is named. Prior to coming to California, Brannan had edited two organs of the church, namely, The New York Messenger and The Prophet. Learning of the intentions of President Polk to acquire California, and believing that an American population would serve to cement loyalty to the United States, the Mormons planned to form a colony in the territory. Brannan was commissioned to lead a colony of his co-religionists into California. He chartered the ship Brooklyn, and February 4, 1846, sailed from New York with a party of two hundred thirty-eight persons. This ship sailed first to the Hawaiian Islands, and reached San Francisco July 31st. Brannan followed his trade as printer for several months, devoting his Sundays to preaching. In 1847 he proceeded by land to Salt Lake, where he met the major Mormon expedition.

Samuel Brannan, however, did not agree with the plan to build a commonwealth at Salt Lake. In disgust, he returned to California, opening a store at Sutter's Fort. Here he remained throughout the months preceding the discovery of gold. His relations with Sutter were most cordial. Indeed, it was from Brannan that Sutter purchased on account the supplies which Marshall was using in the construction of the mill race when he accidentally discovered the first gold nugget. A number of Mormons were working for Sutter in the vicinity. As elder of the church organization, Brannan collected ten percent of their earnings as a tithe for the support of the same. General Sutter described Sam Brannan's store as follows:

"At that time Samuel Brannan and George Smith, a relative of the great Mormon prophet, . . . kept a store in one of my outhouses near the Fort. Aside from my own this was the first store opened in the Sacramento Valley. There were a good many settlers who brought hides, tallow and skins to this Mormon store and received manufactured articles in return. George McKinstry who was with me at that time called it the 'shirt tail' store, for every time I wanted a few things for my Indians, the proprietors exclaimed, 'Oh, you will break the assortment.' Nevertheless, this store assumed great importance after the discovery of gold."

The last statement in the foregoing quotation is true in more ways than one. It was at this store that one day a drunken man from Sutter's mill at Coloma first exposed the secret that gold had been discovered. Smith, to whom it was told, immediately communicated with Brannan. The latter at once laid the plans for the building of a great Mormon temple there, in honor of God, who had given them gold. This project never materialized. Later on, feeling that the gold discovery had not been publicized and desirous of opening the country, Brannan proceeded to San Francisco, where he electrified the people by showing sample nuggets with the cry, "Gold! Gold! Gold from the American River!"

In the present day, when the machine has caused so much unemployment, it is difficult to realize what an immediate disastrous effect the gold discovery had on the interests of Captain Sutter. He had projects throughout the length and breadth of the Sacramento Valley. His men at once deserted, leaving work undone and, in turn, causing him a great financial loss. The Mormon workmen, however, won his lasting gratitude because most of them stayed at their posts until their particular project was finished. Thus we find the following written in his diary for May 25, 1848:

"After the discovery of gold was known, it began to spread like wildfire all over California and then all over the world. With that all my plans and projects came to naught. One after another of my people disappeared in the direction of the gold fields. Only the Mormons behaved decently at first. They were sorry for the difficulties in which I found myself, and some of them remained to finish their jobs. But in the long run they too could not resist the temptation. The first party of Mormons left for Coloma as early as March 7th and the rest of them followed later. Only the sick and the crippled remained behind."

Lest the impression be gained that all the Mormons who were working in the Sacramento and San Joaquin Valleys had come on the ship Brooklyn, chartered by Samuel Brannan, it should be stated that some five hundred entered California as soldiers during the Mexican War in the famous and historical Mormon Battalion. This unit of the United States Army was formed in the East at the behest of certain Mormon leaders who felt that the war between the United States and Mexico would be a splendid opportunity for them to display their love of country and win the lasting gratitude of their fellow citizens. By this course they sought to stop the persecution that had attended their settlement in every community.

The officials of the United States Government were not at all kindly disposed to this plan, but consented to the formation of a battalion of five companies consisting of one hundred men each of Mormon volunteers for service in California. This outfit was mustered in at Council Bluffs, leaving there July 20, 1846, marching across the continent, and arriving in California January 29, 1847. The war was practically over when the battalion arrived. For six months the men were used for garrison duty. Most of them were discharged from the army in July 1847. A large number of them gradually wound their way back to Salt Lake. Others remained permanently in the great valley region of California.

One of the Mormon workmen at Sutter's Mill at Coloma was Henry Bigler. After Marshall's discovery, Bigler observed the river carefully for gold deposits. It was difficult for him to do this on working days without being observed, but on Sundays he was free to watch about as he pleased. Finding gold both on the north and the south currents of the river, Bigler wrote February 21st to three of his co-religionists who were working at Sutter's Fort, telling them of the secret and charging them to tell no one about the discovery. The 27th three of them arrived at the mill, and telling Marshall that they had come to get gold were by him graciously received and permitted to search in the river. They spent several days at this and found a number of deposits. The 2nd of March they returned to Sutter's Fort. They and the Mormons at the mill continued at work until the projects they were engaged in were completed. The 7th of April they settled their accounts with Sutter and set June 1st as the date when they would set out for the Salt Lake settlement.

However, they determined to carry to the church as much gold as they could, and to this end and purpose entered the mining area for a time. They operated mainly on the South Fork of the American River. Hence the place where they had found gold February 27th became known as Mormon Diggings, and a small island in the channel as Mormon Island. To the honor and credit of these Mormons, let it be said that they recognized the property as Sutter's and would not appropriate the gold except by permission from him. This led to an agreement between them and him by which it was provided that Sutter and Marshall would furnish them the supplies necessary for mining on condition that they would give them half of what they found.

The Mormons, unlike other early settlers, were quite detached from the lure of the gold and hence they stopped operations June 17th,

TIME TO WAKE UP AND END THIS MENACE TO NATION

WHEN THE UNITED STATES ATtorney for the southern district of California speaks of an alien menace, he speaks with authority. When that Federal official is a member of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, and he urges the Order to take vigorous action to combat the menace, his words fall upon fertile soil. Thus, United States Attorney Ben Harrison of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110, San Bernardino, was given a great welcome when, March 16, he addressed a very large gathering of Native Sons from all the Los Angeles County Parlors at the hall of University Parlor No. 272, Los Angeles City. Bernard G. Hiss presided, and the speaker was introduced by Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer.

Prefacing his remarks with the statement that California's commercial fishing is a ten-million-dollar industry and deserving of every possible protection, Attorney Harrison pointed out that many aliens had become owners and operators of boats which spend much of their time in espionage directed against this nation's defenses.

Citing a message to the Congress of the United States by President Washington in 1790 wherein was set forth the dangers to national security through lack of control over ownership of vessels engaged in commerce and fishing, he stated the present activities of aliens constitute a menace of almost exact parallel. "Indeed, the laws under which we now control aliens so engaged are the result of legislation inspired by President Washington, and which since have been altered only slightly."

Harrison explained that some of the modern fishing vessels have tremendous cruising radii, have been active in determining the nature and extent of American defenses, and appear frequently at scenes of naval maneuvers. Some are known to go to Ensenada, where they pick up alien crews and fly the Japanese flag until their return to Ensenada, where the crews are dropped. Then the United States Flag is again raised, preparatory to entering their American port of registry. "To eradicate this menace," declared Harrison, "should be a major objective of the Order."

Following a discussion of Attorney Harrison's startling message by Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, Leo V. Youngworth, "Bob" Brazelton, Past Grand President John T. Newell, Deputy Grand President Ben Hiss, Supervising Deputy John O'B. Bodkin, District Deputies Clarence S. Hunt, Roy Tarleton and George LaRue, Walter Gilman, Roger Johnson, William Reuter and others, this resolution, approved by the Grand Parlor Americanization Committee—Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, chairman, Ben Harrison, Leo V. Youngworth, Southard M. Modry and Harry P. Domeniconi—was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, The Native Sons of the Golden West was organized, among other things, for the purpose of encouraging active interest in matters and measures material to the upbuilding of the State of California and the welfare of the citizens of the United States, and

"Whereas, The Native Sons of the Golden West believe that the material interests of the United States and of the State of California and their citizens can best be served in these troublesome times by promoting and encouraging the employment of citizens of the United States in American industries; and

"Whereas, The Native Sons of the Golden West further believe that the natural resources of the State of California should be held and exploited for the benefit and use of citizens of the United States, and

"Whereas, One of our greatest natural resources, the fishing industry of our State, is being used by and exploited for the material gain and benefit of those whose sympathies and allegiance are foreign to our shores, and

"Whereas, Aliens in the commercial fishing industry now maintain a fishing fleet of large proportions, which could render great assistance to an enemy's navy in time of emergency; and

"Whereas, There are now pending before the Legislature of the State of California Assembly Bill No. 2414 and Senate Bill No. 736, and companion bills, the object and intent of which is to prohibit aliens from fishing for commercial purposes in California waters;

"Now, therefore, We, members of the Native Sons of the Golden West and citizens of the United States of America, assembled in a joint meeting of the Los Angeles County Parlors . . . do unanimously concur with our Grand Parlor Americanization Committee and join in endorsing and recommending the passage of Assembly Bill No. 2414 and Senate Bill No. 736, or bills based upon similar objectives, and urge all citizens of this commonwealth to communicate with their representatives in the State Legislature recommending the enactment of this legislation to the end that only citizens of the United States may be employed in the operation of our fishing industry, and that such fleet shall not only be citizen owned, but citizen manned."

All members of the State Legislature are to receive copies of the resolution and Native Sons will address civic groups, to the end that fishing in the coastal waters of California may be limited exclusively to citizens of the United States and to boats flying the American Flag.

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

IN RECEIVING GRAND PRESIDENT EDNA B. Briggs on her official visit March 15, Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. spared no effort to present a lovely appearance, both as to the officers, who were smartly gowned and carried Hollywood roses, and the meeting-hall, which was gorgeously decorated with white stock. Several candidates were initiated, and there were inspiring talks by the Grand President, other visitors, and members of the Parlor. Previous to the meeting, dinner was served at the Women's Athletic Club, with Past Grand Grace Stoermer presiding.

March 12, Los Angeles dedicated a plaque at San Fernando Mission. Chairman Elsie Amidon of the history and landmarks committee presided, and Grand President Briggs made the dedicatory address. The plaque is inscribed: "Mission San Fernando Rey de Espana, founded by Father Fermin Francisco de Lasuen September 8, 1797. Presented by Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 Native Daughters of the Golden West March 12, 1939." Preceding the dedication, President Ann Schiebusch entertained at breakfast, among her guests being Mrs. Briggs and her sister, Mrs. Flora Schmittgen, Grand Trustees Evalyn G. Towne and Mary B. Noerenberg, Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer, Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen and Deputy Flora Jacobson. March 25, the Parlor staged a lovely spring fashion show and luncheon, which was largely attended. Elsie Amidon and President Schiebusch shared honors as hostesses, and Edna Neikirk had charge of ticket sales.

Thirty-eight years of service to the state and the community will be completed April 19, when Los Angeles has a big birthday party in celebration of the thirty-eighth anniversary of its institution. There will be fun galore and renewals of friendships that night. A good program has been arranged, including a color film of the Mediterranean countries, which Program Chairman Olinda Kerby says is the "loveliest e-er." April 29, the Parlor's sewing club will meet at the home of First Vice-president Louise MacNary, 161 North Gardner, for 1 o'clock luncheon.—H.M.

OLDTIMERS TO ENTERTAIN.

At a joint meeting of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. and Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. March 9, four candidates were initiated for the former and one for the latter, the excellent team of No. 45 exemplifying the ritual. Marshal Robert G. Ricks and Irene Maylor were wedded March 23 in the lodgeroom of Los Angeles Parlor, Superior Judge Rubin Schmidt of Ramona Parlor performing the ceremony.

April 20, the oldtimers of Los Angeles, led by Deputy Sheriff Walter D. Gilman, will entertain in honor of Past Grand John T. Newell, whose birthday is that date. This will be a great occasion, with plenty of entertainment and an excellent feast, and members of all Parlors are invited. April 27 a spring dance will be held to raise funds to send the Parlor's delegates to the San Francisco Grand Parlor.—F.F.

"LIVE WITH COURAGE, VISION, HOPE."

Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. was officially visited by Grand President Edna B. Briggs March 14. At the Dresden luncheon which preceded the meeting, the tables were beautifully adorned with spring blossoms in pastel tints. President Marion Hale Johnson welcomed the many guests, and introduced Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg as chairman of the day.

Grand President Briggs, in the course of an inspiring address on "Civic Participation," stressed the fact that that is the heritage and the obligation of the Native Daughters of the Golden West. "Live with courage, vision and hope," she urged. "Whose Picture Is This?" was the topic of the guest speaker, Justice Thomas White of Ramona Parlor N.S.G.W. He paid high tribute to women, picturing them as being faithful and tender through all the ages. Other guests were Rev. Father J. de Prada, Judge Oda Falconer, Judge and Mrs. E. J. Milne, Postmaster Mary D. Briggs, Grand Trustee Evalyn Towne, Mrs. Flora Schmittgen, Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen, Deputy Leola Temby and State Chairman Veterans Welfare Anna Schiebusch. Miss Aileen O'Hearn, accompanied by Mrs. Grace Hale, delighted with vocal numbers.

At the Parlor meeting after the luncheon, five candidates were initiated, and numerous presentations were made, including one of silver to the Grand President. March 6, Hospitality Chairman Edith Adams and Mrs. Dexter Monroe were hostesses to the Gertrude Sewing Club. To obtain funds for program work, the Parlor will dispose of a painting by Alphonse Fages. Californiana's new members were honored at tea March 28. General Program Chairman Isabel Fages presented Jose Rodriguez, radio commentator, who spoke on "Should We Help Our Artists?"—O.L.

ANNIVERSARY BANQUET.

Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. has completed arrangements for its institution anniversary banquet, which will be held the evening of April 12 at the Hollywood Athletic Club. This is the Parlor's feature event annually. All members of the Order are invited. Reservations should be made with Secretary Wm. Hortenstine.

George M. Breslin will be the toastmaster, and the guest speaker will be Judge Leroy Dawson. The committee of arrangements includes John O'B. Bodkin, chairman, Al E. Dennis, Wm. Hortenstine, Fred H. Witman and John P. Wright.

A CHALLENGE TO GO FORWARD.

Long Beach—Twenty-five hundred citizens and tourists witnessed March 12 the surprise presentation by Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. of a California State (Bear) Flag to the Long Beach Municipal Band in the Municipal Auditorium. President Josephine Reichman made the presentation address, which was responded to by Conductor Herbert L. Clark, who said the flag will be displayed as the band tours the United States. W. band's thirty-year history, and remarked that W. Willy and himself, originators of the musical organization, were native Californians. Americanization Chairman Francis Galvin was in charge of arrangements.

Inspiration and a challenge to go forward were given those who participated in the official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs to Long Beach March 16. The festivities began with a dinner at which the true California spirit prevailed. The theme, "Treasure Island," was carried out in blue and gold, and at each place was a small treasure chest filled with candy coins. The after-dinner speaker, Frank Pederson of the California International Exposition, illustrated his humorous talk with colored films.

A highlight of the meeting which followed the dinner was the introduction of a new escort team consisting of six of the Parlor's more recent initiates. Escorting Grand President Briggs to her place of honor, the team made a beautiful setting for the presentation of a lei of gardenias to her by Marshal Della Degatana while Miss Eleanor Starr sang "A Little White Gardenia." In the course of an address, Mrs. Briggs gave the history of California's Great Seal of State. Refreshments were served after the meeting by a committee composed of Nellie Cooke, chairman, Margaret Burch, Mary Provzanick, Ruth Irwin and Eleanore Starr. The April 20 monthly social will commemorate the birthdays of members born in March and April. Nellie Cooke is the committee chairman.—R.J.

FAITHFUL SECRETARY REMEMBERED.

Santa Monica—Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. had as visitors March 9 Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards and Deputy Grand President Clarence S. Hunt. March 23 the Parlor honored its faithful secretary, John J. Smith, at a birthday party. Entertainment was provided, refreshments were served, and "Smithy" was the recipient of many presents. To assist the drum and bugle corps to make a creditable San Francisco Admission Day showing, Captain "Bill" Heyne arranged for a benefit stag show March 30.

Commencing April 4, Santa Monica Bay will meet every Tuesday evening at Native Sons Hall, 1334½ Fifth street. April 18 a class of candidates will be initiated. May 11 the booster committee will feature a big show for the benefit of the homeless children.

HARBOR SIGHTS SHOWN VISITOR.

San Pedro — Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. observed its fourteenth institution anniversary March 9. Deputy Olinda Kirby was the guest of the evening. Civic Chairman Katherine Dodson told of plans to present flags to the San Pedro Elks Club April 10. Refreshments, including a birthday cake decorated with California poppies, were served by Chairman Letitia Sarciaux and committee. The Florencita Thimble Club met March 1 and 15, respectively, at the homes of Lucy Guzman and Margaret Kreider for luncheon and work.

Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit to Rudecinda March 18. Following lunch at the California Yacht Club, Wilmington, attended by members of the Parlor and of Stephen M. White Parlor N.S.G.W., she was taken for a boat ride about San Pedro Harbor. In the evening, Mrs. Briggs, Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg, Past Grand Grace Stoermer, Deputy Olinda Kirby, and Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards and Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer of the Native Sons were guests at a banquet. The table decorations were small yellow boats with red sails, and a replica of the Santa Maria, and the placecards were hand-painted poppies on a white background. With lights dimmed, "Red Sails in the Sunset" was sung by Rowena Berenstein, accompanied by Margaret Kreider.

Just prior to the opening ceremonies of the Parlor meeting, President Jack Mele, William A. Reuter and Matt Soares of Stephen M. White N.S.G.W. appeared and, on that Parlor's behalf, presented a basket of flowers to Grand President Briggs. Seven candidates were initiated, and short talks were given by guests of the evening. On the Parlor's behalf, Past President Marcella Sandoval, accompanied by an escort team, presented a small lighthouse to Mrs. Briggs, and while Rowena Berenstein sang "Aloha," Chairman Florence Schoneman of the junior auxiliary placed a lei about the Grand President's neck. —R.B.

STATE FLAG GIVEN JUNIOR COLLEGE.

Glendale—The official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs to Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. March 14 was preceded by a 7 o'clock supper, the color scheme of which was green and white. Miss Phyllis Overton furnished music during the repast. At the meeting, the

Native Sons of the Golden West

SAN FRANCISCO — THE BOARD OF Grand Officers met at Native Sons Building February 25. In attendance were Grand President Joseph J. McShane, who presided, Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller, Grand Second Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustees Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Wayne R. Millington, Raymond D. Williamson, Walter C. Richards, Walter P. Rothenbush, Charles A. Redding and R. G. Power.

A motion was adopted declaring that the Board "favors the principle that fishing for commercial purposes in American waters should be done exclusively by ships flying the American Flag and manned by United States citizens." Members of the State Legislature were ordered advised of the action taken.

A letter was received from the University of California Regents thanking the Order for the $1,000 contribution for history fellowships.

The Grand Secretary was, on motion, directed to communicate with Dr. Herbert E. Bolton of the University of California History Department, and urge that the N.S.G.W. library be given a copy of each book compiled from material gathered by Native Sons Traveling History Fellows.

A request for an appropriation for a "Calendar Guide to the French Archives," provided for in Resolution No. 8 introduced at the 1938 (San Jose) Grand Parlor, was, on recommendation of the California History Board, denied.

A Mothers Day Ritual submitted to the 1938 (San Jose) Grand Parlor was adopted, and a copy was ordered mailed to each Subordinate Parlor. Proposed amendments to the Funeral Ritual were ordered submitted to the San Francisco Grand Parlor for final approval.

A revised Dedicatory Ceremony, to be used when it is not possible to place a bronze plaque, was adopted.

The proposed refinancing of the Santa Rosa N.S.G.W. Hall Association was, on motion, approved, as was the sale for $1,250 of property in Fresno City owned by the Grand Parlor.

At 7:15 p.m. the Board adjourned to the call of Grand President Joseph J. McShane.

Lavish Entertainment for Spring Picnic.

Los Banos—Carrying out a tradition founded more than three-score years ago in this city, Los Banos No. 206 is sponsoring another gala revival of the historically famous Miller & Lux spring picnic and barbecue. The dates have been fixed for April 28, 29 and 30 and May 1.

A program of lavish entertainment will be climaxed by a great historical parade April 30. A May Day barbecue will be served to more than 15,000 people, all of whom will be the guests of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the San Joaquin Valley west side. The Golden West girl contest, to select a queen of the May, is under way and the winners will be rewarded with trips to the New York World's Fair, the Golden Gate International Exposition at San Francisco and the Golden Empire Centennial at Sacramento.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Placerville—Placerville No. 9 received an official visit from Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr February 28. Among the many others in attendance were Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Second Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Grand Outside Sentinel Walter E. Bailey. A dinner preceded the meeting, and the drum and bugle corps of Sacramento No. 3 paraded the streets.

Eureka—Humboldt No. 14 initiated three candidates March 13. On the Parlor's behalf, President J. V. McDonald presented an emblematic watch charm to Ray Breeden for faithful service as president for the year 1938. A game of horseshoes in the Humboldt County Parlors series was played with Ferndale No. 93, and the latter won, 9 to 7.

Sutter Creek—Amador No. 17 entertained the members of Amapola No. 80 N.D.G.W. at a turkey banquet March 11. Speakers included Past Grand Clarence E. Jarvis, Dan Ramazzotti and William G. Snyder. Dancing concluded a most pleasant evening.

Petaluma—The annual banquet of Petaluma No. 27 was one of the most successful affairs ever sponsored by the Parlor. Carl Plow was the toastmaster, and LeRoy J. Lounibos delivered an eloquent address on "George Washington." Reminiscences were related by John W. Murphy and H. P. Dohring, oldtime members of the Parlor. Other speakers included Grand Trustee Charles A. Redding, Grand Inside Sentinel Louis Bosch, District Deputy Charles E. Bacigalupi and President Frank Witham.

Bakersfield—Bakersfield No. 42 initiated several candidates March 1. Hal Bannister of the history and landmarks committee revealed plans for marking in the near-future Discover Well in the Kern River oil fields, and Roy Loudon spoke of plans for a statue of Garces. A steak supper was served by Ralph Garcia. In the public speaking contest sponsored by the Parlor March 10, Miss Roma Stone of Wasco Union High School was the winner, and will participate in the semi-final at Los Angeles. Her subject was "Old Sonoma, Home of the Bear Flag."

Napa—Napa No. 62 sponsored a dance, with District Deputy George Bruno as chairman, for the benefit of the Napa Union High School band's uniform fund. As a result, President Ed Wilson, on the Parlor's behalf, March 10 presented a $358.48 check to the band, and it was accepted by Principal Earle E. Crawford of the school.

Redwood City—Redwood No. 66 celebrated the birth of Saint Patrick March 16 with a "jigger" dinner prepared by Clarence McJunker and committee. James Peter Hagen was master of ceremonies, and County Tax Collector Amby McSweeney gave a brief account of Saint Patrick's life. Other speakers were County Assessor Dan Patrick Flynn, James T. O'Keefe, forty-eight years a member of the Parlor, W. H. Morrissey, Dr. J. C. McGovern, and Dan Stafford, forty-seven years a member, who spoke of Redwood's oldtimers. The Parlor's hillbillies provided music.

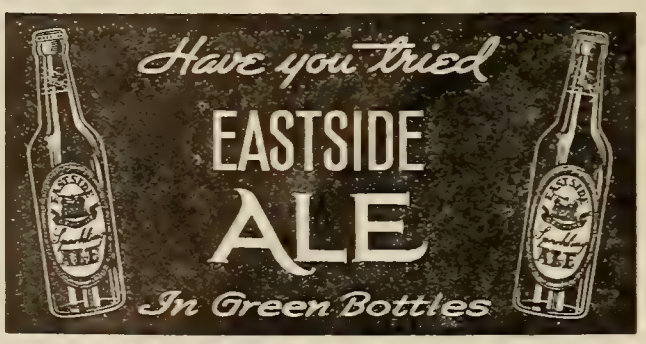
Colusa—Colusa No. 69 initiated eight candidates March 14. Arthur Godfrey of the Colusa High School faculty delivered an interesting address on phases of German life as he found it while resident there. A banquet was served after the meeting.

Folsom—Granite No. 83 added several new names to its roster roll February 20, the ritual being exemplified by a team of visitors from Sacramento headed by Albert W. Katzenstein. Sacramento No. 3's drum and bugle corps was on hand to enliven the occasion, and a supper was served at the close of the meeting. March 14, Granite and Fern No. 123 N.D.G.W. had a "centennial night." An appropriate program was presented, and a potluck supper was served.

Calistoga—Calistoga No. 86 was officially visited by Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller who, in the course of a stirring address, stressed the Order's civic and patriotic activities. Other visitors and speakers were Grand Marshal Harold J. Zimmerman and District Deputy Armen Nishkian.

Livermore—Andrew Coleen McLeod, the last surviving charter member of Las Positas No. 96, died at San Francisco, March 16, survived by a wife. He was born at Centerville, Alameda County, November 11, 1868.

San Diego—San Diego No. 108 adopted February 22 a resolution, proposed by Eugene Daney Jr., Everett N. Curtis, Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer and Henry W. Hache, setting forth that "1942 will be the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of California and the landing of the first White men on the shores of San Diego Bay, and the four hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus," and requesting that the coming Grand Parlor designate the City of San Diego as the place for holding the Admission Day celebration of 1942.



Sonoma—In conjunction with Sonoma No. 111, the Sonoma County Parlors plan a "Louie Bosch night," in honor of Grand Inside Sentinel Louis Bosch, to be held here April 18. At the gathering a large class of candidates will be initiated.

Hayward—Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr officially visited Eden No. 113, and was greeted by a large attendance of Alameda County members of the Order. In his honor, several candidates were initiated. The entertainment committee put on the annual crab banquet, and a hillbilly band furnished music. March 15 a large delegation from Eden attended the annual Saint Patrick party of Twin Peaks Parlor in San Francisco.

and selected a rendezvous where all who were going to make the trek to Salt Lake might meet. The place they selected was called Pleasant Valley, near the present site of Placerville. July 3rd they bade farewell to the domains of Captain Sutter, where they had been received in the open-hearted spirit with which he greeted all, both those of whose religions he approved and those of whose religions he disapproved. Probably this was the only incident of the long years of Mormon wandering before Salt Lake was founded that they had enjoyed religious toleration.

It was the presence of so many different religions here in the early mining days that planted in the traditions of California that spirit of true American religious toleration.

The Sacramento County Spring Flower Show will be held April 22 and 23 at Sacramento City.

Army Day, April 6, has been proclaimed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The Solano County Fair will be held April 28-30 at Dixon.

HOMELESS CHILDREN

A Worthwhile Non-sectarian Endeavor Sponsored and Supported by the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

IS YOUR PARLOR'S NAME PUBLISHED HERE?

DOES YOUR PARLOR'S NAME APPEAR in this list of contributors to the homeless children fund? If not, the Central Committee wishes to call your attention to the fact that March 31, 1939, will be the end of the Committee's fiscal year, and all contributions must reach the central office, 998 Eddy street, San Francisco, not later than April 10, 1939, if they are to be included in the printed annual report, which must be ready for the N.S.G.W. Grand Parlor.

Many of the Parlors have, we know, given benefits for the children, but have not completed their returns. Others are planning, and their members are working hard in an effort to do their full part toward making the work possible for another year.

The contributions listed in this issue of The Grizzly Bear were received between April 1, 1938, and March 15, 1939. They total $6,208.92. Adding to that sum $3,223.42 refund on board, $1,198 contributed by friends and $136.20 from dividends makes a grand total of $10,766.54. The budget that must be raised if the Native Sons and the Native Daughters are to continue to help the little ones who need them is $20,000!

CALIFORNIA FIFTY YEARS AGO

Thomas W. McAuliffe

Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

THE TWELFTH ANNUAL GRAND PARlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West convened at San Rafael, Marin County, April 15, 1889. The sessions, presided over by Grand President Marcus A. Dorn, were held in Gordan's Opera House. T. C. Hocking was elected official reporter, and Grand Secretary Henry Lundstedt announced the appointment of W. W. Shannon as Assistant Grand Secretary. General M. G. Vallejo, the oldest Native Son, sent greetings and regretted that sickness detained him at home. GRIZZLY GROWLS

THE FOLLOWING EXCERPTS FROM an article in Hawaii Hochi, a Japanese newspaper of Honolulu, and reprinted in the Japanese New World Sun of San Francisco, September 26, 1938, indicate a situation that well merits the most serious consideration:

"The total Japanese population of Hawaii at present (1938) is estimated at 153,539, representing 37.31 percent of the whole. Out of the total Japanese population there are 116,584 who are American citizens. This is nearly 76 percent of the entire racial bloc. . . . alien Japanese make up only 9.2 percent of the whole population of the territory. . . . so it would appear that the Japanese bloc that could vote if it wanted to do so, that could register as a qualified group of electors. . . . amounts to about 35 percent of the total eligible electorate.

"That such a group would be in a position to swing elections if it acted in a solid bloc is beyond question. The Japanese are in a position to hold the balance of power and to use it effectively if they choose. So far they have not functioned as a racial bloc, which is the best proof of their Americanization. But what if they should decide to use their strength in the only truly American way in which mass solidarity can be demonstrated—at the ballot box?

"On any issue that affected them as a racial group, affected their interests as a particular section representing one-third of the citizenship, they would have a perfect right to stick together and fight for their own candidates. They would be saps if they didn't.

"Figures do not lie. American citizens of Japanese ancestry are approaching the point of strength at which it will be possible for them to challenge any party, any candidate, any platform or any policy."

Here is expressed in no uncertain terms the threat of the Japanese to use their racial plurality to dominate Hawaii. It is not stated, however, that two-thirds of these American citizens of Japanese ancestry who have the power to "challenge any party, any candidate, any platform or any policy" have failed to expatriate and are therefore also citizens of Japan, and bound to obey her orders in peace and in war.

Should statehood be granted to Hawaii, and should the principle of self-determination become effective, what may be the future of our western outpost, where a large majority of American citizens of the preponderant race, who threaten openly to use their political power for their own purposes, are, through choice, citizens also of a powerful and jealous nation which demands and receives active loyalty from its subjects in whatever portion of the world they may reside.—California Joint Immigration Committee.

Addressing the Council on Foreign Relations at Chicago, Illinois, Herbert Hoover, former President of the United States, said: "Our job of defense against these un-American ideologies is to eliminate communist, socialist and fascist ideas and persons from our own institutions. It is to maintain the ideals of free men, which make this unprofitable soil for such alien seed. I am confident that if the lamp of liberty can be kept alight these ideologies will yet die of their own falsity. They spring not from moral and spiritual inspirations, but from the stupidity of men."

By a six-to-two decision, the United States Supreme Court has wiped out income tax immunity that employes of government federal, state, county, municipal, township, etc., etc.,—have long enjoyed. That was one of the best bits of news to come out of the National Capital in a long time.

There is absolutely no reason why government employes should be exempt from any tax, and especially the income tax. They are well provided for, and they have no worries about where their pay is coming from. Collection from them of the income tax should not be delayed, and there should be no favored exceptions. Tax equality should prevail in these United States!

Assembly Bill No. 1297, proposing amendments to the California Alien Land Law, with special reference to escheat proceedings, is before the State Legislature. The bill should be thoroughly inspected and very closely studied, that any white Jap or yellow Jap sponsored joker, if such there be in the bill, may be brought to light and the proposed amendments voted down.

Those interested in keeping California white insist that the Alien Land Law be strengthened, not weakened. Because the law has not been enforced by public official charged with its enforcement, it has been and is being shamefully ignored and openly violated both by yellow Japs and white Japs. It is a good and needed law, however, and should not be amended to please and benefit the white Japs who have sold our birthright, California, to the yellow Japs for a few yellow-dollars.

The first notable discovery of gold in California is credited to James Marshall at Coloma, El Dorado County, January 1848. The second point of discovery was in Auburn Ravine, Placer County, August 1848, a few rods below the present building block erected by The Placer Herald. The camp was then known as Wood's Dry Diggings. The country had not been surveyed and householders held their lots under squatter's rights. The settlers named the camp Auburn, and it soon became an important trading point.

Here are some prices at Auburn in the month of December 1849: 12 lbs. rice at 75c, $9.00; 11 lbs. sugar at 80c, $8.80; 10 lbs. dried peaches at $1.00, $10.00; 77 lbs. pork at 80c, $61.60; 85 lbs. corned beef at 50c, $42.50; 150 lbs. flour at 60c, $90.00. Payment was made in gold dust at $16 per ounce. Miners were securing good returns in sluicing gold. If the diggings did not produce an ounce per day, however, they went to other camps.—Editor Ivan H. Parker in the Auburn, Placer County, Herald.

GOD'S LITTLE THINGS

(LIDA NEWMAN DIEDERICH.)

I walked with heart bowed down with grief.
Saw violets blooming, a purple sheaf,
So tiny, yet so fair to behold,
Souls of sweetness, hearts of gold;
Bringing a message from God to man,
They are little sections of His great plan.

Against my heart, so wearied with care,
A little child nestled with loving touch.
A tiny hand slipped into mine,
A little voice whispered "I love you so much;"
One of God's little ones led me where
I felt anew His love and care.

The blackness of night hung o'er my way.
I lifted my eyes to the hills afar;
A tiny gleam in the big, black dark,
I saw the shine of a little star;
And the consciousness of Love and Light
Brought glory to the wide, dark night.

Oh hour! that doth all life enfold,
Turning gloom to brightness, black to gold;
We thank Thee for each little thing
That doth to us Thy message bring;
And when Thy little things appeal,
Give us eyes to see and hearts to feel.

—Ione Valley Echo.

NATIVE SONS SIXTY-SECOND ANNUAL GRAND PARLOR

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE SIXTY-SECOND Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, which will assemble at San Francisco Monday, May 15, are progressing. The Grand Parlor sessions will be held in the auditorium of Native Sons Building Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Grand President Joseph J. McShane of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214, San Francisco, will preside throughout the deliberations and, at their conclusion, will automatically become the Junior Past Grand President.

All arrangements for the Grand Parlor are being made by a general committee from the San Francisco Extension of the Order Committee made up of representatives of the twenty-two San Francisco Subordinate Parlors. Officers of the general committee are: Joseph E. Tracy of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214, chairman; Joseph E. Tinney of Rincon Parlor No. 72, vice-chairman; Harold J. Regan of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, secretary. Chairmen of subcommittees of the general committee include:

Accommodations, Harry Romick of Castro Parlor No. 232; badges, Edward C. Neely of Stanford Parlor No. 76; banquet, Eugene H. O'Donnell of Dolores Parlor No. 208; entertainment, Peter Butti of Castro Parlor No. 232; grand ball, Percy J. Hughes of Golden Gate Parlor No. 29; night parade, Paul Conniff of Pacific Parlor No. 10; printing, Joseph Rose of National Parlor No. 118; publicity, Dr. Peter T. Conmy of Presidio Parlor No. 194; registration, Fred Kockler of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214.

The tentative entertainment program includes: Monday evening, May 15, reception in honor of Grand President and Mrs. Joseph J. McShane. Tuesday, all-day outing, with luncheon and a trip to the Golden Gate International Exposition. Wednesday evening, Grand Parlor banquet. Thursday, all-day outing; evening, grand ball in California Hall of the California State Building on Treasure Island. All-day sessions of the Grand Parlor will be held Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE.

Indications are that there will be at the San Francisco Grand Parlor more candidates for elective offices than for some years past, and that is a healthy sign. The Grizzly Bear has

In Memoriam

SYLVIA B. DAVENPORT.

To the Officers and Members of Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee on resolutions, respectfully submit this treatise of love and esteem to the memory of Sister Sylvia B. Davenport, who departed from our midst on February 7, 1939:

Whereas, Our most valued sister and neighbor was born of pioneer parents on May 21, 1854, in Yucaipa, California, her cheerful individualism and sterling qualities having been carved from those early California days; and

Whereas She, being a charter member of Lugonia Parlor and until the gates of heaven closed behind her was one of our most faithful members; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the officers and members of this organization do, hereby, express their profound sorrow at the passing of an associate to whom we looked for sincere friendship. "She is not lost to those who love her, only gone before." Be it further

Resolved, That this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this Parlor, one copy thereof to be mailed to The Grizzly Bear, and one copy to her bereaved family as an expression of sympathy from the officers and members of Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH ROBERDS,
EVA M. BEMIS
EVELYN SHADDOX,
RHODA W. SMITH.

Countersigned: MARGUERITE D McKENZIE, President; EVELYN SHADDOX, Secretary.

San Bernardino, February 21, 1939.

MARY CLARA PERKINS.

To the Officers and Members of Manzanita Parlor No. 29 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed Sister Mary Clara Perkins, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas God, in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to come again into our midst and remove from our Parlor, her family and home one who was very dear to us, our Order has lost a worthy member and a true and loyal Native Daughter. Her sudden death was a great shock to our membership, and has left a vacancy in her home that never can be filled.

"While now upon our hearts and home
The heavy shadow lies
May light of kindly comfort come
From friends who sympathize."

Therefore, be it resolved, That we, the members of Manzanita Parlor No. 29 Native Daughters of the Golden West, extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved husband, daughter and other family members; and be it further resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, that a copy be sent the family, and The Grizzly Bear for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

VERE HANSEN,
ALYNE BISHOP,
HANNAH BELLA DALEY,
President.

Grass Valley, February 21, 1939.

MARY JANE STOKES.

To the Officers and Members of Manzanita Parlor No. 29 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions to the memory of our departed Sister Mary Jane Stokes, submit the following:

Again the Angel of Death has visited our Parlor and taken a member from our midst, again we bow to the will of the Father in Heaven and offer a silent prayer in memory of our beloved sister and tenderly condole with her bereft dear ones in their hour of trial and bereavement, asking our loving Father to guide them and to lighten their sorrow.

"He careth! Then there is no need to weep
A messenger of love is ever nigh
Before we call the answer to our prayers
Thru some blest channel cometh succor
Take heart then troubled ones, recall the past
What proof of angel messengers have past
No hour so dark, no dismal or so drear
But angel voice was heard to beat the fear."

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt and sincere sympathy, and be it further resolved, that a copy of this memorial be sent to the family of our departed sister, that a copy be inserted in the minutes of [illegible] Parlor and a copy [illegible] The Grizzly Bear for publication.

SAN FRANCISCO

AT PUBLIC CEREMONIES IN NATIVE Sons Building March 16, Genevieve Parlor No. 132 N.D.G.W. paid tribute to its deceased charter members by dedicating United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags. Rena Taube presided, Mrs. Marie Brady led in the flag salute, and President Virginia Hannon extended greetings to those assembled.

Guest speakers were Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola and Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, who inspiringly dedicated, respectively, the flags of the Nation and the State, and Joseph Tinney, who delivered a spirited address. The speakers reminded their hearers of the necessity of education, religious liberty, freedom of speech and protection of the individual in the ownership of property, and stressed the need of their being ever loyal to a government which guarantees freedom and opportunity. Musical selections were rendered by Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Miss Lillian Troy and Mrs. Alicia O'Day.

The arrangements committee included Rena Taube, chairman, Caroline Kerwin, Camille Maughan, Lillian Troy and Clare Moore. Hostess committee: Lillian Ryan, Eugenia Mabely, Belle Foley, Nora Scheflin, Mayme O'Leary, Mae Keane, Kathryn Barron, Rose Jorrissen, Eleanor Peguillan, Mae Powers and Rose Regan.

DEPUTIES HOSTESSES AT HOME.

As has been the custom since the erection of the Native Daughters Home, the annual dinner honoring the Grand President was given Saturday evening, February 25, at the Home. Mrs. Edna B. Briggs, the guest of honor, was the recipient of a gift of sterling silver from members of the Grand Parlor Home Committee, grand officers and Past Grand Presidents. Past Grand President Evelyn I. Carlson presided, and Past Grand President Emma G. Foley made the presentation address.

The San Francisco deputies were hostesses at the March 12 Sunday breakfast at the Home. Supervising Deputy Anne Godfrey presided, May L. MacDonald offered prayer and Ethel Phelan led in the flag salute. Elsie Dethlefsen, the soloist, was accompanied by Miss Heinneman. Claire Lindsey spoke on "Fraternalism." The Home was presented with a linen tablecloth.

IMPROVING CLUBROOMS.

At the annual stockholders meeting of the Native Sons Hall Association of San Francisco March 14 the following officers were elected: Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington, president; Joseph B. Keenan, vice-president; Adolph Eberhart, secretary.

The Association and the Grizzly Bear Club are making extensive improvements to the club's quarters on the top floor of Native Sons Building, 414 Mason street, and it is expected they will be completed in time for the meeting of the N.S.G.W. Grand Parlor in May.

N.D.G.W. NEWS BRIEFS.

Yosemite Parlor No. 83 entertained Grand President Edna B. Briggs, Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan and Alice Oldham, Grand Inside Sentinel Loretta Cameron, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, and Past Grands Evelyn Carlson and Anne Thuesen February 21. Following the ritual exemplification the Grand President complimented the Parlor officers and delivered an instructive message on "Our Government." Decorations consisted of American Flags.—L.K.

The drum corps and a costumed marching unit of Guadalupe Parlor No. 153 have participated in several local civic parades. Third Vice-president Audrey Sullivan was recently crowned queen of the Fairmont Civic Club and presented with a golden key to the city. March 13 the drum corps had a successful whist party. Rita Rovegno was the chairman.—M.M.

Claire Lindsey, chairman of hospital welfare for Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 visited the children in ward 17 of San Francisco Hospital Saint Patrick's Day, March 17. March 20 the drill team sponsored a very successful whist party, the proceeds of which were added to the uniform fund. Lois Loss was the chairman. The team recently enjoyed a business meeting and social at the home of Captain "Dolly" Allen.—B.M.N.

Dolores Parlor No. 169 had a baby shower for the homeless children, and members came attired in kiddie costumes. Supervising Deputy Anne Godfrey and Deputy Evelyn Brady were guests. Refreshments were served. The drill team was entertained at the home of Winifred Gibson March 27. Co-hostesses were Norah Castillo, Mary Hyland and Joan DeVono.—L.J.N.

Utopia Parlor No. 252 sponsored a most successful rummage sale under the chairmanship of Catherine Askew. The proceeds benefited both the Parlor and the drill team. Irene Orman was presented February 28 with a gift for her baby. Edna Mockel is chairman of a whist party to be held April 25.

SECOND OLDEST N.S. PARLOR OBSERVES SIXTY-FIRST BIRTHDAY.

Sacramento — Sacramento Parlor No. 3 N.S.G.W., organized March 22, 1878, observed March 23 its sixty-first birthday. It is the second oldest Subordinate Parlor of the Order, and one of the three Native Sons organizations that formed the Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. Sacramento has two charters, one granted in 1878 by the parent organization, now California Parlor No. 1, San Francisco, and the other in 1880 by the Grand Parlor.

Past presidents filled the stations at the birthday party, at which Grand President Joseph J. McShane and other Grand Parlor officials were guests. Sacramento County Recorder Charles A. Root presided as president, and was assisted by George A. Burns, Charles Crowell, R. Grant Potter, George S. Wheeler, Frank E. Michel, E. M. Lynch, Charles F. Dosch, F. E. Schmidt, Arthur J. Delano and C. W. Griffith.

The feature of the occasion was the presentation of engraved gold fifty-year membership pins to the following: Ed F. Cohn (1878), C. H. Rippon (1881), Herbert A. Kidder (1882), J. V. Ducoing (1883), B. U. Russell (1883), J. T. O'Toole (1884), Charles A. Root (1885), C. W. Mier (1885) and W. F. Uhl (1889). John Daroux, Henry O. Tubbs and Howard K. Johnson, also eligible for pins, passed away just recently.

Preceding the meeting a fine dinner was prepared and served by La Bandera Parlor N.D.G.W. Miss May Lucas, N.D.G.W. state chairman of music, assisted by Mrs. Ernestine Ward at the piano and William Nesbitt, led in community singing. Entertainment was furnished by the Kelly brothers, all past presidents of the Parlor, with Irish jigs, and President Eugene McPoil and brother with Scotch music and dancing. The committee of arrangements for the birthday party included Roy C. Cothrin, chairman, Joseph Fitzhenry, June J. Longshore, James Kelly and J. Frank Didion.

March 16, Sacramento had the first class initiation in the membership drive now under way, and several new names were added to its rolls. Howard K. Johnson, an oldtime member of the Parlor and for twenty years a Sacramento County supervisor, died March 18. He was born at Sacramento, November 9, 1860.

HILLS

(GENEVIEVE GRAY RAWSON.)

A hill, it always seems to me,
Is something of a mystery,
Standing serenely there so high
To pierce the secrets of the sky.

The first to greet the glorious dawn,
The last to watch the sun pass on,
And when the storms come on apace
Tosses its hair, upturns its face.

Its sense of strength, the surety,
Its promise of security
That offers haven from alarm,
Encircles as it were God's arm.

To gain the summit is to climb
And then to rest on hights sublime
And resting, know how right it seems
That here is semblance of your dreams.

A hill points upward to the sky,
Upon the peak its treasures lie.
Your recompense is in the view
Which higher climbing brings to you.

SANTA BARBARA

SANTA BARBARA—MARCH HIGHLIGHTS for Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. were the annual Saint Patrick's Day dinner of the former and the latter's banquet-entertainment honoring Grand President Edna B. Briggs on her official visit.

A large number of Reina del Mar's members, officers of the Native Sons and several distinguished Barbarenos gathered about the banquet board to greet the honor-guest. President Mrs. Eugene Ireland presided, and Grand President Briggs gave an inspiring talk. Martena Tenney presented six historically correct costumed monologues from the pen of Loraine Huntington Miller. Music for the evening was furnished by the Santa Barbara High School's a cappella choir led by Miss Ardis Carter, with Jack Keevil at the organ. At the program's close the "Edna Briggs class" of eight candidates was initiated.

At the dinner of Santa Barbara honoring Saint Patrick, President Frank Huffman called on the city's Ireland-born mayor, Patrick J. Maher, to contribute to the program honoring his namesake. County Tax Collector Harry C. Sweetser "stole the show," however, for he had memorized all the stories he had heard at a recent convention and dished them out with spirit. On the serious side, Paul Sweetser declared that if the Native Sons and Daughters, as patriotic organizations, did nothing more than bring together childless homes and homeless children they justified their existence. Sweetser made a plea for additional funds, and the response was generous.

Chrysanthemum breeding still is less a science than an art. Scientific investigation of the genetics of chrysanthemums is in its early stages, but the breeder's art has been known at least 2,000 years in China, 1,000 years in Japan, 250 years in Europe and nearly 150 years in the United States, says Dr. S. L. Emsweller of the Department of Agriculture.

Virgin Redwood land in Del Norte County, 6,251 acres, is to be purchased by the National Forest Reservation Commission for $179,964.

In Memoriam

PAULINE LITTLE SWEET.

We, the committee appointed to prepare resolutions of respect to the memory of our dear Sister Pauline Little Sweet, offer the following:

A wise Providence has called to her eternal reward our beloved Sister Pauline Little Sweet, and in our hour of deep sorrow we wish to express our grief at the loss of one we loved and also to voice our appreciation of her worth in the useful, helpful life that she spent while here. We sadly miss the music of her sweet gentle voice and her ever kindly expressions of sympathy or cheer—but

"Life holds such happy yesterdays,
So many glad tomorrows,
We must believe these sad todays
Will sometime lose their sorrows.
God has so proven His love divine
In ways He understands,
We know our loved ones, ours and thine,
Are safe within His hands."

We ask that a copy of these resolutions be sent to her bereaved family, that a copy be spread upon the minutes of this meeting, and that The Grizzly Bear Magazine receive a copy.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNIE F. CONLIN,
LOUISE E. WALES
LORAINE A. KEAST.

Grass Valley, March 12, 1939.

KATHERINE SMITH.

To the Officers and Members of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed sister, submit the following:

Whereas, The Angel of Death has once again visited our Parlor and taken from our midst Sister Katherine Smith to her heavenly home, where pain and sorrow cease, and peace and happiness reign; but, while we pay tribute to her memory, we are not unmindful of the sympathy we owe her loved ones, and we mourn with them.

Resolved, That a copy of this memorial be inscribed upon the minutes of this Parlor, a copy sent to the bereaved family, and a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET RAMM,
MARY C. SULLIVAN,
CLAIRE LINDSEY.

San Francisco, March 13, 1939.

ELLA JENNINGS.

To the Officers and Members of Vendome Parlor No. 100 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed Sister Ella Jennings, submit the following:

Whereas, Another of our beloved members, Sister Ella Jennings, has answered the call of our Heavenly Father, we bow in humble submission, realizing that our loss is the Heavenly gain of our sister. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the officers and members of Vendome Parlor No. 100 N.D.G.W. do hereby extend our deepest sympathy to her bereaved family, that these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of the Parlor, and that a copy be sent to her family.

Respectfully submitted, sincerely and fraternally in P.D.F.A.,

ALICE ROLL,
JULIA A. WADDINGTON,
JULIA G. COMPTON.

San Jose, March 20, 1939.

LOS ANGELES

Grand President was escorted to the altar by the officers, carrying silver staffs adorned with calla lillies and huge bows of silver ribbon; there a star was formed, and Old Glory was displayed by Mrs. Ruth Whipple while Mrs. Elsie Bledsoe sang "God Bless America." Others introduced were Grand Trustees Evelyn Towne and Mary Noerenberg, Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer, Supervising Deputies Hazel B Hansen, Flora M Holy and Eva Bemis, and Florence Dodson-Schoneman, chairman junior auxiliary.

Nine candidates were initiated, among them Mms. Florence Cook and Alma Minter, mother and grandmother, respectively, of President Harriette Weeks. Grand President Briggs gave a most interesting talk on "California's Twenty-one Missions," and on the Parlor's behalf President Weeks presented to her a gift of silver. The supper was in charge of the past presidents, with Betty Sanders and Ada Steele as co-chairmen, and the decorations were in charge of Vice-presidents Ethyl Kern, Mary Miller and Elsie Bledsoe.

March 16 Verdugo was hostess at a breakfast honoring Grand President Briggs. Americanism Chairman Doris Michelmore presided. On the Parlor's behalf, Mrs. Briggs presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the Glendale Junior College, and it was accepted by C. A. Nelson. Those on the committee responsible for the gift were Mary Miller, Ione Gillette, Gussie Anderson, Ada Steele and Margaret Donlan. March 24 the past presidents of the Parlor met at the home of Betty Sanders.—A.S.

ORGANIZING NEW N.S.G.W. PARLORS.

Plans for instituting a N.S.G.W. Parlor at Long Beach are under way, and it is expected the ceremonies will be held in the very near future. A large group of eligibles, who are meeting weekly, have elected Deputy District Attorney Clarence S. Hunt of Ramona Parlor temporary chairman and Detective Sergeant Ralph B. Fridley temporary secretary. Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards and Junior Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer are assisting in the organization work and are frequent attendants at the meetings.

An effort is also being made to organize a parlor at Beverly Hills and, according to report, is meeting with much encouragement.

EARLYDAY STAGE ROAD MARKED.

Canoga Park—Acting for Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W., Grand President Edna B. Briggs March 17 unveiled at the summit of Santa Susana Pass a four-foot-high plaque inscribed: "Old Santa Susana Stage Road 1859-90. Marked March 17, 1939, Native Daughters of the Golden West, Topango Parlor 269." Witnessing the ceremony were several San Fernando Valley residents, many of them in colorful earlyday costumes.

Mrs. Glenn Pogue, president of Topanga, presided, and the speakers included Grand President Briggs, President Benton Worley of Ramona Parlor N.S.G.W., and Mary Milane King. The dance given by the Parlor March 18 was very successful, and another will be given April 15 at Lombardi Hall in Chatsworth.

MOTORCADE TO KERNVILLE PLANNED.

Grand President Edna B. Briggs of the Native Daughters was honor-guest at the Native Sons Friday Luncheon Club in the Rosslyn Hotel March 17. She was accompanied by Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer and several other local Native Daughters. The attendance was in excess of 200.

Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, chairman of the day, was introduced by John B. Haas, president of the club. Grand President Briggs spoke on "The Flag," and among the other speakers were Senior Past Grand John T. Newell, Junior Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, Supervising Deputy Grand President John O'B. Bodkin and Municipal Judge Frank G. Tyrrell. Roger Johnson was heard in piano selections.

A Luncheon Club motorcade to Kernville, Kern County, is planned by "Guide" M. U. Rosenthal. It will leave Los Angeles at 7 a.m. April 15 and proceed to Goldtown, a short distance from Mojave, where an operating quartz mine will be inspected. The party will lunch at Mojave at 12 noon, and then proceed via Walker Pass to Kernville. The morning of April 16 will be spent there, and early in the afternoon the trip home, via Isabella, Bodfish and Caliente, will be begun.

HIGHLIGHTS OF EXPOSITION SHOWN.

The valentine dance given by La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. at the California Country Club was such a decided social success it will be an annual event. The large crowd spent a most enjoyable evening. March 9, the husbands and friends of the members were entertained at a box social. The committee in charge consisted of Lura Pesqueria, chairman, Dorothy Pesqueria, Nell Jacques and Winifred Vis.

Members of Verdugo Parlor were guests of La Reina March 23. Special entertainment included a movie showing many interesting highlights of the Golden Gate International Exposition and historical features of previous world fairs. Los Angeles and Californiana Parlors will be entertained April 27.

FLAGS PRESENTED FEDERAL BUILDING.

At the dedication March 11 of Los Angeles' imposing new $7,000,000 Federal Building, Postmaster Mary D Briggs presided and Postmaster General James Farley was the principal speaker.

On behalf of the Native Daughters Parlors of Los Angeles County, Grand President Edna B. Briggs presented a United States of America Flag and, on behalf of Los Angeles Parlor, President Anna T. Schiebusch presented a California State (Bear) Flag.

ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE.

At the invitation of Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen, the presidents, past presidents and deputy grand presidents of District No. 30 N.D.G.W. met at the Women's Athletic Club for a round table conference regarding affairs of the Order.

Anna Schiebusch, state chairman of the Grand Parlor Veterans Welfare Committee, reported the committee would remember the boys in the various veterans facilities at Easter time.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Evelyn Troutwein (Los Angeles ND) was recently wedded to William Arlene.

Mrs. Marvel Thomas-Tempost (Los Angeles ND) is home from Mexico awaiting a visit from the stork.

William A. Reuter (Stephen M. White NS) of Wilmington celebrated March 16 his birthday anniversary.

Vivianna Matejlan (Rudecinda ND) of San Pedro and Manuel Soares were recently wedded at Yuma, Arizona State.

Mrs. Hattie Furman Stamps (Californiana ND) had a party, planned by the Los Angeles Pioneer Society, at her home March 11 in honor of her eightieth birthday anniversary. She was the recipient of many gifts.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Myrtize Fulkerth Tregea, affiliated with Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W., Glendale, died February 22.

Mrs. Lidia Glass, mother of Herman T. Glass (Ramona NS), died March 4. She was a native of Germany, 82.

Frank Stonewall Adams, affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., died March 10. He was born at Felton, Santa Cruz County, March 5, 1866. He was originally a charter member of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W., San Bernardino.

Joseph C. Burke, affiliated with Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W., died March 21, survived by a wife and two sons. He was born July 3, 1876, at Downey. From 1921 to 1924 he was United States Attorney for the southern California district.

LIFE'S PORTION

(CHARLES H. GREENFIELD.)

Though each day seems filled
With worry and strife,
There's always some joy
Scattered through life;
A cross and a crown
Our portion to bear,
Each hardship arrayed-
With a rainbow fair

The strife of today
Is joy tomorrow,
The gladness of life—
Commingled with sorrow;
And who, if they could,
Would have it not so
Life's darkness dispelled
By joy's ruddy glow!

Native Daughters of the Golden West

"OFFICERS AND MEMBERS SUBORDINATE Parlors Native Daughters Golden West—Dear Sisters: What a wonderful time is Easter, when new beauty begins to unfold and, with each swelling bud, the sweet story of the first resurrection is told.

"Native Daughters, this is our opportunity to express happiness and gratitude for this new spiritual light that gives us a better understanding of love, peace and good will.

"Let us think in terms of peace, and be glad of life because it gives us a chance to love and to work and to play; to be satisfied with our possessions, but not contented with ourselves until we have made the best of them; to be gentle in manner, extending kindness of the heart at all times; to daily pray for peace among other nations in the world. For these are the guide posts of peace, and this peace will elevate and influence the world.

"May this Easter season greeting bring to each member every blessing. Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Edna B. Briggs

"Grand President N.D.G.W.
"Sacramento, California, March 20, 1939."

Fifty-two-year-old Ritual Exemplified.

Stockton—Long sprays of pale pink and white fruit blossoms in turquoise blue pottery and gold baskets formed the decorations for the oldtimers gathering of Joaquin No. 5 March 14. At a pot-luck supper which preceded the meeting the tables were beautifully decorated with old-fashioned silver and glassware. During the supper President Georgia Storm extended greetings, and each member told the date of her last attendance at a Parlor meeting. Mrs. Dio Buthenuth rendered several vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. Lulu Schreider. Visitors were present from Sacramento, Lodi, Modesto, Tracy and Ione.

During the evening the very first ritual of the Order, written fifty-two years ago, was exemplified by the early members of Joaquin. The banners were loaned by Califia No. 22 of Sacramento and the regalia by Fern No. 123 of Folsom. Miss Hannah Gray presided as President, and the other offices were filled by Past Grands Carrie Roesch-Durham and Mamie G. Peyton, Misses Clara Stier, Florilla Campbell, Emma Hilke, Ida Safferhill, Catherine Tully and Josie Hogan, Mms. Emma Barney, Birdie Heins, Lena Doolittle, Hattie Wyman, Mary O'Connel and Lulu Schneider. This ritual, never heard by most of the members, was most interesting.

Past Grand Peyton read an article from the California Review of March 1904 stating that Joaquin had petitioned the City Council to change the name of Jones Square to Weber Park in honor of Captain C. M. Weber, founder of Stockton, and to plant a laurel, his favorite tree. C. E. Williams was mayor at that time. Mrs Dio Buthenuth, in an old-fashioned costume and plumed bonnet, presented a gift to each of the officers of the evening to the accompaniment of "Memories." Many exquisite old gowns and pieces of old jewelry were worn. The committee in charge of the evening was Laura May Roesch, chairman, Past Grand Peyton, Mms. Ann Ruggles, Jeanne Madsack, Ella Waite, Ella Meyer and Georgia Storm, Misses Emma Hilke, Catherine and Sarah Tully.—L.M.R.

Perpetuating Historic Name.

Alturas—The history and landmarks committee of Alturas No. 159, Dorothy V. Gloster chairman, has been very active in preserving the name of Dorris Bridge for the very new and modern structure which spans the North Fork of Pit River, U. S. Highway No. 395, in the City of Alturas. The Parlor secured endorsements from the Modoc County Grand Jury and the Board of Supervisors; in fact, was commissioned by the latter to take the necessary steps in having this historic name perpetuated.

The City of Alturas was originally named "Dorris Bridge," honoring the Pioneer who built the first rude bridge across Pit River. The bridge has been replaced many times by bigger and better structures, but the name has consistently been Dorris Bridge. A letter from C. H. Purcell to Miss Gloster states, in part: "You may inform your members that the official records now show this span as Dorris Bridge. We will have the name signs erected at each end of the bridge as soon as they can be obtained."

Merry Evening.

Salinas — In observance of Washington's Birthday, Aleli No. 102 was entertained February by students from Washington School of Corral de Tierra. Mrs. William Hatton introduced the group, and Miss Muriel Stone was the piano accompanist. Cards were played during the social hour. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by Mms. Edna Curtis, Jemima Davies, Gladys Dodd, Bertha Richardson and Gertrude Posz, and Miss Pauline Holm.

With birthdays celebrated and "pals" for the past year revealed, the evening of March 9 proved quite merry for members of the Parlor. Flowering peach blossoms decorated the lodge-room, while daffodils, maidenhair fern and miniature paper dolls carried out the Saint Patrick's Day theme at the banquet tables. Birthday gifts were presented under the direction of Birthdays Chairman Hazel Schmidt, and the revelation of "pals" came when Pal Chairman Sarah McKee arranged for members to find their places at the supper table by means of placecards written backwards. Vocal solos were rendered by Miss Pauline Holm and Mrs. Claudina Clark, accompanied by Mrs. Julia Larkin. The enjoyable affair was in charge of Mms. Anna Tarp, Adele Bettencourt, Susie Hunter, Claudina Clark and Sarah McKee. April 13 Aleli will have initiation. Arrangements are being made by Mms. Evelyn Schiro and Erma Boling, and Miss Mildred Black for a telephone card party. Mrs. Mary Slibsager is chairman of a coming rummage sale.—M.H.P.

Golden Anniversary Observed.

Ione—The Ione Auditorium was March 8 transformed into a fairy garden for the golden (fiftieth) institution anniversary celebration of Chispa No. 40. Specially honored were the five remaining charter members, Mms. Hattie Kelly, Rena Rush, Gladys Hammer, Molly Huber and Alice Marchant, who were presented with cameo brooches encased in beautiful gold hearts. Among the many visitors were Grand President Edna B. Briggs, Grand Outside Sentinel Doris Treat, Past Grands Ella E. Caminetti, Mayme G. Peyton and Gladys E. Noce, Supervising Deputy Emma B. Wright and Deputy Grace Miller. On behalf of Ione No. 33 N.S.G.W., Past President Allen Martin presented to the Parlor a California State (Bear) Flag.

The evening's festivities began with a dinner served at tables decorated in a gold and white motif, with tiny folk bonnets as favors. Community singing about the festive board was led by Mms. Cynthia Phillips and Myrtle Tonzi, with Mrs. Dorothy Read as the accompanist. Following the dinner, President Edna Kretcher and her corps of officers initiated a class of fourteen candidates. Chispa's drill team, Adelene Young Winter captain, resplendent in golden formal gowns, had a prominent part in the birthday program. Chairmen of the various committees in charge of arrangements included Laura Prouty, decorations; Cynthia Phillips, program; Dorothy J. Stewart, dinner; Elmerie Tonzi, birthday cake. Chispa was instituted March 7, 1889.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL GRAND PARLOR

THE FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL GRAND Parlor of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West will convene at San Francisco Monday, June 19, and continue through June 22. The sessions will be held in the auditorium of Native Sons Building. Grand President Edna B Briggs of La Bandera Parlor No. 110, Sacramento, will preside throughout the deliberations and, at their conclusion, will automatically become the Past Grand President.

Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler has advised the Subordinate Parlors that copies of resolutions or legislation to be proposed at the San Francisco session must be in her office prior to April 30. Also, that invitations for next year's Grand Parlor must be filed in her office by that date.

Arrangements for the Fifty-third Grand Parlor are being made by "The Committee of 39 for '39," composed of the following representatives of all the thirty San Francisco Subordinate Parlors: Past Grand President Evelyn I. Carlson, chairman; Mrs. Angelo J. Rossi, honorary chairman; Mrs. Helen Mann, first vice-chairman; Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, second vice-chairman; Past Grand President Mae Himes-Noonan, third vice-chairman; Past Grand President May C. Boldemann, treasurer; Miss Lucile Russell, secretary; Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola, Mms. Mae Baumeister, Myrtle Bottini, Viola Brown, Grand Inside Sentinel Loretta Cameron, Grand Treasurer Agnes M. Curry, Edna Demeniconi, Edna Dumont, Martha Fratessa, Bessie Gordon, Madeline King, Alice Lane, Claire Lindsey, Inge Meyer, Elizabeth Muller, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Tessie Pearce, Margaret Ramm, Agnes Ryan, Emily Ryan, Sadie Romick, Eugenie Schwartz, Isabelle Silva, Ella Tait, Past Grand President Anne Thuesen, Georgia Thierbach, Lena Wall, Pearl Wedde and Lyda Wood, Misses Essie Connell, Genevieve Martel, Edith O'Connor and Rena Taube. Grand Inside Sentinel Loretta Cameron is chairman of the housing committee.

Among the entertainment features already arranged for is a grand ball, which will be held in the California Building on Treasure Island—a glamorous setting. The committee will provide transportation, as well as admissions to the Golden Gate International Exposition grounds. This event will ever be remembered by those who attend. Tuesday evening, June 20, has been set aside for the Grand Parlor banquet. The afternoon of Sunday, June 18, Native Daughters drill teams and drum corps will participate in competitive contests in the Civic Center. Rena Taube is in charge of arrangements. Other features are in the making.

Unless the policy of the Grand Parlor be reversed, and there is no indication that it will be, Grand Vice-president Orinda Gunther-Giannini of Orinda Parlor No. 56, San Francisco, will be chosen Grand President at San Francisco.

The Grizzly Bear has communicated with "rumored" candidates for the other Grand Parlor elective offices, and from the replies received up to press time presents this information:

Grand Vice-president—Hazel B. Hansen, Verdugo Parlor No. 240.

Grand Marshal—Grand Trustee Alice Mathias-Oldham, El Carmelo Parlor No. 181.

Grand Trustees (seven to be chosen)—Emily E. Ryan, Las Lomas Parlor No. 72, incumbent; Evalyn G. Towne, Miocene Parlor No. 228, incumbent; Mary B. Noerenberg, Californiana Parlor No. 247, incumbent. C.M.H.

179 and Copa de Oro No. 105 in joint session here March 1. Dinner was served to 111 seated at tables decorated in keeping with the theme of the evening, "1939—the 150th anniversary year of the inauguration of George Washington as President of the United States." At each plate was a song sheet, the cover of which bore a silhouette of Washington and a miniature drum topped with a tiny silk American Flag. About the walls were sketches of interesting scenes in the life of the first President. Guest singers, Mrs. Howard O'Brien and G. L. Grunnagle, rendered delightful vocal numbers. Group singing included songs of Colonial days. President Lila Melendy introduced the guests.

At the meetinghall, many others joined the dinner group. Here decorations consisted of masses of cherry bloom, flags and a framed picture of Washington. Officers of Copa de Oro appeared in identical Colonial gowns of plain yellow and figured print, and carried small fans suspended from the wrists with black ribbons. Four candidates were initiated into the Parlor. The singing of "A Revolutionary Tea" heralded the arrival of President and Mrs. Washington, followed by a group of Colonial men and women who danced the stately minuet for the presidential couple. President Washington then presented to Grand President Briggs gifts from the two Parlors. A vocal duet, "Long, Long Ago," closed the program. Inspiring talks were given by Grand President Briggs, Grand Trustee Rose Rhyner, Supervising Deputy Mildred Peers, Deputies Mary Antoinetti and Alta Trowbridge, and Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs.

NEWSY N.D.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Fresno—Grand President Edna B. Briggs, assisted by Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler and other grand officers, instituted a new parlor here March 24. It was organized by Elinor Mills of Madera No. 244.

The seventeenth annual session of the General Association Past Presidents will be held April 15 in Woodman Hall, Third street near "B," Santa Rosa. A very fine program has been arranged by the hostess Association, Sonoma County No. 7. State President Willow Borba invites all members of Past Presidents Associations to attend.—M.S.

Grass Valley—At Arbor Day tree planting ceremonies, Manzanita No. 29 presented to the James S. Hennessy School a sugar maple, which was dedicated to Past President Margaret Nolan, a pioneer of the community. President Hannah Bella Daley made the presentation on the Parlor's behalf and City School Superintendent Henry Spiess accepted the gift. Mrs. Alyne Bishop, Arbor Day chairman, placed the first shovel of earth. The school children, led by Instructor Aronson, sang "America, the Beautiful." March 21 the Parlor observed its fifty-first anniversary with a minstrel show, with Louise Wales directing. In February the americanization committee, Mrs. Vere Hansen, presented a very interesting program.—L.A.K.

Watsonville—El Pajaro No. 35 had a Saint Patrick social March 21, with Mary Aston and Myrtle Allison in charge. The members are much interested in making layettes for the homeless children. One has been sent the Central Committee and another is under way. The Parlor has a committee, Leola Beazell, chairman, Ethel James, Edna Rich and Theresa Mooney, making elaborate arrangements for a class initiation April 18.—V.C.

Merced—Veritas No. 75 and Yosemite No. 24 N.S.G.W. had their second joint social affair, a dance, March 7. The homeless children committee of Veritas is planning a dinner to raise funds for that charity.—F.B.

Sutter Creek—Amapola No. 80 will April 10 plant and dedicate a tree in the Sutter Creek

Grammar School grounds in honor of Charter Member Ida B. Herman, recently deceased. At the February 23 meeting of the Parlor Theresa Cuneo gave interesting readings on the life of George Washington. Refreshments were served at tables attractively decorated in a patriotic motif. The committee of the evening included Lucille Snyder, Maria Richards and Lorraine Morrow.—L.M.

Oakland—Piedmont No. 87 initiated a class of eleven candidates March 15. Following the ceremonies a sociable was enjoyed under the chairmanship of Mrs. Augusta Huxsol. March 17 the Parlor had its forty-third anniversary banquet under the chairmanship of Mrs. Winifred Buckingham. Charter Member Harriet Planer, President Augusta Kramm and Past President Helen McGuire were honor-guests. Cards and other games were enjoyed after the dinner.—K.D.

San Jose—The Santa Clara County get-together, in charge of Supervising Deputy Katheryn Nelson, was attended by more than a hundred. The entire program, which was one of merit, was presented by Vendome No. 100, with Miss Dorothy Salas directing. Past Grand Mamie Pierce Carmichael spoke interestingly on the Order's projects. An outstanding number was the classical piano selection of Miss Wilda Enos.—I.M.S.

Sacramento—At a spring party March 17, La Bandera No. 110 entertained in honor of Supervising Deputy Lucille Huntoon. Mms. Gussie Dietz and Doris Renner were co-chairmen.

Lincoln—Placer No. 138 entertained March 8 Charter Members Emma Jansen, Carrie Parlin, Agnes Ferron, Sophie Neville, Millie Wyatt, Bertha Landis, Kate Temple, Florence Berry and Etta Leavell. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion, a program was presented, and delicious refreshments were served.

San Rafael—Marinita No. 198 has organized a junior auxiliary, with Carline Schumaker as the charter president. Past Grand Emma G. Foley extended congratulations at a recent meeting, and presented the organization with a Bible and a scrapbook. Refreshments were served at poppy decorated tables.

Modesto—Morada No. 199 had its annual poppy sale for the benefit of the homeless children March 18. Agnes Frost was chairman of the committee. Plans for the district meeting next month are being perfected. The meeting will be public, and the Order's various projects as well as a California history pageant will be presented.

Petaluma—Petaluma No. 222 had a Saint Patrick party March 21. Martha Skoff was chairman of the arrangements committee. Supervising Deputy Zoura Tompkins and several members of the Parlor attended the March 7 meeting of Tamelpa at Mill Valley, when Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit to that Parlor. Captain Tompkins was recently honored by the Parlor drill team and presented with gifts. Mrs. Pearl Hickey presented to Petaluma an afghan, which was accepted by President Amy Plow.

Palo Alto—Two candidates were initiated when Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit to Palo Alto No. 229. Others in attendance were Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, Supervising Deputy Katherine Nelson and Deputy Elizabeth Forbes. The refreshment tables were decorated in patriotic colors in observance of Washington's birthday.—H.G.H.

Bakersfield—El Tejon No. 239 featured its annual poppy day for the benefit of the homeless children February 25. The drive was a great success. Chairman Lila Bateman was assisted by a large committee. Eighteen members visited Desert Gold at Mojave March 19, the occasion being the official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs to that Parlor. The evening was a gala one. March 17 [illegible] a Saint Patrick's Day dance. Everyone had a happy time.—E.B.

Placentia—Placentia Grace No. 242 welcomed Grand President Edna B. Briggs on her official visit March 11. Preceding the meeting a turkey dinner was served at tables [illegible] with bowls of daffodils and [illegible]. President Mary Russel presided at the meeting in the club house, which was beautifully decorated with quince blossoms and camelias. Four candidates were initiated. Grand President Briggs complimented the Parlor, and spoke of the privilege this year granted the members of the Order to point out California's numerous historic places to so many visitors. On the Parlor's behalf, Nellie Cline presented her with a gift. Other guests of the evening were Grand Trustees Evelyn Towne and Mary Noerenberg, Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer, Supervising Deputies Eva Bemis and Hazel Hansen, Mrs. Florence Schonemann, President Anna Schiebusch of Los Angeles Parlor, Mrs. Flora Schmittgen of La Bandera Parlor, Sacramento, and Mrs. Bertha Hitt, organizer of No. 242.—L.O.

Stockton—At the March 2 meeting of Stockton No. 256, Euretta Dentoni of the americanization committee presented, on the Parlor's behalf, United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to Miss Alice Buckle for the young people's department of the public library. An old-fashioned spelling match was the feature of the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served at tables decorated with fruit blossoms and Saint Patrick Day favors. Miss Harriet Welch was in charge of a card party held March 16, and Mrs. Irene Schwall presided over one given by the drill team March 17. April 6 an April fool program will be presented by a committee composed of Alberta Drace, Mary Strutzman, Irene Schwall, Euretta Dentoni, Hattie Mae Goodlan, Mattie Porter, Alice Gray and Elizabeth Baker.—T.A.B.

Albany—Albany No. 260 celebrated its fourth anniversary with an early American party February 22. Members came appropriately gowned. Refreshments were served by Thelma Goss, Hazelett Taylor, Althea Hart, Mary Ellis and Lillian Christensen. March 1 Margaret Connor entertained the sewing club, which is getting ready for a pillowcase whist June 28. March 15 Mrs. Diaz entertained the club.—H.T.

Sebastopol—Sebastopol No. 265 had the honor of entertaining Grand President Edna B. Briggs on her official visit March 3. A well-attended dinner preceded the meeting, at which several candidates were initiated. Among others in attendance were Past Grands Evelyn I. Carlson and Anne Thuesen, Supervising Deputies Anne Godfrey and Zoura Tompkins. Deputies Evelyn Brady, Emma O'Meara, Mary Vogt, Beatrice Cook, May Ferry, Ruth Lyta and Lenora Mello, and President Willow Borba of the General Past Presidents Association. March 17 the Parlor celebrated its first birthday. Believing they had outgrown their baby clothes, members came dressed as small girls for the occasion. Refreshments were served at the close of an enjoyable evening.—G.T.

THE PIONEER

(LENORA ISABEL BAINES.)

The thoughts turn back to sturdy pioneer,
Memoralizing souls that knew no fear;
For us with love, they did so truly share
A heritage, our California fair.

'Neath floating Stars and Stripes they left their home,
Content in covered wagons thus to roam,
And ever with Old Glory safely led,
Each day they paused for rest while prayers were said.

On grinding sands of prairies strong wheels turned,
Out under stars at night campfires burned;
With sunrise bright the journey to renew,
Determined more of greater things to do.

At last the rainbow's end and "pot of gold,"
Some castle dreams came true, some left untold;
The gilded poppy with its petals bright
Portrayed the cheer for all the needed might.

The stately redwoods waving o'er the land
Gave promise true of courage that would stand,
And grizzly bear so sleek in fur of brown
Foretold the emblem never to come down.

William Atkinson, a sailmaker, died suddenly April 15 at Mare Island Navy Yard. At the coroner's inquest $8,180 was found sewed in his clothes.

Revenue officials raided the Flume, a San Diego saloon, and found a large supply of smuggled Mexican cigars and cigarettes in American cigar boxes.

The private residence in San Francisco of Mrs. E. B. Crocker was sold April 18 to W. S. Hobart for $250,000.

Rev. G. W. James, a Long Beach preacher, was suspended April 24 from the Methodist Church for gross misconduct.

Five carloads of California brandy were shipped from Saint Helena, Napa County, to Liverpool, England, April 19.

Nathaniel Gray, San Francisco undertaker who came to California in 1850, died April 24 at his Oakland home.

David L. Hackett, editor and proprietor of the Napa Register, disappeared April 26.

ALASKA-BOUND NATIVE DAUGHTERS SPONSORING SIXTEEN-DAY CRUISE.

Stockton—Last year, under the sponsorship of Caliz de Oro Parlor No. 206 N.D.G.W., a group of twenty-eight persons saw at first hand the storied wonders of Alaska—totem poles, Indians, trappers, glaciers, and the enchanting Inside Passage down which their ship sailed between towering mountains.

It will again be possible for Native Sons and Native Daughters and their friends to go to Alaska with a congenial party, for Caliz de Oro is sponsoring its second annual Alaska cruise, and bookings are now being made. This year the group will leave July 1 for a sixteen-day cruise, eleven days of which will be spent aboard-ship, the SS Alaska, in contrast to the nine days of last year.

Plan now to join the party! See your Parlor secretary for folders and details, or write the Alaska Cruise Committee, care Mrs. T. L. Bawden, 604 No. Commerce street, Stockton, California.

NATIVE SONS HAVE ACCEPTED A RESPONSIBILITY AND HAVE KEPT FAITH

"THE SIXTY SECOND ANNUAL SESsion of the Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will be held this year, May 15 to 19, in San Francisco, a city famed throughout the world for romance, a sightseer's paradise, steeped in history of California Pioneers, Native Sons, Native Daughters, men and women who took a wilderness and builded it into a magnificent, proud, prosperous State.

"From California's admission to the Union down through the years, the Native Sons have accepted a responsibility—a responsibility to keep our beloved State free from the intrusion of subversive influences, to keep our State clean, progressive and active in the interests of our youth and adult citizens—a program laid down for us when early Pioneers realized the great possibilities of California and formed the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West to push forward to world recognition the importance of California.

"Those who first conceived the idea of organizing the Native Sons of the Golden West placed an unbending and abiding faith in the ability of future generations of Native Sons to carry on. Subsequent years have given strong and definite proof that that faith was not misplaced; that our founders knew the caliber of Californians. That faith has never been permitted to die! Down through the ages Native Sons have fought valiantly to keep alive and glowing the spirit that prompted our Pioneers to pass on a heritage which has been chiefly instrumental in establishing California not alone as a leading State, but one of the most distinguished and prosperous in our great Nation of United States.

"General Andrew Mayer Winn, Founder of the Native Sons of the Golden West, and those men who originally supported the organization movement, would be justly proud of the Californians to whom they entrusted the perpetuation of their Order. Working together, pulling together, thinking together—a co-operation of ideas, backed by a deep patriotic devotion and thorough knowledge of responsibilities, have brought California into the prominent and important position it now holds. The Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West are rightfully entitled to be proud, for to their efforts a large part of this success may be attributed.

"The Native Sons' program is varied, and covers a wide range of historical, scientific, educational and inspirational work: preserving the identity of grounds where historic events occurred; erecting monuments and placing plaques with proper inscriptions thereon; perpetuating memories of one of the most wonderful epochs of the world's history, the days of '49; maintaining fellowship endowments at the University of California at an expenditure of $3,000 per annum which enable two students proficient in historical research work to visit foreign countries and in their archives to discover material bearing on the discovery and settlement of the Pacific Coast and the Southwest; stimulating the study of California history in the University of California and the various high schools of the State; dedicating newly erected high schools and grammar schools, and presenting the flag of our country—the United States of America Flag—and the California State (Bear) Flag to the student bodies of those schools; public observance of Admission Day, September 9, in the various cities of the State, when in pageantry there are depicted eventful epochs of the State's history; co-operating with civic improvement and public enterprises, supporting State and Federal legislation having for its chief object the interest of the State at large; maintaining with a sister organization, the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, a homeless children bureau through which many thousands of homeless children have been placed in homes, ensuring their development to manhood and womanhood amid enhancing surroundings and the lovely care of adopted parents, thus making for a good citizenship of the State; consistently advocating everywhere and all the time that this land so favorably located, so generously endowed with nature gifts, so happily populated, so divinely blessed, shall be maintained and perpetuated as it was dedicated by Pathfinder, Pioneer, Settler and Miner our predecessors whose memories we cherish, whose standards we so devotedly carry forward.

"And so, on May 15, sixty-four years after these far-sighted men, California Pioneers, banded together under a single banner the Native Sons of the Golden West to promote and to develop the interests of their State, we meet in San Francisco in annual session to again present constructive recommendations for continued development and progress of our California.

"The progress of the past will be measured against the progressive plans of the future, and at this session, which will combine days of intensive business with days of elaborate entertainment, I urge all Native Sons to attend as a testimonial to our founders that the Native Sons of the Golden West accept their responsibilities seriously and love their State.

Jos. J. McShane

(GRAND PRESIDENT N.S.G.W.)

Joseph J. McShane of San Francisco,
Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West.

"San Francisco—he pronounces her name reached famous proportions and became the year a great fair. The Golden Gate International Exposition, is proving an attraction to millions of visitors from all parts of the world. The city's scenic grandeur has many times been likened by poet and song writer to the most colorful ancient cities of the Old World.

"San Franciscans are proud of their city. They are proud to display it, and visitors with its gates never wont for willing hands to guide them to the many points of interest. San Francisco's historical centers are legion. Chinatown, one of the few in the United States, where a full section is populated by the Oriental race, where customs centuries old are extant, a city within itself!

"From Chinatown a visitor may continue through the winding streets of San Francisco into North Beach, Little Italy, Fisherman's Wharf where each evening hundreds of small craft head for the open sea to spread their nets, drop their lines and return in the early morning with the day's supply of fresh fish for the open market. Fisherman's Wharf! No other city offers its charm, no other city boasts its romance!

"Leaving Fisherman's Wharf, the visitor may within a few minutes' walk reach Aquatic Park, a new two million-dollar pavilion built for the pleasure of San Francisco and her guests. Here all San Francisco meets to dine, to wine, or to relax and gaze at an island-studded bay plied by ferry boats, merchant vessels and small yachts. In the background is the giant Golden Gate Bridge, linking San Francisco and Marin Counties. A sentinel of steel separating by shadow San Francisco Bay and the Pacific Ocean. Down the bay another giant span of steel, binding San Francisco and the metropolitan area of Oakland and other cities of the east shore, with a dividing line leading to the Golden Gate International Exposition, to the man-made Treasure Island, replete with scientific wonders and palaces of amusement. These and many more scenic and historic wonders await the arrival of Native Sons. Edward F. O'Day, student of San Francisco history and my friend, has depicted them in his book, 'San Francisco Past and Present.' With his permission, I take the liberty to quote:

SAN FRANCISCO
"THE CITY OF FAIRS"

Dr. Peter T. Conmy

Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

MONDAY, MAY 15, 1939, THE SIXTY-second Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will convene in San Francisco. It is almost sixty-four years since the Native Sons of the Golden West was organized in San Francisco, and almost sixty-one years since the first Grand Parlor met in the same city. San Francisco has many titles. It is known as "the foggy city," "the windy city," "the gold gray city." Appropriate as these names are, San Francisco has still another title which more aptly describes her grandeur and her aspirations, namely, the "city of fairs."

The word "fair" is derived from the Latin "feria," meaning holiday. In the Middle Ages, however, the term assumed a commercial importance; for, the fairs were places at which wares and agricultural products were shown and sold. Following the Spanish tradition of the fiesta, a word also built upon the Latin root of "feria," the fair, as developed in the history of San Francisco, has consisted in festivity with exhibitions of materials and machines of every sort, omitting the commercial phase of exchange of commodities. The place at which a fair can be held is delimited by geographical considerations. Accessibility and climate are two very important factors. This is why San Francisco, which enjoys such a mild climate throughout most of the year, and which is so easily reached by land and water,—the geographical center of the state—is the natural location in California for an exposition or fair. For this reason, San Francisco has enjoyed the privilege of having more fairs than any other city on the Pacific Coast.

The first fair to be held in San Francisco was the State Fair, sponsored by the State Agricultural Society, in October 1854, eighty-five years ago. This was purely an exhibition of the agricultural products of the state. Various localities demanded that the State Fair be held in their section. Hence in 1855 it was held in Sacramento, at San Jose in 1856, at Stockton in 1857, and at Marysville in 1858. Since 1859 it has been located in Sacramento upon the theory that the State Fair should be in the State Capital.

In 1857 the Mechanics Institute held in San Francisco what was known as the Mechanics Fair. This consisted of a large pavilion in which the latest inventions of science were exhibited, along with scientific contributions to agriculture and horticulture. This fair was for many years an annual event, and brought to San Francisco thousands of persons from the interior who were interested in viewing the latest industrial equipment. The Mechanics Fair soon assumed a festive side, however. This is brought out by John P. Young, whose "San Francisco, a History of the Pacific Coast Metropolis," says: "These fairs of the Mechanics Institute speedily took on another feature than the practical one of displaying progress in the fields of industry. They soon became the favorite resort of the people, who met each other socially in the pavilion erected for housing the displays. Good music was provided, and for many years these annual exhibitions were a popular institution reflecting credit on the management and bringing profit to the institute . . . they kept alive the desire to make the city a great manufacturing center" . . .

In addition to the State Fair of 1854 and the annual Mechanics Fair after 1857, San Francisco has sponsored three great expositions, exhibitions which have a prominent place in the history of fairs in the modern world: (1) the Mid-winter Exposition of 1894, (2) the Panama Pacific International Exposition of 1915, and (3) the Golden Gate International Exposition of 1939. The last is nicknamed Treasure Island.

The Mid-winter Exposition of 1894 had an interesting origin. The months which followed the election of President Cleveland, in 1892, brought depressed economic conditions. Keeler, writing in 1903 about this dark period for business, said: "Staggered by the crash of 1893, the city seemed unable to recuperate, or made a recovery so slow that people shook their heads or spoke disparagingly of the place."

One of the factors for recovery was the Mid-winter Exposition. The idea of having this fair originated with one prominent citizen of San Francisco, M. H. DeYoung, publisher of the San Francisco Chronicle. The reason for projecting the exposition is given by him in the following words: "I am inclined to think that the consideration that an imperative necessity existed that something should be done to rescue the city of San Francisco from a commercial collapse was the controlling motive. I think it was a clear apprehension of the existing state of affairs that caused the suggestion to hold a Mid-winter Exposition in San Francisco to be taken up and pushed with energy."

In the fall of 1893 the Columbia Exposition at Chicago was drawing to a close. DeYoung and other San Franciscans saw an opportunity to bring a stimulation to the West Coast by building an exposition in San Francisco to which many of the exhibits at the Columbia Exposition would be moved. The site for the Mid-winter Exposition was in Golden Gate Park, in that rectangular area now surrounded by the museum, music stand, Academy of Science and aquarium. This section of the great park is today one of its most popular and most beautiful features. In 1893, however, it was still undeveloped, and the building of the fair there opened up for public use a central and sheltered segment of the park.

A fund of $350,000 was subscribed by enthusiastic citizens, and the work of construction began August 24, 1893. One hundred buildings were erected, ranging from very small ones to others which were quite large and spacious. All the buildings and the grounds were completed by the opening day, January 1, 1894. Due to the fact that the fair was to run from January to July, including all of the winter season, it was called the Mid-winter Exposition. This name was also given to advertise the mild climate of San Francisco for winter tourists. The enterprise was a financial success. The number of admissions over the six-month period that the fair ran totaled 2,255,551. It brought thousands of people to San Francisco, it gave employment to hundreds of San Francisco's unemployed and, above all, it heartened San Francisco capitalists and workers alike, filling them with confidence in their city and the great West of which it is a part.

The mushroom-like growth of the Mid-winter Exposition, with suddenness, rapidity and hasty planning, does not describe the development of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition of 1915. This latter was the work of years of planning. The idea seems to have first evolved in 1904 when Reuben B. Hale, a San Francisco merchant, suggested that a great exposition be built to commemorate the completion of the most gigantic engineering fete then under way, the Panama Canal. The disaster of 1906 caused a temporary halt to plans that were then under way, but in December of that year the Pacific Ocean Company was incorporated with a capital stock of $5,000,000. This concern had for its purpose the promotion of a great exposition in San Francisco in 1915 to commemorate the completion of the Panama Canal. That this company did its work well is attested by the fact that February 10, 1910, President Taft approved the congressional resolution officially designating San Francisco as the city for the exposition. The work of building began October 14th of the same year, when President Taft broke the ground at Harbor View, as the section of San Francisco where the exposition was built was then named. February 2, 1912, he invited all nations to participate in the exposition. The prevailing architectural theme throughout the buildings was the idea of universality, the colors and designs of all nations being blended into one general plan. The exposition was erected at a cost of over $50,000,000. It opened February 20, 1915, and closed December 4th of the same year. It introduced the whole world to the possibilities of the West.

The idea of impressing the rest of the world with the importance of the West, inaugurated so ably by the Mid-winter Exposition of 1894 and the Panama-Pacific International Exposition of 1915, has received further impetus by the development of the Golden Gate International Exposition of 1939. This fair, so resplendently functioning on Treasure Island now, was built to commemorate the building of the San Francisco-Oakland Bridge and the Golden Gate Bridge, the greatest exponents of bridge building engineering in the world. It also commemorates the opening of Boulder Dam. The Golden Gate International Exposition was projected in 1934. In its architectural lines it follows the idea of a "Pageant of the Pacific," the Spanish and Aztec architectures being blended with the traditional European to develop a Pacific area architectural motif. Thus San Francisco's latest and greatest fair awaits the coming of the N.S.G.W. Grand Parlor. Thus, too, the Grand Parlor returns, for its sixty-second annual session, to the city of the Order's birth in 1875, but to a city more glorious than ever before,—to San Francisco, home of the Golden Gate International Exposition, to San Francisco, the "City of Fairs."

"SMOKE THE PIPE, SPREAD THE BED"

How poor the triumph of the paved highway
Over the prairies of our vanished west!
The age of cars—the crusade of today
Stripping men's chivalry by speed obsessed.
Caged brothers, skimming over freedom's road,
Recording time in hours; cursing delays,
God's out-of-doors, a hurried episode—
Unknown the campfires of the yesterdays.
Now little of the open range is seen
Wire fences hedge us in and straight ahead
The miles are covered in a steered routine
No time to "Smoke the pipe and spread the bed."
O, may we find a new delight in cars
Enjoying sacred days and glorious stars.

itself away behind that hill, quite willing to be unobserved, preserving a stolid Oriental nonchalance even when the Barbary Coast roared up from the waterfront to the barred teakwood doors of its old depravity and the joss houses of its bland idolatry. Chinatown is still there, with a great deal that enriches the eye and lightens the purse of the tourist, and with not very much to hide except a slave girl or so, a smuggled tin of opium, a game of fan tan and a lottery ticket. In San Francisco you must not think only of Toledo or Seville. At sea level, San Francisco is one hundred per cent American, but on her hills she is cosmopolitan.

"'In the precipitous approaches to Telegraph Hill there are many Mexicans and Porto Ricans, but the hill itself is the roost of serious young men and women who speak many other tongues but all paint and etch and worry clay in the language of art moderne. In the days of '49 a semaphore on Telegraph Hill signalled the approach of the clipper ships; nowadays that particular part of our skyline is aflutter with the gesticulations of geniuses whose meaning many of us cannot understand. But they can no more be suppressed than the Coit Tower. Telegraph Hill is our Montmartre. There are more conservative studios on Russian Hill, also the ample homes of those wealthy patrons without whom art might talk but could not eat and drink.

"'In the hollows of these hills lies Little Italy, reminiscent of Naples and Genoa. Here we have a teeming street life every sunny day, with more bambinos to a block than Raphael ever painted, and with restaurants named after Italian poets and Italian operas where the spaghetti is a poem in prose, the sanddab from Fisherman's Wharf a perfect lyric, and where the zabayone with its flavor of Marsala and Maraschino brandy, sings an aria in your brain.

"'Here, too, are pensions with modest tables d'hote where Spaniards can be induced at times to speak of the leagues of land their great grandfathers held before the gringo came, and where Basques make merry quite gravely when they come to San Francisco from the sheep ranges of Monterey County and Nevada, the wages of a whole year burning holes in their leather pouches.

"'In the sixties, with a population of eighty thousand, San Francisco was undoubtedly the most cosmopolitan community in the United States. It was isolated, but not in the least provincial. Its citizens lived on a high level of civilization and culture. It was a community of distinguished educators and eloquent clergymen, brilliant professional men, bankers and merchants who had breadth and vision. Social life took a high tone from the combination of generous Southern "chivalry" with the rather constrained breeding of New York, Philadelphia and New England.

"'"It is an odd thing," wrote Oscar Wilde, "but everyone is said to be seen at San Francisco. It must be a delightful city, and possess all the attractions of the next world." That was before Oscar Wilde came to San Francisco with his sunflower and his velvet jacket to lecture before the intelligentsia and to drink everybody under the table at a convivial gathering at the Cliff House.

"'Apparently everybody DOES come to San Francisco. Kipling came here as an unknown newspaperman. O. Henry crossed our waterfront on his way from Honduras to serve a sentence in prison. The great Steinmetz was on his way here to live with relatives when he happened to stop off at Schenectady and changed the course of his own life and of the General Electric Company.

"'Nearly everybody seemed to come here in 1915 during the course of our noble World's Fair—San Francisco's highest artistic achievement. The influence of that great exposition lives today in our architecture, and in a world-vision that contemplates Europe, South America, the Latin republics to our immediate south, and most particularly Asia. That same influence has been revivified in the Aladdin's wonder place on Yerba Buena Shoals.'

"These are only a few of the scenic and historic treats awaiting delegates and guests to the Sixty-second annual session of the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West. As a resident of our host city and as Grand President of the great Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, it is my pleasure to invite you to San Francisco and to assure you of a wholehearted welcome."

"They say life is a highway and its milestones are the years; and now and then there's a tollgate where you pay your way with tears; it's a rough and a steep road and it stretches broad and far; but it leads at last to a golden town where golden hours are."—Joyce Kilmer.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

SAMUEL BRANNAN, WELL-KNOWN CALIfornia Pioneer, died May 5, 1889, at Escondido, San Diego County. At one time he was a large property owner of San Francisco, and Brannan street in that city was named after him. At another time he owned one fourth of the City of Sacramento, and in 1848 and 1849 operated a store at Sutter's Fort that did a business of $150,000 per month.

Judge Erskine M. Ross rendered a decision in Los Angeles May 27 against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company involving 800,000 acres of land.

General Manager Dan McCool of the Santa Fe Railroad this month issued an order that all fruits sold aboard the trains of that company "shall be purchased in San Bernardino County."

While washing dirt with a rocker at Kanaka Bar, Sierra County, a Chinaman found May 12 a $1,500 gold nugget and three ounces of gold dust. He immediately left for the "Flowery Kingdom."

While on a house-to-house hunt for work in Los Angeles May 13, a discarded daughter of Millionaire S. B. Sanderson accidentally found her parents and was welcomed home.

Thousands of San Francisco children celebrated May Day in Golden Gate Park May 1.

Memorial Day, May 30, was generally observed throughout California.

Light showers of rain were welcomed throughout the state May 13.

Warren Watkins was appointed postmaster at Trinidad, Humboldt County, May 10; Edward J. Johnson at Fall Brook, San Diego County, May 13, and N. M. Nutt at Dutch Flat, Placer County, May 29.

A sharp earthquake shock was felt May 1 at Susanville, Lassen County, and May 19 "shakes" occurred along the coast.

A new postoffice was established this month at Emerald Bay, El Dorado County, with Lucy K. Kirby as postmistress.

Eight incendiary fires were started between May 15 and 25 in Santa Rosa, Sonoma County.

Large deposits of aluminum and beds of blue clay were discovered this month at El Toro Station, south of Santa Ana in Los Angeles County, and it was predicted that a fine quality of cement could be made there.

Anaheim, Orange County, citizens voted May 3 to form an irrigation district.

Justice Jackson Temple of the California Supreme Court tendered his resignation May 12. Ill health was the cause.

Dr. Murray of Banning, San Bernardino County, sold his ranch for $12,000 to the Order of Benedictine Monks, which intended to start an industrial school.

The opening of San Francisco's New California Theater May 13 by Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett was a brilliant and tremendous success.

Scarlet fever was raging at Antioch, Contra Costa County, during the month.

Francisco Sanchez, who came to California in 1837 and acquired considerable land, died May 4 near Pomona, Los Angeles County.

For resisting arrest at Paso Robles, San Luis Obispo County, Officer Frank Misenheimer shot and killed Joseph Dubar May 13.

The San Joaquin Improvement Company and the California Steam Navigation Company were consolidated May 15.

Ruro & Delaney, San Francisco commission merchants, May 16 made an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

The affairs of the Marysville, Yuba County, Postoffice were reported to be in a muddle.

A thousand-acre field of wheat on the Machado ranch near Santa Monica, Los Angeles County, burned May 15.

The Sacramento Union May 19 started the issuance of a Sunday edition, thus becoming a seven-day paper.

The sawmill at Caspar, Mendocino County, was totally destroyed by fire May 17.

The Northern California Press Association met at Sacramento May 20 with many distinguished "Knights of the Quill" in attendance.

The Palace Bath Company, with a capital of $500,000, was incorporated May 20 at Fresno City.

The Mendocino County farms of J. C. Reed and Zack Bartlett were purchased by the state for $32,000 May 22 for the Mendocino State Hospital.

Flood conditions in the Mokelumne River near Lancha Plana, Amador County, May 20 washed away the Westmoreland dam, just built by the Mokelumne Ditch and Irrigation Company across the river.

Editor J. S. LaFortune of the Tulare Free Press was badly beaten May 25 at Traver by Ed Miles, who objected to an article about him published in the Press.

James L. English, mayor of Sacramento City in 1855, died there May 29. While serving as mayor, he was appointed state treasurer by the "Know Nothing Party" Governor, J. Neely Johnson.

At Biggs, Butte County, Ed Looney and W. S. Riddle, who owned adjoining farms, got into a dispute over land partition May 27, and the former shot and killed the latter.

In a dispute May 29 at Fort Jones, Siskiyou County, as to who owned the water at McAdams Creek, Manuel Cordoza was shot and killed by Charles Davidson.

The Guerne & Murphy Milling Company's plant near Guerneville, Sonoma County, was sold May 6 for $100,000.

A box factory and a carriage factory on Ninth street near Harrison, San Francisco, were totally destroyed by fire May 8.

H. J. Austin was appointed a notary public for Fresno County May 10. He is now one of the superior court judges of that county.

A. P. More, owner of Santa Rosa Island, near Santa Barbara, was beaten almost to death by his sheep shearers May 7.

Felix O'Brien and E. R. Eaton, a former policeman, were arrested in San Francisco May 15 for jury bribing.

A locomotive on the North Pacific Coast Railroad exploded May 15 at Occidental, Sonoma County. No one was injured.

A mad cow ran through the streets of Pasadena, Los Angeles County, May 18, injuring several people quite seriously before being shot and killed.

The Southern California Turn Fest was held May 20 at San Bernardino City.

George A. Holmes was run over and killed by a narrow-gauge train in Alameda City May 19.

D. L. Loedan, Omaha bank cashier, was robbed of $1,500 in currency and $50,000 in promissory notes while aboard a train near Pomona, Los Angeles County, May 25.

A fire that May 29 destroyed the San Bernardino City barn of N. N. Bradford cremated four mules.

Mrs. Elizabeth Schaefer of Oakland, Alameda County, strangled herself to death May 28.

J. H. Bartlett, city marshal of Fresno, was May 20 committed to a state hospital.

HOMELESS CHILDREN

A Worthwhile Non-sectarian Endeavor Sponsored and Supported by the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

THE TWENTY-NINTH ANNUAL REport of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West Central Committee on Homeless Children will have gone to press by the time this article appears in the May 1939 issue of The Grizzly Bear. However, the happy little faces herein pictured will not be found in the pages of the report, necessarily held for facts and figures and the unemotional business bits of interest such as receipts and disbursements, trial balance, savings and investments.

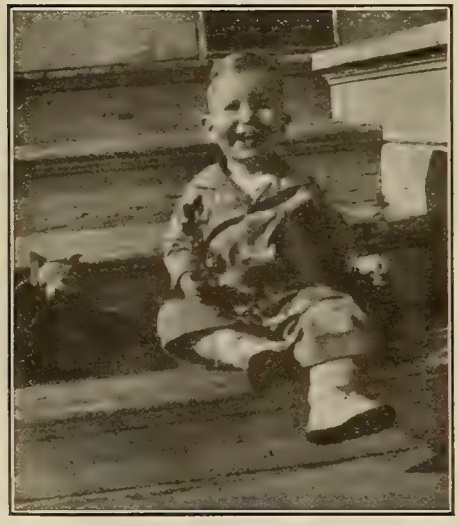
Two hundred and five homes have been supplied with chosen children during the year—one hundred and fifty-three from the northern office, and fifty-two from the southern office; ninety-nine boys, and one hundred and six girls. One hundred forty-nine of the children are of Protestant parents, fifty-two of Catholic parents, three of Hebrew parents, and the parents of one are followers of Confucius.

Four of this total of two hundred and five had been previously placed, and returned to the Central Committee for one reason or another: sudden illness in the home; belated visit from the stork to the foster home; unexpected call for the breadwinner to new fields out of California, with uncertainty concerning home conditions and permanency. These replacements are to be taken into consideration, along with the children who have been returned to their own parents or to institutions, when summing up expense, visits made and work accomplished.

That which cannot be measured in terms of dollars and cents is the reaction of a mother to the helping hand—the unmistakable sense of security for the future of her baby, whom she would have kept under her wing if circumstances and conditions had been more kind. What cold figures can prove the happiness which comes to the parents who find a way, in the time allotted them before the child's placement, to escape permanent separation? The Native Daughters Milk Fund has helped tremendously toward helping to care for children during the first weeks of their lives—$414.15 this year, $6,560.22 in six years.

What cold figures can estimate the complete satisfaction felt by foster parents when they are given children who have received intelligent care through psychiatrists and trained nurses since their birth, and have developed into healthy, normal babies? What can give a greater sense of security than the assurance of the Central Committee that, if a child needs hospital care or treatment to correct a defect of eyes or other imperfections that existed when the child was taken, that care will be given without expense to the foster parents? But not, to be sure, without anxiety and extra hours of work for the foster parents. The percentage, fortunately, of children needing special care is low and when, eventually, all is well, former worries are forgotten. $5,608.77 has carried this item for the year, and the sum of $3,806.42 has been refunded by natural parents, the state and counties.

Over seven hundred letters of inquiry concerning the adoption of children have been received and answered, five hundred and sixty-two completed applications have been acknowledged, and five times this number of references made out and mailed by one full-time office worker in the northern office and a half-time office worker in the southern office. Printing and postage cost $489.67.



Five hundred and sixty-two homes to visit and inquire into with accuracy and care, and at least three times that number of references to interview personally, that there may be no guessing as to the fitness of the home, children to be placed therein and supervised. Travel and mileage cost $935.45. Two field workers in the north, one the executive, and one worker in the south are ready to go when called upon, and to answer an SOS from hospital or physician, perhaps in Humboldt County, or probation officer or private home in Kern County.

Hundreds of persons in a year enter the offices of the Central Committee, and a worker must interview them. Some are in quest of a child, aid for a child, or in need of help and counsel. $5,947 has been paid for this. We're not bragging about the few workers, however; we wish those who understand the details of child-placing to know. $660 was spent for the place in which to meet those who came to 998 Eddy street, San Francisco, and to 3924 Sunset boulevard, Los Angeles.

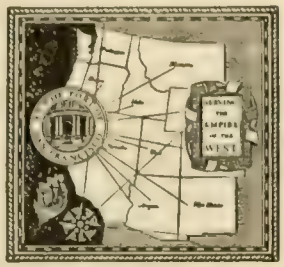
Homes, children and their care, workers, these ARE the WORK!, the CAUSE! for which the hundreds of Native Sons and Native Daughters throughout California have voluntarily labored, giving their time, sacrificing personal plans to attend meeting after meeting, preparing publicity, and stimulating interest for the success of their homeless children benefits, that there may be no slackening in enthusiasm and effort

"How's this, Daddie, for a beginner?" "Swell."

"Life is just one grand holiday."

"Lookey, wawa comin'."

"Why worry? The world suits me."



"What did Santa do about all of the other little girls?"

"Looks all right, but my arm's too short."

SPRING-TIME DAYS

(LIDA NEWMAN DIEDERICH.)

The warm Spring sun has melted
The winter's drifts of snow;
There is motion, stirring, nestling
In the damp soil down below.

Tiny roots are reaching down
To find a place to cling;
Tiny sprouts are reaching up,
They hear the call of Spring.

A pale green mist of baby leaves
Spreads over forest cisles;
Green pastures on the valley floors
Stretch out for miles and miles.

Flower buds on garden shrubs
Feel the warm Spring sun;
Rich in color and fragrance,
Petals open one by one.

Happy birds hear Spring's sweet call
And flit from tree to tree
Seeking a location
For the home that is to be.

Sunshine, color, birds and buds,—
Such joys the warm days bring;
God's whole creation thrills with life
At coming of the Spring.
—Ione Valley Echo.

SIXTY-SECOND N. S. G. W. GRAND PARLOR

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

THE SIXTY-SECOND ANNUAL GRAND Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will convene at San Francisco, Monday, May 15, 10:30 a.m. Sessions of the Grand Parlor will be held in the auditorium of Native Sons Building, 414 Mason street, Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Previous Grand Parlors that have met in San Francisco included those of 1878, the First, 1879, 1881, 1883, 1915 and 1929.

Grand President Joseph J. McShane of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214, San Francisco, will preside throughout the 1939 Grand Parlor deliberations and, at their conclusion, will automatically become the Junior Past Grand President.

The reports of Grand Parlor officers and committees to the Sixty-second session will deal with the Order's activities during the 1938-39 Grand Parlor year. The Grizzly Bear has, during the year, given full publicity to the many important events and accomplishments.

Grand Secretary John T. Regan's report will detail the condition of the Subordinate Parlors as of December 31, 1938. Those with 450 or more members, also their assets-figures, include:

Parlors.	Members.	Assets.
South San Francisco No. 157	801	$58,426.26
Castro No. 232	752	10,587.38
Arrowhead No. 110	596	26,441.66
Ramona No. 109	563	39,620.56
Stockton No. 7	505	38,127.73
Stanford No. 76	451	23,496.51

Other Subordinate Parlors, with assets of $20,000 or more, also their membership-figures, are:

Parlors.	Members.	Assets.
San Jose No. 22	231	$73,986.08
Pacific No. 10	368	40,311.51
Amador No. 17	138	38,447.09
Sacramento No. 3	252	37,916.84
Redwood No. 66	192	31,586.92
Napa No. 62	250	30,470.39
Observatory No. 177	184	27,075.54
Placerville No. 9	208	23,588.25
National No. 118	183	22,460.98
Presidio No. 194	351	22,353.85
Eden No. 113	123	22,121.60
Sunset No. 26	240	21,965.65
Santa Lucia No. 97	37	21,514.28
Excelsior No. 31	117	20,710.74
Quartz No. 58	165	20,431.20
Piedmont No. 120	399	20,251.41

From these figures, it will be noted that South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, San Francisco, is the largest, numerically, in the Order; that San Jose Parlor No. 22 is the wealthiest, financially, and that Santa Lucia Parlor No. 97, Salinas, has the greatest percapita wealth.

At the close of 1938, the Subordinate Parlors had assets totaling $1,178,386.88—$68.11 per member average; this total included cash assets of $333,748.92—$19.29 per member average. Their receipts for 1938 totaled $269,957.66,—$15.60 per member average—and their disbursements totaled $275,343.26—$15.91 per member average. Subordinate Parlors which pay benefits relieved 1,265 members to the extent of $77,788.23 — $61.49 per beneficiary average.

CANDIDATES FOR GRAND PARLOR OFFICES

The Grizzly Bear has sought information from all Subordinate Parlors and numerous individuals as to candidates for Grand Parlor offices. The lineup which follows is compiled, therefore, from authentic information received direct from reliable sources. There are rumors, however, of other candidates, but the "rumored ones" are not listed here:

Grand Second Vice-president—Grand Third Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Fruitvale Parlor No. 252.

Grand Marshal—Grand Inside Sentinel Louis Bosch, Sonoma Parlor No. 111; Bernard J. Dillon, Guadalupe Parlor No. 231.

Grand Inside Sentinel—Grand Outside Sentinel Walter N. Bailey, Elk Grove Parlor No. 41.

Grand Outside Sentinel—George A. Bruno, Napa Parlor No. 62; Joseph E. Tracy, Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214.

The Grand Organist and the Grand Historian, additional grand officers, will be appointed by the incoming Grand President.

The delegates from Bakersfield Parlor No. 42 and Taft Parlor No. 276 to the San Francisco Grand Parlor will ask that Bakersfield, Kern County, be named as the meetingplace for the Sixty-third (1940) Grand Parlor.

The Sacramento County delegation will, it is understood, ask that Sacramento City be designated as the place for celebrating Admission Day in 1940. This year's statewide celebration of California's birthday will, of course, be held in San Francisco, September 9.

GRAND PARLOR COMPOSITION.

The San Francisco Grand Parlor will be made up of the following. Any member of the Order is, however, privileged to attend the session but, of course, only those seated as members of the Grand Parlor are entitled to vote:

"BRISTOL BAY," SAID EDWARD W. Allen, American member of the International Fisheries Commission, recently addressing the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco, "is today a testing ground for two conflicting principles of world importance: conservation, represented by the United States and Canada, and exploitation, represented by Japan, today the greatest exponent of unenlightened exploitation.

"If Japan succeeds in fishing without limit in Bristol Bay, and destroys that fishery, it is only a question of time until her fishermen are operating down the Alaska coast, down the British Columbia coast, down the Washington, Oregon and California coasts, defeating all efforts at conservation of the fisheries for future need. . . .

"It seems to us the cause of peace is best served by investigating the situation, knowing what the facts are, and taking steps while there is time to forestall complications which might result in war.

"Every principle of morality should favor countries which exercise restraint and spend money to preserve and build up a resource, rather than countries which exploit and destroy a fishery and then go on to another. If international law does not cover this situation, international rules should be devised that will.

"This matter should be handled by diplomacy, and I believe the State Department is giving it serious consideration, yet we know that the Pacific Coast seems a lot further from Washington than Europe. We should insist that the State Department take a firm and positive stand in regard to a matter involving the entire Pacific fishing industry and a principle of world importance."

City Hall To Be Dedicated.

Daly City—Under the joint auspices of El Carmelo No. 256 and El Carmelo No. 181 N.D.G.W., the City Hall will be dedicated Sunday, May 21, by the grand officers. A parade through the streets of Daly City will precede the dedicatory ceremonies. Grand Trustee Alice M. Oldham of the Native Daughters is taking a leading part in the arrangements.

Memorial Day Must Be Observed.

The Grand Parlor Printing and Supplies Committee—Harry Romick, chairman, George Pritz and Charles T. O'Kane—has communicated with the Subordinate Parlors, calling attention to the Grand Parlor Constitution, which provides that it SHALL BE MANDATORY upon the Parlors to observe Memorial Day, May 30, in either of the following ways:

(1) By holding appropriate exercises on Memorial Day or on a day in close proximity thereto. (2) By decorating the graves of departed members by placing thereon small United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags. Orders for flags should be placed not later than May 10.

Twenty-fifth Oratorical Contest.

Elk Grove—The twenty-fifth annual oratorical contest for students of the Elk Grove High School sponsored by Elk Grove No. 41 and Liberty No. 213 N.D.G.W. was held at the school auditorium March 24. President Artus Ronk of No. 41 was chairman of the evening, and music for the occasion was furnished by musical organizations of the school. Eight students participated in the contest.

Ruby Bach, whose subject was "The Home of the Swallows," was declared the winner, and second honors went to Kenneth Hodge, whose subject was "A Dream Comes True." Others participating, and their subjects, were: Alfred Anderson, "Romance of California Highways;" Berenice Badella, "San Francisco, the City of Courage;" Kathryn Barnes, "The California Octopus;" Ben Dewald, "De Anza, the Trail Blazer;" William Derheim, "The Trail of the Red Gold Rush;" Arleen O'Brien, "California's Educational Democracy."

"Bakersfield in 1940."

Bakersfield—Bakersfield No. 42 and Taft No. 276 have a very active joint committee working hard to secure the 1940 Grand Parlor for Bakersfield. The directorate includes R. C. Gleason, chairman, William G. Rea Jr., secretary, George A. Morris, H. A. Bannister, Carl Luick, Wallace Weller, George Taylor, A. E. Giggy, Ernest Cuthbertson, Charles Ladley and Joe Blos.

To raise funds, the committee has completed arrangements for a big "Bakersfield in 1940" stag party to be held at the Rainbow Gardens, Bakersfield, May 5, and at the Moose Hall, Taft, May 6. "Don't miss this!" cautions Secretary Rea. A N.S.G.W. membership card and one dollar will admit any Native Son to the affair, which promises to be an outstanding event.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Sunday, May 7, the grand officers will dedicate a statue of Father Garces at Bakersfield. Sunday, May 28, they will dedicate a grammar school at Colusa.

San Francisco—The California History Board met at the Grand Secretary's office March 31. In attendance were Past Grand Edward J. Lynch, Emmet Joy, Joseph Tinney, Frank C. Merritt and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy. April 22 the Board sponsored the annual banquet honoring Dr. Herbert E. Bolton, head of the California History Department of the University of California.

Oroville—William Ashley Ward and wife celebrated April 9 their golden wedding anniversary. Ward, born in 1862 at Morristown, Sierra County, is one of the oldest members of Argonaut No. 8. Born at Yuba City, Sutter County, in 1868, Mrs. Ward is a daughter of Plummer and Sarah Welsh, Pioneers of 1849.

Ione—Ione No. 33 presented fifty-year-membership pins to Frank Haverstick, Al Haverstick and Elmer Fithian April 20. District Attorney Allen Martin made the presentation address. Several guests, among them District Deputy George Tonzi, were welcomed. A light lunch was served at the close of a very pleasant evening.

Napa—Napa No. 62 celebrated its fifty-fourth institution anniversary at an oldtimers night April 10. Fine entertainment was provided and refreshments were served.

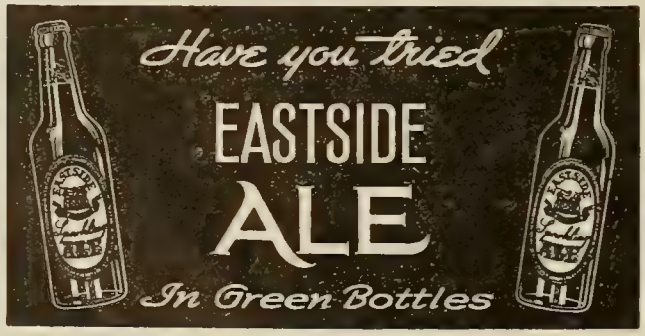
Lincoln—Alfred E. Clark, president Silver Star No. 63, died suddenly at Sacramento April 3 survived by a wife and two sons. He was a native of Placer County, aged 65, and had served the county as district attorney.

Redwood City—Redwood No. 66 plans a ninety-day membership campaign contest between the past presidents, headed by Phillip Boso, and the present officers, headed by President Irvin Blomquist.

Calistoga—Calistoga No. 86 will observe its fifty-third institution anniversary May 1. Members of Lower Lake No. 159 will be special guests. Baseball teams have been organized by the married and the single men of the Parlor. Theodore Tamagni and Angelo Sbrazza are the respective captains.

Weaverville—Mount Bally No. 87 entertained the members of Eltapome No. 55 N.D.G.W. and their husbands April 3. The feature of the evening was a California history quiz contest between the Daughters and the Sons; the latter won. Technicolor movies of the Trinity Alps and the Grand Canyon were shown. Refreshments closed an enjoyable evening.

Ferndale—Ferndale No. 93 has appointed J. J. Bognuda, George Becker, George Lindley and E. P. Calanchini a committee to arrange for Memorial Day ceremonies here.



Salinas—Santa Lucia No. 97 initiated two candidates April 3. A barbecue, in charge of Frank Lanini, George McDougall and Russell Scott, preceded the initiation. Past Grand Hartley Russell, honor-guest of the occasion, complimented the Parlor's ritual team on the impressive initiatory ceremonies.

Sonoma—Sonoma No. 111 was host at the celebration April 17 of "Louis Bosch night" by the Sonoma County Parlors. The occasion was arranged in honor of Grand Inside Sentinel Louis Bosch, and among the one hundred visitors was Grand Trustee Charles A. Redding. Nine candidates were initiated for Petaluma No. 27 and two for Sonoma. L. H. Green, G. Harris and B. F. Bones, for more than a half-century members of the Order, were introduced and roundly applauded. On behalf of Sonoma, J. F. Prestwood presented a fifty-year jewel to B. F. Bones. Following the meeting an elaborate feast was enjoyed. LeRoy Lounibos was the toastmaster and there were many fine talks.

Oakland—A ritual contest between the officers of Piedmont No. 120 and South San Francisco No. 157, San Francisco, was held in the former's hall April 27. For the past eight years the Parlors have had similar contests semi-annually.

Sebastopol—Sebastopol No. 143 and Sebastopol No. 265 N.D.G.W. are organizing a joint drum corps and marching unit for appearance in the San Francisco Admission Day, September 9, parade.

Passing of the California Pioneer

(Confined to Brief Notices of the Demise of those Men and Women who came to California prior to 1870.)

MRS. MILLIE E. BALDWIN, NATIVE of Pennsylvania, 86; came to California in 1855 with her father, Milton Wehn, and settled in San Francisco, where she died; two children survive. She presented to San Francisco a six-acre site atop Mount Davidson where the "Exposition City" holds its Easter sunrise services.

Francis W. Hamilton, native of Vermont, 89; came in 1853; died at Red Bluff, Tehama County.

O. A. Austin, native of Maine, 88; came in 1857; died at Stockton, San Joaquin County, survived by a wife and two sons.

Mrs. Sarah E. Russell, native of Massachusetts, 85; came via Cape Horn in a sailing vessel in 1859; died at San Jose, Santa Clara County, survived by six children.

John W. Welsh, native of Iowa, 89; since 1862 a Butte County resident; died at Oroville, survived by a wife and five children.

Mrs. Lucy Hubbs-Payne, native of Washington, 76; came in 1864; died at Calistoga, Napa County, survived by two sons.

Mrs. Ella Diedrich, 89; since 1866 a resident of San Jose, Santa Clara County, where she died.

John Hohlbauch, native of Germany, 92; came in 1868 and three years later settled in Los Angeles County; died at Wilmington.

Mrs. Maria Lavezzola, native of Italy, 91; since 1869 a resident of Downieville, Sierra County, where she died; three sons survive.

Mrs. Oney L. Kerrick-Mercer; as a three-months-old infant, arrived in 1854 and long resided in Calaveras and San Joaquin Counties; died at Oakland, Alameda County, survived by four children.

Mrs. Clara Snyder, native of Illinois, 89; came in 1854 and resided in Alameda and Solano Counties; died at Benicia, survived by two children.

Carl Dondero, native of Italy, 96; came in 1857; died at Oakland, survived by a wife and eight children. The first edition of the San Francisco Chronicle was printed nearly three-quarters of a century ago in his little shop at Clay and Montgomery streets, San Francisco.

Mrs. Nancy Jane Bartholomew, native of Iowa, 86; crossed the plains in 1858 and resided sixty years in Tehama County; died near Paskenta, survived by a son.

Charles Lincoln Ruggles, native of Massachusetts, 82; came via Panama in 1859 and resided in Contra Costa and San Joaquin Counties; died at Stockton, survived by a wife and a daughter. For thirty-two years he was associated with J. LaRose Phelps in the publication of the Stockton Independent.

Frank Nelson Chapman, native of Connecticut, 81; came via Panama in 1860 and settled in Napa County; died at Napa City, survived by two daughters.

Abraham Lincoln Boyd, native of New Jersey, 78; since 1864 a resident of Sacramento City, where he died; surviving are a wife and a son.

Mount Palomar, San Diego County, site of the world's largest telescope, may be reached via Elsinore and Temecula, or via Oceanside and Pala to Rincon. Visiting hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily.

In Memoriam

FRANK S. ADAMS.

It is with deep sorrow that Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. has learned of the passing of Brother Frank S. Adams, who was initiated as a charter member of this Parlor in July 1887. Several years thereafter he transferred his membership to Ramona Parlor of Los Angeles, of which he was a Past President. He was a frequent and welcome visitor to this Parlor, well known and highly regarded by many of its members.

Brother Adams was eminent in the practice of his profession as an attorney-at-law, a model citizen, and a true and loyal Native Son, devoting his time energy and ability to the welfare and precepts of our Order. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we deeply deplore his passing to the Great Beyond, and extend our sincere sympathy to his surviving relatives and to the members of Ramona Parlor; and that this resolution be spread upon the minutes, and a copy thereof be sent to his bereaved family and to Ramona Parlor.

JOS. E. RICH,
JOHN ANDRESON JR.,
J. A. GREGORY,
Committee.

San Bernardino, April 12, 1939.

SAN BERNARDINO

SAN BERNARDINO—ARROWHEAD PARlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. had its first meeting in its new home, American Legion Hall, April 5. The athletic committee—Tony Freitas, chairman, Robert S. Olive, Clifford E. Gregory, Donald A. Carter and Julius Del George—is forming a nite-ball club. As entertainment April 12, Dr. Herman A. Katz presented several amateur boxing bouts.

Past presidents night was featured April 12. Joseph E. Rich '89 presided. Reminiscences of early San Bernardino were related, a quartet sang several selections, and refreshments were served. A party at the Parlor's Crestline clubhouse April 22 was in charge of James A. Olivas. A very interesting program was presented at Arrowhead's April 26 meeting by the Elsinore Military Academy's band, drill team and sharp shooter.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY.

Ontario—Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. initiated two candidates April 13. Deputy Thelma Nett was a visitor. April 27 the homeless children committee sponsored a benefit card party. The decorations carried out a color scheme of baby blue and pink. There was a good attendance, twenty tables being in operation. Irma Anderson was chairman of the committee in charge.

HOBO PARTY.

San Bernardino—Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. had a dinner March 22. Spring flowers decorated the tables, and the favors were May baskets filled with Easter eggs. Deputy Dorothy Ravn was a guest. After the dinner four candidates were initiated. Fifteen members were entertained by Ontario Parlor March 23 at a potluck dinner.

April 11 Lugonia had a hobo party, which included a "pick-up" dinner. The garbs created much merriment. Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg was a guest of the occasion.

HIDDEN VALLEY, in the Joshua Tree National Monument, is now open to motorists. In addition to its own fine scenery the picturesque valley, more than 4,000 feet in elevation, commands striking views of old Mexico, Salton Sea, desert dunes and snow-mantled mountains.

SANTA BARBARA

REINA DEL MAR PARLOR NO. 126 N.D.G.W., Santa Barbara's own, celebrated its fortieth institution anniversary April 18. Its large membership pledged renewed service to childhood through an adoption program carried on in co-operation with Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W., and to the community through preservation and marking of historic landmarks. Mrs. John D. Ross, supervising district deputy, represented the Grand Parlor, and Dr. Anna E. McCaughey the charter member group.

Mrs. Eugene Ireland, president, presided over a closed dinner, with the members seated at tables representing their particular activities in the organization. Miss Dorothy Yule, who is moving shortly to Arizona, spoke on the value of the rancho-missions pilgrimages being arranged by Miss Pearl Chase, member of the Grand Parlor's honor roll.

Four of these organized visits to the great ranchos of Santa Barbara County and to the three missions within the area will be held this early summer. Native Daughters in costume of the days of the dons will help receive the "pilgrims" at ranches and missions. Reina del Mar has contacted 400 grand officers and individual Parlors in behalf of the pilgrimages.

Report was made of progress toward the marking of historic landmarks in the Santa Barbara area. This task has been undertaken, in collaboration with the Native Sons, for the benefit of visitors to the Golden Gate International Exposition at San Francisco.

The United Commercial Travelers will hold their state convention May 25-27 in Sacramento City.

A "Pageant of Progress" is to be staged May 13 and 14 at Bell Gardens, Los Angeles County.

THE TWENTY-TWO SAN FRANCISCO Subordinate Parlors of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West have, through their Extension of the Order Committee, made extensive arrangements for the entertainment of the members of the Sixty-second Grand Parlor, and a fine program of events is announced for the five days commencing May 15. Meetings will be held Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and Tuesday and Thursday will be playdays.

Officers of the general arrangements committee include: Joseph E. Tracy, Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214, chairman; Joseph E. Tinney, Rincon Parlor No. 72, vice-chairman; Harold J. Regan, South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, secretary; Nicholas J. Murphy, El Dorado Parlor No. 52, treasurer; Milton Lawler, Guadalupe Parlor No. 231, sergeant-at-arms. Here is the program of entertainment features arranged by the committee:

SUNDAY, May 14—Registration in the rooms of the Grizzly Bear Club, top floor Native Sons Building, 414 Mason street.

Joseph E. Tracy,
General Committee Chairman.

Harold J. Regan,
Secretary General Committee.

MONDAY, May 15—10:30 a.m., Grand Parlor opening session, auditorium Native Sons Building. 3 p.m., memorial services, open to the public. Immediately before or after these the finals of the public speaking contest will be held, and will be open to the public. Evening, reception and dance, Native Sons Auditorium, honoring Grand President and Mrs. Joseph J. McShane and members of the Grand Parlor. All Native Sons and Native Daughters will be welcomed.

TUESDAY, May 16—Boat ride on San Francisco Bay. Lunch will be served aboard boat, after which the sightseers will be unloaded on Treasure Island, site of the Golden Gate International Exposition. At night there will be a parade on Treasure Island, starting from the Exposition ferry pier promptly at 8:15. Tickets of admission will be furnished all uniformed marchers. Following the parade dancing will be in order in the California Building.

WEDNESDAY, May 17—Grand Parlor session. For the womenfolks, tea will be served in Native Sons Building during the afternoon, and a trip through Chinatown has been arranged for the evening. The Grand Parlor banquet, exclusively for members of the Order, will also be held that evening, at the Palace Hotel.

Eugene H. O'Donnell of Dolores Parlor No. 208 will preside as toastmaster at the banquet. Speakers, and their subjects, will include: Governor Culbert L. Olson, "California;" Mayor Angelo J. Rossi, "San Francisco;" Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington, "Americanism;" Grand First Vice-president Jesse H. Miller, "Our Order." On the Order's behalf, Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer will present a gift to Grand President Joseph J. McShane, and the Grand President will respond. Several high-class musical numbers will also be introduced.

THURSDAY, May 18—Sightseeing auto trip over the San Francisco forty-nine-mile drive. Evening, grand ball, California Building, Treasure Island.

FRIDAY, May 19—Grand Parlor session, concluding with the installation of the newly-elected grand officers.

INVESTIGATE

Asked by students of St. Olaf College for his views on the "growing war menace," United States Senator Borah of Idaho replied, in part, as follows, according to the United Press: "Investigate for yourself as to the real issues which threaten to involve us in another European war. A thorough investigation will disclose to you that a more sordid, imperialistic war could hardly be imagined than this war should it unfortunately come

"It was the Democracies of Europe which wrote the secret treaties by which all the spoils were divided even before the World War was closed. It was the Democracies of Europe which wrote the Versailles treaty, not a peace treaty, but a spoils treaty. It was the Democracies which for twenty odd years refused to make any changes in the Versailles treaty looking toward peace.

"These European powers, whatever may be their idea of ideology or political views, pursue one and the same course when they come to deal with international affairs. They all alike violate treaties, disregard the most fundamental principles of right, pursue methods which inevitably lead to war, and then call upon the United States, Canada and other nations to save them from their own intolerable and vicious methods.

"When the time comes for the rising generation to deal with naziism, fascism, communism, that devil's brew which has been tendered to the clean minded, patriotic American boys, they will deal with it upon American soil and not in foreign lands where they would be sold out within a fortnight after they might have finished their job, as they were at Versailles."

CALIFORNIA'S HISTORY PEAKS ON DISPLAY AT TREASURE ISLAND.

Berkeley (Alameda County)—On display at the Golden Gate International Exposition by the University of California Bancroft Library are numerous original documents and books marking the peaks of California's history, among them:

The actual Treaty of Cahuenga which marked the separation of the vast expanse of California from Mexico, the original of the 1849 State Constitution; Governor Peter Burnett's proclamation relative to the permanent seat of the state government; the August 20, 1851, proclamation of Governor McDougal against the activities of the Vigilance Committee in San Francisco, an ancient set of orders by Bennett Riley, military governor of the state in the Argonaut days, and the personal narrative of James Ohio Pattee, trapper and explorer, who opened up much of California's wilderness following the visit of Jedediah Smith.

A Douglas fir in Muir Woods National Monument, Marin County, is, by definite measurement, known to have grown thirty-nine inches during 1938.

ANOTHER ORIGINAL NATIVE SON JOINS THE SILENT MAJORITY.

Glendale (Los Angeles County)—Adolph Charles Lutgens, born San Francisco, August 2, 1857, died here April 14. Two days later his wife, Minnie Hays-Lutgens, passed away. She was a native of Ohio, aged 78, and was brought to California by her parents at the age of 2 years.

Lutgens was the one hundredth charter member of California Parlor No. 1 N.S.G.W., San Francisco, and attended the Fourth (1881) Grand Parlor, held in Oakland and San Francisco. His name appears in the original articles of incorporation of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West dated March 1876. As an employe of the Federal Government Lutgens, a well-known architect, designed lighthouses and other buildings.

NUDIST COLONY.

(ESTHER CRONE.)

We hear so much 'bout nudist folks—
How they refuse to wear
Their clothes; they must be jokes,
With bodies stark and bare.
I wonder what they do at night
To keep warm? Do they hover
Up together close and tight,
And sleep without a cover?

SACRAMENTO NATIVE DAUGHTERS BUSY WITH CIVIC AND OTHER AFFAIRS.

Sacramento—The Sacramento City and County Parlors of Native Daughters participated in the military dedication, April 29, of the new United States Air Depot, by planting a tree, and also presenting a plaque placed upon a large boulder at the entrance to the grounds in memory of the California Pioneers. Grand President Edna B. Briggs presented the plaque and was the main speaker, and Pioneer H. P. Peterson, 94 years of age, placed the first shovelfull of earth around the tree. State Civics Chairman Genevieve Didion was the general chairman.—F.A.S.

About the first of May, the Sacramento City Parlors of Native Daughters will have charge of the planting, at historic Sutter's Fort, of a tree which is on its way here from Sutter's birthplace in Europe. Speakers will be Grand President Edna B. Briggs and Past Grand Esther R. Sullivan, chairman Grand Parlor History and Landmarks Committee.

May 6 the Parlors will honor Grand President Briggs at a tea in the historic Governor Leland Stanford home. Among others in the receiving line will be Past Grand Dr. Eva Rasmussen, Supervising Deputy Lucille Huntoon, Deputies Lillian Blackwell, Audria Watts and Nettie Harry. Spring flowers will be used in the decorations, and the Stanford silver service will be used at the tea table.—B.L.

DAUGHTER 1844 PIONEER PASSES.

Redding (Shasta County)—Miss Alice N. Reading, born near Cottonwood, August 15, 1859, died here April 6. She was a daughter of Major Pierson Barton Reading, who came to California in 1844 and founded Redding. He is said to have been the first White settler in Shasta County, and to have found gold on Clear Creek in 1849.

Buckeye, a Shasta County gold rush town of the early '50s, is now, for the first time in its history, being served with electricity.

SAN FRANCISCO

THE SUNDAY BREAKFAST AT THE beautiful N.D.G.W. Home, April 16, was sponsored by the Sacramento City and County Parlors in honor of Grand President Edna B. Briggs. Mmes. Gertrude Keehner and Flora A. Schmittgen were co-chairmen. A jam and jelly shower for the Home, featured by the hostess Parlors, was most successful.

Supervising Deputy Lucille Huntoon led in the salute to the flag, and Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola pronounced an invocation. Frank E. Michel of Sacramento Parlor No. 3 N.S.G.W. was the guest speaker, and he inspired his hearers with a delightful talk on "The Historical Background of Sacramento." Community singing was led by State Music Chairman May E. Lucas. Others among the 110 in attendance were Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, Past Grand Presidents Eliza D. Keith and Mae B. Wilkin, and Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen.—F.A.S.

NEIGHBORS PAY VISIT.

Pacific Parlor No. 10 N.S.G.W. was visited recently by twenty-eight members of Redwood Parlor No. 66 headed by Irvin Blomquist. Among those who made the sixty-mile trip was Grand Trustee Wayne Millington, a past president of No. 10 now affiliated with No. 66, and he was plentifully "razzed" when he attempted to explain what fine Parlors both Redwood and Pacific are. A very pleasant evening was spent by all. "Leave it to the suburban boys," remarked a speaker, "to show the 'big town' fellows what a showing really means in the way of co-operation and being true to the spirit of fraternalism!"—E.J.S.

CHEER CARRIED TO KIDDIES.

Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W. entertained Deputies Claire Lindsey and Anne Franzen March 27. Many visitors were in attendance from Linda Rosa and James Lick Parlors, and a good time was enjoyed by all. Clara Strohmeier was chairman of the evening.

Easter Sunday, Claire Lindsey and committee carried cheer to the kiddies at the San Francisco and the Children's Hospitals. Appropriate gifts of scrapbooks, magazines and candy were distributed. April 17 the drill team had a whist party, and the proceeds were added to the uniform fund.—B.M.N.

SPRING DINNER-DANCE.

The hiking club of Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W., Charles W. Dechent chairman, trekked to Treasure Island April 2. The Parlor had its spring dinner-dance April 15; Frank F. Morris was chairman of arrangements. Stanford was addressed April 18 by Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, whose subject was "The Fire and Earthquake of 1906."

"PALS' NITE" CREATES FUN.

Alice Lane of Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. had a successful luncheon and whist at her home March 30 for the 1939 dress fund. Mae Waring was chairman of the "pals' nite" party. A dinner was followed by an evening of fun.

The Parlor's welfare committee, Alice Lane chairman, visited San Francisco Hospital and distributed to the children Easter surprises which made them happy. The kiddies are remembered by the committee on all holidays. The newly-organized drill team is making fine progress, winning two trophies during the fiesta celebrations in San Francisco.—B.W.

GROOM DINNER HONOR-GUEST.

A group of Presidio Parlor No. 194 N.S.G.W. members gathered for a dinner April 15 in honor of District Deputy Paul Pasquet, a past president of the Parlor, who was wedded April 22 to Miss Rose Rinaldi, sister of Anthony Rinaldi, Presidio's president. Thomas M. Comber was the toastmaster, and the groom was presented with a number of pieces for his bride's silver set.

Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, a member of Presidio, March 27 addressed the Parlor on "The Founding of San Francisco."

Oroville, Butte County, will stage a Gateway Fiesta May 26-28.

Tracy, San Joaquin County, [illegible] Frontier Days celebration for May 13 and 14.

The Butte County District Fair will be held May 17-21 at Chico.

The Solano County Fair [illegible] be held May 12-14 at Dixon.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

FRESNO—WAWONA NO. 271 WAS INstituted here with thirty-two charter members March 24 by Grand President Edna B. Briggs, assisted by Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Marshal Clarice Cook, Grand Trustees Ethel Enos, Alice Oldham and Evalyn Towne, Past Grands Anne Thuesen and Bertha A. Briggs, Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen, and Deputies Claire Lindsey and Flora Schmittgen. The Parlor was organized by Edith Bartholomew, and the ritual was exemplified by officers of Madera No. 244 and Lomitas No. 255, Los Banos, assisted by Claire Lindsey as organist. The following officers were installed by Supervising Deputy Irma Ostrom, assisted by the officers of Lomitas:

Dorothy Helm, president; Bernice Kincheloe, past president; Lucille Skolgard, first vice-president; Evelyn Martin, second vice-president; Doris Gooch, third vice-president; Mildred Thorstensen, organist; Betty Fisher, financial secretary; Marie Leisle, treasurer; Helen Maddy, marshal; Anna Ransom, recording secretary; Marjorie Huffman, inside sentinel; Thelma Baldwin, outside sentinel; Edith Bartholomew, Anne Scharer and Alice Ferber, trustees.

Grand President Briggs presented a silver-mounted gavel to the Parlor, and announced the appointment of Elinor Mills of Madera No. 244 as the deputy for Wawona. Addresses were made by Grand Secretary Thaler, Past Grands Thuesen and Briggs, Supervising Deputy Ostrom, Deputy Mills and President Helm. Others in attendance at the institution ceremonies were Deputies May L. MacDonald and Florence Tisher. Refreshments were served at the meeting's close.

Native Daughters Day at Exposition.

San Francisco—Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, under date of April 14, sent the following notification to all Subordinate Parlors:

"This is to advise you that 'Native Daughters of the Golden West Day' at the Golden Gate International Exposition will be Sunday, May 7. A program will be presented in the ballroom of the California Building, between the hours of three and six. Grand President Edna B. Briggs would like our Order to be well represented, and urges the members to attend if possible."

Fifty-first Birthday Observed.

Santa Cruz—The fifty-first birthday anniversary of Santa Cruz No. 26 was fittingly observed March 20, the festivities commencing with a jolly potluck supper. Past Grands Mae B. Wilkin and Stella Finkeldey, Annie Lorenz and Mary Severio, the remaining charter members, and the March birthday girls were guests. The feast was in charge of Pearl Reid, Leona Geyer, Mary Antonetti, Irene Tait and the good of the order committee. Festive were the decorations in the diningroom, with gold crepe paper festoons and flowers entwined, and the lodgeroom was beautifully decorated with baskets of scotch broom, daffodils, and burning green candles in yellow holders.

President Luene Jensen presided at the meeting, at which two candidates were initiated. Three generations were in attendance: Mary A. True, her daughters, President Jensen and Alverda Ugman, and granddaughter, Truella Jensen. Addresses were made by Charter Members Wilkin and Finkeldey. The occasion was also an anniversary party for President Jensen, Alta Macaulay and Callista Dake, who joined Santa Cruz twenty-five years ago. By request, a very lovely and impressive candlelight service, given last year at the Parlor's golden anniversary celebration, was repeated. Participating were Mary Antonetti, Mae Cavanagh, Inez Antonetti, Hazel Brass, Alta Macaulay and Luene Jensen. Soloists were Leone Geyer and Josephine Grellman. —L.J.

Sonoma-Marin District Meeting.

Santa Rosa—The district meeting April 1 of the eight Sonoma and Marin Counties Parlors, with Grand President Edna B. Briggs as honor-guest, was attended by goodly representations from Sonoma No. 209, Santa Rosa No. 217, Petaluma No. 222, Sebastopol No. 265, Sea Point No. 196, Sausalito, Marinita No. 198, San Rafael, Fairfax No. 225, Tamelpa No. 231, Mill Valley. Supervising Deputy Zoura Tompkins was chairman of the gathering, which was designated "Treasure Island Parlor."

The meetingroom was attractively and appropriately decorated, and the escort team consisted of twelve members costumed as pirates. The ritual was exemplified by a team made up largely of deputies, and seven candidates were initiated for Petaluma, one for Marinita and one for Santa Rosa. Other features of the program were an exhibition drill, addresses, entertainment and a banquet. Placecards at the latter were miniature pirates made by the members of Petaluma. Other guests of the enjoyable occasion were Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, Grand Trustees Ethel Enos and Alice Oldham, Grand Marshal Clarice Cook, Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Past Grands Emma Foley and Anne Thuesen.

Unfortunates Remembered.

Albany—Albany No. 260 purchased a United States of America Flag March 22 for presentation to the Albany High School P.T.A. by Althea Hart. At a stork shower for Mrs. Margaret Cannon after the meeting, the centerpiece of the refreshments table was a congratulatory cake decorated in pink rosebuds and tiny babies. March birthdays were also celebrated. April 3 Peggy Aguayo entertained the sewing club at her home, and April 19 Grayce Garfinkle was hostess to the club at her home.

Carrying out its custom of remembering the women of the Oakland Blind Home with small gifts at holiday times, the Parlor sent them Easter remembrances April 7. Antoinette Stallone had a benefit whist at her home April 11. Delicious refreshments were served. The April girls' birthdays were celebrated at the close of the April 12 meeting. Past President Althea Hart and Organist Esther Palmberg have announced their engagements. Grand President Edna B. Briggs paid her official visit to Albany April 26. May Ellis was chairman of the committee of arrangements for the occasion.

Flags Presented Junior Auxiliary.

San Rafael—The charter of the Junior Auxiliary of Marinita No. 198 closed April 14 with thirty members. Several applications have been received and larger meeting quarters must be found. Sixteen of the Juniors, attired in Colonial costumes, formed an escort for Grand President Edna B. Briggs when she officially visited Marinita April 24. The decorations carried out an old-fashioned garden setting.

At the meeting of the Junior Auxiliary in the Ross fire house March 24, Grand Trustee Charles Redding of the Native Sons presented a California State (Bear) Flag and Major Melvin Reed presented a United States of America Flag to the group. Standards for the flags were presented by Fire Chief Ed Schumaker, who was thanked for assistance given the Juniors.—B.E.W.

"Friendship" the Theme.

Martinez—The official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs to Las Juntas No. 221 April 3 was preceded by a dinner, which was largely attended by Contra Costa County members of the Order. The meetinghall was beautified with white and yellow flowers, and the nearness of Easter was brought to mind by a large nest about which were chickens and bunnies. The officers of the Parlor, gowned in white, initiated two candidates. Several presentations were made.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL GRAND PARLOR

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE FIFTY-third annual Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, which convenes Monday, June 19, in the auditorium of Native Sons Building, San Francisco, are progressing satisfactorily. Grand President Edna B. Briggs of La Bandera Parlor No. 110, Sacramento, will preside at the Grand Parlor sessions.

The "Committee of 39 for '39," made up of representatives of all the San Francisco Subordinate Parlors, has full charge of arrangements for the Grand Parlor. Officers of the committee are: Past Grand President Evelyn I. Carlson, chairman; Mrs. Angelo J. Rossi, honorary chairman; Mrs. Helen Mann, first vice-chairman; Grand Vice-president Orinda G. Giannini, second vice-chairman; Past Grand President Mae Himes-Noonan, third vice-chairman; Past Grand President May C. Boldemann, treasurer; Miss Lucile Russell, secretary.

The tentative entertainment program for the San Francisco Grand Parlor includes: SUNDAY, June 18, afternoon, drill and drum corps competition, Civic Center. Evening, grand officers dinner complimentary to Grand President Edna B. Briggs, Past Grand President Ethel Begley hostess; registration of delegates; reception and entertainment. MONDAY evening, exemplification ritual, San Francisco County deputies; Grand Trustees dinner for Grand President Briggs, Rose Rhyner hostess. TUESDAY evening, Grand Parlor members banquet guests of the "Committee of 39 for '39." WEDNESDAY evening, grand ball, California Building, Treasure Island. THURSDAY evening, installation newly-elected grand officers. FRIDAY, sightseeing trip around San Francisco, ending at Treasure Island.

CANDIDATES.

While several have announced their candidacies for Grand Parlor offices, the ranks of the contestants for the coveted honors are expected to be considerably enlarged when Subordinate Parlors elect their delegates the first meeting nights in May.

It is safe to predict, however, that Grand Vice-president Orinda G. Giannini of Orinda Parlor No. 56, San Francisco, will be elected Grand President without any opposition. For the other elective Grand Parlor offices, the following list of candidates has been compiled from information obtained by The Grizzly Bear from reliable sources:

Grand Vice-president—Grand Marshal Clarice E. Cook, Caliz de Oro Parlor No. 206; Hazel B. Hansen, Verdugo Parlor No. 240.

Grand Secretary—Sallie R. Thaler, Aloha Parlor No. 106, incumbent.

Grand Treasurer—Agnes M. Curry, Portola Parlor No. 172, incumbent.

Grand Marshal—Grand Trustee Rose Rhyner, Alert Parlor No. 102; Grand Trustee Alice Mathias-Oldham, El Carmelo Parlor No. 181; Claire Lindsey, Golden Gate Parlor No. 158.

Grand Inside Sentinel—Grand Outside Sentinel Doris Treat, San Andreas Parlor No. 113.

Grand Outside Sentinel—Nora H. Gray, Marguerite Parlor No. 12.

Grand Organist—Mae Ethel O'Keefe, Darina Parlor No. 114, incumbent.

Grand Trustees (seven to be chosen)—Emily E. Ryan, Las Lomas Parlor No. 72, incumbent; Ruth H. Sesna, Reichling Parlor No. 97, incumbent; Grand Inside Sentinel Loretta M. Cameron, Twin Peaks Parlor No. 185; Ethel C. Enos, Morada Parlor No. 199, incumbent; Evalyn G. Towne, Miocene Parlor No. 228, incumbent; Mary B. Noerenberg, Californiana Parlor No. 247.—C.M.H.

Grand President Briggs, in a charming address, referred to the theme of the evening, "Friendship." Among others in attendance were Grand Marshal Clarice Cook, Grand Trustee Ethel Enos, Past Grands Amy McAvoy and Estelle Evans, Supervising Deputy Nellie Nicholson, Deputy Ramona Beasley and State Civics Chairman Genevieve Didion. Native Sons were admitted after the meeting and watched the Parlor's drill team—gowned in white with golden boleros, and captained by Lea McNamer—extend greetings to "EDNA" by the use of sparkling letters. Refreshments followed at tables colorful in spring blossoms.

April 8 a group from Las Juntas journeyed to Livermore Veterans Hospital with beautifully wrapped Easter boxes containing many small gifts for the nurses hospitalized there. A lovely blanket jacket was mailed to the Parlor's "adopted" veteran, now at Tucson, Arizona, for his Easter gift.

Sixth Annual History Program.

Sacramento—La Bandera No. 110 has been exceptionally busy with a social club which meets at the members' homes. Cards are played and refreshments are served. A small fee is charged, and a very substantial sum is being raised for the Parlor. Parties have been held at the homes of Chairman Ada Peterson, Mrs. Doris Penner and President Dorothy Thomas. Mrs. Flora A. Schmittgen will entertain at her home during May, and Mrs. Martha Hood will be hostess at a garden party in June.

The Parlor presented its sixth annual history program April 21. This being the Capital City's centennial, the program centered around the general theme "Sacramento First." Historian Ruth E. Peterson, the general chairman, was assisted by Lucille Huntoon, Clara Weldon, Elsie O'Brien, Ada Peterson and Marion Lund. Appropriate stories and musical arrangements were presented, and refreshments were served. Special guests included, among others, Grand President Edna B. Briggs, Past Grands Dr. Eva R. Rasmussen and Esther R. Sullivan, and the Sacramento City and County deputies.—F.A.S.

NEWSY N.D.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Subordinate Parlors that desire to contribute towards the restoration of Mission San Antonio de Padua are requested by Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler to send their donations at an early date, as the Grand Parlor books close May 30.

Sacramento—Grand President Edna B. Briggs will institute a new parlor in Berkeley the latter part of May. It is being organized by Edna Caflisch Williams, who already has sixty names on the charter list.

Stockton—The fifty-second institution anniversary of Joaquin No. 5 was observed April 11. Quantities of beautiful spring flowers adorned the hall and the dinner table. President Georgia Storm extended greetings. Honor-guests included Charter Members Hannah Gray, Clara Stier and Past Grand Carrie Roesch Durham; Misses Ida Safferhill and Hattie Weyman, members for fifty years; Grand Marshal Clarice Cook and Past Grand Mamie G. Peyton. While Mrs. Dio Buttenuth, accompanied by Mrs. Lulu Schneider, rendered vocal numbers gifts from the Parlor were presented the charter and the fifty year members by Miss Harriet Corr, Evelyn Wells, Grace Pattison, Mary Ricker and Adelle Parnell. The April committee had charge of the evening. Mary Ricker, chairman, Adelle Parnell, Grace Pattison, Dio Buttenuth, Marion Grondona, Harriet Corr, Jeanie Maddock, Lottie Boyd, Alvina Gallagher, Jennie Galliotti, Evelyn Wells, Alta DuFrene, Georgia McCall, Ella Meyer, Edna Williamson, Bernice Stevens, Lois Valentine, Josephine Nunes and Charlotte Marty.—L.M.R.

Napa—President Sidonia Geiger of Eshcol No. 16 made a surprise presentation to the Parlor April 10 of an altar flag and standard. She was given a rising vote of thanks for the gift. Officers of the Parlor recently had a surprise party at the home of President Geiger for Past President Eunice Banchero, who was presented with a gift.—E.I.

Watsonville—With Viola Clough presiding, El Pajaro No. 35 initiated ten candidates April 18. After the ceremonies a buffet supper was served at tables decorated with masses of spring flowers. Among the many visitors were Grand Trustee Rose Rhyner, Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs, Supervising Deputy Mildred Peers, Deputies Alta Trowbridge and Marie Antonetti, and large delegations from Salinas, Santa Cruz and Hollister. The committee in charge of the supper included Leola Beazell, chairman, Ethel James, Theresa Mooney, Clara Leonard, Dora Presho, Edna Rich and Ida East, while Elma Crouch and Dora Zmudowski looked after the decorations.

Sutter Creek—Amapola No. 80 dedicated April 10 a tree to the memory of Charter Member Ida B. Herman, lately deceased. The tree was planted in the yard of the Sutter Creek Elementary School, where she taught for thirty-one years. President Verna Boitano was master of ceremonies, and the dedicatory address was delivered by Past Grand Gladys E. Noce. On the school's behalf, Charles E. Richards accepted the tree.

Fortuna—Past presidents of Reichling No. 97 have organized a local past presidents association with ten charter members. The object of the association is to further the aims and objects of the Order, and meetings will be held at the members' homes the second Tuesday of each month. The first meeting of the group was at the home of Pearl Shock March 29. A meeting at the home of Lotta Smith April 11 was devoted to making dish-towels for the Native Daughters Home. Oneonta No. 71, Ferndale, and Occident No. 28, Eureka, contemplate forming similar associations in the near-future.—R.S.

Hollister—Easter constituted the April 5 social feature theme of Copa de Oro No. 105. The refreshments tables, arranged in the form of a cross, were prettily decorated with an abundance of spring blossoms, gay Easter eggs, etc. Appetizing and suitable refreshments were keenly enjoyed. Eugenia Cunan headed the group in charge of plans for the evening.

Alameda—A most successful whist sponsored by Encinal No. 156 for the benefit of the homeless children netted $86, which was sent the Central Committee. Chairman Stephanie Holod was assisted by Soila Eisen, Ann Bajuk, Elvira Davies and Louise Benedetti.—M.W.

Cambria—The official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs to El Pinal No. 163 was a memorable evening. After a delightful dinner the Parlor convened in N.S.G.W. Hall, which was transformed into a garden of flowers. In their midst, the officers and guests were entertained. On the Parlor's behalf, Deputy Marie Antonetti presented the Grand President with a corsage of Ophir corn. Beverly Lockhead to an opened [illegible] presented President Evelyn G. Evans and several members of El Pinal attended the official visit to San Luis Obispo and [illegible] at San Luis Obispo and [illegible] I.G.E.

Modesto—Morada No. [illegible] has pledged to the wheel Bundles for Britain project to the tune of $89 for the homeless children. It has adopted the Brownie Cub Pack of the Wilson Grammar School. The pack is made up of little girls, many of them native born, from 5 to 10 years of age. Brownie pins are being furnished them.—C.R.S.

Sacramento—Past President Lillian Shaw of Coloma No. 212 was April 4 honored at a centennial party and was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Flags and baskets of bridal wreath and scotch broom decorated the hall, and members and guests were attired in '49 costumes. Mayor Tom B. Monk, guest speaker, told about the coming centennial celebration. In the supperroom a replica of Roaring Camp was a point of attraction. The centerpiece of the officers table was an old-fashioned boquet surrounded by miniature figures in earlyday gowns. Mrs. Florence Morris, chairman of the occasion, was assisted by Mmes. Etta Hook, Maude Fassett, Cora Bonetti, Grace McNeil, Helen Miller, Emily Simpson, Mary Leriche, Mae Walker, Cora Moore, Genevieve Penhall, Louise Finch and Emily Hanson.—M.A.

Manteca—Phoebe A. Hearst No. 214 observed April 12 its twentieth institution anniversary, the affair starting with a dinner. Guests of honor included Charter Members Roxie O'Leary, Bertha Smith, Lavina Fulton, Hattie Newborn, Elsie Cowell, Eunice Converse and Nina Williams, Past Grands Carrie Durham and Mamie Peyton, Grand Marshal Clarice Cook, Deputy Ann Drais and Grand Trustee Ethel Enos.

Petaluma—Petaluma No. 222 had an Easter party April 4 arranged by Mary Grimm. Easter favors and colorful spring flowers beautified the refreshments table. Deputy Mary Vogt was a visitor. Josephine Filippini was chairman of a public card party April 18. May 2 members of Petaluma No. 27 N.S.G.W. will be entertained by the Parlor at a potluck supper. The drill team has resumed practice after the winter vacation.

Taft—Miocene No. 228 and Taft No. 276 N.S.G.W. dedicated the new Wasioja School in Cuyama Valley April 1. Chairman Irene Feliz of Miocene's history and landmarks committee introduced President Delores Elliott, who presented a bronze plaque to Superintendent Mae Edwards of the Santa Barbara school district. Other speakers included Minnie B. Heath, the first teacher in Cuyama Valley, Ona Moffett, Margaret Pinkham, Grand Trustee Evalyn G. Towne and Hal Bannister.

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

DECLARING THE NATIVE SONS OF the Golden West are banded together for patriotic purposes and owe their undivided allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. adopted March 29 the following resolution:

"Whereas, Loose thinking, racial prejudices and deliberate propaganda are now conspiring to induce the United States of America to take sides in impending world conflicts; and whereas, we have learned through bitter experience that our participation in a foreign war can gain nothing but debt and death and misery for all of the participants; and whereas, the impending conflicts which already are seeking to involve our beloved country can only turn out to be incalculable holocausts, mechanized and without pity, leaving to posterity a legacy of chaos; and whereas, it is clear that no war fought on foreign soil, entangled in webs of racial prejudices, conflicting economic problems and governmental ideologies can hope to set the world a-right. Therefore, be it solemnly

"Resolved, By Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. that the following creed, in the interests of national security and peace, be adopted by us, that we urge the adoption of this creed by other Parlors and patriotic bodies, and that copies thereof be sent to the President of the United States and our Representatives in the Congress: (1) We recognize the right of all sovereign nations to maintain such forms of government as they deem fit to maintain, and that it is a menace to the peace and safety of the United States for our nationals to organize attacks in this country upon the forms of governments maintained by other peoples. (2) We assert that our government ought not, openly or secretly, give pledges of moral, financial or physical support to other powers to be relied upon in the event of war or other emergencies, or to lead other powers to believe, in advance of the fact, that we will take sides against them.

"(3) We reaffirm our faith in the Monroe Doctrine as an instrument of national policy. (4) We believe that the United States must be strong to be respected, and that our military and naval plans ought to be fully adequate to defend, at all times, the proper interests of the United States against any power or combination of powers. (5) Above all, we believe that . . . we are fully capable of defending ourselves against foreign aggressors while, at the same time, we assert to the world our friendliness and our abhorrence of war."

TO HONOR MOTHERS.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. celebrated its thirty-eighth institution anniversary April 19 at a greatly enjoyed party which brought out some of the oldtime members. Delicious refreshments were served. President Ann Schiebusch and Olinda Kerby had the arrangements in charge.

Los Angeles will hold its May meetings on the second and fourth Wednesdays, so that there will be no conflicts with the celebration of the opening of the Los Angeles Union Railroad Terminal, in which all local Parlors of Native Daughters and Native Sons will participate in some way May 2, 3 and 4.

May 10, the Parlor will specially honor the mothers with a program and refreshments. Delegates to the Grand Parlor will also be elected May 20, the sewing club meets at the home of Mattie Gara in Van Nuys. May 24, final arrangements will be made for the big party in June.—H.M.

ANNUAL RABBIT FEED.

Under the general chairmanship of Walter D. Gilman, the old-timers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. entertained April 20 in honor of the birthday anniversary of Past Grand John T. Newell. More than a hundred members of the Order, including Junior Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer and Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, were on hand.

Thomas W. Golding, head chef, assisted by Willard F. Allen, C. Harry Davis, Albert W. Metz, Victor L. Montez, George C. Walker, Arthur L. Rotter and "Mike" Botello, prepared and served a delicious repast. Immediately after the feast singers and dancers entertained, and then adjournment was taken to the lodgeroom, where Past Grand Newell was escorted to the president's station and, in turn, named other past presidents to fill the several stations. After numerous talks the roundup came to an end, with all expressing the hope that the event may be an annual one for many years to come.

Los Angeles' May calendar includes: 11th, initiation. 18th, open meeting and entertainment for all members of the Order not attending Grand Parlor. 25th, annual rabbit feed, prepared by "Chef" George C. Walker, "Mike" Botello and Albert W. Metz; all members of neighboring Parlors are invited to attend this event.—F.F.

WILL HOLD TOY DRIVE.

Long Beach—The thimble club of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. was entertained March 23 and April 13, respectively, at the Downey homes of Alma Morrow and May Gillies, at the Norwalk home of Ruth Johnson March 30, and at the Long Beach home of Chairman Francis Galvin April 27. Homeless children activities of the Parlor are progressing under the chairmanship of Eugenia Smith, and the veterans welfare committee, Nell Cooke chairman, is carrying on splendidly. Financial assistance for the Parlor treasury came from an educational tour April 6.

All work and no play makes dull Native Daughters, so April 20 the Parlor members enjoyed a birthday party along with those celebrating March and April anniversaries. April 29 a benefit dance was held in the Recreation Clubhouse. The history and landmarks committee—Margaret Burch, Alma Morrow and May Gillies—and the publicity committee—Alice Waldow and Ruth Johnson—had a dinner meeting at the latter's home and planned the scrapbook to be exhibited at Grand Parlor. ANNUAL BANQUET HAPPY AFFAIR.

[illegible] Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. had its [illegible] annual banquet at the Hollywood Athletic Club April 17 and [illegible] on everything. [illegible] The attendance was large, all the local Parlors being well represented and all spent a happy evening. The past [illegible] Al Goodson, [illegible] the [illegible] committee of decorating the flower

President Albert Sandoval introduced as toastmaster the unmistakable George M. Bowman and he kept things moving. The main speaker of the evening was Judge LeRoy Dresser, who related some of his experiences in the World War. Among others heard from were Henry Podkin, Past Grand Herman C. Lichtenberger, Assemblyman Thomas J. Cunningham, Dan Lambert Bonner, District Deputy Walter Stark, Raymond Haight, Junior Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, Ed B. Lewis, Leo V. Youngworth and Judge William S. Baird. The banquet arrangements committee included Supervising Deputy John O'B. Badkin, chairman, Alfred E. Dennis, William Hortenstine, Frederic H. Witman and John P. Wright.

The Hollywood Chamber of Commerce wants the Grand Parlor to meet in the "Movie City," and has guaranteed Secretary "Bill" Hortenstine of the Parlor the best session in the Order's history. "Bill," incidentally, is looking for better quarters for No. 196. Hollywood has a committee at work on its next feature event, the annual stag, June 3.

"FIREMEN'S NIGHT."

San Pedro—"Firemen's night" was featured by Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. April 14. The members' wives and the Native Daughters were guests. Captain Charles Colby was the speaker, and a demonstration of life saving was accompanied by motion pictures showing rescues. The D O K K drill team, composed of second degree Knights of Pythias, gave a very excellent performance. Refreshments were served. President John Mele and Captain Colby, in charge of arrangements for the evening, are members of the Wilmington Fire Department.

STATE FLAG PRESENTED ELKS LODGE.

San Pedro—The Florencita Thimble Club of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. met at the homes of Anna Menveg and Catherine Mooney, April 5 and 19, respectively, luncheon was served. On the Parlor's behalf, President Lucy Ascolesi presented a California State (Bear) Flag to San Pedro Lodge of Elks April 10. Dancing was enjoyed after the ceremony. Chairman Kate Dodson, Anna Spickler and Anna Menveg of the civics committee had charge of the program.

At its April 13 meeting the Parlor discussed plans for a tea to be held in the near-future, with Dessie Buyo as chairman. April 27, Deputy Olinda Kerby was a guest. Refreshments were served by Irene Carresi and Rose Cantrell. Plans were made for a Spanish supper in May. Vivian Soares is in charge of all arrangements.

INSPIRATIONAL EASTER MESSAGE.

An Easter breakfast made the April 11 meeting of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. a very joyous occasion. Mattie Fabthorpe and committee regaled a goodly number with a delicious meal. At the speakers' table, in addition to President Marion Johnson and Program Chairman Isabel Fages, were Dr. Harold L. Propps, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hollywood, and Mrs. Propps, Harpist Grace Curry and Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg. Dr. Propps, born in Anaheim, told some interesting bits from his early life and delivered an inspirational Easter message, his text being "He Is Risen." Miss Curry, the first radio harpist, gave a delightful group of numbers. A brief business meeting followed the breakfast.

April 25, tea was served by the hospitality committee, and Mrs. Faith Holmes Hyres, radio publicity director of the public library, reviewed a number of new books. The Gertrude Sewing Circle was happily entertained April 3 at the Ryder ranch in Glendora. The hostesses, Miss Aileen Bender and Mrs. Flora Doyle, are daughters of Pioneer John Bender.

Members of Californiana enjoyed a pilgrimage to San Gabriel Mission April 15. The museum, which consists largely of articles belonging to and collected by Mrs. Dexter Monroe of the Parlor, was toured. Program Chairman Fages plans a Mothers Day observance for the May 9 meeting of the Parlor. All members are requested to bring pictures of their mothers. May 2 the ways and means committee is giving a homeless children benefit.—O.L.

STAG ATTRACTED BIG CROWD.

University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W. had its regular monthly dinner April 13. Lucien Griffin was the chairman, and John Alden was the master of ceremonies. Special entertainment was provided.

The Parlor's sixth annual stag, staged April 20, attracted a big crowd and was a huge success. The committee in charge included Carl Martin, general chairman, William Quast, Ed Davis, Owen Barnes, Joe Hiss, Ralph Whitehead, Charles McLean, Tom Silvera, Walter Wells, Charles Heyerman, Gus Tierheimer, Bill Arlen, Lucien Griffin, George Shipley, Stan Parker, Fred Norbury, W. W. Wade, Solly Smith, Angelo DeFazio.

LATEST SPRING STYLES SHOWN.

East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. had a luncheon and fashion review April 3. Heather and poppies beautifully decorated the hall. The affair was well attended, and the models charmingly displayed the latest of the Spring styles, showing some twenty-five ensembles.

Those responsible for the success of the show as well as doing the modeling were President Mildred Banning, Chairman Lea Armstrong, Bonnie Brkich, Dorothy Camey, Milissa Ulright. Robert Dressen, a Native Son, contributed vocal numbers.—L.A.

NATIVE SONS NEWS BRIEFS.

May 26, Ramona Parlor No. 109 will hold memorial services to which all Native Sons and Daughters are invited.

Santa Monica—May 11, the booster committee of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 is staging a deluxe show. May 23, a class of candidates will be initiated.

As an attraction, East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 has a monthly dinner, with President Reg. Anderson as master of ceremonies.

The Luncheon Club, remember, meets every Friday at 12:15 noon in room 1126 of the Rosslyn Hotel, Fifth and Main streets. Come up and join the "gang;" you'll be well repaid in many ways for the time invested.

PARTY FOR MOTHERS.

La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. entertained with a Spanish dinner April 13, the affair being under the direction of Lura Pesqueria. Four candidates were initiated after the dinner. April 27, Los Angeles and Californiana Parlors were guests of La Reina. Entertainment consisted of music and moving pictures.

A party for the mothers of the members of the Parlor is planned for May 16 at the home of Florence Hill.

HISTORY CONTEST SEMI-FINAL.

District Deputy Walter E. Smith, southern California chairman for the N.S.G.W. history speaking contest, conducted the semi-final in the lodgeroom of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 April 13. Owen S. Adams, Clyde Harry Davis, Willard F. Allen, Reg. Anderson and Supervising Deputy John O'B. Bodkin were the judges.

The winning contestants and their subjects were: Ruth McEwen of Banning High School, Wilmington, "Santa Barbara, Queen of the Missions," first; Margaret Ross of San Fernando High School, "Santa Barbara, Queen of the Missions," second; Kathleen Chapman of Bell High School, "Lawlessness and Its Remedy: the Vigilance Committee of 1858," third.—F.F.

TO ORGANIZE DRILL TEAM.

Canoga Park — Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. had a theater party April 26 in charge of Ruth Jackman. April 15 a dance was held in Lombardi Hall at Chatsworth. The Parlor plans to organize a drill team in the near-future. It will be under the very able direction of Marguerite Taner.

NEW INTERPARLOR OFFICERS.

The N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Interparlor Committee has elected the following officers: Fred Leonetti, Glendale Parlor No. 264 N.S.G.W., chairman; Mrs. Dexter Monroe, Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., vice-chairman; Mrs. Harriette Weeks, Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W., secretary; Mrs. Mary McAnany, Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., treasurer.

INTERESTING MOTORCADE.

The Kernville motorcade of April 15 and 16, sponsored by the N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon club, was most interesting, and greatly enjoyed by the twenty-five making the trip. A 7 a.m. Bear Flag ceremony at Griffith Park preceded the start, and enroute the group was treated to a chicken dinner at Mojave prepared by members of Desert Gold Parlor No. 250 N.D.G.W.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

NOTE—Expressions of opinion in these "Growls" are, unless indicated otherwise, those of the Managing Editor.

Clarence M. Hunt

CONGRESSMAN KRAMER OF CALIfornia introduced in the Federal House of Representatives, April 18, two bills, one to amend the immigration laws to restrict certain alien seamen from landing in the United States, and the other to bar "aliens prohibited by law from becoming an immigrant to the United States or a United States citizen" from owning or operating so-called fishing boats.

At a hearing conducted in Los Angeles by a committee investigating un-American activities, declared Congressman Kramer, a witness appeared whose "testimony disclosed that alien Japanese were operating fishing crafts . . . with a cruising radius of three to ten thousand miles. Several of these vessels . . . were being constructed so that they could anchor in mid-ocean and their fishing compartments could be replaced by five or six torpedoes. These vessels were also provided with high-powered radio receiving and sending equipment. . . . Although these vessels were operating in the disguise of innocent fishing craft they were in reality operating for sinister purposes. . . . These Japanese fishing craft are again busy at work." Continuing his remarks, which were greeted with applause, Congressman Kramer said, quoting from the Congressional Record:

"Once an alien Japanese is on a boat, there is no restriction whatever to prevent him going ashore when his ship anchors in an American port. A Japanese or any other alien seaman does not even need an identification card. The usually strict immigration laws are very lax on alien seamen. The law provides that the master of the ship report within 60 days any alien seaman who leaves the vessel. An alien Japanese could leave a fishing boat in San Diego, for instance, go where he pleases for 59 days, and return to his boat without the master being required to report his absence.

"Japanese secret agents can land in the United States as fishermen, attend to their work, and return to their boats without even a record of their having entered the United States. If the captain does not wish to report any such 'seaman,' even if he does not show up after 60 days, no one is the wiser unless the secret agent is picked up. Or an agent can enter on a visitor's visa for 6 months and probably get another 6 months' extension with no one checking on his activities during his stay.

"This massing of Japanese naval and military men as seamen off the Pacific coast to fish is really for the purpose of fishing, but they are not fishing for fish. They have reached a point where they are absolutely dangerous to the safety of this country, and the time has come when we must protect our shores against any such operations as are now going on."

The facts related by Congressman Kramer should be sufficient to induce every member of the Federal Congress and every member of the California State Legislature to pass legislation needed to adequately protect this Nation and this State from the scheming Japs.

Had occasion the other day to glance at the 1938 report of a California corporation, and this reference to taxes attracted attention: total for the year $5,182,623.90, an average of $14,198.97 per day, $8,200.35 for each person employed. Startling? Yes, indeed, and the main reason why so many businesses are folding up and throwing more and more workers on relief rolls.

Congressman Osmers of New Jersey proposed in the House of Representatives, April 14, that, in event of a foreign war, the president, vice-president, cabinet members, and members of Congress who voted for war, should be the first ordered into front-line trenches, and that industrialists and bankers who profit from war should be forced to shoulder arms.

"Pass this bill," said Congressman Osmers, "and the United States will never be involved in another foreign war." The proposal has much merit, but there is not the remotest possibility of its being enacted into law.

Speaking on behalf of Labor before the Commonwealth Club of California at San Francisco, State Senator John F. Shelley, president of the San Francisco Central Labor Council, queried, "What is the nation's labor problem?"

"Why," he answered, "it is the problem of so organizing labor, so directing labor, so supporting labor that labor may take its place in the family of America in repelling the immediate and most serious peril which we have ever faced as a nation of liberty loving and free people. To see that American labor is a full, well nurtured part of the American family in this hour of American peril—that is the nation's labor problem, and that only.

"It concerns those unorganized millions who are most poorly paid, most underprivileged; those other millions, the youth, who have never had the opportunity to receive and therefore regard the potentialities of democracy. It concerns still more millions—the aged, for whom democracy right now is not doing enough.

"For the seeds of dictatorship—of fascism—grow only among the defeated. The man in the middle of the flood will welcome a leaky skiff in which you and I—if we are sane—would not think of embarking from dry land."

"The problems of America today," commented David Lawrence in the United States News, "are not just legislative or economic, but fundamentally they are human problems arising out of the clash of human beings in whom greed and selfishness, excessive pride, and a sublimation of the ego have superseded the sublimation of God and His influence in our world. Institutions are being criticised as failing us in these troublous times, but this is mainly because individuals are failing to recognize that there are other compensations in life besides material rewards.

"It is upon individual honesty, individual unselfishness and individual regard or love for other human beings that the nation must depend, in the last analysis, for a real formula to bring Capital, Management and Labor together in a functioning democracy. Statutory laws can be helpful as a clarification of established rights and principles, but the individual character of man, moulded in obedience to a higher law and a higher influence, can alone bring, in a world of economic friction, the peace we all yearn to enjoy." Unquestionably our outstanding need is individual honesty, for individual honesty assures honesty in government and every endeavor.

Government in California, state, county and city, appears to be little interested in the staggering tax load that is causing such havoc. Increase of salaries, creation of new departments and other extravagances continue, regardless of the protests of home owners and business officials. Apparently there is but one way to stop the rising tax tides, and that is a tax strike. Why not now?

NEW N.S. PARLOR AT LONG BEACH.

A new parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, organized by Assistant District Attorney Clarence S. Hunt of Ramona Parlor No. 109, will be instituted by the grand officers May 5. Fifty-three eligibles had, to April 21, signed the charter petition, and it is expected many more will be on hand for the institution. Junior Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer and Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards have assisted in the formation of the parlor, and given the members every encouragement.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Leo V. Youngworth (Ramona NS) was a visitor last month to Sacramento.

Judge John L. Fleming (Ramona NS) was married April 11 at Las Vegas, Nevada State, to Olga Roberts of Van Nuys.

United States Attorney Benjamin Harrison (Arrowhead NS) was in Washington, D. C., last month, and was elected president of the United States Attorneys Association.

THE DEATH RECORD.

William H. Neighbours, brother of Burrel and John W. Neighbours (Ramona NS), died at Brawley, Imperial County, April 8.

Percival Franklin Schumacher, affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., died April 15, survived by a wife and a son. He was born at Los Angeles, July 14, 1867.

Louis Brand, father of Superior Judge Edward R. Brand (Hollywood NS), died April 14 at the age of 75.

SAN BERNARDINO—BECAUSE THE present seal of this city is not significant of anything historical associated with San Bernardino City, County or Valley, Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. is conducting a public contest for a new seal design. The committee in charge includes Judge Donald E. VanLuven, District Attorney Jerome B. Kavanaugh, Lynn A. Reed, Howard L. Holcomb, Timothy Sheehan, Cecil C. Wood and John C. Ralphs.

Anyone is eligible to enter the contest, which will close June 15. The person submitting the accepted design will receive a prize of $25, and a second prize of $10 will also be awarded. The inscription on the seal is to read "City of San Bernardino, California. Founded 1810." Drawings will be judged on originality of design, neatness and adaptability. All entries become the property of the Parlor.

At the recent city election these members of Arrowhead were re-elected: Clerk John H. Osborn, Treasurer Albert A. Burcham and Police Court Judge Donald E. VanLuven. The Parlor has a nightball team, with Woodrow W. Coats as the manager. Arrowhead will meet June 17 in its Crestline clubhouse in the San Bernardino Mountains. At that time a large class of candidates will be initiated.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED.

San Bernardino - Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. celebrated May 9 its twelfth institution anniversary with a potluck dinner and "kids" party. The tables were decorated with spring flowers, balloons and allday suckers, and the big children had a merry time with their new dresses. The meetingroom was adorned with a maypole, and at each officer's station was a gaily dressed doll and a large basket of snapdragons. Mrs. Florence D. Schoneman, the "mother" of the Parlor, Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg and Deputies Dorothy Ravn and Betty Sanders were honor-guests.

May 12, Lugonia entertained the mothers of its members at a banquet in Riverside. Spring flowers and favors of guandrop floor lamps adorned the tables. Following the repast a fine program was presented by members of the Parlor.—H P

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

SANTA BARBARA PARLOR NO. 116 N.S.G.W. is preparing to inaugurate a summer of activities with its annual barbecue at the ranch of Edgar Stow, former state senator, near Goleta, Sunday afternoon, June 4. President Frank Huffman will be in general charge, with William McCaffrey again directing the barbecue operations. There will be a speaker of note to address the crowd on some topic of the times, and a varied entertainment program.

The Native Sons' barbecue has become an outstanding perennial in a county decidedly prone to barbecues. Friends of the Order turn out for the barbecued meat feast in surprising numbers. Whether the bill of fare is beef or chicken, there develops a real feast under the oaks a short distance toward the hills from Highway 101.

Santa Barbara's delegation to the Sixty-second N.S.G.W. Grand Parlor at San Francisco returned home filled with enthusiasm and pledged anew to work for the extension of the Order throughout this region. The Santa Barbara delegation was headed by District Deputy A. C. Densmore and included Frank Huffman, James E. Sloan and Leland B. Smith. Accompanying the delegation were County Tax Collector Harry C. Sweetser, Daniel T. Taylor and Frank Castro.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS TO INITIATE.

Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. has programed a June of varied activity to include an initiation with Mrs. Eugene Ireland in charge, June 6, and a California luncheon at La Hacienda later in the month.

The first hospital in California was a crude shelter put up at San Diego in 1789 to succor members of the Portola expedition.

PIONEERS ENTERTAIN 20,000.

Ontario—Featuring the "longest table in the world," Ontario sponsored an all-states picnic along the center parkway of famed Euclid Avenue May 20. Members of Ontario No. 251 acted as hostesses, with Maude VanFleet as chairman. The table was more than a mile long, and every state in the Union was represented.

A parade was the entertainment feature. The Parlor entered a covered wagon, which stopped at various points and discharged eight Pioneers from San Bernardino, who did an oldtime square dance to the enjoyment of a crowd of 20,000.

NEW LINK ADDED TO NATINE DAUGHTER CHAIN

Berkeley (Alameda County)—Sequoia Parlor No. 272 N.D.G.W. was instituted here May 26 by Grand President Edna B. Briggs, assisted by Grand Vice-president Orinda G. Giannini, Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Treasurer Agnes M. Curry, Past Grand Presidents Evelyn I. Carlson and Mae C. Boldemann, Grand Trustees Alice M. Oldham and Emily E. Ryan, Supervising Deputies Marion E. White and Ann C. Godfrey, and President Dorothy Thomas of La Bandera Parlor No. 110, Sacramento. The Parlor was organized by Edna Caflisch Williams.

The Alameda County deputy grand presidents, under the direction of Supervising District Deputy Grand President Marion E. White, exemplified the ritual, and installed Sequoia's officers, as follows:

Ruth Rutishauser, charter past president; Edna Williams, president; Teresa Taylor, first vice-president; Helen Rossi, second vice-president; Bellah Wakefield, third vice-president; Philomena Dodge, marshal; Ethel Bryant, recording secretary; Mildred DeSelms, financial secretary; Evelyn Haggerty, treasurer; Helen Garrison, inside sentinel, Madeline O'Neill, outside sentinel, Tessie Socker, organist; Loretta Costello, Elsie Sturm and Annie Williams, trustees.

Grand President Briggs presented a silver-mounted gavel to the Parlor, and on behalf of Sequoia gifts were presented Mrs. Briggs and Grand Secretary Thaler.

ORDER N.D.G.W. REACHES OUT TO HELP

AS STABILIZING INFLUENCE IN TIME OF CONFUSION

Edna B Briggs

(GRAND PRESIDENT NATIVE DAUGHTERS GOLDEN WEST.)

"WE LIVE IN A VITAL, CHANGING world today—a world of unrest, war-weary, and fearful of greater conflagration. We pick up newspapers, feeling dread and confusion at the news before us, for the great organized forces of the world today are forces for destruction. Out of this maelstrom America stands forth committed to a policy of peace, and liberty of thought and endeavor. Every organization of our country should strive for concerted action as an aid to the preservation of our unity and our democracy.

"The Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West has ever been a patriotic organization. Both in the policy of the Order and through the private lives of its members, we endeavor to express love of country and respect for the government. Now, as one of California's greatest organizations, it reaches out to help as a stabilizing influence in this time of confusion. And so, vistas of sound, healthful work open before us.

"Our organization is based on pride of country. Logically, it was founded by the Pioneers who came to seek their fortunes in California. It was fostered by a spirit which felt the force of beauty and wealth in California's blue and gold mountains, its vast agricultural resources, and its promise of commerce and trade.

"In Jackson, Amador County, September 11, 1886, the first meeting of the Native Daughters of the Golden West was called to order. The presiding officer was a tall, slender, dark-haired girl. Her name was Miss Lilly Reichling, and it was she and the other charter members who guided the policies of the infant for the first few years. From its embryonic start, the Order has grown to vast proportions. There are now 177 Parlors throughout the State, and the membership nears the 14,000-mark.

"A great feeling of devotion and pride goes out to those first members of Ursula Parlor No. 1 who, so long ago, conceived the idea of our organization. They had faith in its future, and laid down its government along deep, rich and wide lines. Nor was their faith in it merely wishful thinking, for the value of the organization and its membership indicates that they built for the future. We can point to the size of our membership list, and its increasing numbers, as indicative that our works are worthwhile and progressive. What a vast force we are for peace, patriotism and education!

"Since our organization was fostered by Pioneers, we have every reason to be interested in their accomplishments. For two decades the attention of the world has centered on California. Our endeavor has been to train the public to enjoy the humor and the glamor of those olden days. Research and study have brought to light many colorful spots in California history, and these spots have been appropriately marked that all may enjoy them. Generally the incentive for our markers is a pleasant purpose, but one of the most famous markers, the Donner Monument at Truckee, indicates the spot of the sad fate of the Donner Party. No greater tragedy occurs in the pages of California's history than this one. Many of our brave Pioneers who endured hardships and died while enroute to California deserve a place in our hearts as much as do those who survived and built up this great State. Certainly we who feel that we need courage today can find a great lesson in the example these fine Pioneers set before us.

"The Colonel's Lady and Judy O'Grady came to California in the '50s. Both helped to build up this State, and both deserve credit. It was a common urge, the world around, to rush to gold fields. Who, then, were these Pioneers who came in droves and built towns overnight in the mountains and on the plains? One of our activities is to discover and to record their names. The Native Daughters for several years have worked on a roster of pioneer names, that a permanent, statewide record may be kept of them. Building our State genealogy is a long process, but one that is highly satisfactory. We find it not only of historical interest, but of definite value for permanent state records. It is but a step from the past to the present.

"Always the Order of Native Daughters has stood as a patriotic organization. We recognize its special importance today, when papers and magazines are full of the question, 'Can democracy survive?' We have pledged ourselves to arouse patriotism by taking part in all national and state holidays, revering the flag, and upholding the laws of the country. We bring to the attention of the general public new and interesting facts concerning the founders of our government. We take an interest in the laws of the State and the ordinances of our communities. We vote at the polls with a determination that our public men may be those of ability, for the life of our government is at stake. We feel there are the duties of a citizen in a democracy, and we attempt to foster this spirit.

"In this urgent world of ours it is most often the injured and the sick who feel the hurry and rush of business affairs brushing by them. Through the Veterans Welfare Committee we have endeavored to bring some happiness to those war veterans who, because of disability or shell shock, are still retained in homes or hospitals. We wish them to feel that 'Their sacrifice has not been in vain.' Many Parlors have a definite program of entertainment for these people. As a part of the pageantry of public ceremonies, drum and bugle corps are maintained. These give a gaiety and a stimulus to public affairs which, for patriotic reasons, we are glad to aid.

"If any woman should ask herself the question, 'What human problem arouses my greatest interest?', the answer most certainly would be Homeless Children. It is a cause which is very close to the heart. A cause important enough in its own sake, but vitally important when we think of it in terms of the quiet confidence and happiness which a child has the right to ask of life. One of our best and most universally [illegible] most satisfying of all our projects for, 'Inasmuch [illegible] education, we offer three scholarships annually to three deserving young women. One is at Mills College, [illegible] University of California at Berkeley and Los Angeles. At either of these institutions a Native Daughter may [illegible] work. As the years go on, standards become higher, and a demand for at least two years of college training has developed numerous junior colleges throughout the State. Here, young people who cannot go away from home have an opportunity to secure two years of training. We are helping further, for we recognize the value [illegible] education. We feel that these girls, through our efforts, will become more substantial citizens of our great State. A few years ago, nurses' training, nursing and other work were available for women.

"As our organization grows we, too, will need more skillfully trained minds as our leaders. These colleges have everything required to meet the needs of the ambitious student. It is therefore one of the distinctive features of our Order that we are keeping abreast of the times, in the realization that the young woman of today must have scholastic preparation for her life work. So, we give thanks that our Order recognizes the need of advanced education, and we feel proud to think we do our bit yearly for the development of these young women. We shall look to them to carry on the traditions of the Native Daughters to a higher degree of enthusiasm in service and goodfellowship. And it is right, as an organization that we should do this, for we have much personal pride in the women of our State.

"Among our other activities we have purchased and care for a Redwood Memorial Grove in Humboldt County. The veneration for trees has long been a part of man's nature. The great redwoods are typical of our State. By purchasing the grove we have given much to the world to see and enjoy. We have conserved an exceptional beauty [illegible] for the people of America, knowing that the grove is [illegible] in California.

"Our Native Daughters Home in San Rafael is well known throughout the State for the beautiful cooperation it affords the women of our organization. There [illegible] Baby shall be provided a home [illegible] to our Order. Our pensioners [illegible] Home is also for our [illegible] subscription and donations [illegible] them happiness in the [illegible] we have not each other. [illegible] to look back in [illegible] pick up a magazine or a book [illegible] her she will find [illegible] interests. The hostess of the Home looks after the comfort [illegible] there is entertainment arranged for all. Most luxuries must be purchased with money, but the luxury of fellowship is one which here may be had for the asking.

"It is essential that proper publicity be given to the activities of our Order. In this manner the world in general learns about the projects of our organization. These projects are of a progressive nature, and [illegible] development of our State and Order. As the Spanish padres carried the seeds of flowers and plants from one mission to another, so [illegible] development spread through the medium of publicity. The publication [illegible] News helps others and [illegible] in the Order. The Grizzly Bear [illegible] pioneer, and deserves every member's support.

FIFTY-THIRD N. D. G. W. GRAND PARLOR

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, AT 9:30, the Fifty-third Annual Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West will convene in the auditorium of Native Sons Building, San Francisco, for a four-day session. Grand President Edna B. Briggs of Sacramento, affiliated with La Bandera Parlor No. 110, will preside throughout the deliberations and, at their conclusion, will automatically become the Past Grand President.

This will be the eighth time in the Order's history that the Grand Parlor has met in San Francisco. The First Grand Parlor was held there in July 1887, the Third in June 1889, the Sixteenth in June 1902, the Twenty-sixth in June 1912, the Twenty-ninth in June 1915, the Thirty-fifth in June 1921 and the Forty-second in June 1928.

Reports of grand officers and committees to the Fifty-third Grand Parlor will show the Order to be in a flourishing condition. The finances are in good condition, and the membership is increasing. All of the Order's many projects have been advanced during the closing Grand Parlor year.

Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler will report the institution of seven new Subordinate Parlors since the Santa Barbara (1938) Grand Parlor: East Los Angeles No. 266, Los Angeles City; La Reina No. 267, Los Angeles City; Sierra No. 268, Alleghany, Sierra County; Topanga No. 269, Canoga Park, Los Angeles County; Coalinga No. 270, Coalinga, Fresno County; Wawona No. 271, Fresno City; Sequoia No. 272, Berkeley, Alameda County. One Parlor—Santa Monica Bay No. 245, Santa Monica, Los Angeles County,—surrendered its charter.

MEMBERSHIP.

The Order is composed of 178 Subordinate Parlors, located in practically every county of California. The Grizzly Bear requested from each Parlor its membership-figures and, from responses received up to publication time, the following has been compiled:

In Memoriam

LILLY O. REICHLING DYER

To Subordinate Parlors,
Native Daughters of the Golden West:

Whereas, We are deeply grateful for the efforts of our late Founder, Lilly O. Reichling Dyer, in bringing into existence the Order of the Native Daughters of the Golden West; and

Whereas, We were organized to perpetuate in memory the Pioneers of the State of California; and

Whereas, God has taken to another home Lilly O. Reichling Dyer, whose love for the Founders of California prompted her to organize the Native Daughters of the Golden West in their memory; and

Whereas, We bow our heads in sadness in the loss of this distinguished Sister, and we are reminded that the journey through life is uncertain, and that we are but pioneers on the road to that other shore where there will be no sorrow but only joy and peace; and

Whereas, We, the Native Daughters of the Golden West, owe a debt of gratitude to this woman whose foresight bound us together by the principles of Love of Home, Devotion to the Flag, Veneration of the Pioneers and an Abiding Faith in the Existence of God; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Grand Parlor Native Daughters of the Golden West extend sympathy to Walter and Wanda Reichling, brother and sister, and to Ursula Parlor No. 1, of which Lilly O. Reichling Dyer was a Charter Member; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication, to the brother and sister, Walter and Wanda Reichling, and to Ursula Parlor No. 1.

GRAND PARLOR NATIVE DAUGHTERS OF THE GOLDEN WEST.

EDNA B. BRIGGS, Grand President; SALLIE R. THALER, Grand Secretary. (Grand Parlor Seal.)

PROPOSED LEGISLATION.

At the San Francisco Grand Parlor, the following resolution will be introduced:

By Santa Cruz Parlor No. 26, Santa Cruz—Proposing a design to be adopted as the official grave marker of the Order.

By Los Angeles Parlor No. 124, Los Angeles—Proposing that there be created "a [Grand Parlor] committee which shall be known as the State and National Legislation Committee which committee shall investigate proposed State and National legislation affecting the rights of the citizens of California and the projects of our Order, and shall keep all Subordinate Parlors informed as to which bills should be sponsored or opposed."

By Plumas Pioneer Parlor No. 219, Quincy—Proposing that the Grand Parlor go on record as being "unalterably opposed to the use of American troops on foreign soil in any war."

By Californiana Parlor No. 247, Los Angeles—Proposing that the chairmen of all Grand Parlor committees, "if present at the Grand Parlor, automatically be allowed the courtesy of the floor at Grand Parlor to give their annual committee reports."

By Lomitas Parlor No. 255, Los Banos—Proposing that a new office, that of Grand Second Vice-president, be created, and "to eliminate all competition after the office of Grand Marshal." This proposal has the endorsement of the San Joaquin County Parlors—Joaquin No. 5, El Pescadero No. 82, Ivy No. 88, Caliz de Oro No. 206, Phoebe A. Hearst No. 214, Stockton No. 256—Mariposa Parlor No. 63, Veritas Parlor No. 75 and Coalinga Parlor No. 270.

By Alameda County Deputy Grand Presidents—Proposing that "this Grand Parlor designate a suitable white costume to be worn by the officers conducting the funeral services for deceased Sisters."

CANDIDATES.

By communicating with all the Subordinate Parlors and the many "rumored" candidates, The Grizzly Bear is enabled to announce the candidacies of several aspirants for Grand Parlor office honors. There continue to be whisperings, however, that other candidacies will be revealed at the San Francisco session. PROCEEDINGS SAN FRANCISCO N.S. GRAND PARLOR

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

WITH GRAND PRESIDENT JOSEPH J. McShane of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214 presiding throughout the deliberations, the Sixty-second Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West was in session in the auditorium of Native Sons Building, San Francisco, May 15, 17 and 19.

The reports of grand officers and committees dealt, mostly, with matters heretofore given full publicity in The Grizzly Bear. Follows a summary of the San Francisco Grand Parlor proceedings, with no reference, however, to proposed legislation that failed of passage:

CHANGES IN CONSTITUTIONS.

Grand Parlor:

Art. III, Sec. 1 amended to provide: "This Grand Parlor shall be composed of all living original members of Native Sons of the Golden West," etc.

Art. XI, Sec. 15 amended by adding a new paragraph: "(3) To decorate a monument suitably located and erected for this purpose."

Subordinate Parlors:

Art. VII, Sec. 1 amended to provide: "The initiation fee and dues shall be fixed by the By-Laws, payable in advance; provided, that initiation fee shall not be less than $5.00, and under no circumstances shall a Parlor contribute said fee to any candidate for initiation either in whole or in part."

Art. IX, Sec. 14 amended by striking out the entire section.

Order of Business amended by rearranging: "(20) Good of the Order—(a) Recess for congratulations and for collection of dues, fines and assessments. (b) Introduction of Visiting Brothers. (c) Announcements. (d) Absentees at Previous Meeting."

RITUALS, CEREMONIALS, ETC.

A revised Funeral Ritual, submitted by the Board of Grand Officers, was adopted.

The Dedication Ritual was amended to comply with regulations governing the dedication of Federal Government buildings.

The Installation Ceremony was revised to correspond with the laws of the Order.

Minor changes in the Symbolic Work were approved.

Ordered, "That henceforth and hereafter all Native Sons of the Golden West, in pledging allegiance to the American Flag, shall place the right hand, palm inward, over the heart."

Ordered, "That the Ritual Committee prepare a ritual honoring the Bear Flag, and submit to the next Grand Parlor."

Ordered, as a part of the Initiatory Ritual, "That an address of welcome be delivered by a Senior Past President or some one selected for the occasion immediately following the initiatory ceremony or under the 'Good of the Order' to explain more fully to the candidate our aims, purposes and activities."

BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

Bakersfield, Kern County, was selected as the meetingplace of the Sixty-third (1940) Grand Parlor.

Telegrams were ordered sent all Native Son State Senators urging defeat of Assembly Bill No. 1297, amending the California Alien Land Law.

Sacramento was awarded the Admission Day, September 9, celebration for 1940. [Last year's Grand Parlor designated San Francisco as the place for holding this year's celebration.]

The history of the Order from 1880 to 1890, compiled by Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, was ordered printed in the Proceedings.

The incoming Grand President was "authorized to appoint a special committee of seven to supervise a California History Public Speaking Contest during the ensuing Grand Parlor year," and $250 was appropriated for the purpose.

Ordered, "That this Grand Parlor invite the magazine 'Life' to be in attendance at the Native Sons of the Golden West's birthday party at the Golden Gate International Exposition, a Pageant of the Pacific, on September 9, 1939."

The Grand President was directed to appoint a special committee of five to construct rules and regulations for drum corps, drum and bugle corps, and drill team competitions and parades, the committee to report to the next Grand Parlor.

Ordered, "That a Grand Parlor committee of at least seven be appointed to make all necessary preparations for the celebration of" the one hundredth anniversary of the raising of the United States of America Flag by Commodore Sloat at Monterey, July 7, 1846.

Diamond Parlor No. 246 at Pittsburg, Contra Costa County, was ordered dissolved.

A rising vote of thanks was given the San Francisco Extension of the Order Committee for the wonderful arrangements made and the entertainment provided for the Grand Parlor.

Fines imposed on Stockton Parlor No. 7, Oakland Parlor No. 50, Granite Parlor No. 83 of Folsom and Santa Ana Parlor No. 265 were remitted.

A proposal that the Grand Parlor subscribe for $4,000 worth of stock in the Native Sons Hall Association of Sacramento was referred to the incoming Board of Grand Officers.

The incoming Grand President was directed to appoint a committee of three, to be known as the Ritual Contest Committee, to promote ritualistic elimination competitions between the Subordinate Parlors. The two highest Parlors are to have the honor of contesting for supremacy at the annual Grand Parlor. The committee has full power to make all rules, laws and regulations governing the contest.

The Grand Parlor Landmarks Committee was requested to investigate the most outstanding of the remaining Indian mounds and burying grounds and to "suggest, if practical, a plan for their preservation."

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Favoring and recommending the enactment of legislation, pending in the State Legislature, providing that "none but citizens of the United States shall be employed in the operation of fishing boats, and that such boats shall be owned and manned only by citizens of the United States."

Petitioning Governor Culbert Olson, Mayor Angelo Rossi of San Francisco and the Manager of the Golden Gate International Exposition to have Santa Monica placed on the map now decorating the walls of the California State Building on Treasure Island.

Re-declaring and re-affirming devotion to the cause of true Americanism, and denouncing and opposing "the activities of subversive groups who would undermine the basic structure of our government and who advocate theories inconsistent with the fundamental principles of our American democracy."

Requesting the State Department of Motor Vehicles "to adopt a suitable license plate with appropriate legend thereon calling attention to the" fact that "1942 will commemorate the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the State of California by Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo."

Calling the attention of the Subordinate Parlors of the Order to the seriousness of the peach situation, and urging all members "to buy two cans of peaches per week, or ask for peach pie or preserves in their eating places."

Urging the State Park Commission to include "within the State Park System the entire acreage of Pioneer Memorial Park" in San Francisco.

Declaring "The Native Sons of the Golden West are banded together, among other things, for patriotic purposes, and owe their undivided allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands," and setting forth a creed, in the interest of national security and peace, among the provisions being "(2) We assert that our government ought not, openly or secretly, to give pledges of moral, financial or physical support to other powers to be relied upon in the event of war or other emergencies, or to lead other powers to believe, in advance of the fact, that we will take sides against them." [This creed was published in its entirety in The Grizzly Bear for May 1939.]

Approving and endorsing "the movement now being conducted, and designated as 'Safety With Light' campaign."

Expressing thanks to various San Francisco firms for courtesies extended, and to the San Francisco daily newspapers and press agencies for publicity given the Sixty-second Grand Parlor.

NEW GRAND OFFICERS.

At the election for grand officers, 329 votes were cast, and the following were chosen:

Grand President—Jesse H. Miller of California Parlor No. 1.

Grand First Vice-president—Henry S. Lyon of Placerville Parlor No. 9.

Grand Second Vice-president—Edward T. Schnarr of Fruitvale Parlor No. 252.

Grand Third Vice-president—Lloyd J. Cosgrove of Precita Parlor No. 187.

Grand Secretary—John T. Regan of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157.

Grand Treasurer—John A. Corotto of San Jose Parlor No. 22.

Grand Marshal—Louis Bosch of Sonoma Parlor No. 111.

Grand Inside Sentinel—Walter N. Bailey of Elk Grove Parlor No. 41.

Grand Outside Sentinel—George Bruno of Napa Parlor No. 62.

To complete his official family, Grand President Jesse H. Miller announced the appointment of:

Grand Organist—Roger Johnson of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45.

Grand Historian—Dr. Peter T. Conmy of Presidio Parlor No. 194.

BUDGET AND PERCAPITA TAX.

A budget, submitted by the Finance Committee, carrying appropriations totaling $27,950 was approved. Among the allowances are $4,600 for organization work, $1,000 for history fellowships, $700 for publicity and $250 for landmarks work.

To provide the budget funds, a percapita tax of $1.50 was levied, payable forty cents June 1, forty cents September 1, thirty-five cents December 1, and thirty-five cents March 1, 1940.

NOTES OF THE SESSION.

Benjamin Harrison of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110, San Bernardino, United States Attorney for the Southern District of California, addressed the Grand Parlor regarding bills before the State Legislature having to do with aliens fishing in California waters. He said the Assembly Fish and Game Committee has refused to report out the bills although "representatives of the United States Navy appeared before the committee urging the adoption of this legislation on the sole ground of national defense."

Grand President Edna B. Briggs of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, accompanied by Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Treasurer Agnes Curry, Grand Inside Sentinel Loretta Cameron, Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, and Past Grand Presidents Ethel Begley, Mae Boldemann, Evelyn Carlson and Anne Thuesen, paid a fraternal visit May 17. Greetings and best wishes were extended by Grand President Briggs, Grand Vice-president Giannini and Past Grand President Begley.

Grand President Joseph J. McShane presented President Leon Gregory, for Arrowhead No. 110 of San Bernardino, a gavel, the Parlor having won for the fourth successive time first place in the membership gain contest.

FULL SUPPORT SOUGHT TO CARRY ON WINNING BATTLE

JESSE H. MILLER OF SAN FRANCISCO, affiliated with California Parlor No. 1, became the Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West at the Sixty-second Grand Parlor, which met in San Francisco. Addressing the assembled representatives of the Subordinate Parlors from all sections of California following his induction into office, May 19, he said:

"Worthy Past Grand Presidents, Fellow Grand Officers, Members of the Sixty-second Grand Parlor, My Brothers, Ladies and Gentlemen: It is with a true feeling of signal honor that I accept my responsibility as Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. This feeling is most profound by reason of the fact tions of Grand Parlor politics a candidate for Grand Parlor office often meets with reverses, but I wish to assure you that the love of our Order and the carrying out of its principles is so firmly imbedded in the hearts of all real Native Sons that, whether it be victory or defeat as a candidate for grand office, the decision of the Grand Parlor is always accepted cheerfully by both the winner and the loser.

that I assume my duties in my own San Francisco, where I was born and raised and have spent my entire life.

"In the course of the toils of everyday life we often reach a time of great joy and refreshment. This ceremony, my induction in the high and estimable office of Grand President, is truly such an occasion to me. After twenty years of membership in this Order, during which period I have attended eighteen consecutive Grand Parlors, it is indeed with a degree of humility and gratefulness that I wish to acknowledge my appreciation of your entrusting to me the important duties as the executive head of your Order for the coming year. In the trials and tribula-

"We are all here with a common aim and purpose—to best serve the Order so that it may prosper and carry on its splendid work as a patriotic and fraternal organization. The great confidence you have placed in me is one of which I trust I shall prove worthy. To this end, I wish to assure every member of our Order that during my term of office I shall bend every effort to the end that harmony shall exist and the purposes of our Order are carried onward and forward to greater hights.

"I wish to personally acknowledge to the members of my own Parlor, California Parlor No. 1, as well as to my many loyal friends, my sincerest thanks for the many years of effort and support given to me during my candidacy for various Grand Parlor offices. Without their counsel and assistance, without their kindly expressions of goodwill and encouragement, the attainment of the office now held by me would have been impossible. I trust that the duties of my office as Grand President will so arrange themselves that I will be able to visit with my own Parlor on many occasions during the coming year, to renew and cement the wonderful friendships which there exist between the members of that Parlor and myself. Those of you who know the real significance of our Order can well realize my desire to be in the company of those brothers in our happy little family where friendship and brotherly love are truly exemplified.

"In addressing a Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West, it would be an idle gesture to enumerate the work and splendid principles for which our Order was founded and which it has for the past sixty-four years successfully carried out. Suffice to say that during my incumbency as Grand President every effort will be made to carry on the work we have undertaken and to spread the good cause to which we are dedicated, so that they will be known to every resident of this great State of California and to the citizenry of the whole nation.

"There are a few matters which it may not be amiss for me to mention particularly at this time. We all realize that as citizens of these great United States we are privileged and blessed with a Constitution and a system of government which guarantee to each and every one of us freedom of speech, press and religious belief. We are privileged to say and write whatever may come into our minds; we are privileged to send our children to schools maintained by our respective governments of city, state and nation so that our children may have inculcated in their minds such knowledge and learning as will fit them to take their places as citizens for the purpose of qualifying them in their pursuit of the happiness of life; we are privileged to worship God in such manner and in such church as we see fit, following whatever religious belief we may be inclined to accept.

"In America, we are indeed a free people! Unfortunately, there have migrated into this country certain groups of individuals who, although they have fled from the persecution and tyranny of foreign lands, have seen fit to undertake the undermining of our real democratic system of government. These groups advocate 'isms' which are fundamentally opposed to our constitutional form of democratic government, and we, as Native Sons of the Golden West, do not hesitate in denouncing the advocates of all forms of 'isms' other than Americanism.

"However, my brothers, it seems that our denunciation of these subversive interests is not in itself sufficient. To merely point out that they are wrong appears to be a mild form of defense of our democratic institutions. It shall be the policy of my office during the coming year not only to continue the denunciation of these unwelcome alien doctrines, but to urge each and every member of our Order not to be on the defensive, but to take an affirmative stand in announcing the allegiance of every Native Son of the Golden West to the principles enunciated by the Constitution of the United States of America, and so beautifully represented by the glorious flag of our country. To that end, I hereby dedicate the coming year as one for the display of a real aggressive type of Americanism by the members of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West.

"The Constitution of our Order and the principles under which we operate do not sanction any activity in behalf of, or against, individuals seeking political office in our State. Any legislation—whether about to be enacted by our Legislature or by initiative measure—which, in the opinion of the Board of Grand Officers, requires or deserves support or opposition from our Order as a whole should be given such attention, publicity and effort as the Board of Grand Officers shall desire and decides to be taken. During my term as Grand President I wish to assure the members of this Order that the office of Grand President will not, under any conditions or circumstances, be used on behalf of, or against, any candidate for political office, and the only activities savoring of a political nature in which the Grand President will participate will be those directed by the Board of Grand Officers in carrying out the true intent of the Constitution of our Order.

"We, as Native Sons of the Golden West, have placed upon us an obligation to carry on in the battle of life for the advancement of our Order and the glory of our State and Nation. A general, in leading his army on to the field of battle, can accomplish nothing if his soldiers are unwilling to fight under his leadership. So, as Grand President of this Order, I am helpless to carry on a winning battle without the full support and co-operation of each and every member of this Order. I appeal to you as delegates to this Grand Parlor to give to me and to the Order in this coming year your fullest support and co-operation.

"I appeal to you to go home to your respective Parlors and there act as leaders in seeing that the work of our Order is carried out and that your individual Parlors show a substantial increase, both numerically and in activity. With this support freely given by you and from the other members of the Order during the coming year, we may all rest assured that when the Grand Parlor convenes in 1940 at the City of Bakersfield we will all be happy in the thought that we have gone through a happy year, accomplishing the purposes of our Order and

PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST.

At the finals in the public speaking contest, Chairman Reynald J. Bianchi of the Grand Parlor Public Speaking Committee presided. John Brady, deputy superintendent San Francisco schools, Dion Holmes, deputy city attorney of San Francisco, and Dr. Leonard of the California Historical Society, were the judges.

The contestants were Miss Evelyn Savoie of the Sacramento High School, Sacramento, representing northern California, and Sidney Gordan of the Garfield High School, Los Angeles, representing southern California. Miss Savoie was declared the winner, and her subject was "Old Sonoma, Home of the Bear Flag."

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

LONG BEACH—LONG BEACH PARLOR NO. 278 N.S.G.W. was instituted here May 5 with sixty-four charter members. Grand President Joseph J. McShane presided, and was assisted by Past Grands Eldred L. Meyer, Herman C. Lichtenberger and John T. Newell, Supervising Deputy John O'B. Bodkin, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards. The candidates were initiated by a ritual team from Compton Parlor No. 273 made up as follows:

Roy Hood, president; Walter Hopcraft, junior past president; Charles Childers, senior past president; Hector Hecock, first vice-president; Fred Smith, second vice-president; Don Castillo, third vice-president; Roy Tarleton, marshal; Frank Tarleton, inside sentinel; Stanley W. Sargent, coach. Roger Johnson of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 assisted at the piano. The following officers were installed by District Deputy Roy Tarleton:

Clarence S. Hunt, president; Robert R. Castro, junior past president; Superior Judge Percy Hight, senior past president; Fred C. Walker, first vice-president; Edward N. Leighton, second vice-president; Paul B. Cooke, third vice-president; Ralph B. Fridley, recording and financial secretary; Charles E. Waite, treasurer; Oliver J. Pinnell, marshal; James R. Pickerill, inside sentinel; Homer H. Weston, outside sentinel; Bruce W. Fargo, Ernest L. Porter, Theodore Herzog, trustees.

Preceding the ceremonies the instituting grand officers were guests of the Parlor at a largely attended supper, and at midnight buffet refreshments were served. During the evening President Josephine Reichman of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W., accompanied by Nellie Cooke and an escort team, extended greetings on behalf of that Parlor and presented a silk United States of America Flag to the new Parlor.

"MY MOTHER'S PORTRAIT."

Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. observed Mothers Day very happily May 9. A delicious luncheon was served by Marcella Palethorpe and committee at tables centered with maypoles; at each cover was a nosegay. Program Chairman Isabel Fages staged a fashion show which created amusement. Frances Eleanor Smith spoke on "Ideals of an American Mother." Helene Rico was the soloist. The theme of the occasion was "My Mother's Portrait," and many quaint portraits were exhibited. At the business meeting following the luncheon President Marion Johnson presided, and a baby to be named Marion Frances was adopted.

Veterans Welfare Chairman Margaret Harris was in charge of the May 23 tea and program, which centered about poppy day. Beatrice Trumbull told of the origin of the veteran poppy. The May 2 luncheon party of the Parlor's ways and means committee was a delightful success. The Gertrude Sewing Circle will meet June 5 at the home of Isabel Fages, 356 North Edinburgh street, for a potluck luncheon. Californiana is planning a memorial in honor of Founder Lilly O. Reichling-Dyer, lately deceased.—O.L.

MOVING TO NEW QUARTERS.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. increased its membership by five during May, and the 11th they were addressed by Past Grand John T. Newell on the aims and purposes of the Order. June 8 the Parlor will initiate another class of candidates.

June 9 Los Angeles, jointly with La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W., will have a sport dance at Victor McLaglen's Light Horse Club, Riverside drive at Glendale boulevard. Admission, $1.10 per couple.

June 29 entertainment and refreshments will be provided. This will be the Parlor's last meeting at 1329 South Hope street. Thereafter Los Angeles will meet Friday evenings in I.O.O.F. Temple, Washington and Oak streets, the first meeting being held there July 7.—F.F.

PROUD OF CUP WINNING HONOR.

Glendale—The homeless children committee of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. was in charge of the May 9 stork shower for the baby basket to be sent to the San Francisco Grand Parlor. The Parlor is proud of the honor in winning the cup, donated by Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen, awarded by the Los Angeles County N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Committee. Past presidents of the Parlor met April 27 at the Temple City home of Ada Steele.

Mrs. Marguerite Piuma was hostess at a breakfast at her home May 25. President Harriette Weeks has appointed Betty Sanders and Leonora Pagliuso chairmen, respectively, of Admission Day and Spanish Fiesta Committees. Geraldine Leonetti is in charge of a rummage sale to be held June 2.

PILGRIMAGE TO PALA MISSION.

A large turnout was at the meeting of the sewing club of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. at the Van Nuys home of Mrs. Mattie L. Gara May 20. Sewing for the homeless children busied the members, and the hostess served an enchilada luncheon. A surprise shower was given Mrs. Olinda Kerby-Thomas, a recent bride, May 24. After September the couple will reside on a ranch at Springville, Tulare County.

June 10 the Parlor sewing club will meet at the home of President Anna T. Schiebusch, 1009½ West Twenty-first street, at 1 p.m. June 11 a pilgrimage in charge of History and Landmarks Chairman Elsie Amidon will be made to Pala Mission in San Diego County. This will be an interesting trek, for Pala still holds religious ceremonies of an earlier time, with Indian celebrants assuming the important roles.

Los Angeles is sponsoring a card party at 1101 South Westmoreland, June 28, 8 p.m. Auction and contract bridge will be played, also bunco. Admission is thirty-five cents per person, which includes refreshments. The committee in charge includes Edna T. Neikirk, chairman, Evelyn T. Arlen, Elsie Amidon, Jeanne Clos, Lucille Cline, Jean Fraser, Alice Goodhue,

"DAYS OF '49" BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. has taken over the entire Paris Inn Cafe for Sunday, June 11, and there a birthday party will be staged in observance of its fifty-second institution anniversary.

"Days of '49" is the birthday motif, and attendants are requested to be costumed in keeping with those early times. Admission is $1.50, tax included, and all Native Sons, Native Daughters, and their friends are invited. Robert Dunn is chairman of arrangements. Doors will open at 5 p.m., dinner will be served at 7 o'clock, and there will be entertainment galore and dancing all evening.

Ramona's June calendar also includes: 9th, initiation; 16th, election officers. June 30 there will be no meeting of the Parlor.

DEPUTY, RECENT BRIDE, SHOWERED.

San Pedro — Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. sponsored a Mothers Day program May 11. The refreshments table, decorated in pansies, was centered by a cake inscribed "Mother." Mrs. John Melee, the oldest mother present, cut the cake. A handkerchief shower celebrated the birthdays of Margaret Kreider and Vivian Soares. To the accompaniment of a stringed orchestra, community singing was enjoyed. Chairman Vivian Soares was in charge of all arrangements for the evening.

The Florencita Thimble Club was entertained May 17 at the home of Catherine Morris. Chairman Soares and committee served a Spanish supper to 150 May 19. The members were attired in appropriate colorful costumes. Dancing until midnight followed the supper. Deputy Olinda Thomas was a guest of the Parlor May 25 and was given a miscellaneous shower in honor of her recent marriage. Refreshments were served.—R.B.

LOOKING AHEAD.

The Interparlor N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Committee is offering a prize of $25 for the best design of a float to be entered in the Tournament of Roses parade at Pasadena next year. The theme of the design is to be "The Twentieth Century in Flowers." All designs should be sent to Secretary Harriet Weeks, 234 South Brand, Glendale.

June 8 the Interparlor Committee will have a card party at Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica boulevard. Tickets are twenty-five cents. The receipts will go to the rose parade float fund.

MOTHERS DAY LUNCHEON.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. has made a donation to the restoration fund of Mission San Antonio de Padua, and has taken out membership in the California State Historical Association. Many new and used toys were gathered during May to replenish the Toy Loan Library, a Co-ordinating Council project. Card players enjoyed May 6 an afternoon dessert bridge at the home of Mrs. Johanna Reed.

The annual Mothers Day luncheon May 13 was a specially happy event because of the homecoming of Mrs. Kate McFadyen, "mother" and charter member of the Parlor, who had been spending several months with her daughter in Idaho State. Deputy Marguerite Mize was also a guest. Sixteen members of the mothers chorus of Banning Evening School, Wilmington, entertained with a musical program. The luncheon tables were decorated with vari-colored pansies from the Parlor's Memory Garden in Recreation Park.

"Romance and the Early History of California" has been chosen as the topic to be presented at the June 1 meeting of Long Beach by the City Librarian. Supervising Deputy Hazel Hansen, Deputy Marguerite Mize and the May and June birthdayites will be honored. Chairman Nell Cooke of the Parlor's veterans welfare committee has presented numerous magazines, games, etc., to the boys at the National Military Home. Nell Cooke has been named chairman of a committee to make plans for a carnival night in July, and Ruth Johnson heads a committee to formulate plans for presenting an Admission Day program in one of the city parks September 9.—R.J.

GRAND PRESIDENT VISITS HOME-PARLOR

(FLORA A. SCHMITTGEN.)

SACRAMENTO — LA BANDERA NO. 110 entertained May 6 its own beloved Mrs. Edna B. Briggs, Grand President, the occasion being her official visit to her home Parlor. The theme of the evening was the State Capitol, and the color scheme was pink and white. Preceding the meeting a banquet, attended by 300 guests, was served. During the repast vocal and instrumental numbers were rendered by seven lovely women, gowned in white chiffon formals, seated upon a stage decorated with palms, baskets of pink and white snapdragons, and a twelve-foot colored picture of the State Capitol. At four large round tables were seated the honor-guest and distinguished visitors.

That of Grand President Briggs was covered with a pink organdie cloth and was centered with a replica of the State Capitol. Bowls of water lilies added to the adornments, and the placecards were hand-made pink satin sachet bags with the Capitol dome sketched thereon. Mrs. Genevieve Didion, co-chairman of the evening, was hostess at this table and introduced the following: Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Treasurer Agnes Curry, Grand Marshal Clarice Cook, Grand Inside Sentinel Loretta Cameron, Grand Outside Sentinel Doris Treat, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Grand Trustees Rose Rhyner, Ethel Enos, Ruth Sesna, Emily Ryan, Mary Noerenberg and Alice Oldham. At the Past Grands' table Supervising Deputy Lucille Huntoon of La Bandera was hostess. Here were seated Mms. Carrie Durham, Emma Foley, Mayme Peyton, May Noonan, Anne Thuesen, May Boldemann, Bertha Briggs, Mary Bell, Gladys Noce, Evelyn Carlson and Florence Boyle, Dr. Eva R. Rasmussen, Misses Stella Finkeldey and Esther Sullivan. At the third table were seated President Dorothy Thomas of La Bandera and ten candidates. First Vice-president Willette Hood, Deputies Ethel Miller and Sylvia Dusdale were Lostesses here. Miss Ruth Peterson, co-chairman, was hostess at the fourth table, where were seated Mms. Emma Boarman-Wright, Mary E. Fontenrose, Flora Podesta-Ferrara, and Miss Rose Genaro Carley, permanent members of the Grand Parlor affiliated with Ursula No. 1, and state chairmen of the Order's projects.

In the lodgeroom to greet Grand President Briggs were assembled 500 members of the Order representing sixty-one Subordinate Parlors. Officers of the Parlor were gowned in pink organza formals over pink taffeta slips and carried large fan-shaped boquets of white stock. An escort team of sixteen, gowned in white net formals over white satin slips and carrying fan-shaped boquets of pink stock, led the formal opening march and conducted all grand officers to their stations. Also escorted to the altar were two charter members of La Bandera, Mrs. Clara Weldon, who has served as recording secretary for thirty-nine and one-half years, and Mrs. Grace Sherman. The Parlor will celebrate its fortieth institution anniversary in July.

Immediately following the initiation of ten candidates, a sterling silver carving set was presented Grand President Briggs by La Bandera. This outstanding feature of the evening was arranged by Co-chairman Ruth Peterson, historian of the Parlor. The presentation expressed appreciation and understanding of what the Grand President, in her trips about the state and official visits to Subordinate Parlors, has accomplished for the good of the Order during her term. The participating speakers were First Vice-president Willette Hood, Marshal Amelia Kelly, Past President Nellie La Forga, Inside Sentinel Ernestine Ward, Outside Sentinel Margaret Harrington and President Dorothy Thomas. Each referred briefly to an outstanding project of the Order, and handed to Grand President Briggs a long, pink, satin ribbon representing the several roads traveled. At the conclusion of the presentation Nedrick Baugh, accompanied on the organ by David L. Jones, sang "Home, Sweet Home." Buffet refreshments were served following the meeting.

State chairmen in attendance were: Mrs. Evelyn Carlson, San Francisco 1939 Grand Parlor; Mrs. Carrie Durham, Credentials; Mrs. Bertha A. Briggs, Publicity; Mrs. Mayme Peyton, Legislation; Mrs. May Boldeman, State of Order; Mrs. Florence Boyle, Pioneer Roster and Relics; Miss Esther R. Sullivan, History and Landmarks; Mrs. Maude Heaton, Americanism; Mrs. May Lucas, Music; Miss Ann Schiebusch, Veterans Welfare; Mrs. May McDonald, Extension of Order; Miss Rena Taube, Drill Teams and Drum Corps; Mrs. Imelda Bowden, Welfare; Mrs. Genevieve Didion, Civic. Gifts of white linen handkerchiefs tied with pink satin ribbons and gold seals were presented all present and past grand officers, state chairmen, permanent mem-members and candidates. A quartet of La Bandera members, Misses Lois Russell and Nell Flanders, and Mms. Mary Wright and Ruth Bethard, sang a welcome song, "Ven Mi Amigo" (Come My Friend), the Sacramento Centennial official song. Arrangements for the outstanding affair were made by Mrs. Genevieve Didion and Miss Ruth Peterson, co-chairmen, Misses Ada Peterson, Nell Flanders and Dorothy Taffe, Mms. Flora A. Schmittgen, Lucille Hunton, Maude Young, Dodge Glyer, Veryl Hoppenbrock and Grace Schaden.

NEWSY N.D.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Watsonville—Mary Aston and Fern Lynn had charge of the May 2 meeting of El Pajaro No. 35, at which a social hour was enjoyed. At the May 16 meeting refreshments were served by a committee which included Dora Presko, chairman, Margaret Storm, Theresa Mooney, Ida East and Cecelia Ashadina. June 6 the Parlor will initiate a class of candidates, and June 13 it will present for the broadcast of the Watsonville Chamber of Commerce a Pajaro Valley program. —V.C.

Murphys—Ruby No. 46 initiated a class of eight candidates May 5. Following the ceremonies whist was played and a ravioli supper was served.

Sutter Creek—Amapola No. 80 celebrated its forty-fifth institution anniversary at a potluck supper. A beautifully decorated maypole was the table centerpiece. Mrs. Jennie Pendry, a member of the Parlor forty-three years, had the honor of cutting the birthday cake. The arrangements committee consisted of Verna Boitano, chairman, Mary Milich, Etta Lagomarsino, Julia Ferreccio and Ann Casagrande.—L.M.

Hollister—Copa de Oro No. 105 honored members born in April, May and June at a delightful "birthday night." Tables for each month were appropriately decorated, and delicious refreshments were served by a group headed by Eugenia Cunan. At the Parlor's May 3 meeting brief, but impressive, tribute was paid the late Mrs. Lilly O. Reichling-Dyer, Founder of the Order. Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs delivered an eloquent eulogy. Card playing featured the social hour, and delicious home-made refreshments were served.

Etna—Eschscholtzia No. 112 had the annual Mothers Day party for the mothers of its members and the older mothers of Scott Valley. The banquethall was festive with baskets of beautiful flowers. Following an address of welcome by Amy Durham, a program of music and readings was enjoyed. The pleasant afternoon closed with an hour of visiting and reminiscing.—M.K.H.

San Andreas—San Andreas No. 113 initiated four candidates May 7. Grand Outside Sentinel Doris Treat outlined the life-story of Mrs. Lilly O. Reichling-Dyer, Founder of the Order, who recently passed away. Delicious refreshments were served at the meeting's close. The arrangements committee for the evening included Misses Mildred Serra, Ramona Winkler and Ruth Geary, and Mrs. Cora Mae Poe.

Alameda—Encinal No. 156 honored its charter members and past presidents May 10. Thirty-two of the latter were in attendance. President Louise Benedetti welcomed the honorees, who were presented boquets of beautiful pansies. Mrs. Vinsensa Hagy responded for the past presidents. With Mrs. Edith Foley at the piano, musical selections were rendered. The banquet tables were adorned in gold, with huge bowls of pansies and ferns. The splendid evening was arranged by the good of the order committee—Louise Benedetti, Barbara Rose, Gertrude Connor, Rose Benetti, Sadie Cramer, Mabel Crown, Annie Cox and Edith Hutchinson.—M.W.W.

Chico—In honor of the members' mothers, Annie K. Bidwell No. 168 sponsored a lovely affair May 11. President Harriett Hannis greeted each honor-guest and presented to her a lovely handkerchief, and Nell Baker, chairman of decorations, presented each with a beautiful corsage. Two charter members were honored—Mattie Kesselring, who gave a Mothers Day reading, and Nora Arnold, who told the story of a hundred-year-old dictionary presented the Parlor by A. Chapman, whose parents were Pioneers. An appropriate Mothers Day program, prepared by Dorothy Jacobs, included: La Verne Van Crumpet and Tony Borges, accompanied by Mrs. T. Laumer, vocal solos; Patricia Randolph, piano solo and reading; Dorothy Jacobs, mother songs. All entered heartily in community singing, with Etta Hinton at the piano. Delicious refreshments were served by Violet Myers, Evadney Gray and Opal Merriam in the diningroom, beautified with bowls of gorgeous roses and mixed flowers. Ivy Hoar reported a net profit of $74 from the card party given for the benefit of the homeless children. A brief memorial service for the late Founder Lilly O. Reichling-Dyer who, as a very young woman, resided in Chico, was conducted. At the May 25 meeting of Annie K. Bidwell twenty-one candidates, secured by President Hannis, were received.—O.P.

Georgetown—El Dorado No. 186 was officially visited by Grand President Edna B. Briggs, who was presented with a framed picture of Echo Lake. Several other visitors were in attendance, and a candidate was initiated. Dainty refreshments were served at gaily decorated tables. El Dorado observed its twenty-ninth year of institution May 13. President Nettie Leonardi chose to honor the "mother" of the Parlor, Irene Irish, who served as the first president. Mothers Day poems and songs were presented by the members, after which delicious refreshments were served.—A.L.D.

Byron—Donner No. 193 has adopted a veteran at Livermore Hospital, and is active in Red Cross work. Members of the Parlor contribute food and clothing to families very much in need. —A.P.

San Rafael—For the official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs to Marinita No. 198 the lodge and banquet rooms were transformed into a beautiful flower garden, with butterflies flitting about, by a committee made up of Oramay Perry, chairman, Gresta Mazza, Julia Arbini, Alice Ogburn, Kate Petersen, Lena Mazza, Marie Pederson, Tillie Della Bruna, Irene Griffin, Esther Reinhardt, Margarete Streckfus and Mae Howell. The Grand President was presented an old-fashioned boquet and conducted to her station of honor by an escort team of sixteen members of the Junior Auxiliary, attired in Colonial costumes of pastel shades, who formed two hearts while Pianist Muriel Miller played "Old Fashion Garden." Grand President Briggs gave a very fine history of the United States of America Flag, and six candidates were initiated. Among the many others in attendance were Past Grands Emma Foley, "mother" of Marinita, Ethel Begley, Evelyn Carlson and Anne Thuesen, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan and Alice Oldham, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini, Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Treasurer Agnes Curry, Supervising Deputy Zoura Tompkins and Deputy Julia Kelso. The meeting closed with the singing of "God Bless America," following which delicious refreshments were served.—B.W.

Modesto—Morada No. 199 had a card party at the home of Helen Condit, May 2, for the benefit of the Brownie Pack of Girl Scouts sponsored by the Parlor. May 11 Brownie pins were presented the pack members. Mrs. Minerva Josephine McMillan, a covered wagon baby, April 23 celebrated her ninety-second birthday anniversary, and Morada remembered her with a boquet of beautiful carnations. Henrietta Masciorini was tendered a handkerchief shower at the home of I. Sisson prior to her departure on an extended visit to Germany.

Saint Helena—With La Junta No. 203 as hostess, the Napa County Parlors—Eshcol No. 16, Calistoga No. 145 and La Junta—had a district meeting here May 16. It was a costume party, and each Parlor contributed to the program. The Saint Helenans presented a humorous skit "The Persecuted Maiden," or "Curses! Foiled Again!" Refreshments closed an enjoyable occasion. In charge of arrangements were Misses Ruth Kenney, Freda Brehm, Inez Costantini, and Mms. Celeste Thorsen, Wilma Mitchell, Emma Parnisari, Esther Thompson, Marie Signorelli.

San Diego—Past presidents of San Diego No. 208 conducted a recent meeting at which charter members of the Parlor were honored at candle lighting services and presented with boquets of sweetpeas. The oldest member, Eliza Burns, was given a life membership. A social time was enjoyed. At the past presidents meeting at the home of Mrs. Jane Florentine two new members were received, Miss Helena Biewiner of Sacramento, now making her home with her sister, Mrs. Carl Heilbron, and Mrs. Louise Miller. The Parlor sewing circle is very active under the leadership of Mrs. Stella Case. Recent meetings were held at the homes of Bessie Smither and Louise Miller. At the meetings potluck lunch is served at noon.

Martinez—Las Juntas No. 221 received a friendly visit May 15 from several members of Stirling No. 146, Pittsburg, and Deputy Ruth Boltzen. Delicious refreshments were served by the visitors at tables gay with honeysuckle and nasturtiums. May 18 twenty-four members of Las Juntas' drill team met at the home of President Elinor Wilkin, recent bride, who was given a miscellaneous shower. The evening's highlight was a mock wedding. Co-hostesses were Marie Irwin and Supervising Deputy Nellie Nicholson.—L.O.V.

Auburn—Auburn No. 233 received an official visit from Grand President Edna B. Briggs May 8. Dinner preceded the meeting, at which two candidates were initiated. Large delegations were present from Placer No. 138 of Lincoln and La Rosa No. 191 of Roseville.—M.M.

Santa Ana—Under the able leadership of President Genevieve Hiskey, Santa Ana No. 235 has enjoyed a most successful year. "Courtesy Night," dedicated to the memory of the late beloved Mattie Edwards, who introduced it in the Parlor, was observed April 24. The stations were filled by members of the southland Par-

FOUNDER ORDER NATIVE DAUGHTERS JOURNEYS AHEAD

MRS. LILLY OBERT REICHLING Dyer, Founder of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, passed away suddenly April 28, as briefly recorded in The Grizzly Bear for May. In accordance with her instructions, no fraternal burial services were held; her remains were cremated, and the ashes were strewn upon the desert.

She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reichling, well-known Amador County residents, and the widow of Francis J. Dyer of the United States consular service. She resided at times in various countries, but the later years of her life were spent in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Mrs. Lilly Obert Reichling Dyer, Founder of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West. Born Jackson, February 18, 1866. Died Los Angeles, April 28, 1939. Affiliated with Ursula Parlor No. 1 of Jackson, Amador County.

Founder Dyer was born at Jackson, Amador County. There, September 11, 1886, she called a meeting of native-born California young women, and they organized Ursula No. 1, the "Mother" Parlor of the Order, with thirty-three charter members. The late Tina L. Kane was the first president, and the late Margaret Stasal was the first recording secretary.

Other Parlors were soon organized by Founder Dyer, assisted by the members of Ursula, and in June 1887 representatives of seventeen Parlors met in San Francisco and organized the Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West. Tina L. Kane of Ursula was elected the first Grand President, and served two terms in that office—an honor never accorded any other Grand President. [A complete history of the Order, compiled mostly from data supplied by Mrs. Dyer, appeared in The Grizzly Bear for September 1931.]—C.M.H.

"I think the spirit which motivates our organization is made up of three things: First, imagination. Women are noted for their imagination. It is a spiritual quality. We see a vision of the good we can do, and hurl that ideal and hope ahead of us and work toward it. Besides, there is an important connection between imagination and success in any occupation. Second, common sense. We try to do something worthwhile in the most direct, wise and economical manner possible. These projects which have been built are not here just for today or tomorrow but for all time. They have been worked out on businesslike, logical lines, so that the organization is a permanent thing. Third, courage. Real personalities have that faith which produces courage. Faith is a creative power, with the vision to carry on. It is a homely saying yet worthy of repetition until someone has believed the unbelievable and undertaken the impossible. In our own case, it was necessary to go ahead blindly and blaze a trail, but the combination of imagination, common sense and courage is unbeatable.

"Our accomplishments are productive of a two-fold good: they aid people who need help, and they work for our own upbuilding. To quote the Greek Paracelsus, 'The object of man's existence is to become perfectly happy. Permanent happiness can be obtained only by attaining permanent good.' If the Greeks had words for it, then all of us have a right to happiness of this sort, for this organization has attained some permanent good in the world. The Native Daughters have ever stood for culture. Music and literature are aided and sponsored by various Parlors.

"The history of a nation is the history of its ideals. Always it has been the ideal to which the people bowed, towards which the life of a nation was directed, and by which civilization was formed. Even when conceived in error, and wrong in aplication, the ideal has molded destiny. Because of it, institutions have flourished or decayed; governments have stood firm or crumbled, and civilization has advanced or stood still. The potentiality of the ideal is supreme. America's great ideal is service for humanity. In carrying out this ideal, the Native Daughters have a share. But what we have accomplished in the past is not enough. We must go on for further accomplishments. Every day must carry some gain for the goal we have set for ourselves. I give you the 'Salutation of Dawn,' from the Sanskrit, for its beauty and promise in each day's work:

" 'Listen to the Exhortation of Dawn!
Look to this Day
For it is Life, the very Life of Life.
In its brief course lie all the Verities and Realities of Existence:
The Bliss of Growth
The Glory of Action
The Splendor of Beauty;
For yesterday is but a Dream
And tomorrow is only a Vision
But today well lived makes every Yesterday a Dream of Happiness
Tomorrow a Vision of Hope.
Look well, therefore, to this Day—
Such is the Salutation of Dawn!'

"My friends, this year completes my work as your Grand President. It represents a year of growth for me, and a great satisfaction in the projects which we are sponsoring. The fine works of any organization are accomplished by the sum total of its members. Likewise, the force of any organization is indicated by the personality and the enthusiasm of the group as a whole. For help and support I am grateful to you."

LILLY O. REICHLING DYER.

To the Officers and Members of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N D G W —We, the committee appointed to prepare resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed Sister and Worthy Founder, Lilly O Reichling Dyer submit the following:

Having endeared herself, by a very close association with the members of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 Native Daughters of the Golden West, for the past several years, the passing of our Founder Lilly O Reichling Dyer has indeed brought deep sorrow to our Parlor, as well as to the entire Order of the Native Daughters of the Golden West.

She watched with deepest interest the progress and development of our Order and matters pertaining to California, ever striving to enlarge the membership of our organization.

Her timely messages were always an inspiration, stirring us to higher ideals and attainments, but our Heavenly Father, in His wisdom called her to his Order on High, leaving to us the monument she builded so well honoring her beloved State of California. In her passing, we know that "Life is real, life is earnest,

And the grave is not its goal
Dust thou art, to dust returnedth,
Was not spoken of the soul!"

Therefore, be it resolved That deepest sympathy be extended to the Mother Parlor Ursula No. 1 that a copy of this memorial be sent to Ursula Parlor, and to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication, and that it be recorded in the minutes of our Parlor.

FLAGS' DISPLAY IS NOW MANDATORY

BOTH UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and California State (Bear) Flags are to be installed in the courtroom of every court of record in the State of California —that is, the courtrooms of the Supreme Court, of the several District Courts of Appeal, and of the Superior Courts in each county—and on the outside of each state public building.

Assembly Bill No. 1244, introduced at the State Legislature by Henry P. Meehan of Alameda County at the request of Isidore B. Dockweiler of Ramona No. 109, Los Angeles, passed both the Assembly and the Senate of the Legislature, and was promptly approved, April 22, 1939, by Governor Culbert L. Olson. Following is the full text of the flag bill:

"An act relating to the display of State and National flags in public places.

"The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

"Section 1. The board of supervisors of the various counties shall purchase and provide for the installation of the flag of the United States and the Bear Flag of California in all superior court rooms in this State.

"Sec. 2. The clerk of the Judicial Council shall purchase and provide for the installation of the flag of the United States and the Bear Flag of California in all the court rooms of the Supreme Court of California and the district courts of appeal.

"Sec. 3. The superintendent of buildings and grounds shall purchase and provide for the display of both the flag of the United States and the Bear Flag of California in a prominent place outside of each public building of the State of California."

The bill was passed unanimously in the State Senate, and but three votes were cast against it in the Assembly—Assemblymen Augustus F. Hawkins and Eleanor Miller of Los Angeles County, and Paul A. Richie of San Diego County voting against the measure.

Since the adoption by the State Legislature in 1911 of the California Republic (Bear) Flag as the State Flag of California, this bill is the only legislation ever enacted by the State Legislature definitely requiring the installation of such State Flag with the National Flag in designated courtrooms and outside of each state building.

Dedications Public Buildings.

The grand officers, headed by Grand President Jesse H. Miller, May 27 dedicated a public building at Modesto, Stanislaus County, and May 28 they dedicated a grammar school at Colusa City.

Sunday, June 25, Grand President Miller and assistants will dedicate at Redwood City the San Mateo County Court House and the Redwood City City Hall. These buildings cost approximately $500,000. The dedication will be one of the most outstanding events held in the county in many years.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Sacramento—The local Parlors—Sacramento No. 3, Sunset No. 26 and Sutter Fort No. 241—observed, April 27, the birthday anniversary of the Order's Founder, General A. M. Winn, with wreath-placing ceremonies at his monument in the city cemetery. In charge of the ceremonies were James Fitzhenry, Parker Kelly, Frank E. Michel, Lawrence Marvin, Edward E. Reese, William Wood, L. Ferron, Albert W. Katzenstein and Carleton L. Katzenstein.

Placerville—Joseph Scherrer, affiliated with Placerville No. 9 and for many years postmaster of Placerville, died May 8, survived by a wife and two children. He was born at San Luis Obispo City July 22, 1872.

Modesto—Modesto No. 11 entertained sixty-five members of Morada No. 199 at a mulligan feed. "Chef" Mark Wilson was assisted by Claud Shirley. Entertainment and cards followed the excellent feast.

Petaluma—At its Old Adobe historic landmark, Petaluma No. 27 dedicated May 28 a California State (Bear) Flag presented to it by Petaluma No. 222 N.D.G.W. A picnic lunch followed the dedication program.

Oakland—Attendants at the April 28 meeting of Oakland No. 50 heard a very interesting talk on General A. M. Winn, Founder of the Order. The Parlor wants the 1941 Admission Day celebration and the 1942 Grand Parlor meeting to be held in Oakland.

Redwood City—Redwood No. 66 and Bonita No. 10 N.D.G.W. jointly observed Mothers Day May 11. Rev. Schuyler Pratt spoke on "Mother," and entertainment was provided by Duncan Reynard, Arlie Rischel, Leroy Lawrence and Carl Iseksen. Refreshments were served, and Redwood's hill billies provided music for dancing. Eugene Cerqui was chairman of the evening.

Weaverville—Mount Bally No. 87 will entertain the Parlors of the northern district and Fred H. Greely Past Presidents Assembly June 3. Several candidates will be initiated by the officers of the host-Parlor. The following day the visitors will be taken on a tour to Oregon Cut, and at noon a picnic lunch will be served at Lowden Park.

Halfmoon Bay—Seaside No. 95 and Vista del Mar No. 155 N.D.G.W. had a card party for the benefit of the homeless children May 9.

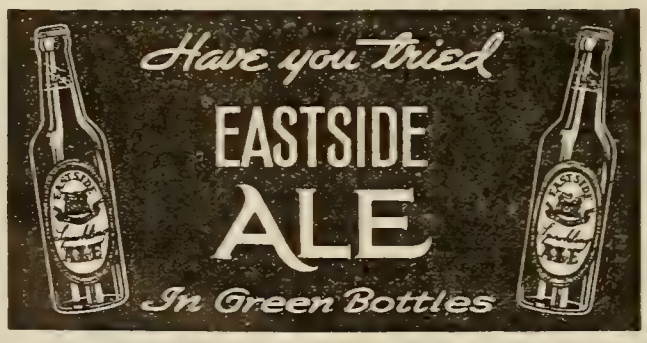
Livermore—The auditorium of the Livermore High School was packed to capacity, April 26, when a program in observance of Public Schools Week was presented. A feature of the occasion was the announcement of the awards in the California history essay contest sponsored for many years by Las Positas No. 96. Lea Staiger, for the Parlor, awarded first prize to Jane Lydiksen, second to John Regan, and third to Carol Jean Huddleston.

Alameda—Will Christopher Wood, affiliated with Halcyon No. 146, died May 15 at Piedmont, Alameda County, survived by a wife and a son. He was born December 10, 1880, at Elmira, Solano County. One of the state's best-known and best-thought-of sons, Wood served Alameda City as public schools superintendent, and California as State Superintendent of Public Instruction and State Superintendent of Banks.

Centerville—Washington No. 169 and Betsy Ross No. 238 will have their annual dance for the benefit of the homeless children June 17. The joint arrangements committee includes Vernon Rose, Tom Silva, Mat Mathiesen, Harold Garcia, Tom Silva Jr., Roumilda Rose, Isabel Ferry, Leotina Leal, Margaret White, Mms. M. Freitas and Jesse Perry.

Nicasio—Nicasio No. 183 will have its annual grand ball June 12. Fine music will be provided.

Berkeley—Claremont No. 240 initiated a group of candidates May 9, the ceremonies being followed by refreshments. A rabbit hunt is scheduled for June 11.



Oakland—Fruitvale No. 252 had its annual "athletic nite" May 26. The program included baseball, boxing, tumbling, etc. Following the two-hour entertainment refreshments were served. June 9 the Parlor will pay tribute to two of its members who have for a long time rendered fine service, Treasurer George J. Hans and Financial Secretary Willis H. Edwards. June 25 is the date set for Fruitvale's annual picnic.

Daly City—At ceremonies sponsored by El Carmelo No. 256 and El Carmelo No. 181 N.D.G.W., the grand officers dedicated May 21 this city's new City Hall. Preceding the ceremonies there was a parade made up of marching units and drum corps representing several Native Sons and Native Daughters Parlors in the San Francisco Bay area. United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags were presented by the sponsoring Parlors. Arrangements for the dedication were made by a committee that included James J. Tierney, chairman, Charles Oliviera, John Affolter and Albert Parmisano of the Native Sons, Grand Trustee Alice Oldham, Louise Eliasen and Helen Myers of the Native Daughters.

Sutter—Sutter No. 261 added five new names to its membership roll May 8, the ritual being exemplified by a team from Fred H. Greely Past Presidents Assembly. Among the visitors were F. J. O'Brien, a fifty-year member of Marysville No. 6, Governor Frank Boyle of the General Past Presidents Association, and large delegations from Colusa, Grass Valley, Lincoln, Roseville and Marysville.

"Murietta Days" will be celebrated June 3 and 4 at Coulterville, Mariposa County.

Fiesta de las Flores will be a San Luis Obispo City attraction June 2-4.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: Enclosed find check for renewal of my subscription to your very fine magazine. I do not believe that I could be without The Grizzly. I always look forward to receiving it the first of each month. With my best wishes, sincerely, EDNA B. BRIGGS, Grand President N.D.G.W." Sacramento, May 15, 1939.

Centerville Betsy Ross No. 262—May 10 had a whist party, the proceeds of which went toward the purchase price of California State Bear Flag for one of the grammar schools in the township. E.B.

Baker-held El Tejon No. 239 initiated seven candidates May 5 and received a visit from Deputy Margaret Carlisle. Deputy Edna May Horne and several members of El Tejon visited Desert Gold No. 250 at Mojave May 12, when a California State (Bear) Flag was presented the Mojave Grammar School. May 19 El Tejon was hostess to Las Flores No. 262 of Avenal, Miocene No. 228 of Taft and Desert Gold No. 250 of Mojave at a Kern Kings Counties district meeting. Initiation was held and a banquet was served. Supervising Deputy Georgia Sanders was in charge of arrangements. E.B.

Placentia—Grace No. 242 presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the Whittier State School April 27. Americanization Chairman Mary Rothaermel made the presentation address, and Nellie Cline told the story of the flag. A May 4 public card party arranged by the ways and means committee added a nice sum to the Parlor's resources. May 13 thirteen members traveled 268 miles to visit Desert Gold No. 250 at Mojave, and were royally entertained. May 18 a party honoring the members born in May was held. Deputy Edna Nelkirk was a special guest. The hall and tables were beautifully decorated with pink poppies and primroses. Delicious refreshments were served.—L.O.

Albany—Grand President Edna B. Briggs officially visited Albany No. 260 April 26. She was accompanied by Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Past Grand Sue Irwin, Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, Supervising Deputy Marion White and Deputy Ethelda Hall. The hall was attractively decorated, and two candidates were initiated. Officers of the Parlor were attired in pastel shaded evening gowns, with miniature old-fashioned wrist boquets. Grand President Briggs congratulated Albany, the "baby" Parlor of Alameda County, on its progress. The banquet tables were beautiful, in a color scheme of pink and white. May Ellis, chairman of the evening, presented gifts to Grand President Briggs, all grand officers and the "mother" of Albany, Laura Isom. On display in the banquetroom were the hope chest to be disposed of next month and the four cups won by the Green Patrol. The May 10 meeting of the Parlor was devoted to Mothers Day, with mothers as guests. Dorothy Mullins was in charge. Games were played and refreshments were served.—H.T.

Ukiah—The official visit of Grand President Edna B. Briggs to Ukiah No. 263 May 1 was a memorable occasion. After a delightful dinner, all proceeded to the lodgeroom, beautifully decorated with giant pansies and marigolds. With President Leila Williams presiding, two candidates were initiated. On the Parlor's behalf, Letta Zimmerman presented gifts to Grand President Briggs and Grand Trustee Ruth H. Sesna. The wishing well sponsored by Ukiah for the benefit of the homeless children was dedicated at Vichy Springs by Olive E. Busch and Elsie Bradley. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Salzberger, owners of the springs, presented the well to the Parlor. Grand President Briggs expressed her delight at the Parlor sponsoring such a worthy cause in such a unique manner.—D.M.B.

Sebastopol—Under the supervision of Mrs. Cora Elvy Sebastopol No. 265 has begun the serving of novel refreshments at the close of the meetings. The first of the series of seven was Indian night, and the edibles—fried surf fish, popcorn, browned corn and pine nuts—were served without plates or silverware. Spanish night followed, and members of Sebastopol No. 143 N.S.G.W. were guests. Mothers of the Parlor members were entertained with a Mothers Day program May 19.—G.T.

Solvang, Santa Barbara County, will have a "Danish Days" celebration June 24 and 25.

Livermore, Alameda County, will stage its annual rodeo classic June 10.

pated in the May 19 parade at Bellflower celebrating the turning on of street lights.

Santa Monica—Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 will elect officers June 6, and a class of candidates will be initiated June 20. A big show, with out-of-the-ordinary entertainment, is billed for June 30.

Compton—Arrowhead Past Presidents Assembly No. 14 met here May 26 with Governor Lynn A. Reed presiding. A dinner was enjoyed prior to the meeting. The committee in charge of arrangements included Roy W. Tarleton, chairman, Walter C. Richards and Hector Hecock.

PARTY FOR MOTHERS.

La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. had a party in honor of the mothers of its members May 16 at the home of Florence Hill. Bridge and checkers were played, and entertainment was furnished by Helen Spring, violinist; Orabelle Brandon, soprano, and Madeleine Garey, pianist.

Members of Long Beach Parlor were guests May 25 of La Reina. Entertainment was provided and refreshments were served.

"A DAY IN OLD CALIFORNIA."

The evening of September 8, Californians will witness the premier showing of this state's first annual civic celebration, "A Day In Old California," which will take the form of spectacular pageantry hitherto unapproached by expert showmen, according to Paul Engstrum, official host of Los Angeles County, executive vice-president of the non-profit corporation set up to stage the event, and a member of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. The big event has been endorsed by city, county and state governments, and more than 4,000 people, in gay costumes of dons and senoritas, will participate.

The pageant, which will feature about 500 Palomino and other thoroughbred horses native to California, will be held in the mammoth Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. Stage designers and expert showmen plan the construction of a huge stage in the arena, which will be the vast centerpiece for the finale. Daytime activities in Exposition Park will include a barbecue and fiesta, in which many descendants of earlyday settlers will take part, and guides in period costumes will conduct visitors through the buildings and grounds to further educate the public as to the fifteen-million-dollar investment there.

SAN FRANCISCO

"THE ART OF TREASURE ISLAND," a critical discussion of the Golden Gate International Exposition, written by Eugen Neuhaus, professor of art in the University of California, has just been published by the University Press. It is intended to assist toward an understanding of why certain architectural forms, sculptures, mural paintings, plantings and lightings at the Exposition are found pleasing.

The book will, it is believed, prove of value to art lovers, as well as a guide for those less versed in the subject. It has fifty one illustrations, and an appendix gives biographical notes on the artists who have contributed to the artistic success of the Exposition, a chronological list of the most important international expositions held since 1851, lists of the horticultural material used, and a ground plan of the Exposition with guide to courts and buildings.

ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Sunday, June 4, the San Francisco Parlors of Native Sons and Native Daughters will hold their annual memorial services at the Grove of Memory in Golden Gate Park. Jesse H. Miller, Grand President N.S.G.W., Mrs. Edna B. Briggs, Grand President N.D.G.W., and Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W., will be the principal speakers.

GRAND PRESIDENT N.D. VISITS.

Grand President Edna B. Briggs made her official visit to Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W. May 22. A delicious dinner preceded the meeting at the Women's City Club. Clare Lackey, chairman of the evening, received many compliments on the beautiful gold and white decorations which graced the banquet table and meeting hall. Many grand officers and other guests were present to greet the Grand President. B.M.N.

HOMELESS CHILDREN BENEFIT WHIST.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 was host May 14 to the members of the N.S.G.W. Grand Parlor and their ladies at a pre-convention entertainment and reception held in the remodeled Grizzly Bear Club rooms in Native Sons Building. Entertainment and dancing were provided and refreshments were served. Arthur T. Polcim was chairman of the large committee of arrangements.

Saturday, June 3, the Parlor will have a whist party for the benefit of the homeless children. A week-end party in Sonoma County is billed for June 10 and 11.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS NEWSY PARAGRAPHS.

Guadalupe Parlor No. 153's past presidents night will be held June 12. On that occasion the regular officers will surrender their stations to past presidents, who will initiate a class of candidates. All members are looking forward to this gala meeting. Lulu Porter is chairman of arrangements.—M.M.

For the benefit of its Admission Day fund, Castro Parlor No. 178 had a whist party May 10. Louise Straessler, Margaret Griffith, Viola Rentz, Tessie Schimelpfing and Bessie Werter were the hostesses. May 17 a monster whist for the benefit of the 1939 dress fund was sponsored.—B.W.

NATIVE SONS CHURCH'S GUESTS.

Saint Monica's Church had its annual May festival May 24. A real old fashioned ham dinner was served. Father Casey had as his guests the National Players, a group composed of members of National Parlor No. 118 N.S.G.W. They presented a hilarious farce, and in addition a talkie film, "One Hundred Years of Baseball," was shown.

HAYWARD NATIVES FEATURE MOTHERS DAY OBSERVANCE.

Hayward (Alameda County)—Eden Parlor No. 113 N.S.G.W. and Hayward Parlor No. 122 N.D.G.W. featured a Mothers Day observance May 11. The mothers of the members of both Parlors were special guests, and each was presented a beautiful boquet. A fine musical program was presented, and Harry Bradford gave a splendid illustrated lecture on "The California Missions." Delicious refreshments were served.

The joint committee that arranged the greatly enjoyed affair included: Viola Garms, Dorothy Ramos, Florence Hills and Zelda Riggs of Hayward Parlor; Ed. L. Owens, Lloyd Alexander and George Oakes of Eden Parlor.—F.H.M.

"A NATION IS LIKE A SHIP. Hence we speak of the Ship of State. Every vessel must have a gyroscope to balance it. The Constitution is the American gyroscope. We must not allow international subverters to tinker with it." Evangelist Blomgren.

BIG MINERAL PRODUCER—California produced mineral wealth totaling $370,000,000 during 1938. Black and yellow gold accounted, respectively, for $249,710,000 and $45,000,000 of the total. The yellow gold production was the largest since 1861.

BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE Legislature at Sacramento are bills, one of them sponsored by the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, designed to regulate commercial fishing in California waters by aliens. The Assembly Fish and Game Committee has had these bills for some time, and has, although importuned to do so, repeatedly and steadfastly refused to report them, or any one of them, to the floor of the Assembly for action.

Ben Harrison, United States Attorney for the Southern District of California, told the Grand Parlor of Native Sons, in session at San Francisco, that "Representatives of the United States Navy appeared before the Assembly Fish and Game Committee, urging the adoption of this legislation on the sole ground of national defense." The Grand Parlor adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, There are now pending before the California State Legislature bills to regulate commercial fishing in California waters by aliens; and whereas, these aliens and the fishing craft owned and operated by them are detrimental to the well being of the Nation and this State; therefore, be it Resolved, That the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West in session at San Francisco favors and recommends the enactment of this legislation to the end that none but citizens of the United States shall be employed in the operation of fishing boats, and that such boats shall be owned and manned only by citizens of the United States."

But, the eight committee votes necessary to get the matter before the Assembly for action, cannot be mustered! Why? Make your own guess. We agree heartily with the declaration of United States Attorney Harrison, made at a luncheon of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Los Angeles, that those Assemblymen who vote against the bills "vote against the principles of Americanism."

Here are the names of those composing the Assembly Fish and Game Committee. Look up their records and, when they again come before the people for election, be guided accordingly: George P. Miller, chairman, Godfrey A. Andreas, Michael J. Burns, Hugh P. Donnelly, Thomas J. Doyle, Clinton J. Fulcher, Dan Gallagher, Gordon H. Garland, Augustus H. Hawkins, Cecil R. King, John B. Pelletier, Fred Reaves, Alfred W. Robertson, Hubert B. Scudder, Allen G. Thurman.

Addressing the 3,800 graduating seniors of the University of California at Berkeley, President Robert Gordon Sproul said "there is no flaw in political policy or economic practice of our national life that steady and responsible intelligence cannot correct. . . .

"There need be and should be no destruction of the fundamental principles of our government, but only a reconstruction of our social, our economic and our political systems to afford ways and means for the larger development and wider application of these principles."

Otherwheres in this issue of The Grizzly Bear will be found reference to a California law, just enacted, providing for the display of the United States of America and the California State (Bear) Flags in designated public places.

Certain public officials are entrusted with this obligation. In case of failure to comply with the provisions of the law, local Subordinate Parlors of the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West should see that the law is put into effect in their several communities.

The National Committee To Keep America Out of Foreign Wars wants the week June 11-18 observed to further its objective. Most genuine Americans are opposed to this Nation engaging in a foreign war for any reason or purpose.

Unlimited propaganda is being loosed in this country, in the hope of again making the United States the "goat" of entangling foreign alliances. But, thank God, we have in the United States Senate such representatives of the people as Senators Hiram Johnson of California and William Borah of Idaho!

The Assembly of the State Legislature has passed a bill (AB1297) which amends the California Alien Land Law. The Senate should kill this bill! It proposes dangerous legislation which, in our opinion, will, if it becomes law, assure complete success to the Japs' "peaceful invasion of California." Some people would sell California "down the river" for a few pieces of yellow coin!

Addressing the National Economy League at New York City, Dr. Neil Carothers, dean of the Lehigh University School of Business Administration, declared: "If every government in America would start tomorrow an honest, genuine and definite policy of reducing expenditures to the bare necessities of efficient government, permanent recovery would begin in less than a month." True, beyond a doubt! But the people will have to force the reducing for, apparently, government officials have no intention of so doing.

"Japanese savagery in China," comments the Sacramento Bee editorially, "reaches its lowest depths in the recently announced determination of the mikado's government to prevent outside relief organizations from sending food and medical supplies to refugees in cities under attack. Several of these groups, including the American Red Cross, have been working courageously to relieve the suffering of the unfortunate Chinese, millions of whom have been made homeless by Japanese air raids.

"The Japanese insist that it is a military necessity to withhold this aid in order that the Chinese may be subjugated and the war brought to an end. Such a philosophy lends further emphasis to the belief that Japan's war is aimed at the civilian population for the express purpose of terrorizing them and taking over the country. A shocked world stands aghast at such cruelty!"

A bill which would prohibit the employment by the State or any political subdivision of persons receiving pensions from a governmental agency has passed the lower house of the State Legislature. Constructive legislation which should become law!

Dr. N. Wing Mah, associate professor of political science at the University of California, Berkeley, believes Japan's plan of dominating Asia is a revival of the dream of world empire by Toyotomi Hideyoshi, Jap military genius of the sixteenth century, sometimes known as the "Napoleon" of Japan.

"What Japan is attempting to accomplish today represents an enlargement of the quest of empire of Hideyoshi," says Dr. Mah. "If the renaissance of Asia is to take this form and direction, and if this is what it means, the fate of Asia is sealed. The people of Asia will become victims of their own fanaticism and a scourge of the world."

Dr. Mah pointed out that while Japan originally justified its war with China on the basis of population pressure, scarcity of national resources and lack of free markets, it today makes no secret that its war is one of aggression and conquest of Eastern Asia.

THINK THIS OVER

The Order of Native Sons of the Golden West is, we believe, with the exception of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, the only organization that limits membership exclusively to NATIVE-BORN AMERICANS.

Knowing the serious conditions in this country today, this fact alone should impel every native son of California to immediately SEEK AFFILIATION with that American-born and American-operated institution, the man-power and wealth of which are pledged to the protection of American institutions in times of peace as well as in times of war.

A TOAST TO THE FLAG

—June 14 Is Flag Day—

(JOHN J. DALY.)

Here s to the red of it—
There's not a thread of it,
No, nor a shred of it
In all the spread of it
From foot to head,
But heroes bled for it.
Faced steel and lead for it,
Precious blood shed for it,
Bathing it red.

Here's to the white of it—
Thrilled by the sight of it,
Who knows the right of it
But feels the might of it
Through day and night?
Womanhood's care for it
Made manhood dare for it.
Purity's pray'r for it
Keeps it so white.

Here's to the blue of it—
Beauteous view of it,
Heavenly hue of it,
Star-spangled dew of it,
Constant and true;
Diadems gleam for it,
States stand supreme for it,
Liberty's beam for it
Brightens the blue.

Here's to the whole of it -
Stars, stripes, and pole of it,
Body and soul of it,
O and the roll of it,
Sun shining through.
Hearts in accord for it
Swear by the sword for it,
Thanking the Lord for it,
Red, white, and blue.

Native Sons of the Golden West

SAN FRANCISCO—THE BOARD OF Grand Officers met in Native Sons Building June 10. In attendance were Grand President Jesse H. Miller, who presided, Junior Past Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustees Wayne R. Millington, Walter C. Richards, R. G. Power, Charles A. Redding, Raymond D. Williamson, Richard F. McCarthy and Walter E. Smith.

Joseph B. Keenan of Niantic Parlor No. 105 and Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig were appointed proxies to vote the Grand Parlor's stock in the N.S.G.W. Hall Association of San Francisco. Grand Secretary Regan was appointed proxy to vote the Grand Parlor's stock in the N.S.G.W. Hall Association of Santa Rosa.

Ordered that this year the same fee for bonding their officers be charged Subordinate Parlors as last year.

Ordered that consideration of the proposal to purchase stock to the amount of $4,000 in the N.S.G.W. Hall Association of Sacramento be made the first order of business at the Board's next meeting. Grand First Vice-president Lyon, Grand Third Vice-president Cosgrove and Grand Trustee Power were named a committee to investigate and report on the association.

Long Beach Parlor No. 278 having been instituted with more than fifty members, was allowed a supplies credit of $150. The Parlor was also voted the $2.50 prize for new members in force the last fiscal year.

The likeness of Past Grand Judge Charles E. McLaughlin, recently deceased, was ordered published in the Grand Parlor Proceedings.

On motion, the purposes of the California Safety Council were endorsed, and the Board's assistance in carrying out its work was offered.

Ordered that Santa Cruz Parlor No. 90 be advised that no Subordinate Parlor has the right to incorporate. That Parlor was incorporated in 1889 and the life of the corporation is about to expire.

The Grand Trustees reported they had organized by the election of Wayne R. Millington as chairman and Walter C. Richards as secretary.

Grand President Miller assigned the Subordinate Parlors to the ten visiting districts, following which the Board adjourned to the Grand President's call.

Scholarship Honors Judge.

Sacramento—In honor of Superior Judge Peter J. Shields, a longtime member of Sunset No. 26, Regent Garret W. McEnerney has established for an undergraduate at the University of California College of Agriculture at Davis, Yolo County, the Peter J. Shields Scholarship.

"I wish to establish this scholarship," says Regent McEnerney, "in recognition of Judge Shields' long attachment to the interests of agriculture, inside and outside the university, to his abounding fellowship with all who have been or are concerned with agriculture, and as a testimonial to his zeal, fidelity and distinction in the fulfillment of all duties, public and private, which have fallen to his lot."

Shields has been a judge of the Sacramento County Superior Court since 1900. He owns and operates a farm, and is a breeder of Jersey cattle, owning one of the finest herds in California. Regent McEnerney has provided $7,500 for the scholarship.

Mountain Outing.

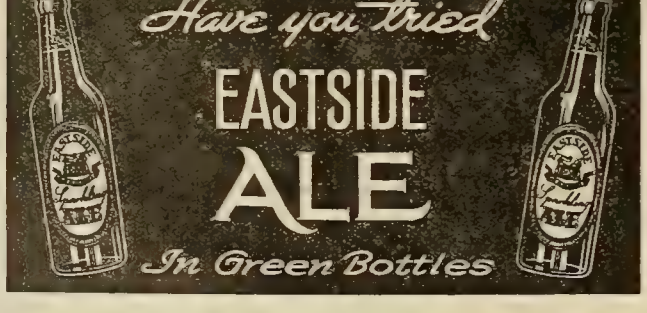
Weaverville—Mount Bally No. 87 entertained Fred H. Greely Past Presidents Assembly No. 6 and many visitors from Colusa, Oroville, Sutter and other places June 3 and 4. Members of the little mountain city Parlor were unanimously declared exceptional hosts.

Early Saturday evening, June 3, seven candidates were initiated, four for Mount Bally, two for Big Valley No. 211 of Bieber, and one for Colusa No. 69. Following these ceremonies, seven candidates were initiated into Fred H. Greely Assembly. Then the Native Sons enjoyed the dance in Memorial Hall sponsored by the host-Parlor for the benefit of the homeless children. Past Grand Florence D. Boyle of the Native Daughters addressed the gathering on this charity, being introduced by H. J. Leavitt, a former grand trustee.

The following day the visitors were taken on an educational tour to Oregon Mountain. A picnic was enjoyed in Lowden Park, where an elaborate outdoor banquet was served. District Attorney Edwin J. Regan of South San Francisco No. 157 was the toastmaster, and among the speakers were Rupert Asplund and Governor Frank Boyle of the Past Presidents General Assembly. A game of baseball between teams representing Colusa and Mount Bally was won by the former, the score being 15 to 7.

Public Buildings Dedicated.

Redwood City—Redwood No. 66 celebrated June 15 "Millington night," in honor of Grand Trustee Wayne R. Millington, by initiating a class of candidates.



Under the auspices of the Parlor, the new annex to the San Mateo County Court House and the new Redwood City Hall were dedicated by the grand officers. A parade, participated in by Native Sons and Native Daughters drum corps and drill teams moved through the principal streets of the city to the court house, where addresses were delivered by Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon and Past Grand Judge Fletcher A. Cutler. Thence the marchers proceeded to the city hall, where Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr and Past Grand Seth Millington were the speakers.

Anniversary Banquet.

Oakland—Fruitvale No. 252, instituted June 2, 1910, had its twenty-ninth anniversary banquet June 13. The Parlor had the annual outing for members and their families June 25. Games for young and old, also dancing, provided amusement. Charles W. Eiferle Jr. has been elected president of Fruitvale for the new term.

In honor of Treasurer George J. Hans, founder of the Parlor in 1910, and Willis H. Edwards, financial secretary since the Parlor's institution, Fruitvale initiated a class of candidates June 9. Speakers of the evening included Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy and Supervising Deputy William H. Dombrink.

MEMBERSHIP PRIZES.

San Francisco—Seeking the co-operation of every member of the Order in an endeavor to increase the membership substantially by the end of the present calendar year, Grand President Jesse H. Miller addressed a communication dealing with membership prizes to all Subordinate Parlors June 12.

"I am adopting a new plan of awards based upon membership increase," says Grand President Miller, "having in mind that the additional amount awarded per member will encourage Parlors to keep their members in good standing and will discourage suspension. At the end of the calendar year 1939 there will be allowed to each Parlor the sum of $3.50 for each member shown as a net gain in membership for the period commencing June 1, 1939, and ending December 31, 1939. For the purpose of computing net gain in membership in making this $3.50 per member allowance, the losses sustained by reason of deaths will not be charged as a deduction. All other forms of loss of membership, either by suspension, resignation or withdrawal, will be charged as losses, except that where a member transfers from one Parlor to another, the transfer will not be charged as a loss to the Parlor issuing the transfer card, nor as a gain to the Parlor receiving the member. All withdrawal cards issued without the member re-entering another Parlor will be charged as a loss to the Parlor issuing the withdrawal card.

"In addition to the allowance above referred to, prizes amounting to $450 will be offered as follows: First—$100 to the Parlor showing the largest net gain in membership for the period June 1 to December 31, 1939 upon the basis above set forth. Second—$50 to the Parlor showing the second largest net gain in membership during said period. Third—$100 to the Parlor showing the largest percentage net gain in membership based on membership of the Parlor as of June 1, 1939, during said period. Fourth—$50 to the Parlor showing the second largest percentage net gain in membership during the same period. (Minimum number to qualify for a prize listed above is 20 net gain in membership.)

"Special prizes for Parlors with membership of not less than 50 or more than 75: Fifth—$50 to the Parlor showing the largest net gain in members from June 1 to December 31, 1939. Sixth—$25 to the Parlor showing the second largest net gain in membership during said period. (Net gain to be computed in same manner as above. Minimum number to qualify in this group is 15 net gain.)

"Special prizes for Parlors with membership of not less than 25 or more than 50: Seventh—$50 to the Parlor showing largest net gain in membership from June 1 to December 31, 1939. Eighth—$25 to the Parlor showing second largest net gain in membership in said period. (Net gain to be computed as above specified. Minimum number to qualify in this group is 10 net gain.)

"Special prizes for Parlors with membership of 25 or less: Ninth—A handsome trophy will be given the Parlor showing the largest net gain in membership from June 1 to December 31, 1939. Tenth—A handsome trophy will be given the Parlor showing the second largest net gain in said period. (Net gain to be computed as above specified. Minimum number to qualify in this group is 5 net gain.)

"In no case shall a Parlor in any of the above groups be entitled to more than one prize. In case of a tie, cash prizes will be divided equally to the highest typing contenders."

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

San Francisco—Grand President Jesse H. Miller, accompanied by his wife, daughter and son, departed for New York to view that city's World's Fair. Thence they will go to Bermuda, and on return will visit Washington, D. C. They expect to return home about the middle of July.

Modesto—Under the auspices of Modesto No. 11, the grand officers dedicated the new Modesto Fire House. Grand President Jesse H. Miller was assisted at the plaque-laying ceremonies by Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy. Charles D. Blaine was chairman of the day.

There are thousands of fine eligibles just waiting to be extended an invitation to affiliate with the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. Be a recruiter—extend the invitation today, not tomorrow!

Petaluma—For its Old Adobe, Petaluma No. 27 received from Petaluma No. 222 N.D.G.W. a California State (Bear) Flag, which was raised at impressive ceremonies May 28. Mrs. W. W. Tompkins made the presentation address, to which her husband responded. Rev. E. P. Runnells responded, and other speakers were Henry Soldati, Leslie Manker and Grand Marshal Louis Bosch. At noon a basket luncheon was enjoyed. The Native Daughters drill team attended in a body.

Ione—Ione No. 33 added five new names to its membership-roll June 7, the ritual being exemplified by a team from Plymouth No. 48 headed by C. D. Upton. Refreshments were served by George J. Yager and Will Fithian.

Colusa—Under the auspices of Colusa No. 69, Grand President Jesse H. Miller, assisted by Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Grand Trustee R. G. Power, dedicated May 28 the new $40,000 annex to the Colusa Grammar School. A program sponsored by various school organizations preceded the plaque-placing ceremonies.

GENERAL SUTTER AND THE BEAR FLAG REVOLT

Dr. Peter T. Conmy

Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

THERE HAS BEEN MUCH DISCUSSION in recent years among students of California history concerning the interpretation that should be placed upon the Bear Flag Revolt of 1846. Just what appraisal of this episode will finally be accepted by scholars in the field cannot be stated at the present time. The old belief was, that the Americans under Semple and Ide acted in good faith and defended themselves and their property from what threatened to be a wholesale expulsion of foreigners by the Mexican officials. A later interpretation was, that the revolters had been urged on by Fremont to do what he, as an army officer, could not do in his own right, namely, attack Mexican rule in California. Some writers are wont to extol the patriotism of the Bear Flag Party; others condemn it as ruthless and lawless. It is not the purpose of this article to develop an interpretation of the Bear Flag movement. The greatest character in California at the time was undoubtedly General John A. Sutter who, from his Fort Sutter which stands at the junction of the American and the Sacramento Rivers, ruled a vast domain to the north and the east known as New Helvetia.

During the early eighteen-forties a large number of settlers, most of them from the United States, had moved into California. For the most part, they had been hospitably received by the Mexican officials. As time went on and more of them came,—and especially after the annexation of Texas by the United States in 1845—the California officials began to wonder if a peaceful conquest of the province was under way. Consequently this led to an apathy toward the settlers at first, and later to an open hostility. General Sutter knew and felt this but, on the other hand, he knew the political situation in California well enough to realize that any concerted effort against foreigners would not materialize. He had witnessed in 1845 a mild revolution between rival claimants of the governor's chair. Such division of allegiance, he reasoned, would never unite against the foreign settlers. Consequently his policy was one of continuing along traditional lines.

This situation would probably never have come to a head, and Mexican rule in California would have been undisturbed until after the war with the United States, had it not been for the arrival of John C. Fremont in the territory. From the hour of his first entrance, he was high-handed in his methods and in his attitude toward the people. Given permission to survey the interior of the province, he broke his promise and moved toward the coast. Charged with stealing horses or purchasing stolen ones from the Indians, he refused to appear before a Mexican official. Bancroft makes the following comment on this: "Whatever may have been the merit of Peralta's claim, it is evident that Fremont's refusal to obey the summons of the legal authorities was altogether unjustifiable, and the tone of his refusal most insolent."

Driven out of the central coast area, Fremont moved up into the territory of General Sutter, where he was received with open arms, as he had been previously by the kind old captain. Sutter, however, was somewhat mystified over his return to that section of the country, for he wrote the following in his diary:

"I had not the slightest idea why Fremont came the second time. Afterward I learned that he had gone to Monterey to see the American vice-consul, Thomas Larkin, but had been driven back by the Californians, who were gravely concerned over the activities of a United States Army officer in the country. I myself was ignorant of his purpose. War had not yet been declared and Fremont acted strangely toward me, as if he were guilty of some crime. Every few days he would move his camp further up the valley."

The platform upon which Polk had been elected President of the United States in 1844, namely, the acquisition of California, coupled with Fremont's antagonistic attitude and the ever-increasing number of American settlers, caused the Mexican officials to be on the defensive. Accordingly, April 30, 1846, General Castro issued the banda, a declaration to the effect that the purchase of any lands in California,—or that might be purchased—by foreigners was null and void, and that the government might expel foreigners from the territory at any time. This naturally caused the foreign settlers to look to one another for mutual protection. They were aroused early in June when Lieutenant Arce marched south from Sonoma with a large number of horses, presumably to be used by Castro in a campaign to drive out the foreigners. The foreign reaction took the form of a military attack at Sonoma which is known as the Bear Flag Revolt.

In the capture of Sonoma, four distinguished Mexican Californians were taken prisoners of war: General Mariano Vallejo, Captain Prudon, Don Salvador Vallejo and Jacob P. Leese. It was ordered that these men be taken to Fremont's camp, then located at the base of the Marysville Buttes, and they were transported there. Fremont, however, was not willing to keep the prisoners, and sent them to Sutter's Fort under guard. Their arrival there elicited a reaction from General Sutter. He felt that a piece of foolishness had been committed in the Bear Flag Revolt and proceeded to treat the prisoners with great consideration. He wrote:

"When the prisoners arrived at the fort, I placed them in my best rooms and treated them with every consideration. I did not approve of these arrests; they savored to me of a futile show of impolitic force. The gentlemen took their meals at my table and walked with me in the evening. Neither did I place a guard at the door of the room, nor did I order the soldiers to accompany us when we were walking. I thought that it was wholly unnecessary to be more severe with them. They were men of property and there was no danger of their attempting to escape."

From the above, it may be gleaned that Sutter did not approve of the Bear Flag Revolt. Not believing in it, the question immediately arises concerning his willingness to co-operate with Fremont by incarcerating the prisoners at all. An inspection of some of the materials upon the episode reveals the fact that Sutter's Fort was probably taken out of its owner's hands at this time. Bancroft states that "Sutter was still nominally in command at the fort." Whether his control was anything more than this is difficult to determine. It is certain that Fremont did leave Lieutenant E. M. Kern and several soldiers at the fort. There is evidence which points to the fact that these men saw to it that Sutter did not release the prisoners. Sutter refers to these soldiers left at the fort by Fremont in the following language:

"Fremont returned to his camp a mile or two up the American River and left at my fort a small garrison of eight or ten men under the command of Lieutenant Edward Kern. I believed at first that these men were to assist me, but I discovered soon that they were left to act as spies over me." The next sentence in the narrative is significant. "Fremont taking with him all of my workmen and all of my best Indians, set out for Sonoma."

After the prisoners had been in Sutter's hands for several days, Fremont returned and accused Sutter of being too lenient with them. This aroused the anger of the kindly old captain, and he refused to have any more to do with them. Then Fremont placed Sutter's clerk, Locker, in charge of the prisoners. This gentleman did not like the task, and left to join the volunteers. John Bidwell was then placed in charge, and gave them almost as much liberty as had Sutter. Sutter continues:

"The prisoners were then placed in charge of Bidwell, who allowed them just as much liberty as they enjoyed when they were in my care. He taught Prudon English and received in return instruction in Spanish. I visited the prisoners frequently and often sat and talked with them, until one day Doctor Townsend warned me not to be too friendly with them if I did not wish to become a prisoner in my own house. I followed his well-meant advice and did not visit them again until we were under the American Flag."

In addition to these actions and statements of Sutter, which bespeak his disapproval of the Bear Flag movement, there is evidence, reported by Bidwell, that Sutter condemned Fremont for sanctioning the Bear Flag movement. Fremont is then supposed to have threatened to eject Sutter from the fort and take him down into the San Joaquin Valley.

It is certain that Sutter's attitude toward the Bear Flag Revolt decidedly weakened his position at the fort and his prestige among the American settlers in California To such an extent was this true that, during the Mexican War, the fort was known as Fort Sacramento. The name Fort Sutter was reapplied later.

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

"THE VERY LARGE AND RAPIDLY growing metropolitan area of which Los Angeles City is the center," says California Highways and Public Works, "is included in District VII of the State Division of Highways, and presents one of the most difficult and perplexing highway problems to be found anywhere in the United States.

"The district is comprised of Ventura, Los Angeles and Orange Counties, and includes 42 percent of the population of the state, 44.5 percent of the registered motor vehicles of the state, 40.2 percent of the assessed valuation of the state, 44.3 percent of the value of crop production, 37 percent of the total value of manufactured products of the state.

"District VII includes sixty-two incorporated cities. . . . The agricultural industry . . . has been surpassed by the rapidly and constantly growing manufacturing industry, the total value of which per year is now five times the value of all agricultural products of this area. The Port of Los Angeles has for many years been undergoing improvements, and is handling an increasingly large tonnage of freight. . . . A large proportion of the agricultural products and oil produced in the surrounding country is shipped through this port. . . .

"There is a tremendous interchange of freight, not only between the various parts of Ventura, Los Angeles and Orange Counties and the Port of Los Angeles, but with the Imperial Valley, the agricultural region east of Los Angeles, and the southern portion of the great San Joaquin Valley. So great is the interchange of freight between the San Joaquin Valley and the Port of Los Angeles, that the Ridge Route, which is the main connecting highway, now carries the greatest tonnage of freight of any highway in the western portion of the United States. . . .

"Although authentic data relative to present population are not available, it has been estimated by competent authorities that the coastal plain of 1,235 square miles immediately surrounding Los Angeles will, by 1950, have a population approximating 6,500,000."

ORGANIZE FOR ADMISSION DAY.

A joint committee of Los Angeles County Native Sons and Native Daughters has been organized to arrange for participation in the Admission Day celebration at San Francisco. Officers of the general committee are:

Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards of Compton Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W., chairman; Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., vice-chairman; Bernard G. Hiss of University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W., secretary; John O'B. Bodkin of Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W., treasurer.

Walter C. Richards of Wilmington
Grand Trustee N.S.G.W.
Chairman Admission Day Committee

A costume of a western nature has been selected by the committee for the celebration. All Parlors in District No. 1—Kern, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and San Diego Counties—will be invited to join forces in the southern California division of the Admission Day parade, September 9.

FEAST ON RABBIT.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W., to celebrate the election of Walter E. Smith as Grand Trustee and the appointment of Roger M. Johnson as Grand Organist, had its annual rabbit feast May 25. A hunting party composed of Charles and Oscar Bryant, Michael Botello, Dominic and Joe Palermo, Elmer Hanson, Wm. Mathes and Laurence Matrengo provided the seventy-five rabbits. They were prepared for the repast by "Chef" Thomas W. Golding, who was assisted by George C. Walker, Albert W. Metz, Willard F. Allen, Norman P. Pence, Peter de Catte, Rudolph L. Schwarzer, Carroll M. Manley, Vincent de Gruccio and Arthur L. Rotter. Neighboring Parlors were well represented among the many that enjoyed the feast. Michael Botello, good of the order chairman, presided at a kangaroo court and enriched the Parlor treasury. June 9 two candidates were initiated.

Beginning July 7, Los Angeles will meet every Friday night in Hall No. 4 of Odd Fellows Temple, 1828 Oak street. July 14 the officers-elect of the Parlor will be jointly installed with those of Hollywood Parlor No. 196 at public ceremonies in No. 45's new home. District Deputy Judge O. Benton Worley will officiate. Entertainment and refreshments will follow the installation ceremonies. July 28 there will be initiation, followed by entertainment and refreshments.—F.F.

BEACH PARTY.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. entertained June 7 Deputy Flora Jacobson, who was presented with lovely gifts from the Parlor and President Ann T. Schiebusch. July 19 the Parlor's newly-elected officers, with Louise B. McNary as president and Edna T. Neikirk as recording secretary, will be publicly installed. A cordial invitation to attend is extended all Natives.

Saturday afternoon and evening, July 29, Los Angeles will stage a party at Malibu La Costa Beach Club. Swimming will be an afternoon attraction. Supper, for which reservations must be made, will be served from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at 50 cents per person. May Packer is the general chairman. As many members will be on vacation, the Parlor will be dark during August.—E.T.N.

ELIGIBLES GUESTS AT TEA.

San Pedro — Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. had a tea June 9 at which native-born Californian women were guests. Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg, Florence Dodson-Schoneman and Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen briefly outlined important projects of the Order. Following a program by the Betty Elroy dancing school refreshments were served by Dessie Buyo and committee.

At election of officers June 8, Lucy Ascolesi was retained as president for another term. The Florencita Thimble Club of Rudecinda met June 7 at the home of Marcella Sandoval, and June 21 at the home of Vivian Soares.—R.B.

STAG PARTY.

San Pedro—As the closing social event of the term of President Jack Mele, Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. staged a stag party June 17 at Royal Palms Grove. A large gathering of members and their friends spent an enjoyable evening.

With Tom Allender as president, the officers-elect of the Parlor will be installed during July by District Deputy Clarence S. Hunt.

FOUR INITIATED.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. had a party honoring Supervising Deputy Hazel B. Hansen and Deputy Marguerite Mize June 1. In commemoration of Flag Day, the table decorations were carried out with United States of America Flags, with special favors for members having May and June birthdays. Gifts were presented the honor-guests. Mrs. L. T. Hacker, librarian, gave an interesting talk on "Romance and Early California History." Officers for the ensuing term were elected, and Josephine Reichman was retained as president.

June 15 the Parlor initiated four candidates. At a special social program following the ceremonies a welcome was extended the new members, and guests from Los Angeles No. 124 and Ontario No. 251 Parlors. A benefit card party under the auspices of the history and landmarks committee was held at the Rancho Los Amigos Club, with Margaret Burch, May Gillies, Alma Morrow and Alice Waldow as hostesses. The California Thimble Club met June 8 at the home of Alice Waldow, and June 29 at the home of Elnore Martin. Plans are being formulated for a July tour to a historical place in the Long Beach vicinity.—R.H.J.

FLAGS FOR HALL OF JUSTICE.

For display at the Hall of Justice, the Los Angeles County Native Sons of the Golden West presented the United States of America and the California State (Bear) Flags to Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz Flag Day, June 14.

Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer was chairman of the day, and the presentation addresses were delivered by Grand Trustees Walter C. Richards and Walter E. Smith.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

June 7, Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. had brief services in memory of those members who passed away during the past year: Charter Member Alfred H. L. Ducommun, Superior Judge Joseph P. Sproul and Secretary Edward J. Reilly. John O'B. Bodkin presided, James M. Lynch offered a prayer, and Captain Wm. A. Myers de-

PROCEEDINGS SAN FRANCISCO N.D.GRAND PARLOR

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

THE FIFTY-THIRD GRAND PARLOR of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, with Grand President Edna B. Briggs of La Bandera Parlor No. 110, Sacramento, presiding, convened June 19 at San Francisco for a four-day session. Members of La Bandera, in gowns of red chiffon and carrying garlands of red carnations, paid tribute to the Grand President by forming a heart through which the grand officers, in lovely dresses of sheer white, made their entrance.

Headed by Mrs. Carrie Roesch-Durham, who has the distinction of having attended every Grand Parlor, the Past Grand Presidents were introduced and escorted to seats of honor. Past Grand President Evelyn I. Carlson, chairman of the Grand Parlor Arrangements Committee, addressed the assemblage, saying:

"Upon this occasion, the convening of the Fifty-third Annual Grand Parlor, I desire to extend, on behalf of the thirty San Francisco Parlors, a very cordial welcome to our city. My committee, numbering thirty-nine members, is referred to as 'The Committee of 39 for '39,' and from the outset of our initial meeting last August up to this present moment the paramount thought has been and still is to make your stay as our guests as happy and interesting as you would wish it to be. . .

"There is much to be done here. We have a duty to perform, and that duty is to legislate wisely and well for the future betterment of our Order. Our duties, as Native Daughters, cover the entire category of a righteous life—duty to God, to country, to neighbor and to self. And today we have as our Grand President a woman whose daily creed has been 'Service to Others,' and the success that has accompanied these duties will be reported to you during the next four days. Therefore the time has arrived for an accounting of the year's activities, and I am certain it will be an inventory of the most friendly relations as well as one of inspirational and educational value to our members.

"And so, Worthy Grand President, the organization congratulates you upon a very successful administration, and we of San Francisco offer you our gracious and generous hospitality, hoping that our efforts as a combined unit of 2,900 members will make this Grand Parlor one of the happiest occasions of your life. And now, on behalf of 'The Committee of 39 for '39,' I have the extreme pleasure of presenting to you these flowers, as an expression of our high regard for you as a leader among leaders; and from the individual members of the committee I give to you this white ivory gavel, an emblem of authority, with the assurance of our gratitude for the privilege of serving you and the members of your Grand Parlor."

Grand President Briggs gave an extended account of her successful reign, and Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler gave a detailed report of the numerous transactions of that important office. The reports showed the Order to be in a flourishing condition, with a substantial membership increase the past year and a cash balance May 31, 1939, of $18,431.05 in the Grand Parlor General Fund.

In most instances, the reports of grand officers and committees dealt with matters heretofore given publicity in The Grizzly Bear. Follows a summary of the San Francisco Grand Parlor proceedings, with no reference, however, to proposals that failed of passage:

LEGISLATION ENACTED.

Art. VIII, Sec. 1b, Constitution Grand Parlor, amended to read: "No Subordinate Parlor shall invest any funds in real property or buildings, or make any expenditures for the improvement of the same, nor acquire any stock in any corporation, nor sell or otherwise dispose of such property, unless permission therefor shall have been secured from the Board of Control."

Art. X, Sec. X, Par. 3, Constitution Grand Parlor, amended to read: "Beneficiary members joining the Order either by initiation or card shall pay the Grand Parlor Death Benefit Fund assessment on the night of initiation; except in case where a withdrawal card was issued, provided that a new assessment was not levied between the issuing and depositing of a card."

Art. XI, Sec. 14, Constitution Grand Parlor, amended to read: "A percapita tax is required from all Parlors instituted prior to ninety days of the end of the term."

Art. IV, Sec. 1, Constitution Subordinate Parlors, amended to provide: "The Recording Secretary, the Financial Secretary and the Treasurer shall be elected at the first regular meeting in June."

Art. V, Sec. 3, Par. 2, Constitution Subordinate Parlors, amended to read: "All elections for officers must be by ballot, and a plurality of all the votes cast shall be necessary for a choice; except in cases where there is no opposition the candidates shall be elected by acclamation and their names omitted from the ballot."

Art. XIV, Sec. 1, Constitution Subordinate Parlors, amended by eliminating the provision that the President of each Subordinate Parlor shall, by virtue of her office, be a delegate to the Grand Parlor. As amended, the law now provides that all delegates must be elected by ballot.

Resolved, "That each Parlor amend [its] Bylaws [to provide] for a Legislative Committee whose duties shall be to investigate proposed State and National legislation affecting the rights of the citizens of California and the projects of our Order, [and] to bring the same to the attention of the Parlor at the earliest moment for consideration."

Resolved, "That all Grand Parlor Chairmen of Committees, if present at the Grand Parlor, automatically be allowed the courtesy of the floor at Grand Parlor to give their annual committee reports."

Resolved, "That when a member has resigned and desires to again affiliate with the same Parlor she may do so by paying no less than three months' dues."

Dedication Ceremonies, prepared and submitted by a committee authorized by the 1938 (Santa Barbara) Grand Parlor, were adopted, and it was ordered that "Subordinate Parlors be privileged to elaborate the Ceremonies with musical numbers."

Slight changes in the Rituals and the Installation Ceremonies were authorized.

BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

Oakland, Alameda County, was selected as the meetingplace for the Fifty-fourth (1940) Grand Parlor.

A design for an official grave marker was approved, but its use is optional with Subordinate Parlors.

The mileage bill for the session, approximately $1,560, was approved.

A registration fee of $2, to be paid by the personnel of the Grand Parlor, was authorized, the total sum to be at the disposal of the Grand Parlor entertainment committee.

Golden Era Parlor No. 99, Columbia, and Sierra Parlor No. 268, Alleghany, were excused for non-representation and exempted from fines.

On recommendation Grand President Briggs, $50 was contributed to the Mission San Miguel restoration fund.

For prizes for the drill team and drum corps competitions in San Francisco June 18, $50 was appropriated.

Toward the purchase of a flagpole for Sutter's Fort, Sacramento, $50 was contributed.

An appropriation of $500 was made, to be used by the incoming Grand President "for the extension of the Order through good publicity."

The percapita tax was fixed at $1.00, payable 50 cents in July 1939 and 50 cents in January 1940, and the Home assessment was fixed at 35 cents.

The incoming Grand President, Board of Grand Trustees and Board of Control were given full power to act in the matter of the incorporation in 1933 of Annie K. Bidwell Parlor No. 168, Chico, without the consent of the Grand Parlor.

The Grizzly Bear Magazine was re-endorsed as the official publicity organ of the Order, and financial provision was made for the publication of the Official Directory of Subordinate Parlors therein.

Ordered that two scholarships be maintained at Mills College; that in future the fund be designated "The Grand Parlor Mills College Student Loan Fund," and "that those who receive scholarships shall reimburse the Grand Parlor when able to do so."

Expressing the opinion "that American troops should not be transported from this country to fight on foreign soil on behalf of any other country," a resolution was adopted declaring that the Order is "unalterably opposed to the use of American troops on foreign soil in any war, excepting one of aggrandizement against or attack upon the United States or any of its possessions."

Ordered that the incoming Grand President continue the Junior Auxiliaries Committee, and that "Subordinate Parlors interested in the formation of Junior Auxiliaries be accorded the privilege of forming them along the requirements of their particular sections of the State, and that they report three months prior to the convening of the Grand Parlor."

The granting of charters to the following Subordinate Parlors by Grand President Briggs was ratified: East Los Angeles No. 266, Los Angeles City; La Reina No. 267, Los Angeles City; Sierra No. 268, Alleghany, Sierra County; Topanga No. 269, Canoga Park, Los Angeles County; Coalinga No. 270, Coalinga, Fresno County; Wawona No. 271, Fresno City; Sequoia No. 272, Berkeley, Alameda County.

PUBLICITY VALUE DETERMINED BY QUALITY RATHER THAN QUANTITY.

Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, chairman, reporting for the Grand Parlor Publicity Committee, said, in part:

"The working forces of our committee have labored loyally, enthusiastically and unceasingly to establish results of abiding value. We have tried valiantly to be torchbearers, that the light of truth and understanding regarding our organization may penetrate dark places and develop a keener realization of the worth and power that is rightfully ours, with a wider appreciation of our true setup.

"The changing world of today measures accomplishments of an organization not so much by what it SAYS as by what it really DOES, and the value of our publicity, through the printed word, is determined largely by its QUALITY rather than by its QUANTITY. We do sincerely believe that the publicity of the past year has been characterized generally by good taste and dignity worthy of the Order. . . .

"Again do we urgently request all members to support actively our one and only official organ—THE GRIZZLY BEAR—a publication which gives authentic knowledge of our homeland in the form of our State's past history, present development and future outlook. In its columns can be found invaluable references and news to be found in no other publication. Published messages of the Grand Presidents of our two allied organizations—the Native Daughters and the Native Sons of the Golden West—are encouraging and uplifting. Stories of activities of subordinate units are interesting and helpful and inspiring.

"Manifest your fraternal and your personal appreciation of the untiring efforts of the editor—that faithful and loyal Native Son, Clarence M. Hunt,—by contributing news items and, most important of all, by your subscriptions to the magazine. For the very small sum of $1.50, twelve issues will come to you, replete with facts and entertaining news. After reading each issue, you cannot honestly fail to admit that your money has been well spent."

COMMENDED FOR GENEROSITY.

The following resolution, proposed by the Board of Grand Trustees, was adopted by the Grand Parlor:

"Whereas, Emma G. Foley, our esteemed Past Grand President, has deeded to the Grand Parlor of the Native Daughters of the Golden West certain properties located in Marin County for use in connection with the Native Daughters Home, to have and to hold after she shall have passed from this earthly life; and whereas, during the remainder of her lifetime our esteemed Sister will maintain this property free of expense to the Order of the Native Daughters of the Golden West; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, that this Grand Parlor express its grateful appreciation to our beloved P. G. P. Emma G. Foley for her generosity, with the hope that she may enjoy her home for many years to come."

NEW GRAND OFFICERS.

At the election for grand officers, 392 ballots were cast, and the following were chosen:

Grand President—Orinda Gunther-Giannini of Orinda Parlor No. 56.

Grand Vice-president—Hazel Bruschi-Hansen of Verdugo Parlor No. 240.

Grand Secretary—Sallie R. Thaler of Aloha Parlor No. 106.

Grand Treasurer—Agnes M. Curry of Portola Parlor No. 172.

Grand Marshal—Claire Lindsey of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158.

Grand Inside Sentinel—Doris Treat of San Andreas Parlor No. 113.

Noerenberg of Californiana Parlor No. 247, Ethel Enos of Morada Parlor No. 199, Dora E. Brayton of Bahia Vista Parlor No. 167, Evalyn G. Towne of Miocene Parlor No. 228.

They, together with Edna B. Briggs of La Bandera Parlor No. 110, who automatically became the Past Grand President, were publicly installed by Worthy Supreme Grand President Ethel I. Begley, assisted by Supreme Grand Chairman Rose Rhyner, Supreme Grand Vice-president Alice Oldham, Supreme Grand Marshal Clarice Cook, Supreme Grand Organist Lucile Russell, Supreme Grand Sentinels Elvena Woodard and Edna Sampson.

Numerous presentations were made at the close of the ceremonies, including an official ring to Past Grand President Edna B. Briggs, which was presented on the Order's behalf by

DEMONSTRATE PRIDE IN CITIZENSHIP

MRS. ORINDA GUNTHER-GIANNINI of San Francisco, affiliated with Orinda Parlor No. 56, became the Grand President of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West at the Fifty-third Grand Parlor, which met in San Francisco. Addressing the assembled representatives of the Subordinate Parlors from all sections of California following her induction into office, June 22, she said:

"Distinguished Guests, Delegates to This Fifty-third Grand Parlor and Friends: Another year has gone down into history for our Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, and another Grand President has joined the ranks of our esteemed Past Grand Presidents, that group of noble women who have contributed so unselfishly to the progress and the welfare of our great Order.

"As we step across the threshold of a new year, and I assume the office of Grand President, it is with pardonable pride for the exalted privilege which you have conferred on me. And it is with great hope for the coming year that I pledge to you my very best efforts in the furtherance of the aims and the principles set down by the founders of our organization.

"Under the guidance of our late Founder Lily O. Reichling Dyer, that inspired band of Pioneers established a lasting foundation. Their ideals have been the inspiration and the guiding star for not only those highly favored members who have been honored before me with the Grand Presidency, but also for the other members of our Order who have been responsible in a very great measure, too, for the success and the standing which we now enjoy.

"We have traveled far since that eventful day, September 11, 1886, when thirty-three native-born California women first met and organized in the little mining town of Jackson. The four great principles which they set forth—'Love of Home, Devotion to our Flag, Veneration of the Pioneers, and Abiding Faith in the Existence of God,'—have been the impelling force that has carried us upward and onward, until today we stand, nearly 14,000 strong, a potential force in our State of California.

"California, with her great mountains, her waterfalls, her fertile valleys, her blue skies, her endless treasure of minerals, fruits and flowers, stretching before us in an endless panorama, stamped by the hand of Fate and destined for an Empire. What an incomparable heritage! Man's birthright is a sacred thing. The birthright of a Californian is the noblest 'heritage of all the ages!'

"But our Pioneers' 'Love of Home' extended beyond the four walls of their personal existence. They were ever ready to protect the life of their communities; they were eager to assist in the advancement of their State, and stood loyal to the principles set forth by the leaders of our great Nation. Our Westerners were real Americans!

"We, as Californians, are proud of the contribution of our men and women to the cause of our great Republic. California's part in the history of these United States has been vital to the extreme. What California has done for civilization, what she is today, was made possible by that devoted army of men and women, our Pioneers, who braved the perils of the journey to California that they might win home and fortune. None but the brave embarked on that perilous journey; none but the strong and the courageous endured, and withstood heartaches and hardships until they finally reached these golden shores.

Mrs. Orinda Gunther-Giannini
Orinda Parlor No. 56, San Francisco
Grand President N.D.G.W.

"Since time began, women have given strength to men! Women's words have been whispered, but they have resounded all over the world. Their influence has been lasting, because throughout the centuries their emphasis has been on human values. What a debt of gratitude we owe the loyal, loving Pioneer Mother. She faced unflinchingly the dangers of the vast untracked West with heroic fortitude never surpassed. She struggled and toiled, bearing the burden of man's hopes, yet no soul was ever more tenderly affectionate.

"As California has been a potent factor in the growth and the development of our Nation, so have the women of California played an important part in the upbuilding of our State. Their devotion to home has made for good citizenship. They knew that the strength of a Nation lies in the stability of its homes, and that it is out of the home and the family that the political foundations and the social ideals of a country are drawn. Theirs has been a great power for usefulness.

"This, then, is the service which the members of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West have [illegible] to perform. It is our [illegible] Grand President [illegible] We feel it not only our duty but a pleasure, to put forth every effort [illegible] in order [illegible] power for good in our [illegible] I pledge [illegible] we reiterate that pledge [illegible] and [illegible] new to the service of our [illegible]

"Just how [illegible] shall be my endeavor to [illegible] tion in civic affairs [illegible] how the [illegible] and the [illegible] for those interested [illegible] land than to continue in the [illegible] by which they [illegible] this privilege.

"As a patriotic organization, we [illegible] true Americanism as one of the prime requisites for membership. There has never been a time in the history of our beloved America when there was greater need to stress Americanism than at the present time. Let us, on every occasion, demonstrate our pride in our citizenship by taking the lead in patriotic practices and activities.

"The many and the varied [illegible] and projects which we sponsor—the homeless children, the Native Daughters Home, scholarships, veterans welfare, civic welfare, collection of pioneer relics, Pioneer to-let, marking of historical landmarks—are an incentive to every Native Daughter to find her field of endeavor.

"Socially, financially, numerically and through our civic and welfare activities we take our place as the leading woman's fraternal organization in our State. Without doubt there are many California born women who would eagerly accept an invitation to join our ranks. Be on the alert to extend the hand of welcome to these potential members, thereby insuring our growth and development.

"Many of our Parlors have found that, in addition to district meetings, joint meetings on the occasion of the official visit of the Grand President of distinct benefit, and I shall encourage a greater number among my visitations. In this way we can promote unity of purpose and greater social activity, affording an opportunity for inspiration, which must naturally result in the publicity we desire.

"Good publicity is of extreme importance. Remember that good publicity must be news. Through this avenue we can add materially to the foundation upon which our future efforts will be built, for only by advertising can we make known the value and the influence of our Order today.

"A great trust accepted implies a corresponding obligation. But I am confident of the support and the co-operation of every member during the coming year. Only with your help can we achieve our goal. It is with deep humility that I follow in the path of my illustrious predecessors, and to the best of my ability I will emulate their examples.

"I should be remiss indeed if I did not take this golden opportunity to express to Past Grand President Emma G. Foley and the members of Orinda Parlor my heartfelt thanks for their constancy and encouragement these many years. No words of mine can ever repay the love and the loyalty which they have given me. But as I ask them to share this honor which has been conferred on me in my beloved City of San Francisco, my only hope is that they, too, will find my humble efforts worthy of their confidence.

"To my many friends whose good wishes and words of cheer have made these past years so very happy, my sincere appreciation; and to my family, who have been so loving and generous in their attentions, my love and grateful thanks.

"In offering my congratulations to my official family, I extend my sincere good wishes for much happiness in your work for the coming year. It is my hope that as you return to your various homes, you will continue actively as leaders in your communities.

"It is our duty to advance in order to achieve power sufficient to help lift the way of life for all with whom we come in contact. As true Americans, we long to see our country become an effective democracy, and we covet for men and women, and for the younger generation which may now be in our keeping, both security and opportunity.

"In these turbulent times, we must evaluate with clear heads and sound judgment, keeping always in mind that it is our duty to point the way for the women of California. This is a challenge worthy of true democracy, for our future lies not in the hands of just a few, but in the hearts, the deeds and the minds of many."

Past Grand President Evelyn I. Carlson. Lucile Huntoon of La Bandera Parlor No. 110, representing the supervising deputy grand presidents and the deputy grand presidents, presented to her a diamond wrist watch.

Grand President Orinda G. Giannini was escorted to her high station by members of her home-Parlor, Orinda No. 56, attired in gold and white and carrying muffs with red roses, while Elsie Dethlefsen of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 sang "Because." Mrs. Giannini, too, was the recipient of many gifts, including a remembrance from her husband and sons, who were present to witness the installation. The Grand President pledged her best efforts in furtherance of the principles, the aims and the objects of the Order. Her address, following the installation, appears in full in this issue of The Grizzly Bear.

NOTES OF THE SESSION.

Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs was appointed press chairman for the session.

Chairman May Lucas of the Music Committee directed the Grand Parlor community singing.

During the memorial ceremonies June 19 Founder Lilly Obert Reichling-Dyer, recently deceased, was eulogized by Mrs. Emma Boarman-Wright of Ursula Parlor No. 1.

Dr. Raymond Gettell, professor of political science at the University of California, delivered an inspiring educational address, in the course of which he stressed the importance and necessity of education in its broadest sense, and complimented the Native Daughters for their splendid work in making California a better place in which to live.

Miss Wilda Enos of Vendome Parlor No. 100, blind honor student at the San Jose State College, entertained with piano selections.

Grand President Jesse H. Miller and Grand Secretary John T. Regan extended greetings on behalf of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. They were accompanied by Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Trustee Richard F. McCarthy, Grand Marshal Louis Bosch, Grand Outside Sentinel George Bruno and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy.

Miss Mary E. Brusie, secretary N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Central Homeless Children Committee, at an open session June 21 made her annual report, always of paramount interest to Native Daughters, giving a resume of the worthwhile work accomplished by the outstanding project. Prior to her talk, she introduced Dr. Carol Russell and Roberta Bugherig, who expressed appreciation for the fine foster-parents and homes selected for them.

GRAND PARLOR COMMITTEES REPORTS.

Education, Past Grand President Irma W. Laird chairman: Subordinate Parlors are responding to the educational program.

Americanism: Subordinate Parlors have shown enthusiasm in this project, and have come to realize the necessity of Americanism.

Pioneer Roster and Relics, Past Grand President Florence D. Boyle chairman: Names 717 Pioneers added to roster past year, and the number of relics materially increased.

Mills College Scholarship, Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola chairman: Five applications are on file for the scholarship.

Mrs. Hazel Bruschi-Hansen
Verdugo Parlor No. 240, Glendale
Grand Vice-president N.D.G.W.

Veterans Welfare, Miss Anne Schiebusch, Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 chairman: "The splendid response from the Subordinate Parlors has indeed been most gratifying. This work of love touches a responsive chord in everybody's heart. . . . As one of the foundation stones upon which our great Order was founded is Charity, we are endeavoring in our small way to give an example of this great virtue by bringing love and cheer to those who have given so much in the service of our great Nation. Our Heavenly Father will not let our efforts go unrewarded."

Mrs. Sallie Rutherford-Thaler
Aloha Parlor No. 106, Oakland
Re-elected Grand Secretary N.D.G.W.

Welfare, Imelda Bawden, Caliz de Oro Parlor No. 206, chairman: Many Subordinate Parlors have functioned in this project, giving aid to their own members, people outside the Order and to forgotten mothers in hospitals.

Junior Auxiliaries: Two organized the past year, and another is now in process of formation.

Civic, Genevieve Didion, La Bandera Parlor No. 110, chairman: The Order and the Subordinate Parlors have gained favorable public recognition through participation in civic enterprises.

Drill Teams and Drum Corps, Rena Taube, Genevieve Parlor No. 132, chairman: These auxiliaries keep younger members interested in the Order.

SCRAPBOOK AWARDS.

Forty-four Subordinate Parlors were represented in the display of scrapbooks. Awards were made as follows:

Group No. 1 (communities of less than 10,000 population)—Chispa Parlor No. 40, Ione, prizewinner; Gold of Ophir Parlor No. 190, Oroville, and Desert Gold Parlor No. 250, Mojave, special mention.

Group No. 2 (cities from 10,000 to 50,000 population)—Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126, Santa Barbara, prizewinner; El Tejon Parlor No. 239, Bakersfield, and Vendome Parlor No. 100, San Jose, special mention.

Group No. 3 (cities of more than 50,000 population)—Long Beach Parlor No. 154, Long Beach, prizewinner; Argonaut Parlor No. 166, Oakland, and Gabrielle Parlor No. 139, San Francisco, special mention.

GRAND TRUSTEES ENTERTAIN.

The evening of June 19 the Grand Trustees honored Grand President Edna B. Briggs at a dinner. Chairman Rose Rhyner had charge of arrangements. The color scheme was yellow and gold—yellow for California's sunshine and the results of the sun; gold for California's hidden resources.

The theme, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," was carried out by the following personnel: Snow White, Grand President Briggs; Prince Charming, Grand Vice-president Orinda Giannini; Seven Dwarfs, Grand Trustees Rhyner, Ethel Enos, Ruth Sesna, Evalyn Towne, Emily Ryan, Mary Noerenberg, Alice Oldham. At the beginning of the dinner the guests donned masks of the dwarfs and sang "Whistle While You Work."

The table was centered with a mound of "Secret Pal" gifts wrapped in yellow and gold, with ribbons extending to each plate, where stood an attractive doll dressed as Snow White. Each guest was called on to contribute a song, a reading or a "stunt." At the close of the social period, more serious matters occupied the group's attention.—B.A.B.

PAST GRANDS' REUNION.

The annual reunion dinner of the Past Grand Presidents was held Wednesday evening, June 21, with Mae Himes-Noonan as the hostess. The large oval table was centered with an electrically lighted replica of the Tower of the Sun, encircled by gardenia corsages with silver bows. At each plate was a large chocolate pattie in golden wrapping, bearing views of the Golden Gate International Exposition, and a placecard with the seal of the exposition.

Ethel I. Begley was welcomed into the "College of Past Grand Presidents," and was presented with a California bear. Emma Lou Humphrey and Bertha A. Briggs were re-elected, respectively, president and secretary. As a special feature of the occasion, Dr. Mariana Bertola, on behalf of the Past Grand Presidents, presented an exquisite beaded bag to Carrie Roesch-Durham in recognition of the fiftieth anniversary of her election as Grand President of the Order.

In attendance at the reunion were Past Grand Presidents Carrie Roesch-Durham, Mae B. Wilkin, Dr. Mariana Bertola, Cora B. Sifford, Eliza D. Keith, Stella Finkeldey, Ariana W. Stirling, Emma Gruber-Foley, Emma Lou Humphrey, Mamie G. Peyton, May C. Boldemann, Grace S. Stoermer, Mary E. Bell, Bertha A. Briggs, Mattie M. Stein, Amy V. McAvoy, Pearl Lamb, Mae Himes-Noonan, Esther R. Sullivan, Evelyn I. Carlson, Irma W. Laird, Gladys E. Noce, Anne C. Thuesen, Florence Danforth-Boyle and Ethel I. Begley.

DISTRICT 26 BREAKFAST.

Representatives of the Subordinate Parlors in District No. 26, embracing Santa Cruz, Monterey and San Benito Counties,—Santa Cruz No. 26, Santa Cruz; El Pajaro No. 35, Watsonville; Aleli No. 102, Salinas; Copa de Oro No. 105, Hollister; Junipero No. 141, Monterey; San Juan Bautista No. 179, San Juan Bautista;—had their annual breakfast get-together June 20 and discussed district affairs.

In attendance were Past Grand Presidents Ariana W. Stirling, Stella Finkeldey and Bertha A. Briggs, Catherine B. Nyland, Mrs. W. W. Black, Mary Antonetti, Dorothy Barber, Viola Clough, Myrtle Allison, Grand Trustee Rose Rhyner, Rose M. Lavernetti, Hattie S. Grimes, Lillian Brindero, Vira Albaugh, Nettie McKenzie, Ella McGrath, Lila Melendy, Charlotte Berberick, Erma Pivetti, Luene Jensen and Mildred H. Peers.

SON JAYHAWKER PIONEER CROSSES THE GREAT DIVIDE.

Buellton (Santa Barbara County)—Henry Doty, son of Edward Doty, a member of the Jayhawker Party that came to California via the southern route and Death Valley in 1849, died near here June 14.

He was born December 12, 1855, near San Jose, Santa Clara County, and with his parents came to Santa Barbara County in 1868. He also resided in Contra Costa County many years. Surviving are his wife and two children.

SANTA BARBARA
OLD SPANISH DAYS FIESTA AND SHERIFF'S POSSE SUPPER

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

SANTA BARBARA—SANTA BARBARA Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. has begun preparation for the annual dinner honoring the Los Angeles County sheriff's posse, an event of the Old Spanish Days Fiesta which it especially sponsors. In past years the dinner, which follows the historic parade, a highlight of the fiesta that draws 100,000 visitors to the Channel City, has been held at the Montecito Country Club. This year Chairman A. C. Dinsmore of the dinner committee and President Frank Huffman of the Parlor have secured the beautiful gardens of Samarkand Hotel for the occasion. Tables will be spread in the oriental gardens of the hotel, the property of Mrs. Alma Spreckels Awl, and there will be room for allcomers in a setting of unrivaled beauty. Barbecued steak will be the chief item on the menu, although the dinner is far removed from the barbecue class. There will be a round of professional entertainment.

To the Native Sons goes the honor of being the first organization to climb into Spanish costume in advance of this year's Old Spanish Days Fiesta, which starts the evening of August 2. A delegation of ten officers and members motored to Ventura recently to attend a banquet of Cabrillo Parlor No. 114 of that city, which was followed by the initiation of a large class of candidates. All of the Santa Barbara delegation wore their Spanish costumes, and issued personal invitations to the Ventura Sons to attend the fiesta banquet. This invitation is herewith extended to Native Sons all over California, and they are asked to bring their wives.

MARSHALING MUSICAL CHEST SUPPORT.

Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. held an important meeting the evening farewell was said to the Parlor's delegation to the Grand Parlor at San Francisco. Honored were President Ida Ireland, Mmes. Henry Griffith and William Wegener, vice-presidents, Mrs. Wesley McCormick, deputy grand president, and Alternates Vivian Cavette and Mabel Erwin.

June 13, with Mrs. Clarence Longmire, third vice-president, presiding, Reina del Mar received a report on support being marshaled for the Musical Chest of the Summer Festival in the Santa Barbara County Bowl.

The National Education Association will hold its seventy-seventh annual summer session at San Francisco July 2-6.

Symphonies Under the Stars will open for the eighteenth season in the Hollywood Bowl, Los Angeles, July 11.

The San Diego County Fair will be held July 1-4 at Del Mar.

SAN BERNARDINO

SAN BERNARDINO—ARROWHEAD Parlar No. 110 N.S.G.W. elected officers June 7 and retained Leon Gregory as president. A program of amateur boxing bouts was presented by Dr. Herman Katz, and John Andreson Jr. headed a committee that served refreshments. June 14 an interesting Flag Day program was enjoyed.

June 17 the Parlor met at its Crestline clubhouse, and following dinner several candidates were initiated. Elmer Hoien was chairman of the evening. June 28 was "public officials night" at Arrowhead. Jerome Kavanaugh was master of ceremonies, and the speaker was Ben Harrison, United States Attorney for the Southern District of California, a member of the Parlor.

PRESIDENT SURPRISED.

San Bernardino—Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. surprised Mary Ellen Lee with a shower of pottery at the home of President Marguerite McKenzie May 25. Miss Lee is to be the bride of Leland Harris, the son of Charter Member Henrietta Harris. June 13 the Parlor sponsored a surprise birthday party and handkerchief shower for President McKenzie. Dorothy Ravn and Betty Sanders of Verdugo Parlor No. 240, Glendale, were visitors. Buffet refreshments were served at a table centered with a bowl of larkspur.—H.P.

PAST PRESIDENTS TO INSTALL.

Crestline—Arrowhead Past Presidents Assembly No. 14 N.S.G.W. will meet Saturday, July 22, at Crestline, in the San Bernardino Mountains. At that time the officers elected at the recent Compton meeting will be installed by D.D.G.G. Roy W. Tarleton. Harold G. Lord will become the Association's governor.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

SANTA CRUZ—A WISHING WELL planned to increase funds for the care of homeless children, constructed by Santa Cruz No. 26 and Santa Cruz No. 90 N.S.G.W., was dedicated May 28 in the presence of a large assemblage. Thomas Kelley was master of ceremonies, and the invocation was delivered by Past Grand Stella Finkeldey.

Grand Trustee Rose Rhyner gave the dedicatory address, in the course of which she discussed the significance of the three famous American birds, the eagle, the turkey and the stork, featured in the design of the wishing well. Other speakers were Mayor C. D. Hinkle and J. R. Williamson. The program closed with "I Love You, California," sung by Mrs. Arista Mellor to the accordion accompaniment of Dave Ferrari.

Santa Cruz No. 26 had its monthly birthday supper May 29, the tables being decorated with seasonable flowers. Services in memory of departed members were also held, and Josephine H. Grellmann, accompanied by Edna Mosher, sang two hymns. The supper committee included Mrs. Grellmann, Evelyn Logan, Belle Breece, Vivian Rice, Myra Parrish and Josephine Bergin.

NEWSY N.D.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Merced—Veritas No. 75 has forwarded $28.60 to the Central Homeless Children Committee. The Parlor's newly elected officers will be installed July 18.—F.B.

Oakland—Piedmont No. 87 entertained in honor of Supervising Deputy Marion E. White and Deputy Mae Ellis June 14. In recognition of Flag Day, the meetingroom was attractively decorated in red, white and blue. Five candidates were initiated. Past Grand Sue J. Irwin gave a very inspiring address on "Our Flag," Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler spoke briefly, and Supervising Deputy White thanked the Alameda County deputies for their co-operation the past year. Musical selections were rendered by Florence Engle, Irma Callaghan and Carol King, and May Ward gave a recitation. Gifts were presented President Augusta Kramm and others.

Arrangements for the enjoyable affair were made by a committee which included Gretta Murden, chairman, P. Reardon, M. Wilson, H. McGuire, E. Jenkins, E. Paul, L. Bruning and A. Kramm. Buffet refreshments were served.

San Jose—Clara A. Gairaud of Vendome No. 100, Chairman Grand Parlor Radio Committee, broadcast over station KQW June 1, her topic being "Aims and Objects of the N.D.G.W."

Hollister—The revealing of the identity of "Secret Pals" at a costume party and covered-dish dinner was a happy occasion for eighty-four members of Copa de Oro No. 105 and visiting groups from Santa Cruz and Salinas. "Happy birthday" was the theme of the June 7 meeting, when the Parlor accorded special honors to members born in July, August and September. Delicious refreshments were served. Copa de Oro made a liberal donation to the fund for transporting schoolchildren to the Golden Gate International Exposition on San Benito County day.

San Rafael—Marinita No. 198 celebrated its twenty-seventh birthday at a June 14 banquet. In recognition of Flag Day, red, white and blue predominated in the decorations. Vocal selections were rendered by Ruth Ferrari and Organist Muriel Miller, Thelma Fitz danced, and comedy stunts were provided by Elizabeth Carl, Zoura Tompkins, Mollye Spaelti and Bertha Watson. President Georgiana Gabb introduced the honor guests: Past Grands Emma G. Foley and Ethel I. Begley, Supervising Deputy Zoura Tompkins, Deputy Julia Kelso, Charter Members Ann Andrade, Ann Spinney, Etta Akers, Lillian Hogan, Myra Murphy, Clara Noonan, May Philippini, Rose Redmond and Vida Vollers. The arrangements committee included Gertrude Hediger, chairman, Dorothy Vossbrink, Pauline Fee, Eleanor Fritz, Ann Johnson, May Foster, Olthea Dieckman and Viola Borba.—B.E.W.

Petaluma—Petaluma No. 222 observed its seventeenth institution anniversary at a turkey dinner June 6. Among the many attending were Charter Members Florence Andersen, Josephine Tagliaferri, Elizabeth Dillon, Pearl Hickey, Julia Perolini, Bessie Bello, Emma Tomasi and Edna Meadows. Honor-guests were Supervising Deputy Zoura Tompkins and Deputy Lena Mello. President Amy Plow delivered an address of welcome. At election of officers Pearl Hickey was chosen president.

Placentia—Grace No. 242 entertained some eighty oldtimers at a luncheon. This is an annual affair greatly enjoyed by northern Orange County Pioneers. The oldest guest is 85, the oldest native about 63, and the oldest White girl born in Fullerton, then North Anaheim, about 62. Thomas McFadden was master of ceremonies, and several of the Pioneers graciously responded to his call. Johanna Kent, Clara Liedtka and Anna May Hawkins entertained with musical selections and readings. Tillie Enfield was general chairman of the occasion.—L.O.

Albany—Albany No. 260 had a miscellaneous wedding shower for Organist Ester Palmberg and a party for members having May birthdays. The sewing club met June 5 at the San Pablo home of Mildred Johanson and worked on pillowcases for the June 28 whist. Officers, with A. Stallone as president, were elected June 14, and will be installed July 26.—H.T.

Loyalton—Loyal No. 264 dedicated June 7 the new Loyalton School. President Edna Schroeder planted two shrubs at the entrance, the drill team participating in the ceremony. A delegation from Imogen No. 134 of Sierraville attended.

Sebastopol—Sebastopol No. 265 enjoyed a ceremony commemorating Flag Day, presented June 16 under the supervision of Program Chairman Alazuma Singmaster. Refreshments were served by Cora Elvy and committee. Among the visitors were Deputy Lenora Mello and Mary McKay of San Francisco. Alice Clapp will head Sebastopol's new corps of officers.—G.T.

Alleghany—Sierra No. 268 had a Fathers Night program June 15 arranged by a committee composed of Mrs. J. Messick, chairman, Roberta Ward, Mabel Davies, Maud Clemo, Mary Davies and Hazel Davies. At election of officers June 1 Thelma Carvin was chosen president.

San Jose—Mrs. Gertrude Roberts is the newly-elected president of Santa Clara County Past Presidents Association No. 3. A series of whist and bridge parties is being given. A rummage sale was in charge of State Marshal Alice Roll and Julia Waddington. Claire Borchers has done notable work as welfare chairman. Food and clothes have been sent several families, and more than 500 pairs of shoes have been given away.—C.A.G.

OLD SONOMA
HOME OF THE BEAR FLAG

(This is the essay, prepared and delivered by Evelyn Savoie of the Sacramento High School, Sacramento, that won for her first place in the final of the 1939 essay contest, sponsored by the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, at the San Francisco Grand Parlor. The essay here published is exactly as submitted by its author.—Editor)

IN THE BEAUTIFUL SONOMA VALLEY A simple but striking ceremony took place the morning of July 4, 1823. Padre Jose Altimira and his tiny group of followers were awakened early, for here in this unexplored valley, called by the Indians the "Valley of the Moon," a special ceremony was to take place. Looking about him, the padre found only the materials of nature to work with, so he fashioned a cross from tree limbs and an altar from interwoven willow boughs, and carefully placed them under a spreading oak tree. Quietly the padre and his followers knelt before their little altar, and thus was founded the Mission San Salano de Sonoma.

The work of saving souls at the mission soon began in earnest. The Indians were taught the story of Christ in a simple and childlike way, until they too wanted to worship a white man's God. Altimira's good work lasted only two years, but during that time the mission and its work were truly blessed. They planted huge vineyards and orchards, many sheep and cattle grazed peacefully on fine pasture lands, and there was the promise of an abundance of crops.

Quietly the work at the mission went on until Mexico received her independence from Spain, and California was for a time a province of Mexico. However, under Mexican rule the missions were not cared for, and in a short time most of them were despoiled and ruined. San Salano had stood out as a candle giving light and faith to many, but in 1843 that candle no longer burned; the little mission was ordered closed.

During the period that followed the missions were turned over to military rule, but San Salano was quite fortunate, for she received an outstanding leader, Mariano Vallejo. Vallejo, a very colorful person, was made military commander of the post, with orders and directions to colonize the northern frontier. He truly had a responsibility, when we realize that he was only 25 years old; but somehow, tall and erect in bearing, he carried out his work with a natural military air that soon placed him as a just and able leader.

In 1835, the Valley of Sonoma was chosen for locating colonists, and Vallejo's settlement became one of peace and goodwill, for Vallejo was the most just, liberal and humane commissioner of all California. In a short time he had made many changes in Sonoma. A new pueblo was laid out around a large plaza. At the northeast corner of the square stood the old mission church and the padre's house, the only buildings left to remind the Indians of their religious life under the beloved padres.

NATIVE SONS

Among the speakers were Grand President Miller, State V. Ash, Superintendent of County Schools, California Congress, president P.T.A., and Florence D. Boyle, Past Grand, the President N.D.G.W.

Ferndale—Ferndale No. 93 elected officers June 5, Earl Cox being selected for president. Installation, with District Deputy Lee Diedrichsen officiating, will be held early in July. Luther Derr, a member of the Order since November 12, 1886, was presented a 50-year emblem, Henry Giacomini making the presentation address. A strawberry feast was enjoyed at the meeting's close. Ferndale has received many compliments for the fine Memorial Day ceremonies conducted under its auspices.

San Diego—Flag Day, June 14, was observed at Old Town, where California began, with impressive ceremonies under the auspices of San Diego No. 105. As the United States Marine Base Band played appropriate airs, four flags were raised. Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer was the master of ceremonies. Henry U. Emery spoke for the Spanish flag, Dr. N. P. Nasatir for the Mexican flag, Carl Heilbron for the California Republic (Bear) flag, and William J. Collard for the United States of America Flag. The Parlor is sponsoring an Admission Day, September 9, celebration; Joseph C. Kelley is the general chairman.

Alameda—Halcyon No. 146 celebrated its fiftieth birthday at a banquet June 3. Charter members F. C. Youngberg and Charles Shepard were among the many present. Past Grand Joseph R. Knowland was master of ceremonies, and speakers included Judge Homer Spence, Judge Ed. Otis, F. Lindeman, President F. A. Stahl, H. P. Wichman and Herbert D. Clark. Miniature gold bear pins were presented A. T. Anderson, W. J. Nicholas and C. W. Lindeman, members of the Parlor a quarter-century. Halcyon was instituted in 1889 by Grand President Frank D. Ryan.

Centerville—At the California Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias which recently met in Santa Cruz, Past Grand Chancellor Frank T. Dusterberry, charter member of Washington No. 169, was elected California Representative to the Supreme Lodge at Cincinnati, Ohio.

Taft—Taft No. 276 had a picnic at Pioneer Park June 11 at which races and other sports were featured. At noon a barbecue was enjoyed. Dan Rios headed the committee of arrangements. Clinton Letlow has been elected president of the Parlor for the July-January term.

OLD SONOMA

But the [illegible] of the Americans had reached the [illegible] by 1846 [illegible] were [illegible] to California but they were not wanted; [illegible] the Mexican [illegible] Pronunciamento and he met [illegible] Valley in 1846. No longer were the Californios in sole possession of their province [illegible] by inviting Jedediah Smith [illegible] a band of daring Americans [illegible] their plan to capture the military post at Sonoma. They did on the morning of June 14, 1846, and without resistance, for in [illegible] Valley [illegible] to offer resistance. He was taken quite by surprise, and he and his family were [illegible] and kept as prisoners at Sutter's Fort until Autumn.

When the Americans had thus deposed Vallejo they found themselves in possession of Sonoma. And their thoughts turned to a flag of some sort. They realized they had no right to unfurl the Stars and Stripes, and yet, any American flag must have at least one star and a stripe; so with that thought in mind they set about to make one of their own. They secured a piece of unbleached muslin about [illegible] feet long and three feet wide, and pieces of red flannel were sewed to the bottom, thus making a lone red stripe of uneven width. In the upper left-hand corner of the white field William Todd outlined a star, and just opposite and facing it he painted the resemblance of a grizzly bear. Beneath this the words CALIFORNIA REPUBLIC were printed. The lone star meant that California was to be by herself an independent nation, while the grizzly bear symbolized strength and resistance.

I hold in my hand an exact copy of the original Bear Flag as roughly painted by William Todd. The flag that gave a name to the revolution and was raised as a sign of independence and defiance by the Americans on June 14, 1846—the lone star in the upper right-hand corner, the grizzly bear just opposite and facing it, the words CALIFORNIA REPUBLIC, with the single red stripe. But it was not until 1911 that this flag, somewhat changed, as you know, was finally chosen as the official State Flag of California.

The old Sonoma of Padre Jose Altimira and General Mariano Vallejo, awakened so rudely on a June morning in 1846, is gone forever. But its memory still clings to the old mission church and the flag having the lone stripe beneath the image of a bear and a star. So did two civilizations clash to become blended in the customs and traditions of a great state. Mission and flag, symbols of peace and power, thus has California inherited from OLD SONOMA!

Santa Barbara City will have its annual Fair and Horse Show July 12-16.

livered the memorial address. Misses Grace Murphy and Reba Stout were heard in a whistling duet, and Miss Murphy favored with vocal solos.

Two candidates were initiated during the evening, and officers were elected, Edward J. Iblings being chosen president. Public installation will be held jointly with Los Angeles No. 45 at that Parlor's new meetingplace, 1828 Oak street, Friday, July 14.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED.

The eleventh birthday anniversary of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. was most happily celebrated June 13. A dainty luncheon was served to seventy members and guests by Past President Marcella Palethorpe and committee. The twelve months of the year were represented by artistically and appropriately decorated tables. Isabel Fages, program chairman, quoted brief messages of cheer to the occupants of each table and introduced the honor-guests. Mrs. Betty Roadman delighted with a number of Don Blanding's poems.

At the Parlor meeting which followed officers were elected, Beatrice Wahrmund being chosen president. Installation will take place in July. A resolution from the San Gabriel Fiesta Association, protesting the date of September 8 for "A Day in Old California," was endorsed; the date is the birthdate of the famous old mission. Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg gave a brief description of the Parlor's institution, and Deputy Leola Temby spoke words of cheer.

Californiana was hostess at a June 3 party at Plummer Park sponsored by the Admission Day Committee. The Gertrude Sewing Club met June 5 at the home of Mrs. Alphonse Fages for a potluck luncheon and sewing. The Parlor will have an all-day picnic August 5 at the home of Mrs. Pearl Retzer, 1319 South First avenue, Arcadia.—O.L.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

Santa Monica—Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. had a "fathers and sons night" June 20 which was largely attended. Troop 10 Boy Scouts of America, sponsored by the Parlor, was well represented. Refreshments were served, and everyone had a good time.

Officers-elect of Santa Monica Bay, with Albert N. Seaman as president, will be publicly installed July 11 by District Deputy Dewey Richards. Dancing will follow the ceremonies. All Natives and their friends are invited. July 18 the Parlor will have initiation, and July 25 it will be addressed by a speaker of note.—J.J.S.

ACCUMULATING FLOAT FUND.

Glendale—Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. elected officers June 13, and selected Mrs. Ethyl Kern for president. Installation will be held July 25. Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen will be the chairman, Mms. Anna Alpi and Maude Molen will have charge of the refreshments, and the past presidents will look after the decorations.

Mms. Marguerite Piuma and Geraldine Leonetti reported, respectively, on the breakfast card party and the rummage sale; the proceeds were ordered set aside for the Rose Tournament float. Mrs. Doris Michelmore was chairman of a luncheon and card party given June 20 at the home of Mrs. Evalyn Wilson. The past presidents club met at the home of Mrs. Beulah VanLeuven; Mrs. Margaret Donlan presided.—A.S.

THE DEATH RECORD.

R. L. Watson, husband of Mrs. Louise Watson and father of Mrs. Susana Lacayo (both Californiana ND), died May 25.

Bert L. Farmer, affiliated with Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W., died May 31, survived by his wife, Mrs. Maude Farmer, and two daughters, Mms. Ada Carroll and Dorothy Reamer. He was born at Oro Grande, San Bernardino County, February 27, 1875.

Thomas J. Dorsey, father of Jerome E. Dorsey (Los Angeles NS), died June 18 at the age of 86.

SAN FRANCISCO

OBSERVING YOUNG CITIZENS' DAY, thousands of San Franciscans assembled in Golden Gate Park June 11. In extending greetings to them, Mayor Angelo J. Rossi warned the young voters that "in America the privilege of voting carries with it the duty of voting."

Grand President Jesse H. Miller of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West also addressed the gathering, saying, in part:

"It is my pleasure and privilege at this time to greet you on behalf of all native Californians and to congratulate you upon your attainment of the greatest earthly privilege—citizenship in the United States of America.

"But the love of a native son for his State of California is secondary to his devotion to the Flag of the United States of America and to our democratic constitutional form of government. In these United States of America we have a real democratic form of government. I will but briefly touch on a few of its most salient features:

"First—We, as American citizens, are granted freedom of speech, freedom of the press and freedom of religious belief. Second—Under the Constitution of the United State of America, a man's home remains inviolate against unlawful searches and seizures. Third—Under the laws of this country, every person accused of any crime is guaranteed a trial by a jury in a court of justice. These are only a few of the great advantages of American citizenship."

Pioneer Natives Dead

PREPARING FOR ADMISSION DAY.

The San Francisco N.S.G.W. Extension of the Order Committee—the 1939 Admission Day Committee—is working hard to make the statewide celebration here September 9 of California's birthday one of the very best ever held under the auspices of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. Early in July representatives of the San Francisco Native Daughters Parlors will meet jointly with the Native Sons, and then all subcommittees to handle the numerous celebration details will be appointed.

Newly elected officers of the Extension of the Order Committee include: Joseph E. Tinney of Rincon Parlor No. 72, chairman; Dr. Percy J. Meyer of Pacific Parlor No. 10, vice-chairman; Harold J. Regan of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, secretary; Nicholas J. Murphy of El Dorado Parlor No. 52, treasurer; Thomas P. Brown of Dolores Parlor No. 208, sergeant-at-arms.

N.S.G.W.—NEWSY PARAGRAPHS—N.D.G.W.

The N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Grove of Memory Association had its annual ceremonies in memory of deceased members in Redwood Memorial Grove, Golden Gate Park, June 4. Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy of the Native Sons delivered the memorial address.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. had its annual outing for members and their families in the Valley of the Moon, Sonoma County, June 10 and 11. Theo. Schmidt was the general chairman.

South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. initiated a class of candidates June 14. The date being Flag Day, Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy spoke on "The Flag of the United States of America."

Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. had a baby shower for the homeless children June 7. Officers for the July-January term have been elected, with Alice Kearse as president.

The first annual picnic of the drum corps of Castro Parlor No. 232 N.S.G.W. will be held July 23 at Big Trees, in the Santa Cruz Mountains. The arrangements committee promises fun galore for young and old. Henry Hansen and Frank Iacona are the co-chairmen.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: The Committee of 39 for '39 N.D.G.W. is profoundly grateful for your hearty co-operation in publishing news items of the San Francisco N.D.G.W. Grand Parlor in recent issues of The Grizzly Bear Magazine. It was essential that functions of the committee be publicized in our official organ. Thank you again for your kindly assistance and good wishes. Sincerely and fraternally yours, Evelyn I. Carlson, Chairman, Lucile Russell, Secretary, N.D.G.W. 1939 Grand Parlor Committee. San Francisco, July 11, 1939."

THE DEATH RECORD.

William Harrington, charter member of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W., and for seventeen years following its institution the Parlor's recording secretary, died May 28. He was born at Antioch, Contra Costa County, September 11, 1899.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

SAID REV. HENRY ST. GEORGE TUCKER, Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this country, in the course of a sermon, attended by President Roosevelt of the United States and King George of England, delivered at Hyde Park, New York:

"The regeneration of the individual and the reformation of the social order are not separable aims. To seek one without the other is to invite certain failure. High moral ideals cannot be realized in a society whose individual members are lacking in a strong sense of moral responsibility."

"The persistent advertising of this section's tourist attractions by the All-Year Club of Southern California," says the Los Angeles Times, "has unquestionably contributed more, per dollar invested, to the upbuilding of this Southland than any other instrumentality that could be named."

Unquestionably it has—to the continued upbuilding of the bankrupting relief load taxpayers must bear! And those same taxpayers are tapped by their public officials for the "investment!"

Henry Ford has expressed the belief that the recent disasters that befell submarines of the United States, England and France were caused by sabotage. He probably is correct!

"It is all a scheme by financial war makers," says Ford, "to get this country into war. . . . The real truth is, that wars are over with and the financial war makers don't know it."

A last-minute effort to get the alien fishing bill before the California Legislature for consideration was unsuccessful. The Assembly Fish and Game Committee refused to report the bill, and the Assembly refused to call it from the committee. Certainly there was a reason! The boys apparently are not concerned about California's welfare, and the Japs, white and yellow, are such nice fellows!

Senator Clark of Missouri suggested in the upper house of the Federal Congress that June 15—the day when World War debt payments fall due—be set aside as "Keep Out of War Day," and nationally observed as a holiday. Not a bad idea!

California has another legal holiday, the State Legislature having passed and Governor Olson having signed a bill adding February 15, the birthday of Susan B. Anthony, noted woman's suffrage advocate, to the holiday list.

Federal Attorney-General Frank Murphy declares that if the number of government employes—federal, state and local—would be reduced from 4,000,000 to 3,000,000, and the present government payroll would be reduced from $6,000,000,000 to $5,000,000,000 a year, all governmental functions necessary to the "physical and mental security" of the population could still be maintained. The taxpayers should eliminate the "if" and force the reduction!

Back July 12 to hold up Bressler's stage, running from Red Bluff, Tehama County, to the Champion Mill. The stage carried $800, the mill's payroll.

Because of labor troubles, the woolen mills at Napa City ceased operations July 1.

Wm. Leith Ross, note teller at the Nevada Bank, San Francisco, July 30 left for Canada with $1,500 belonging to the bank.

A. Waite, editor and proprietor Santa Ana, Orange County, Herald, dropped dead July 5 while arising from bed.

Wm. Holt, noted desperado, while threatening to kill several people at Murphys, Calaveras County, July 4, was shot and instantly killed by A. H. Finnell.

The Woodland, Yolo County, Herald suspended publication July 10.

C. T. Ryland resigned July 10 the presidency of the San Jose, Santa Clara County, Savings Bank, which office he had filled since 1869.

Wm. E. Fleming, a member of the Society of California Pioneers, San Franicsco, died July 11 at Rialto, San Bernardino County.

The bottling department of the Philadelphia Brewery, Los Angeles, was seized July 12 by the United States internal revenue collector for non-cancellation of revenue stamps.

J. T. Laird was appointed postmaster at Alturas, Modoc County, and Mrs. M. Fyfield was appointed postmistress at Yocumville, Siskiyou County, July 12.

In the Kentwell vs. Saint Helena Water Co. suit tried in the Superior Court at Napa City for damages for lack of water supplied at a fire, the jury awarded the plaintiff $500 damages.

J. M. Burns was July 17 removed as police chief of Los Angeles City, and Detective J. M. Gleason was appointed as his successor.

LOS ANGELES

REDWOOD CITY (SAN MATEO COUNTY)—Under the auspices of Redwood No. 66, the San Mateo County Court House Annex was dedicated June 25 by the grand officers. Edmund Scott presided. On Redwood's behalf, Roy W. Cloud presented a California State (Bear) Flag, which was accepted by Chairman Hugh H. Smith of the Board of Supervisors. The dedicatory address was delivered by Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon.

Following the ceremonies at the Court House, the large assemblage proceeded to the Redwood City Hall, which also was dedicated by the grand officers under the auspices of Redwood No. 66. Grand Trustee Wayne R. Millington presided here. Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr was among the speakers, and the dedicatory address was delivered by Past Grand Judge Fletcher A. Cutler.

The dedicatory ceremonies and accompanying plaque layings were conducted by Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig, acting for Grand President Jesse H. Miller, Junior Past Grand Joseph J. McShane, Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Grand Secretary John T. Regan. Others in attendance were Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy and Past Grand Charles L. Dodge.

Grand Marshal Wants Co-operation.

Grand Marshal Louis Bosch, who will direct the monster parade that will feature the statewide Admission Day, September 9, celebration in San Francisco, has sent a questionaire to all Subordinate Parlors, and he asks them to cooperate by responding promptly.

"Plan now to participate," urges Grand Marshal Bosch. "Bring your family and friends. You will enjoy a week-end in San Francisco and at the Golden Gate International Exposition that will live forever in your memory."

Fifty-two Initiated.

Mountain View—Under the sponsorship of the Santa Clara County Extension of the Order Committee, a joint meeting of the county's five Parlors—San Jose No. 22, Santa Clara No. 100, Observatory No. 177 of San Jose, Mountain View No. 215 and Palo Alto No. 216—was held at San Jose June 21 and fifty-two candidates were initiated. Past presidents from all the Parlors constituted the team which exemplified the ritual, and their work was well received by the large number of members present as well as the candidates.

Following the ceremonies the initiates were addressed by John Burnett, who outlined the Order's work and told of its future aims; Grand Trustee Wayne Millington, Supervising Deputy James P. Call, District Deputies R. C. McGowan, John R. Sullivan, Joseph Semino and Leonard Avilla. Refreshments were served at the meeting's conclusion.

In the near future a similar meeting will be held at Watsonville, and at that time a group of candidates will be initiated for Watsonville No. 65, Monterey No. 75, Santa Cruz No. 90, Santa Lucia No. 97 of Salinas and Gabilan No. 132 of Castroville. "We anticipate a year of great progress for the Order," says Supervising Deputy Call, "and the second district is prepared, as always, to put forth its best effort."

"Sheriffs Night" Draws 'Em.

Bakersfield—"Sheriffs night," featured by Bakersfield No. 42, attracted a very large crowd, including many visitors, July 12. Following a dutch lunch, a class of candidates was initiated, the ritual being exemplified by the prize team of Compton No. 273. Among the initiates, six for Bakersfield and two for Compton, was Sheriff John E. Loustalot of Kern County, who affiliated with No. 42.

Good of the order, with Hal Bannister as chairman, followed the ceremonies. Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz of Los Angeles County was presented as master of ceremonies, and then things happened that kept the crowd in an uproar. Splendid talks were given by Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton and others. One of the best floor shows ever seen in Bakersfield concluded the occasion.

To prepare for the 1940 Grand Parlor to be held in Bakersfield, the following joint committee has been named by Bakersfield No. 42 and Taft No. 276: Carl Luick, chairman; Stanley Abel, vice-chairman; William G. Rea, secretary; George A. Morris, treasurer; Mart E. Leonard, George Taylor, Wallace Weller, James Fix Jr., Ben F. Cooper, A. E. Giggy, H. A. Bannister, Ernest Cuthbertson, William Savage, Donald Rios and Charles Ladley.

Deputies Louis Mocettini and Ruth Lyon officiated, and James Lonigro and Bernice Shuman Ferris became the respective presidents. Past president emblems were presented George Duffy of Placerville and Mary Sweeney of Marguerite. Among the local officials present were Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon and Supervising Deputy Henrietta Hume, and the visitors included Supervising Deputy Albert W. Katzenstein, June Longshore, Ed. E. Reese, Larry Marvin, John Monteverde and Frank Woods of Sacramento. A program was presented and refreshments were served.

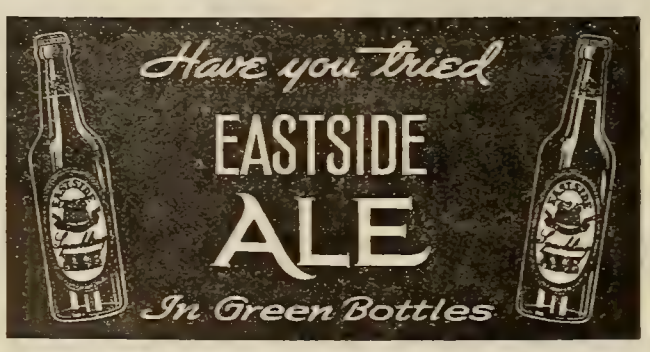
Eureka—Officers of Humboldt No. 14, with Kenneth Johnson as president, were installed July 10 by District Deputy Lee Diedrichsen. In appreciation for his services, the Parlor presented a watch chain to Past President J. V. McDonald. At the meeting's close refreshments were served.

Nevada City—Dr. C. W. Chapman, secretary Hydraulic No. 56, witnessed the graduation of his son, Lieutenant Warren C. Chapman, from the United States Military Academy at West Point. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Helen Chapman.

Grass Valley—In the Independence Day parade, Quartz No. 58 was represented by a "Goddess of Liberty" float with Miss Yvone Foote as the goddess. Eben K. Smart was master of ceremonies for the celebration, and Past Grand Lewis F. Byington of San Francisco delivered a patriotic oration.

Redwood City—Redwood No. 66's officers, with Frank J. Warren as president, were installed July 13 by District Deputy Leonard R. Avilla. There was a large attendance, including visitors from California No. 1 of San Francisco, San Jose No. 22, Mountain View No. 215 and Palo Alto No. 216. After the ceremonies games were played and refreshments were served. July 27, Redwood initiated a class of candidates.

Colusa—Officers of Colusa No. 69 and Colus No. 194 N.D.G.W. were jointly installed July 11 by Deputies Desmond Winship and Clara Abbott. Past president pins were presented Adrian Staple and Evelyn Meyers. Remarks were made by Grand Trustee R. G. Power, Judge Ben R. Ragain and District Attorney Hudson Ford. Refreshments were served. July 18, Colusa No. 69 entertained a large number of members at a swimming party. Under the supervision of Ernest Shuman, a dutch lunch was served. The Parlor's soft ball team will journey to Sutter in the near-future for the annual game with the team of Sutter No. 261.



Weaverville—Mount Bally No. 87's officers will be installed August 14, when James Griffith will become president. Albert C. Meckel, active in the Parlor's affairs ever since he became a member in 1887, will begin his forty-sixth year as treasurer. Initiation will also be held. After the meeting there will be a social hour with refreshments.

NATIVES WILL HONOR PIONEER SUTTER

SACRAMENTO—THE NATIVE SONS AND the Native Daughters of Sacramento have played an important part in the Capital City's Golden Empire Centennial celebration which opened May 1. As a climax to the festivities, the local Parlors—Califia No. 22, La Bandera No. 110, Sutter No. 111, Coloma No. 212 and Rio Rito No. 253 N.D.G.W., and Sacramento No. 3, Sunset No. 26 and Sutter Fort No. 241 N.S.G.W.—will, August 12, depict the landing of John A. Sutter on the south bank of the American River, the establishment of Sutter's Fort, and the founding of Sacramento City, originally called "New Helvetia."

The festivities will commence at 10 a.m., when the Sea Scout ship "Sacramento" proceeds to the confluence of the American and the Sacramento Rivers, where Sutter and his mixed crew of Whites and Kanakas will land, with Indians curiously watching from behind the underbrush and the cottonwood trees. The ship, piloted by Judge Percy G. West, will bear the name of "Isabel," Sutter's boat, and will have in tow a small boat, as did Sutter's. The boats will be decorated and fitted up to resemble those of Sutter as near as possible. After the landing, all participating will cross the American River bridge to the south end, where a monument—made of cobblestones taken from the American River at Coloma, El Dorado County, where gold was discovered by James W. Marshall—has been erected. Much enthusiasm is being manifest by the committee, headed by John J. Monteverde Sr., general chairman.

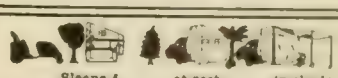
The following program has been arranged: musical selection; greetings, Governor Culbert L. Olson; address, Grand President N.S.G.W. Jesse H. Miller; address, Grand President N.D.G.W. Orinda Giannini; dedication of monument by grand officers N.S.G.W.; presentation of monument, General Chairman Monteverde; acceptance, County Manager Charles Deterding. The drill teams of Califia Parlor No. 22 and La Bandera Parlor No. 110 N.D.G.W., and the drum corps of Sacramento Parlor No. 3 N.S.G.W. will participate. Following the program there will be a luncheon at which the grand officers of both Orders will be honor-guests.

The day's festivities will culminate at Sutter's Fort when, at 3 p.m., a magnificent hand-carved marble memorial and bronze plaque will be dedicated to the memory of General Sutter. Following is the program: selection, Sacramento Firemen's Band; introduction of Chairman E. E. Reese by Frank J. Michel; Flag salute, led by Judge Percy G. West; invocation, N.D.G.W. Past Grand President Dr. Eva R. Rasmussen; musical selections, members Swiss Society; address, N.D.G.W. Past Grand President Edna B. Briggs; band selection; address, N.S.G.W. Past Grand President Joseph R. Knowland; band selection; unveiling plaque, Miss Ella McCleery and Mrs. Clara Weldon; presentation of plaque to State of California, Mrs. Edna B. Briggs; acceptance, Governor Culbert L. Olson; band selection. —G.D.

HUGE NEW "RIVER" IS DISCOVERED IN CALIFORNIA.

The discovery of a huge "river" never before known to man, but which flows almost within rifle-range of Monterey, Santa Barbara, Santa Monica and San Diego, is announced by Geologist Dr. Francis P. Shephard of the University of Illinois, who has been working at the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography at La Jolla, San Diego County.

This newly discovered "river," which flows at a speed of about one mile per hour, is really an ocean current, at a depth of about one-half mile. Not only was this ocean current never even so much as suspected off the Pacific Coast heretofore, but its existence comes as a shock to the world's oceanographers who heretofore have almost universally accepted the theory that ocean currents existed only upon or near the surface of the sea, says Dr. Shephard.



TWO NEW MINERALS—California's list of commercial metals has been increased by two, according to the State Division of Mines,—alunogen, a natural alum from Riverside County which sells as a soil conditioner, and garnet from Inyo County, a byproduct of tungsten ore used as an abrasive."

San Diego City—"where California began" in 1769 celebrated its one hundred and seventieth birthday anniversary July 16.

The Humboldt County Fair will be held at Ferndale August 16-20.

GENERAL SUTTER'S CLAIMS AND THE COURTS

Dr. Peter T. Conmy

Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

THE DISCOVERY OF GOLD AT Sutter's Mill by James W. Marshall January 24, 1848, served as a stimulus to open up California. No single act, no one event had such a far-reaching effect on California's destiny as the gold discovery. As soon as the news reached the East, thousands at once set out for the El Dorado. Thus was California populated, and thus an agricultural and commercial empire was begun. By a strange operation of fate, however, General John A. Sutter, on whose property gold was discovered, gained nothing by the find. On the contrary, he faced one loss after another. The opening up of the gold fields, which brought wealth to so many was, in reality, his financial undoing.

Sutter's loss following the gold rush came in several different ways. First, his immediate projects were interrupted by abandonment of work on the part of those employes who sought fortunes in the various gold fields. Second, as the country became peopled the settlers needed tools and supplies of sundry descriptions and as these, in many instances, could not be bought, they took Sutter's. Others stole his possessions because they were without funds. Third, the incoming settlers squatted upon his lands, in some cases destroying the crops, in others claiming the land for their own. This is forcibly brought out in Sutter's own words, as follows:

"My grist mill was never finished. Everything was stolen, even the stones. There is an old saying that a man will steal anything but a mile stone and a mill stone, but my mill stones actually were stolen. The miners would not buy anything that they could more easily steal. They stole the cattle and the horses, they stole the bells from the fort and the weights from the gates, they stole the hides and they stole the barrels. I had just made two hundred barrels of salmon which I had begun to cure at that time. I had tried it out carefully and had ascertained that it would be a very good business. All the barrels were stolen, of course. Even the canon which I had not yet given away to my neighbors were carried off. My property was entirely exposed and at the mercy of the rabble. . . Immigrants drove their stock into my yard and wasted my grain. Talking to them did not do any good. I was alone and there was no law. Any one who felt offended pulled out his revolver."

The statement in the above quotation, "there was no law," is indeed significant. There were no wheels of justice, consequently Sutter advocated the admission of California to the Union. This was accomplished September 9, 1850. The machinery of law enforcement was then set up and, to some extent, the physical depradations were curtailed. However, the loss of tools and cattle was but a small fraction of the total wealth diminution suffered by Sutter. By far the greatest loss came from the lands which were taken from him by the squatters. To rectify the injustice done him, the State courts were unable to take jurisdiction because of the Federal question involved. Furthermore, the claims asserted by the squatters raised the question of the validity of any title received by transfer from Sutter. It was clear that if his title to what squatters had taken from him was defective, his original title also was defective, hence anyone to whom he had sold had an invalid title. To clarify the entire situation, it was necessary to take the whole matter to the courts for adjudication.

Before proceeding to a detailed explanation of the Sutter cases the general law applicable to such cases should be stated. In general, private property rights are not affected by a change of sovereignty. The first time this question arose in the United States was after the acquisition of east Florida in 1819. In the leading case arising out of the claims of Florida landowners, the Supreme Court said, through the voice of the immortal Chief Justice Marshall, (United States v Perchman, 7 Pet. 51, 1833):

"The cession of a territory from one sovereign to another, by its name, conveying at the same time the compound idea of surrendering the lands and the people who inhabit them, would be necessarily understood to pass the sovereignty only, and not to interfere with private property."

Similarly, in the case of United States v Moreno, handed down in 1863, the court said, with reference to California property rights, (1 Wall. 400):

"California belonged to Spain by the rights of discovery and conquest. The government of that country established regulations for transfer of the public domain to individuals. When the sovereignty of Spain was displaced by the revolutionary action of Mexico, the new government established regulations upon the same subject. These two sovereignties are the spring heads of all the land titles in California existing at the time of the cession of that country to the United States by the treaty of Guadelupe-Hidalgo. That cession did not impair the rights of private property. They were consecrated by the law of nations and protected by the treaty."

From what has just been quoted it is apparent, therefor, that Sutter's title to his lands was not disturbed by virtue of the change of ownership of California from Mexico to the United States. Any defect to his title originated during the Mexican regime, or else it was upheld by the American courts. This should be especially noted; for, General Sutter's own statements, his own reminiscences, his statements to Congress and to the public would seem to indicate that the courts had decided against him on other grounds. Whatever lands were lost to Sutter through court decisions, were lost not because the court wished to give the land to the settlers, but because his claim was based on a title intrinsically and originally defective. This will become more clear later.

The Sutter cases were three in number, namely, (1) the New Helvetia claim, (2) the sobrante claim, and (3) the general title. Each of these will be explained in order. Under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1851, the United States Land Commission was created. Claims were first presented to this body. Appeal lay first, to the Federal District Court and, second, to the Supreme Court of the United States. Each of the Sutter cases was taken to the Supreme Court. It was his failure to obtain all the redress he sought from the court that caused Sutter to ultimately appeal directly to Congress.

The first claim presented by Sutter to the Land Commission is what is known as the New Helvetia claim. This was filed in March 1852 and was a demand for the establishment of his title to the eleven leagues of land granted him by Governor Alvarado June 18, 1841. This claim was allowed by the Land Commission. An appeal by the settlers to the District Court failed, and they proceeded to the Supreme Court. In that tribunal, February 14, 1859, Sutter's claims were finally upheld. The following language of the court seems significant (U. S. v Sutter, 21 How. 170):

"The object of the grant on the part of the authorities seems to have been to secure the services of an efficient and competent officer, in a distant and exposed part of the province, who would undertake to give repose and security to the settlements in that region; and this distribution of lands was confided to him as a trust and a compensation for that duty."

But although there was no doubt in the mind of the court as to the validity of Sutter's claim, there was some question as to just where the eleven leagues were located. For this reason the case was remanded to the District Court for determination of this point. Under the order of this court a survey was made by A. W. Van Schmidt, who studied both the old documents and the geography of the area. He found that two of the leagues should be south of the American River and in Sacramento County and the other nine leagues on the Feather River. This survey was set aside by the District Court and another one, which placed Sutter's land in very narrow strips along the Feather River, accepted. This was not satisfactory to Sutter, and so the case was again appealed to the Supreme Court, and a ruling in favor of the Van Schmidt survey was secured in December 1864 (2 Wall. 562).

The second claim made by Sutter was known as the sobrante claim. February 5, 1845, at Santa Barbara, Governor Micheltorena had signed a document granting Sutter twenty-two additional leagues, this being the surplus or limits within which his first grant was to be fulfilled. This claim was upheld by the Land Commission and the District Court, but was rejected by the Supreme Court, on the theory that Micheltorena was without authority to make such a grant, and further, that it had never been approved in Mexico. Said the court:

". . . it can hardly be concluded that this was an act of civil administration. . . At a distance from the capital, in the prosecution of an intestine war against a band of insurgents, surrounded by a body of foreign volunteers. . . the governor promises to dispose of the public domain as a compensation for service or as an inducement to loyalty. In a few days this governor is defeated, vacates his post. . . . In our opinion this was not a valid claim at the date of the treaty and is not entitled to recognition by the United States."

The third claim, known as the general title claim, was allowed by the Land Commission and the District Court, but rejected by the Supreme Court for somewhat similar reasons. December 22, 1844, Governor Micheltorena had given Sutter authority to grant lands to settlers who asked for them. The court pointed out that the obvious reason for this was to recruit support from among the settlers. It was a violation of the law of Mexico and hence not a claim at the time of the treaty. The court interpreted this as a promise to distribute the lands if the governor were successful in overcoming the insurgents, and hence that his abdication without going through the legal process of making the grants left no title in the hands of such settlers.

The New Helvetia claim, which was allowed in Sutter's favor, did not bring him financial return, however, because of his bad investments. Instead of giving him the land, it cleared up any doubt as to the titles to the lands that he had sold.

I like to talk to old gray-bearded men
Whose dreams are locked within a trunk or grave,
And when awakened love to live again
The days of oxen-teams and women brave
For they have treasures they like to show.
Like some old chair that came around the Horn,
A fiddle that they played long, long ago
Before they married, or their sons were born.
Triumphant love still lingers in their eyes,—
That old daguerrotype was "Phoebe Anne,"
A tear falls for the love that never dies
While murmuring words about "God's greater plan."
Ah yes, someone is waiting "over there,"
And I see ghosts around the rocking chair.

OLD CALIFORNIA LAND GRANT RECORDS COMPLETELY INDEXED.

The old Spanish land grants around which much of California's political and romantic history revolves, and which form the basis for a number of present-day court actions, have now been completely indexed by Dr. J. N. Bowman of the University of California at Berkeley.

The work brings up to date the resume of land grant cases published in 1833 by Judge Ogden Hoffman, the first United States District Judge for northern California. That resume contained the records of all the land grant cases that came before his court, he having handled practically all such cases in northern California. Bowman has added all of the others in both northern and southern California, giving a brief description not only of all the land grants that were taken into court, but the others which did not involve court actions, or for which no court records could be found.

"The Avenue of the Giants," a redwood forest near Dyerville, Humboldt County, has been purchased for $217,000 by the State Park Commission and the Save-the-Redwoods League.

BOOK REVIEWS

CLARENCE M. HUNT

"EAST OF THE GIANTS."
By George R. Stewart; Henry Holt & Company, New York, Publisher; Price, $2.50.

Among other published works of Author Stewart, Associate Professor of English at the University of California, are "Bret Harte" and "Ordeal by Hunger," an account of the ill-fated Reed-Donner Party.

"East of the Giants," is the story of a New England blonde-haired girl and a trader who met on the deck of a brig in Monterey Harbor in 1837. Closely interwoven with the relating of their varied experiences in the land "so far away from every other place," is accurate California history. Picturesque characters of the early days are re-introduced, great ranches of the hill-country are re-created, and from the hide-and-tallow years the story moves through Indian troubles, revolutions and the days of '49 to the beginnings of big-business.

"East of the Giants" is a very interesting novel—a powerful story of California from '37 to the early '60s. It presents a new view of early California, by a distinguished writer, that the reader will enjoy to the fullest extent.

"CALIFORNIA NUGGETS."
By Betty L. Whitsell; Kaleidograph Press, Dallas, Texas, Publisher; Price, $1.50.

Nuggets, indeed; golden nuggets of California's yesterday! A collection of verse, overflowing with understanding sentiment, that charms and satisfies.

The author, Betty L. Whitsell, has published some two hundred of her delightful poems, several of which have appeared in The Grizzly Bear. Among the number is "Diary of 1849," which last year was awarded the Redewill poetry cup. Some of the poems, including "Grand," "The Patio" and "To a Paisley Shawl," have been set to music.

Add "California Nuggets" to your collection of Californiana!

"THE ROAD TO RICHMOND."
Edited by Harold Adams Small; University California Press, Berkeley, Publisher; Price, $3.50.

Presented in this informative work are "The Civil War Memoirs of Major Abner R. Small of the Sixteenth Maine Volunteers. Together with the Diary which he kept when he was a Prisoner of War." Editor Small is a son of Major Small, and also editor of the University of California Press.

"As the years carry us farther from the Civil War," says Editor Small in the preface, "the more we lose in actual nearness to what was once as near as a trigger to the finger. The only way for us to reach back to it, now, is through a book; and the surest way is through the record set down by a man who was there. The present memoirist was in the Army of the Potomac. He was in several of that army's great battles, . . . Near the latter end of the war he was for six months a prisoner. . . .

"Two years ago, I had the pleasure of editing a Civil War journal by a Confederate—Joseph LeConte's account of his adventures in the backwash of Sherman's march through Georgia and the Carolinas. . . . It now seems to me that in presenting my father's memoirs I am in a manner evening up the score: here is a Northern book to put beside that Southern one. We may learn from both, if we will."

"DESERT ROUGH CUTS."
By Harry Oliver; The Ward Ritchie Press, Los Angeles, Publisher; Price, $1.50.

This book, appropriately termed by the author "A Haywire History of the Borego Desert," is a collection of his yarns—some of which appeared a few years back in The Grizzly Bear—recounting the activities and the philosophies of weather-beaten and whimsical prospectors and other quaint characters of Borego Valley.

The valley, incidentally, "is out among the cactus and joshua trees, the hot sun and bald buttes of the desert of California. It is near Palm Springs. . . . It is one of the last unspoiled outposts of the West. . . . Juan Bautista De Anza, on his famous march from Mexico City to the west coast of California, way back in 1774, named the valley 'Borego' in reverence to the many wild sheep skulls that he found around a poison spring (a'warning him and his party not to drink)."

The reader will get a "kick" out of "Desert Rough Cuts," which is dedicated to the world's greatest optimist, the desert prospector. The book is liberally illustrated with drawings by the author.

DISTINGUISHED NATIVE SON LEAVES LIFE'S PATHWAY

SAN FRANCISCO—EMMET SEAWELL, Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of California, passed away suddenly July 7, survived by his wife, Mrs. Ida Graeter Seawell, a son, James Seawell, and a daughter, Mrs. Reginald Farram. He was a Past Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, and was a charter member of Santa Rosa Parlor No. 28, with which he affiliated March 15, 1884. He first attended the Grand Parlor as a delegate from that Parlor to the Thirtieth (Napa 1907) Session. At the Fifty-sixth (Grass Valley 1933) Session he was elected Grand President, and he presided at the Fifty-seventh (Ukiah 1934) Session.

Funeral services for Past Grand President Seawell were held July 10 at the temple of Oakland Consistory of the A. & A. Scottish Rite of Freemasonry under the auspices of that organization. During these ceremonies eulogies were delivered by Justice Jesse W. Curtis, a member of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W., San Bernardino,—on behalf of the Supreme Court Justices, and State Senator Herbert W. Slater, on behalf of the citizenry of Sonoma and Napa Counties.

The body was then taken to Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland, where burial services were conducted under the auspices of the Grand Parlor N.S.G.W. Officiating were Grand President Jesse H. Miller, Junior Past Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr and Grand Secretary John T. Regan.

Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington, on behalf of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, delivered the following eulogy: "My Friends: We have just come from a splendid temple in the City of Oakland reared by a distinguished fraternity, the Scottish Rite, and dedicated to the charitable and benevolent principles taught by that organization. There the ritual of that order has been spoken over the remains of a well-beloved and able justice of our Supreme Court and due tribute paid to his memory. Within the temple were assembled prominent state and city officials, and many friends of the deceased from every walk of life.

"Those ceremonies finished, we have met here in this cemetery, with the hills rising beyond and the blue skies of California bending above, by this open grave, with his family and those near and dear to him gathered around, to return this beloved brother and Past Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West to the soil of his native state, to the land that gave him birth.

"His kindliness of heart, his gentleness of speech, his loyalty to state and nation, his fidelity to public trust have left to family and friends, and to all those who met him in his journey along the pathway of life, the most tender and lasting memories to accompany and cheer us through the years to come.

"Emmet Seawell was born of pioneer parents of California at Yountville, Napa County, in the year 1862. He received his education and spent the greater part of his life, however, in historic Sonoma County. There he became a charter member of Santa Rosa Parlor No. 28 of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West at the time of its organization, March 15, 1884, fifty-five years ago. Shortly thereafter he was called to public office and in 1892 elected District Attorney of Sonoma County, serving for four years, and later served for twenty years as Judge of its Superior Court, and from 1922 to July 7, 1939, as Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of California. July 7, last, while sitting with his fellow Justices in the State Building at San Francisco, listening to arguments in an important case, he quietly left the bench for his chambers, complained of feeling ill, and a few minutes later passed away. As announced by the Chief Justice from his seat on the bench, "He walked out of here into his chambers and laid down in the sleep of death."

"In May 1933, while a Justice of the Supreme Court of his native state, he was elected, at Grass Valley, the Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. Proud of the state of his nativity and of its traditions, loyal to his country's flag and to its laws and institutions, he was especially proud to be enrolled as a member of a fraternity organized to perpetuate the memories of the Pioneer Fathers and Mothers of the West and to teach the lessons of patriotism.

"As a judicial officer, he filled that high position with ability, integrity, learning and honor. For clarity of language and clearness of thought, many of the opinions which he has written rank with the ablest of those preserved in the law reports of our state. Among the noteworthy opinions written by Justice Seawell was one delivered by the Supreme Court last year, which held that a regulation of the school authorities in California to the effect that in our American schools the salute and pledge of allegiance to the American Flag, as applied to students attending such schools, was in no way a violation of rights guaranteed by the Federal or the State Constitution. He declared that the training of schoolchildren in good citizenship, patriotism, and loyalty to state and nation is regarded under the law as a means of protecting the public welfare; that the salute to the flag and the repetition of the pledge of allegiance, in the judgment of the proper governing body, tend to stimulate in the minds of youth sentiments of lasting affection and respect and unfaltering devotion to our government and its institutions.

Justice Emmet Seawell
Past Grand President N.S.G.W.
Born April 2, 1862, Napa
Died July 7, 1939, San Francisco
Charter Member
Santa Rosa Parlor No. 28 N.S.G.W.

"To his family and friends, our brother is not dead. The high character of a man while living, his honor and integrity, blossom through the years to come. God has vouchsafed to us the blessed gift of memory which keeps forever alive the spirits of our absent brothers. As our American poet, James Whitcomb Riley, has so beautifully expressed it:

"'I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers there.
And you—O you, who the fondest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.
Think of him still as the same, I say
He is not dead—he is just away.'

"Justice Seawell, as a man and as a judge, was ever sincere, conscientious and courageous. His association with his colleagues on the bench was a companionship that was close and enduring. To his family and friends, he was devoted, tender and kind. In his profession, he was ever proud to uphold its noblest traditions, and as an American he was deeply patriotic and loyal. His mortal remains are about to be laid away in this, his last resting place, but the influence of his life—his character and his achievements still lives on in the hearts of his countrymen."

Other present and past grand officers in attendance were: Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Trustees Wayne R. Millington, Charles A. Redding and Richard F. McCarthy, Past Grand Presidents Judge Frank H. Dunne, Joseph R. Knowland, Harry G. Williams, Edward J. Lynch, Judge Fletcher A. Cutler, Judge Charles A. Thompson, James A. Wilson, Charles L. Dodge and Chas. A. Koenig.

The Sonoma County Fair will be held August 5-12 at Santa Rosa; a horse show will be featured.

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

URGING ATTENDANCE OF TAXPAYers at the public hearing on the Los Angeles City schools budget to be held Wednesday evening, August 2, at Polytechnic High School auditorium, the California Taxpayers Association declares that, unless reductions are made in the proposed school budget, a 17-cent increase in the local tax rate for schools threatens taxpayers of the district.

"Despite a decline in the school population of the district," the Association says, "the tentative $44,154,024 budget proposes an increase of $3,776,519 over estimated expenditures for 1938-39." Major increases which go to make up this proposed 9.64 percent increase in school spending include: restoration of basic salary schedule to predepression level, $1,150,000; automatic salary increments, $508,000; increase for administration, excluding cost of elections, $111,414; increases in instructional expense other than teacher salaries, $312,525; increases for operation of school plant, $359,307; increases for auxiliary agencies, $167,714; increases for school plant maintenance, $325,979.

Reductions in the school budget which, the Taxpayers Association points out, can be made without detracting from the present standard of service of the school district include: salary restorations, $1,150,000; automatic increases, $508,000; administration, $72,000; teaching positions, $71,000; other expense of instruction, $150,000; operation of school plant, $175,000; auxiliary agencies, $100,000; maintenance of school plant, $203,832; reserves, $100,000.

"Even with these suggested reductions in the 1939-40 budget, the school district would still be left with as much money as it had last year and even 10 percent more for the maintenance of buildings and equipment," says the Association. "This would be a very generous budget, in view of the fact that peak attendance was reached two years ago and that further declines are expected this year." [A very generous budget, too, in view of the fact that taxpayers are being pauperized by the excessive and unnecessary overload of taxes forced on them by tax-levying governmental agencies.—Editor.]

GORGEOUS FLOWERS ADD BEAUTY.

Some 400 people witnessed the impressive and colorful public installation of officers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. July 19. Gorgeous shades of rose larkspur, gladioli and fuschia colored dahlias, as well as an artistic arrangement of white flowers with candles at the altar, added much to the beauty of the occasion.

Deputy Evalyn Wilson officiated, and was assisted by members of Verdugo Parlor No. 240, Glendale. As President Louise McNary was being escorted to her station, Sophia Stewart rendered a vocal solo, the words of which were written especially for Mrs. McNary. Each officer participating in the ceremonies carried three large red dahlias, with a fuschia and chartreuse chiffon handkerchief. The installation ode was sung by Grace Norton, Jennie Raymond and Sophia Stewart. Miss Ann Schiebusch, retiring president, was presented with gifts and received many congratulations for a successful term.

Among those in attendance were Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer and Supervising Deputy Olinda Kerby Thomas of the Native Daughters, and Grand Trustee Walter Smith and Grand Organist Roger Johnson of the Native Sons. Musical selections were rendered by Sophia Stewart, accompanied by Louise Crawford, and Roger Johnson, accompanied by Anita Santo. Delicious refreshments were served under the supervision of Chairman Edna Holcomb. Native Sons acted as ushers during the evening.

Los Angeles will have no meetings during August, but another beach party will be held Saturday, August 26, at Malibu La Costa. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at fifty cents per person. Make reservations with Elsie Ruiz, TW6923, by August 24.—E.T.N.

GRAND PRESIDENT TO ADDRESS N.S. CLUB.

Grand President Jesse H. Miller of San Francisco will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the N.S.G.W. Luncheon Club at 12:15 noon of Friday, August 11, in room 1126 of the Rosslyn Hotel. President John Haas of the club has appointed Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton chairman of the occasion. In the evening, Grand President Miller will have a conference meeting with grand officers, district deputies and Grand Parlor committeemen of District No. 1.

July 21, Past Grand Herman C. Lichtenberger addressed the club on "The Mormons in Early California."

"NATIVE DAUGHTER CARNIVAL NIGHT."

Long Beach—Officers of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. were installed July 20 by Deputy Emma Costello. Josephine Reichman was retained as president. On the Parlor's behalf, Charter Member Kate McFadyen presented a leather purse to Charter Member Mabel Emery, retiring after twenty years of faithful service as No. 154's treasurer. A well-planned financial and social program for the remainder of the summer was approved.

Birthdays of the members are celebrated during the social hour the last meeting night of each month. Francis Galvan was the July chairman, and Della DeGaetano will be in charge of the August party. During the summer months the California Thimble Club meets the second and fourth Thursdays at Bixby Park. A potluck lunch is followed by sewing.

to a benefit "Native Daughter Carnival Night" the evening of August 12. An old-fashioned bean supper will be served, to be followed by games and amusements of many varieties. There will be booths for the sale of home-made candy, cake, jams, thimble club products, and other things. A big time for all is promised by Chairman Nell Cooke. August 29 the Parlor will have the first of a series of historical tours, the Huntington Library being visited.—R.H.J.

OLDTIMERS WILL GATHER.

Officers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 and Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed at public ceremonies in the former's new meetingplace, 1828 Oak street, July 14. District Deputy Judge O. Benton Worley, who officiated, was assisted by Grand Trustees Walter C. Richards and Walter E. Smith, and Grand Organist Roger Johnson. Robert L. Jack and Edward J. Iblings became the respective presidents. Among the many visiting Native Sons and Daughters in attendance was a large delegation from Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. headed by Deputy Grand President Hervey Lindley Kitchin. During the evening Chairman Betty Graydon of the local homeless children committee presented to No. 45 a silver cup for making the largest percapita contribution to the committee during the past year.

Los Angeles has set aside August 11 for a gathering of oldtimers under the joint chairmanship of Howard E. Bentley and Raymond LeMoine Sr. A watermelon feast will be featured. Initiation August 25 will be followed by refreshments. Chairman Rudolf L. Schwarzer of the Parlor's bowling team extends an invitation to the teams of other Parlors to meet in friendly competition.

PROUD OF HONOR CONFERRED.

Glendale—Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. is proud of the honor of having one of its members, Mrs. Hazel B. Hansen, chosen Grand Vice-president at the San Francisco Grand Parlor in June. July 11 President Harriette Weeks, who has had a very successful term, presided for the last time and thanked her committees for their services. Speakers of the evening were Deputy Marcella Palethorpe, Ethyl Kern and Grand Vice-president Hansen.

Officers of Verdugo, with Ethyl Kern as president, were installed July 25. Deputy Marcella Palethorpe officiated, and was assisted by members of Californiana Parlor No. 247 of Los Angeles. A reception and program followed the ceremonies.

Deputy Evalyn Wilson installed the officers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 July 19, and was assisted by the following members of Verdugo: Ruth McLaughlin, Ellen Edwards, Eleanor Steele, Josephine Hoffman, Maria DeLaurentis, Mary Louise Hallett, Rena Giambastiania, Harriette Weeks and Dorothy Ravn. They were attired in costumes of pastel shades, with corsages of red dahlias.—A.S.

PICTURE A BEAUTIFUL ONE.

After inspirational installation ceremonies in the foyer of the Town and Gown on the campus of the University of Southern California July 20, Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. is now enjoying a vacation until September 12. The foyer of the club was artistically adorned with huge baskets filled with gorgeous rose-colored gladioli, harmonizing with the gowns of the installing team and those of Californiana's new officers, who carried arm clusters of blue delphinium. With the soft lights, and the summer dresses and hats of the large assemblage gathered to witness the rite, the picture was a beautiful one.

The installing officer, Deputy Mary Rothaermel, was assisted by a team from Grace Parlor No. 247 of Placentia, with Mrs. Lawrence Lemke as acting grand marshal. Californiana's retiring organist, Mrs. Grace Hale, played for the ritualistic work and accompanied Mrs. Johana Lemke Kent, who sang the installation ode, and Mrs. Sophia Stewart, who sang "When I Grow Too Old To Dream." Mrs. Beatrice Wahrmund was installed president. In the course of her address she promised to do all in her power to make the new term a success, and closed with the prayer, "Oh God, give us grace to remain silent when speech is not necessary."

Among the many in attendance were Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, who outlined the Order's projects; Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Florence Dodson Schoneman, and Mrs. Nellie Cline of Grace Parlor, who presided as chairman at the installation ceremonies. Numerous presentations of gifts were made. A group of charter members comprised the reception committee and served delicious punch and cake.

SANTA BARBARA

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

MEMBERS OF REINA DEL MAR PARlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. and Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. are approaching the busiest week of their year—the sixteenth annual observance of Old Spanish Days Fiesta. From the inception of this nationally-known event the two Parlors have been active in program and whole-hearted with their hospitality.

Officers of Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. prepare for their pre-fiesta tea which opens Old Spanish Days Fiesta in Santa Barbara. Left to right: Mrs. John D. Ross, district deputy grand president; Mrs. Marion Parks, history adviser; Mrs. Wesley McCormick, history chairman, and Mrs. Eugene Ireland, president of the Parlor. —Hugh McLeod photo.

The first event connected with the Parlors' joint participation was the fourteenth pre-fiesta tea, given with great success at El Paseo July 30. This tea, honoring descendants of pioneers of the Spanish period, is the only occasion in the midst of the large-scale activities of Old Spanish Days when the community pauses and honors the race of pioneers that created the customs and traditions revived and perpetuated by fiesta.

Mrs. L. D. Brady was chairman of the event and Paul Sweetser vice-chairman, with Presidents Ida Ireland of the Daughters and Frank Huffman of the Sons serving ex-officio. Others on the committee were Mrs. Wesley McCormick, Miss Katherine Martini, Walter Cummings and Captain W. H. Rutherford. The tea marked the first public appearance of Miss Mary Ronk, selected by the Daughters to fill the role of Saint Barbara. Her court is made up of most of those who have previously filled that role. Saint Barbara will occupy a float in the historic parade of Thursday, August 3, of which Harry Sweetser of the Native Sons will serve as grand marshal.

Thursday evening the Native Sons will banquet the Los Angeles County sheriff's posse. Tables will be spread in the Persian gardens of Samarkand Hotel, and there will be dancing afterward. Several grand officers plan to attend this annual dinner, which is the Sons' special responsibility for fiesta. Friday and Saturday, August 4 and 5, will be crowded with interesting events in which both organizations will participate, with Sam J. Stanwood of the Native Sons as El Presidente of the entire celebration.

Nightly at the Santa Barbara County Bowl, Charles E. Pressley will present "Nacimiento de Santa Barbara," one of the most spectacular pageants of California history that has yet been worked out. Late Saturday night, at Fiesta's end, the two Parlors will be host and hostess at a reception and supper for the Poole-Verhelle group, who will entertain thousands of visitors with free programs in the sunken gardens of the Santa Barbara County Court House.

SAN BERNARDINO

SAN BERNARDINO—FIRST PRIZE OF $25 in the contest for a design for a new San Bernardino City seal, sponsored by Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W., has been awarded Miss Louise Campbell of the 1939 graduating class of the San Bernardino Valley Junior College. Her sketch depicts four scenes characteristic of the city and vicinity: the arrowhead landmark, orange groves and snow-capped mountains, a covered wagon crossing the desert, and a streamliner entering the valley. It is inscribed "City of San Bernardino, California, Founded 1810."

The committee that managed the contest—Judge Donald E. VanLuven, chairman, District Attorney Jerome B. Kavanaugh, Lynn A. Reid, Howard L. Holcomb, Timothy Sheehan, Cecil C. Woods and John C. Ralphs—has submitted the design to the City Council with an urge that it be adopted as the city's official seal.

Arrowhead's annual Independence Day barbecue at Crestline was, as usual, a great success, some 1,000 attending. The all-day affair included athletic events, dancing and a program. The committee in charge was composed of James A. Olivas, chairman, President Leon Gregory, Judge Donald E. VanLuven, Ed Poppett and Elmer P. Hoien. July 19 the Parlor observed its fifty-second institution anniversary. Brief remarks were made by the two surviving charter members, Joseph E. Rich and Albert A. Burcham. John Andreson Jr. headed a committee that served refreshments.

William Starke has been re-elected secretary-manager of the National Orange Show, San Bernardino's annual classic, and the following have been elected directors: W. C. Shay, John Andreson Jr., Joseph E. Rich, State Senator Ralph E. Swing, Everett H. Swing, Louis Wolff and Robert F. Garner Jr. All are members of the Parlor.

PAST PRESIDENTS N.S. INSTALL.

Crestline (San Bernardino Mountains)—The following officers of Arrowhead Assembly No. 14 Past Presidents Association N.S.G.W. were installed July 22 at Arrowhead Clubhouse by District Deputy Governor-General Roy W. Tarleton:

Harold G. Lord, governor; John P. Paralieu, first vice-governor; Harry T. Honn, second vice-governor; Dr. R. L. White, third vice-governor; R. W. Brazelton, recording secretary; M. G. Hale, financial secretary; John Andreson Jr., treasurer; Walter E. Smith, trustee; Jerome B. Kavanaugh, marshal; Guy Dunlay, inside sentinel; Walter R. Gisler, outside sentinel. Dinner was served prior to the ceremonies, and entertainment was provided.

CALIFORNIA HISTORIC LANDMARKS GIVEN OFFICIAL STATE RECOGNITION.

The State Natural Resources Department has registered the following as California historic landmarks:

The suspension bridge near Bidwell's Bar, Butte County; its cables came via Cape Horn from New York in 1853.

The Kit Carson marker at the site where, in 1844, Carson and John C. Fremont reached the summit of what is now Kit Carson Pass, Alpine County.

The Sir Joseph Hooker oak tree near Chico, Butte County, one of the nation's largest oaks.

The site of Fort Jones, Siskiyou County, founded in 1851 as a stage station.

Timbuctoo and Smartville, Yuba County; Sutter Creek, Amador County, and Mormon Bar, Mariposa County.

The El Dorado County blacksmith shop of James W. Marshall, discoverer of gold at Coloma in 1848.

Mission San Francisco Solano de Sonoma, in old Sonoma, scene of the California Republic (Bear Flag) revolution, was 116 years old Independence Day. It was founded July 4, 1823, by Padre Altimira.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO'S NATIVE SONS AND Native Daughters are busy with arrangements for the statewide Admission Day, September 9, celebration to be held here. A joint committee is meeting weekly to perfect the many details. Joseph E. Tinney of Rincon Parlor No. 72 N.S.G.W. is the chairman, and Harold J. Regan of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. is the secretary of the general committee.

The main feature of the celebration will, of course, be the Admission Day morning parade, which promises to be larger and more elaborate than any that has gone into history. It will form at the Civic Center, proceed down Market street, and disband at the Embarcadero. At 3 p.m. drill team and drum corps contests will be held on Treasure Island. The night of September 9 has been set aside for a grand ball in the California Building at the Golden Gate International Exposition.

"Casa Ramona la Segunda," built and completely furnished by the Admission Day committee to raise funds for California's natal day celebration, was dedicated and formally opened July 16. Some 5,000 people inspected the home, which will be open every day until September 9, with a committee of Native Daughters on hand at all times. Participating in a parade to the home were the drum corps and the drill team of Mission Parlor No. 227 N.D.G.W. and the drum corps of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W.

Speakers at the opening ceremonies were Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Past Grand Anne C. Thuesen. Others in attendance were Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Treasurer Agnes M. Curry and Grand Trustee Emily E. Ryan.

N.D.G.W.—JOINT INSTALLATIONS—N.S.G.W.

Two hundred members and friends witnessed July 10 the installation of Beatrice M. Nishkian and James B. Herbert as presidents, respectively, of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W. and Golden Gate Parlor No. 29 N.S.G.W. Deputies Emma O'Meara and Edward Stocker, who officiated, were assisted by Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey and Supervising Deputy Armen Nishkian. Among the guests were Grand President Orinda Giannini, Grand Treasurer Agnes Curry, Past Grand Evelyn Carlson, Supervising Deputy Rena Taube and Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig. A buffet supper was served following the installation.

Officers of Utopia Parlor No. 252 N.D.G.W. and Utopia Parlor No. 270 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed July 8, Helen Scannel and Henry Kamengeiser becoming the respective presidents. Deputies Dorothy Hegerhorst and Jack Reed, who officiated, were assisted by Past Grand Evelyn Carlson, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe and Nona Thiesen. Other guests were Grand President Orinda Giannini and Supervising Deputy Rena Taube. Dancing was enjoyed and refreshments were served.—K.S.

Officers of San Francisco Assembly No. 1 Past Presidents Association N.S.G.W. and Past Presidents Association No. 1 N.D.G.W. were jointly installed July 17 by Deputies L. A. Werner and Genevieve Martell. Among the many in attendance were Past Grand Emma G. Foley, Grand Trustee Evalyn Towne and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Many members and friends of Pacific No. 10 attended the public installation of the Parlor's officers, July 20, in the newly decorated library of the Grizzly Bear Club, Native Sons Building. District Deputy William Roll officiated, and Marius Kast became president. Dancing concluded the ceremonies. Pacific is looking forward to a very successful term.—E.J.S.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 had its annual incoming-outgoing presidents banquet, honoring the new president, John Truman, and the former president, Dan Murphy Jr., July 11. Arrangements were in charge of Carl Boegershausen, chairman, Ed. Neely, Charles Barry, Frank Schmid, Joe Fogarty and Art Poheim.

CONTEST AWARDS.

During the recent N.D.G.W. Grand Parlor in San Francisco, contests between drum corps and drill teams were featured on the entertainment program. Awards have been made as follows: N.D.G.W. drum corps—Mission Parlor No. 227, San Francisco. N.D.G.W. and N.S.G.W. drum corps—Aloha Parlor No. 106 and Athens Parlor No. 195, Oakland.

N.D.G.W. drill teams, fancy dress—Stockton Parlor No. 256, Stockton, first; Las Juntas Parlor No. 221, Martinez, second.

N.D.G.W. drill teams, military—Green Patrol (Argonaut No. 166, Oakland, and Albany No. 260, Albany, Parlors), first; Dolores Parlor No. 169, San Francisco, second; Golden Gate Parlor No. 158, San Francisco, third; La Bandera Parlor No. 110, Sacramento, fourth; Darina Parlor No. 114, San Francisco, fifth.

Beautiful trophies have been given the above, and United States of America Flags have been presented the junior drill teams of Marinita Parlor No. 198, San Rafael, and Stockton Parlor No. 256, Stockton.—R.T.

In Memoriam

LOUISE KOENIG.

To the Officers and Members of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of love and respect to the memory of our departed Sister Louise Koenig, submit the following:

Whereas, Another faithful Charter Member and devoted friend has completed her earthly tasks and been called to the Home of our Father; those of us who were privileged to know her long and well realize that the golden links of fraternity and friendship has been severed, and we will miss her sweet smile and friendly word, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family in the loss of a devoted and loving wife and mother our sincere sympathy, and be it further resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Parlor, and that a copy be sent to the family of our late Sister, and a copy sent for publication to The Grizzly Bear Magazine.

Respectfully submitted in P.D.D.A.

LOS ANGELES

Mrs. Pearl Retzer, 1919 South First avenue, Arcadia, will be hostess to Californiana at a potluck picnic Monday, August 7.—O.L.

OUTGOING PRESIDENT GIVEN PIN.

The meetinghall of La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. was beautifully decorated July 27 for the installation of officers. Deputy Dorothy Ravn, who officiated, was assisted by members of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W., and Madaline Pitney was installed as president.

Anna Marie Dunlay, outgoing president, was presented by the Parlor with a past president pin. Visitors were Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen and Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg. Refreshments were served at the close of the ceremonies.

INITIATION IN HONOR GRAND PRESIDENT.

Officers of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., with David H. Schumacher as president, were installed July 7 by District Deputy Robert Garey. William A. Page was the recipient of a past president ring. Brief addresses were made by Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton and Deputy Grand President Hervey Lindley Kitchin.

Grand President Jesse H. Miller has been invited by Ramona to attend an initiation being arranged in his honor for August 11. Other local Parlors have been asked to join in the occasion, which will be known as "Grand President Jesse Miller Night."

Ramona will have but two meetings during August. On the 25th, at 6:30 p.m., a dollar dinner will be served for twenty-five cents under the direction of the good of the order committee. The feast will be prepared by Secretary and Mrs. Joe W. Fonte, Miss Josephine Fonte, and First Vice-president and Mrs. William R. Blaha.

ALIEN FISHING DISCUSSED.

Benjamin Harrison, United States Attorney for the southern district of California and identified with Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. of San Bernardino, addressed the East Los Angeles Breakfast Club July 20.

In the course of his remarks, he discussed proposed new laws for the regulation of commercial fishing in coastal waters by aliens, and suggested ways and means of having such needed legislation adopted and enforced.

HEAR OF N.S.G.W. FOUNDING.

Santa Monica—July 11, the sixty-fourth anniversary of the founding of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, officers of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. were installed at public ceremonies that attracted a large attendance. District Deputy Dewey Richards, who officiated, was assisted by members of Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263, San Pedro. Albert Seaman, an oldtime member of the Parlor, was installed as president, and declared it was his intention to make the new term an outstanding one in the Parlor's history.

Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy of San Francisco addressed the assemblage on "The Founding of the N.S.G.W. Sixty-four Years Ago," and his enlightening remarks were received with enthusiasm. Others in attendance were Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, Grand Organist Roger Johnson, Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, Supervising Deputy Roy Tarleton, District Deputy Robert Garey, Chairman Betty Graydon of the Los Angeles County Homeless Children Committee and representatives of near-by Parlors. Dancing concluded a very enjoyable evening.

Santa Monica Bay is planning its annual barbecue and dance for the latter part of August. Extensive arrangements are being made for participation in the San Francisco Admission Day parade. The drum and bugle corps of No. 267 and the mounted posse of Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz, a member of the Parlor, will be in line, and an invitation has been extended Police Chief Charles L. Dice and his mounted posse to participate. Hector P. Baida heads the arrangements committee. The last meeting night of each month the Parlor is to be addressed by a prominent speaker, and several class initiations are scheduled.

CHILDREN COMMITTEE'S OFFICERS.

The Los Angeles County Homeless Children Committee has elected the following officers: Mrs. Betty Graydon of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., assistant United States Attorney, chairman; Miss Grace Norton of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., vice-chairman; Delmar Badgley of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W., recording secretary; John Gower of Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W., financial secretary; Miss Flora Holy of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., treasurer.

WILMINGTON SAN PEDRO

(ROWENA BERENSTEIN.)

SAN PEDRO—AT IMPRESSIVE PUBLIC ceremonies July 21, officers of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. and Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed in the presence of a large number of members and friends. The hall was attractively decorated in red, white and yellow. Deputies Ernestine Aylward and Clarence S. Hunt officiated, and Mrs. Lucy Ascolesi and Thomas Allender became the respective presidents. At the conclusion of the ceremonies, Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards and Deputy Hunt presented, on behalf of Stephen M. White Parlor, past president pins to Jack Mele and John Swinford. Mrs. Ascolesi was the recipient of many gifts, including a basket of beautiful flowers, sent by No. 263 in appreciation of the co-operation given the past term.

Other guests of the occasion were Grand Vice-president Hazel B Hansen, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Deputy Margaret Kreider, Chairman Betty Graydon of the Los Angeles County Homeless Children Committee, Mrs. Florence Dodson Schoneman, Mrs. Thomas Allender, Mrs. Jack Mele, Mrs. Clarence M. Hunt, wife of The Grizzly Bear editor, and Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton.

Prior to the installation, members of Rudecinda and Stephen M. White Parlors and their guests enjoyed a 6:30 spaghetti dinner provided by President Lucy Ascolesi of No. 230 and her brother, President Jack Mele of No. 263, as an expression of appreciation for the fine co-operation received from the members of their respective Parlors. Later in the evening light refreshments were served.

A PERFECT OUTING.

San Pedro—The steak barbecue sponsored by Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. at White's Point July 16 was one of the greatest successes in a long time, some 350 attending. Many neighboring Parlors were well represented, and the drum and bugle corps of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267, captained by William Heyne, turned out in force and favored with several numbers. Dancing was in order during the afternoon and evening.

Hampton Neergaard was general chairman of what was unanimously declared a perfect outing, and President Jack Mele, with a corps of able assistants, had charge of the barbecue. Among those in attendance were Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, Grand Trustees Walter C. Richards and Walter E. Smith, and Grand Organist Roger Johnson.

THIMBLE CLUB MEETS OUTDOORS.

San Pedro—The Florencita Thimble Club of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. met July 6 in Point Firmin Park, with Letitia Sarciaux as hostess. The July 18 meeting was held in Banning Park, with Lucy Ascolesi, president of the Parlor, as hostess.

July 13, Rudecinda was visited by Supervising Deputy Olinda Kerby Thomas and Deputy Ernestine Aylward. President Ascolesi gave a fine report on the San Francisco Grand Parlor. Refreshments were served by Chairman Catherine Norris and committee.—R.B.

RITUAL TEAM VISITS BAKERSFIELD.

Compton—At impressive ceremonies conducted by District Deputy Dewey Richards, officers of Compton Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W., with Frank L. Tarleton as president, were installed July 18. William Don Castillo, who assisted in organizing the Parlor in 1932, became the junior past president. A large delegation from Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 of San Pedro attended.

On Compton's behalf, a past president ring was presented Walter G. Hopcraft by Police Judge Stanley W. Sargent. Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton was among the speakers. At the meeting's close, a buffet supper, prepared under the direction of President Tarleton and Vice-presidents Ray G. Olmsted, Gordon Waters and Ira H. Jones, was served. The Parlor's "crack" ritual team, captained by Hector Hecock, went to Bakersfield July 12 and initiated a class of candidates for Bakersfield Parlor No. 42.

ADMISSION DAY AT LONG BEACH.

Long Beach—All Native Sons and Native Daughters of the southland who do not anticipate going to San Francisco for Admission Day are urged by Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. and Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. to celebrate the state's birthday here in Bixby Park September 9. A fine program is being arranged. The festivities will run from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

California's 1939 grape crop will total 2,296,000 tons, according to an estimate of the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service; this is 235,000 tons less than last year.

The Contra Costa County Fair will be staged August 24-27 at Antioch.

The San Joaquin County Fair will be held at Stockton August 18-27.

Napa—Eshcol No. 16 entertained July 11 in honor of Grand Inside Sentinel George Bruno of Napa No. 62 N.S.G.W. The grand march was led by President Sidonia Geiger and the honorguest. The hall was beautifully decorated, and refreshments were served. August 14, Eshcol will observe its fifty-second institution anniversary and entertain its three charter members.

Santa Cruz—In the presence of a large number of visitors, officers of Santa Cruz No. 26 were installed July 17 by Deputy Clara Brown, Dorothy Barber becoming president. The meetingroom was beautifully decorated with gladioli, and the officers, attired in white formals, carried fans of red gladioli and fern. Among the gifts presented was that of a past president emblem to Sarah McGarry by the Parlor. Others in attendance were Past Grands Stella Finkeldey and Bertha A. Briggs, Supervising Deputy Mary Antonetti, Deputies Leona Geyer and Viola Clough. Refreshments were served at tables decorated in patriotic colors. Battleships fashioned out of french bread and decorated with red, white and blue flowers, constituted the centerpiece. Pearl Reid, Mary Antonetti, Leona Geyer, Mamie Cavanaugh and Elsa O'Donnell had charge of the decorations, and refreshments were served by Josephine L. Grellmann, Myra Parrish, Vivian Rice and Belle Preece.

Watsonville—Orchid pink hydrangeas made a beautiful background for the installation of El Pajaro No. 35's officers July 18. Deputy Brown officiated, and Leola Beazell became president. Supervising Deputy Mary Antonetti was among the visitors. Refreshments were served at tables attractively decorated with pansies, gold-colored calla lilies and fern. Arrangements for the occasion were in charge of Viola Clough, Elma Crouch, Dora Presho, Dora Zmudowski, Edna Rich, Ida East, Josie Daly and Myrtle Allison.

Oakland—The drill team of Piedmont No. 87 recently sponsored a successful whist party. The proceeds will go toward the purchase of new uniforms for the San Francisco Admission Day, September 9, parade.

Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

CALIFORNIA AND THE ENTIRE NATION were shocked August 14, 1889, by news of the killing of Justice David S. Terry by Deputy United States Marshal David Nagle after Terry had slapped the face of United States Justice Stephen J. Field. The tragedy occurred at 7:15 a.m. in the railroad diningroom at Lathrop, San Joaquin County, and was witnessed by Publisher Harrison Gray Otis of the Los Angeles Times. Both Nagle and Field were placed under arrest, but the latter was released on $500 bail on a writ of habeas corpus. That was the first time, so it was said, a United States justice had ever been arrested. Police Chief Crowley of San Francisco refused to serve the warrant of arrest on Field, so Sheriff Tom Cunningham of San Joaquin County went there and personally arrested him.

The Supreme Court of California refused to adjourn out of respects for Justice David S. Terry because he resigned the chief justiceship of the court to engage in a duel.

The Society of California Pioneers, San Francisco, August 7 rejected a proposal of Dr. Ayers to establish and maintain a home for indigent pioneers.

Elam Brown, member of the First Constitutional Convention of California, which met at Monterey in 1849, died August 10 at Lafayette, Contra Costa County. He was a farmer, and represented the San Jose district. He was born in New York in 1797.

Pioneer Levy Nye from Massachusetts, who crossed the plains in 1849 and brought with him a frame house, one of the first erected in Sacramento, died August 21 at Chico, Butte County.

Charles N. Gillespie, who arrived in San Francisco in 1848, died there August 28. A. C. Raymond, Pioneer of 1849, died August 15 at Stockton, San Joaquin County.

The cornerstone of San Diego County's new court house was laid August 10 at San Diego City.

At an election in Los Angeles August 30, a proposal to bond the city $128,000 for sewers was rejected—3,851 votes for, 3,158 against. A two-thirds majority was required. [Compare the total vote cast, 7,009, a half-century ago with Los Angeles' voting strength today.]

Superior Judge Thomas V. Brown of Contra Costa County died August 5 at Martinez.

Immense forest fires were raging in the mountains in the vicinity of Hornbrook, Siskiyou County.

J. R. Collins, a San Bernardino County constable, August 2 shot and killed H. Adams at Oro Grande for a trivial offense.

Miss Ade Stanford of Newman, Stanislaus County, attempted to light a fire with coaloil August 4. An explosion resulted and she was fatally burned.

While preparing dinner on the Alison ranch near Grass Valley, Nevada County, August 4, the clothes of Mrs. Ellen, wife of Michael Roach, caught fire and she was burned to death.

Oliver Wendell Briggs was appointed crier of the United States District Court in San Francisco August 6.

Fire in Selma, Fresno County, August 6 destroyed several business buildings, including that occupied by the Irrigator, the local newspaper.

Unable to meet the demand of Depositor Louis Phillips for $8,000, the amount of his claim, the Bank of Pomona, at Pomona, Los Angeles County, closed its doors August 6.

Eugene Learn and companion were drowned August 7 at Ocean Beach, San Diego County, by the capsizing of a boat.

Charles H. Mayer, 19-year-old Oakland, Alameda County, youth, August 8 killed himself because his father upbraided him for the reckless expenditure of money.

The Modesto, Stanislaus County, Herald had an article concerning Captain T. C. Brown, chairman Board of Supervisors. Because of it, George Brown, the supervisor's son, tried to murder H. L. Hanson, editor and proprietor of the paper, August 8.

While on his route to Weaverville, Trinity County, August 6, Mailman Gray was held up at Callahan's Ranch by two highwaymen. From the mail sack and the express box they got between $800 and $1,000.

In a quarrel over land, William S. Humphrey shot and killed James Bushton August 11 at Josephine, eighteen miles south of Paso Robles, San Luis Obispo County.

In a saloon tragedy at You Bet, Nevada County, August 11, Guiseppi Cerini shot and killed Augustine Piazzi, and was then beaten to death by an infuriated mob.

Most of Truckee, Nevada County, was wiped out by another disastrous fire August 12. All the town's churches were burned.

A new Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West was August 10 instituted at Lakeport, Lake County, by Grand President Frank D. Ryan.

D. C. Norcross, sheriff of San Luis Obispo County two terms, died August 10 at San Luis Obispo City.

Sue Gook, wife of Ong Wo, wealthy Los Angeles Chinaman, kidnaped from a railroad train, was found August 11 in a well near Bakersfield, Kern County.

Fire on the William Murdock ranch near Willows, Glenn County, burned over a thousand acres of grain.

Because of a divorce decision he had rendered, Superior Judge Pierce of San Diego County was shot August 13 by W. S. Glendennin.

N.D.G.W. NEWS

Hollister—Members of Copa de Oro No. 105 motored to the country home of Elma Libao and enjoyed a covered-dish dinner at the edge of the swimming pool. Independence Day was the theme of the July 5 table decorations. Officers presented satisfying reports, and plans were formulated for interparlor visits, and for the installation of officers September 6 at the close of the annual summer recess.

Chico—Ivory walls, blue rugs, blue drapes and modern lighting of the N.D.G.W. Hall made a perfect setting for the installation of Annie K. Bidwell No. 168's officers, with Mrs. Ivy Hoar as president, July 10. Deputy Hattie Clark, who officiated, was assisted by a corps of officers from Gold of Ophir No. 190, Oroville, the escort team of No. 168 and Miss LaVerne Jenne as pianist. The costumes of those participating in the ceremonies made an entrancing picture. Mrs. Harriet Hannis, retiring president, remembered her officers with lavender sachets, and a past president emblem was given Mrs. Flora Detrick. For this term's project, the Parlor decided to adopt twins; if fortunate enough to get a boy and a girl, they will be named Harriet and Harry in honor of Mrs. Hannis. Among the several visitors were Supervising Deputy Addie Roderick. The refreshments tables were gorgeously decorated in many-colored zinnias in honor of Butte County's famous "Zinnia Way."—C.B.H.

San Rafael—Officers of Marinita No. 198 and Mount Tamalpais No. 64 N.S.G.W., with Eugenie Grady and Edward Reed as the respective presidents, were July 14 installed by Deputies Julia Kelso and Arthur Hecht. The lodgeroom was decorated to represent an old-fashioned garden, with lattice work, winding vines, huge hydrangeas, etc. Mrs. Grady was escorted to her station by twelve members of the Junior Auxiliary attired in old-fashioned costumes and carrying hydrangeas. Charter Member Myra Murphy, for the past seventeen years treasurer of Marinita, was presented with a gift by that Parlor. Among the many in attendance were Past Grands Emma G. Foley and Ethel I. Begley, and Supervising Deputy Alice Munz. Dancing and refreshments followed the installation ceremonies. The arrangements committee included Violet Schumaker, chairman, Bertha Watson, Dorothy Geister, Gertrude Hediger, Mae Zappetini, Irene Griffin, Marie Pedersen, Mollye Spaelti, Fredna Schuman, Ruth Ferrari, Norma Ferrari, Ollie Ferrari, Mae Foster, Evelyn Dillon, Lillian Hogan and Hilma Kane.—F.P.

Modesto—Morada No. 199 had a potluck picnic July 19 which was greatly enjoyed. Officers were installed July 26 by Deputy Lorraine Toscano, Aldiva Buran becoming president; Frances Bell was chairman of the evening. The sewing club will continue to meet during the summer, as orders for Christmas gifts are now being received. The club recently presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the Parlor. Supervising Deputy Eleanor Lewis is planning a public district meeting for the near-future. Morada is to have charge of the dedication of the new Stanislaus County Court House early in October; Grand Trustee Ethel C. Enos is chairman of general arrangements. Parlor personals: Catherine Corgiat and Rose Davis are the proud mothers of new native sons. Claradean Bell was recently married to George Ladd. Eleanor Lewis and Eleanor Nola are vacationing in Washington State.—E.C.E.

Albany—Albany No. 260 entertained the members of Argonaut No. 166 and the Parlors' Green Patrol July 12. Decorations were in green and white, and all the cups won by the patrol, including the first prize at the recent Grand Parlor, were on display. June and July birthdays were also celebrated. Ethelda Hall, former deputy for Albany, was presented a percolator, and a silver spoon was ordered for Mrs. Margaret Cannon's new baby boy. The pillowcase whist of June 28 was very successful. Mae Rutan, Marie Vargas, Daisy Olufsen and Hazelett Taylor were in charge.—H.T.

Coalinga—Coalinga No. 270's attractive float in the Fresno County Toad Derby parade, which was witnessed by 8,000 people, was awarded second prize. The float, entitled "Horned Toad Training Ground," represented a desert scene, with toads, sand, real cactus and sage. Mrs. Gladys Wright was chairman of the committee that planned the float.—H.M.D.

Fresno—Marshal Helene Maddy of Wawona No. 271 was wedded July 23 to Clarence E. Gregory. Following the ceremony the couple motored to San Francisco, thence down the coast to southern California and Los Angeles. They will make their home in Fresno.—M.C.

Passing of the California Pioneer

(Confined to Brief Notices of the Demise of those Men and Women who came to California prior to 1870.)

GEORGE VAN GORDEN, BORN NILES, Michigan, September 8, 1845; as a two-months-old babe, crossed the plains to California via the Great Salt Lake Desert and Bear Valley with the George Harlan party, and arrived October 24, 1846, at Johnson's Ranch, Yuba County, the site of the present City of Marysville; from the ranch the party moved on to Sutter's Fort, now Sacramento City, and then to Santa Clara Mission, Santa Clara County; died at Oakland, Alameda County, survived by a daughter. Deceased was the sole surviving member of The Society of California Pioneers, San Francisco, whose membership was confined exclusively to real '49ers—those men who arrived in the Golden State prior to January 1, 1850.

James John Hughes, native of Missouri, 90; as a babe-in-arms, came via Panama in 1849 and resided in Santa Clara and Yolo Counties; died at Woodland, survived by two children.

Mrs. Elizabeth Morton-Marks, native of Pennsylvania, 86; as a four-months-old infant, came via Panama in 1853 and settled in Humboldt County; died at Eureka.

Mrs. Ida Gale-Sweeney, native of Illinois, 87; crossed the plains in 1854 and settled in El Dorado County; died in Pleasant Valley, survived by two children.

Mrs. Caroline Burger, native of Germany; since 1859 a resident of Sacramento City, where she died; five daughters survive.

James Harper, native of Pennsylvania, 81; came in 1864; died at Los Angeles City.

Mrs. Rosa Owens, native of Ireland, 88; came in 1867; died at San Pablo, Contra Costa County, survived by three children.

William E. Johnson, native of Iowa, 77; came in 1867 and long resided in Lincoln, Placer County; died at Auburn.

Mrs. Gertrude Koch-Wurth, native of Germany, 87; came in 1863 and since 1867 resided in Yolo County; died near Winters, survived by ten children.

Mrs. Laura Hollman, native of Indiana, 82; crossed the plains in 1865; died near Woodland, Yolo County, survived by five children.

Mrs. Lucinda Almira Reed, native of Michigan, 91; since 1868 a resident of San Francisco, where she died; three children survive.

Charles Sumner Preble, native of Massachusetts, 84; came via Panama in 1867 and resided in San Francisco, Alameda and Santa Clara Counties; died at San Jose, survived by two daughters.

Mrs. David Malson-Patterson, 85; crossed the plains in 1864 and settled in Amador County; died at Oakland, Alameda County, survived by two daughters. She was the widow of David Patterson, a Mexican War veteran.

Mrs. Florence May Washburn-Byrne, native of Iowa, 81; came in 1864 and resided in Placer, Santa Cruz and Los Angeles Counties; died at Huntington Park, survived by a daughter, Mrs. Roy L. Cornell. For many years deceased made her home in Santa Cruz City.

Mrs. Carrie A. Brown, 83; came across the plains via the Oregon Trail in 1862; died at Los Angeles City, survived by two children.

Mrs. Mattie Brock, native of Pennsylvania, 88; came via Panama in 1859 and resided some time in Tuolumne County; died at San Francisco, survived by three children.

Benjamin Marstow Parker, native of Massachusetts, 85; came in 1858 and resided in Shasta and Humboldt Counties; died at Eureka, survived by a wife and four children.

George W. Holman, native of Missouri, 85; came in 1857; died at Woodland, Yolo County, survived by a wife and a son.

Leonard C. Flores, native of Mexico, 87; since 1857 a resident of Los Angeles County; died at Alhambra, survived by a wife and three children.

Adelbert Pixley, native of Michigan; came in 1856; died at Red Bluff, Tehama County.

"MORAL REARMAMENT," AS OUTgrowth of the "Oxford Movement," is gathering more and more converts and advocates. Its four guiding principles,—absolute honesty, unselfishness, purity and love—when universally recognized and adhered to by individuals, institutions and governments, will undoubtedly assure lasting world peace and freedom from economic and government ills.

Man and his laws have made a sorry mess of world affairs and governments. Why not now turn to the King of Kings and His teachings for that leadership which will bring about a fulfillment of the "M.R.A." legend: "New Men—New Nations—a New World"?

Yes, poor old England has surrendered its "place in the sun." Witness its latest capitulation—to Japan, in China. And, unless Johnnie Bull can once more induce, through a most elaborate and extensive propaganda campaign, Uncle Sammie to "hold the bag," England is not likely to recover its lost position.

"I sometimes wonder why writers apply the adjectives 'beastly' or 'savage' to atrocities recounted in the press of today," says Dr. E. V. Wilcox. "It's a gratuitous insult to the cannibal to call the unprovoked military murder of Spanish, Chinese and Ethiopian women and children 'savagery.' 'Fiendishness' is a better word for it."

Unmercifully bombarding tax theories such as ability to pay, progressive rates, etc., Professor Harley L. Hasten the day that such groups organize and "pressurize" in California!

China will fight to the end, according to Chihtsing Feng, recently appointed Consul General of the Chinese Republic to San Francisco. Says he: "After all we are the victims. We do not want a war and would end it immediately if we could. This I can tell you, however: China will fight to the end. . . . China is proving to be unconquerable." More power to China!

"There are people, plenty of them, in the United States who know more about the problems of Europe than they do about the problems of this country," remarks the Livermore Herald. Is it not so! "The Japanese are using materials they buy from Uncle Sam to 'blow us off the Asiatic continent'," cautioned Julean Arnold, for many years American commercial attache in China, in addressing the Commonwealth Club, San Francisco. Here are additional declarations by Arnold that must cheer the white-Jap worshipers of the rising sun in this country:

"Wherever the Japanese army goes the opium pipe and the dope needle invariably follow. . . . Japanese here are sending back tens of millions of dollars to help the war in China. . . . We are distributing Japanese propaganda at low postage rates by United States mail, but not one word of American propaganda can be distributed in Japan."

"Welcome Neighbor" is the theme of the market week to be held August 7-12 at San Francisco.

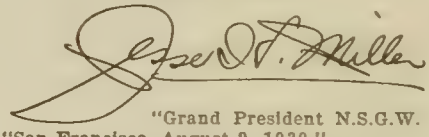
Native Sons of the Golden West

"TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS of all Subordinate Parlors of the Native Sons of the Golden West—Dear Sirs and Brothers: Another year has rolled around and we are rapidly approaching the 89th anniversary of the Admission of California into the Union. This important date will be appropriately observed by a monstrous celebration to be held in the Exposition City, San Francisco, Saturday, September 9, 1939.

"This year especially should be one which will attract all Californians to San Francisco, not only to take part in our celebration, but to enjoy a marvelous week-end enjoying the beauties of our Treasure Island. Here you will find glorious flowers and grounds by daylight and awe-inspiring splendor at night. The lure of this man-made island of beauty is one which will long live in your memory.

"Our Order has played an important part in having Admission Day observed as a legal holiday, and your active participation in its observance will assure its continuance. There is no better way for us to demonstrate our loyalty to our native State than by a fitting tribute to its Nation on Every Native Day we can patriot and United States, and by demonstrating our loyalty to our Nation on Admission Day we can accomplish much in stamping out the subversive groups which are rearing their ugly heads in our midst.



Jesse H. Miller

"It is not too much to expect from every loyal member of our Order that he should appoint himself a committee of one to assist the officers and members of his Parlor in perpetuating the day every Californian must hold close to his heart.

"The City and County of San Francisco is eagerly looking forward to September 9th and elaborate preparations are being made for a splendid program and for your complete entertainment. This day will be culminated at a Grand Ball on Treasure Island. . . .

"Every loyal Californian, whether native or adopted, should observe Admission Day, and I especially urge you to request your local merchants to close their places of business and to display the State Flag of California together with the Stars and Stripes.

"My personal greetings and best wishes are extended to each and every one of you, with the fond wish that I may have the privilege of greeting you at San Francisco September 9, 1939. Sincerely and fraternally yours,

"Grand President N.S.G.W.

1940 Public Speaking Contest.

The Grand Parlor Public Speaking Contest Committee—Reynald J. Bianchi, chairman, Frank M. Buckley, C. Harry Davis, Leslie Lindsay, John R. Sullivan, Arthur H. Drew and Harold J. Zimmerman—has selected the following subjects for the 1940 contest:

"Portola, Trailblazer of California;" "Pio Pico, Mexican Governor of California;" "Santa Barbara, Queen of the Missions;" "Henry Durant, First President of the University of California;" "The Donner Party of 1846-47;" "The Battle of San Pasqual;" "Sir Francis Drake and the Marin Shore;" "John Augustus Sutter, Settler of the Sacramento Valley;" "Hubert Howe Bancroft, Historian of California;" "San Juan Capistrano and the Swallows;" "William B. Ide of the Bear Flag Party;" "Sacramento 1839-1939, a Century of Progress."

The contest is open to students of California high schools who do not graduate before the spring of 1940. Contests in each high school must be held before January 1, 1940; county elimination contests must be held between January 1, 1940, and February 15, 1940; competition for state honors will be held between February 15, 1940, and April 1, 1940. Speeches shall not exceed a maximum of eight minutes in length. The winner of each high school contest will receive a silver medal, of each county contest a gold medal, and of the state contest a special gold medal.

Former Grand Trustee Passes.

Hillsborough (San Mateo County)—Associate Justice William Henry Langdon of the California Supreme Court died here August 10, survived by his wife, a son, Lawton William Langdon, and a daughter, Mrs. Ned Marr. He had served San Francisco as superintendent of public schools and district attorney, and Stanislaus County as judge of the Superior Court. From 1913 to 1916 he was president of the California State Board of Education, and in 1926 was elected a justice of the Supreme Court.

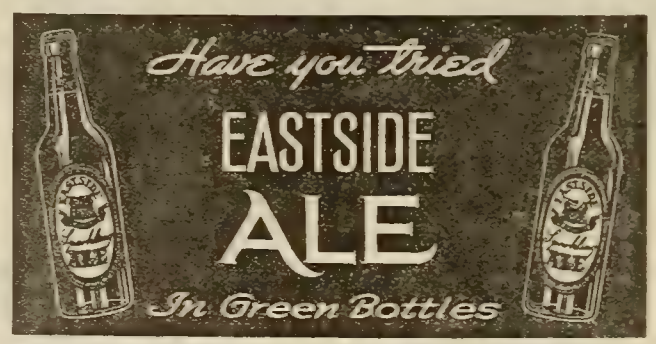
Justice Langdon was born September 25, 1873, in Amador Valley, Alameda County. He affiliated with Pacific No. 10, San Francisco, February 15, 1898, and transferred to Modesto No. 11 April 12, 1916. He was a delegate to several Grand Parlors from those Parlors, and at the Forty-first, Truckee 1918, Grand Parlor was elected Grand Trustee, serving two terms in that office.

San Diego To Celebrate September 9.

San Diego—San Diego No. 108 and San Diego No. 208 N.D.G.W. are sponsoring a celebration of Admission Day, September 9, in which the navy, the army and all civic and fraternal organizations will participate. The general arrangements committee includes Joseph C. Kelly, chairman, Chester D. Gunn, Judge Eugene Daney, R. E. Mahoney, Henry U. Emery, H. W. Hache and Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer.

The Admission Day parade, the main celebration feature, promises to be the biggest in San Diego's history. It will be marshaled by Rear Admiral J. R. Defrees, Commandant Eleventh Naval District. Trophies will be awarded the two best marching units, mounted groups, floats and bands. Following the parade there will be a luncheon at which Mayor P. J. Benbough will be the master of ceremonies. In the afternoon a boat ride to points of interest on San Diego Bay will be an attraction.

Members of San Diego No. 108 were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Daley at Jamul ranch August 13, the occasion being the annual picnic. Last year the Parlor dedicated, and placed a bronze plaque upon, the historic ranch building which was the home of Governor Pio Pico in 1846.



NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Oakland—The Alameda County Joint N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Admission Day Committee has arrangements about completed for the Parlors' participation in the September 9 celebration at San Francisco. County headquarters will be at Eagles Hall, 273 Golden Gate avenue, and dancing will be in order from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight. Officers of the committee are: M. C. Pessano, Oakland Parlor No. 50 N.S., chairman; M. Welsh, Argonaut Parlor No. 166 N.D., co-chairman; R. Burke, Claremont Parlor No. 240 N.S., vice-chairman; W. M. Davis, Claremont Parlor No. 240 N.S., secretary; R. M. Hamb, Piedmont Parlor No. 120 N.S., treasurer.

Modesto—Modesto No. 11 had its annual weiner roast on Ingle Island in the Tuolumne River August 9. Julius Larsen was in charge of arrangements and President Herbert E. Paul was master of ceremonies.

Eureka—The Humboldt County Parlors—Humboldt No. 14, Eureka, Arcata No. 20 and Ferndale No. 93—had their annual family picnic outing August 13 at Riverside Park. A program of sports occupied the afternoon. Members of the Native Daughters were guests.

Petaluma—At impressive public ceremonies, the officers of Petaluma No. 27 and Petaluma No. 222 N.D.G.W. were jointly installed August 1. Deputies Carl Plow and Leopolda Vier officiated, and Arthur Wipner and Charter Member Pearl Hickey became the respective presidents. Gladioli of apricot, purple and flame tints adorned the hall. Past president emblems were presented Frank Witham and Pauline

GENERAL SUTTER AND THE ADMISSION OF CALIFORNIA TO THE UNION

Dr. Peter T. Conmy

Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

AUGUST 12, 1939, THE ONE HUNDREDTH anniversary of the settlement at Sacramento of General John A. Sutter, and September 9, 1939, the eighty-ninth anniversary of the admission of California to the Union, come so close together on the calendar that they prompt one to ask what was the effect of the one upon the other. In other words, what was the reaction of General Sutter to the admission of California to the Union?

In one sense, the admission of California to the Union, September 9, 1850, ended forever Sutter's dream of one day ruling the great northern valley of California as an independent state known as New Helvetia. It is well known that when he arrived in California in 1839 and sought a grant of land from Governor Alvarado the reason why Sutter selected a settlement in the Sacramento Valley was that he might be far removed from Mexican influence and control. It was always his hope that things might some time shape themselves so that he might make New Helvetia independent of Mexico and, consequently, of Alta California. That this dream persisted in Sutter's mind until at least as late as 1846 is evidenced by the following which he wrote in his manuscript:

"It never occured to me that Fremont had come to the country to prepare the way for annexation of California to the United States. True, at his first visit, before I had come to an understanding with Micheltorena, I had told him that I had had all kinds of trouble with the Californians. Since I was determined to declare my independence of both Mexico and California, as soon as I felt strong enough to do so, I had asked him if I could declare myself a subject of the United States in case my plans should be successful."

However, certain events had happened which were destined to forever bar a fulfillment of Sutter's visions of empire. June 14, 1846, a band of Americans under Semple and Ide raised the Bear Flag at Sonoma and declared California independent of Mexico. In the readjustment which followed, the commandant at Sonoma, Mariano Guadalupe Vallejo, and three others were taken to Fremont as prisoners of war and by him ordered jailed in Sutter's Fort, all of which was contrary to Sutter's wishes and which materially reduced his prestige and power.

July 7, 1846, Commodore Sloat raised the Stars and Stripes at Monterey. The flag was raised over San Francisco two days later, July 9th. On the same day the American Flag also replaced the Bear Flag at Sonoma. Sutter heard of these events July 10th. Whether or not he justly believed it would be better to have California as part of the United States, or whether he acted to save himself the embarrassment of having the fort taken over as an act of war by the United States Army, must forever remain a mystery. The fact is, that July 11, 1846, General Sutter raised Old Glory over Sutter's Fort. Sutter's version of the flag raising is as follows:

"Lieutenant Revere sent me one (a flag). It was brought by a courier who arrived in the night. At sunrise next morning I hoisted it over my fort and began firing guns. The firing continued until nearly all the glass in the fort was broken."

There is some evidence, however, that Sutter did not raise the flag at all. The historian, Bancroft, makes the following significant statement about this:

"It does not clearly appear whether Fremont went down in person to raise the flag at the fort on the morning of July 11th, or simply directed Kern to attend to that duty. Sutter. . . never admits that he was not in command all this time". . .

Following the discovery of gold in 1848 Sutter's prestige, wealth and influence rapidly declined. The news of the gold fields made California over night the mecca for thousands and thousands of seekers of opportunity in the New Helvetia region. These men were filled with the spirit of the West. They had been raised in the belief that land on the frontier was theirs for the settling. Arrived in the Sacramento Valley-Sierra area, they squatted wherever they wished, regarding not the property rights of General Sutter. In addition to losing his lands in this manner, Sutter also lost much of his money through poor investments and through frauds of one sort or another. Says Bancroft:

"He saw vanish his dream of empire, his kingship over some thousands of naked, mild-mannered red men; he saw his lands usurped, bands of lawless inrushing gold-hunters squatting here and there and everywhere, killing and scattering his great droves of cattle, killing and demoralizing his people."

Justice for Sutter depended upon the reign of law. But there was no law. California was from February 2, 1848, the date of the Treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo, the property of the United States. She was not a state. She was not a territory. She was held under the military in the absence of an established government. The deadlock in Congress on the question of slavery in California impeded action for two years. Yet, Sutter wanted justice, and as a means to obtaining it became an advocate of California's admission to the Union. Accordingly, when the military governor, General Bennett Riley, authorized the election of delegates for a constitutional convention to be held August 1, 1849, Sutter went before the voters of the Sacramento District and by them was elected a member of the convention. At this time he was forty-seven years of age. Sutter's description of the convention follows:

"On the third of September, 1849, the constitutional convention met at Monterey. I was elected delegate from Sacramento. On the way to Monterey I caught a fever, but fortunately I recovered after a few days. As usual I stopped at David Spence's house where Abel Stearns was also a guest. We worked very hard at this convention. We compared the constitutions of various states and selected what was best suited for our conditions. When the question of slavery came up, the people of the southern states kept quiet; they did not wish to be excluded from the distribution of offices.

"We held many night sessions, and in six weeks the whole business was done—to the chagrin of those who had nothing else to do and wanted to spin it out as long as they could. The last day of the convention our president, Doctor Robert Semple, was sick and I was elected president. That day we went in a body to General Bennett Riley, the last of the military governors of California, in order to inform him of the conclusion of our work."

But although the Constitutional Convention was finished, there was still very important work to do. First, the government authorized in that Constitution must be launched. Second, Congress must be persuaded to admit the State of California to the Union as a free state. In regard to the first task, Sutter offered himself as a candidate for governor at the election held in November 1849. He was defeated, but did receive a very substantial vote. His running mate, for lieutenant-governor, was Albert M. Winn, the Founder of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. Peter H. Burnett was the successful candidate, and took office December 20, 1849. Sutter hoped that each day would bring the establishment of the legal machinery necessary to establish his claims. He trusted that the State would be admitted to the Union, and that he would then be able to invoke the aid of Federal officials in the event that he did not secure justice from the state tribunals.

Conditions around Sutter's Fort became so intolerable that in the early part of 1850 Sutter retired to his cattle center, known as Hock Farm. This place is located on the west side of the Feather River about eight miles below Marysville, Yuba County. There were three buildings on this ranch, namely, an old adobe house, a mansion in which Sutter lived, and a small iron fort, part of which is still standing. It was here that Sutter was residing September 9, 1850, when California was admitted to the Union. It was here that late in October he heard the long-delayed news of that event. Filled with joy, he went to the little iron fort and fired alternately the two cannon until all his ammunition was consumed. "The law will surely come now," he exclaimed. "The law will come. Things will change now."

Thus the admission of California into the Union of States was greeted by her most picturesque citizen and the man who had lost most by virtue of her development. Eighty-nine years have rolled by, but surely no one has ever more sincerely longed for the law and order which the admission of the state brought than did dear old General John A. Sutter that October day when the news of California's admission was brought to Hock Farm.

CALIFORNIA POPPY

(VIOLET L. CUSLIDGE.)

Golden poppies are the emblem of a State that's golden, too,—
California, land of sunshine, where the summer skies are blue.
Sun that ripens fruits in honey, sun that gives wild flowers a glow,
Sun that pours out health and plenty on the earth spread out below.

Golden poppies tell the story of a time when gold was found
By the eager forty-niners in the streams and in the ground.
Gold that built a mighty empire, gold that beckoned to the East,
Gold that flows to every nation from the greatest to the least.

Golden poppies are the vision of the triumphs of the land,
Of the everlasting beauties that have sprung from rock and sand.
Battles won by toil and labor, fortunes wrested from the earth,
Victories that harnessed nature, all contribute to her birth.

(The above came to The Grizzly Bear from Violet L. Cuslidge of San Andreas Parlor No. 113 N.D.G.W. with the notation: "I am enclosing some original verse inspired by my love and loyalty toward our magnificent State. . . . I would appreciate its publication." —Editor.)

WELCOME TO THE EXPOSITION CITY!

SAN FRANCISCO WILL WELCOME ALL California to the Admission Day celebration to be held there September 9. The first great celebration of California's admission was held in San Francisco under the auspices of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West in 1890. Similar never-to-be-forgotten observances were held in 1900, 1910 and 1915.

What was done in the old San Francisco will be done again in the new! The Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West of San Francisco have planned a mammoth celebration for this year, the eighty-ninth anniversary of California's admittance to the Sisterhood of States, September 9, 1850.

The crowning event of the day's festivities will be the Admission Day parade in San Francisco at 10:30 a.m. Drum corps and drill team contests will be held on Treasure Island starting promptly at 3 p.m. The grand ball will start at 9 p.m. in the California State Building on Treasure Island.

The makeup of the Admission Day parade appears on another page of this issue of The Grizzly Bear. Participants in the drum corps and drill team contests will include:

Native Sons drum and bugle corps—Piedmont Parlor No. 120, Oakland; Castro Parlor No. 232, San Francisco; Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214, San Francisco; Napa Parlor No. 62, Napa; Sea Point Parlor No. 158, Sausalito; Mount Tamalpais Parlor No. 64, San Rafael.

Native Daughters drum corps—Aloha Parlor No. 106, Oakland; Guadalupe Parlor No. 153, San Francisco; Mission Parlor No. 227, San Francisco; El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, Daly City.

Native Sons drum corps—Fruitvale Parlor No. 252, Oakland; Athens Parlor No. 195, Oakland; Guadalupe Parlor No. 231, San Francisco; Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214, San Francisco; Mission Parlor No. 38, San Francisco; Presidio Parlor No. 194, San Francisco; South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, San Francisco; El Carmelo Parlor No. 256, Daly City; Sacramento Parlor No. 3, Sacramento.

Native Daughters drill teams—Piedmont Parlor No. 87, Oakland; Castro Parlor No. 178, San Francisco; Dolores Parlor No. 169, San Francisco; Mission Parlor No. 227, San Francisco; Golden Gate Parlor No. 158, San Francisco; Presidio Parlor No. 148, San Francisco; Darina Parlor No. 114, San Francisco; Portola Parlor No. 172, San Francisco; La Bandera Parlor No. 110, Sacramento; Petaluma Parlor No. 222, Petaluma; Marinita Parlor No. 198, San Rafael.

Native Sons drill team—University Parlor No. 272, Los Angeles. Native Daughters drum and bugle corps—Tamelpa Parlor No. 231, Mill Valley.

The San Francisco Building on Treasure Island will, through the courtesy of Mayor Angelo J. Rossi, hold open house Saturday afternoon and evening.

ADMISSION DAY OBSERVANCE RECEPTION-BALL, TREASURE ISLAND.

San Francisco—Friday evening, September 8, Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. is giving an Admission Day observance reception and ball in the ballroom of the California Building on Treasure Island. The affair is invitational—admission by card, non-transferable,—and formal—full dress or tuxedo.

The program of entertainment will include a light opera ensemble, a ballet, troubadours and a dance ensemble. Prominent personages, among them Governor Culbert Olson and Mayor Angelo Rossi, will be introduced. Arthur T. Poheim, in charge of arrangements, expresses for Stanford Parlor the hope that the affair, which will be a little bit different, will be long remembered.

Some 1,500 invitations have been issued by the Parlor. "We do not wish to exclude any member of the Order who would enjoy the affair," says Poheim. "We are inviting them, and will issue invitations on requests in writing. Also, to grand officers and others who may wish to bring guests, extra invitations will be extended."

"The Days of the Dons," the first annual San Luis Obispo County Rodeo and Stock Show, is billed for San Luis Obispo City September 16 and 17.

Let's Tell Our Friends

Now is the time for every good Native Son and Native Daughter to become a one-person advertising agency.

We have but a few short months to go before our glorious Golden Gate International Exposition,—a truly California Exposition—closes.

Today California is the mecca for thousands upon thousands of visitors from all over the world. Fellow Americans from every section of the country are flocking here during their summer vacation period.

It behooves every one of us to maintain that influx after the vacation season ends.

We can do this if every Californian will write his friends in other lands and those who live on this continent—write them an invitation to come to San Francisco.

THE GRAND FINALE OF THE EXPOSITION MUST BE A BRILLIANT & SUCCESSFUL ONE

This we can make it by keeping up the present flattering interest. Success of the Exposition reflects credit upon the entire State.

AS MAYOR OF SAN FRANCISCO, IT HAS BEEN MY PLEASURE AND PRIVILEGE TO MEET INNUMERABLE VISITORS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD.

They are loud in their praise of our Exposition, of our climate, and of our State.
They are struck with the natural beauty of this Western State.
They are pleased with the hospitality of our people.
They are potential customers of us all.

LET US THEREFORE REDOUBLE OUR EFFORTS IN TAKING ADVANTAGE OF THE OPPORTUNITY AFFORDED US BY THE EXPOSITION.

WRITE YOUR FRIENDS OF THE EXPOSITION, AND OF THE STATE.

You Pioneer Sons and Daughters and You Native Sons and Daughters know the story, the history, the tradition of our State better than any others.

LET US SELL CALIFORNIA AND THE EXPOSITION TO THE WORLD.

ANGELO J. ROSSI,

Mayor of San Francisco.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

"OFFICERS AND MEMBERS NATIVE Daughters of the Golden West—Dear Sisters: Eighty-nine years ago great excitement reigned in California, for a matter of vital importance was before the Congress of our United States, the admission of California as the thirty-first State to the Union. The question of slavery was one of the most important ever to confront the American nation, and it had been voted at the convention that framed the Constitution of California to exclude slavery from the new State. With what anticipation was the news of our admission awaited!

"California is the only State that celebrates the anniversary of its admission into the Union. It has been made a legal holiday in order to give greater emphasis to this important fact in the history of our country, for one of the most exciting contests ever known in the history of the nation preceded the act of admission.

"The significance of our birth as a State, our loyalty and love for our birthplace, are our inspiration to carry on the great work of our Pioneers, as well as our incentive in the preservation of the memories and historical associations so unique in the history of California.

Orinda G. Giannini

"To San Francisco has been given the honor of celebrating this important event 1939. Again September 9, leads to San Francisco 50, the gloriwhere, in 18 the trail first made ous news was known, and where the first celebration, which exceeded any demonstration until then, was held.

"As we join to do so in honor to our Pioneers and our State, let us do so in humble acknowledgment of our many privileges. This occasion is one of great joy to the membership of both the Native Daughters and Native Sons of the Golden West. Let us celebrate this anniversary in a manner long to be remembered, with credit to ourselves and the people of our great commonwealth.

"An outstanding program has been arranged by the San Francisco County Extension of the Order Committee, Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West and, if possible, it is my wish to have you join in these plans to the fullest extent. Where this cannot be arranged, some program should be held to fittingly honor this important event in your community.

"May this year's celebration bring even greater happiness to every member of our Order, and a keener realization of our responsibilities as California women to carry on the traditions set down by the Pioneers of our State. Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Orinda G. Giannini

"Grand President.

"San Francisco, August 11, 1939."

Wishing Well Good Producer.

Santa Cruz—Grand President Orinda G. Giannini was the August 14 guest of Santa Cruz No. 26, the occasion being her official visit. At a dinner preceding the meeting the tables were artistically arranged, and the favors were replicas of the wishing well recently dedicated at the beach to receive contributions to the homeless children fund. To date, $174 has been taken from that well. The Parlor's color, gold, was used throughout the decorations. Past Grand Stella Finkeldey gave an invocation, and the assemblage sang "America the Beautiful."

The meeting followed in Native Sons Hall, which was beautifully decorated. Officers of the Parlor were dressed in white and carried large boquets of Fulton gladioli. Four candidates were initiated. Grand President Giannini was escorted by Mamie Cavanagh, Josephine Grellman, Hazel Brass, Algia Smith and Inez Antonetti to a wishing well, where Alice Halsey read an original poem. While Leona Geyer sang "Wishing," Mrs. Giannini pulled from the well an old oaken bucket containing the Parlor's gift to her. Other guests included Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs, Supervising Deputy Mary Antonetti and Deputy Clara Brown. Refreshments served at a flower-bedecked table concluded the happy occasion.—S.F.

All extended thanks to Dr. Bertola for her hospitality and a very pleasant day. Mms. Thaler, Fisher, Meyer, Giannini and Foley remained for the evening, visiting at the home of Mrs. King.—E.G.F.

Sutter Creek—Officers of Amapola No. 80, with Ann Casagrande as president, were installed by Deputy Myrtle Tonzi. Several presentations were made, among them a past president pin to Verna Boitano, the presentation address being made by Past Grand Gladys E. Noce. Refreshments were served by Elizabeth Ramazzotti, Jane Boitano and Anna Case.—L.M.

San Jose—Many members and friends attended the public installation of Vendome No. 100's officers. Deputy Louise Carto presided, and Mrs. Cecile Dose became president. The auditorium was decorated artistically, giving a southern atmosphere. Program Chairman Clara A. Gairaud presented an "all artists night" in which Margaret Trevey, Jack Tucker, Dorothy Lorentz, Mae Muntz, Edith Sheller, W. J. Sheller and Mrs. Jack Tucker participated. Several gifts were presented, among them a boquet, given President Dose by Horton Kooser, representing Observatory No. 177 N.S.G.W. Buffet refreshments were served. dome presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the international convention of toastmasters and toastmistresses clubs in convention here August 9-11. Mrs. Clara A. Gairaud has been honored by the Music Teachers Association of California with a certificate of certification "in recognition of outstanding musical training and experience."

Hollister—Copa de Oro No. 105 had a prize-winning entry in the annual saddle horse parade. The float featured a group posing the Donner monument, with a large crayon sketch of Donner Lake in the background. Following the usual summer recess the Parlor will resume activities with installation of officers September 6.

Oakland—Aloha No. 106 had a whist party sponsored by the ninth of September committee, headed by Hazel Andrews. The proceeds, $17.75, went to the Admission Day fund.—P.B.

San Andreas—Officers of San Andreas No. 113, with Gwendolyn Wyllie as president, were installed August 11. Mrs. Loretta DeMartini-Edwards, recent bride, was the recipient of a gift. Mrs. John Spaellati, Mrs. Ralph Garbarini, Grand Inside Sentinel Doris Treat and Mrs. Charles Schwoerer were named a committee to arrange for the Parlor's birthday party September 1. Games were played and refreshments were served. Mrs. Howard Collins, Miss Louise Giannini and Mrs. Joseph Huberty were in charge of arrangements for the evening.

Cambria—Officers of El Pinal No. 163, with Elsie Soto as president, were installed August 8 by Deputy Hortense Wright. Four candidates were initiated, and a banquet was served. Evelyn Evans, retiring president, was the recipient of several gifts. Delicious refreshments were served at a prettily decorated table. In attendance were several visitors from San Miguel No. 94, and San Luisita No. 108 of San Luis Obispo. Millie Stanley and Evelyn Evans were in charge of the refreshments and decorations.

Modesto—In a meetinghall beautified with zinnias and greenery, Deputy Lorraine Toscano installed Morada No. 199's officers, with Aldiva Buran as president. Edna Hunsucker, for ten years the faithful financial secretary, has retired from that office and was presented by Ethyl Gardner with gifts from the Parlor, the officers and close friends. Members of the sewing club enjoyed luncheon August 12 at the country home of Ethel Arrington. Members having birthdays in July and August were honored August 12; Mary Clay was chairman. A drinking fountain, representing an old-fashioned well, has been installed in Legion Park by Morada and Modesto No. 11 N.S.G.W. The Parlor expects to issue its cookbook at an early date. Bess Elmore has been appointed chairman of the September social committee.—E.C.E.

Saint Helena—La Junta No. 203 celebrated its twenty-sixth institution anniversary August 16. Charter Members Mina Vann, Inez Supple, Celeste Thorsen and Esther Thompson were among the number in attendance. Games were played under the supervision of Ruth Kenney and Freda Brehm, and refreshments were served by Marie Signorelli and Emma Parnisari. President Edna Kenney's birthday gift to the Parlor was a linen tablecloth with the N.D. monogram.

SAN FRANCISCO ADMISSION DAY PARADE

THE ADMISSION DAY, SEPTEMBER 9, parade will be the outstanding event of the San Francisco festival that has been arranged by the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the "City That Knows How" in celebration of the eighty-ninth anniversary of California's admission to statehood—the thirty-first State, and the brightest star, of the Nation.

The parade will start promptly at 10:30 a.m. from the Civic Center and proceed down Market street to the Embarcadero, where it will disband. Several hours will be required for the brilliant spectacle to pass a given point. In addition to drum corps, drill teams, bands and colorful floats, thousands of gaily-costumed Native Sons and Native Daughters from all parts of the state will march in tribute to California.

Prizes will be awarded the best floats, marching units, drum corps, drill teams, etc., in the Admission Day parade. All participants must be members of the Parlors with which they parade. The lineup of the parade, complete to closing time of this issue of The Grizzly Bear, follows:

SIERRAN RECREATIONAL AREA FEATURED ON NEW MAP.

Vacationists bound for high Sierran outings this summer have about 1,500 lakes and 10,000 miles of streams available for fishing and camping in California's 400-mile-long range of peerless peaks. A vast number of these recreational attractions are shown on the new outing map of the Inyo-Sierra region of the state just published by the Automobile Club of Southern California.

This map is considered the most comprehensive ever drafted of the Sierra Nevada ranges from Fresno to the Nevada State line and from Sequoia National Park on the south to Yosemite Park on the north. Every summit, meadow, lake, stream of any consequence and many other details are shown in the three-color compilation, as well as roads, elevations, game refuges, trails and outstanding scenic features.

NEW FOODS DEVELOPED BY U. C.

Davis (Yolo County)—Seed for the following new products developed at the Agricultural College of the University of California will be ready for distribution to growers during October:

A baby Persian melon, weighing from six to seven pounds, and of high quality. It is resistant to one form of powdery mildew. A sweet Spanish onion, uniform in size and disease resistant, which outyields the best commercial strains.

California's public utilities have been given a 1939 assessment valuation of $1,021,041,730 by the State Board of Equalization. This is a record-breaking valuation, and exceeds that of last year by $11,056,805.

The California Bar Association is to have its annual convention at Del Monte, Monterey County, September 7.

Vallejo, Solano County, is to have its first "acquacade," a pageant of the water, September 23 and 24.

LONG BEACH—MEMBERS OF LONG BEACH Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. and Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. will be hosts and hostesses at the Admission Day, September 9, picnic here being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce for the All States Society. The "greatest picnic in the world," to be held in Recreation Park, Long Beach, will begin at 11 a.m. and continue until 4 p.m. Each state will have a separate location and register, with the Californians acting as hosts and hostesses to each group.

A basket lunch will be served at noon, and a well-planned program will take up the afternoon. Long Beach Native Sons and Native Daughters, attired in earlyday costumes, will participate in the program and present a California State (Bear) Flag to the very popular Long Beach mounted police.

It is the earnest desire of Sergeant Jack Pinnell and Mrs. Ruth Johnson, co-chairmen of the Native Sons and Native Daughters arrangements committee, that the largest assembled group at the picnic be from California. An invitation is extended the members of both patriotic Orders and all native Californians to join in the celebration of California's eighty-ninth birthday anniversary at Long Beach, Admission Day—a legal holiday—September 9. Reservations may be made by communicating with Ruth Johnson, 920 Funston avenue, Norwalk.—R.J.

TO BREAKFAST IN STONE CANYON.

After a month of vacation, Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. will resume regular meetings September 6. President Louise McNary urges all members to be on hand and hear of the plans for the fall season. September 16, Rose Porrazzo, assisted by Clara Bird, Edna Holcomb, Lillian Spinner, Anita Santo, Ethel Kennedy, Emily Mulhern and Mary Smith, will entertain the sewing club at her home, 3709 West Fifty-ninth street. Dessert will be served at 1 p.m.

The Parlor meeting of September 20 will be a very interesting one, as the homeless children committee will have charge. A fine program is promised and good refreshments will be served. A breakfast in Stone Canyon for members, their families and friends is planned for September 24. Los Angeles' history and landmarks committee is arranging a carnival night for October 21 at Plummer Park; the proceeds will be used to restore a room at San Fernando Mission.—E.T.N.

GRAND PRESIDENT N.S. VISITS.

Grand President Jesse H. Miller of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West was a visitor August 11. At noontime he was the guest of the Native Sons Friday Luncheon Club at a luncheon at which Supervising Deputy Grand President Roy L. Tarleton presided.

Addressing the more than one hundred assembled, Grand President Miller said: "It has ever been a tradition of the Native Sons of California to uphold the principles of the constitutional government of the United States. We have denounced any group or set which has advocated overthrow of our democracy by force. . . . Any man who . . . is not an American and is accused of being a communist, has a lot of nerve telling real Americans how to run America!"

In the evening, Grand President Miller had a meeting with Grand Parlor committeemen, past and present grand officers, district deputies, etc. There was a near-100-percent attendance, and affairs of the Order in the southland were discussed. The highlight of the gathering was the organizing of an aims and objectives committee, with Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith as chairman, that will endeavor to stimulate activities.

DELIGHTFUL OUTINGS.

Vacation days having sped rapidly away, Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. will have its first meeting of the new term September 12, with President Beatrice Wahrmund presiding. Mms. Ruth Bilger and Pearl Retzer were hostesses at delightful outings at their respective homes, at Balboa and Arcadia. At the former gathering a goodly sum was raised toward the adoption of another homeless baby.

The farewell luncheon August 14 in honor of Past President Marion Johnson at The Sycamores in Belair was most enjoyable. On behalf of the Parlor, Mrs. Isabel Fages, who planned the party, presented a gift of silver to the popular officer. At the Hollywood Bowl breakfast August 22 under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the Chamber of Commerce, a table was provided for Californiana members. Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer presided.—O.L.

SEVEN INITIATED.

In honor of Grand President Jesse H. Miller, Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. was host to all the Los Angeles County Parlors the night of August 11. Seven candidates were initiated, six for Ramona and one for Hollywood Parlor No. 196, the ritual being impressively exemplified by the following:

District Deputy Clarence S. Hunt, Long Beach Parlor No. 278, president; John O'B. Bodkin, Hollywood Parlor No. 196, senior past president; District Deputy Robert W. Garey, Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267, junior past president; Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton, Compton Parlor No. 273, first vice-president; Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267, second vice-president; Leo V. Youngworth, Ramona Parlor No. 109, third vice-president; Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, Compton Parlor No. 273, marshal; Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith, Los Angeles Parlor No. 45, inside sen-

September 12, Ramona will feature an open meeting especially for members' families, friends and eligibles. Dinner will be served from 6.30 to 7.30 p.m., County Auditor Howard Byram will be the speaker of the evening, the sheriff's pistol team will perform, and a movie, "The Thirteen Golden Cities," will be shown. September 15 initiation will be held, the ceremonies to be followed by a watermelon feast. September 29 is on the Parlor's calendar as judgment night. Eminent judges, prominent attorneys and Mayor Fletcher Bowron have been specially invited.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Glendale—Officers of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W., with Ethyl Kern as president, were installed by Deputy Marcella Palethorpe, who was assisted by members of Californiana Parlor No. 247. Bonita Williams sang the installation ode. On the Parlor's behalf, Beulah VanLuven presented a past president ring to Evalyn Wilson, Ada Steele presented a gift to Harriette Weeks, retiring president, and Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen was also remembered.

Among the visitors were Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg and delegations from all neighboring Parlors. Hostesses of the evening were Julia Laurie, Leonora Pagliuso and Marguerite Piuma. The arrangements committee included Grand Vice-president Hansen, Mary Miller, Betty Sanders, Anna Alpi, Florence Cook and Maude Molen.

TO BE REPRESENTED AT SAN FRANCISCO.

A joint committee of Los Angeles County Native Sons and Native Daughters, with Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards as chairman and Bernard J. Hiss as secretary, is making preparations for the county's participation in the state-wide Admission Day parade in San Francisco September 9.

The Los Angeles County Parlors, which have been assigned to the second division of the big parade, will be led by the thirty-one-piece drum and bugle corps of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. A marching unit from East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. will be in this division and there will be other entries. The Native Sons will appear as a county unit; they will be uniformed in new-design, western-type plainsman hats, golden rodeo shirts and blue trousers.

FULL SEPTEMBER CALENDAR.

Long Beach—Engaging in a new civic endeavor, members of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. are participating in the monthly dinners of the All States Society, where a great Americanism movement is under way. Chairman Nell Cooke reported the August 12 carnival a great success; the many attending had a splendid time and the net profit was $57.48. August 30, Chairman Margaret Burch of the history and landmarks committee conducted the first of a series of tours to historic places, the Huntington Library in Pasadena being visited.

The Parlor's September calendar includes: 2nd, annual food sale, Municipal Market; May Gillies in charge. 14th and 28th, thimble club meetings Bixby Park; potluck luncheon noon, sewing afternoon. 21st, birthday party for members born in September; Mary Stultz, chairman, Mary Provasnik, Grace Poole, Mabel McLean arrangements committee. 23rd, annual homeless children benefit dessert card party, Silverado Park Clubhouse, Thirty-second street and Santa Fe avenue; Eugenia Smith chairman. —R.J.

NEWSY N.S.G.W. PARAGRAPHS.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 will hear September 15 from Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith "Highlights of the Admission Day Parade in San Francisco;" entertainment will be provided. September 22 the Parlor will feature a free dance; good orchestra; members of all Parlors cordially invited. Initiation is scheduled for September 29.—F.F.

Glendale—Officers of Glendale Parlor No. 264, with Arthur M. Corona as president, were installed by District Deputy Clarence S. Hunt. On the Parlor's behalf Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards presented an emblematic ring to Fred Olchvary, retiring president. District Deputy O. Benton Worley was among the visitors. Refreshments were served at the meeting's close.—F.L.

At ceremonies conducted by District Deputy John P. Wright, the officers of East Los Angeles

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

ADMISSION DAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1889, the thirty-ninth anniversary of the admission of California into the Sisterhood of States, was celebrated under the auspices of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West with great pomp at San Jose, Santa Clara County. The parade, which was viewed by a large crowd, was in charge of Grand Marshal James F. Ricker.

At literary exercises in the afternoon addresses were made by Grand President Frank D. Ryan, Past Grand President Marcus A. Dorn and James T. Murphy. Grand Orator F. P. Tuttle delivered the Admission Day oration. The grand march at the ball in Horticultural Hall in the evening was led by Grand President and Mrs. Ryan.

The Society of California Pioneers observed the day at its San Francisco headquarters; Santa Cruz City was host to the United States Army, Colonel Shafter commanding, and Nevada City, Nevada County, had a grand celebration.

The California State Fair opened at Sacramento under favorable auspices September 9. Colonel Creed Haymond made the opening address.

In the Federal Court at San Francisco September 16, Judge Sawyer discharged David Nagle for the shooting of Judge David S. Terry at Lathrop, San Joaquin County, August 14.

Forest fires in several sections of the state did enormous damage during the month. In Nevada County, a fire starting at North Bloomfield swept up the ridge to Snow Point Sawmill and turned in the direction of Bloody Run, the most densely timbered section of the county. Sierra City, Sierra County, was in great danger, and fires were burning at Chalk Bluff. You Bet and Red Dog were saved from destruction by building backfires.

The State Normal School at Chico, Butte County, had its initial opening September 3 with an enrollment of seventy students.

A monument to the memory of veterans of the G.A.R. was dedicated at Sacramento City September 9.

The first frost of the season was reported September 23 from Valley Ford, Sonoma County.

Henry Edelman, clerk in Judge Cheney's department of the San Francisco Superior Court, was indicted September 3 on twenty counts of embezzlement—forging jury warrants.

The Fresno Fair Grounds Association was incorporated September 2 with capital stock listed at $100,000.

John B. Taylor, a California Pioneer of 1849, died September 3 at Mills Station, Sacramento County.

Sylvester Morales, noted desperado who killed three men and had been terrorizing Orange County several weeks, was captured September 6 near Los Angeles. September 10 he was sentenced to Folsom State Prison for life.

As the result of the explosion of a can of coaloil with which he and a younger brother were playing, the 10-year-old son of Z. Chenoweth was burned to death at Redding, Shasta County, September 9.

Alfred S. Iredol, a San Francisco Pioneer of 1849, died in that city September 7.

Three brothers, Christopher, Ollie and George Baker, aged 9, 11 and 13 years, were drowned September 10 in the Tuolumne River near Modesto. Ollie slipped into th river and the others tried to save him.

Captain D. Logan was killed by a would-be robber in a San Francisco saloon September 10.

The boilers of the California Door Factory at Oakland, Alameda County, exploded September 10, and four men were killed.

Baz Tally, a 13-year-old boy, committed suicide by hanging himself from a tree limb near Porterville, Tulare County, September 11. His mother had reprimanded him for quarreling with a younger brother.

The Bartlett Springs stage was held up September 11 near Sites, Colusa County, by a masked robber who got nothing for his trouble.

Railroad traffic over the Sierra was stopped September 13 by the burning of the Cascade bridge at Gold Run, Placer County, and several hundred feet of snowsheds.

In a quarrel over a woman at Nevada City, Nevada County, September 14, David Steel shot and killed Peter Chappel.

Mrs. David Day was burned to death September 14 in a fire which destroyed her home at Pine Flat, near Healdsburg, Sonoma County.

During dedicatory ceremonies at the new Fresno High School, September 15, 17-year-old Henry Church fell from the belfry and was killed.

The Forest Hill, Placer County, stage was stopped September 16 near Auburn by a lone highwayman who compelled the driver to turn over the express box.

Los Angeles' new City Hall was thrown open to the public September 18.

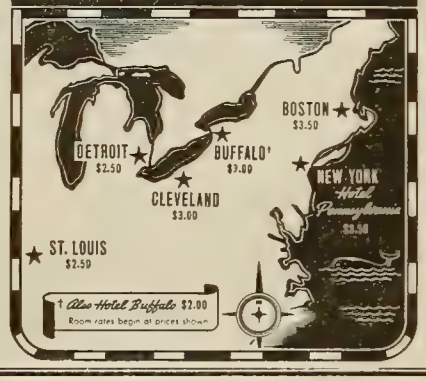
Mathieu Schram applied for a franchise to build a six-mile street railway between Nevada City and Grass Valley, Nevada County.

Emil Britzuer sold a forty-three-acre vineyard within a mile of Fresno City for $1,000 an acre September 20.

1939 CALIFORNIA STATE FAIR PROMISES TO BREAK ALL RECORDS.

Sacramento—The country's largest agricultural exhibition, the Eighty-fifth California State Fair, opens in Sacramento September 1 for a ten-day show. Second in importance to its agricultural and natural resource exhibits are the machinery and manufactures displays housed in a remodeled $100,000 building and ranking as first in the West.

Last year California forged to the front and displaced Minnesota as the leading fair state of the country when 637,682 went through the turnstiles. This year fair directors are pointing at a 700,000-mark, with early entries indicating that it can be reached.



On the 220-acre plant of the fair grounds, valued at $7,500,000, there will be approximately 10,000 exhibits. Last year they reached the 8,000-mark, and with new classes added the five-figured number is anticipated.

Junior farmers will have a minor fair all of their own when they open their livestock and agricultural show in a new group of buildings being erected for them on a 60-acre tract. Future Farmers of America and 4-H boys and girls will share equally in the exhibition space.

The horse show program has been overhauled, new events added and special attractions planned to add to one of the most popular events of the fair. Livestock and track winners of the day will be paraded nightly in the arena.

Secretary-Manager Robert Muckler has had under rehearsal a cast of 250 for a $50,000 vanities that will be presented nightly on a 60x80-foot stage in front of the grandstand. The night show will combine the glamour of the ballet, music, motion pictures and the stage.

James W. Waters, one of the earliest Pioneers of California, died September 20 at San Bernardino City, where he located in 1843.

Judge Chancellor Hartshorn, former state senator, dropped dead at Napa City September 25.

George Peary, San Quentin Prison guard; M. F. Smith, railroad fireman of Oakland; F. Robinson, San Francisco harnessmaker, and Charles Chinette, sailor, went on a fishing trip to Lime Point Lighthouse September 23. They never came back.

The Eleventh District Fair opened September 24 at Quincy, Plumas County.

As the Ferndale, Humboldt County, stage was leaving Rhonerville September 27, it turned over and instantly killed the son of Charles Mills.

Fire starting in the Proctor Hotel almost wiped out Cambria, San Luis Obispo County, September 29. The loss was $125,000.

Anaheim, Orange County, voted $600,000 for a grand irrigation scheme September 28.

Pay of Los Angeles City policemen was reduced September 30 to $70 per month.

Peace Justice J. J. May of Alturas, Modoc County, this month inquired of State Attorney-General Johnson if he had authority to try the superior judge of the county for intoxication.

The Bodie, Mono County, and Hawthorne stage was robbed near the former place September 2 by a lone highwayman who got $600 from the express box.

A disastrous fire, supposed to be of incendiary origin, September 3 destroyed the Palace Hotel and several business houses at Ukiah, Mendocino County.

The Pomona, Los Angeles County, Bank resumed business September 3. It agreed to pay depositors 30 percent immediately.

Harry Dodson, who robbed Superintendent J. L. Patterson of the Run Over Mine of $5,000, was overtaken September 11 at Coyote Hole by Patterson and John Ackerman and, in a fusillade of bullets, was shot and killed.

Hiram W. Johnson, young attorney [now California's senior United States Senator], twice knocked down a ruffian in a Sacramento horse car, September 19, for insulting a woman passenger.

The Big Bend Mining Company, promoted by Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, New York State, to divert the waters of Feather River and obtain the gold said to be in the river bed, made an assignment September 28.

R. G. Adkins, manager of the Grand Central Hotel in Los Angeles, left for parts unknown September 13.

L. C. Cleghorn, an oldtimer of Poker Flat, Sierra County, died September 27 at Downieville.

San Francisco had a parade in celebration of Labor Day September 1.

Mrs. Walter Fahey was thrown from a buggy at Coloma, El Dorado County, September 28 and instantly killed.

In a brush fire at San Diego City September 30, Peter Hansen was burned to death.

The Los Angeles Tribune this month made the claim that cruelty and outrages existed at the National Soldiers Home at Sawtelle, Los Angeles County, and Henry Markham, former Congressman, went to Dayton, Ohio State, to request the Soldiers Home Board to ask for the dismissal of the commander of the home.

Lodi, San Joaquin County, is to have its annual Grape and Wine Festival September 15-17.

THE LETTER BOX

Comments on subjects of general interest and importance received from readers of The Grizzly Bear.

GOOD SUGGESTION.

"Editor Grizzly Bear—I have a happy thought, naturally, as it is close to home with me, but it should be of interest to all Native Sons and to anyone interested in historical California.

"There are still alive some mighty old Californians. It would certainly be interesting if we had a real list of them, but that is probably impossible. However, there are some oldtimers in the Native Sons, and to those interested it would give much pleasure to know the five or ten oldest N.S.G.W., and the same for the N.D.G.W., in California. Publish the list either monthly or yearly so it is always available, and keep it up to date.

"Inquiry from Grand Secretary John T. Regan a while back told me my father I think was No. five on the list at that time, two years ago. He is the only living charter member of Humboldt Parlor No. 14 N.S.G.W., Eureka and I think it is fifty-six years he has been a member. Let's have the others so we can contact them before they are gone. Sincerely, Dr. LESLIE HERRICK," Livermore, August 2, 1939.

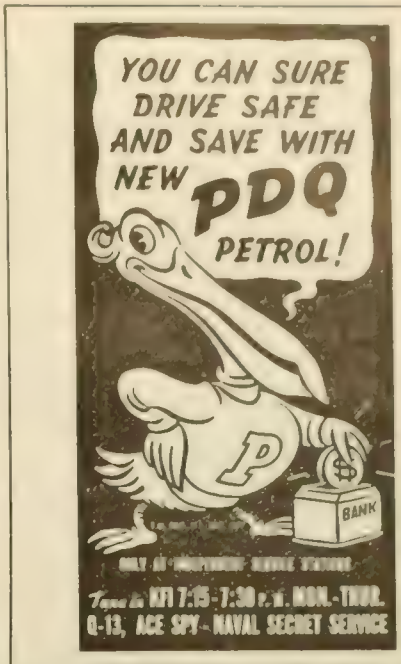
(Dr. Herrick is a member of Las Positas Parlor No. 96 N.S.G.W., Livermore. His suggestion is a good one, and the Grizzly Bear will be glad to co-operate in carrying it out, if the required information be furnished.—Editor.)

SAN BERNARDINO

SAN BERNARDINO—AT IMPRESSIVE public ceremonies in a beautiful setting—the Greek Theater of the San Bernardino Valley Junior College—Hazel Poole was installed as president of Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. Officers in white formals and carrying arm boquets of gladioli were installed by Deputy Marguerite Mize, who was assisted by members of Santa Ana Parlor No. 235 N.D.G.W.

Other guests of the occasion included Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, District Deputy Matilda Enfield and Florence Dodson Schoneman, "mother" of Lugonia. Following the installation ceremonies, attended by approximately 300, Rena Churchill and committee served refreshments. —M.B.

STATE FLAG GIVEN LEGION.



San Bernardino—Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. had its annual watermelon feast August 16 at Perris Hill Park; J. Avery Anderson and Bruce Jordan were in charge. A stag party at the Parlor's Crestline clubhouse, August 19, featured a dinner and entertainment. Eligibles were guests. Arthur O. Johnson was chairman of the evening.

August 30, Arrowhead initiated a class of candidates. A smoker followed the ceremonies. The Parlor has presented a California State (Bear) Flag to San Bernardino Post No. 14 of the American Legion. The flag now flies beneath Old Glory on the flagpole of the Legion hall where the Parlor meets. Raymond O. Powers made the presentation on behalf of Arrowhead.

San Gabriel, Los Angeles County, is to have a fiesta September 2-4 in observance of the birthday of Mission San Gabriel Arcangel, founded September 8, 1771.

The Santa Ynez Valley Rodeo Association is to have its first annual rodeo September 24 at Buellton, Santa Barbara County.

Arcata, Humboldt County, is arranging an elaborate Admission Day, September 9, celebration.

Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. were installed, Francis F. Cannon becoming president. August 28 the Parlor had initiation.

September 15 will be celebrated as "Paisano day" at the Friday Luncheon Club; Ralph Bandini will be the honor-guest. The club's guest speaker August 25 was Dr. Theo. Suranyi-Unger, who discoursed on "Europe, Today and Tomorrow;" Ray Howard was chairman of the day. The club meets every Friday noon at the Hotel Rosslyn, Fifth and Main streets. All Native Sons and their friends are welcome.

BEAR FLAG GIVEN POSTOFFICE.

Canoga Park—Officers of Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. were publicly installed by Deputy Ruth Ruiz, who was assisted by members of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. Clara Tucker became president. Speakers were Grand Vice-president Hazel Hansen, Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg, Ethel Kern and Judge Benton Worley. Refreshments were served.

Topanga, through President Tucker, presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the new $75,000 Canoga Park Postoffice at the dedication August 12.

GET OUT AND HAVE A GOOD TIME!

Santa Monica—"San Francisco night" was one of fun and frolic at the meeting of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. August 15. President Harry O'Day of the San Franciscans headed a large delegation of members of that organization. A fish dinner was served, and then jollity held sway. August 19, the Parlor's drum and bugle corps, which always responds when called on, recently appearing in festivities at Venice, Hermosa Beach and Wilmington, sponsored a dance to raise funds for Admission Day.

Santa Monica Bay Parlor has made elaborate preparations for its annual Spanish style barbecue, scheduled for September 3. Commencing at 12 noon, the festivities will continue until a late hour. All Native Sons and Native Daughters and their friends are invited, and a large turnout is anticipated.

A beautiful site has been selected for the barbecue—the Woodland Hills Country Club, two blocks south of Ventura boulevard, at Canoga avenue in Gerard. Signs along the road will point the way. There will be baseball games, horseshoe pitching, golf, swimming, and various other amusements. The admission fee is 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for children. Lee Conger, Ralph Eisenhart and John J. Smith, in direct charge of arrangements, are being assisted by a large committee.

FESTIVE OCCASION.

Sunday afternoon, September 17, at 4 o'clock, in Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica boulevard, the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West will present to Los Angeles County a California State (Bear) Flag to be flown over the park.

A gala afternoon and evening are planned. There will be music, games and contests commencing at 2 o'clock, and following the flag raising there will be time out for a basket supper. In the evening colorful entertainment will be presented. Arrangements are in charge of the Interparlor Committee, Fred Leonetti chairman.—H.L.K.

Special Terms to Native Sons and Daughters

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO—MRS. GENEVIEVE Watson-Baker, Past Grand President of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, died August 1, survived by a son. She was born here October 25, 1861. In 1887 she became a member of Alta Parlor No. 3, San Francisco. As a district deputy-at-large, she instituted Buena Vista Parlor No. 68, San Francisco, April 16, 1892, and that year transferred her membership to that Parlor.

Mrs. Baker was elected Grand President at the Fifteenth, Sacramento 1901, Grand Parlor, and presided at the Sixteenth, San Francisco 1902, Grand Parlor.

Grand Parlor services were conducted the evening of August 2 by Grand President Orinda G. Giannini, Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Past Grand Presidents Catherine E. Gloster, Mary E. Bell, Mae B. Wilkin and Evelyn I. Carlson. The eulogy, delivered by Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola, follows:

"Genevieve Watson-Baker was a distinguished member of a fine pioneer family. She and her sister, Louise Watson-Baker, were Past Grand Presidents of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, and her sister, Georgia Watson-Cotter-Ryan, is a former grand secretary of the Order. She was one of the five women who received the Ryan legacy for a Board of Relief of San Francisco. This was the basis of the present Board and the N.D.G.W. Home.

"It is given to few women to combine so many virtues—tolerance, kindness, eloquence in speaking, steadfastness for truth. All of these attributes were known and appreciated by those who knew her. Her Grand Parlor in 1902 was an example of her steadfastness. Those of you who have heard her clear voice in her own Parlor, Buena Vista No. 68, or in Genevieve Parlor No. 132, will you ever forget it?

"Her term of teaching in San Francisco schools was marked by excellency, according to John Swett, the father of our public school system. Many of her pupils still remember the sweetness of her personality.

"And her patriotism was always vivid and alive! We need more like her. Does our country need that attribute today? Do we not need love of country more today than at any other time? To love our own and to attend to our own was a good principle of hers. She has left a fine legacy to her son and to his family; if she has instilled into them her fine character they will do well by the United States of America.

"Her friendship meant much to all who possessed it, because one had positive reliance in its sincerity. What is greater than sincere friendship? Is not life happier, better, cleaner because of such friendship? When the world becomes degraded and sordid it is for lack of a clean, sincere friendship.

"Her faith in an Almighty Father was unwavering. She was quiet in her religious fervor, but nevertheless thankful to Him for all His blessings, and sincerely devout. She and I often read the Twenty-third Psalm together, and I therefore read it now:

" 'The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me by the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.'

"Lord God Almighty, we pray Thee to receive this friend with Thy ever tender mercies, and may Thy blessing rest upon each and every one here assembled, and on their loved ones. Amen."

GRAND PRESIDENT N.D. VISITS.

Grand President Orinda G. Giannini paid her first official visit in San Francisco to Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. August 10. A banquet preceded the meeting. Good luck was the motif for the favors, and also for the beautiful decorations in the meetinghall. The Grand President was escorted to her place of honor by an escort team of ten, attired in pink and green dresses and carrying lucky horseshoes made of baby roses. Following the impressive initiation of six candidates, Mrs. Alice Lane, on Castro's behalf, presented Grand President Giannini a box of lovely baby clothes for the homeless children, the theme of her address.

N.S.G.W.—NEWSY PARAGRAPHS—N.D.G.W.

Dr. Percy J. Meyer, president Pacific Parlor No. 10 N.S.G.W., was feted at a banquet, August 3, attended by many prominent members of the Order who extended best wishes for a successful term. Thomas J. Ryan and J. Emmett Chapman acted as toastmasters, and among the speakers was Judge Twain Michelsen.—E.J.S.

Officers of Las Lomas Parlor No. 72 N.D.G.W. and Precita Parlor No. 187 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed August 1 by Deputies Helen O'Connell and Paul Pasquet. Mildred Ehlert and Carl R. Haack became the respective presidents. Dancing and refreshments concluded the ceremonies, which were witnessed by some 200 members and friends.—P.W.

Many members and guests of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W. witnessed the initiation of three candidates August 28. Following the ceremonies Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W., spoke on "The History of California." Golden Gate will be represented in the Admission Day parade by its drill team, a float and a marching unit.—L.D.L.

The officers of Dolores Parlor No. 169 N.D.G.W., in formal attire and carrying shasta daisies, were publicly installed by Deputy Mae Shea, who was assisted by Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Grand Trustee Emily Ryan and members of Orinda Parlor No. 56. Entertainment was provided by Norma Wendt, Charles Blakely and Miss Heineman. Speakers were Grand President Orinda Giannini and Chairman Cornelius Ryan of the Extension of the Order Committee.—J.B.

Twin Peaks Parlor No. 185 N.D.G.W. is making preparations for a bazar, to be held in October. In connection therewith weekly sewing bees are being held.—E.H.

Presidio Parlor No. 194 N.S.G.W. had a grand outing in Atherton Park, San Mateo County, August 20. Games, dancing and diversified contests were enjoyed.

Past Presidents Association No. 1 N.D.G.W. honored Grand President Orinda Giannini at a banquet August 21. Other guests were Founder Leah Williams, the state officers and five charter members. Ethel Phelan was chairman of the arrangements committee.—B.W.

AMADOR COUNTY NATIVES SPONSOR PRIZE WINNING FLOAT.

Sutter Creek (Amador County)—Amapola Parlor No. 80 N.D.G.W. and the Native Sons of Amador County entered a float, a replica of the Donner monument at Donner Lake, Nevada County, in the annual Gold Rush parade at Sutter Creek August 6. The float was awarded first grand prize.

August 9 the float was entered in the Sacramento centennial parade. In the Capital City it again placed first, winning a $150 cash prize and a beautiful trophy. The float committee now plans to enter the float in the Admission Day, September 9, parade at San Francisco, in the hope that it will bring favorable publicity to the Parlors of Amador County.—L.M.

National Wine Week—to celebrate America's growing interest in wine—is to be observed September 10-17.

Labor Day, September 4, will be generally observed throughout California.

WILMINGTON SAN PEDRO

(CLYDE MORRISON.)

THERE WILL BE BIG DOINGS AT SAN Pedro September 2, 3 and 4! The American Motorcycle Association will hold its annual rally and races the afternoons of the 3rd and 4th, and Union Labor organizations will hold a parade the morning of the 4th in which at least 10,000 people and eight bands will participate. After the parade, a picnic and barbecue will be held at the Police Pistol Range on North Gaffey street, a mile north of San Pedro.

The American Motorcycle Association will hold its junior race the afternoon of the 3rd, and its senior race for the national motorcycle race championship the afternoon of the 4th. Both races are to be held on North Gaffey street in the vicinity of the Police Pistol Range. A motorcycle rally will be held the evening of the 3rd at the Navy Field on South Pacific avenue. There will be a motorcycle parade preceding the rally, and it is expected the greatest aggregation of motorcycles ever seen in one place will participate in this event. The parade will be a very colorful event, as all motorcycles will be lighted and otherwise decorated.

To take care of the many thousand people who will be present to participate in or witness these events, the civic, fraternal, patriotic and labor organizations of San Pedro have banded together and formed an organization known as "Harbor Host Days." The committee has outlined quite an elaborate program to fill in the gaps left in the programs of the Motorcycle Association and Union Labor. This includes sightseeing tours—and don't forget there are many places of interest in and about San Pedro, such as the Navy, the Nation's bulwark of defense lying at anchor in the roadstead, and the harbor itself, one of the greatest man-made harbors in the world.

In addition, an international lifeboat race will be held in the main channel the afternoon of September 2 at about 2 o'clock. A paddleboard race will be held around the breakwater Saturday morning, and a searchlight display by the naval vessels is tentatively set for 7:45 p.m. of September 2. A dance will be held at the Fleet Reserve Clubhouse, foot of Twenty-second street, the evening of September 4th. All in all, the occasion is to be three days of real open-hearted, old-fashioned Western hospitality. So, come one, come all, and see how San Pedro is sailing ahead!

TWO INITIATED.

San Pedro—The Florencita Thimble Club of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. had a luncheon-meeting at Averill Park August 2; Ruth Allison was hostess. August 16 the club met at the home of Mrs. Dora Baly. Luncheon was served in the beautifully landscaped patio. Marjorie Kruze entertained with ukelele selections.

Deputy Ernestine Aylward was a visitor at the August 10 Parlor meeting. Two candidates were initiated. Refreshments were served by Ann Menveg, August chairman.—R.B.

ELIGIBLES GUESTS AT TEA.

Los Angeles—La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. entertained August 27 at a tea in the lovely gardens of the Inglewood home of Lorraine Coqueugniot. It was in the nature of a get-acquainted party, given so that eligibles might meet members and learn about the Order.

Refreshments were served by Anais Abarta, Winifred Vis, Lura Pesqueria, Madeleine Garey and Florence Hill. The Parlor plans to have other parties of this nature in the future.

Country Belongs to People—"This country, with its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it. Whenever they shall grow weary of the existing Government, they can exercise their constitutional right of amending it or their revolutionary right to dismember or overthrow it."

Lompoc, Santa Barbara County, is to have its annual Pioneer Days celebration September 2 and 3.

Cucamonga, San Bernardino County, is to have a Grape Festival September 9 and 10.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

NOTE—Expressions of opinion in these "Growls" are, unless indicated otherwise, those of the Managing Editor.

Clarence M. Hunt

United States Attorney Benjamin Harrison, president National Association of United States Attorneys, contends crime is this nation's greatest threat, and must be conquered if our form of government is to survive. "I do not refer particularly to the crimes committed by individuals," Harrison said in the course of an address. "But government as yet has not been successful in dealing effectively with organized crime in high places, such as the criminal combinations that are in partnership with many municipal governments, or with our so-called respectable groups who, through lavish expenditures of funds, control legislative bodies for their own interest and to the detriment of the public. We also have a class of so-called reputable citizens who, with impunity, contemptuously violate the law for their own selfish gains."

Purge government, from top to bottom, of crime by putting in public office those who not alone preach, but practice, absolute honesty, and crime will cease to exist. Government, as practiced today, is of a moral standard that begets and encourages crime!

A movement is well under way to have the Federal Congress amend the naturalization laws so that natives of India who entered this country prior to 1924 may, if they so desire, become American citizens. The legislation (H R 7110) is sponsored by Representative John Lesinski of Michigan, and is being promoted by the India Welfare League Inc. of New York City.

For the good of the Nation, a united and determined effort must be made by the White population of California and the other Western States to decisively defeat this proposed legislation. Its adoption by the Congress will be followed by repeal of the Exclusion Law and a demand, which could not justly be denied, that the privilege of naturalization be also extended to Japs and other aliens, including Hindus, now ineligible to citizenship.

Thanks to the Governor of California, who has called the "ham and eggs" pension special election and vetoed the old-age security pension bill passed by the State Legislature, the 1939-40 tax rate of practically every county has been considerably increased. The reward for thrift, in these days of government reckless spending, surely is not security, but bankruptcy!

Declaring the United States should leave the rest of the world alone and cease wishing for a Moses, National Grange Master Lewis J. Taber says the country should make a triple attack on "idle acres, idle dollars, idle men."

If war comes, it will be because of the efforts of self-worshiping, hypocritical egoists who, while talking peace, have been praying and preparing for war. And all of them are not on the other side of the pond; the United States has its quota!

The Seventy-sixth Congress pulled the bung from the biggest pork barrel in the nation's history! So, the boys at Washington now have thirteen and one-half billions additional promotion dollars.

The Federal Census Bureau reports a terrific increase in the cost of the California State Government—from $84,755,000 in 1932 to $175,903,000 in 1937, 107 percent. The percapita cost in 1937 was $28, while the national average was $20.28. In California, the property-owning taxpayer is, without question, the forgotten man!

The Dies investigating committee has just reported what everyone at all conversant with public affairs has long known, that agents of foreign governments, isms and special interests are flooding this country with propaganda to advance their several schemes.

"The first of these," says the committee report, "is the London-Paris entente; the second, the Berlin-Rome axis; and in addition to these, Russia is in a special category." Why no mention of the Japan-Federation of Churches of Christ in America propaganda bureau, probably the best organized and most influential in the nation? The Dies committee could render a great service by making public the names of individual commentators, newspaper and magazine editors and writers, etc., who are spreading propaganda for interests anxious to "hook" these United States.

Herbert Hoover, former president United States, suggests that, inasmuch as economists, politicians and sociologists have failed to find a solution for the unemployment problem, the engineers of the nation be given an opportunity to solve the great emergency of creating productive jobs for the country's 11,000,000 jobless.

"To get our people back to work is the vital humanitarian problem of our day and age," declares Hoover. "The only alternative to long failure of employment is dictatorship and a system of forcible co-ordination of a nation. Concentration camps are becoming too fashionable as a part of world economic organization for comfort."

SANTA BARBARA

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

WITH PARTICIPATION IN ANOTHER Old Spanish Days Fiesta in Santa Barbara written into the history of Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 Native Sons of the Golden West and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 Native Daughters of the Golden West, these closely allied organizations are looking forward to Admission Day, September 9, and another observance at Rockwood, the Mission Canyon home of the Santa Barbara Woman's club.

This year there will be less of program and more of fraternization between the descendants of Pioneers of the American occupational period. Realization has come to the leaders of the Parlors, this year Mrs. Ida Ireland for the Daughters and O. Frank Huffman for the Sons, that this day is set aside for these oldtimers, the descendants of Pioneers of the Spanish period having had their day at the pre-fiesta tea which was a curtain raiser for Old Spanish Days Fiesta.

Mrs. Wesley McCormack and Paul Sweetser are the co-chairmen for the Admission Day celebration. Rather than programing a speaker of the day, the men and the women honorees will be encouraged to contribute verbally from their memories of early days. Another opportunity will also be provided to sign the pioneer roster which is kept by Mrs. Mamie Harrison.

Participation of the two Orders in Fiesta set a new high of successful events, even as the celebration itself drew larger crowds than ever before. Miss Mary Ronk, one of Reina del Mar's younger members, was beautiful in the authentic costume of Saint Barbara, and gracious through half a dozen separate appearances. She was featured at the pageant before the Queen of Missions with which the Franciscans open the fiesta with prayer and pageantry that is historically accurate.

On a lovely floral float, drawn by white horses, she participated in the historic parade. This was viewed by an estimated 50,000 persons and moved through the city with clocklike precision under the direction of Grand Marshal Harry C. Sweetser, past president of Santa Barbara Parlor. Following the parade, at the Santa Barbara County Courthouse, Native Daughters collaborated with the County Federation of Women's Clubs at a reception to visitors which was attended by thousands. Members of the Orders in the employ of the county added to interest by appearing in Spanish costume and keeping the county offices open for visitor reception.

The annual posse dinner of the Native Sons, given in the beautiful gardens of Samarkand Hotel, was an outstanding Fiesta event under the chairmanship of A. C. Dinsmore, past president. The vision that makes Fiesta possible was lauded by the many notables who attended. Harold Campbell was master of ceremonies, and among those introduced were Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz of Los Angeles County, head of the honored troop, Grand President Jesse H. Miller of the Native Sons, Attorney-General Earl Warren, Chief E. Raymond Cato of the California Highway Patrol, Past Grand Presidents Eldred L. Meyer, Judge Fletcher A. Cutler, Chas. A. Koenig, Harmon D. Skillin and Joseph J. McShane, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustees Walter C. Richards and Walter E. Smith, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg of the Native Daughters, Leo Carrillo, Harry C. Sweetser, United States Marshal Robert Clark, Sheriff James Ross and Undersheriff John D. Ross of Santa Barbara County, Captain William J. Bright, Mrs. Eldred L. Meyer, Mrs. Eugene W. Biscailuz and Dr. Anna McCaughey.

[illegible] elected by a team from Eureka No. 241. San Bernardino Gladys Edwards, [illegible] president, was escorted by [illegible] and carried a bouquet [illegible] to her father. Vocal [illegible] by Josefina Scott and [illegible] Mrs. McKenzie [illegible] given by Deputy [illegible] Deputy Matilda Enfield and [illegible] of the Parlor. Program [illegible] shall presented as entertainment [illegible] Mission Dolores School and Dr. C. O. [illegible] Daisy refreshments were served [illegible] Wheeler from beautifully appointed [illegible] G.A.R.C.

Placentia—At outstanding public ceremonies, officers of Grace No. 242 were installed by Deputy Wilma Tucker, assisted by members of Ontario No. 251. Christine Dunham became president, and pledged earnest endeavors to promote the Order's splendid projects. A magnificent floral arrangement converted the hall into a bower of beauty. Brief addresses were made by Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Supervising Deputies Matilda Enfield and Kate Hill. Among others introduced were Eva Bemis, Edna Nelkirk, Florence Schonemann and Nellie Cline. August 7 the Parlor had one of the most pleasant gatherings of the year at the Balboa home of Anna Lemke. A sea food luncheon was served, and a delightful afternoon was enjoyed. Cohostesses were Betty Palmer, Lydia Oswald and Rebecca Hasson. A goodly sum was realized for the homeless children.—N.C.

Los Banos—Lomitas No. 255 honored Miss June Papaleo, bride-elect, at a surprise shower August 2. Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs and Mrs. Kate Black of Hollister were among the visitors. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Leila Negra is arranging an Admission Day program for September 6, and the Parlor's veterans welfare committee will sponsor a public bridge party September 20.

Albany—At public ceremonies, the officers of Albany No. 260, attired in pastel-shaded lace evening gowns and carrying boquets of pastel-colored flowers, were installed by Deputy Irma Caton. Antoinette Stallone became president. A program, supervised by Grayce Garfinkle, was presented by Marjorie Allen, Lavinne Hill, Gerald Stern, Jack Timmers, Betty Jo Mattos, Hazelett Taylor and Betty Jane Wuelzer. On the Parlor's behalf, Thelma Gross presented a past president ring to her sister, Althea Hart. August 8 Hazelett Taylor entertained at her home the committee that is making flowers for the Parlor's Admission Day parade float. August 15 President Stallone entertained the sewing club at her home. A whist August 16 for the benefit of the ninth of September fund was very successful; Marie Vargas was in charge.—H.T.

Sebastopol—Sebastopol No. 265 plans many social events, among them a bazar and a dance. A new feature will be a monthly card party, with Marie Evans as general chairman. Alice Clapp has been installed as the new president, and Pauline Haines as the new recording secretary.—M.E.

Coalinga—Deputy Ethel Koepp installed the officers of Coalinga No. 270, Frieda Martin becoming president. Deputy Koepp was assisted by members of Las Flores No. 262, Avenal. At the conclusion of the ceremonies a short program was presented and refreshments were served.

San Jose—Mrs. Gertrude Roberts became the president of Past Presidents Association No. 3, Santa Clara County, at installation ceremonies conducted by Mrs. Helen Cottrell. Social features comprised a review of the founding of the California missions and a quiz on the names of trees. Mrs. Ida Stockton was social chairman for the happy evening, which closed with refreshments.—C.A.G.

SAN FRANCISCO—THE BOARD OF Grand Officers met in Native Sons Building September 8. In attendance were Grand President Jesse H. Miller, who presided, Junior Past Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustees Wayne R. Millington, Walter C. Richards, R. G. Power, Charles A. Redding, Richard F. McCarthy, Walter E. Smith.

Consent was given to a proposal that the bonds of the Santa Rosa N.S.G.W. Hall Association be extended from 1943 to 1953 and the rate of interest be reduced from 5 to 4 percent.

The request of the Sacramento N.S.G.W. Hall Association, made at the San Francisco 1939 Grand Parlor, that $4,000 additional of Grand Parlor funds be invested in the stock of that association, was re-referred to the Grand Parlor without recommendation.

Considering a suggestion of J. H. Morrison of Cabrillo Parlor No. 114 of Ventura that museums for historical records and other objects be established throughout the state, the Board adopted a motion to the effect that Subordinate Parlors should request the Boards of Supervisors of the various counties to take favorable action on the suggestion.

The principle of education on traffic safety in the public schools was endorsed by the Board.

At 5:30 p.m. the Board adjourned to the call of Grand President Miller.

Thousands View Color-Splashed Parade.

San Diego—Thousands of people lined the streets of this city September 9 to witness the color-splashed Admission Day parade—accenting San Diego's historic past and military-minded present—sponsored by San Diego No. 108 and San Diego No. 208 N.D., with Joseph C. Kelley as the general chairman.

The nine-division spectacle was marshaled by Rear Admiral J. R. Defrees, Eleventh Naval District commandant. It was made up of contingents from the United States Army and Navy, fraternal and civic organizations, bands, drum corps, riding groups and numerous attractive floats. Parade prizes went to the following:

Best riding or mounted groups—Balboa troop women riders, first; Silver Spur unit, second. Best marching units—East San Diego Kadettes, first; Eagles drill team, second. Best bands—Bonham Brothers, first; North Park Boys, second. Best floats—I.O.O.F. lodges and auxiliaries, "Faith, Love and Truth," first; Native Daughters Golden West, "Let Freedom Ring," built around a liberty bell of pure white flowers, second.

Following the parade there was a luncheon, arranged jointly by Mayor P. J. Benbough and the following representatives of San Diego N.S. Parlor: General Chairman Kelley, President Henry W. Hache and Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer. Brief addresses were made, and "I Love You, California," was sung by Mrs. Albert V. Mayrhofer.

Harvest Festival.

Colusa—The general committee of the fifth annual Colusa County Harvest Festival, to be held October 5, 6 and 7, includes these members of Colusa No. 69: Grand Trustee R. G. Power, chairman; A. B. Davison, assistant chairman; Daniel E. Weyand, J. L. O'Rourke, President Louis B. Westfall, George Jameson, Fern Ambrose, Harry G. Weber, W. C. Stokes Jr., Elmer Sagen.

Since the festival's inception in 1935 the Parlor has taken an active interest in it. The first year, No. 69 conducted the '49 Roaring Camp, and for the past three years it maintained historical exhibits that attracted large crowds and received favorable comment. This year another historical exhibit will be featured, and decorated floats will, as in the past, be entered in the parade by the Parlor and Colus No. 194 N.D.

School Dedicated.

Lodi—Under the auspices of Lodi No. 18, the Houston School was dedicated by the grand officers September 24. Officiating were Grand President Jesse H. Miller, Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Grand Secretary John T. Regan.

There was a large attendance, and an enjoyable program was presented. Grand President Miller and Grand Third Vice-president Cosgrove were the principal speakers of the occasion.

Losing No Time.

Sacramento—At the last, San Francisco 1939, Grand Parlor the Capital City was awarded the 1940 Admission Day celebration, and a joint committee of representatives of the local Parlors—Sacramento No. 3, Sunset No. 26 and Sutter Fort No. 241—organized September 20 to arrange all details. Elected officers of this general committee are:

June J. Longshore, Sacramento Parlor, chairman; Edward E. Reese, Sunset Parlor, vice-chairman; Albert W. Katzenstein, Sutter Fort Parlor, secretary; L. P. Ferron, Sutter Fort Parlor, treasurer. John J. Monteverde Sr. of Sunset Parlor was appointed chairman of the finance committee, and Frank A. Lafferty was named to head the parade committee. Other members of the general committee are J. G. Fitzhenry, Irving D. Gibson, Sheldon Crum, Sacramento Parlor; L. W. Marvin, Sunset Parlor; J. L. Knowles, Sutter Fort Parlor.

State Meet of Past Presidents.

Oroville—The nineteenth annual meeting of the General Assembly of the Past Presidents Association N.S.G.W. will be held here Saturday and Sunday, October 21 and 22.

Governor General Frank W. Boyle of Argonaut Parlor No. 8, Oroville, will preside, and Secretary General John T. Regan of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, San Francisco, will record the proceedings. Director General James F. Stanley of Stanford Parlor No. 76, San Francisco, will report a satisfactory year for the General Assembly. The night of October 21 a banquet will be served.

Plans are under way for the observance, January 27, 1940, of the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the Association.

N.S.G.W.—NEWSY PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

San Francisco—The grand officers, headed by Grand President Jesse H. Miller, will dedicate October 1 a monument at the old mining town of Vallecito, Calaveras County. At Halfmoon Bay, San Mateo County, October 15, Grand President Miller will preside at the dedication of a public school. The general public is invited to the ceremonies.

Oroville—Members of Argonaut No. 8 and Gold of Ophir No. 190 N.D. and their families were guests at a potluck supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Joslyn. Games followed the feast.

Modesto—The dove potpie dinner sponsored by Modesto No. 11 September 9 was largely attended by members of the Parlor and Morada No. 199 N.D. and their families. Following the feast games and cards were played.

Lodi—Lodi No. 18 celebrated its thirty-second institution anniversary, some 125 members of the Order being in attendance. Past Grand Hilliard E. Welch was the main speaker, and he reviewed the pioneer days of California.

Petaluma—Petaluma No. 27 had initiation September 20, the past presidents exemplifying the ritual. September 13 and 14 the Parlor sponsored a benefit show for a worthy cause. Carl Plow, Frank Witham and Walter Geils composed the committee in charge.

CALIFORNIA MARCHES ON

(BERTHA A. BRIGGS, Chairman N.D.G.W. Grand Parlor Publicity Committee.)

A PERFECT CALIFORNIA DAY FOR A magnificent California spectacle, such was Admission Day, September Ninth, in the great City of San Francisco. The brilliant celebration, participated in by thousands, typified the loyalty and the enthusiasm of the sons and the daughters of California for their native state. They gathered from every section,—from Los Angeles and Santa Barbara, from Stockton and the Santa Clara Valley, from the Capital City of Sacramento and the historic Mother Lode, from north, south and east,—all in gay and happy mood to commemorate the eighty-ninth birthday anniversary of the Golden State.

With distinguished public officials, and present and past leaders of California's two great patriotic organizations, the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, leading the gigantic procession, the twelve divisions of the Admission Day parade required more than three hours to pass a given point, moving in review before vast throngs lining the way from San Francisco's Civic Center to the Embarcadero.

Swinging gallantly along to the spirited music of many bands, came marchers in brilliantly varied costumes of every conceivable color combination and type,—yellow and white, black and red, blue and silver, purple and vivid green, Tuscan grape and gold; stately Daughters of the Golden West in formals of pastel shades, Slovaks in colorful peasant dress, pirates with skull and cross-bones, Spanish senoritas wearing high combs and mantillas, gypsies dancing to the sound of tambourines, Pioneer Mothers with sunbonnets and full skirts, red-shirted miners leading pack burros, cowboys and cowgirls afoot and on lively ponies, Scotch lassies in kilties, dignified Colonial dames, girls of the "gay nineties" with picture hats—all mingling happily in one great melting pot.

Smartly uniformed drill teams and drum corps, with capes and waving plumes, were led by strutting drum majorettes in fetching outfits, performing intricate evolutions. Scenes of "The Days of '49" rumbled along on wheels—venerable missions with ringing bells, the Donner Monument so realistically posed, a dance hall of the mining days, a traveling Spanish ranch house with corral of genuine dogies resting contentedly in a lush meadow near a calf-branding outfit, a covered wagon with battered pots and pans suspended from its scarred sides, and an authentic stagecoach filled with passengers in pioneer garb.

Gorgeous floats, adorned with myriads of bright blossoms, presented for the edification of the onlooking thousands a replica of the statue of Pacifica on Treasure Island; the golden California bear, a mass of yellow marigolds; the dainty Stairway to the Stars; a mission gate with silver bells; a rose-covered arbor behind which walked columns of women in flowing white, like a great bridal party.

A peach orchard in full bloom, surrounded by a white picket fence, moved smoothly along on rollers and formed one of the most spectacular features. On a green-flowered platform stood a glittering bronze horse and rider, so statuesque it was difficult to realize both were really alive. A shiny locomotive convoyed a red observation car filled with smiling Native Daughters.

Lusty cheers expressed the appreciation of the multitudes for every feature of the dazzling spectacle until there came into view a plain, green float with a small pedestal in the center upon which stood a figure in khaki and puttees. Reverential silence greeted the Golden Gate Park "Doughboy" statue of the Grove of Memory Association of the San Francisco Native Sons and Native Daughters.

On and on they came, Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West who are rendering worthwhile service to the thirty-first state's two great patriotic organizations; Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West banded together for the preservation of the traditions of California and for its future welfare. Charter members of the oldest Parlors were followed by marching units of Junior Auxiliaries,—those who are just entering into the worthy work—all with joy and enthusiasm for California's eighty-ninth birthday.

Surely it was a wonderful demonstration to the strangers within our gates of the strength and the loyalty of California's Native Sons and Native Daughters and of their devotion to the land of their birth.

NATIONALITY OF GENERAL SUTTER: SWISS OR GERMAN?

Dr. Peter T. Conmy
Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

AUGUST 12, 1939, A GREAT CELEBRATION was held at Sacramento in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the settlement there of General John Augustus Sutter. Orators paid many tributes of love and veneration to the memory of dear old Sutter, who did so much for the planting of civilization in the Sacramento Valley. Not the least conspicuous among those who spoke was a representative of the Swiss Government. On the wall of Sutter's Fort three plaques were unveiled. One of these was the gift of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of Sacramento. Another was the present of the City of Lititz, Pennsylvania, where Sutter died after a number of years' residence. The third was presented by the Swiss Government and bears the Swiss coat-of-arms.

As the present writer sat through these ceremonies, he kept weighing against the tribute to Sutter as a great Swiss the fact that Sutter was not a Swiss but was born in the town of Kandern, in Baden, Germany, February 3, 1803. If Sutter was not a Swiss, then it is improper for the Swiss to claim him, and he should be hailed as a great German. On the other hand, if he was German, and there is no doubt as to his German birth, why has he always been referred to as a Swiss? After pondering over this subject for some little time the present writer came to the conclusion that the matter was worth looking into; and, as a product of what he found, is able to present this short article on the subject.

Certain facts should be stated at the outset. Johann Augustus Sutter was born February 3, 1803, at Kandern, a small village of Baden. Baden is now a part of Germany. At the time of Sutter's birth, Baden was not a part of Switzerland. It was an independent territory ruled by a marquis, and united with several other south German principalities in comprising what was known as the Confederation of the Rhine. According to our present-day notion of citizenship, Sutter should be accounted for as a citizen of Baden, and it is erroneous for the Swiss to claim him as one of their own, and also for historians to refer to him either as the Swiss, implying place of birth, or as the Swiss, implying citizenship. Strangely to say, however, this is not the case, and it is correct to call him the Swiss. Indeed, this is what he called himself. Why this is so, will be explained.

A few words about the history of Baden and also that of Switzerland seem in order at this point. Switzerland began to develop in the thirteenth century, various principalities joining together to form the republic. There was always a very close relationship between Switzerland and the Black Forest region of Germany which comprises Baden where Sutter was born. It seems that Baden would have been a part of Switzerland but for the trend of affairs after the Protestant Reformation. Switzerland became, for the most part, Protestant. Baden remained staunchly Catholic. Except for this, there was hardly any difference culturally between Baden and Switzerland. Consequently, when Sutter was born in Baden he was born Swiss as far as outlook on life was concerned. Of course, this was all changed later. In 1870 the German states united, and in 1871 Baden joined the German empire. Then German theories and philosophies were taught in the schools, and Baden went through a period of German unification.

Today, in the English-speaking world, it is a principle universally accepted that, for the most part, citizenship is a matter of birth. Thus, a person born in the United States of America remains a citizen of the United States until he renounces the same in favor of some other country. Europe, however, does not accept this principle in all cases. Indeed, citizenship was originally not regarded as belonging to the state or the nation but to the town. This was true at the time of Sutter's birth. Furthermore, it was a generally accepted principle that the child followed his father's citizenship. This theory has always been applied to the Jews in a number of European countries. Hence, birth in a given nation has been held not to confer citizenship in that nation upon the Jew, who follows his father's ancestral non-citizenship.

So it was in regard to the Sutter family. They originated in Switzerland. Their town was Runenberg. When, therefore, the grandfather of Johann Augustus moved into Baden, he retained his citizenship in Runenberg. His son, Johann Jakob, born in Baden, retained his father's Runenberg citizenship, as likewise, in turn, did also Johann Augustus, born in 1803. Therefore, it will be apparent that he came into being German in birth but Swiss in citizenship. This may seem to be a strange doctrine, in the light of modern practice in the United States, but the renowned writer on international law, T. J. Lawrence, says:

"Each country defines for itself by its municipal law what circumstances of birth shall make a person its subject. It may consider the locality of the birth to be the all-important point, making a subject of every child born within its territory, no matter whether the parents are natives or foreigners; or it may regard the nationality of the parents, or one of them, as the determining circumstance, making subjects the children of subjects, wherever born, and aliens of the children of aliens, wherever born."

Citizenship may be determined by birth, but it is confirmed by education. Culture is an all-important factor. For this reason, the people of the United States feel that birth in this country does not of and by itself make for good citizenship. It is steadfastly believed that citizenship by birth must be reinforced by training in school. And so it was with Sutter. He was born in the Grand Duchy of Baden, but he was educated in the schools of the Swiss Republic. When he was sixteen years of age the Sutter family returned to Switzerland. There, for fifteen years, he went to school, worked, married, engaged in business, and served in the army until, in 1834, he sailed for the United States. Here he founded at Sacramento his New Helvetia, "New Switzerland." Swiss in family ancestry, Swiss in citizenship, Swiss in sentiment, Swiss in education, it seems proper to refer to Sutter as the great Swiss, even though he was born in territorial Germany.

The San Benito County Fair is to be held near Hollister October 6-8.

Victorville, San Bernardino County, is to have a rodeo October 14 and 15.

RARE VOLUMES SHED LIGHT ON U. S. HISTORY

LITERARY PROSPECTORS HAVE MAPPED a rich lode in California! Their treasure, the song and story inspired by the Golden State, has been piling up through the years in scattered libraries. Long in need of a chart to the mass of Californiana, scholars and general readers alike had found difficulty in locating some of the literary nuggets.

Lack of funds and of personnel, however, had conspired to delay any survey of California's literary riches; though with each passing year, according to Mary Barmby, Alameda County Librarian, the necessity for it had increased. At the same time the task had grown more and more complicated.

Finally the librarians turned to the Federal Government for aid. That was three years ago. The Works Progress Administration, in response to the request, provided a staff of twenty-five experienced workers from relief rolls. The staff consists of university graduates, librarians, journalists and writers.

In the three-year period they have combed the catalogs of California libraries, in itself a herculean task. They also checked through Library of Congress filing cards. They consulted hundreds of authoritative reference works. In addition, they read and abstracted books on library shelves to sum up the contents in brief descriptive phrases.

The result, the most comprehensive list of literary works about California or by Californians, was published recently under the title of "Fiction, Poetry, Drama."

Their work fills three thick tomes. Altogether the three contain more than a thousand pages crowded with information on some six thousand works and nearly three thousand authors. The information itself has been abbreviated, contracted, and converted into symbols for a succinct form developed especially for this bibliography.

The bibliography shows for each work of fiction, of poetry, or of drama, the following: the author, date of publication and publisher, the subject matter, and other pertinent facts. The notes also reveal which of the works no longer are available.

Take a volume of fiction by Ambrose Bierce, which the bibliography describes in this manner: "*Tales of Soldiers and Civilians, San Francisco, Steele, 1891. Stories of the Civil War and the West. (Monterey, San Francisco, Yosemite Valley.)"

The star indicates that the work boasts a California background. In parentheses are listed the cities specifically described. The second line discloses pertinent data on publication of the volume, and the third line the subject matter.

In like manner the life of Bierce shrinks into a few lines in the bibliography, which furnishes for each author the dates and places of birth and death, the length of residence in California, the pen-names and, in the case of women, the marital names, along with collaborators. For Bierce, the bibliography supplies the following information:

"Bierce, Ambrose Owinnett—Bowers, Mrs. J. Milton; Grile, Dod; Herman, William; Sloluch, J. Milton (pseuds). b. Horse Cave, Meigs County, Ohio, June 24, 1842. d. Mexico, 1913 (?) Disappeared in Mexico. r. 1886-1872; 1875-1900; 1909-1913, San Francisco." This indicates, through the first two lines, that Bierce broadcast his writings under five names and shows, through the last three lines, that the writer, a native of Ohio, chose to live for long intervals beside the Golden Gate, and finally disappeared in Mexico just before the beginning of the Great War.

Foreign as well as native writers, the bibliography shows, have painted California in words. Britain's Jules Vernes used California color in "Round the World in Eighty Days," and France's Alexander Dumas put the state into the title of his "A Gil Blas in California."

The fiction volume also contains in the list of 1,112 authors (of whom 108 were born in the state) such prominent writers as Gertrude Atherton, David Belasco, Zane Grey, Bret Harte, Jack London, Kathleen Norris, William Saroyan, Upton Sinclair, John Steinbeck, Jim Tully and Mark Twain. Of the 3,316 volumes listed in the fiction section, 1,230 have scenes laid in California.

The second section of the bibliography, devoted to poetry, lists 2,112 volumes by 1,253 authors. Of these authors, eighty-seven were born in California, and of the total number of volumes, 998 were inspired by the state.

In the third section, concentrated on drama, the list covers 451 playwrights and 876 plays. Of the latter, 110 contain California scenes, and forty-five of the playwrights are natives.

California literature, says Miss Barmby in a foreword to the bibliography, had "grown to such vast proportions" that librarians for some time had hoped for a "complete bibliography of this literary treasure. The great expense of research and publication forbade any attempt to produce a really comprehensive work of this character and libraries had to be content with small bibliographies compiled from their own Californiana. . . . Thanks to the WPA, this first comprehensive bibliography of California literature has been made possible."

Libraries throughout the state, notably the Huntington Library, the libraries of San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, the State Library and the Library of the University of California, all co-operated with the WPA project workers.

Librarians in the state, according to Edgar J. Hinkel, director of the project, launched the effort because they felt a bibliography would "form an excellent basis for developing collections of Californiana, . . . help in research work, . . . prove useful to civic organizations and students" and, finally, "be a valuable instrument for the guidance of general readers." The project was sponsored by Miss Barmby's Alameda County Library at Oakland.

(The above came to The Grizzly Bear from the Works Progress Administration, Washington, D. C., with the following notation by A. W. von Strune, Chief of the Periodical Section: "In the hope that you may find it useful, we transmit herewith a copy of a manuscript report entitled 'WPA Workers Map Lode of Californiana.' This describes a project of the Works Progress Administration in the State of California for the cataloging of California libraries, with emphasis upon works of California authors and of works in which the California scene serves as a locale for the writer."—Editor.)

THE STORY OF HUMAN EXPERIENCE—"This book [the Bible] speaks both the voice of God and the voice of humanity, for there is told in it the most convincing story of human experience that has ever been written. Take it all in all, and those who heed that story will know that strength and happiness and success are all summed up in the exhortation, 'Fear God and keep His commandments.' "—Woodrow Wilson.

California collected a tax of $4,924,082.73 on motor vehicle fuel sold during August.

COMMUNIST PARTY ENDORSES HAM AND EGGS

The Communist Party, through its State Executive Committee, has formally endorsed the 30-Every-Thursday pension plan.

Read what it says: "The Communist Party believes that all progressive-minded people, regardless of their views on the workability of the Ham and Eggs plan, should support its passage."

American citizens: Stop, Look and Listen!

THE COMMUNIST PARTY IS PLEDGED TO THE OVERTHROW OF AMERICAN GOVERNMENT. It is committed to a program of sabotage and class warfare. It will use any means at its command to destroy confidence in American government and American institutions.

Communist agents, in every section of California, are militantly campaigning for Ham and Eggs. WHY?

Professional promoters of the Ham and Eggs scheme, with its cleverly contrived plan for a STATE DICTATORSHIP, are boldly adopting Communist weapons and beating the tom-toms of class hatred. WHY?

CALIFORNIA MUST ANSWER!

Don't make the mistake of passing this off as a harmless, crack-pot scheme. It is a crafty, dangerous scheme that would plunder California's public treasuries, bankrupt business, throw tens of thousands out of employment and play havoc with all branches of government.

California Must Answer this brazen attempt of high-pressure promoters to make common cause with Communists against California government. And our answer must be an overwhelming "No" vote on the Ham and Eggs amendment.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

SAN ANDREAS—SAN ANDREAS NO. 113 celebrated its fortieth institution anniversary September 1, with an attendance of some 150 members and guests from Amador, Tuolumne and Calaveras Counties. Charter members honored on the occasion include Teresa Rivara, Mary Palmer, Kate Loeffler, Theresa Leonard, Louise Zwinge, Pauline Dowling and Julia Waters. The first four received in person the Parlor's gift of oil paintings of the Calaveras Big Trees. Among the guests were Supervising Deputy Emma Boarman-Wright, Henrietta O'Neill, Nellie Fontenrose, Rose Carley and Flora Podesta Ferrara, permanent members of the Grand Parlor and charter members of Ursula No. 1, Jackson.

The minutes of the original meeting of San Andreas, September 1, 1899, were read, and Kate Loeffler gave an interesting review of the proceedings which took place forty years ago. As a birthday gift to her home-Parlor and in commemoration of California's admission to the Union, Grand Inside Sentinel Doris Treat presented a beautiful California State (Bear) Flag, which was graciously accepted by President Gwendolyn Wyllie. Following the meeting the entertainment committee, headed by Adeline Squellati, presented a delightful program. In the banquet hall a buffet supper was served, with the colors of the Order and golden candles and flowers used in the table decorations.

"Our Golden Heritage."

Alturas—Alturas No. 159's annual celebration of pioneer day, September 10, was a great success, the hall being filled with Modoc County oldtimers and Native Daughter hostesses. Mrs. Herbert Faulkner, president of Alturas, presided and welcomed the guests. Refreshments were served, and reminiscences of the days gone by were related by several of the oldtimers.

Enjoyable and impressive entertainment was provided by members of the Parlor under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Gloster, who compiled a beautiful pageant entitled "Our Golden Heritage." Miss Gloster impressively read the text and was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Kathleen Bruno. The cast included Mms. Frailey, Joe Gloster, E. Callahan, Bessie Jackson, Rita Smirl, Mabel Carey, Orville Boyd and Herbert Faulkner, and Past Grand Irma Laird.

"Golden Rule Days."

Hollister—Copa de Oro No. 105 resumed activities with installation of officers September 6. The theme, "Dear Old Golden Rule Days," honoring Retiring President Lila Melendy, San Benito County school superintendent, and President-elect Erma Pivetti, was carried out in dinner table decorations of small lunch pails for nut cups, song sheets adorned with silhouettes of a teacher seated at a desk upon which rest a school bell and books, a small country schoolhouse representing the first teaching assignment of President-elect Pivetti, and scarlet potted geraniums. Group singing of patriotic numbers, a vocal solo, "God Bless America," by Marjorie Lanning, and numbers by the Parlor glee club comprised the dinner program.

Deputy Viola Clough, assisted by members of El Pajaro No. 35, Watsonville, capably installed the officers of Copa de Oro. An amusing original number featured a school trustees meeting, at which Miss Melendy offered her resignation, to become past president of the Parlor, and the application of Miss Pivetti was received and she was named the new president. The school janitor, in the performance of duties, discovered various attractively wrapped packages which proved to be gifts for Retiring President Melendy, Deputy Clough and Supervising Deputy Mary Gregory Antonetti. Guests were present from Santa Cruz, Salinas, San Juan Bautista, Watsonville and Ione. Eighty-two were seated at the dinner, and many others joined the diners for the ceremonies that followed. Light refreshments were served from a prettily decorated tea table at the evening's close.

Fall Affairs Planned.

Modesto—Morada No. 199 made plans September 13 for a series of public whist parties to be given jointly with Modesto No. 11 N.S. October 18 is the date of the first party. Agnes Frost is in charge of general arrangements, and Julia Stutchman is chairman of refreshments. The net proceeds of these parties go into the homeless children fund, and are used for local charity purposes.

The Parlor's ways and means committee sponsored a card party September 20. Other affairs planned by the committee for fall are a rummage sale, a food sale and distribution of a cook book. Under the leadership of Supervising Deputy Eleanor Lewis, boxes of Christmas cards are being sold by the Parlor members. Mary Clay heads a committee that plans to reorganize the drill team and the escort team. Orders for Christmas delivery are keeping the sewing club very busy. Bess Elmore was chairman of the September 27 social affair, at which many surprises were introduced.

Plans for the dedication of the new Stanislaus County Hall of Records are going forward, but no definite date has yet been fixed. The Parlor and the grand officers will have prominent places on the program. Morada personals: Ann Osborn and Ethyl Gardner enjoyed a motor trip along the Redwood Highway; enroute they visited the Native Daughters Pioneer Memorial Redwood Grove. Alice Phoenix and Katherine Kopf enjoyed a visit to Los Angeles and vicinity. —E.C.E.

N.D.G.W.—NEWSY PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

La Honda (San Mateo County)—The first reunion of the San Francisco committee of 39 for '39, Past Grand Evelyn I. Carlson chairman, that had charge of arrangements for the 1939 Grand Parlor, was recently held at Casa Mae Lou Cottage, summer home of Past Grand Mae Himes-Noonan. Committee members and their families spent an enjoyable day and evening dancing, singing and feasting. It is the wish of Past Grand Edna B. Briggs that the committee have an annual luncheon at all future Grand Parlors.—E.G.F.

Santa Cruz—September 12, Santa Cruz No. 26 had a treasure hunt, following which an Admission Day program was presented. Constitution Day was observed September 18. Myrtle Allison gave a reading, "Definition of Americanism," Josephine Grellman sang "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," and Bert Snyder gave an interesting talk on "The Constitution of the United States."—S.F.

San Jose—Vendome No. 100 has resumed its benefit card parties the second and fourth Wednesday afternoons; in charge during September were Mms. Margaret Farnsworth, Cecile Dose and Rita Graves. Chairman Winifred Laffey has planned many happy days for the sewing club; President Dose and Mrs. J. J. O'Brien were hostesses to the club during September, the latter entertaining at her Santa Cruz home. The past presidents club had its annual barbecue September 5 at the Late Canyon home of Mrs. Victor Mattei. Supervising Deputy Alice Roll has outlined plans for a Santa Clara County get-together dinner in October. Vendome personals: Miss Madeline Chargin has returned from a visit to Honolulu. Recording Secretary Dorothy Salas and sister, Miss Muriel Salas, have returned from a delightful trip to the southern part of the state and Mexico. Adele Frankish of Ontario No. 251 and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Serio, were recent visitors.—C.G.

Salinas—Many members and friends attended the September 14 public meeting of Aleli No. 102 in recognition of Admission Day. The program opened with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" and a salute to the flag. President Vira Albaugh extended a welcome, and vocal solos, cornet solos and dances were given. Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs gave an interesting talk on "California Marches On;" John Prader, local high school student, spoke on his activities at California Boy's State for one week in Sacramento, and Everall Adcock, as a representative of Santa Lucia No. 97 N.S., spoke on "California from 1848 to 1850." Colored motion pictures of Salinas Valley and Monterey Peninsula were shown by Fred Maneely. The program closed with the singing of

A Worthwhile Non-sectarian Endeavor Sponsored and Supported by the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

HELP TO HELP OTHERS!

FROM THE SOUTHLAND TO THE Northland, and from the districts in between, there came to San Francisco the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West to celebrate California's Admission Day of eighty-nine years ago. This NINTH OF SEPTEMBER, observed during the Treasure Island year, was a glorious spectacle, and a credit to every member of the two Orders, whether participating or not. "Beautiful and inspiring!" could be heard from the onlookers.

Now, it is expected that this Peace army of California-born men and women who marched in comradeship with smiling faces under the smiling California sky will remember another anniversary, the EIGHTH OF OCTOBER, a day set apart in California as "Homeless Children's Day" and the time for Native Sons and Native Daughters to get together and devise ways and means to carry on their work for another year in the providing of homes, affection, guidance, and the advantages of educational and religious training.

"Home, Church, School and Play" are the blessings looked upon as the right of every child of every nation. Nearly six thousand children of every descent and religion have been granted these blessings through the united efforts of the members of the two Orders, and their willingness to enlist the child-hungry men and women, who have passed muster, to take homeless children into their hearts and homes.

During the twenty-nine years since the institution of this work the Native Sons and the Native Daughters have responded willingly and generously.

With the uncertainty of the future in mind, this year would seem to demand a supreme effort on the part of the two Orders to send "A Contribution from Every Member of Every Parlor."

If you are giving a benefit solely for the "Homeless Children" and the price of admission exceeds forty-one cents, you will need to apply for an exemption of the Federal amusement tax. If you will send the date and the address of the place where your benefit is to be held to the Central Committee, 998 Eddy street, San Francisco, the Secretary will make out the blanks.

The members of the Finance Committee have carefully prepared a budget for the year, and a circular letter will be sent to each Subordinate Parlor stating the amount needed from the individual Parlors and the joint Parlors.

We have much for which to be thankful. Help to help others!

"America the Beautiful." Refreshments were served at tables decorated with orange and yellow marigolds.—H.T.

Alameda—On the occasion of her official visit to Encinal No. 156, Grand President Orinda G. Giannini was accompanied by Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Supervising Deputy Orlinda Cardoza and Deputy Maria Silver. An escort team of Parlor officers, gowned in white formals, conducted the grand officers to their stations. Flowers and ferns decorated the hall. Five charter members of Encinal were present, and representatives of several Subordinate Parlors were among the visitors. A banquet followed the meeting.

Daly City—Officers of El Carmelo No. 181 and El Carmelo No. 256 N.S. of Colma were jointly installed at public ceremonies. Deputies Jessie Hann and Jim Caruso officiated, and Marian Titcomb and Jamc; Tierney became the respective presidents. Mrs Alice Oldham was chairman of the evening. El Carmelo N.D. is working hard to make a great success of its annual homeless children benefit whist and bazar scheduled for October 18.

San Diego—San Diego No. 208 initiated three candidates, and following the ceremonies a social time, with Mrs. Bessie Smither as chairman, was enjoyed. The annual Admission Day boat ride to points of interest around San Diego Bay was most interesting and netted the Parlor a neat sum. Plans for a bazar, with Mrs. Stella Case in charge, are rapidly being completed.

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

A TALL, STRAIGHT, SPRUCE FLAGpole, brought by Captain Phineas Banning from Oregon to Los Angeles June 13, 1886, was dedicated on the old courthouse grounds September 2. Banning gave the pole to the father of Pioneer Joseph Mesmer, who presented it to Los Angeles County. For seventy-three years the pole stood in front of the United States Hotel, recently razed, that once was a social center of Los Angeles City.

Miss Grace S. Stoermer, Past Grand President N.D.G.W., presided. Herman C. Lichtenberger, Past Grand President N.S.G.W., dedicated the historic flagstaff to Joseph Mesmer, for more than eighty years a Los Angeles resident. On the county's behalf, it was accepted by Supervisor Gordon McDonough.

Among the other speakers were Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz, Charles Gibbs Adams, Leo V. Youngworth and Pioneer Mesmer. The latter remarked that it took 135 men to raise the flagpole the first time. It was 109 feet tall, 14 inches in diameter at the base and 2 inches at the top, and straight as an arrow. Vocal solos were rendered by Charles de la Platte, Mrs. Mary Hutchinson Nordahl and Nicholas Barabe. Miss Jane Kerr recited "The American's Prayer," Miss Edith O'Shea led in the flag salute, Pioneer E. A. Speegle assisted in the raising of the United States of America Flag, and the Sheriffs Boys Band played patriotic airs.

GAY WAY CARNIVAL.

The outstanding October feature of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. will be a Gay Way Carnival to be held Saturday evening, October 21, commencing at 8 o'clock, at Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica boulevard, under the supervision of the Parlor's history and landmarks committee, headed by Juliette DeNublia and Ella Steinbeck. Proceeds of the affair will be used for the restoration of the governor's room at San Fernando Mission. The admission fee is but 25 cents. Dancing, entertainment and games will be provided. All Californians and their friends are more than welcome, and can be assured of an evening of real fun.

The first meeting of the month, October 4, Los Angeles will have initiation, while the major part of the evening of October 18 will be given over to a whoopee party. The hostesses will be the hospitality committee, headed by Louise Crawford and Ellen Wilson. Refreshments will be served. The Parlor's sewing club will meet October 14 at the home of Maria Gardner and Sophia McGowan, 989 Hancock avenue, West Hollywood. Luncheon will be served commencing at 12:30 noon. The history and landmarks committee plans a tour through the Central Library October 25, 7 to 9 p.m.—E.T.N.

ADMISSION DAY PROGRAM.

The Los Angeles Breakfast Club featured September 6 an Admission Day program, and many Native Sons and Native Daughters were in attendance. Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. presided, and among the speakers were Miss Grace S. Stoermer, Past Grand President N.D.G.W., and Leo Carillo of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. Among others introduced were Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg of the Native Daughters, and Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer and Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith of the Native Sons.

When you purchase goods advertised in The Grizzly Bear, or answer an advertisement in this magazine, please be sure to mention The Grizzly Bear. That's co-operation mutually beneficial.

"KNOW YOUR CALIFORNIA."

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. will feature a "Know Your California" quiz Friday, October 13. It will be conducted by C. Harry Davis, who will ask a hundred questions pertaining to the history of the Golden State. The winner will receive a suitable reward, and refreshments will be served.

Friday, October 27, the Parlor will have initiation, to be followed by an entertainment and refreshments.—F.F.

MOONLIGHT SPANISH DINNER.

Celebrating the eighty-ninth anniversary of California's entry into the Union as the thirty-first state, Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. had a very interesting meeting September 12. At noon a delectable Spanish luncheon was served by Marcella Palethorpe and committee. Decorations were tiny United States, Spanish, Mexican and Bear flags, covered wagons and a mission.

President Beatrice Vejar Wahrmund introduced the guests and Program Chairman Isabel Lopez-Fages. Mary Foy told the story of California's acceptance into the Sisterhood of States as a full-fledged state. The Ruiz California dancers entertained in costume. At the business meeting the Parlor decided to have a drive for new members; the membership will be divided into two sides, each with a captain.

The Gertrude Sewing Circle of Californiana will meet at the home of Maria Welch, 4120 Degnan boulevard, October 2, with Margaret Harris as chairman; a potluck luncheon will be served. October 7, the first ways and means event of the new term—a moonlight Spanish dinner—will be held at the Arcadia home of Pearl Retzer, under the chairmanship of Marion Johnson. After the September 26 Parlor meeting, tea was enjoyed with Hospitality Chairman Edith Adams, followed by an informal social hour.—O.L.

BUSY PREPARING FOR BAZAR.

Glendale—At the September 12 meeting of Verdugo Parlor No. 236 N.D.G.W. President Ethel Kern presided for the last time. Many members were in attendance, among the Grand Vice president Hazel R. Hanson and Deputy Marcella Palethorpe was a visitor. As a token of friendship, past presidents of the Parlor, through Betty Sanders, presented a guest book to President Kern.

Grand Vice president Hanson gave an interesting description of the San Francisco Admission Day celebration and Deputy Palethorpe commended the Parlor's well-arranged program for the term. A lovely birthday party honoring those born in July, August and September, was provided by Lenora Pagliuso, Betty Sanders and Evalyn Wilson.

Verdugo had its secret sister party September 26. A dessert bridge September 27 at the Burbank home of President Kern was in charge of Elsie Bledsoe, Geraldine Leonetti, Mary Miller and Renee Giambastiani. Maude Molen is chairman of the rummage sale to be held October 4 and 5. The Parlor sewing club meets every week for luncheon. It is very busy preparing for the coming bazar.—D.R.

THOUSANDS OBSERVE STATE'S BIRTHDAY.

Long Beach—Thousands of former residents of all the states and territories of the United States of America assembled in Recreation Park Admission Day, September 9, to observe California's eighty-ninth birthday as the thirty-first state of the Union. Members of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. and Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W., attired in costumes of pioneer days, were hostesses and hosts of the occasion.

During the three-hour open-air program sponsored by the Long Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Parlors presented a California State (Bear) Flag to Assistant Police Chief Walter H. Lentz for the Long Beach mounted police. In charge of arrangements for the day on the Natives' behalf were President Josephine Reichman of the Daughters and First Vice-president Fred C. Walker of the Sons.—R.J.

PLUMMER PARK GETS BEAR FLAG.

In recognition of National Constitution Day, the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Interparlor Committee September 17 presented to Los Angeles County, to be flown at Plummer Park, a California State (Bear) Flag. Fred Leonetti was chairman of the day, and Superior Judge Ruben S. Schmidt made the presentation address, to which Florence Lewis Scott, director of the park, responded. Eugenio Plummer of Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W., after whom the park is named, participated in the flag-raising ceremonies.

DEATH SEPARATES LONG WEDDED COUPLE

Sunday, August 27, Albert W. Metz, financial secretary Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W., and his wife, Mrs. Minnie D., celebrated their fiftieth (golden) wedding anniversary. The day was spent in greeting friends, and in the evening there was a family reunion-dinner. Los Angeles Parlor presented a gift to the couple.

Just three weeks later, Sunday, September 17, Mrs. Minnie D. Metz passed away at the age of 81. In addition to her husband, she is survived by two children, Mrs. Hazel Emery and Earl Metz.

TO INITIATE LARGE CLASS.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. had a very successful homeless children benefit card party at Silverado Park September 23; Eugenia Smith was the chairman. The September 2 food sale in charge of May Gillies netted $30 for the Parlor treasury. Elenore Martin was hostess to the California Thimble Club September 28, a potluck lunch was followed by sewing. The club will meet October 12 and 26 at the homes of members.

October 19, Long Beach will initiate a large class of candidates. That same evening the birthdays of members born in October will be recognized. The social committee for the occasion includes Ruth Johnson, chairman, Elizabeth Campbell, Muriel Reid and Anne Fischer.—R.J.

OLDTIMER HONORED.

Glendale—Glendale No. 264 and Santa Monica Bay No. 267 Parlors N.S.G.W. met jointly here September 19 and initiated a class of candidates. A team from Santa Monica Bay, headed by President Albert M. Seaman, exemplified the ritual. District Deputy Clarence S. Hunt was also a visitor.

The feature of the evening was the tribute paid Walter E. Kent, a member of the Order since 1881, and a charter member of Glendale, organized in 1925. He is a native of San Francisco, aged 85. He was introduced by President Arthur M. Corona of Glendale, and gave an interesting talk on the founding of the Order.

BIG NIGHT PROMISED.

Santa Monica—The booster committee of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. will stage a show deluxe the night of Friday, October 20. All members of the Order are invited, and a big night is promised. October 24 the Parlor will initiate a class of candidates. Lee Conger will be the chairman of the evening, and District Deputy Dewey Richards will be a visitor.

THE DEATH RECORD.

James Hillsey Dodson Sr., father of Mrs. Florence Dodson-Schoneman (Rudecinda ND), died September 2 at Los Angeles. He was born on Rancho San Pedro, Los Angeles County, February 28, 1861. He was a member of the Los Angeles and the San Bernardino Pioneer Societies.

Mrs. Maria Piuma, mother of Mrs. Rose Segale (Verdugo ND), died September 2 at Glendale. She was a native of Italy, and came to Los Angeles in 1887.

Bert A. Smith, father of Walter E. Smith (Grand Trustee NS), died September 23 at Wilmington. He was a native of West Virginia, aged 60.

Austin E. Elliott, husband of Mrs. Jennie G. Elliott (Los Angeles ND), died September 25. He was a native of Texas, aged 74.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Marguerite Lagomarsino (Los Angeles ND) was wedded August 31 to Ronald Cogswell.

Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz (Santa Monica Bay NS) was a San Francisco visitor last month.

Michael Charles Botello arrived August 28 at the home of Michael Botello (Los Angeles NS) and wife.

Louise Crawford (Los Angeles ND) spent the summer at Big Bear, in the San Bernardino Mountains.

Mrs. Harold Palethorpe (Californiana ND) has been made resident hostess at the Casa Adobe of the Southwest Museum.

Mrs. A. B. Fages (Californiana ND) and husband spent the Labor Day holiday at Lompoc, and enjoyed restoration day at La Purisima Mission.

The Misses Lizzie and Nellie Weston (both Californiana ND) spent their vacation at San Francisco, attending the Golden Gate International Exposition.

Evelyn Arlen (Los Angeles ND) and husband spent their vacation motoring in the north, visiting San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, and Vancouver, B. C.

Elsie Ruiz, Juliette DeNublia and Elsie Amidon (all Los Angeles ND) vacationed, respectively, in Alaska, Yellowstone Park and Santa Clara County.

Miss Grace S. Stoermer (Past Grand ND) attended the seventeenth annual convention of the Association of American Bank Women at Seattle, Washington State, last month.

DO IT TODAY

(LORENZO W. SMELLEDGE.)

If you've anything good to say of a man,
Don't wait till he's laid to rest,
For the eulogy spoken when hearts are broken
Is an empty thing at best.

Ah! the blighted flower now drooping lonely
Would perfume the mountain side,
If the sun's glad ray had but shone today
And the pretty bud espied.

If you've any alms to give to the poor,
Don't wait till you hear the cry
Of wan distress in this wilderness,
Lest the one forsaken die.

Oh, harken to poverty's sad lament!
Be swift her wants to allay;
Don't spurn God's poor from the favored door,
As you hope for mercy one day.

Don't wait for another to bear the burden
Of sorrow's irksome load;
Let your heart extend to a stricken friend
As he totters down life's road.

And if you've anything good to say of a man,
Don't wait till he's laid to rest,
For the eulogy spoken when hearts are broken
Is an empty thing at best.

THAT UTAH'S MORMONS MUST RELINquish their claim to the honor of inventing modern irrigation is the opinion of Martin R. Huberty, associate professor of irrigation investigations and practice on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California. Although the Mormons did use the waters of City Creek as early as 1847 to grow potatoes in what is now the business section of Salt Lake City, Professor Huberty points out that Californians were watering their crops by use of irrigation ditches before that.

The padres who developed San Diego Mission about 1776 built a masonry dam in the canyon of the San Diego River and led water down the rim of the valley about six miles to the lands under cultivation, and even before that time they had erected a rock dam farther down the canyon in an attempt to divert water directly into the valley.

The records of the Mill Creek ditch at Redlands, San Bernardino County, indicate that it was laid out at the time of the extension of San Gabriel Mission there. This ditch has been in continuous use ever since and, as far as is known, has never been relocated. Another California pre-Mormon irrigation system was that developed by B. D. Wilson for his tract in what is now West Riverside. He constructed the Agua Mansa ditch there shortly after 1840.

"OPEN HOUSE" FOR HARBOR HOST DAYS.

San Pedro—During the Harbor Host Days celebration September 2, 3 and 4, Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. held "open house" for out-of-town members of the Order. Miss Jean Kreider, youngest member of the Parlor, was sponsored for queen, but having lost, won a place as lady-in-waiting, with a cash prize of $25. Civic Chairman Dessie Buyo was in charge of the affair for the three days.

The Florencita Thimble Club met September 6 and 20; Victoria Adler and Grace Richards were the hostesses. September 14 plans were made for a December card party, with Letitia Sarciaux as the general chairman of arrangements. A handkerchief shower was held for those members having September birthdays.—R.B.

In Memoriam

NINA E. WILLIAMS.

To the Officers and Members of Pinoche A. Hearst Parlor No. 214 N.D.G.W. We, your committee, submit the following resolutions in memoriam to our late Sister Nina E. Williams:

Whereas, Our dear Sister Nina E. Williams has been called from this world to her Heavenly Home, and whereas, we have suffered the loss of our Charter President, and have also lost a willing worker, faithful friend, wise counselor and always loyal Native Daughter, we realize that while her place in our hearts and Parlor can never be filled we must bow to the will of the Almighty God. We realize that our loss is small compared to that of her family. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend to the family our most sincere sympathy, and be it also resolved that copies of these resolutions be sent the husband of our Sister also spread upon the minutes of our Parlor, and sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine.

Sincerely and fraternally yours in P.D.F.A.,

Committee.

Martinez, September 14, 1939.

EDITH WRIGHT HOUSER.

To the Officers and Members of San Diego Parlor No. 238 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed Sister Edith Wright Houser, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, The Golden Chain of our membership has been severed and God, in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to call our beloved Sister Edith Wright Houser to that Grand Parlor beyond; we bow in reverent submission to the will of the Almighty Father, and whereas, by her passing her family has been deprived of a devoted wife and loving mother, and our Parlor a loyal member, therefore be it

Resolved, That San Diego Parlor extend its sincere sympathy to the bereaved husband and family, that a copy of these resolutions be recorded in the minutes, and one sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

SAN FRANCISCO

"THE JAPANESE ARE USING MATERIALS they buy from Uncle Sam to blow us off the Asiatic continent," Julean Arnold, for many years American commercial attache in China, declared in a recent Commonwealth Club of California, San Francisco, address. "Wherever the Japanese army goes the opium pipe and the dope needle invariably follow. The Japanese say they favor the open door, but their definition of an open door is a door one side of which reads 'open to Japan only,' while the other side reads 'out for all except Japanese interests!'

"Other nations are forbidden to send merchant ships up the Yangtse River, but hundreds of Japanese merchant vessels are going up and down the river and trading freely. The sinking of the Panay was purely a trial balloon. The Japanese believed that if they actually sank one of our boats the people of the United States would demand that all American interests get out of China. They guessed wrong! If you followed the Japanese army around China you would feel—after seeing the American tractors, trucks, oil cans, munitions, etc.,—that you were following the United States Army.

"Ninety percent of our trade with the Japanese in the last five years has been war materials, whereas most of our trade with China was railroad, road-building and other constructive—not destructive—materials. The Japanese boast they understand our psychology much better than we understand Japanese psychology—and they are today taking full advantage of this fact. They say we are like the crow who, when the fox praised his voice, was so pleased that he dropped the cheese! Hence, for example, the big and flattering pro-U. S. rallies in Japan after the Panay incident.

"Japanese here are sending back tens of millions of dollars to help the war in China, but Americans in China and Japan, through exchange regulations, cannot get money out of the country. There are many Americans who are hiring themselves out to the Japanese to talk for Japan. We are distributing Japanese propaganda at low postage rates by United States mail, but not one word of American propaganda can be distributed in Japan.

"As to a 'Japanese immigration quota' for the United States, there are already—including Hawaii—280,000 Japanese on United States soil. In refusing an immigration quota to Japan we have simply been trying to protect our own labor standards: to break down which a so-called 'Japanese quota' would have been merely the opening wedge.

"The Japanese war lords, in their belief in 'manifest destiny,' clearly have in mind dominating first all Asia, then all the Pacific, and finally, much of the rest of the world. In time Japan will carry her 'buffer state' theory to the point where she will need the Philippines as one of her puppet states. She gives her puppet states responsibilities without authority. What is going to happen in the Pacific is vastly of more importance to us than what is happening in Europe!"

N.D.G.W.—NEWSY PARAGRAPHS—N.S.G.W.

William Keith, only brother of Past Grand Eliza D. Keith of Alta Parlor No. 3 N.D.G.W., died September 4.

Saturday, September 16, Pacific No. 10 and Stanford No. 76 Parlors N.S.G.W. chartered the luxurious paddle-wheel steamer "Delta Queen" and journeyed up the Sacramento River to the Capital City. The boat was filled to capacity with members of the Parlor, their families and friends, and the trip was a delightful one. From Sacramento the voyageurs were conveyed by bus to Grass Valley, where they were royally received and elaborately entertained by the officers and members of Quartz Parlor No. 58 N.S.G.W. The return trip was made Sunday night. William H. Doidge was chairman of the arrangements committee, and many of the outing details were handled by him; Quartz is "Bill's" home-Parlor.—E.J.S.

Orinda Parlor No. 56 N.D.G.W. had a fine turnout in the Admission Day parade. Upon a lovely float rode fifty members attired in white and gold; in the huge poppy that centered the float sat Haroldene King, daughter of Past President Madeline King. After the parade members and their families enjoyed a delightful luncheon. September 22 the Parlor had a party for members born in September, and each received a gift.—E.F.

South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. initiated sixteen candidates August 30. Grand President Jesse H. Miller delivered an address of welcome.

In Spanish garb, with roses tucked in their hair, Dolores Parlor No. 169 N.D.G.W. members marched Admission Day with the dons of Dolores Parlor No. 208 N.S.G.W. President Thelma Duer has appointed Past Grand Evelyn I. Carlson social chairman, and an elaborate winter program is being arranged. September 28 the drill team of No. 169 was entertained at the home of Nora Castillo; Winifred Gibson and Betty Michie were co-hostesses. Miss Cecelia Quinn of Dolores, accompanied by her father and mother, are motoring to New York to visit the World's Fair.

Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. and Castro Parlor No. 232 N.S.G.W. participated jointly in the Admission Day parade. The Daughters wore beautiful lace dresses in pastel shades, with mantillas, and the Sons appeared in red and white Spanish costumes. The newly-organized drill team of No. 178 made a fine showing in snappy West Point uniforms, and the team also had a floral decorated float. Castro N.D. is now planning to participate in the homeless children benefit ball in November.—B.W.

San Francisco Assembly No. 1 N.S.G.W. Past Presidents has elected the following delegates to the General Assembly that meets in Oroville October 21 and 22: Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Louis J. Peter, Armin Nishkian, Albert J. Schmidt, Raymond Conroy, Ellis Blackman, Roy Brunemann and Raymond O'Neil.

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W., spoke on Admission Day before the Lodi Rotary Club September 7, and the Presidio Junior High School, San Francisco, September 13.

In Memoriam

AGNES DEASY.

To the Officers and Members of Genevieve Parlor No. 132 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of love and respect to the memory of our departed Sister Agnes Deasy, submit the following:

Whereas, Another faithful member and devoted friend, Sister Agnes Deasy, has been called to the Home of our Heavenly Father, and those of us who knew her long and well will miss her sweet smile and kindly word; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend to her bereaved family our sincere sympathy in the loss of a devoted mother; and be it further resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Parlor, that a copy be sent to the family of our late sister, and a copy sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted in P.D.F.A.,
ELEANOR PEGUILLAN,
HANNAH TOOHIG,
CAROLINE KERWIN,
Committee.

San Francisco, September 12, 1939.

Paradise is to stage the annual Butte County Fair October 11-15.

PAST PRESIDENTS N.D. VISITED.

San Jose—Santa Clara County Past Presidents Association No. 3 N.D.G.W. received an official visit from State President Mattie M. Stein, who was accompanied by State Marshal Alice Roll and State Director Frances Maloney. The occasion also marked the fifteenth anniversary of No. 3. Three candidates were received in membership. Mrs. Clara Briggs was general chairman of the festivities, and Mrs. Adaline Boysen had charge of the decorations. Presentations of gifts and community singing closed a happy evening.—C.G.

BOOK REVIEWS

CLARENCE M. HUNT

"TAKE YOUR BIBLE IN ONE HAND."
By Dr. George R. Stewart; The Colt Press, San Francisco, Publisher; Price, $3.00.

This book briefs the career of a little-heard-of Pioneer among the Pioneers, William Henry Thomes, who paid five visits to California, the first in 1843. He was the author of "On Land and Sea," "The Reminiscences of a Gold Hunter," and numerous other works. His adventure tales, relating some of his actual experiences but mingling much fiction with fact, were the best sellers of his time.

"In the course of preparing a brief article upon Thomes for the 'Dictionary of American Biography'," says Dr. Stewart, associate professor of English at the University of California and author of "Ordeal by Hunger," "East of the Giants," etc., "I collected with considerable labor so much material upon an interesting character that I was loath to see it all disappear. The present sketch is the result."

Thomes was born at Portland, Maine, May 5, 1824. At the age of 18, he left Boston, Massachusetts, as a common seaman aboard the Admittance, a "hide-drogher" which dropped anchor in Monterey Bay March 3, 1843. He paid several visits to Monterey, Santa Cruz, San Francisco, San Luis Obispo, Refugio, Santa Barbara, San Pedro and San Diego. The Admittance departed from San Diego for its home-port January 25, 1846, but Thomes was not aboard, he having deserted just before the sailing. He remained here during most of 1846, witnessing some of the historic events and meeting some of the important personages of that eventful year in California's history.

Thomes' next visit to California was in 1849, as one of a company of gold-seekers, the California Joint Stock Mining and Trading Company, organized in Boston by a hundred and fifty adventurers. Each was presented with a Bible and admonished to "Take your Bible in one hand, and your great New England civilization in the other, and always remember that you are Christians, and carry light into darkness." The company purchased and outfitted the ship Edward Everett, which sailed from Boston in January 1849 and arrived in San Francisco Bay July 6, 1849. On this occasion, Thomes remained until 1851.

Thomes' third visit was in 1885, when he was commissioned to prepare a series of California articles for the Boston Globe, and became a great "booster" of the state. The following year, 1886, he came again, as a pleasure-seeker. At Boston in 1888 he organized the Society of California Pioneers of New England, with two hundred members, and in 1890 promoted "the grand excursion to California" for members of the society. April 10, 1890, " a vestibule train, the heaviest and longest that ever crossed the continent," left Boston with President William Henry Thomes in charge. The excursionists returned May 17 to Boston, and there this California Pioneer died March 6, 1895.

"Take Your Bible in One Hand" is exceptionally interesting and should be read by all who are interested in California history and history-makers. Thomes, concludes Dr. Stewart, deserves "a small niche in the memory of Californians as one of the first to feel the charm of their state and to be drawn toward it so many times and under so many different circumstances." Typographically, the book is most attractive.

"CALIFORNIA: THE STORY OF OUR SOUTHWEST CORNER."
By Grace S. Dawson; The Macmillan Company, New York, Publisher; Price, $2.00.

"Most of the stories of our country begin with the east coast," quoting from the foreword. "This was the front gate of America . . . . the back yard of America stretched away for thousands of miles to the shore of the Pacific Ocean, an unknown shore of an unknown ocean . . . . The United States awoke to the value of this western coast, and claimed it for her own. Then swift changes came to California, the back yard of America . . . . The back yard became as important as the front yard . . . . This is a story of our country which does not begin at the front gate. It begins in the Southwest Corner."

"What was once the wilderness back yard of America has become a busy and fortunate place," says Author Dawson. "And California with her three great ports has come to be another front gate through which America faces the world."

"California: The Story of Our Southwest Corner" tells in simple language the history of the Golden State from before the coming of the White man to the present. While designed for the enlightenment and the entertainment of young Americans eight to twelve years of age, older folks, too, will profit from its reading. The volume is liberally illustrated with drawings by Loren Barton.

SAN BERNARDINO

CITY AND COUNTY — THE GATE WAY TO GOLDEN CALIFORNIA

BARSTOW (SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY)

Under the auspices of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. of San Bernardino, the new Barstow City Hall was dedicated the afternoon of September 23 in the presence of some 1,000 people. Officiating at the dedicatory ceremonies were Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, who presided, Judge Donald E. VanLuven, Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, District Deputy James A. Olivas and Past Grand President Herman C. Lichtenberger.

H. George Cunningham of Arrowhead Parlor was the chairman of the day, and the program included: Flag raising, American Legion and Veterans Foreign Wars; invocation, Rev. Thomas L. Dyer; welcome address, Judge Lubin J. Henderson; introduction distinguished guests, Judge Donald E. VanLuven; dedicatory address, Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer; acceptance building, Chief Eugene L. White of Barstow Fire Department; presentation of California State (Bear) Flag, President Leon Gregory of Arrowhead Parlor. Concluding this program, Alice Salisbury, for the Barstow Woman's Club, presented a signboard telling in picture and in prose the local history of the Mojave Empire. Supervisor A. L. Doran accepted the historical sign, which was described by Mrs. C. C. McClellan, president of the club. Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards thanked the womenfolks for their interest in the early history of California.

Early in the evening Arrowhead Parlor served a buffet supper under the supervision of John Andreson Jr. and J. W. Jasper. A meeting of the Parlor followed, and a ritual team headed by President Gregory initiated twenty-six candidates for No. 110. Brief talks were made by Past Grand Presidents Lichtenberger and Meyer, and Grand Trustee Richards. Among the other visitors were Recording Secretary Willard F. Allen and Chas. Castillo of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45; Hervey L. Kitchin of Ramona Parlor No. 109, Los Angeles; M. U. Rosenthal of Hollywood Parlor No. 196; Recording Secretary Harry Fairall and Mat B. Soares of Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263, San Pedro.

PRESIDENT SHOWERED.

San Bernardino—Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. had its first meeting of the new term at the home of Eva Bemis, and plans for the year were discussed. The occasion being the birthday anniversary of President Hazel Poole, a surprise handkerchief shower was arranged for in her honor.

Special guests included Deputy Marguerite Mize and several members of Santa Ana Parlor No. 235. Mrs. Isabel Dobbs Tuffs, a member of Lugonia residing in Los Angeles, was in attendance and gave an enlightening talk on the homeless children. Light refreshments were served by Rena Churchill and committee.—M.B.

PAST PRESIDENTS N.S. MEET.

Ocean Park—Arrowhead Assembly No. 14 Past Presidents Association N.S.G.W. met here September 29 with Governor Harold G. Lord presiding. A dinner preceded the gathering, which was followed by a sociable with entertainment.

Delegates to the General Assembly which meets October 21 at Oroville were elected. Arrowhead Assembly will at that meeting ask that San Bernardino be named as the General Assembly's 1940 meetingplace. In charge of ar-mont No. 120, September 7, drew the usual big crowd. A splendid dinner was followed by enthusiastic talks and a special entertainment program.

Centerville—Officers of Washington No. 169 and Betsy Ross No. 238 N.D. were installed at public ceremonies. Deputies John Prieco and Bernice Arbini officiated, and Albert Silveria and Lucille Correa became the respective presidents. Dancing and refreshments followed the ceremonies.

No applications, no new members to fill the ranks. And California needs more Native Sons! Today's responsibility of every member of the Order is to contact eligibles. Don't leave this important duty for "George" to perform.

Bieber—Big Valley No. 211 and Mount Lassen No. 215 N.D. have had prepared bronze plaques to indicate two of Lassen County's historic sites. One, to be placed at Bieber, is inscribed: "Theodore Pleish erected the first house in Bieber about the year 1871. Dedicated to the memory of the early settlers of Big Valley." The other tablet, to be set up on the slope of Big Valley Mountain, reads: "In memory of an unknown soldier who was buried about 1870 on this the old military road which ran between Fort Bidwell in Modoc County and Fort Crook in Shasta County."

Oakland—Fruitvale No. 252 has entered two teams in the fall softball league. Miller Markey is manager of the first team, and Jimmy Lomba is manager of the second team.

TRAILS OF SUMMER

(CHARLES H. GREENFIELD.)

When Summer smiles upon the land
As now it gleams anew,
Fond hopes are ever near at hand
To bid drear thoughts adieu.

The mellow fields are beckoning
Through mist of Summer gold
And man once more is harvesting
Their riches manifold.

A-down the trails that lead afar
Through vales of ripening grain,
True happiness the gates unbar
To life's unstinted gain.

Tho' Spring her beauty has revealed
And Fall her colors blaze,
'Tis Summer with her golden yield
That all the world does praise.

—St. Helena Star.

SANTA BARBARA

SANTA BARBARA—SANTA BARBARA Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. observed Admission Day, September 9, by entertaining Santa Barbara County oldtimers of the American period of California's history in the Woman's Club at Rockwood. The guests, many in number, were not only from Santa Barbara City, but also from Carpinteria, Summerland, Goleta, Lompoc and Santa Maria. Paul Sweetser and Mrs. R. V. Phelan were co-chairmen of the successful affair.

The address of welcome was delivered by Sweetser, who said, in part: "We are proud of the heritage California has from the two great civilizations that mingled here to make a glorious commonwealth. First came the Spaniards to plant the seeds of Castilian culture. Then, in the '40s, '50s and '60s began the in-movement of Anglo-Saxons and other races from the East, South and Middle West.

"Some urge of unrest brought them to California as a land of promise. They found, indeed, a land of opportunity, richly endowed with natural attributes. These would have been worthless unless seized and developed. Our pioneers were not found wanting. They took what they found and developed it marvelously into the California civilization of which we are so proud. The Sons and the Daughters of the Golden West, as state-wide Orders, welcome you American pioneers. Both our Orders are vitally interested in preserving these traditions, and each Admission Day we take the opportunity of commemorating the birthday of our native state, California."

Refreshments were served under the supervision of Mrs. Eugene Ireland, president of Reina del Mar Parlor, and entertainment was furnished by Miss Jessie Anchordoquy, Mrs. Jean Milne Coyes, Emma Lu Eppel, Larry Butler and Miss Jean Knipper. The names of many oldtimers were added to the pioneer roster being compiled by the Native Daughters.

A MORNING PRAYER

(MARY MARGARET CAIN.)

In all that we may do today,
Whether we work or whether we play,
Help us to hold to that golden line
Which, some way, binds our hearts to Thine.
Help us to do the things we ought,
Omitting joys too dearly bought.
Help us to find some little way
To lift the load for some soul today,
So when the stars come out tonight
We'll see new twinkles in their light.

—The Cambrian.

Petaluma [illegible] a very lovely pal party, [illegible] by [illegible] Chairman Amy Flow [illegible] exchanged by the [illegible] Hickey surprised each [illegible] lightful gift. Deputy Leopolda Vier and Mary Vogt, former deputy, were present. The evening of the secret pal was the [illegible] calling, and the name of [illegible] suing year were drawn. Delicious refreshments were served.—A.B.

Santa Ana "Happy Birthday" was the theme of the September 11 meeting of [illegible] No. 235 honoring members born in August and September. A covered dish dinner was enjoyed at tables daintily decorated with pastel-colored flowers. A handkerchief shower was given President Gladys Edwards. Guests of the evening included Deputy Ruth Roberts, President Hazel Poole, Eva Bonar and sister Mae McKenzie of Lugonia No. 241, San Bernardino.—G.A.R.C.

Placentia Grace No. 242 had a birthday party September 7 for members born in August and September. Deputy Wilma Tucker was among the special guests. The serious illness of Recording Secretary Mary Rothermel in a Los Angeles hospital was announced. Education Chairman Nellie Cline requested members to be ready October 5 to give descriptions of interesting vacation trips. September 21 the Parlor sponsored a card party. Mrs. Nellie M. Cline and husband spent a delightful vacation visiting historic places in the northern part of the state.

Susanville—Susanville No. 243 and Nataqua No. 152, Standish, had their annual pioneer dinner September 3. Several Lassen County oldtimers were guests and had a royal good time. A sumptuous chicken dinner was served. Past Grand Emma Lou Humphrey was also a guest and the principal speaker. Vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. N. H. Holmes, and among others who participated in the day's program were Hardin Barry, Judge Curler, Rev. E. L. Spaulding, Rev. E. N. Dabritz, Deryle French and Ted Corder's cowboys.

Albany Twenty members of Albany No. 260 garbed in pastel-shaded, dotted swiss dresses and picture hats participated in the San Francisco Admission Day parade. A flower-bedecked float held Queen Yvonne Ellis as "Miss Albany" and eight ladies-in-waiting. September 13 President A. Stallone and the other officers initiated a candidate, and plans for a benefit whist party October 6 were formulated. A donation to the City of Albany was made. September 24 a group of members participated in the celebration of Albany Day on Treasure Island.—H.T.

Sebastopol—The rummage sale held by Sebastopol No. 265 was most successful. Mary Evans, Alice Clapp and Alice Gamelia were in charge. Initiation was held September 1 and, under the supervision of Vivian Winton, the hall was beautifully decorated with dahlias of all colors. With Georgetta Cox as chairman, the Parlor will have a bazar in November.—M.E.

Berkeley—Sequoia No. 272, the "baby" Parlor of the Order, made its first public appearance in the San Francisco Admission Day parade, under the guidance of President Edna Williams. Led by two small mascots, Joan Rose and Roy DeSelms, a marching unit of thirty members, gowned in blue and white, preceded an auto, decorated to match the girls' costumes. September 14 the Parlor perfected plans for a pillowcase whist party October 9; Helen Garrison is chairman of arrangements. Deputy Kathleen Dombrink was a visitor.—E.W.

The California State Grange is to hold its annual convention in Chico, Butte County, October 17-21. Tehama, Glenn, Sutter and Butte Counties will be the hosts.

Gilroy, Santa Clara County, is to stage its fourth annual Harvest Festival October 12-14.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

NOTE—Expressions of opinion in these "Growls" are, unless indicated otherwise, those of the Managing Editor,

Clarence M. Hunt

BY FAR THE MOST IMPORTANT QUESTION that has for some time confronted the United States of America is the continuance or the discontinuance of the existing embargo against the sale or the export of implements of war to nations at war. President Franklin D. Roosevelt has convened the Federal Congress in extra session to decide the question.

Unquestionably, a vast majority of the citizenry are opposed to this Nation becoming in any manner involved in the conflict now raging in Europe. But, there are in this country a considerable number of worshipers of "fools' gold," also native and foreign agents and supporters of some of the belligerent nations, who are employing, and will continue to employ, every means at their command to lead or, if necessary, to force the United States into the maelstrom, regardless of the overwhelming sentiment of the people against such a course.

The consensus of opinion is, that the Congress' embargo action will decide the war-course of this Nation, and that the fate of the Nation as a democracy hangs in the balance. Every citizen should, therefore, give the embargo question serious and full consideration, and then make known his views to his representatives in the Federal Congress. Senators and congressmen are influenced in their actions by the expressed opinions and wishes of their constituents.

Personally, the writer is opposed to the proposed repeal of the embargo provision of the 1937 Neutrality Law, or any tinkering therewith at this time. Hearty endorsement and approval are given the views expressed by United States Senators Hiram W. Johnson of California and William E. Borah of Idaho, and many other tried and true full-blooded Americans solely concerned with the preservation of the government and the institutions of the world's only genuine democracy—the United States of America.

Senator Johnson stands for a prohibitory embargo against all nations at war. "The repeal of the embargo will mean that this Nation is one-half in and one-half out of the war," says he. "Economically our country becomes a partisan, and it is but a step from our economic favoritism to enlistment of our manpower. . . . The blood-letting which would inevitably follow, if we heeded those who cry aloud for repeal and great war profits, would bring all the horrors and anguish of war, just as it did twenty years ago."

"If we can succeed as a people," declares Senator Borah, "especially in the midst of conditions such as they now are, in establishing here upon this Western Continent a great natural power, a power standing not for force, not for cruelty and injustice, but for peace, for fair dealing among nations, for reason and justice, we will not only have added honor to our own nation, happiness to our own people, but we will have rendered to all nations and all peoples a service far greater than it will ever be possible for us to render by joining any nation, or nations, in carrying on war."

The State of California is, as was to be expected, having a difficult time raising sufficient cash to meet its obligations, and the probability is that IOUs will soon have to be issued to meet excessive operating expenses and the staggering payroll built up, regardless of the sad plight of the taxpayers, by the political cliques that manipulate the state government.

There must be a reduction of millions in government cost, and it can be brought about if property-owners unite and demand economy and efficiency, as well as a material decrease in personnel. This may be the opportune time for the threatened tax strike—to impress on public officials that the property-owners mean business, and insist that politics be entirely eliminated, thereby reducing government cost!

In a splendid address before the Commonwealth Club of California, San Francisco, September 15, Dr. Walter H. Judd convincingly pointed out that the United States is Japan's partner in Asiatic brutism.

"It comes down to this:" said Dr. Judd "that the Chinese know they could have saved, and they can still save, their country, their homes, and their freedom, if they were against only the Japanese; but they are being driven to the painful realization that it is possible they are not going to be able to save their country against this combination of the Japanese military and the resources of the United States of America!"

That the Japs are permitted to secure munitions of war in this country is a crime against a friendly nation, China, and civilization. The Federal Congress should immediately put a stop to further purchases!

"Life is governed by a greater power than any government or king or president can attain," remarks the United States News editorially. "The sooner we permit ourselves to obey that Leadership [God] the more secure we will make the foundations of democracy itself."

The September 8 number of the Union Democrat of Sonora, Tuolumne County, was considerably enlarged and filled to overflowing with interesting history and other news material. The attractive issue was gotten out in recognition of the paper's eighty-fifth anniversary of continuous publication.

Sonora, according to the Union Democrat, was originally known as "Camp Sonoreno," and was founded by Mexicans in 1849.

Inquiring why the non-church attender should be compelled by law to help support any religious organization, the Sacramento Bee advocates, editorially, the taxing of church property. In justice and fairness to everyone, all property, regardless of its owner or nature, should be equally taxed. The sooner all "exempt from taxation" statutes are repealed, the better for California and its citizens.

Addressing the Santa Barbara County Chamber of Commerce, James A. Mussatti, recognized authority, declared: "The primary purpose of taxation is the raising of revenue. But since 1933 extensive use has been made of the taxing power for the purpose of economic and social control. The re-establishment of confidence in the safety and productivity of business improvements is essential to a restoration of prosperity in this country. This will only happen when we cease using the instrument of taxation for purposes of economic and social control."

Comes now word from Washington of a change, by proclamation of the President of the United States, of the 1939 date for the observance of Thanksgiving Day—from the last Thursday (the 30th) of November to the third Thursday (the 23rd). The assigned reason for the new date: to aid business by lengthening the time for Christmas shopping.

The immortal Abraham Lincoln, while President in 1863, originally proclaimed the last Thursday of November Thanksgiving Day. That date has been similarly proclaimed by every succeeding President, and has always been observed as a national holiday.

Also to aid business, the recognized date for the observance of Christmas Day should likewise be moved forward a notch or so. For, while merchants have had about four weeks following Thanksgiving Day in which to unload their Christmas goods, they have but a week's time following Christmas Day to dispose of their New Year merchandise. Dollars must be given first consideration!

Strikingly different points of view regarding the fitness of the American public to participate in the operation of a workable democracy were brought out in a Berkeley test in which a group of leading psychologists compared views on current problems with 350 sophomore students of the University of California.

Sixty-two percent of the students believed that 30 percent or more of the population is incapable of participation in a thoroughly workable democratic form of government. Sixteen percent of the students made the figure 50 instead of 30 percent. Eleven percent held that three out of every four persons are incapables insofar as helpful and intelligent participation in a democracy is concerned. The psychologists were considerably easier on the public. Eighty percent of them held that only 10 percent of the population is incapable of democratic action.

Sixty percent of the students believed that full realization of social security—more jobs, less unemployment, health insurance, pensions and adequate wages—would decrease the ambition and energy of the employed and their kin. Only 15 percent of the psychologists so held.

In a Moral Rearmament broadcast from San Francisco, Dr. Frank Buchanan said: "We need nation-wide thinking and action. . . . If this thinking had dominated Versailles, we would not now again be in the throes of crisis and twenty years of tragedy would have been averted. The menace of war makes us rethink all our values. Personal and national surrender to God is a world necessity. Civilization is at stake. The future lies with the men and nations who listen to God and obey."

The Dies investigating committee of the Federal Congress says "every medium for the communication of ideas is being employed for the purpose of molding American public opinion in the selfish interests of governments other than our own." Employed in an endeavor to get this country to furnish cannon fodder and dollars to carry on the European war!

The life story of a great California Pioneer, Thomas Oliver Larkin, is being prepared by Dr. Robert J. Parker, history instructor at San Francisco Junior College, from material in the Bancroft Library of the University of California, Berkeley. Although Larkin's importance has long been recognized, the story of his life has, it is said, never been published.

A California businessman working quietly behind the scenes in economic and political affairs, Larkin, perhaps more than any other individual, was instrumental in making California a part of the United States. A Bostonian, he came to California in 1832, entered into business at Monterey, and became a wealthy man in ten years. He was United States Consul at Monterey 1843-48, was made the confidential agent of President Polk in 1846, and in 1847 was appointed United States Naval Agent and Naval Storekeeper.

THE OLD STAGECOACH

Back into history the stagecoach has gone.
The horses are dust
That took the grades north, south, east and west.
The drivers of the perilous trips
Have pulled into camp—
Into the Valley of the Quiet River.
No more passengers to any point,
No whistling arrows, no sudden shots,
No harsh commands for treasure box.
But the long run
To Angel's and Murphy's,
To Yreka and Weaverville,
With six horses and the driver
And a Concord coach,
Has been made.
Driver and passengers have taken the long down grade
Into the hollows of Time.

THIS LAND OF OURS

(CHARLES H. GREENFIELD.)

Let war drums beat and cannon roar
Upon that far and distant shore
Where youth is prey to lust and greed
That tyranny and hatred breed.

Let despots plan their evil schemes,
With human lives build lofty dreams;
The vanquished some day shall arise
And from them strip their frail disguise.

Till then, let not this land of ours
Be swayed by pleas of other powers,
And send our youth again abroad
To die beneath a tyrant's sword.
